CHANGE OF SCHEDULE

Reported That Interurbans Will Run on the Even Hours

WILL BE INCONVENIENT

Instead of Every Forty-Five Minutes—First Car to Berrien Springs, Saturday, Dec. 16.

The trolley line to Berrien Springs will be formally opened for traffic Saturday, Dec. 16, according to a statement made by officials of the road.

The first regular car will leave South Bend at 6 o'clock Saturday morning and run right through to Berrien Springs, the schedule it is said calling for arrival at that village before seven. The car will then leave Berrien Springs in order to get to Niles on the return trip before 7:30 o'clock, and will leave at that time for South Bend. It is stated that there will be a car every hour between Niles and South Bend hereafter instead of every forty-five minutes. The first car will not leave probably until 7:30 as mentioned above, and this innovation will come as a hardship to the people who live in Niles and work in South Bend and who desire to get over earlier in the morning. It is possible though that a special car will be run over every morning for their benefit.

The fare to Berrien Springs from Niles will be 20 cents. The cars will be run right into the village, as the bridge will be finished by that time. —Niles Star.

Elected Officers

The annual election of officers of the Royal Neighbors was held last Friday evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Oracle Mrs. Mary Babcock.
Vice Oracle Mrs. Nellie Boone.
Recorder Miss Carrie Williams.
Receiver Miss Helen Weaver.
Chancellor Miss Cora Bird.
Marshal Mrs. Mae Miller.
Inner Sentinel Miss Nellie Cathcart.
Outer Sentinel Mrs. Clara Richards.
Mrs. Ida Emerson, board of manager.

Physicians, Drs. Peck, Garland, Curtis and Brodrick.

PAROLE LAW GOOD

Senator Blakeslee Believes That it is One of Best Statutes on Books

IT WILL TRANSFORM MEN

95 Per Cent of the Men Put on Parole Are Making Good—He Must be Good or is Sent Back

"The parole and indeterminate sentence are the best laws for making of citizens on the statute books of Michigan."

This is the unqualified endorsement given the law, that has been subjected to so much bitter abuse during the past few months, by Senator Blakeslee of Galien, a member of the state pardon board.

The pardon law only allows the members to draw pay for services six months in each year and although the six months has expired the board keeps at work, and is working without compensation, the state only paying the actual expenses of the members.

The man out on parole must be a good citizen. He has been sentenced at from two to fourteen years perhaps. He cannot make application for parole unless he has served the minimum sentence. If he is given a parole it is first necessary for him to find some citizen of standing who will act as his "next friend," and who will look after him and make monthly reports to the warden of the institution from which the prisoner was paroled.

While on parole, a man cannot drink, he cannot visit a saloon, and must not enter disreputable houses. He must be a good citizen, and the fact that there is hanging over him an unfinished sentence is an incentive that keeps 95 per cent of the men on parole on their good behavior and after their term is ended they settle down into good citizens.

The convict who serves out his prison term is given a suit of clothes by the state and enough money to take him to his old home. No employment is provided for him. The world does not offer him a welcome. Under the parole system no man can secure a parole unless his "next friend" has provided him with a place of suitable employment and he is given a chance in life.

The criminals sent up for the greater crimes are not under the parole law. The pardon board can furnish scores of instances where paroled prisoners have been transformed into good citizens.

Will You be Down Town To-night

Good time to do your Christmas buying. Select what you want, we will lay it away and deliver when you want it.

There are good full lines to choose from now—and the prices are such as you would expect only after Christmas—not three weeks before.

For instance: $5 for Men's House Coats that we could not buy now to sell for less than $6.50. Because we purchased early and a great number at a time we got more advantages in prices from the manufacturers.

Christmas buying has started in earnest and it will be hard to crowd all the purchases into the next three weeks.

Only 18 more shopping days ahead.

The recital given at the Presbyterian church, last Friday night, under the auspices of the ladies of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches was only attended by a fair sized audience. Mrs. Christopher, the reader was an eloquent executor, while the classical music furnished by the Misses Long and Watson was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Y. P. A. of the Evangelical Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Blodgett on Main Street last Friday evening Dec. 8, for their monthly business and literary meeting. A large number were present and entered enthusiastically into the program of the evening. After the business had been transacted and the literary program well rendered, the hostess served an elaborate luncheon to which the guests did ample justice. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social manner so pleasant and full of fun that it will not soon be forgotten. The young people enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett so much that they are ready to accept another invitation whenever it comes.

A Rear End Collision

A rear end collision between two freight trains on the Iron Mountain Railroad occurred at the crossing of the Texas & Pacific and Iron Mountain roads, just above the Enterprise Mill Tuesday afternoon at 5:40 o'clock, resulted in the death of Fireman Frank Sabin, of the rear train who was killed and Fireman Otto Horu, of the other one severely injured. From what we can learn of the affair, it happened as follows:

The train in front drawn by engine No 648; in charge of Engineer West, had stopped at the crossing to allow the Texas & Pacific passenger train which is due here at 5:09 to go by and while waiting a freight train drawn by engine No. 645 in charge of Engineer Beckley, which was a short distance behind came along and crashed into it with terrific force, with the result that the locomotive of the rear train and several cars were completely demolished and burnt up and the caboose of the other one wholly wrecked.

