Immediately on the cessation of hostilities the then noble President, who had carried the country so far through its perils, fell a martyr to his patriotism at the hands of an assassin. The intervening time to my first inauguration was filled up with wrangling between Congress and the new Executive as to the best mode of reconstruction. Or, to speak plainly, as to whether the control of the government should be thrown immediately into the hands of those who had so recently and persistently tried to destroy it, or whether the victors should continue to have an equal voice with them in this control. Reconstruction, as finally agreed upon, means this, and only this, except that the late

THE FRONTIER QUESTIONS WITH MEX-ICO.

The commotions which have been prevalent in Mexico for some time past, which unhappily seem to be not yet wholly quieted, have led to complaints of citizens of the United States of injuries by persons in authority. It is hoped, however, that these will ultimately be adjusted to the satisfaction of both the governments. The frontier of the United States in that quarter has not been exempt from acts of violence, either by citizens of one republic or those of the other. The frequency of these acts I suppos ed to be increased, and their adjustment made more difficult, by the considerable changes in the course of the lower part of the Rio Grande River. which river is a part of the boundary between the two countries. These changes have placed on either side of that river portions of land which, by existing conventions, belong to the jurisdiction of the government on the opposite side of the river. The subject of the adjustment of this cause of difficulty is under consideration between the two republics. COLOMBIA HAS PAID THE INDEMNITY.

the acquisition of citizenship beyond earnest attention of Congress to the necessity and wisdom of some provi-

against the frauds which frequently take place, and for the vacating of a record of naturalization obtained in fraud. These provisions are needed in aid and for the protection of the citzens of foreign birth, and for the want of which he is made to suffer not unfrequently. The United States has insisted upon the right of expatriation, and has obtained, after a long struggle and admission of the principle contended for, by acquiescense therein on the part of many foreign powers, and by the conclusion of treaties on that subject. It is. however, but justice to the Government to which such nationalized citizens have formerly owned allegiance, as well as to the United States, that certain fixed and definite rules should be adopted governing such cases, and providing how expatriation may be accomplished. While emigrants in large numbers became citizens of the United States, it is also true that persons both native-born and naturalized, once citizens of the United States, either by formal acts or as the effect of a series of facts and circumstances, abandon their citizenship and cease to be entitled to the protection of the United States, but continue on convenient occasion to assert a claim to protection. In the absence of provisions on these questions, and in this connection, I again invite your attention to the necessity of legislation concerning the MARRIAGES OF AMERICAN CITIZENS,

CONTRACTED ABROAD, and concerning the status of Ameri-

The delicate and complicated questions continually occurring with reference to naturalization, expatriation, and the status of such persons as I have above referred to, induce me to earnestly direct your attention again to these subjects. CLAIMS OF ALIENS ON THE UNITED STATES. In like manner, I repeat my recommendation that some means be provided for the hearing and determination of the just and subsisting claims of ailens upon the Government of the United States, within a reasonable limitation, and of such as may hereafter arise, while by existing provisions of law the Court of Claims may. in certain cases, be restored to by an alien claimant. HARBOR AND RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.

The appropriation for river and harbor improvements for the current year were $5,015,000. With my approval, the Secretary of War directed that of this amount $2,000,000 should be expended, and no new work should be begun, and none prosecuted which were not of national importance. Subsequently this amount was increased to $2,237,600, and the works are now progressing on this basis. The improvements of the South Pass of the Mississippi river, under James B. Eads and his associates, is progressing favorably. needs of the world require and must sell, therefore, for less than the cost of production, and those which command a profit over cost of production, because there is not an over produc--ion. I call special attention to the need of the department for a new gallery for the reception of the exhibits returned from the Centennial Exposition including the exhibits donated by very many foreign nations, and to the recommendations of the Commissioner of Agriculture generally.

THE INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION held in Philadelphia in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of American Independence has proven a great success, and will no doubt be of enduring advantage to the country. It has shown great progress in the arts, sciences and mechanical skill made in a single century, and demon-strated that we are but a little [behind the older nations in any one branch, while in some we scarcely have a rival. It has served, too, not only to bring people and products of skill and labor from all parts of the world together, but in bringing together peo-ple from all sections of our own country which must prove a great benefit in the information imparted and pride of country engendered.

