

🗫 age will reach half a million dollars. emergency with engines and boilers.

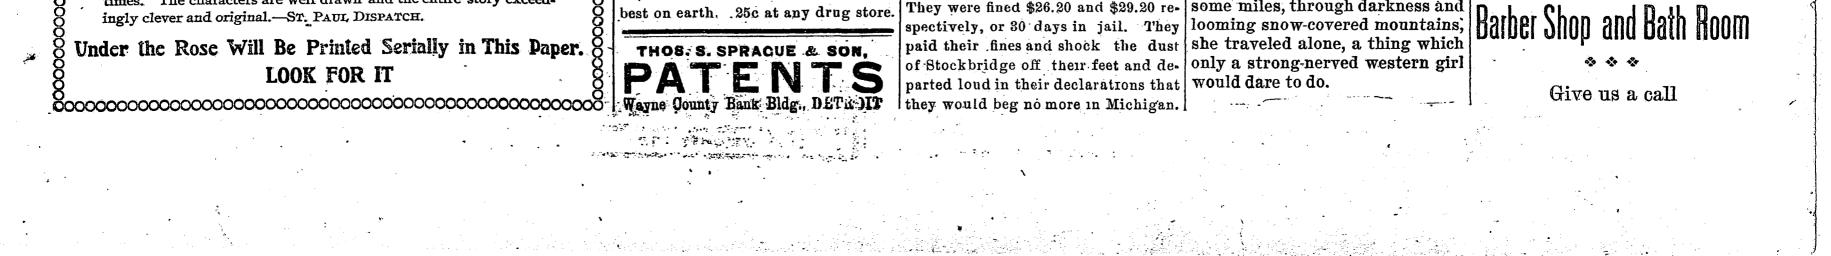

which, however, are over melodramatic. We venture to call Mr. Isham's hero the finest gentleman of fiction since Gaston de Marsac.

There is a delicacy of touch befitting the courtly scenes, a gailant diplomacy of speech harmonizing with the atmosphere of the times. The characters are well drawn and the entire story exceedingly clever and original.-ST. PAUL DISPATCH.

often driven to desperation in case of accident resulting in Burns, Cuts, Wounds, Ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply best on earth. 25c at any drug store.

Mike Fields, two tramps arrested at the hardihood to reach the mine at that time. For a part of the Stockbridge for begging. When arraigned, they refused to plead, were way she drove, but the greater of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the given a jury trial and found guilty. part of the distance, which was They were fined $26.20 and $29.20 re- some miles, through darkness and spectively, or 30 days in jail. They looming snow-covered mountains,

Sunday & Boone's

SPECIAL SALE FOR SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3 52.59 =

The Chair shown in cut is a first class Comfort Reed Rocker, made of the best German Reed. Price $3.50. Our Special Price for Saturday. $2.59

Richards & Emerson Buchanan, Michigan.

BUCHANAN RECORD.	ADDITIONAL LOCALS. Bread 4 c a loaf at Bertha Roe's.	MAY HAVE	REDUCED RATES
TWICE A WEEK MAC C. CHAMBERLIN PUBLISHER.	Little Lottie Chamberlin was the victim of a very painful accident this afternoon. She was going down		Having secured the work with the	Better than ever are the Spiro Fall Clothes for Men and Boys
O. P. WOODWORTH EDITOR. Entered at the Post-office at Buchanan, Mich. as second-class matter.	the cellar stairs, at her home on Front street, with a plate to get some apples when she fell part way down the steps. At the bottom of the stairs the plate	ble Things	able for the business. 1 will make funeral work a specialty and will make special rates in all livery and	T is a fact that "nothing succeeds like success"—and it is the success we have had in selling better made, better fitting and better wearing
,TERMS $1.00 PER YEAR.	was broken, and a piece of it cut an artery on the right side of her neck. Dr. Emmons was called and with con-	THEY REQUIRE A BOND	will send a driver in case they are wanted without extra charge. : : :	garments for less money than any one else that has made
DECEMBER 2, 1904.	[1	Guaranteeing That the Road Will be Built on North From the	W. D. House	ing business in the city. Of course, we have a decided advantage over other stores when it comes to prices, inasmnch as we buy for four
At the New Factory Things are booming at the Geo. R. Rich factory. For several days past	As the Holiday season approaches,	Village	Buy	stores: at South Bend, Ind.; Springfield, Jacksonville and Quincy, Ill., enabling us to buy in very large quantities and at quite a saving in prices over others saving which we gladly share with our patrons It's the combination of low prices with the highest possible quality that has they have been trying the machinery in the foundry and on the second floor and the line shaft and machinery on the first floor is now in position. Two more carloads of machinery have just been received. In a very short time everything will be ready and the merry hum of machinery will once more be heard on Main street.

~ ~ ~

Sunday Night Visitor

Thieves entered Mr. Frank Thomas cellar Sunday night, through a basement woodshed window, and helped themselves to his sweet and Irish potatoes. Mr. Thomas, who has been ill with typhoid fever, and Mrs. Riley, the nurse, both heard the noise but thought it was a dog belonging to a neighbor.

people who are well, but when it night Galien people can hear the come to taking from the sick, one is apt to doubt the saying "There is honor even among thieves."

