COUNTY TREASURER SCHULTZ

Who Served Berrien County for One Year and is Now a Candidate for Re-election

Mr. Schultz makes a strong bid for endorsement at the polls next Tuesday at the hands of the voters of the County.

The work he has done in the Treasurer's office shows the good judgement of the members of the Board of Supervisors in appointing him as treasurer following the death of County Treasurer Sherwood.

Not content with merely following the requirements of law in performing the duties of his office, Mr. Schultz has gone further and has served the people most excellently well, and has brought his office to a standard of efficiency that has caused the most favorable comment throughout the County.

His first act was to install a system of book keeping whereby he daily makes a balance of the county funds, making the office as safe as any bank; the handling of accounts has been simplified, settlements with cities

CARL J. SCHULTZ
Republican Candidate for County Treasurer

townships and villages are made promptly at the close of each quarter, whereas, under the general practice such settlements are not made until from three to five months later.

Mr. Schultz has made a practice of giving out for publication in the county papers statements showing balances on settlements and much other business going through his office that might be of public interest.

Tax sales and consequent heavy expense and annoyance to redeem have been largely done away with while not required to do so, Mr. Schultz has made a practice of notificating property owners of any tax liens shown on the books in his office and in this way hundreds of properties have been paid on and saved from going on to the tax sale lists.

In the aggregate hundreds of dollars have been saved to the tax payers in consequence of this work. Where properties had changed hands, where taxes had been overlooked or forgotten, or where erroneous returns or assessments had been made, the treasurer has been untiring in his efforts in assisting to clear the records.

While perhaps not in sympathy with the interests of tax title dealers, Mr. Schultz has worked hard to save the people money, and in this has been very successful. This has been the keynote in all his work, all possible service and accommodation to the people of Berrien County.

If you believe in approving such methods and work, and if you believe in endorsing unquestioned ability, integrity and general character, you can effectively signify such approval when you go to the polls next Tuesday, November 6, 1906

I. L. H. DODD

Mr. I. L. H. Dodd, republican candidate for re-election of Register of Deeds, was born in St. Joseph county, Indiana, Aug. 11, 1851, and removed with his parents to this place on February 7, 1859 and has since lived here and been a loyal citizen.

Mr. Dodd is well and favorably known throughout Berrien County, he having held the office of Register of Deeds for the past two years, with the honesty and integrity, he is so well known for. He is an honorable and upright man, and his business transactions are always honest and

I. L. H. DODD.

Register of Deeds.

straightforward, and we are sure that Mr. Dodd will take charge of his new responsibility if re-elected, as faithfully as he has served the county in his present administrations.

We are confident of his re-election as he will receive the united support of the county as well as the support of a large number of the Democrats.

MAY BE THE STEAMER CHICORA

He Has Every Reason to Believe it is the Large Steamer

Ralph Randall of South Haven, when lifting his nets a few days ago, found that they had become entangled in a huge object lying about one and one-half miles from shore, a short distance up the south beach in about 60 feet of water.

He decided to keep the matter secret until he had learned more concerning his find. He returned the next day with sounding lines and a drag and discovered what proved to be a large wreck over 200 feet long.
He succeeded in pulling some of the loose cordage and wire ropes to the surface. The wreck at its highest point reaches a depth of 30 feet.

Mr. Randall hopes that he has discovered the Chicora, as a reward of $10,000 has been offered by the Graham & Morton company for its location. He was unable to secure any pieces of the wreck with his drag, but with the sounding line he was able to find what he believes to be isolated pieces of wreckage. His lead line became entangled in some heavy object and he was obliged to leave it in the wreck. He has reason to believe that the ship is a large steamer as his sounding line encountered large pieces of metal.

LOUIS PEAK LEAVES TOWN

Gossiping Tongues Say Her Money has Gone with Him but She Denies These Allegations

Dowagiac News:—Lewis M. Peak, the dancing master, has departed for parts unknown and with him went a roll of bills. Behind there remains a number of unpaid obligations while current gossip persists that the money was furnished by a young Do-wagiac widow, Mrs. Cora Hayes, whose confidence is thought to have been betrayed despite that lady's repeated denial.

