Present Senator Will be Appointed Postmaster at Cassopolis to Succeed Allen N. Armstrong, the New Warden at Jackson Prison

Cassopolis, Jan. 26.—The republic an factions here have been appeared. For years two factions have been fighting for the honors and leadership of the party, one headed by Postmaster Armstrong, who will take up the duties of his new position as warden of Jackson prison. The other faction has been under the leadership of Harsen D. Smith, a republican leader of the county. With the retirement of Armstrong from the field for a third term in the postoffice the two factions have smoked the pipe of peace and have decided upon State Senator James Hayden as the new postmaster. This will please the senator, as he was not sure that he wanted another term at Lansing. The business was not to his liking at all and he was not adapted to the work of a legislator. Senator Hayden has served but one term. The rule has been that Berrien county would furnish the senator for two terms and Cass for two terms. The Cass politicians are now working to bring about some to name the successor of Hayden to sign an agreement that if a Cass man is given the nomination this year he will not ask for a second

Statehood Bill

Hamilton Bill Was Carried Without Any Amend ments.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The house passed the statehood bill according to schedule yesterday afternoon. The republician opposition to the measure spent its entire force vesterday and no effort was made to defeat the bill on its final passage of the "insurgents" voting against the measure. The bill passed by the voting of 194 to 150.

The debate which preceded this vote began at 11 o'clock and was practically featureless so far as any hope was entertained of changing the measure in the slightest degree.

The bill as passed provides that Oklahoma and the Indian Territory shall constitute one state under the name of "Oklahoma" and that Arizona and New Mexico shall constitute one state under the name "Ari-

As the Band Boys Extend a Very Cordial Invitation to One And All.

The Chicago Glee Club will be in Buchanan tomorrow evening, and they are trusting they will receive hearty welcome from you all. The Band Boys are also desirious of seeing you at their fourth number on the Lecture Course. The following are a few of the many words of praise they have received.

Birminghan, Ala.—The audience which greeted the Chicago Glee Club was a most enthusiastic and appreciative one, indeed, and enjoyed to the fullest extent the excellent and varied program which was so superbly rendered. The male quartet is one of the best ever heard here. -Birming-

Fort Smith, Ark.—As far as I have been able to learn from the people, no lyceum enterfamment given here for years was more acceptable winter the Chicago Glee Club's splendid program. E, J. Edmunds, pastor First Christian Church.

Pontiac, Mich.—They were greeted by an enthusiastic audience of about seven hundred of the best people of our city and it is the universal verdict that this is one of the best attractions that has ever been given in Pontiac. I take pleasure in saying that they have more than met our expectations.—R. B. Dean, manager lecture course.

The above saying's are only a few of the many, but owing to our limited time we are unable to print more Let us all turn out and give the members of both the Glee Club aud Band a hearty greeting, and surprise them, by having not even standing room in the hall.

Steamer Argo Is Released

Stranded Vessel Survives Tremendous Pounding By Waves And Ice.

Holland, Mich., Jan. 28.-The Graham & Morton steamer Argo, which was driven on the beach here two months ago and from which passengers and crew were rescued with breeches buoy by the greatest difficulty, was towed into the harbor at 4 o'clock this afternoon by the tug Diver, of the Reid Wrecking Co., of Sarnia, Ont.

Although buffeted by tremendous feas and pounded by ice, the boat is not badly damaged and she will be sailed to Manitowoc, Wis., tomorrow evening under her own steam, and will be placed in dry dock there.

The Reid Wrecking Co., tugs Salvor and Diver came here Jan. 2 and have worked continuously against great odds. Rough weather prevailed and until four days ago little had been accomplished. Then calm weather came, the hold of the vessel was emptied of water, and this morning fire was started under Argo's boilers. Her machinery was started and assisted by the tug Diver the Argo plowed a channel out to deep water.

There was a tremendous din of blowing whistles as the rescued boat passed between the piers and up to her dock. The Graham & Morton Co., did not believe it possible to save the boat and she was turned over to the underwriters soon after going ashore. The first wrecking company that took the contract was unsuccessful and abandoned the job after a month's work. The state of the s

A Public Hard to Please

The State of Michigan is inhabited by a public which is hard to please on the matter of taxation. Several years ago, after much importunity by the then Gov. Pingree, the legislature passed a bill providing for the organization of a state tax commission which should occupy itself with discovering the inequalities of taxation and the taxable property which was kept in hiding and endeavor to remedy the former and put the latter on the tax-rolls. A commission of five members was appointed under that law, and the manner in which it administered the taxation of the railroads proved not only unsatisfactory to the public, but to the railroads as well, which have been litigating the matter ever since. The public dissatisfaction with the method of railroad taxation expressed itself in the ast legislature in the way of new legislation, providing for a commis sion of smaller membership and guided by slightly different rules in arriving at the taxable value of the railroad property of the state. This commission has made its first try at assessment, with the result that while the commission has found reason for advancing the total valuation of the railroad properties of the state, it has also discovered that the other properties in Michigan have been increasing in value with the result that the proportionate relation which the railroad property bears to all other property has lessened, rather than increased.