~ ~ ~ Official Vote of Berrien County

The county board of canvassers completed the counting of the ballots cast at the election of Nov. 8 last Friday and adjourned. Following are the majorities of the successful candidates as returned by the board. Theodore Roosevelt, R, 3,503 Fred M. Warner, R.,

E. L. Hamilton, R., James G. Haydon, R., Sam H. Kelley, R., N. V. Lovell, R., Frank H. Ellsworth, R., Sam B. Miners, R., Alva Sherwood, R., Joseph Tennant, D., I. L. H. Dodd, R., Chas. C. White, R.,

>    Startling Evidence

Fresh testimony in great quantities is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentorville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited Than I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all lung and throat troubles, consumption, pneumonia and grip.

The Niles and Buchanan railway ual efforts to present to Buchanan company will not have smooth sailcitizens, one of the most complete ing in Buchanan, if some of the villines of Holiday goods seen here in lage trustees continue to maintain years. One of our business firms, their present attitude. The village who is always in the front ranks with board was to have met with J. MacM. seasonable goods, is that of Dr. E. S. Smith in Buchanan Wednesday but Dodd & Son, Mr. I. L. H. Dodd has one of the members was out of town, been in Chicago several days this hence the meeting was postponed unweek, purchasing their line, and he til next Friday, when the company's informs the RECORD that he will have proposed franchise will be discussed. many surprises in store for Bachanan The villago board, which consists people in a few days. Don't fail to of President Desenberg and Trustees inspect their stock. Orville W. Curtis Chas. Pears, Henry lips and Fred Raven, held an inform-The Galien Advocate of yesterday al conference a week ago, and one of th emembers informed the writer tocontained a long article about the day that since that meeting President freight traffic on the Michigan Central. Desenberg and Trustees Kingery and The Advocate says in opening its It is bad enough to steal from the article: "At all hours of the day and Adams have insisted that the company must give a bond to build on north to St. Joseph without delay; rumble of heavy freights passing also that they take a route through through the village on the Michigan the village on back streets, rather Central railroad. Every day the roar than over the ones they have selected of passing compounds becomes more which is north on Day's avenue to frequent and the puffing of the giant engines proves that the loads are growing heavier." We can set you straight on this matter brother. The rush of traffic is caused by the boom at Buchanan. The moving of factories and families from Chicago and the supplies used 1,546 by the factories and business enter 3.053prises now in Buchanan, are all creat-2,994 960 ing a good big part of this traffic. The firm of Martin & Chamberlin, 971 2,864 manufacturing stationers, received a 1,091 carload of paper stock this morning 2,496 and another is expected within a day or two. This firm is doing a good 1,480 business and has proven to be one of 1,842 the substantial industries of the town

Things Are Coming Our Way

The Geo. R. Rich Mfg. Co., have been shipping car after car from Chicago to Buchanan, and without wishing the peaceful slumbers of our neighbors to be too much disturbed, we hope Buchanan will continue to furnish the largest part of the traffic of the Michigan Central.

* * *

That Throbbing Headache

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills.

The regular services will be held Drug Co., South Bend, Ind. Thousands of sufferers have proved at the Evangelical church beginning their mathchless merit for Sick and with next Sunday, Dec. 4. as follows: Nervous Headaches. They make pure 10:30 a.m. sermon, 11:45 a.m. Bible

MORLEY'S New Troy Mills CHOICE BUCKWHEAT FLOUR Guaranteed Pure. For sale by C. D. Kent,

C. B. Treat & Co. and B. T. Morley.

NOT A CENT A DAY -

Chance to Obtain Good Daily Newspaper

As to the people who reside on the streets over which the company de-The South Bend Daily Tribune, sires to build, they are said to be in Indiana's great newspaper, will have favor of the line passing in front of a bargain day Saturday, Dec. 17, 1904. their property, feeling that they On that day any one can subscribe for The Daily Tribune sent by mail for What the outcome will be is diffi-1905 for only $3, cash in advance less cult to say, but the member of the than one cent a copy. The Tribune board of trustees with whom the writ pays the postage. er conversed today, was of the opin-The regular price of The Daily ion that inasmuch as there are four Tribune delivered by news carrier is members of the board in favor of $6 a year, but those who remember to granting the franchise, it will go subscribe on Dec. 17 can get it for 1905 by mail for only $3. All arrears through, unless some one of the four goes over to the minority between if any, on daily or weekly, must be lessen the flow of water arrangement this and Friday night.-Niles Star.

have been made at Mishawaka and at the Hen island dam above Mishawaka to allow as little water as possible to flow through the gates. It may require several weeks to repair the damage.

🍫 🗞 🐼

Lo-tus Blossom is the great remedy for ladies. Every lady, young or old who is nervous or weak, should use it. Sold by Dr. E. S. Dodd & Son. A free sample and phamplet mailed to any lady by The Coonley proved the irresistable inducement. Progress is our Motto

We give you this fail better cloth, better tailoring, better lining, better trimmings, etc.,-lowering prices where prices can be loweredin short always striving to give you a little more than you expect. This is why we keep old friends, make new ones and stisfy ev ryone who wears SPIRO CLOTHES. And this is why our clothes are better this fal than ever before.

