SHOOTS A FARMER

John Wundy, Showman, Fatally Wounds Fred Sieman at Bridgman

MOB IS AFTER PRISONER

Deputy Sheriff Myers Has Hard Work to Protect His Captive From Violence

John Wundy, advertising manager for the Van Rankin dog and pony show, shot and fatally wounded Fred Sieman, a farmer at Bridgman, Tuesday night.

The fray took place just outside the main tent during the performance and is said to have been caused by the disturbances of a party of drunken men. Sieman, his friends, assert, was an innocent bystander. The shooting was done with a .38 calibre revolver and the bullet entered the back near the right shoulder blade and lodged in the lung. The wounded man is at Mercy hospital, this city. Attending physicians have some hopes for his recovery.

Wundy was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Myers soon after the shooting. He had great difficulty in getting his prisoner to the railroad station to bring him to the county jail. Sieman's friends, as soon as they heard of the affair, gathered in a crowd, and finding the officer and his captive, made an attempt to get hold of Wundy. Myers was successful after several minutes in beating the mob off.

Wundy tells the officers that he was attacked by drunken ruffians while he was peacefully going about his duties in the office of the show. He says that Sieman was one of the assailants. Several of them, he declares, were drunk, and when they started a disturbance he asked them to remain quiet, and as an answer was attacked. One fellow struck him over the head with a club. Then it was that he brought his revolver into play.

The prisoner asked for an immediate trial. He was arraigned before Justice Bracelin in St. Joseph Wednesday charged with assault with attempt to kill less than the crime of murder. He plead not guilty and his hearing was set for June 22 and bond placed at $1,000. He was unable to furnish it and was taken back to the county jail. The attorney for the Van Rankin show will defend Wundy.

Sieman has resided near Bridgman for a number of years and bears a good reputation among his neighbors. He is about 40 years old and has a large family. He was brought to the hospital early Wednesday and after several hours regained consciousness. He was, however, too weak to say much about the affair.—News Palladium.

JUNETIDE WEDDING

Miss Agnes Slocum Becomes the Happy Bride of Dr. Jno. O. Butler

On June 10th Miss Agnes Slocum and Dr. Jno. O. Butler took a pleasure trip to South Bend, but it has since become known that it was a honeymoon trip instead.

Great was the surprise of the many friends of the estimable young couple on Tuesday evening, when it was discovered that they had been married over a week, and were endeavoring to keep it a secret, but unfortunately were unmasked. They were united in wedlock on Sunday, June 10 at the Methodist parsonage in South Bend, by the Rev. H. M. Appely, who pronounced the words that made them one.

Miss Agnes is a general favorite in Buchanan's social circles, and has since last September been employed in the Buchanan Cash Grocery, where she was bookkeeper and cashier for this firm. Dr. Butler is also a favorite and one of our leading dentists.

Dr. and Mrs. Butler have rented the cottage occupied by Supt. and Mrs. Mercer, on Chicago street and will be at home to their many friends after July 1st.

They have the heartiest wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous life, and the Record wishes them every success and trusts their life may be a path of roses.

Was Solemnized at the Home of the Bride on Wednesday at High Noon

Miss Myrtle E. Holliday and Mr. Harry B. Brown, both of Buchanan, were quietly married at high noon, June 19, 1906, the bride's birthday, by the Rev. John C. Beach, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Helmick, of this village.

The bride was dressed in grey and white and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom was dressed in the customary black. The bride was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Fred Gelow, of Three Oaks, and the groom by his brother, Charles Brown of Buchanan. The bridal group stood in an archway which was decorated with sprays of evergreen, white carnations, white roses and waterlilies. The beautiful and impressive ritual service of the Methodist Episcopal church, was used including the ring ceremony.

Following the congratulations the company was led to the dining room where a bountiful and delicious dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the 2:33 p. m. train for Chicago. On their return they will reside at the home of the bride's parents.

The number of beautiful presents gave evidence of the esteem in which these young people are held.

The Record joins in with the many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple.

REPORT TOO MUCH RAIN

Farmers Say That There Has Been More Than Enough Of It

There has been a superfluity of rain, according to prominent farmers, and though a short time ago every one was praying for water from the clouds, Jupiter Pluvius has overdone it, and now the prayers are for a cessation of the rain.

Within the last few years June has not had more rain than was needed, indeed the weather conditions in previous years being just the reverse, but 1906 seems to be an off year any way, so far as weather conditions are concerned. The unusually light winter, with light snow fall and hardly any real cold weather—none of long duration, lead people to believe that a dry summer might be expected. But the spring, which ended Wednesday has been a wet one. The beginning of summer with the longest day of the year was yesterday.

