A VALENTINE PARTY

Was Held at the Home of Miss Florence Redden on Front Street

A VERY UNIQUE AFFAIR

The Home Was Artistically Decorated in Hearts, and Other Decorations

The home of Miss Florence Redden on Front street, was the scene of much merriment, Wednesday evening. The occasion being the Valentine party given by the Happy-Go-Lucky club. Invitations being previously issued to about twenty young men of our village. The house was artistically decorated in hearts, carrying out the idea of the day.

All were in costume, the most conspicuous being "The Whole Dam Family."

In a hunt for hearts, Mr. Oscar Anderson was most successful of the gentlemen and Mrs. Hattie Porter of the ladies, each receiving for their labor an immense heart. In the slipper guessing contest Mr. Glen Smith captured the prize.

Partners for supper were found by shooting at hearts arranged as a target, the lady's name being on the back. A three course luncheon was served after which sometime was spent in marry making before returning to the many homes.

IN MEMORIAM.

MRS. HANNAH L. CARLISLE
Mrs. Hannah L. Carlisle died Feb. 11 at 4:45 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Osborn in Council Bluffs, Iowa. After an illness of five weeks caused by paralysis.

Hannah L. Glover was born April 22, 1828, in Phelps, Ontario County, New York. She came to Cass County, Michigan in 1850. On July 11, 1852, she was married to Daniel Carlisle and in 1854 came to Buchanan. One child was born to them, Mrs. W. W. Osborn.

On the breaking out of the rebellion she offered her service as a nurse and left her home, Nov. 14, 1861 for St. Louis where she was assigned to the regimental hospital. July 14, 1862 she was assigned to Post Hospital No. 1, Columbus, Ky. Mrs. Carlisle remained at this hospital until the close of the war. She entered the Freedmen's Department as superintendent and teacher. She returned to her home duties, July 3, 1866.

She joined the M. E. church at the age of 16 and continued an active member till her death. She was a member of the W. C. T. U. and the Relief Corps. She took an active part in religious and G. A. R. work, until the last few years when her health began to fail. She was well known in these circles in Council Bluffs and Sioux City, Iowa, and Deadwood, South Dakota.

M. L. CLUB

The Monday club met with Mrs. Graham, and after the usual opening exercises Mrs. Dodd read the life and works of Ruben, which was very interesting.

Roll call, conundrums. Music, instrumental solo, "Old Black Joe." Paper, selected, Mrs. Graham. The Shakespeare lesson was conducted by Mrs. Phelps, after which the meeting adjourned. The next meeting which is Madonne Day will be with Mrs. Emery, Monday, Feb. 19.

The best wheat, the best machinery and the most approved methods of milling are used in the manufacture of the "GERBELLE." No wonder that it is today the best flour on the market. For sale at Keller's.

Remember that the minstrel show is one of the coming amusements.

Numerous Valentine Parties

Were Much in Evidence Last Wednesday Evening at Various Homes

Mrs. Loren Sweet was pleasantly surprised last Wednesday evening, when a number of her friends gathered at her home in honor of her birthday. The time was passed in games and music, after which refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Bird entertained 18 guests at their home on Day's Avenue, Wednesday night. The hostess had made the home beautiful with decorations of red hearts to carry out the idea of the day. At an early hour in the evening the guests began to arrive, each one dressed in a different costume. The evening was taken up in playing pedro. Mrs. Kent being awarded the prize. The hostess then served luncheon, after which the guests departed voting Mr. and Mrs. Bird able entertainers.

The J. O. G. Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Alta Bunker, Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in playing pedro. Mrs. Geo. Guyberson receiving the prize and Mrs. Geo. Parkinson, the booby prize. The twelve ladies were all comically dressed and Mrs. Nettie Lister received the prize. The house was decorated in hearts. Dainty refreshments consisting of fruit salad, cake and coffee were served and each lady received a Valentine as a souvenir of the evening. At a late (2) hour the ladies departed for their homes, and will meet with Mrs. Anna Cox the 28th of February.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Perrott entertained 15 friends at their home on Front street on Wednesday evening. Progressive carrom was the feature of the evening interspersed with social chat. Each guest was the recipient of a valentine. The hostess served elaborate refreshments after which the guests departed for their various homes having spent a very pleasant evening.

