DEHRING IS GUILTY

New Troy Man Admits Truth
Of Charge Made By Own
Daughter

LONG SENTENCE EXPECTED

Believed Judge Coolidge Will Give Him Limit—Whitehead
Cares for Children.

Charles Dehring, a New Troy man who was taken before Judge Bracelin to answer the charge preferred by his-daughter pleaded guilty and will ask for the mercy of the court that he may provide for his children. The papers have been forwarded to Prosecuting Attorney White at Niles and as soon as they return the man will be sentenced.

It is the opinion of many attorneys who have tried cases before the judge that Dehring will probably get a long sentence. It will do him but little good to throw himself on the mercy of the court as the court cannot fix sentence, the term being between 5 and 15 years. All that Judge Coolidge can do is to impose the 5 to 15 years sentence and recommend a certain number of years to be given Dehring.

Dehring and his two daughters spent a long time together in Justice Bracelin's court Saturday afternoon and when Dehring was taken away to the county jail by the officers all were in tears.

Dehring made an attempt to tell his story to Justice Bracelin but was stopped. He stated that he would waive all examination and go before the circuit court where he would plead guilty.

County Agent Whitehead will probably be called upon to look after the children.—Niles Sun.

Aged Pokagon Man Dies At Home Of Son in South Bend

EXPOSURE WAS TO MUCH

Pneumonia Contracted on Long Journey Proves to be Last Illness.

George Shetterly died at the residence of his son, Levi Shetterly, 1024 Sherman avenue, South Bend, Monday of pneumonia contracted about two weeks ago while on a visit to Missouri. Mr. Shetterly mysteriously disappeared eight months ago, while returning from a visit to his brother Levi at Bertrand. He was last seen walking towards the trolley line, where he would transfer for Pokagon. Mr. Shetterly had recently sold his farm near Pokagon and was thought to have considerable money in his possession, which caused fears of having met with foul play. He was not seen again until last week, when an old friend from Dayton Mich. saw him on a train coming from Michigan City. He was taken to Dayton and then to Cassopolis, which was his home. His son Levi brought him to his home in South Bend in order to give him better care.

It is thought that the deceased's mind was affected causing him to wander away from home. He was 69 years, 11 months and 1 day old. The remains were brought to this place Wednesday morning for burial. The funeral services were held from the Evangelical church, Wednesday morning at 11:30 conducted by the Rev. J. A. Halmhuber.

Mr. Harry Binns
Dear friend.—The RECORD souvenir postal cards received and are very fine. Thanks for the trouble. I am sorry you had no views of the dam or scenes along the St. Joe. The weather here I judge is about the same as at home. Yesterday the thermometer stood at 76 degrees, a portion of the time. The New Yorkers are lamenting because they do not have snow drifts and zero weather.

I am having a delightful visit with my friends here in the vicinity of my childhood home. At present I am at the old home of my grandfather's family.

Respectfully yours,
MRS. FRANC WHITMAN.

Buchanan Liquor Case Comes Up For Trial. Saloon Keeper and Bondsmen Held Liable for Accident.

The south end of Berrien county is interested in the case that came up for trial in the circuit court this morning. It is the $10,000 damage suit of Mrs. Sauantha Jane Myers vs William Burke, a Buchanan saloon keeper, and his bondsmen; John Beistle and Frank Lamb. The declaration in the case sets forth that the husband of the plaintiff secured liquor in the saloon of the defendant and that he became intoxicated to such a degree that he fell and broke his leg, at the same time sustaining other injuries of a permanent nature. There are a great number of spectators present to hear the case.

The array of legal talent retained in the case shows that it will be a hard fought legal battle, Attorneys Frank R. Sanders and George A. Lambert of Niles, have been retained by the plaintiff and Marshall Howell, of Cassopolis, by the defendant. Considerable time was taken up this morning in securing a jury.—News Palladium.

Eau Claire Doctor Loses Part of Member in Fight With Hosea Butler

BUTLER CAUGHT IN NILES

After Assault on Physician, Assailant
Runs Away Only to be Pinched
by Officers

Eau Claire was the scene of a very lively fight last night in which one of the contestants, Dr. E. E. Hubbard, a well-known physician of that village was deprived of a substantial piece of his nose. His opponent was Hosea Butler, who recently was defendant in a divorce suit, by which his wife was relieved of him.

The divorce suit was the primary cause of the mill last night, and the latest result of the mill is the incarceration of Butler in the jail at Eau Claire, where he will wait trial.

Butler, who married his wife in South Bend, was sued by her for divorce on several grounds, among which was extreme cruelty. After the hearing she was granted the divorce by Judge Coolidge, and returned to her millinery store in Eau Claire making her living by the sale of hats to the bonton of that village.

Butler claimed that Hubbard, who in fact, was one of the principal witnesses against him in the divorce suit was responsible for his troubles, and had threatened to "get him," it is

Last night the men met in the "corner grocery," and it was not long until they had words. Neither was disposed to stand for the other's remarks and it was not long before they quarreled, the quarrel ending in a fight.

