

THE NEXT SENATE.

SOME OF THE SUCCESSFUL SENATORIAL ASPIRANTS.

Records Worth Reading—Men Who from Lowly Station Have Earned the Highest Honors in the Gift of Their Respective States.

Eugene Hale has been re-elected to represent the "Pine Tree" state in the senate for the next six years. He has just passed his 60th year, but does not believe his name is appearing in his present position.

Massachusetts Senator-elect. New men in public life have had such a continuous appreciation of their public services by their constituents as has been enjoyed by Henry L. Davies, of Massachusetts.

U. S. Senator-elect from Minnesota. Ex-governor Cushman K. Davis, of St. Paul, succeeds S. J. McMillan, a senator of Minnesota, as described by those who know him, as one of the smartest.

Senator Sawyer from Wisconsin. Philatus Sawyer, elected to the senate from Wisconsin to succeed himself, is a native of Vermont, in which state he was born, Sept. 23, 1816.

Senator Hearst, who was appointed last year by Governor Stoneham, of California, to fill the senatorial seat made vacant by the death of Senator Hays, has been elected for the coming senatorial term.

France and Germany. Those who read the war story of Europe after that there are clouds and storms ahead. Before many months, they say, there will be music in the air.

Re-elected Senator from Connecticut. Joseph Rowell Hawley, who has just been re-elected senator from Connecticut, has been often mentioned as a presidential possibility.

It is difficult to determine whether it is a journalist, soldier, governor, representative or senator that is the greatest honor in the Republic. The Republic has never merged into the Press, which he afterward owned and ran as the organ of the Republican party, and which finally became the present Hartford Courant, which still carries on.

It would be found that "no time had been wasted in the last fifteen years by the military. The post year France has spent more than $17,000,000 on her army and defenses.

Senator-elect from Michigan. Col. Francis B. Stockbridge, of Kalamazoo, Mich., who has just been elected senator from that state, is one of its military heroes.

U. S. Senator-elect from Minnesota. Ex-governor Cushman K. Davis, of St. Paul, succeeds S. J. McMillan, a senator of Minnesota, as described by those who know him, as one of the smartest.

Chicago Wants an Army. Sixty-six citizens of Chicago want a standing army at its gates. Chicago always had a pride of its own, but this seems a queer wrinkle even for the big city by the lake.

Senator Sawyer from Wisconsin. Philatus Sawyer, elected to the senate from Wisconsin to succeed himself, is a native of Vermont, in which state he was born, Sept. 23, 1816.