It has been suggested by scientists interested in and connected with the Smithsonian Institute. in a communication herewith, that the Government exhibit be removed to the Capitol and a suitable building be erected or purchased for its accommodation as a permanent exhibit. I earnestly recommend this, and believing that Con-gress would second this view, I directed all the Government exhibits at the Centennial Exhibition should remain where they are, except such as might be injured by remaining in a building, not intended as a protection in incle-ment weather, or such as might be wanted by the department furnishing them, until the question of permanent exhibition is acted on. Although the moneys appropriated by Congress to enable the participation of the several executive departments in the International Exhibition of 1876, were not sufficient to carry out the undertaking to the full extent at first contemplated, it gives me pleasure to refer to the very efficient and creditable manner in which the boards appointed from these several departments to provide an exhibition on the part of the Government, have discharged their duties with the funds placed at their command. Without a precedent to guide them in the preparation of such a display, the success of their labors was amply attested by the sustained attention which the contents of the Government Building attracted during the period of the exhibition, from both foreign and and native people. I am strongly impressed with the value of the collection made by the Government for the purposes of the exhibition, illustrated as it does the general resources of the country, the statistical and practical evidences if our growth as a nation and the uses of mercantile arts and applications of applied science in administration of the affairs of the Government. Many nations have voluntarily contributed ^btheir exhibits to the United States, to increase the interest in any permanent exhibition that Congress may provide for. For this act of generosity they should receive the thanks of the people, and I respectfully suggest that a resolution of Congress to that effect be adopted.

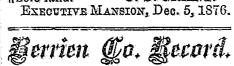

still leave a profit over what would be received by direct shipment. All that is produced in Cuba could be produced in Santo Domingo. Being part of the United States, commerce between the island and the main land would be free. There would be no export duties on those coming here. There would be no import duties upon the supplies, machinery, etc., going from the States. The effect that would have been produced upon Cuban' commerce with these advantages to rival is observable at a glance. The question would have been settled long ago in favor of Free Cuba. Hundreds of American vessels would now be advantageously employed in transporting the valuable woods and other products of the soil of the Island to a market, and in carrying supplies and emigrants to it. The island is but sparsely sottled, while it has an area sufficient for the profitable employment of several millions of people, the soil would have been soon fallen to the hands of the United States Capitalists. The products are so valuable in commerce that emigration there would have been encouraged ; the emancipated race of the South would have found there a congenial home, where their civil rights would not be disputed, and where their labor would be much sought after, and the poorest among them could have found the means to go there. In cases of great oppression and cruelty, such as has been practiced upon them in many places within the last cleven years, whole communities would have sought refuge in Santo Domingo. I do not suppose that the whole race would have gone, nor is it desirable that they should go. Their labor is desirable, indispensable almost, where they now are, but the possession of the territory would have left the negro master of the situation by enabling him to demand his rights at home on pain of sending them elsewhere. I do not present these views now as a recommendation of the subject of annexation, but I refer to it to vindicate my previous action in regard With the present Congress my official life terminates. It is not probable that public affairs will ever again receive attention from me, further than as a citizen of the Republic, always taking a deep interest in the honor, integrity and prosperity of the whole land. U. S. GRANT.

The Electoral Vote in Oregon. Some of the Democratic papers are crowing long and loud over the action of the Governor of Oregon in relation # to the electoral vote of that State, of which the Ohicago Tribune has the following special from Washington : "Sagacious men, looking more carefully at the facts in the Oregon election, soon perceived a fatal flaw in the Democratic case, and claim that it is by no means certain that the returns opened by the President of the Senate will show a vote for Tilden. The Governor of Oregon issued a certificate that Cartwright and Odell, Republicans, and Cronin, Democrat, were the lawful electors. This certificate Cronin put in his pocket. He organized himself as the Electoral College, moved that he fill the two vacancies, put the vote to himself, declared it carried, elected two Repub-licans, and made up a return of one vote for Tilden and two for Hayes, which he will bring on himself to Washington and deliver to the President of the Senate. The two genuine electors met, found a majority of the Electoral College present, filled the one vacancy, cast the vote for Hayes in accordance with the verdict of the people, and made up a legal return in form. The President of the Senate will open both the returns; he will find in the fraudulent one the certificate of the Governor. By this certificate he will learn who are declared to be the electors. He will then refer to the conflicting returns to ascertain which comes from a majority of the electors thus certified to. That return he will present to be counted; the other will be treated as a nullity. There will be no going behind the certificate, for the certificate itself, whenever found, will show which is the genuine return and which the fraudulent one. The circumstance that this certificate comes inclosed in the false return is not important. It is perhaps all the better that it should be so, for it exposes the fraud which it was hoped it would conceal. The truth is, the Democratic fraud is lame and impotent. It accomplishes nothing but to make plain and obvious the aim of the majority of those who originated and those who defend it. Republicans now understand this clearly, and are not at all troubled at this last desperate trick of their opponents.