The belligerents clinched in a death like grip, and the climax was reached when Butler closed his teeth on the physician's nose. The doctor in retaliation poked his finger in his assailant's eye, and finally forced him to break away, though in the sudden separation, part of Hubbard's nose remained in Butler's teeth.

Removing the installment of nose from his mouth Butler ran from the store and disappeared, while Hubbard after rendering medical assistance to himself sought out a justice office, where he swore out a warrant charging Butler with assault with intent to do great bodily harm, less than the crime of murder.

The officers were given the warrant and telephoned up to Niles to the police here to watch for Butler, who was supposed to have come to this city enroute to South Bend. Officers Bretschneider and Howard captured him early this morning in the vicinity of the gas office, and when word was sent to the Eau Claire officers, they came up here and got him today.

Butler had an attack of freight when captured, and asked over and over what they could do to him for the crime. He said he had been driven part way up from the village, but when a few miles out of Niles, he had jumped out, dismissed his driver and had walked to town. He refused to give the name of the latter.

There is a severe penalty attached to the crime he committed, and he may serve a term of five years for it.—Wednesday, Niles Sun.

INVOLVES MANY SYSTEMS

Bonds for $150,000,000 Have Just Been Issued for Purpose of Buying Up More Western Competing Lines.

New York, Jan. 24 —It is reported in electric circles on Wall street yesterday that the American Telephone and Telegraph company had through New York and St. Louis capitalists acquired the South Bend Telephone system and would merge it with other local and long distance systems in northern Indiana; Ohio and southern Michigan, including Fort Wayne, Kendallville, Auburn, New Haven, the national telephone system at Cambridge City and Hagerstown and the independent services at Sturgis.

The American Telephone and Telegraph company is the corporate title of the old American Bell company, the parent of 44 systems, and according to experts known to be in secret ownership and in control of half of so-called independent lines.

The company has just issued $150,000,000 in new convertible bonds to buy up western competing lines, President Fish is now in the west inspecting properties which are to be taken over.

Lots of charity begins at home and never leaves the premises.

Nobody ever denied that the hair-pin was mightier than the sword.

The proprietors of a hearse factory are thinking of locating in Niles, to fill a long felt want.

Colorado points with justifiable pride to the fact that its crops last year exceeded its mining products in value by $20,000,000.

There is nothing new in the domestic problem. It was Benjamin Franklin who said: "If you'd have a servant that you like, serve yourself."

A Chinese commission is about to study American systems and methods. The statistics of the recent years of prosperity are powerfully persuasive.

The sultan of Turkey feels twinges of jealousy when he reviews the record of Venezuela in its handling of its debts so as to keep other nations in hot water.

One of the poorest agricultural counties in eastern Kentucky claims to have the finest clays, and now comes forward with an alleged discovery of chrysolites, garnets and diamonds. All are not gems that glitter, but the mineral wealth of the United States is largely unknown.

Union Meeting

The churches of Buchanan will unite in a Union meeting next Sunday evening, the services to be held at the Presbyterian church. Eugene W. His subject will be "The Liquor System a Failure."

Oregon Weather.

Last Saturday was a perfect Oregon growing day in winter and Sunday and Monday the rainy weather, only it rained too hard. They will have six to ten days in succession that you feel it is raining and water will drip in drops from the roofs of houses and barns and yet you will not see any drops of water falling or water standing along the road.

It was just so here Sunday from 2 to 3:30 p. m. yet few if any took notice of it, but being in the west last winter and seeing so much of it, when the papers from Buchanan told of the cold weather here, thermometer ten to fifteen degrees below zero and where I was it was like the last three days of last week except three days in the first week in February when the thermometer registered one day 15 above zero, the next 18 and the third day 24 and then was only down to 33 (the freezing point) one day in first week in April after that. Those three cold days in February froze ice on ponds of shallow water that had collected from rain on the low level land and everybody who had skates hied off to the ice and had the first skating for eight years. Those three cold days started a harvest for the doctor's as they found people had taken colds and had lung fever and other ailments and died off so that it will be remembered there as a sickly winter yet the weather agreed with me and I gained in health and am enjoying this open winter here as the second one I have ever seen in succession in my life.

H. N. Hathaway.

A story is told by one of the senators from the southern part of the state concerning the visit of an old farmer and his very young son to the Michigan senate during the last session. The little fellow was greatly interested in the minister who occupied a conspicuous place before the platform. "Who is that man?" he asked. "That is the minister," replied the father. "What does he do—pray for the senate?" asked the boy. "No," replied the parent. "He takes one good look at the senate and then prays for the people."

STRAIN TOO GRFAT

Hundreds of Buchanan Readers Find It So

The hustle and worry of business men, the hard work and stooping of workmen, the woman's household cares, are too great a strain on the kidneys. Backache, headache, sideache, kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow. A Buchanan citizen tells you how to cure them all. B. S. Crawford, nurse, living on Clark street, Buchanan, says: "Some time ago I strained my back while lifting, waiting on a patient, and the injury had bothered me ever since. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended so highly I thought I would test their merits and I procured a box at W. N. Brodrick's drug store. I am more than pleased with the result obtained. They acted very quickly and promptly, relieving the dull aching pain that had annoyed me so long. I have no hesitation in recommending so valuable a remedy to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other. 82

"PAGAN" TOWN IN ENGLAND

Village of 1,700 People Who Seem to Have Gone Spiritually to Sleep.