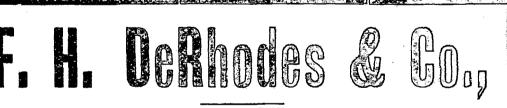

1

Come in and see our new Fall Styles We show An immense line of new fall suits and overcoats for men and boys. An entirely new stock of fall hats. caps and gloves.

The largest stock in the city of fall furnishings, neckwear and underwear.

$3.50 Men's Shoes Over fifty different styles of toes and leathers in our famous $3.50 shoes for men-

SPIRO'S, the big store South Bend

In their new Department Store wish to invite the people of Buchanan and vicinity to call and inspect their new stock and compare prices. We have added a large line of Queensware to our stock as well as everything in house furnishings. Also Cloaks, Suits, in fact everything in Ladies' Ready to Wear Garments Millinery, etc. A full line of Shoes at Bottom Price. We are making the lowest prices on underwear of any house in South Bend, both Ladies and Gentlemen, we are out for business and guarantee prices as against any other market. Every article will be as represented or money back. Give us a call when in South Bend.

F. H. DeRhodes & Co. 321 South Michigan Street Indiana South Bend, Willing to Dye for You P. Kaufman, the Dyer and cleaner is renouned. Keeping up-to-date; none better can be found,

Anxious to dye; on his dyeing you can rely,

Universally known: Kauffman for you will dye.

intine has now been lifted and regular services will be held in all the churches Sunday, and school will be opened Monday.

* * * Church Notes

• • •

SMALLPOX SCARE OVER.

For four weeks this place has been

'scared' about smallpox, and during the past two weeks there has been no school or church service. The quar-

Kingery, Henry Adams, Chas. Phil-

Front street, west on Front to Main and north on Main to the village would thus be benefited.

limits.

The best line of COFFEE in Buchanan is Chase & 'Phone 27.

CHAPTER I.

SONG, sweet Jacqueline!" "No, no"-"Jacqueline, Jacqueline!" "No more, I say"-

A jingle of tinkling bells mingled with the squeak of a viola, the guffaws of a rompish company blended with the tuneless chanting of discordant minstrels, and the gray parrot in its golden cage, suspended from one of the oaken beams of the ceiling, shook its feathers for the twentieth time and screamed vindictively at the roguish band.

Jingle, jingle, went the merry bells: squeak, squeak, the tightened strings beneath the persistent scraping of the rosined bow. On his throne in Fools hall Triboulet, the king's hunchback, leaned complacently back, his eyes bent upon a tapestry but newly hung in that room, the meeting place of jesters, buffoons and versifiers.

"We appeal to Triboulet"-

"Triboulet!" A girl's silvery laugh rang out.

"Triboulet!"

Again the derisive musical tones. Upon his chair of state the dwarf did not answer; professed not to hear. By the uncertain glimmer of torches and the flickering glow of the fire he was engaged in tracing a resemblance to himself in the central figure of the composition wrought in threads of silk -Momus, fool by patent to Jove, thrust from Olympus and greeting the earth-born with a great grin.

"An excellent likeness!" muttered Triboulet. "A very pretty likeness!" he continued, swelling with pride.

And truly it was said that sprightly ladies, working between love and pleasure times, drew from the court fool for their conception of the mythological buffoon, reproducing Tribou-- let's great head; his mouth, proportionately large; his protruding eyes, his bowed back, short, twisted legs and long, muscular arms and his nose far larger than that of Francis, who otherwise had the largest nose in the

In especial disdain, from her position upon the corner of the table, her glance wandered down the board and rested on Rabelais, the gormand, before whom were an empty trencher and tankard. The priest-doctor-writerscamp who affected the company of jesters and liked not a little the hospitality of Fools' hall, which adjoined the pastry branch of the castle kitchen and was not far removed from the wine butts, had just unrolled a bundle of manuscript, all daubed with trencher grease and tankard drippings, and was about to read aloud the strange adventures of one Pantagruel when, overcome by indulgence, his head fell forward on the table, almost in the wooden platter, and the papers fluttered to the floor. "Put him out!" commanded Triboulet from his high place.

But she of the jaunty cap sprang from the table.

"How wise are your majesty's decrees!" she said mockingly, with her glance upon the dwarf. He shifted uneasily in the throne. "You should have put him out before! But now," turning contemptuously to the poor figure of the great man, "he's harmless. His silence is golden; his speech was dross.'

"And yet," answered Marot thoughtfully, the king esteems him-the king, who is at once scholar, poet, wit, soldier"—

"Soldier," she exclaimed quickly, "when he cannot conquer Italy and regain his heritage!"

"Cannot?" ventured Triboulet, mindful of the dignity of his royal master. "Why not?"

"Because the women would conquer him."

"Nay; the king prefers the blue eyes of France," spoke up the cardinal's fool, he of the viola.

"Then do you set our queen of fools, our fair Jacqueline, out of his majesty's good graces," interposed one of the lesser jesters, a mere baron's hireling, who long had burned with secret admiration for the maid of the coquet been burned—aye, burned to ashes as a Calvinist-at my suggestion!"

"Miserable wretch! Spy!" exclaimed the young woman, paler than a lily, as she bent her eyes, with fully opened lids, upon him.