The "Trohliche Dutzend" club gave a Valentine party Tuesday night at the home of Louise Arney, each club girl inviting a gentlemen friend. After games and several selections on the piano, the young people were called to the dining room, where a surprise awaited them. The room was very prettily decorated in red and green hearts and lit by candles. The name of the club also in red and green was formed on the back ground of pure white. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and cocoa was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and at a late hour the young people departed voting the club's girls royal entertainers. The out of town guests were Messrs. Sargent and Loane of Niles.

Wm. Owen With J. W. McConnell as "Othello."

Mr. McConnell, who plays the part of Othello in William Owen's production of that name, has appeared with every great actor on the American stage. While still a boy he was a member of the great California Stock Co., when that organization numbered among its members, Lawrence Barrett, John McCullough, Tom Keene, Bella Patenian and Mrs. Judah.

He has played with Edwin Booth, Barry Sullivan, E. L. Davenport, Madame Jansauschek, Adelaide Nelson and Mary Anderson. Association with these great artists has of course had its effect upon his acting. The distinguishing trait in all great actors is authority. They know. Whereas the raw and the crude show their lack of knowledge in their uncertainty of movement and crudeness of delineation, the actor tried and seasoned in the great school gives color and severity to everything he

Elect Old Officers

Reese and Thayer Will Head the Farmer's Association

The last two days of the Farmer's Institute was held at Eau Claire last Friday and Saturday, and was the most successful meeting from every point of view that has ever been held in Berrien County.

At the election of officers R. W. Reese was chosen for president again, Mr. Reese is the right man for the place, for several terms he was secretary of the society and no man in Berrien county is better acquainted with the work than he. He did not wish to be put in office again, but it was the will of the farmers and he will serve. Paul Thayer, of Benton Harbor, was re-elected secretary of the society. This will make his second year, and no better choice could have been made. Mr. Thayer is one of the most prominent of the young farmers of the county and he will help instill new ideas into the institutes.

The membership in the county association is growing rapidly. There were a large number of applications at every institute last week; but the greatest number were added at Eau Claire, where there were about fifty names added.

BETTER NO SALES THAN A DISAPPOINTED CUSTOMER.

It is a satisfaction to know that we have won the leadership in the clothing business in South Bend, but we realize the large responsibility that is upon us.

At no other clothing store in this vicinity are you so sure of correct styles and right prices in wearing apparel. Take New York, Chicago or Indianapolis. There is always one store that leads in its line. Look about South Bend. Just this one big store is absolute authority on Men's and Boy's clothing.

We never sell a garment that is not up to the Spiro standard. That will not add to the good name of this store. We'd better throw out the back door a hundred suits, if they were of a bad style or unreliable materials, than to sell them even at a profit.

People don't forget. Neither do they fail to appreciate right treatment and an honest endeavor to give satisfaction. You can always depend upon what you buy here. Our word is back of it.

Remember, please that we always reduce stock at this time of year. It is good business to do it.—and get ready for the next season. Clearances big reductions—ends of good lines, are now to be found all through the store. The loss is ours—the saving yours—and they are well worth looking into.

The future Senator Roosevelt will make things lively enough for some future President.

If it can be proved that mice carry the germs of pneumonia, the rush to mount chairs will not be confined to one sex.

About the best that can be said for Senator Patterson is that he has the courage of President Roosevelt's convictions.

Venezuela's president is said to be "getting ready for war with France," which must mean that he has packed his trunk and provided himself with a ticket to the interior.

