

THANKSGIVING 1886
The morning came. It came as other Thanksgiving mornings had come—with fresh, frolicking winds and sunlight, and blue skies with merry voices, with cloudless faces and happy hearts.

OUR THANKSGIVING.
The morning came. It came as other Thanksgiving mornings had come—with fresh, frolicking winds and sunlight, and blue skies with merry voices, with cloudless faces and happy hearts.

A HUMBLE THANKSGIVING.
We cannot show a grand array of tootsonas things Thanksgiving Day—The day so very dear to us—Our little party will not boast Delicious viands by the host To every plate of cheer.

THE ORIGIN OF THANKSGIVING.
As it is to resist the bitterness and sadness of the falling year the most genial and kindly of all our festivals occurs at the end of November. Its very name, "Thanksgiving," betrays its pious origin—an origin united with any prior festivities.

THE CHILDREN COMING IN FROM PLAY.
Just as the shades began to fall heavily he drew me toward him by the frost bound window. He stooped and kissed me. He took me in his arms and said, as he had said before:

tears would be profusion just then. Then we went quietly home.
It was a happy home that day—as happy as it could be when we did not see him. Yet I knew he was there.

20 YEARS'

DEVOTED TO THE TREATMENT OF CHRONIC DISEASES.

MYRTLE WATTLES MADE HAPPY.

About the first of July last, Mr. Hibbard called at my parlor, an ailing man very much out of health, and suffering extremely with Rheumatism and Biliousness, advised me to try taking all other medicines and try my father's Rheumatic Syrup, saying it would cure me. I said to him that it was impossible for me to fully describe my intense sufferings for years past, that I had tried so many remedies, and no good that I had no faith in them. He explained to me the nature of the remedy and how it would operate upon my Liver and Kidneys, assuring me there were no poisons or opiate used in its compounding, and telling me the ingredients which composed the remedy. I commenced using it, have taken three bottles, and I want to say to you, it has done wonders for me. It has cured me. I am well. As an evidence of my gratitude, I send these facts unsolicited, and I am ready to verify the authenticity of this cure by personal correspondence with anyone who doubts it.