So we are treated to another hueand-cry upon the subject of railroad taxation. The public seems to asresult in increasing the proportionate amount which the railroads are obliged to pay. Without entering into a discussion of the intrinsic merits of this theory, it may not be amiss to urge that the railroad property of this state can hardly appreciate in value unless a similar appreciation artifical ventilation The company also occurs in regard to the various started the compress of at No. 5 shaft other kinds of property in the state. which is connected with the burning | As a matter of fact, the appreciation workings. This compressor sucked of other classes of property is a confoul gases from the burning open-dition precedent to the appreciation of railroad property. If there be seven years of plenty among our farmers, that period of plenty is reflected in the disappearance of debt, the enovation of farms and buildings, a new and increased demand for the class of property which has become more than ordinarily productive. It Calumet & Hecla mine, report gases, is not until the productivity of the which are evidently from Tamarack, farm land has occurred that the pres-There is a narrow wall of rock seper- ence of plenty manifests itself in the way of giving the railroads more to the poisonous gases leaked through do than they had before, and if, thereby, the facilities which they possess become capable of being used to their limit, the properties become more renumerative and consequently more valuable. So that the results which the state tax commission have reached in the making of their assessments, while they may be impolitical are, nevertheless, not entirely lacking in logic or in the possibility of being correct.

We are not entirely sure that the process of spreading taxation equitably over the state will ever be satisfactorily accomplished so long as there are so many and such really various methods of assessment as we now possess. Is is not unusual to and, in the villages of this state, one township assessor, to levying of taxes for state, county and township purposes, while still another and a different valuation is applied by the village assessor for the raising of money for village and school district purposes. The conditions in the former case are very likely that the, township is carrying less than its assessment, to justify the investment in municipal works undertaken with the proceeds of debt and not always

The most that can be done with taxation is to arrive at approximate equity, but it can hardly be done without making a complete new of Europe and then adding to or subtracting from this base valuation as changing circumstances require. Yet even this method might prove inadaptable to a country like our own where values are as shifting as the sands on the shores; where, within the memory of men now living values have appreciated in some cases a thousand fold, while in other whole quarter sections are being sold for as little as it required 70 years ago to buy a single lot in the villages which today exist only upon the public records. But practical systems of taxation will not be conceived simply to meet the exigences of political parties or to give satisfaction To reign through eternities years. to the public clamor. The most perfect system, when it is found and applied, will no doubt have quite as many critics as has the system today.

HE above picture of the man and fish is the trademark of Scott's Emulsion, and is the synonym for strength and purity. It is sold in almost all the civilized countries of the globe.

If the cod fish became extinct it would be a world-wide calamity, because the oil that comes from its liver surpasses all other fats in nourishing and life-giving properties. Thirty years ago the proprietors of Scott's Emulsion found a way of preparing cod liver oil so that everyone can take it and get the full value of the oil without the objectionable taste. Scott's Emulsion is the best thing in the world for weak, backward children, thin, delicate people, and all conditions of wasting and lost strength.

HEART TO HEART TALK

By Elbert Hubbard, Head of the Roycrofters of East Aurora, New York

In 1889, an engineer on a fast passenger train, on a railroad that need not be here advertised, became violently insane. The time on his run had been cut down to fifty miles an hour. It was very rapid running at | Maguires, Ku Klux, or church. that time, and it told severely on the man's nerves. Suddenly, while at the throttle, reason gave way, and the engineer started to make a record run. Hs imagined there was another fast train just behind; his life was at stake, and safety for himself and his train demanded that he should make a hundred miles an hour.

Labor union organizers constantly fan the fallacy that employers are the enemies of the men to whom they supply work; that capital is at war with labor, and that success lies in secretly combining against capital.

The organizers and helpers are en on so much risk! Loan money at really paid attorneys, and their busitwenty per cent and you probably ness is to distort the truth for their own interests. They are preachers upholding their denomination.

Labor union meetings are all exparte—only one side is represented.

With the Open Shop the labor unreason that I wish to be immersed in ion is a good thing—it brings men together, and that which cements Churches, preachers and religious friendships and makes for brother-

But the Closed Shop creates a sharp tain point. Whether for you the line of demarcation between labor church has passed the Pivotal Point, and capital, and between union and non-union men. It says; "Once a laborer always a laborer." It stops good up to a certain point, or has the law of evolution; throttles ambition; stifles endeavor and tends to make tramps of steady and honest workingmen. Workingmen who own homes cannot afford to join unions cause a thing is good you cannot get and men who are in unions cannot afford to invest in homes. Because Labor Unions well illustrate the to strike is not a matter of choice: they have to throw up their jobs at Labor Unions have increased wages the crook of the finger of a man who, perhaps, has no home, no wife, no children, no aged parents. Men over forty who go on a strike do not get back. Strikes are ordered by young men who have no property interests. But when Labor Unions go beyond no family ties and nothing to lose: the Pivotal Point and attempt to For old men who cannot earn the scale there is no work. Men with forbidding any man to earn more children to feed and clothe had bet ter not forfeit the friendship of their ion of apprentices to workmen—that employer by disregarding or opposing

When the unions have power to reached a point where they, "You must join our union or starve." That is, join our church or you shall not live in this community. Exactly the condition that existed in Spain when Sorquemada gave all Jews thirty days in which to join the Catholic church or leave the country. When he saw that many were leaving the country. When he saw that many were leaving the country, he fell upon them, and the gutters of Granadaran ankle-deep in human blood. This, in a degree, stopped the emigration, and thousands of people to save their lives, were forced into hypoc