As if to shield himself, he raised his hand, yet drunkenness or wrath overcame caution and superstition, and the red eyes met the dark ones. But a moment, and the former dropped sullenly. A strange thrill ran through him. He thought he was bewitched.

"Non nobis Domine!" he murmured, striving to recall a hymn. As Latin was the language of witchcraft, so also was it the antidote. Contemptuously she turned her back and walked slowly to the fire. Upon her white face and supple figure played the elfish nary sword, encountered the tankard, glow, lighting the little cap and the waving tresses beneath.

Regarding her furtively, Triboulet's courage returned, since she was looking at the coals, not at him.

"Ho, ho!" he said jocosely. "You all thought I was sincere. Listen, my children! The art of fooling lies in trumped up earnestness." He smiled hideously.

"Bravo, Triboulet!" cried an admiring voice.

"Only time and art can give you such mastery over the passions," continued the jester. "Which one of you would depose me? Who so ugly as I? Poets, philosophers! I snap my fingers at them. Poor moths! And you dare bait me with a newcomer! Let him look to himself!" From earnestness to grandiloquence was but a step.

"Let him come!" And Triboulet, imitating the pose of Francis himself, drew his wooden sword.

"Let him come!" he repeated fiercely. "Who?" called out a gay and reckless voice.

Through the doorway leading into the kitchen stepped a young man, slender, almost boyish in appearance, with light brown hair and deep set eyes that belied the gayety and mirth of his features. His costume, that of a jester, was silk of finest texture and design, upon which were skillfully fashioned in threads of silver the arms of Charles V., king of Spain and emperor of Germany, the powerful rival of Francis, whose friendship now, for reasons of state, the latter sought.

Smilingly the foreign jester gazed around the room at the unusual furnishings, picturesque, yet appropriate; tained by their many friends and at the inmates, the fools scattered about the great board or near the mighty fireplace: the renowned philosopher Rabelais, sleeping on his arms, with hand outstretched toward the neglected tankard; at the striking appearance of the girl who looked with threw himself into an attitude of defense. "A mortal combat!" cried the cardinal's wit snapper. "Charles V. and Francis!" exclaimed Caillette, referring to 'the personal challenge which had once passed between the two great monarchs. "With a throne for the victor!" he added gayly, indicating Triboulet's chair of state. The clatter and din awoke Rabelais, who drowsily regarded the combatants with lackluster gaze and undoubtedly thought himself once more amid the fanciful conflicts of fearful giants. "Fall to, Pantagruel, my merry paladin!" he exclaimed bombastically.

"Cut, slash, stab, fence and justle!" And himself, reaching for an imagiwhich he would have raised to his lips but that his shaggy head fell again to the board before his willing arm had obeyed the passing impulse of his sluggish brain.

"Fence! Justle!" he murmured, and slept once more.

But the parrot, again disturbed could not so easily compose itself to slumber. Whipping its head from its downy nest, it outspread its gray wings gloriously and screamed and shouted as though venting all the thunders of the Vatican upon the offending belligerents, and above the uproar and noise of arms, rabble and bird arose the piercing voice of Triboulet:

"Watch me spit this bantam cock!"

(To be Continued)

* * * BERRIEN SPRINGS.

G. O. McOmber lost one of his farm horses this week. Ved Murphy while at work on the Ronning building, fell and injured hiankles so severely that he will not be able to walk this winter.

Two new buildings are now being put up in Berrien Spring. The Ford building is nearly finished and the Ronning building will be finished soon This will improve the looks of that end of the town.

Wm Eidson and bride came to this place Saturday and are being enter-relatives.

* * *

GLENDORA

Mrs. Hemmingway in La Porte Ind.

sister of the latter, Mrs. John Bur-

The afternoon spent by the school children with Misses Bulah and Bea-

 \diamond \diamond \diamond

DAYTON

Mrs. Salters and daughters of Mat

Mrs. A. C. Weaver spent Thanks.

Dayton located the man she was

Burton Martin and Neal Vanlen

* * *

Because She Was in Love

Judd, an eighth grade girl, is now at Dowagiac. Nov. 30 - Miss Wilma after with out the aid of telephone or spy glass just through this paper.

started for Iowa Monday.

giving with her son F. H. Weaver and erson Ill. visited Mr. and Mrs. F. M bank near Buchanan.

Wm., is reported very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Bussler have re-

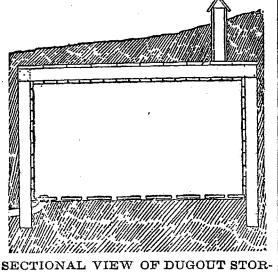

COLD STORAGE ON FARM.

Suggestions for the Construction of an Underground House Where Frost Cannot Reach.

Whatever may be its disadvantages, south. the farm cellar is about the only place C. V. GLOVER. on the farm where a temperature above freezing can be maintained throughout the winter, and as the pit cannot or at least should not be disturbed during the winter, we may expect the cellar to be the chief storing place for apples for winter consumption for some years to come.

The "dugout" or cave, so much used in the west, both for storing all kinds of vegetables, butter and fruits, and as a refuge from windstorms, may come under the closed cellar or under ventilated storage, depending upon how they are built and ventilated. Some of them are not ventilated at all and the heterogen ous mixture of everything to be preserved into which the cyclone refugee dashes is not conducive to the best keeping of fruit.