OUR ELECTORAL SYSTEM.

The attention of Congress cannot be too earnestly called to the neccesity of throwing some greater safeguard over the method of choosing and declaring the election of a President. Under the present system, there seems to be no providing for contesting the election in any one State. The remedy is partially, on doubt, in the enlightenment of the Electors, the compulsory support of the free schools, and the disfranchisement of all who cannot read or write the English language, after a fixed probation, would meet my hearty approval/ I would not make this apply, however, to those already voters, but I would to all becoming so after the expiration of the probation fixed upon. Foreigners coming to the country to become citizens, who are educated in their own language, would acquire the requisite knowledge of ours during the necessary residence to obtain naturalization. If they did not take enough interest in our language to acquire sufficient knowledge of it to enable them to study the institutions and laws of the country, I would not confer upon them the right to make "such laws nor to select these who do. A SYNOPSIS OF ADMINISTRATIVE EVENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS.

I append to this message, for convenient reference, synopsis of admin-istrative events, and of all the recommendations to Congress during the last seven years. Time may show some of these recommendations, not to be wisely received but I believe the larger part will be no discredit to the Administration: One of these recommendations met with the united opposition of one political party in the Senate, and with a strong op position from the other, namely, THE TREATY FOR THE ANNEXATION OF

The Boston Advertiser has this improved method of governing the electoral college system. It suggests a constitutional amendment making it obligatory on the electors to send their certified lists to the chief justice of the United States Supreme Court; that he shall open and count them in the presence of the full court; that the objection of any list shall be filed with specifications by a certain day; that before this august tribunal (ex-cluding, if need be, judges appointed within one or more years), all objections shall be heard, tried and decided by a certain day according to law and without appeal.

A tiller of the soil need not join. the ceaseless howl of "Hard Tines," even though prices are at bed-rock. He need not fold his hands idly and see his property depreciate in value, as is the case with persons of many others vocations, but can improve his soil, increase his fucilities for feeding the immense army of non-producers, thus lessening the sufferings of mankind, for it makes no difference what a man's calling or profession may be, in the end the farmer feeds them all. Away then with the absured ideas that the farmer's is a menial calling, and one which the intelligent, learned in said Mortgage and now become operative, and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the land describod in said Mort-gage as Let number two (2) in Ross & Alexan-der's third addition to the Village of Buchanan, in the County of Berrien and State of Michigan, will be sold at public auction or vendue, at the front door of the Court House, in the village of Berrien Springs, in said County of Berrier, On the Second day of March, A. Ideas of this kind are void of common-sense, and the time is fast approaching when the profession, will apply to the farm for talent, the counting-house appeal to the farm for occupants, then we shall be near our millenial, and if this were the case to-day the "boys in stripes" would be few, and those places of incarceration, the prisons and penitentiaries, could be remodeled and used for agricultural colleges, for crime would be now unknown, requiring but a few plans of punishment.—Chutaugua Farmer.

Shying Horses.

A horseman whose horse is given to shying, enough never to permit himself to evince symptoms of nervousness nor punish the animal for exibitions of timidity. Whenever a horse directs the points of his ears in a certain direction, as though distrust ful or afraid, the reins should be pulled in another direction, thus diverting the attention of the animal from the object causing the perturbation. If, on the other hand, force or harsh means are used to compel an acquaintance with the object feared the horse will be doubly excited, if not unmanagable. We have found, in cases of shying or halting at real or fancied objects of disquient, that stopping the horse and using soothing language, answers a very good purpose. If the object is stationary, the horse, after a short time, will most usually advance in the direction of it, approaching cautiously till satised, no danger is to be apprehended, when he will resume his way in a quite mood. But if chastised for shying, he will have two objects of fear instead of one, and become more confirmed in the habit of distrustfulness.

KEEPITG CIDER SWEET .- The fol lowing method of keeping cider is said to keep it perfectly sweet for five years: "Leach and filter the cider through pure sand, after it has worked and fermented and not soured. Put no alcohol or other substance with it. Be sure that the vessels you put it into are perfectly clean and sweet. After it is leached or filtered put into some barrels or casks filled, leaving no room or space for air; bung them tight and keep it where it won't freeze till February or March, then put it into champaigne bottles filled drive the corks and wire them. The best cider is late made, or made when it is as cold as can be and not freeze."