Wonder who it is that the congressmen are trying to influence by their speeches on the railway-rate question? No congressman was ever known to convince another, and the galleries can not vote.

Mr. Lawson seems to be quite anxious to shift the responsibility of regulating the insurance business upon the broad shoulders of Gov. Cummins. Lawson can lay magnificent plans, but he is weak in execution.

State Items

The south side of Main street, at Wolverine, was swept away by fire Monday, causing the loss of nearly $14,000 worth of property, which was partly covered by insurance. The fire originated in the general store of J. Walter Levie from an unknown cause and spread rapidly. The loss to the Levie building and stock reaches $4,000, Roarbeck & Son general store, $6,000, Peter Chase, barber shop, $500; and Mrs. P. E. Hackett, two dwelling houses $3,000. The postoffice building was considerably damaged.

Dell Card, of Wetmore, killed a large female wolf in the game preserve of Grand Island at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. The beast had crossed on the ice from the mainland and was playing havoc with the animals. About fifteen deer had been killed. A hunting party was organized, with the above results. Mr. Card will receive $40 bounty and a substantial reward from the Cleveland Cliffs Co.

A. A. Adams, of Shelby an old and esteemed resident, met instant death at noon Tuesday in a peculiar manner. He was loading wood on a one horse wagon, when he stumbled under the shafts. This started the rig and he was dragged a number of rods, and was caught in the shafts, until his head collided violently with a pro-

The trial of Wm Hinkley for the murder of Wm. The court took this under advisement, and the trial was therefore put over until Mar. 5th, to give Mr. Hinkley's attorney time to prepare for the trial.

The Hunt Stock Co., that played in Buchanan the first three nights this week, were well patronized, and those who attended went home each night well satisfied with the evenings program. This is the second appearance of this company in our village, and we trust that they will want a return date. They left Buchanan for Schoolcraft, Wednesday morning, where they will play the remainder of the week. Next Monday they begin a weeks engagement at the Oliver House in South Bend.

"The Masquerader," Katherine Cecil Thurston's famous novel, will be published by The Detroit Journal. The first chapter will appear on Tuesday, Feb. 20th. "The Masquerader" has been described as the greatest story of the decade. It has something rarely met with in these days, originality of plot. The story involves three leading character, a high bred Englishman, member of Parliament, his beautiful wife and an impecunious young fellow whose remarkable resemblance to the member of Parliament allows the author to work out situations that are entirely new in literature. For a time "The Masquerader" deceives not only the political associates of the member of Parliament, but even the wife.

LIVESTOCK

DETECTING FORMALDEHYDE.

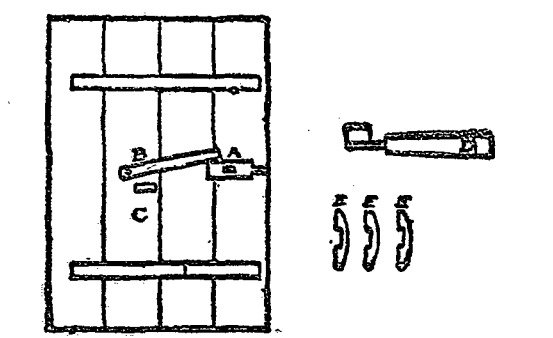

This Preservative Has a Tendency to Disappear from Milk in Which It Has Been Placed.

When samples of milk have been taken that were supposed to be preserved with formaldehyde, they have sometimes been left for a long time before being examined by the chemists, at which examination they were found to contain no evidences of formaldehyde. The man from whom these samples were obtained was thus exonerated. It now appears, however, says the Farmers' Review, that the authorities have sometimes erred in their conclusions, for it is now fully demonstrated that formaldehyde has a constant tendency to disappear, although this disappearance is slow. When a very small amount is used, it disappears so rapidly from the milk that its diminution is noticeable within six hours. In some experiments made at the Pennsylvania station, formaldehyde added to milk in the proportion of one part of formaldehyde to 10,000 parts of milk disappeared entirely in five days. When the amount was increased ten times the disappearance was very slow, and by the twenty-fifth day the formaldehyde had only partially disappeared. As might be expected, the disappearance was more rapid at high than at low temperatures. This should be a lesson to experts to hermetically seal all vessels containing samples of milk that are to be tested for use in legal prosecutions.