AGE.

This is the best method for keeping apples in the fall, unless ice or artificial cooling is used. Some modification of the plan is adopted by all large apple growers, usually in connection with their packing plants.

The dugout mentioned above, if properly constructed and attended to when in use, is a cheap and successful method of storing small quantities of apples. 1. is made by digging into a side hill so that turned from their Thanksgiving trip only the entrance end is out of the casual, careless interest upon him; at to Elkhart Ind. where they formerly ground. Sometimes the walls are stoned Arrive

PERE MARQUET

TIME TABLE-Sept. 25 1

Trains leave Buchanan as 10 For Hartford, Holland, Musl Grand Rapids, Saginaw, Bay and the north; also New B Michigan City, Porter, Chicag the south and west, at 8:35 A. 5:00 P. M.

Ulose connections at Benton bor with Main Line trains north

H. F MOE Agent. Gon'l Pass Closing of Malls. GOING EAST

9:15 a. m., 12:15 and 4:45 p. GOING WEST

7:45 a. m., 12:15 p. m. 8:15 6:00 p. m.

GOING NORTH

7:45 a. m., 4:45 p. m.

MICHIGAN ('ENTR "The Niagara Falls Route." TRAINS EAST LEAVE BUCHANAN. Detroit Night Express, No. 8...... f12:42 TRAINS WEST. LEAVE BUCHANAN. No. 87 Pacific Express 4:17 a. m. stop only off passengers f 5:45

Crain No. 43 f 10:48 A. Mail, No. 5... 4:40 F. No. 45, Grand Itapids & Chicago Spicial 2:81 p.n No. 47, Chicago & Kalamzoo Express 7:47 P.A Local Agent. A. L JENKS O. W. RUGGLES, G. P. & T A f Stop on signal or to let off Passengers. l'he Indiana, Illinois & Lowa Railroa South Bour North Bound

to. 9	No. 7		No. 6	No.
• m.	a. m.		a. m	p. m
:35	9:05	St. Joseph	10:25	i 6:00
:25	N:53	Benton Harbor	10:37
: 6	8:06	Galien	11:19	6:57
:00	7:30	South Bend	11:55	7:35

All daily except Sunday. Trains leave for the west and arrive from the west at South Bend as follows:-

kingdom.

But how could they depict the meanness of soul that dwelt in that extraordinary shell? The blithesome tapestry makers, albeit adepts in form, grace and harmony, could not touch the subjectiveness of existence. Thus it was a double pleasure for Triboulet to see, limned in well chosen hues, his form, the crookedness of which he was as proud as any courtier of his symmetry and beauty, the while his dark, vain soul lay concealed behind the mask of merry deformity and laughing monstrosity.

"Would your majesty like to command me?"

The mocking feminine voice recalled Triboulet from his pleasing contemplation.

"No, no!" he answered sullenly and condescended to turn his glance upon the assemblage.

Over a goodly gathering of jesters, buffoons, poets and even philosophers he lorded it, holding his head as high as his hump would permit and conscious of his own place in the esteem of the king. Not long ago the monarch had laughed and applauded when Triboulet had twisted his features into a horrid grimace, and since then the dwarf's little heart had expanded with such arrogance it seemed to him he was almost Francis himself as he sat there on Francis' sometime throne, and these Sir Jollys were his subjects all-Marot, Caillett, Brusquet, Villot and the lesser light, jesters of barons, cardinals and even bishops. Rabelais, too, that poor, dissolute devil of a writer, learned as Homer, brutish as Homer's swine-all subjects of his, the king of jesters, save one-one whom he eyed with certain fear and wonder, fear because she was a woman-and Triboulet esteemed all the sex but "highly perfected devils"-and wonder at finding her different from and more perplexing than even the rest of her kind.

"Jacqueline!"

Wayne C.

Now she was perched on one corner of the table, and her face had a witchlike loveliness, as though borrowing its pallor and beauty from the moon, source of all magic and necromancy. Her eyes shone with such luster that, seeking their hue, they held the observer's gaze in mocking languor and cheated the inquisitive coxcomb of his quest, the while the disdainful lips curved laughingly and so bewildered him he forgot the customary phrases and stood staring like a nonny. Her footstep fell so light, she was so agile and quick, the superstitious dwarf swore she was but a creature of the night and held surreptitious meetings with all the familiar spirits of demonology. As she never denied the uncanny imputation, but only displayed her small white teeth maliciously by way of answer, Triboulet felt assured was right and crossed himself resly whenever she gazed too fixed-tish cap. "I am such a fool as to want the good graces of no man or monarch!" she replied boldly, without glancing at the speaker. "An he were in love you would be two fools," laughed Caillette, the court poet.

"In love 'tis only the man is the fool or the fooled," she returned pointedly, and Caillette, despite his self posses sion, flushed painfully. Since Diane de Poitiers had wedded her ancient lord the poet had become grave, studious, almost sad.

"And is your mistress, the king's ward, fooling with her betrothed?" he asked quickly, conscious of knowing winks and nudges.

"The Princess Louise and the Duke of Friedwald are to wed for reasons of state." said the young woman gravely. "There'll be no fools."

