

Table with columns for advertising rates: Single Copy, 5 Cents; 10 Copies, 45 Cents; 100 Copies, $4.00; 1000 Copies, $35.00.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE

Japan Tea, common, 45c; Extra C Sugar, (nearly white), 10c; Nice Brown Sugar, 9c; Splendid Syrup, 80c; Good Fine Cut Tobacco, 25c.

FANCY AND STAPLE GROCERIES.

S. & W. W. SMITH'S. Sole agents for Compressed Yeast, Trumpet Roll Plug Tobacco, the best goods in the market.

CLOTHING.

We Have the Largest and Best Selected Stock of BOOTS & SHOES, HATS AND CAPS, CLOTHING, AND FURNISHING GOODS.

FURNISHING GOODS.

SPENCER & BARNES, FURNITURE. Manufacturers of all kinds of fine furniture.

J. VAN RIPER, Attorney and Counselor at Law, and Solicitor in Chancery.

All Work Fully Warranted. Planning, Matching & Job Work Done With Dispatch.

WOODLAND HOUSE, Three Oaks. Good and comfortable, with all the modern improvements.

Business Directory.

A. F. WHITE, Druggist and Apothecary. B. B. PETTIT, M. D., Homeopathic Physician.

Metals and Casket Coffins.

J. F. HAHN. Metals and Casket Coffins, made to order.

DR. J. D. SEELY, Electroic and Magnetic Physician. Treats all kinds of nervous and chronic diseases.

DR. J. D. SEELY, Electroic and Magnetic Physician. Treats all kinds of nervous and chronic diseases.

L. P. ALEXANDER, Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, Insurance & Collection Agency.

Poetry.

THE SKIPPER'S STORY OF THREE SAINTS. They sat on the steps of the station, And waited for trains to connect—

STORY.

LOVE VS. PRIDE. BY ALPHA. The great brown eyes flashed haughtily at their own reflection in the mirror.

ner, made her a general favorite. To-night she had a smile for every one; and it was rather bitter when she saw Harry with the reigning belle of the evening on his arm.

When she received the note she had thought it was his farewell, but it was only a note from Captain Charlie Young, asking her to ride with him that evening.

when they parted and whispered, with a good-bye kiss, "We had hoped to have you with us always, darling, but of course you know best."

Impelled by the earnestness of his tone, Laurie raised her eyes to his and said, "I am not angry with you, Harry, but I am disappointed."

he consoled; but then rumor says of many things that one can't tell. Love vs. Pride, dear reader, which gained the case?

Not His Horse. The latest Detroit Free Press story of a raw-boned, spavined, knock-kneed old horse, that limped along smelling of hitching-posts and nibbling at the street car track.

National Courtesy. I like politeness; not slavering servility, not the smug, cringing lip-service of the English waiter or shopkeeper, who will curse you to the county court five minutes after he has been licking your shoestrings.

Soft Breakfast Waffles. One quart of milk, one pound of flour, half pound of butter, five well-beaten eggs, two large spoonfuls yeast. Raise over night, bake in the morning.

Farm and Household. I believe one of our greatest mistakes in farm business is made in our undue haste when sowing and cultivating our crops.

Reverse Rolls. Rub in two quarts of flour, one large spoonful of butter; make a hole in the flour and pour in pint of boiled milk.

Berrien Co. Record. JOHN G. HOLMES, Editor. THURSDAY MORNING, AUG. 10, 1876. OUR TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT, RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, OF OHIO. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. WHEELER, OF NEW YORK.

At Large - WILLIAM A. HOWARD, of Kent; HELEN W. LEON, of Oakland, District. I - WILLIAM DORRIS, of Wayne; II - GEORGE B. KINGS, of Calhoun; III - PASTOR MERRILL, of Calhoun; IV - DELOS PHILLIPS, of Kalamazoo; V - JACOB DEY, of Ottawa; VI - CHARLES KIPP, of Clinton; VII - JEREMIAH JONES, of Huron; VIII - BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Saginaw; IX - WILLIAM DEWELL, of Montcalm.

THE CONVENTION. The State Republican Convention met at Lansing, Thursday, August 3d, and nominated a ticket that will insure success to the party in November next. The candidates are all well known throughout the State to be efficient and true workers in the public service and such as command the respect of the people.

Mr. Croswell, of Adrian, for Governor, is the first Governor since Dingham, who was nominated by acclamation for his first term. He has been a resident of the State since 1855, been conspicuously known in connection with the management of its official affairs, and has in no case failed to perform his duties well and acceptably.