"Pagan Hook" is the name now enjoyed by the quiet little village of Hook, which is situated some three miles from Kingston-on-Thames.

So lost in indifference is this village that the vicar, the Rev. W. M. Dingwell, has thrown up the cure of the parish in despair, says a recent London report.

"I have worked hard here for nearly three years," said the vicar, in an interview, "and it seems largely in vain. I have spoken to the people personally and have implored them to come to church, but they will not do it.

"No effort, either spiritual or material, no concert, whether high-class or extremely 'popular,' no branch of church activity that I have been able to devise or carry on will induce the people of Hook to come to church.

"There is a population of 1,700 people, but many of them absolutely refuse to attend church. In fact, only 200 out of the 1,700 have attended church, and some of these even are not Hook people.

"The fact is that the village is spiritually asleep. They do not go to non-conformist places of worship, nor do they go golfing or motoring. They have simply gone to sleep and they do not give a thought to spiritual things."

The vicar has now departed for the West Indies on a holiday voyage.

Some of the more enlightened inhabitants of "Pagan Hook" are taking around a large memorial paper asking Christian and pagan alike to sign an earnest entreaty to the reverend gentleman to return to them.

THE FUR-LINED OVERCOAT.

Dressy Gentleman Will Carry the Garment Inside Out on His Arm.

The precise and high-priced tailor drew a chalk picture on the customer who was "trying on," relates the Providence Journal, stuck three pins in him and said:

"The most radical change in garments for gentlemen for winter wear this year will come in the fur-lined overcoat. We have been driven to it by a detachable fur collar which has made its appearance and which can be fastened on to the permanent collar of a $18 ready-made topcoat in a way that will puzzle an expert to detect its on and off features. Of course, that kills the fur collar for the rich and 'dressy' gentleman who has a genuine fur coat. We shall make the collar of the expensive coat of the same material as the cloth of the coat, or of velvet, cut a little wider than the collar of the ordinary coat.

"And muffs will not be sewed on the sleeves of the first-class fur-lined coat this season. They were always suggestive of the crushed tragedian."

"How will people know that 'dressy' and wealthy gentlemen have fur-lined coats?" inquired the custodian, anxiously.

"They will carry them inside out on their arms," replied the precise tailor.

Babes in Toyland.

At the Grand Opera House, Chicago Babes in Toyland, Hamlin and Mitchell's musical extravaganza begins on Sunday evening, Jan 28th, an engagement which is for two weeks only. As the performance is rather a lengthy one and in order that suburban patrons may reach their homes at a reasonable hour, it has been arranged that the curtain will rise promptly at eight o'clock evenings and at two sharp for the matinees.

"Babes in Toyland" was written by Glen MacDonough and Victor Herbert, the former having provided the books and lyrics, and the latter the music. It was staged under the direction of Julian Mitchell, who has few if any equals in the particular field of producing musical plays. It had its original success in Chicago, where it has received its premier and played at the Grand Opera House in that city all of one summer, going from there to the Majestic Theatre in New York, where it exceeded in attracting large audiences the whole of the following winter. It possesses a fanciful fairy story for a plot which details the adventures that befall two children, Allan and Jane, who are persecuted by a wicked old uncle whose object it is to destroy them in order that he may gain the fortune that is rightfully theirs. Of course everything comes out right in the end, the old villain is outwitted, and Allan and Jane live happily ever after. This story has enabled Julian Mitchell to introduce a world of novel effects and it is said that he has taken every advantage of his opportunities.

Some of the big scenes which are generally remembered in "Babes in Toyland" are the Garden Wall, in which pretty Katherine Bell as Jane sings "I Can't Do the Sum" assisted by a chorus of girls perched upon the top of the wall. This has been one of the big hits of the performance; another being the Toy March in which each member of the company impersonates some childish plaything, either a tin soldier, a dancing doll, or some other plaything to be found in every nursery.

The chief charm, however, of "Babes in Toyland" lies in Victor Herbert's music, which is far above in quality, usually to be found in this class of entertainment.

Some of the most popular song hits are "Toyland," "Don't Cry, Bo-Peep," "Rock-a bye Baby," "Barney O'Flynn" and "My Castle in Spain."

A very large company is concerned in the exploitation of the extravaganza, among the principal members being Ignacio Martinetti, Katherine Bell, Albertine Benson, Gene Luniska, Gus Pixley, James Wilson, Walter Schrode, Maud Campbell, Edward P. Sullivan, John F. Ward, Robert Burns and Katherine Murray. The chorus, as in all the Hamlin and Mitchell productions is said to be particularly attractive and the orchestra will be largely augmented.