Farmers generally complain of the over-abundance of rain this month. Corn fields in various parts of the country surrounding have been flooded, and though Niles has not had a remarkable rain fall within the past two or three days, the country to the north Monday had more than the people could conveniently use, while Buchanan and South Bend Monday got a large dose of wetness.

A cold wave accompanying a brisk north wind is the next thing on the weather program, according to the government prognosticators, but since they have made mostly poor guesses lately it is to be hoped that the weather will be consistent and fowl them again.

THE DOUBLE ORDER SYSTEM

Went Into Effect on the Michigan Central Railroad Last Sunday

The new double order system went into effect on the Michigan Central Sunday, and now all trains are displaying green flags or green lights. A green flag on an engine implies that another section of the train is following, while the green flag on the rear implies the end of the train. An engine running light will display no flag, unless another train is following.

When the engineers master the new system, they will be competent to run trains on any of the big roads which already have the system in operation. Trains can now run from Niles to Jackson without orders, whereas they formerly took orders at Kalamazoo also.

FARM AND GARDEN

HOW TO DESTROY GOPHERS

Methods Recommended by the Agricultural Department at Washington.

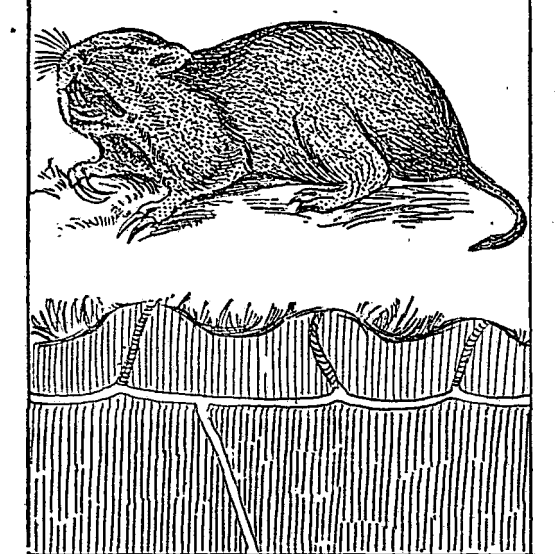

Nearly every district west of the Mississippi river is more or less infested with the pocket gopher, so very destructive to crops.

Gophers may be destroyed by poison, by traps and by the use of carbon bisulphide. Poisoning with strychnine is the most effective means, as it may be done at the lowest cost. As recommended by the United States department of agriculture. Dissolve one ounce of strychnine sulphate in one pint of boiling water, add a pint of thick sugar syrup and stir. Preserve in a close vessel. This quantity is sufficient to poison one-half bushel of shelled corn or other grain. Steep the corn in hot water and allow it to soak over night. Then drain and allow it to soak for several hours in the poison syrup. Corn may be rubbed in meal to remove the excess of moisture.

This poisoned corn may be introduced into the runways by the use of a dipper and a spoon. This dipper, shown in the sketch, may be made from a spade handle with a metal point and a strong bar upon which to place the foot in forcing it into the ground. The bar should be about 15 inches from the point. A hole is made, a spoonful of poisoned corn dropped into it and the hole left open. The corn, of course, must be put in or near the main runways.

Trapping is a good method if followed persistently. It is adapted to POCKET GOPHER AND ITS BURROW. small fields, where only a few gophers are present. A small steel trap may be employed, but there are a number of special gopher traps on the market. These traps must be set in the main gopher tunnel.

Carbon bisulphide has been used extensively for killing gophers. If the burrows are large in dry soil, however, the gas evaporates so rapidly that much of the liquid is required to kill the animals and the methods is expensive. If the burrows are small in moist soil, an ounce of the liquid to each burrow is sufficient. Pour the carbon bisulphide over a bunch of cotton rags or other waste material and push this quickly into the burrow and close the opening. All the farmers in a community, says the Orange Judd Farmer, must cooperate in order to exterminate the pocket gopher. Unless they are eradicated from the neighborhood they will soon come in and restock the territory.