Mr. Sessions, for Lieutenant Governor, resides in Ionia, and is sixty-six years of age. He has served in the State Legislature three terms with credit; was also an old pioneer and a tiller of the soil. His name is known greatly to the strength of the ticket. The candidates for Secretary of State, E. D. G. Holden; for Treasurer, Col. McCreery; and for Auditor General, Ralph Ely, were renominated by acclamation. They were elected for two years by 10,000 majority, which will be raised to 80,000 this year.

This history of the party appeals to the patriotism of to-day. With a treasury exhausted and bankrupt in 1861, it created unlimited financial credit. With eleven States defying the national authority and a gigantic rebellion inaugurated, it boldly met the crisis with a patriotism and unselfishness unequalled in history. With the rebellion closed and the Union saved, it amazed the world by its masterly management of its disbanded armies and in the exhibition of an unheard-of amnesty. It gave to a race liberty and citizenship. The magnitude of the national debt it has reduced in nine years nearly one-fourth. It has steadily lessened the burdens of taxation. Its record is its character, and it proudly points to it as a sure guarantee of its future fidelity to its trusts.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION. The Republican Convention to nominate a candidate for Representative to Congress from this district, met at Peak Hall, in Niles, August 8th. Wm. Chamberlain was appointed temporary chairman and J. P. Thresher temporary secretary.

As committee on resolutions the chair appointed G. W. Lawton, of Van Buren; J. C. Cradock, of Cass; Dr. E. J. Bond, of Berrien; J. B. Clapp, of St. Joseph; and H. C. Briggs, of Kalamazoo.

Mr. Sessions, for Lieutenant Governor, resides in Ionia, and is sixty-six years of age. He has served in the State Legislature three terms with credit; was also an old pioneer and a tiller of the soil. His name is known greatly to the strength of the ticket.

W. F. Stoney has suspended publication of the Chicago Evening Telegraph for the want of necessary support. The last number was issued Saturday, Aug. 5th.

Gen. Tuttle, of Iowa, Gives his Reasons for Leaving the Democratic Party. His Speech Before the Hayes and Wheeler Club in Des Moines.

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Hayes and Wheeler Party: When I concluded to change my party I thought I might be allowed to do so quietly. It was a private act, and required no public announcement, and there was no man whom I was obliged to account for such an action. But, as my course has been so assailed, and I have been called so severely to account, I may as well embrace this opportunity to tell both my Democratic and Republican friends why I have left the Democracy, and why I am here to-night. The act of my change was a private one, but my reasons for so doing were public ones, and may be told and shall be. [Cheers.] I am no speaker, and make no pretensions of being. But I can talk to you as neighbors. I have been considered doubtful by many Democrats for nearly two years. [Laughter.] Indeed I never have been a Democrat in the issues on which they are fighting this year are the principles of the party. [Great applause.] But nearly two years ago the course of duty developed much more plainly than it ever had before. What I had seen before that was wrong, I had continued to hope would be found to be mistakes that would be mended.

Mr. Sessions, for Lieutenant Governor, resides in Ionia, and is sixty-six years of age. He has served in the State Legislature three terms with credit; was also an old pioneer and a tiller of the soil. His name is known greatly to the strength of the ticket.

W. F. Stoney has suspended publication of the Chicago Evening Telegraph for the want of necessary support. The last number was issued Saturday, Aug. 5th.

Constitution was not caused, as has been charged by the press of the party, because of the currency or tariff question. I have no objection to those planks in the St. Louis platform. But my reasons are as I have already indicated, and I will state further.

The Democrats who press me for my reasons may know them. On the road the other day I met an old Democratic friend—one of the Van Buren county Democrats who Dave Steward, in his career in the paper the other day, said never had any faith in my Democracy after I went into the War. [Applause.] Quite excitedly he wanted to know if it was true, the report that I had left the Democracy party. I answered, "It is a fact." He asked the reasons for it. I told him they were quite plenty and sufficient, and as we had plenty of time, I would tell him some of them. Something of what I had already stated here was first said, then I said that the first thing that I didn't like in the Democratic House was the appointment of Fitz Hugh, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Confederate Congress, as Door-keeper of the House, and the displacement of Union soldiers—many of them crippled in the War—with the ex-members of the Rebel Army. [Great applause.] He wanted to know if they didn't have a right to do this. I answered that they had, but that I had a right to disapprove and denounce it. Another thing I didn't like was Ben Hill's Rebel speech and its bold utterances of treason, and I didn't like the Rebel yell all over the South in response to it, for I had heard that yell before and knew what it meant. [Great cheers.] They told me—the Democrats—that I am "scared of Ben Hill." I don't think I am; I don't think that I am "scared of any of the Hills whom I met in the South; I don't remember that I ever was gathered in the secessionist Secession elements, was hooted at, and decided, and told with sneers, "Yes, you'll go South, and you will come back, as the Union soldiers have just come back from Bull Run, with your tails tucked." But as I remembered it, none of our troops from Iowa ever came back in that shape. [Laughter and applause.] That was the feeling in 1861; and this feeling I found there again, in the same spirit and in the same places, re-expressed by the very same men, when I was there in 1874. It was then I heard the news that the Democrats had elected a majority of the National House; and I saw the fellows who swarmed about the theatres, talking treason, and deriding "Union soldiers in 1861, were exultant and delicious with joy this last time. I remarked to a gentleman, who had been a comrade with me in the War, "This looks like the same set of fellows who were spouting treason here at the beginning of the War. What is it that is exciting them so, and what ails them?" We asked a squad of them what it was that "made them feel so good?" I heard one of them say, "We have got them this time. We can beat them this time." We asked who they meant by "them." They replied, "We'll elect the next President, and then we've got them. Then we'll get pay for all our property destroyed in the war, and then we'll get pay for our lost slaves. We have the House overwhelmingly now, and in 1876, the Centennial year, we can get the Senate and Democratic President. Then we can appoint our own Southern Claims Commission, and make good our losses by the War." They meant that they could get pay for all the property destroyed by the Union army, and pay for all their emancipated slaves.