"Ah, a loveless match!"

"But not a landless one," retorted she of the cap without the bells. "Besides, it cements the friendship of Francis and Charles V. What more would you? But I'll tell you a secret." At that the company flocked around her as though there was something enticing in her tone, the vague promise of an interesting bit of gossip or the indefinite suggestion of a court scandal.

"A secret!" said the cardinal's fool rubbing his, hands together. His master often rewarded him for particularly choice morsels of loose tittle tattle. "Oh, nothing very wicked!" she answered, waving them back with her small hand. "'Tis only that they play at make believe in love, the princess and her betrothed! But, after all, it is far more sensible than real lovemaking, where if the pleasure be more acute the pangs are therefore the greater. She addresses to him the tenderest counterfeit verses; he returns them in kind. She even simulated such an illusory sadness that the duke has sent his own jester, who has but just arrived at court, to amuse her (ahem!) dullness until he himself could come!" At this the cardinal's buffoon looked disappointed, for his master liked more highly flavored hearsay, while Triboulet frowned and brought down his heavy fist upon the arm of the throne. "A new jester, forsooth!" he exclaimed. "And why not?" lifting her swart

"We are already overstocked with prentice fools," he retorted, looking

"Ah, you fear perhaps some one may depose you?" remarked Jacqueline cold-gathering, and the dwarf's eyes gleam-

jected to an even more deliberate indeep. Put into it one or two ounces of | fact cured; so they were no new remrising. "Triboulet is sovereign lord of vestigation. Once before Miss Wilma had a leve saltpeter; fill the hole with water and dy to me. They acted promptly and "Is it man or manikin, gentle mis- affair, and becoming despondent alall at whom he mocks! His wand is im. topped the pain and miserable nightier than an episcopal miter!" tress?" he asked after concluding hi plug up close. gracieuse folle, her dress was lowed her head to hang down over ing in my back. Doan's Kidney 🖓ill In his overweening rage and vanity In the ensuing spring take out plug examination. with her character, yellow the side of the bed until she was unare a reliable remedy and I do no he fairly crouched before the throne, and pour in about one-half gallon of She did not deign to answer, but the dominating color. To the kerosene oil and ignite it. The stump hesitate to recommend them." eying them ail like a cat. His thick offended Triboulet waved his wooden conscious. It was thought that she ment of the gown her · For sale, by all dealers, price 50 lips trembled; his eyes became bloodwill smoulder away to the very roots, sword vindictively. had chosen that unique fashion of itself readily, while Foster Milburn Co, Buffalo, N. shot. He forget all prudence. leaving nothing but ashes.—Scientific "Manikin!" he roared and sprang were well adapted. ending her life. The girl is not yet sole agents for the United Sta "Doth not the king himself seek my American. with vicious lunges upon the duke's jester, who, falling back before the 15 years old. She comes of a good er servitude, the advice?" He laughed horribly. "Hath Remember the name, Doan's, and ed their waving Education is the best improvement a not, perhaps, many a fair gentleman no substitute. suddenness of the assault, whipped out family. farmer can make to himself, his weapon in turn and, langhing the grotesque, crook backed figure belived. fore the throne.

And, observing the incongruity of his surroundings, he laughed lightly while giving holidays with her daughter his glance, turning inquiringly if not insolently from one to the other, lingered in some surprise upon the young woman. He had heard that in faraway France the motley was not confined to men. Had not Jeanne, queen of Charles I., possessed her jestress, Artaude de Puy, "folle to our dear companion," as said the king? Had not Mme. d'Or, wearer of the bells, trice Boyle proved a most pleasan kept the nobles laughing? Had not time for all who were there. the haughty, eccentric Don John his handsome, merry joculatrix attached to his princely household?

But knowing only by rumor of these matters, the jester from abroad looked hard at her, the first madcap in petticoats he had ever seen. For her part, day with relative here. Jacqueline bore his scrutiny with visible annoyance.

"Well," she said impatiently, a flash of resentment in her fine eyes, "have and will spend the winter visiting you conned me over enough?" among their children and relatives.

"Too much, mistress," he replied, in nowise abashed, "an it hath displeased you. Too little to please myself." "Yourself!" she returned, with sud- Desciple church. den anger at his persistent gaze. "Some lord's plaything to beat or whip, a toy"—

"And yet a poet who can make rhymes on woman's beauty," he antown last week. swered, with a careless laugh.

"Another courtier!" grumbled Triboulet. "Lacking true wit, fools nowa days essay only compliments to cover their dullness."

With the same air of insolent amuse ment the newcomer turned to the sometimes cemented, rough boarded on study, or left bare. Rough beams are laid across, upon which boards or Mrs. Austin Adams spent Thanksbrush are put and dirt shoveled on, or the cave may be arched with brick, stone or cement. Mr. and Mrs. J. Hartsell visited the

The dugout should be well ventilated. For this purpose there should be a slid ing door and a large flue extending up through the roof at the opposite end. Put a valve in this flue and open it and the sash on cool nights in the fall, closing them when warmer. Adjust winter ventilation to the temperature and danger of freezing.