KIDNEY COMPLAIN

Probably there is no complaint that afflicts the human system, which is so little understood at the present time, is some of the varied forms of Kidney Complaints. There is no disease which causes such acute pain or more alarming in its results than when the kidneys fail to secrets from the blood the uric acid, and other polson-ons substances, which the blood accumulates in its circu-lation through the system. If from any cause the kidneys fail to perform the func-tions devolving upon them, the canualitons are taken up by the absorbents and the whole system thrown into a state of disease, causing great pain and suffering, and very often Immediate death. Hence the importance of keeping the kidneys and blood in a healthy condition, through which all the impurities of the body must pass.

PAIN IN THE BACK.

There is no remedy known to medical science which has proved itself more valuable in cases of Kidney Com plaints than the VEGETINE. It acts directly upon the secretions, cleanses and purifies the blocd, and restores the whole system to healthy action. The following extraordinary cure of great sufferers, who had been given up by the best physicians as hope-less cases will speak for themselves, and abould challenge the most profound attention of the medical faculty, as well as of those who are suffering from Kidney Com-plaint.

The Best Medicine.

KAST MARSHTELD, AGG. 22, 1870. Ma. STEVENE: Deer Si--I am seventy-one years of ago; havo suffered many years with Kidney Complaint, weakness in my back and stomach. I was induced by friends to try your VEGETINS, and I think it the best med-icine for weakness of the Kidneys I ever used. I have tried many remedies for this complaint, and nover found so much reliof as from the VEGETINE. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Many of my ac-quaintances have taken it, and I believa it to be good for all the complaints for which it is recommended. Yours truly, JOSIAH IL SHERMAN.

small quantities, frequently accompanied with blood and excrutining pain. I have faithfully tried must of the popular remedies recommended for my complaint; I have been under the treatment of some of the most skillful physicians in Boston, all of whom pronounced my case incorrable. This was my condition when I was adviged by a friend to try the VSETINS, and I could see the good effects from the first dose I took, and from that moment I kept on im-proving until I was entirely cured, taking in all I should think, about six bottles. It is indeed a valuable medi-cine and if I should be afflicted again in the same way, I would give a dollar a dose, if I could not ggit i without. Respectfully, Respectfully, J. M. It is apt to shake a man's confidence in his wife to wake in the early morning and find her sitting on the edge of the bed going through his pockets.—Fulton Times. And it is apt to shake a woman's confidence in her husband to find nothing in those pockets but a lager beer check, a piece of bologna eausage. a variety show ticket, and a perfumed not signed "Ever yours, Julia."

A VALUABLE HINT .- It may not be generally known that, when a person is drowning, if he is taken by the arm from behind between the elbow and shoulder, he cannot touch the person attempting to save him, and whatever struggles he may make will only assist the person holding him in keeping his head above water: A good swimmer ⁺ can keep a man thus above water for an hour. If seized anywhere else, the probability is that he will clutch the swimmer, and perhaps, as is often the case, both will be drowned.

FURNITURE POLISH .--- If you wish one of the simplest and best, get a pint bottle and fill it with equal parts _ of boiled linseed oil and kerosene oil; any druggist has the former ; mix and apply with a flannel, and rub dry with a second flannel. It will remove all scratches and white marks made by brusing. Destroy the rags or keep in open sight, as oiled cloths have been known to ignite spontaneously.

A good receipt for scent powder to be used for wardrobes, boxes, etc., far finer than any mixture sold at the shops, is the following: Coriander, orris root, rose leaves, and aromatic calamus, each one ounce; lavender flowers, ten ounces; rhodium, onefourth of a drachm; musk, five grains. These are to be mixed and reduced to ----- coarse.powder. This scents clothes as if fragrant flowers had been pressed in their folds.

CRIMPING HAIR .--- To make the hair stay in crimp, take five cents' worth of gum arabic and add to it just enough boiling water to dissolve it. When dissolved, add enough alcohol to make it rather thin. Let this stand all night and then bottle it to prevent the alcohol from evaporating. This put on the hair at night, after it is done up in papers or pins, will make it stay in crimp the hottest day, and is perfectly harmless.

SOAP FOR REMOVING GREASE SPOTS. -Dissolve in half a pint of water half a pound of washing soda, put in two pounds of good hard soap cut in slices, and boil until a homogeneous man is formed; then add alcohol. camphor, ether, and liquid ammonia, half an ounce of each, and mould into cakes. OATMEAL AS A COSMETIC-Oatmeal may be used for beautifying the complexion in this way: Take a small quantity of meal and pour sufficient cold water over it to make a thin paste; then strain through a fine sieve and bathe the face with the liquid, leaving it to dry upon the skin. This preparation renders the complexion very soft and white.