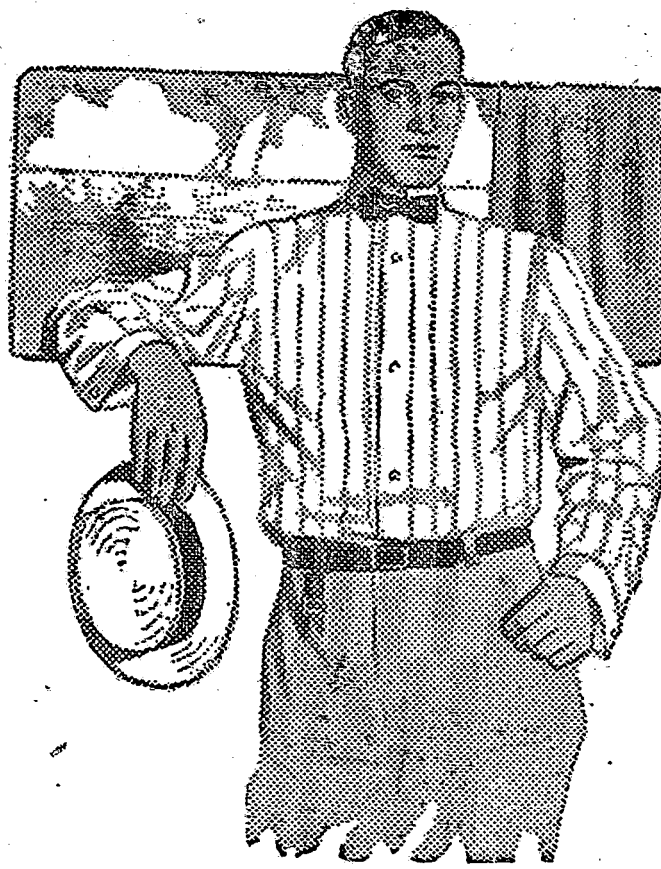

A FEW PLOW POINTS.

The Proper Care of the Tool and an Easy Method of Drawing It to the Field.

Before taking plow to the field, carefully go over it and tighten up all bolts, etc., and your plow will run almost like new. If the plow has become badly rusted from standing out in weather, apply kerosene oil and rub briskly for a few minutes with a brick. A simple device for transferring the plow from one part of the farm to another, as suggested by the Farm and Home, is made of a block of wood 2x4 or five inches wide and 18 to 24 inches long. Iron pins, a between which land slide sets, and a d s a loop to receive plow point. Where a loop or clamp is not at hand, use pins as shown by dotted lines.

FARM NOTES.
A mulch works well around the gooseberry bushes.
Save your own seed, or buy the best seed at four times the cost, if necessary.
Get all the wood ashes you can and apply them to the garden and truck patch.
Don't buy a lot of things you do not need, merely because the agent's tongue is hung in the middle and loose at both ends.
Now, give the boy a few acres to farm with a team, and seeds, and see what he will make of it. It will make him feel like a man and bind him to the farm.—Farm Journal.

JUNE 22, 1906.

If leafy June is to preserve its reputation as a summer month, it should lose no time in turning a new leaf.

Oklahoma and Indian Territory are to be admitted as one state, with one flag, one capital and two United States senators.

The vote of 51,984 for the free bridge, to 6483 against, ought to satisfy even the municipal terminal commission on the subject of vox populi.

Oklahoma is the forty-sixth star, and a bright particular sparkler when its size is compared with that of other states at the time of their admission.

The virtual system of negro slavery established in one of the counties of southeast Missouri suddenly stopped when Uncle Sam discovered it. It may result in some more servitude, but it will be of a penal nature.

A dispatch about an artillery fight in Guatemala states that "after a fearful bombardment of six hours" none of the revolutionists were injured. War is not always what Gen. Sherman said, but in the exceptions it may be described as a Hades of a war.

Canada's 20-foot Georgian bay canal, which will soon be under construction, will cost $100,000,000, and the Dominion has already spent nearly that much on its other canals. A corresponding outlay in the United States, according to population would exceed $3,000,000,000.

Appreciative Husband

"I declare," complained Mrs. Duzzit, "I certainly shall have to punish the children."

"What have they been up to now?" asked Mr. Duzzit.

"They have simply upset my sewing room. Nothing is where it should be. Needles, spools of thread scissors, darning balls and everything have been poked away into the most unexpected corners. I had to search all afternoon to find a card of buttons. It is perfectly exasperating."

"My dear, the children didn't do that I did it."

"You? What possessed you?"

"I thought I was doing you a kindness. After you straightened up the papers and books in my desk so beautifully, I thought it was no more than right that I should return the compliment by putting your sewing room in similar shape."