A GOOD BARN DOOR LATCH

One of Simple and Easy Construction Which Will Serve as Well as a More Expensive One.

There is always need of having a good fastener on barn and crib doors, says the Drovers' Journal. There are a good many different kinds made and

THE LATCH IN PLACE. sold, but a simple and easily constructed one is shown in the cut. The picture shows the inside of the door. A is the latch, B the piece that drops down and unlocks it when it is punched forward by means of a pin which fits in the latch in the ordinary way; D is the key and C the keyhole. EEEE are the wooden pieces in which the latch works. This latch could be made with a very few tools and will do the work.

BUTCHER YOUR OWN HOGS

Folly to Sell His Pork and Then Buy It Back Again at Higher Prices.

The farmer who sells his hogs at four or five cents per pound and buys them back in the form of bacon, sausage and hams at 12 to 20 cents is paying an enormous price to get rid of butchering. Not only must he pay for the butchering, sausage making, curing and smoking, but the freight to market on the hogs and back again on the products, commissions, yardage, the packer's profit, and the profit of the retailer.

Besides all this, he does not get his own hogs back, nor usually so good a quality of meat as he could cure himself. With hogs going down and meat up, the farmer-consumer is getting pinched at both ends. If the butchering and curing is a dreaded job, why not try to combine with two, three or a half-dozen neighbors, as we do here, writes an Iowa correspondent of the Farm and Home, and do the work all at one place. Practice a little cooperative butchering, and what meat you don't want can be easily and profitably marketed.