This much is known—Peak is gone and with him a good sized bunch of cash.

Where Peak has gone is unknown.
To his young men companions he stated he was bound for Chicago and would later go east and join a theatrical troupe. He added Mrs. Hayes was going with him to Chicago. To Mrs. Hayes he stated he was going to South Bend. It is not thought he went to South Bend at all.

The story of the missing money was lent color by the fact that Mrs.
Hayes, Sept. 25, sold to Wm. Fiero, of LaGrange, a contract for her Indiana avenue house and lot for about $850. This money she put in the bank. Recently she drew it out, for the purpose she today stated to The News, of lending it to a party not a resident of Dowagiac who gave his note and offered her a good rate of interest.

"I know who started this story, and there is not one word of truth in it," she declared, "I never loaned or gave Mr. Peak one cent of money. I am not doing that sort of thing. I know where my money is."

Her attention was called to the horse and buggy, valued at $185, which Peak drove for a few weeks before departing, then on the day he left sold to Phil Oppenheim, taking in consideration the balance in money. The outfit, it is claimed, was bought by Mrs. Hayes' money. She declares this is false. Peak and his wife separated last spring and Mrs.
Peak is now living in Kalamazoo.
Later he began paying attention to Mrs. Hayes, and just before his departure he exhibited at different places of business and to different persons a fat roll of bills, saying, Mrs. Hayes had drawn the money from the bank and given it to him.

TYPHOID AT THREE OAKS

Many Ill and Local Physicians Have Strenuous Times
Combating the Disease

The typhoid fever epidemic at Three Oaks is in a most acute stage.
The pretty village has 24 cases and the physicians are on the run day and night. Three persons have died and more deaths will ensue as there are many persons in a precarious condition. The latest victim of the disease is Fred Allcock, a young married man, employed by the Warren Featherbone company, who died Monday.
He leaves, besides a widow, one child.
Death seems to striking right and left and the inhabitants of the village are in terror. Each one fears that he will be the next victim or that some member of his family will be stricken.

The epidemic is making a Michigan City man the gainer thereby. Some time ago it was suspected that the epidemic arose from an impure supply of milk and samples of the village milk supply were sent to Chicago for bacteriological examination. The samples were pronounced to be reeking with typhoid germs. That settles the Three Oaks dairyman's business. No one will take his milk and his help are compelled to dump the milk on the ground. The dairyman himself is sick in bed with typhoid. The original infection is traced to an open well from which the cows were given water. This well has since been filled with soil and the supposed source of the infection destroyed. The Michigan City man who profits by the situation at Three Oaks is August R. Han, a dairyman; Mr. Han has a wagon at Three Oaks all the time and is practically supplying the entire village with milk.

A NOBLE YOUNG MAN

Is Taken From Our Midst, Leaving a Vacancy Hard to be Filled

The death angel, who has been hovering over our village the past week, spread its wings and took away Charlie Bear, a bright and highly respected young man last Saturday afternoon. His death being caused from that dread disease, typhoid fever.

In Charlie's death, we lose a young man, who was always known for his cheerful and christian manners. He was one of those noble young men, who make the world better, for his being here, and was an excellent example for his fellow chums.

Charlie was only 23 years of age, having been born in Milwaukee, Wis., October 24, 1884. He came to Buchanan about a year and a half ago, making his home with Dr. and Mrs.
J. W. Emmons, with whom he has since resided.

A year ago last Easter, he was baptized by the Rev. Chas. Shook, and that evening he united with the Advent Christian church, of which he has been a faithful member ever since.

He leaves to mourn his untimely demise, one brother, Jacob Retzel and three sisters, Misses Mamie Gilbert, Anna Retzel and Lena Emmons, besides a host of sorrowing friends and relatives.

The funeral services will be held from the Advent church, Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Chas. Shook, assisted by Rev. F. C. Watters.