Mr. Sessions, for Lieutenant Governor, resides in Ionia, and is sixty-six years of age. He has served in the State Legislature three terms with credit; was also an old pioneer and a tiller of the soil. His name is known greatly to the strength of the ticket.

W. F. Stoney has suspended publication of the Chicago Evening Telegraph for the want of necessary support. The last number was issued Saturday, Aug. 5th.

W. F. Stoney has suspended publication of the Chicago Evening Telegraph for the want of necessary support. The last number was issued Saturday, Aug. 5th.

ing proved again what the Democratic House had already proved that the old Rebel element is running the Democratic party, and that its whole hope of success is staking on their said support. They were all there at St. Louis, and were the lions of the day, especially honored and cheered by the Convention, and honored and lionized by the same gangs of Rebels who were spouting treason, and abusing soldiers there in 1861, as we were going to the front, and were taking the same reason, when I was there two years ago. [Applause.] Why is it that the nomination of Tilden has so revived and inspired the old Rebel element? Why so much more than the candidacy of Greeley four years ago, when there was some hope of a new party, and the death for good of the old Democracy? You can answer as well as I can. It looks like they know their man. [Applause.] The alarming demonstrations daily developing in the South would look like it. I see that the Leader interviewed my old friend, Peter Myers, now living in Missouri, to-day, and that Peter says that the stories of raising the Rebel flag in Missouri are untrue. I hope they are. But the reports seem to be well authenticated, and I fear some of them are true. For the people to do these things would be bad, but not so bad, we must remember, as was the Rebel speech of Ben Hill in Congress, so heartily cheered by his Democratic colleagues, and so wildly applauded at the South. That speech let me refer to again a moment. The Democrats and Democratic press now say they do not indorse this speech. But they cheered it when it was made in the House, and the South cheered it, and their denunciation of it now is not so much denunciation of the spirit of it as its imprudence in making it.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

Stand From Under! THINGS ARE TUMBLING! Keep your eyes wide open, as well as your ears, for you will see or hear something drop. Selling Good Muslin, both in Bleached and Unbleached, from 6 to 10 cts. a yard. ALL DRY GOODS At Reduced Prices. Wall Paper, Cheaper than anybody. White Blanks from 12 1/2 to 15 cents a roll. Satin at 92 cents. Brown Backs from 8 to 10 cents. All trimmed for use. CARPETS, As Cheap as the Cheapest. We Are Not Selling Off at Cost, but Are Selling at a Very Small Profit. COME IN AND SEE. REDDEN & GRAHAM.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

DR. JAMES Lock Hospital. An extensive fire occurred on Tuesday last in the wood-piles at Chester station on the Grand Rapids Division of the Michigan Central Railroad. An eye-witness says that the fire extended over 50 feet on each side of the track, the wood being piled about eight feet high and four tiers deep, and hundreds of cords must have been destroyed. The flames were finally checked by tearing out the piles ahead and heaping dirt on the burning mass, thus forming an immense cockpit. The rails were bent and twisted by excessive heat, and trains were delayed about seven hours. The fire probably originated from sparks from a locomotive.