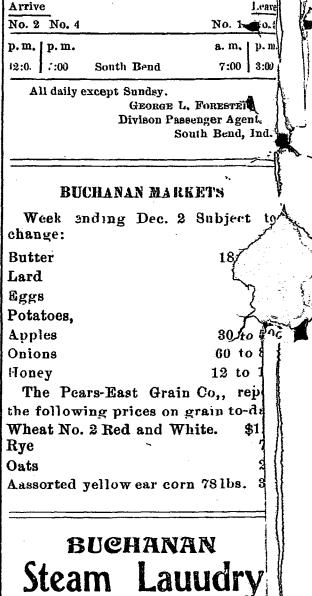

By increasing the size and complexity Wm Flowers, who lives with his so. of the dugous, and adding more appliances for ventilation, we have what is called hillside storage. Fig. 1 shows Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boyce Jr. and cross section plan of such a storage children of Three Oaks spent Thurshouse. It is to be placed so the long way is parallel with the hill, to save Onions labor in excavating. The height may be Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boyce Sr. have six feet in the clear or more, if desired. rented their farm to their son Eugene Cedar posts are set at the sides, with a shoulder cut at the top to receive the 210 joists, which are spiked to them. The matched sheathing inside and the Rye Rev. Billingham of Bangor has boards or plank above hold the frame Oats begun a two weeks meeting in the firm. The ceiling will last longer and the cellar be of more even temperature if the spaces between the posts and the joists are filled with sawdust.

Cold fresh air is supplied by a row of tile inlets on the downhill side and the Frank Cauffman of Jackson was in warm air removed by a row of ventilating flues on the opposite side. If the in-James White of Marshal visited takes can be connected with a larger friends here last Friday and Saturday one which extends several feet under Bernice Weaver was in Galien last the soil for a hundred feet or more. Friday night, the guest of Miss Hazel good ventilation can be secured in the coldest weather, as the soil will moderate the temperature of the incoming air.—Farm and Live Stock Journal.

Runs a Crow Incubator.

Farmer Billings, of Brookdale, Pa., has taken a contract to furnish a New York millinery manufacturer with crow's heads at 25 cents apiece. It costs something to get a dead crow. Alive it is an elusive bird and ammunition is expensive, but Billings is an enterprising speculator. He has set up a chicken incubator in which is placed, as fast as laid, the eggs of about 100 hen crows that have been trapped and confined with perhaps a dozen cock crows. Within 15 days the little creatures are hatched and a fortnight later they are ready to be beheaded. It is show uncommon wisdom to prop by understood that the head of a crow

A guarded laugh arose from the In the autumn bore a hole one or two laudanum, evidently to commit sui "Watch me spit this bantam cock!" Kidney Pills some two years ago for inches in diameter, according to the cide. But an overdose sickened her girth of the stump, vertically in the cen- backache and other kidney trouble, throne and its occupant, whom he subter of the latter, and about 18 inches and was wonderfully benefited, in "Depose me, Triboulet!" he shouted, and she soon recovered.

Our Wagon will Call for an Deliver Your Laundry Let Us Hear from You.

W. E. Penne

UNGOMMON WISDOM

Buchanan People Should Profit by Neighbor's Experience

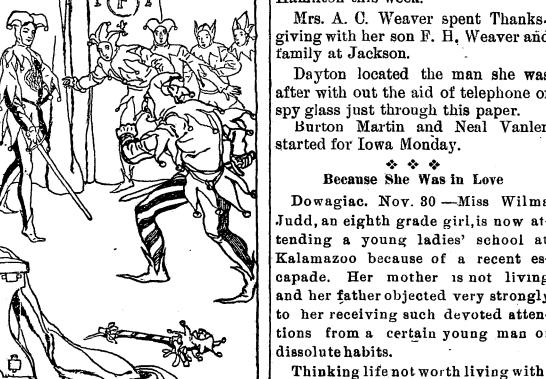

It's a wise man who profits by th experience of his friends and neigh bors. Here is a chance to do it, and everyman, woman or child in Buchan an who knows the misery of a bad oack, the nervousness and restlessness caused by kidney complaint or the innoyance of urinary disorders, will this citizen's advice.

Mrs. II. H. Huges of 185 Qgden capade. Her mother is not living chick is worth just as much as an adult of the same species. At the uni- Ave., Benton Harbor, whose hushand brows quizzically. and her father objected very strongly form rate of four for a dollar, dead, is employed on the bridge gaug for to her receiving such devoted attenthey will pay the producer. Billings the Big Four, says: "I never got so has the only crow hatchery in the much relief in such a short time as tions from a certain young man of over the throng. dissolute habits. did from Doan's Kidney Pills - H world. quite a while I had a dull pain a) Thinking life not worth living with How to Get Rid of Stumps. miserable feeling in my back, at time ly. out her lover, she took a dose o very severe. My husband us of Doah's

Harris

Hamilton this week.

tamily at Jackson.

ARE YOU SATISFIED?

with your clothing and the price you have paid? Now, really, doesn't it stand to reason that you can get a better assortment and a lower price in a big exclusive clothing house than you can in a small town.