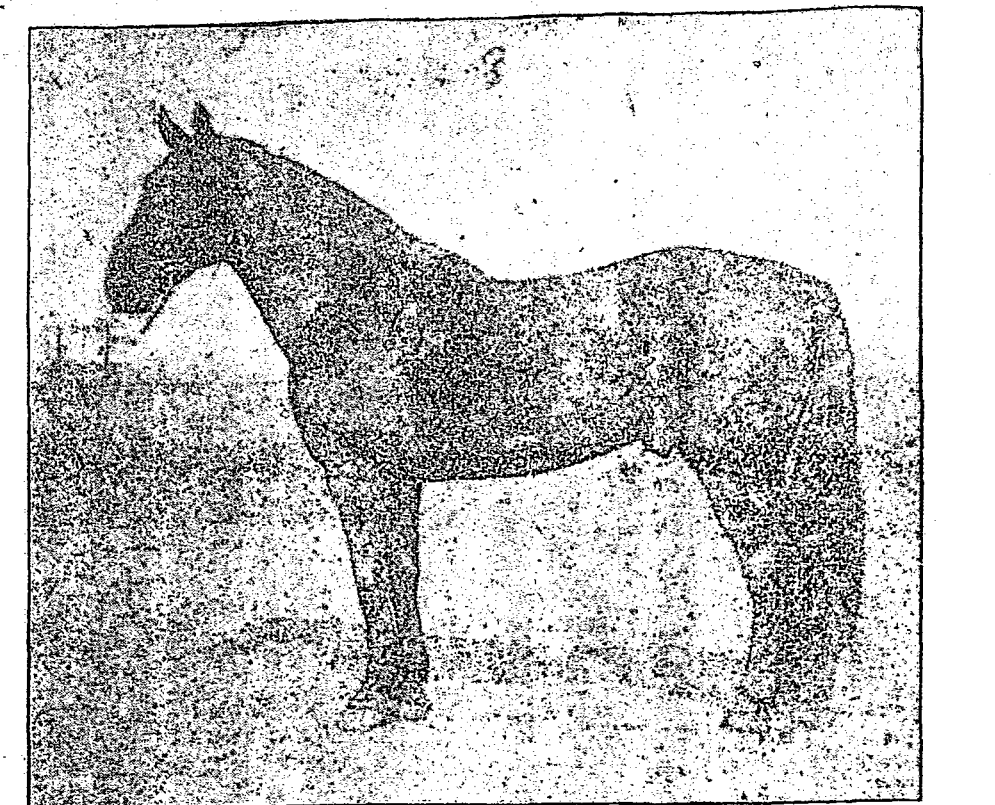

A HARNESS CLOSET.

Arrangement for Such a Convenience Which Provides Below a Sawdust Bin.

Here is a suggestion for a harness closet with a sawdust bedding bin below it: The two openings to the harness closet permit easy access to any part of it; while a place to store bedding will be found most convenient. The front of the bin can be made of loose boards and the top board be removed successively as the sawdust, or other bedding, is lowered, says the Farm Journal. Such a closet and bin can be built along one side of the stable, or carriage room, whether the barn be a new one or an old one.

The Colt's Tail. If you want your colt to carry his tail well trim it quit short when he comes from the field in the fall. It is usually full of burrs, and if allowed to stay will cause the colt to hold his tail in a very sluggish manner when it is grown. If cut late in the fall the colt will not be troubled by flies before next year.

BROAD GUAGE

TO THE BREEDER

You will observe by the picture that BROAD GUAGE is a large boned and well formed horse of good size, solid bay in color, weighs 1,250 pounds. He is strongly in bred to Hambleton 10, which will insure his colts to look like him to a marked degree, both in size, bone and color. A horse like this will always sell well, and will fill any place. It is a profitable kind of a horse to raise. BROAD GUAGE is a full brother to Eunice, one of the fastest and gamiest of race mares. She probably has won more hard fought races in Indiana and Ohio than any mare you could mention, in fast time. It will pay you to look at this horse before you breed.

BROAD GUAGE'S Pedigree—He was Sired by Broadcast, and he by Lucas Broadhead. He by Harold the Sire of Maud S. Harold was Sired by Hambleton 10.

Terms—$10.00 to be paid when mare is known to be with foal. BROAD GUAGE will be found at my farm 1 mile East of Buchanan. For full particulars call or address

The Gingerbread Man.

"The Gingerbread Man", which begins the second week of its fortnight engagement at the Grand Opera House, Chicago, on Sunday, Feb. 18th, has proved to be one of the most amusing and impressive musical productions of the present season. Since the "Wizard of Oz" no piece has been seen that has given so much extreme satisfaction to playgoers. By the critics the music of "The Gingerbread Man" has been adjudged of exceptional merit. It is both classy and catchy, a combination for which composers continually strive, but which so few are successful in achieving. The excellent body of players who appear in the principal roles of "The Gingerbread Man" compose what is probably the best musical cast at present traveling in this country. Among its members are Helen Bertram, who sang the prima donna roles with the Bostonians, when that splendid musical organization was in its prime; Almyra Forrest, who sang the prima donna role with the New York production of "The Prince of Pilsen"; Nellie Lynch who was with the original cast with Richard Carle in "The Tenderfoot," Lillian Leon, a former New York vauderville star; Homer Lind, who sang Klingsor in last seasons big production of "Parsifal;" Gus Weinburg formerly star of "The Burgomaster;" Eddie Redway, who starred in "Smiling Island;" Ross Snow, who was the principal comedian in "Jack and the Beanstalk;" probably the most successful extravaganza ever seen in this country, W. H. Mack who starred under his own management, and Joseph Welch, one time leading man with Anna Held. In addition to these players this splendid organization embraces a chorus of the prettiest girls seen on the stage this season. By a New York dramatic writer they were christened "The American Beauty Chorus," and from the unanimity with which his verdict been endorsed throughout the country, the title seems well deserved.