"The Clansman"

The critic of the New York Commercial said: "It is probable that all over the North and West Mr. Dixon's 'The Clansman' will be cheered liberally, if only for the sake of the stirring plot, the elaborate mounting, the intelligent work of a large company, well chosen as to the principals and well disciplined as to the mob. 'The Clansman' means three hours of vivid, impassioned and at times electrifying action. None but a dullard could sit through it unmoved. The town will go to see it." The prediction of the Commercial critic was verified both in the Metropolis and in every Northern town where "The Clansman" has been played. Never since "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has such a startling and exciting drama of Southern life been presented to the public view. Whether one sympathizes with the author's peculiar views regarding the future of the negro race or not, he is compelled to render tribute to the skill of a master in setting forth the romance and tragedy of Dixie as seen through a South Carolinian's eyes. "The Clansman" is now playing at McVicker's Theatre, Chicago. All out of town orders should be accompanied by remittances made payable to Litt & Dingwall.

EUROPE'S HAPPIEST PEOPLE.

From Their Adherence to the Home Country the Swiss Take the Palm.

If it be in harmony with one's surroundings to work and to thrive a little and to rear children, to have liberty and security and be tolerant and self-respecting constitute any measure of happiness, then the Swiss are by all odds the happiest people in Europe. Such, says a writer in Every-body's, is the judgment of all observers that have been much among them. You can test it by a single reference. From every other nation in Europe there is emigration; from Switzerland little or none. At all times about 300,000 Swiss are in foreign countries, learning languages or methods of combining travel with work, but they come home. The typical Swiss never thinks of making permanent residence outside of Switzerland, or, if once thinking so, he changes his mind when he makes trial thereof.

Bagged at the Knees.

It is difficult to avoid "talking shop." A story which illustrates this is told of the late Col. H. G. Toler, the noted horseman, who died in Wichita. A Kentuckian was speaking of Col. Toler and said: "Col. Toler raised John R. Gentry and many other famous horses. The turf has suffered a great loss in him. A better judge of horseflesh and a pleasanter man you'd never find. I used to love to watch him studying horses. He was very keen. He was at his best then. A rich tailor once brought him to see a new acquisition, a trotter of doubtful quality, for which, however, $4,500 had been paid. The tailor was full of enthusiasm about his horse. He little knew he had been done. 'Look at him,' he said. 'There's a horse for you. Look at them legs.' 'Very pretty,' said Col. Toler, grinning. 'Very nice legs, indeed. But don't you think they bag a bit at the knees?'—Troy Times.

Proper Definition.

The old man came into the parlor just in time to catch the young man kissing his daughter.

"Sir," said the stern parent, "what do you mean by that kind of business?"

"Pardon me," replied the young man, calmly, "but it isn't business at all; it's the pleasantest kind of pleasure."—Chicago Daily News.

Mrs. Binns is on her way to Buchanan.

Ex-Deputy Game Warden C. E. Brewster of Grand Rapids was in Niles yesterday. The reporter was under the impression that Mr. Brewster still held a state office, and naturally asked him for news regarding the nature of the business that brought him to this city. But the Star man was disappointed. Mr. Brewster replied that he was out of politics and was taking advantage of his opportunity to lead an honest life. "The only thing that can be said against me," said Mr. Brewster, "is that I associated with Bill Palmer of Buchanan." At this junction the street car arrived at the station and the ex-warden boarded the same for South Bend.—Niles Star.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Howe most pleasantly entertained fourteen guests at a six o'clock dinner at their home on Front street last evening. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. George Dressler and Mr. Robt. Franklin, while the consolation prizes were captured by Mrs. Robt. Franklin and Mr. Stephen Scott. At a late hour the dinner party was broken up, and the guests departed, each thanking their host and hostess for their charming hospitality.

Poor "Gloomy Gus" is more gloomy than ever. This morning while the writer was out on the circuitous route, he noticed that Gloomy was very sad, and that he even had tears of woe in his Lewitching eyes, and upon questioning him, he said that he was so blue because all the boys were getting ahead of him by getting married, and that he was desirous of getting a wife also, but he could not muster up nerve enough to ask anyone, and that he was still waiting for some one to ask him. Now girls this is your chance, for he can be found in front of B. R. Desenberg & Bros.' store at all times. He also states that he will accept the first offer, so don't delay the opportunity that presents itself to you.

Petitions sent out by candidates for republican nominations for county offices, were circulated in Niles yesterday, and the favorites of the voters are receiving signatures. The petition for Chas. White of Niles who seeks a renomination as prosecutor, is getting its share of signers, their being any number of republicans in Niles anxious to get their names on it. The petition requires less than 400 names, but reports from townships, where it has been circulated in the last two days, indicate that Mr. White will have enough names outside of Niles to get his name on the ticket. I. L. H. Dodd, our own home man, who seeks the register of deeds nomination for a second term, also had his petition in circulation yesterday.