T'S EASY TO PLEASE

1

X

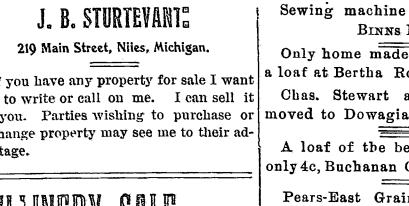

at least we are making satisfied customers every. day. We are selling all wool suits, strictly guaranteed for as low as $10. And our line of fine wearing apparel for Men, Boys and Children cannot be excelled in Northern Indiana. See Our Swell Line of Overcoats. We guarantee the Goods and the Price.

205-207 SO. MICHIGAN ST.

VERNON

SOUTH BEND,

KATE W. NOBLES' AT MUTCHLER'S MARKET

$3.00 BARGAIN n Galien. DAY SATURDAY, DEC. 17, '04 ON THAT DATE AND THAT DATE ONLY YOU CAN GET THE week. SOUTH BEND TRIBUNE BY MAIL FOR

$3.00

SUBSCRIBE WITH YOUR POST-MASTER, RURAL LETTER CAR-RIER OR NEWS AGERT, OR SEND DIRECT TO SOUTH BEND, IND.

- To the people of Buchanan:

Although we are known to many of the residents of the city of Buchanan, this is the first time we have taken the opportunity to place before you in a Bnchanan newspaper an invitation to visit our establishmeut. We are retailers of Cloaks, Suits, Skirts, Waists, Furs, Petticoats, Milline.y, Gloves, Corsets and Ribbons.

Everything we have in the store is of the very latest style and material; our policy is to "sell up to date mefchandise at popular prices.

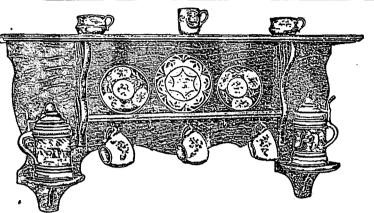

For the present week we will sell coats of all styles and fabrics at prices which we believe are beyond competition. Our stocks are overflowing. We most heartily invite you to inspect our assortments, not to buy unless you are pleased. Our sales ladies are just as courteous to ladies who come but to look, and we appreciate their kindness n doing this. Below quoted you will find some prices for the coming week.

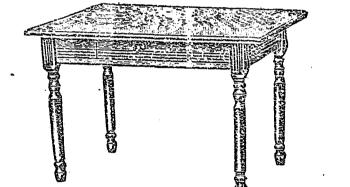

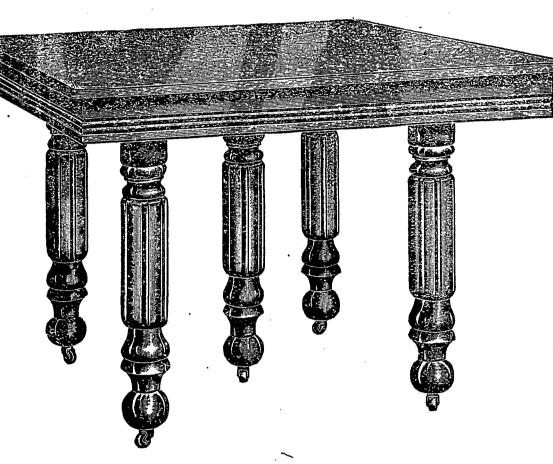

COMMENCING We are making room in our building for a distributing station for caskets, therefore, until our stock of furniture is sold, we will sell at exactly cost. Be sure and buy at these exceedingly low prices. Every price quoted is for cash. Our Buchanan delivery will be made Tuesdays and Fridays of each week. Car fare paid to all who purchase $20.00 worth or more.

HOSPITALITY IN AFRICA

Capt. Cunningham Tells of Experiences on Dark Continent-Always in Public Eye.

Capt. A. Boyd Cunninghame tells of many interesting experiences during a recent journey of his through unexplored portions of Angola in Africa. He visited Gingulla, the "chief kraal" of the realm of King Hangara. "This potentate has a most evil reputation," writes Capt. Cunninghame, "and the whites scrupulously avoid coming in contact with him, as he is credited with contributing to the disappearance of several traveling parties. His aptitude for removing obstacles of this na. ture and appropriating their property was unpleasantly impressed on me before my visit. I was the first Englishman Hangara had ever seen. He was complimentary enough to inform me, at the close of our interview, that he could easily see that I was a very great man—'as great a man as himself.' This tribute was not spontaneous, but the more gratifying in that it was called forth by the chief's admiration, not only for the studiously independent and dignified attitude I took care to maintain, but also for the punctilious respect for my own susceptibilities that I exacted from the gentleman himself. We parted good friends. exchanging presents, Hangara receiving a bottle of whisky and a matchbox, which he reciprocated

In another section of the country Capt. Cunninghame reports that they found several kraals which were "peopled entirely by blacksmiths working the abundant ironstone. Apprentices are sent from great distances to these smithy kraals to be taught the art of working that metal. It was distinctive of these kraals that the huts were shaped exactly like a megaphone. The kraals live harmoniously with each other, frequently owning a mealie garden

Now is the proper time to buy your Christmas presents. We will hold goods and deliver when wanted. Take a few minutes to look this over and make a note of the many BIG Bargains it offers you, then come to our store and inspect the goods. We sell just as we advertise. Come and be convinced—and come this week, as you will never get a chance like this again.

and bowel trouble. Death seemed in evitable when doctors and all reme dies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result

