SUMMER READING HERE, AND IT'S ONLINE!

Buchanan District Library is again dropping paper and going green for our Summer Reading Program! Kids and adults can register for Summer Reading online with Wandoo Reader starting June 1st and log their reading anytime, anywhere, as well as participate in fun challenges! The program will run June 1st through July 20th. Prizes will be awarded throughout the program, and top readers will also win prizes. Visit Buchananlibrary.org for the link.

Not interested in participating online? No problem! Stop by the Front Desk to register or log your reading. See the next page for more information on the Youth Summer Reading Program, and below for Adult Summer Reading.

2019 Youth Summer Reading Program

Summer Reading is again online using Wandoo Reader! The program is open to infants through 17-year-olds and will run June 1st through July 20th, with the Awards Ceremony taking place July 25th. Registration starts June 1st. Join us at the library 9:00am-12:00pm on June 1st to register online, receive a free book, and paint some rocks. You may also sign up from home at your convenience.

Start logging your reading on Wandoo right away. Beginning June 10th, tickets will be awarded for every 60 minutes read and for completing challenges. Tickets are redeemable for prizes. You can redeem them each week or save them up for a bigger prize. The last day to log progress will be July 20th. Top readers will be announced during the Awards Ceremony on July 25th.

Visit buchananlibrary.org for the link to Wandoo. If you don’t wish to log your reading online, you can still participate. Sign up at the library and check in each week to log your reading progress.