W. E. Kerns, erstwhile manager of the Pilbeam Carnival company, was seen at South Bend Monday morning by a Star man. At the time he was busier than a tramp writing a telegram to his folks, who live at Terre Haute. The nature of the message was a request for money. He told his inquirer that he only wanted enough to enable him to "get back amongst the dear ones again." "Lord only knows how we got out of Buchanan," said Kerns. "When our week closed there, we were down and out. With three shows we dragged ourselves to New Carlisle and were followed by the same old hoodoo. It rained most of the time, and as the villagers had heard of us before our arrival, during the stay we found ourselves up against the real thing. Those who went to New Carlisle are broke, but will probably wiggle out of their predicament the same as I am trying to do now. At Buchanan Pilbeam, took $400 of the carnival money and skipped. He is now at Lansing. The 'trick' owes everyone that gives credit between Jackson, Mich., and New Carlisle, Ind." There are quite a few people in Niles that will agree that Kerns told the truth once, at least, when he made the last statement.—Niles Star.

State Items

Bert Truran dropped dead in Hartford mine, Nagaunee, while waiting for a cage to take him to the surface, on Tuesday. He was leader in the Methodist church choir and one of the most prominent Englishmen in the county. He leaves a widow and five children.

Samuel Ferguson sold his farm in East Brighton six months ago and has since been living with his son-in-law, Walter Edgar, in Brighton, Green Oak township. He became despondent through idleness and after being prevented from hanging himself, locked himself in the cellar on Tuesday and before the door could be forced open, had slashed his wrists and throat with a razor and had bled nearly to death before medical help arrived. His recovery is doubtful.

Jabbed in the eye with an umbrella the point of which penetrated to his brain, Fred Dupkwurt, aged 19, a foreman in a lumberyard, at Saginaw is dead in a local hospital, as a result of a fracas in front of the East Side, Arbeiter hall Saturday night, when, in company with his sweetheart, Miss Lottie Simons, he attempted to make her brother-in-law, Fred Pagel, retract a story reflecting on her, which Pagel is alleged to have circulated. Pagel is under arrest. The prosecuting attorney will make out a warrant charging him with murder. He is 24 years of age and has a wife but no family.

After sitting all night in a tree top with a pack of howling wolves under him, Isaiah Blythe, the missing justice of the peace of Mass City, was found Tuesday morning by a searching party. Blythe became separated from his companions while fishing and was lost 48 hours.

Alonzo Young, died Monday night at Mercy hospital, Bay City, as the result of a blow in the side received last Thursday while he was at work at the American Shipbuilding Co. yards. It was at first thought that Koung was not seriously injured, but his abdomen began to swell until it reached huge proportions and the man screamed in agony. Saturday night he was operated upon, and it was found that an artery in the abdominal cavity had burst. Nearly a gallon of blood was taken from the space in the abdomen. Although the artery was tied and the bleeding stopped complications set in, causing his death. He was 22 years old and single.

Last Tuesday John Anderson and Jacob Carpenter quarreled in Martin Perrine's saloon, in Coldwater, over the proper way to build cement walks. Anderson called Carpenter a name and was immediately knocked down and kicked several times by Carpenter. Anderson was left with out medical attention for three hours and was then taken home, where he died. A post mortem showed that his neck was broken.

"The Alcayde"

The Grand Opera House, Chicago's most popular theatre, comes to the front and center again with another great success in the production of the new comic opera, "The Alcayde." For this delightful opera, for which Frederick Barry supplied the score and George Stephens, Jr., the libretto, the Chicago critics have nought but the most fulsome praise and accord it the distant honor of being a most worthy successor of "The Wizard of Oz" and "Babes in Toyland." The music is said to be among the best that has been heard in Chicago in many a moon, while the book of "The Alcayde" is much better than the majority heard in comic opera. This production is made under the management of Mr. Hackett. Its stage presentation is under the skillful hand of that past master of his art, Julian Mitchell, whose stamp of approval on musical comedy productions has come to be regarded as the highest authority in America. The management certainly could not have massed a more formidable array of talent than those engaged for the leading roles of "The Alcayde" in the selection of Thomas Q. Seabrooke, Eugene Cowles, Van Rensselaer Wheeler, Richie Ling, Miss Ivy Clyde, Miss Alice Hageman, Miss Mabella Baker, augmented by an unusually attractive chorus of six voices. The production in its Spanish atmosphere allows much amplitude for picturesque stage settings and elaborate and rich costuming, all of which the management has taken advantage of. During the run of "The Alcayde", which is scheduled for the entire summer, two matinees will be given weekly, as in addition to the regular Saturday matinee a special bargain Wednesday matinee is announced for each week.