Fireman Frank Sabin of the rear train was caught between the engine and tender and literally burned alive before he could be extricated.

The above is a portion of an account of the death of Mr. Frank Sabin, taken from "The Daily Democrat," Alexandria, Louisiana.

The remains accompanied by Mr. S. Irving, of Alexandria, La., arrived in Buchanan, Saturday afternoon at 4:40 over the Pere Marquette and were taken to the home of his parents. The funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, at 1 o'clock by the Rev. Bailey, of Sturgis, Mich.

Dr. and Mrs. Martin Sabin, of Centerville, O. C. Sabin, of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Parham, of Lima, Ind., Capt. and Mrs. Theo. Upson, of Lima, Ind., Rev. and Mrs. Bailey, of Sturgis, attended the funeral services.

The community was greatly shocked Monday to hear of the sudden death of Nathan Shaw, who resides north west of this place. He was in town Saturday afternoon with a load of corn, and was seemingly in perfect health. When he returned home in the afternoon he was taken suddenly ill and expired about midnight. He was employed for Chas. Bishop on his farm, and was held in the highest esteem by his employer and all who knew him, he being a model young man. The funeral services were held at the Dunkard church, this morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. W. J. Douglass.

Master Paul Whately, of Dayton, died last night, as the result of injuries received from an accident. He was returning home from school Friday noon, and had to cross the tracks, when he was run down by a work train going east. The supposition is that the little chap had just got out of the way of a freight train going west, and did not see the work train coming from the west and as the result, was seriously injured, he being hit in the back of the head, having his skull fractured. Dr. Peck was at once called and did what he could to relieve the little one's sufferings. The funeral services will be held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whately, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

To avoid a collision with a passenger train, D. L. Bell, of Menominee, a prominent business man, drove over a 50 foot embankment Thursday and was seriously injured: His carriage was wrecked, but the horses were unhurt.

In order to test the law which provides that no one shall have deer in his possession more than five days after the close of the season, Deputy Game Warden Hoyt has begun proceedings against the Grand Rapids & Indiana railroad. Thirty carcasses of deer were seized while in the road's possession, and some of the officers of the road will probably be arrested in connection with the case. The suit will be a friendly one, however.

Minnie, the 16-year-old daughter of Edwin Teskey, living southeast of Morley, suffered the loss of the index finger and the end of the other fingers of her right hand in a corn shredder, Friday. The girl was watching the shredder while in operation at her father's farm, and in trying to extricate an ear of corn which had become lodged, her fingers were caught by the rolls. Miss Teskey displayed some nerve, when she extricated her hand from the rolls without assistance and without making an outcry. Nobody saw the accident.

Suspended in midair from a telephone cable, at Bay City, Peter Dolaghan, a valley telephone lineman, hung for twenty minutes Friday, until rescued by the fire department. Dolaghan was working on the cable in a carrier and was midway between two poles when the carrier broke. He had one arm thrown over the cable and thus saved himself from falling. His cries for help attracted attention, but delay in telephoning caused a delay of twenty minutes before the fire department truck reached him. When rescued Dolaghan sank to the ground from exhaustion.

Julius Martinek, of Traverse City, aged 16, was on the Cass street bridge over the Boardman river Friday night with some companions. The bridge is just above the dam and the water is very deep. Suddenly the boy climbed to the top of the railing, cried, "Here I go," and jumped. He struck the ground fifteen feet below, just at the water's edge. He was picked up only slightly injured, and declared that he has no recollection of climbing to the rail or why he did it.

Governor Warner has received numerous letters from traveling men who are pleased with the solution of the mileage book question. The new book, the governor understands, will be called the Michigan interchangeable mileage book and will cover all of the roads which were in the old northern bureau, and in addition will be good over an additional 100 miles on the Lake Shore and Wabash systems.

IN MEMORIAM

CHARLIE EYERT LAUER

Charlie Evert Lauer was born in Berrien Springs Mich., Oct. 18, 1853. Departed this life Dec. 7, 1905, at the age of 52 years 1 mo. 19 days. He attended school at Albion College.

He came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Batchelor Dec 20, 1885, and remained with them to the time of his death, 20 years, lacking 13 days.

He leaves a father, brother, two sisters, several nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

His years of work on the milk route made him many acquaintances and friends.

Kind in disposition, he was ready to champion the cause of the oppressed.

For many months he suffered intensely, but with great patience he was ready to go. The sting of death was removed.

When he knew that he could not be well again and take his place with the toilers of the world he wanted to move on to the other world.
