FIRST NUMBER OF THE LECTURE COURSE

Was Held In Opera House Friday Night Nov. 3.

The first number of the Lecture Course, given by the Buchanan Band Boys was presented in the Opera House, Friday evening by Mr. H. W. Sears, "The Taffy Man." On account of the inclemency of the weather there was not an extra large crowd, but Mr. Sears delivered his lecture to a very appreciative audience, who thoroughly enjoyed his speaking from the beginning to the end. We are sorry to note that the citizens do not turn out in a larger throng and patronize the Band Boys who have been kind enough to furnish us with music throughout the entire summer. Should Buchanan citizens ever have the pleasure of hearing Mr. Sears again, which we sincerely hope will be our priverege, he will be accorded a hearty welcome

The next number of the Lecture Course will be Edwin Brush, the noted magician, who will produce some of his marvelous feats at the Opera house, Dec. 2 We sincerely trust that there will not be even s anding room at the appearance of this noted professor.

OUT OF THE RUINS

Fine New Home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith Has Arisen

The second day of last May, the fine farm residence of Mr. E. B. Smith, at Moccasin Mound Farm, about three miles north of town, was totally destroyed by fire, only a few of the household goods being saved, and the occupants of the house having a narrow escape for their lives. Smith nothing daunted, set about to rebuild his home, and during the past few months there has arisen, phenix like, up from the ashes of the Stanley Hollinger, son of John Hol- old, a new and much more modern

The house consists of 10 rooms, all Georgia pine throughout, but not all the rooms are finished in the natural wood. The hall and dinning room are handsomely paneled and finished in what is known as Antwerp, and the furnishings are finished to correspond. A fine tiled fire-place with mantle in black oak occupies one corner of the dining room. The parlor and music rooms are furnished in cherry and present a pleasing contract to the dark finish of the dinning room and hall. A commodious kitchen with every modern convenience and a spacious bathroom completes the lower floor. Leading from the front hall is an open stairway also finished in Antwerp. ADVERTISE IN THE RECORD

AT BERRIEN SPRINGS

The Citizens are Much Pleased With Contractor Townsend

Berrien Springs, Nov 3.—Contractor George Townsend has won a place in the hearts of the citizens of this village by more than fulfilling the promises made by the McM. Smith road when they were given a franchise to run through the city on one of the principal streets. The railroad company agreed to leave the street in good condition so that teams could cross at even grade at any point. The citizens expected for 100 feet. A mother survives. that they would simply fill the track level with the rails with dirt or some hard substance and fix the street at postoffice at Ludington, Mich., Wedplace. The same condition prevails til Thursday morning. through the entire village to the corporation limits. Where the street has been filled, the cross streets have also been filled and the approach is made easy; and where a cut has been made, the cross streets have been cut are grateful to the railroad company made for several years.

The bridge will probably be completed this week, the poles are set as far as Hinchman.