"The Wayside Club," the favorite song of this young man, will be rendered by Rev. F. C. Watters and Mrs.
Hendra. Other music will be rendered by the quartet, consisting of Mrs.
Hendra, Miss Mary Glidden and Rev.
Watters and John Mead.

His young chums, Messrs. Robert Bates, Frank Miller, Fred Miller, George Currier, Ward Hamilton and Burton Broceus, will act as pall bearers. Interment will be made in Oak Ridge cemetery.

THEIR FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Was Celebrated in a Royal Manner by Their Many Friends

The following is a clipping from the Dawson County Review, Glendive, Montana, and relates the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E.
D. Batchelor. Mr. Batchelor is a brother of George and I. N. Batchelor of this place, and he is well and favorably known in this place.

The fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Batchelor was made the occasion of a delightful social gathering at their pleasant home on Thursday evening.

The affair was participated in by members of Yellowstone chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and a Ly number of specially invited guests.
It was all a complete surprise to the host and hostess, who were fairly overcome when the rear door of the house was bombarded by a merry crowd of social insurgents.

Mr. and Mrs. Batchelor were further overcome when they were called on the carpet, so to speak, and Mrs.
John Mack made presentation of a handsome rest chair on behalf of the Eastern Star members. Earlier in the evening those who room at the Batchelor home had presented a fine art engraving in token of their esteem.

The evening was altogether an informal one, spent with impromptu musical selections, chorus songs about the piano and, last but not least the partaking of delicious refreshments served by Miss Batchelor and Miss Haverland of St. Paul, assisted by Etta Sorenson and Gertrude Haskell.

The funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late home, Rev. H. L. Potter, of Dowagiac officiating. Interment was made in Oak Ridge cemetery.

WERE QUIETLY MARRIED

Miss Myrtle Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram V. Reed, 1533 Kenmore avenue, Chicago, and Mr. Sydney McCollough were married on Monday by the Rev. Frederic Wedham, of the Episcopal church of Grand Haven, Mich. The marriage was expected to take place during the winter, but in order to escape the inconvenience of an elaborate ceremony, and not because of parental objections, Miss Reed and Mr. McCollough slipped away to Grand Haven and were quietly married.

Mrs. McCollough is an author of some note, being the writer of "Love Letters of a Musician," "The Master's Violin," "Lavender and Old Lace," "Shadow of Victory," and "The Sign of the Jack-o'-Lantern."

The marriage is the outgrowth of an acquaintance begun when Miss Reed was editor of the Voice, a West Division High school paper, and Mr. McCollough was editor of a Toronto college paper. After December, Mr. and Mrs. McCollough will be at home at 2281 Kenmore avenue.

Miss Reed is well known in Buchanan, her father having been pastor of the local Larger Hope church.

STEAMER REACHES THIS PORT

City of Kalamazoo Encountered Storm on Course to Chicago

Benton Harbor, Sat., Oct. 27.—The steamer City of Kalamazoo reached this port this morning after a four hours' battle with the wildest of seas in old Lake Michigan. The boat forced its way into the harbor at St. Joseph about 10 o'clock after a mighty struggle with the nasty storm that has swept the lake since early morning. The boat steamed down the ship canal and tied up at the Benton Transit Co.'s docks, and when the passengers and crew stepped ashore not a leg offered up supplications for being saved from watery graves. Passengers aboard the boat have experiences to tell, that few pass through and live to relate.

At 2:15 this morning the Kalamazoo left South Haven on her regular run to Chicago. Good time was made for about three hours but about 6 o'clock the stiff gale had made a sea that was quite choppy. As the storm increased the waves rolled higher and it was not long before the staunch craft was being buffeted about to the alarm of crew and passengers. For a while the captain endeavored to keep his boat on her course, but as the storm grew worse he decided to attempt to make the Michigan City harbor.

The course of the steamer was changed and the boat was headed for Michigan City. The captain was not long in realizing that it would be utterly impossible for him to make the port and the only course open to him was to head his steamer towards St. Joseph. Slowly the boat fought its way towards this harbor and many times before the piers were reached passengers and crew gave up all hope of ever reaching shore. When the vessel entered the harbor there were many people on the bluffs who had been anxiously watching the plucky fight.

