ESPN, USA keep growing

By Steve K Wajz

The two top sports-oriented cable networks, ESPN and USA, are continuing to obtain more quality sports programming

The USA network is now carrying an NASL Wednesday Night Game of the Week featuring the top teams in the struggling pro soccer loop. The network will also beam several playoff tilts in August.

Meanwhile, ESPN is rumored to be in contention for broadcasting the games of the newly formed United States Football League, which will bow in March 1983. Several newspaper reports have claimed that ESPN president Chet Simmons had been approached by league officials to become its commissioner.

If the USFL clinches a deal with ESPN for exclusive telecast rights, the league would be the first from its inception to ink a contract with a network other than NBC, CBS or ABC.

ESPN has already made a deal with a regional sports syndicator, Metrosports, to present major college football and basketball games in the fall and winter. Included in the package are the Liberty Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Notre

Jason Robards

Dame football and basketball games and Big Ten conference basketball events.

REEL-LIFE — More movie deals starring real-life sports figures are in the works. Charley Lau, the Chicago White Sox's highly regarded batting coach, has been signed by producer-director Herbert Ross for a starring role in 20th Century-Fox's "Max Dugan Returns."

The film, which is now before the cameras, also stars Marsha Mason, Jason Robards and Donald Sutherland. Lau, whose instruction has aided such top sluggers as George Brett and Reggie Jackson, plays a coach hired to turn Max Dugan's (Robards) grandson into a home run hitter.

RCA Records is in the midst of an extensive cross-merchandising campaign involving the label, the Gillette Corp., RC Cola and the RC Sannon-Louise Mandrell LP, "Me and My RC."

RCA has just released a double-sided single from the album, "Our Wedding Band," backed with "Just Married." Louise will also co-host the "Music City News Cover Awards" broadcast on June 7.

The hit single, "We're Number One," written and recorded by Larry Gatlin, has been selected as the promotional theme for all sports programming aired on CBS-TV.

"The song falls within the image that CBS is trying to convey. We feel it perfectly fits the caliber of our sports programming, current and upcoming," says CBS-TV Sports Information Director Jay Rosenstein.

"We're Number One" will be the only commercial music heard on CBS sports telecasts for the next several weeks, according to Doug Towey, director of on-air promotions for the network.

Meanwhile, Gatlin's single, "In Like with Each Other," seems to be on its way to becoming another No. 1

FALL TARGET — Come fall, ABC will launch an all-out prime-time offensive to topple CBS from its lofty Nielsen perch. For the past two years, CBS has easily won the fall-spring Nielsen ratings race with a combination of innovative programming and slick promotion.

In order to accomplish its goal, ABC axed several series that had begun to show signs of weakness including "Mork and Mindy," "Taxi," "Strike Force," "Today's FBI," "Code Red" and "Barney Miller."

Series that bowed as second-season entries, survived the axe and were added to the fall schedule include "Joanie Loves Chachi," "9-5" and "T.J. Hooker." Like NBC, ABC will try and lure younger viewers with doses of comedy and action-adventure series.

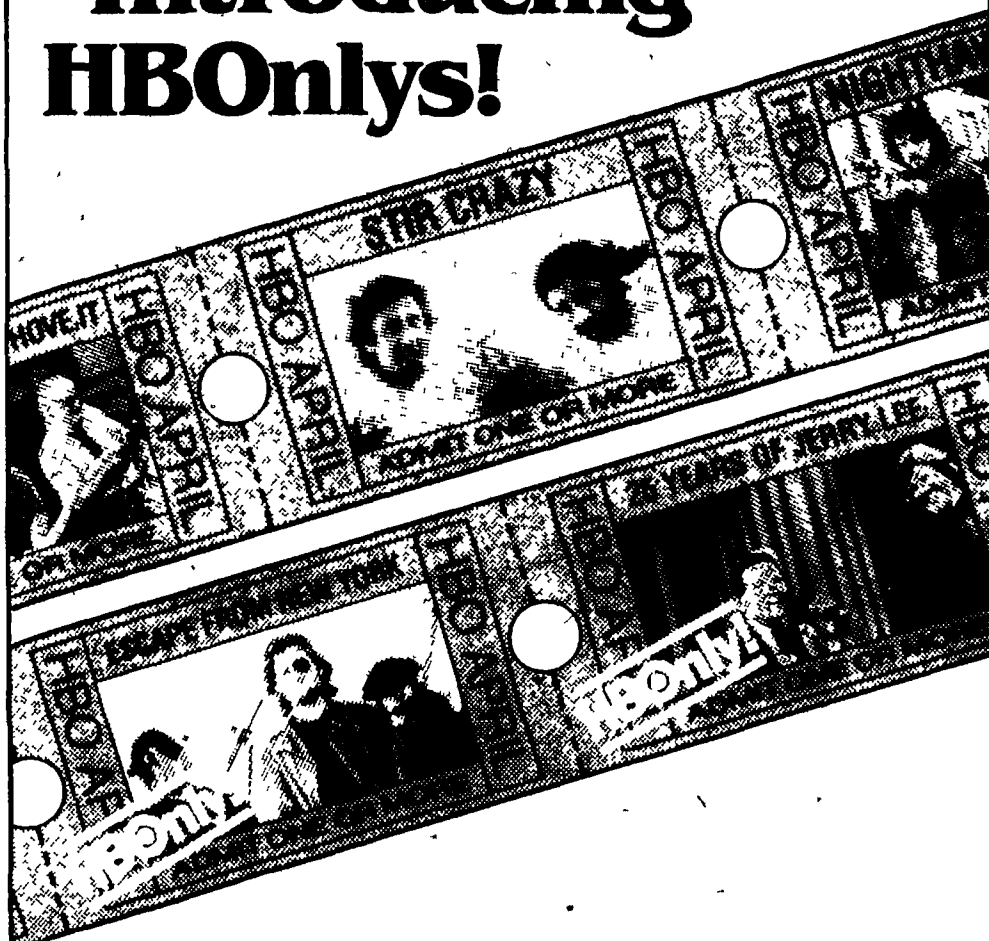

The comedies include "The New Odd Couple" starring Ron Glass and Demond Wilson ("Sanford and Son") in an all-black version of the early '70s hit series, "Star of the Family" headlining newcomer Kathy Malenik as a teen-age rock star; and "For Better or Worse" featuring Richard Crenna and Patty Duke Astin as a married couple who try to retain their senses of independence.

The action-adventure series are "Tales of the Brass Monkey," a series patterned after "Raiders of the Lost Ark" and starring Stephen Collins and Marta DuBois, "The Quest" with Perry King, Noah Beery Jr., Ray Vitte and Karen Austin as heirs to a throne in a mythical Mediterranean kingdom; and "Matt Houston" headlining Lee Horsley as a playboy detective. There will also be a "reality" series based on "Ripley's Believe It or Not" books.

At press time, ABC had not announced its back-up series, but it's anticipated that the network will put at least two other series into production later this summer to insure itself against instant failure by one of its fall shows.

One fall show that could be quickly canceled is "The Greatest American Hero," which will be entering its third season. ABC has moved it against CBS's "Dallas," whose past ratings have always crushed the competition.