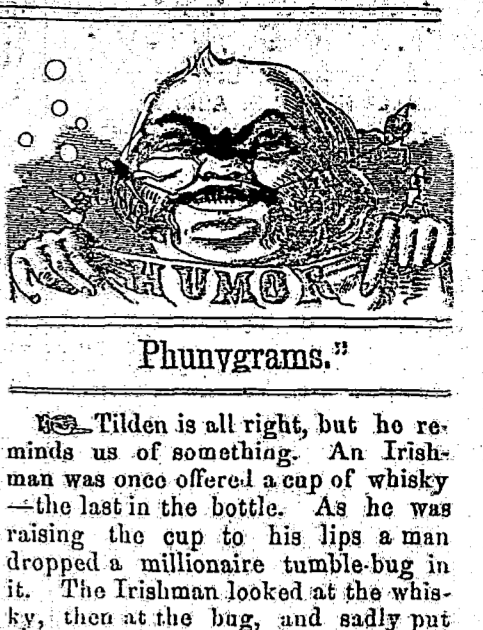

Sunday Reading. A mystery that none can unravel; A bubble with we go on and marvel...

MORTGAGE SALE. DEBENTURE having been made in the payment of a certain sum of money...

CALIFORNIA. OUR NAMES AND MOTTO. STOP A LEEDLE. It is Petter You Look Leedle Out.

SMITH & SON. You get your goods and you don't get no blame to trade to go.

THE NEW DOMESTIC. A DOUBLE THREAD LOCK-STITCH MACHINE.

Be Patient. Be patient with your friends. They are neither omniscient nor omnipotent.

Notice of Attachment. STATE OF MICHIGAN, the Circuit Court for the County of Berrien.

Remember the place—53 Front Street, Buchanan, Mich. THE ENEMY OF DISEASE! THE Foe OF PAIN TO MAN AND BEAST!

BILL VON VARE. Chicago Cured Hams, Chicago Cured Dried Beef, Gilt Edge Butter, &c.

DOMESTIC SEWING MACHINE CO., New York and Chicago. LADIES USE "DOMESTIC" PAPER FASHIONS.

Phunigrams. Tilden is all right, but he reminds us of something. An Irishman was once offered a cup of whisky.

Be patient with your pains and cares. We know it is easy to say and hard to do.

MORTGAGE SALE. DEBENTURE having been made in the payment of a certain sum of money...

AYER'S Sarsaparilla. It is widely known as one of the most effective remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system.

BUCHANAN FLOURING MILLS. ROUGH & PEARS PROPRIETORS. Cash Paid for Wheat, Corn, &c.

Dr. V. Clarence Price HAS VISITED NILES FIFTEEN YEARS. CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE THROAT, LUNGS, HEART, STOMACH, LIVER.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY. An enlightening paper, containing forty columns of first-class reading matter.

Be patient with yourself. You are full of faults, and your life abounds in plunders.

PROBATE ORDER—State of Michigan, County of Berrien. In and for the County of Berrien, holden at the Probate Office.

THE VIBRATOR. WITHOUT ONE FAILURE OR REJECTION. This is the famous threshing machine that has swept the world.

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., Practical and Analytical Chemists. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

STREET & SMITH'S PUBLICATIONS. THE NEW YORK WEEKLY. An enlightening paper, containing forty columns of first-class reading matter.

THE EDITOR OF THE SHREVE (Ky.) Republican sends forth this poem: Hurrah for the Centennial Fourth!

Wise Saying. All mankind are students. How to live and how to die form the great lesson still.

MORTGAGE SALE. DEBENTURE having been made in the payment of a certain sum of money...

BOOKS AND STATIONERY. JANSSEN, McCLURG & CO. BOOK SELLERS AND STATIONERS, 117 & 119 State St., Chicago.

THE RAVEN PIANO. ESTABLISHED 1845. Waterrooms, 28 E. 14th St., New York.

THE NEW PLAN WORKS WELL. The old arrangement of charging high prices, and then making a large discount...

When a brick breeze is blowing about the coast-tails of predestinators, it is rarely a man has sufficient nerve to preserve an unconcerned air.

Never disregard that your enemies say. They may be severe, they may be prejudiced; they may be determined to see only in one direction.

PROBATE ORDER—State of Michigan, County of Berrien. In and for the County of Berrien, holden at the Probate Office.

FOUNDRY. He says that he is too busy to advertise his "White Iron" Plows and Points.

Dr. L. L. CARMER, Dentist. The perfecting of the profession, Mich., in 1876.

PENSIONS. To whom Pensions are PAID. EVERY SOLDIER and discharge of every soldier...

THE LADIES OF 1776 wore pin-faces, while those of 1876 were pin-faced behind.

No friends have a perfect suitability to each other, and roughness and inequalities are the nearest we are to most troubles.

PROBATE ORDER—State of Michigan, County of Berrien. In and for the County of Berrien, holden at the Probate Office.

Madison Dispensary, 52 W. Madison St., Chicago. DR. C. BIGELOW.

MISS MARY ARTHUR. Head of the Bank, where she intends to keep her money.

MONEY TO LOAN. THE HAVEN $100 PIANO. SEND FOR CIRCULAR.

THEY were talking of a death when one man asked: "What were his last words?"