For a time utter confusion reigned. The freight damaged was considerable. The boat was heavily loaded with apples and potatoes, one thing that perhaps saved the vessel from turning turtle. Between 30 and 40 passengers were aboard.

The wind was at the stern of the Kalamazoo as she entered the harbor and although the engines were reversed the ship shot into the space between the piers and bystanders declare that the steamer was making 25 miles with the waves. The Pere Marquette river bridge was opened just in time to escape an accident.

IN MEMORIAM

GEORGE HENRY BRADLEY
George Henry Bradley was born in Buchanan Township, August 12, 1869. He was married to Miss Cora Zerbe, December 23, 1891. To them were born two children, a daughter Winifred, aged 13 years and a son Donald, aged 3 years, all of whom survive him.
The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradley, pioneers of Buchanan. He was always a resident of this locality. In boyhood he con-

The Buchanan Record
Till December 1, we offer the four above mentioned papers one year $1.30 to new subscribers

All the papers are of well known too elaborate upon their sterling quality, but it might be mentioned in connection with The Buchanan Record that it gives you more lines of reliable news items, (local and county news) in its 104 issues during the year than any other paper in the county.

Our correspondence Columns are not compiled by "Clipping Artists" (scissors), but by bonified correspondents at every point given a heading.

We do not take your money for the Weekly Inter Ocean or any other paper and not deliver the goods.

It is conceded by all Chicago publishers that the BUCHANAN RECORD is the best local and county paper in Berrien county and consequently have singled it out for their great clubbing offers this year.

GRANBERRIES IN A TRUST

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 25.—Appleton grocers believe they have discovered a new combine. Price lists were received here from three different cranberry jobbers, all quoting precisely the same figure and all demanding from 8 to 10 cents more per quart than was asked a year ago. Cranberries, it is said, will reach as high as 18 cents per quart this fall.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the many friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our loving wife and daughter.

MR. HERBERT BACHELOR

AND CHILDREN.

The Candidate's Daughter
Her father was a candidate,
His daughter was in love;
Her face was morning light to me,
Her eyes the stars above—
Her father was a candidate;
This much is worthy note—She came to me, all smiles to state;
"Pa needs the floating vote!"
"My dear," I said, "you cannot get This floating voter's vote Without you give him something first To make this voter float Something to life him up from earth And spread his joyous wing In a flight of sunny ecstasy Where larks and linnets sing!"
The rogue political, she saw Clean through my anecdote, And blushed a bit, and archly sighed;
"So you would sell your vote!"
Her father was a candidate;
He needed floaters bad—
The sweetest lips I ever—Hush!
I voted for her dad!

Mr. Myron Mead made the Record office a call yesterday, and informed us that he is the loser of 2300 fruit trees from that recent snow storm. The trees were all three years old, and would of borne fruit next year. He showed us a piece of the bark from one of the trees, and is an example of the condition of the entire orchard. It is a great loss, and Mr. Mead is to be sympathized with, along with the many other losers.

PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED

At the home of Mr. O. H. Baker last Friday evening, the Misses Cora Lentz and Elizabeth Baker, entertained the U. D. T. club to which they belong. Anticipating "Halloween" they celebrated in a grand old style. The home presented a most bewitching and weird appearance as it was beautifully decorated with Jack-o-lanterns, many candles, and cobwebbing from garret to cellar. When the guests arrived and were ushered in by a ghost, then turned over to another ghost, it so mystified them they were speechless for a time. Mystic writing, fortune telling by the gypsies, unweaving the cobweb to obtain the fate of a pardner for refreshments, were great fun. Too quickly the hours of the evening passed. As the happy guests wended their way homeward, no doubt, thought of the future and the many blessings to attend them, having such confidence in the ability of the gypsies to read the future.

Much credit is due to the Misses Nancy Baker and Myrtle Lentz who so ably assisted the Misses Lentz and Baker in making the evening so enjoyable.

A. C. Weaver, who has been home ill for a few days returned to his work at Danville last Friday morning.

Here is the cold weather now, you will need your overcoats. Send them to F. J. Banke, tailor, to have them fixed, or order a new one. c79

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith moved part of their household goods to Chicago yesterday, where they will reside. Mr. and Mrs. Ava Schram will occupy their house during their absence. We are more than sorry to lose these citizens, but wish them success and prosperity in their new home.

The thieves that burglarized the Niles business places last week are the boldest that have worked in the south end of the county for some time. Sheriff Tennant has his entire force of deputies at work on the case and he is making strenuous efforts to capture the robbers. Reward cards offering $50 for an information that may prove of any value in apprehending the thieves have been issued and today the cards were sent out all over the county. From different parts of the county complaints have come to the sheriff's office that a band of gypsies or professional crooks are wandering about stealing most everything of value.

The Walking Jewel Box

She wears a necklace round her throat

Her ears are pierced with jeweled drops.

Her haircombs glitter with gems. Rings weigh down her slender fingers.

Bracelets rattle round her arms. Jeweled hatpins stab her hat.

Her veil is caught with a jeweled pin.

There's a brooch of gems at the front of her collar and two more in back.

Her jeweled watch is worn on a jeweled fob.

Her purse is of gold, the frame fretted with gems.

Jeweled buttons bedeck her frock. Really the fashionable girl should be locked up in a safe.

Two for Less than the price of ONE

The Buchanan Record, Semi weekly and
The Chicago Daily Tribune

Both papers one year $2.50 to NEW SUBSCRIBERS. The regular subscription price of the semi weekly Buchanan Record is $1.00 a year in advance. The regular price of the Chicago Daily Tribune is $4.00 a year.

By special arrangement with the publishers of the Tribune, for a time limited to December 1st, we will accept a year's subscription to our paper and the Daily Tribune both for $2.50 to new subscribers.

It would seem unnecessary to say more about this extra newspaper bargain. The Tribune is "The World's Greatest Daily Newspaper," and of course you want your local newspaper. The one which has faithfully served you for 40 years, and today stands for PRINCIPAL and HONESTY, giving you all the Home News and County Happenings direct by reporters on the scene and not borrowing from the columns of our neighboring county publisher (with a pair of handy scissors) local and county items which have been clipped and reprinted from any paper or at any time (SINCE THE FLOOD.) The greater part of our paper is not filled up with what is known as patent inside or STOCK NEWSPAPER and ALMANAC FILLING of a stale character. Our advertisements are all Bonified and Paid for at a One Price To All.

FORM your own conclusions and ARRIVE at the decision that a 1 one year's subscription to the SEMI-WEEKLY BUCHANAN RECORD and THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE is the Greatest Newspaper Bargain of the Year

EAU CLAIRE

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary Marquis, wife of Joe Marquis were held Saturday afternoon at the Union church at Berrien Centre. In spite of the inclement weather, a large number of friends and relatives attended the services. Mrs. Marquis has been ill for the past year. She was 59 years of age, and an old and respected resident of this part of the country. Her decease is sincerely mourned by those who knew her.

One night last week the neighborhood was aroused about 10 o'clock by the ringing of bells, the blowing of horns, the shooting of guns and other similar disturbances, which took place about the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jenkins. The young couple were recently married unbeknown to their friends, who took this method of expressing their appreciation and congratulations. The joke however turned out to be on the disturbars of the place, instead of on the bride and groom, as the latter had gone out to spend the evening with some friends and so missed the delightful serenade.

Work on the road had to be suspended Saturday on account of rain. In the afternoon it was feared that another snow storm would set in, and all day Sunday the snow continued to threaten. The majority of the people are not much more prepared for winter now than when the first snow storm came, which did so much damage, and it is to be hoped that the weather man will be kind enough to defer winter for some time yet.

It has been whispered around town that Gorton's Minstrels will be here next Wednesday night. We all know what these people are, they having played to a crowded house here last January. It would be wise for everyone to secure their seats at the first opportunity.
