At Monday's meeting Buchanan township supervisor Ivan Price read a letter of resignation from township clerk Carol Lohry. Her resignation for reasons of health was accepted with regret. Mrs. Carl Newsom, deputy clerk, will serve as acting clerk until the board appoints someone to take Mrs. Lohry's place.

Buchanan Township Board Cool About Proposed Jaycee Circus

The Buchanan township board had received word that the state liquor commission had refused a license to Royal Valley because of the unfavorable action by the township board. This was for a Resort Class C license. Brookwood Golf Course relinquished a Class B license and Royal Valley had applied for that. At the last meeting this license was granted to Riley Party Pantry on Front Street by a vote of three to two. Al Rotman of Royal Valley was curious why there seems to be such a personal feeling on the board against Royal Valley. He was told that a letter regarding their application was mislaid to former township clerk Clayton Spaulding who sent it back to Lansing so that it didn't arrive in time for the board's meeting.

The Jaycees were planning to have a circus at the Redbud Track N Trail. Ivan Price gave several reasons why it wouldn't be a good idea to grant permission. He said there was no place in the ordinance for a circus, that approval would have to be received from the planning commission and from the board of appeals, that August 28 was "a poor date" for a circus, and that times were too hard to expect people to pay for a circus. The main reason for the lack of support seemed to be that the Jaycees hadn't consulted the township board before making their plans.

A moment of silent prayer was observed for Rudy Mori, plan commission member, and Nick Sceandra, doser operator, both of whom died recently. Mrs. Marie Zelmer was appointed to Mori's term on the plan commission as the first woman on that body.

The township had voted not to allow the city of Buchanan to intervene in the law suit with the boundaries commission over the annexation of land for Schirmer Parkway. They accepted a petition from residents asking the county to protect nearby roads with barricades and to instigate weight restrictions for the area.

One resident conducting a boat rental business on Weaver Lake wanted to know if the property's non-conforming status would be continued if the property was sold and the same business was continued. He was finally told it would, and then an argument ensued between the owner and Price as to which way a tile drained. Price said if the drain were opened, the lake would run out.

The Elm Valley Road residents were told that the township is going to widen and grade a segment of the road at their own expense. It was apparent that the county had a low priority for this and several other township roads.

The Rex Allens were still upset about the condition of a neighbor's place and wished the township would do something about Fred Hankins. They claimed that the ordinance called for housing of animals at least 250 feet from a house, and the present housing was about 135 feet. Price said he'd look into it.

A fireman asked if anything had been done about getting a better communications system, and he was told that the chief was still working on it.

Shoplifters

Two juveniles were arrested last Thursday after they had been observed pocketing items at Gamble's. They were held by employees until the police came. The boys were petitioned to juvenile court.

Unity Seeks State Approval

Unity Hospital in Buchanan is seeking state approval of a $170,000 renovation project. The proposal, under state and federal regulations, requires prior state approval before work can be started.

Hospital sources indicate that the planned project will correct all of the physical plant deficiencies identified by the state's hospital licensing program. They said the improvements will have no effect on the facility's existing services or bed count, and should be completed by next April.

The hospital has filed an application for a Certificate of Need with the Division of Health Facility Planning and Construction of the State Health Department at Lansing.

Drug Violator

Last Thursday, Buchanan police noted a vehicle passing in a no passing zone on N Redbud Trail. The car was stopped and the driver was arrested for reckless driving. The officers smelled marijuana, and a search revealed a plastic bag containing it. Mark Chamberlain of Berrien Springs was then arrested for violation of the controlled substance act, and the suspected drugs were sent to the lab for identification.

Three File

Although the election for city commissioner in Buchanan isn't until November, candidates had to file their petitions Tuesday. Three persons had taken out petitions. Only one seat will be in contest, that of Mayor Joseph Bachman who is going to seek re-election.

Cletha Wade from Berrien County Action filed her petition Tuesday with the hope that citizens from her neighborhood can be represented in the city government.

Expected to file his petition Tuesday was Tom Hagley of Liberty Street, although he would have to register to vote first. He's a former Buchanan High School graduate who has graduated from the United Electrical Institute.

Jailed

Two men were observed fighting on East Front Street near McCoy's Creek last week. As police approached, one subject identified as David Withers fled on foot. The other subject, Joseph Topash of Eau Claire was taken to the station. Some time later after Withers had been apprehended he was using the telephone in the police station, swung the receiver at officer Jim Ellis, tearing the phone from the wall in the process. He was sprayed with Mace and lodged in jail.

Letter To The Editor

To the Editor

We have lived in this fair city of Buchanan for five years and have enjoyed living here very much. We own our own home and feel that Buchanan has many things and services to offer for anyone wanting a place to reside and a wholesome place to raise a family.

There is one service that we miss and think that Buchanan needs very much and that is an emergency ambulance service. The City where we resided, before coming to Buchanan, has had this service for thirty some odd years and now operates two units. It is a city of about two and one-half times the population of Buchanan.

It seems that many small cities and villages all directions from Buchanan seem to be able to have such a service. I feel personally that some sort of a plan could be worked out that would not put a burden on any one family or person.

A membership plan similar to what is being used in a village and the surrounding community that lies just west of Buchanan appeals to me very much. Besides this membership I think a nominal charge should be charged for each run to help pay the expenses and the volunteers and to keep the unit from being called unnecessarily or for nuisance runs.

With the industry and business in this city it seems to me that a service of this type could be supported. It certainly takes too long to get an ambulance to this city when an emergency arises. The saving of one life would certainly be worth the price and sacrifice that would be put forth for a service of this kind.

The older you become the more conscious one becomes of what this could mean to our community.

How about our Junior Chamber of Commerce thinking about this kind of a project for the future?

Sincerely,
Dale Ulery

A trip to Mackinac enhances one's pride of this state. It's a beautiful trip up there. The area was enhanced by the arrival of all the sailing ships which had been in the race.

The car did 27 miles to the gallon coming home on the freeway.

Brought back some Petosky stones which will need lots of polishing.

The Record received a check for $12 from the state of Michigan marked "sales tax overpayment." We don't know what it's for, but the check was cashed promptly.

The editorial department took last Thursday, Friday and Saturday off and have been paying for it ever since in items missed in the paper. An apology to those who were slighted. We don't get away very often.

Bill Desenberg has an interesting story to tell about an old mare who was badly treated and which he's trying to fatten up. She was nothing but skin and bones when she was returned, and for several days couldn't seem to get enough water to drink.

An anonymous letter arrived asking why the Poorman's Recreation building hasn't been fixed so it looks better. We've been told that it will be, although the whole property is for sale.

A part broke on the big press and those good neighbors at the Niles Star came to the rescue. It was such a little part, but it had to be sent from Chicago.

Clear Lake Services

Speaker this Sunday, August 10 for the 9 o'clock morning worship service at Fuller's Clear Lake Resort will be Robert Hudson, pastor of the Buchanan Church of Christ.

These informal lakeside services are sponsored each Sunday by the Buchanan Ministerial Association.

Stress: When In Doubt—Do Something

Your heart is pounding and the palms of your hands are moist. Your sensitivity to sights and sounds has increased. Your eyes are dilated and your hearing becomes acute. The adrenalin flows. Your body becomes tense, as your fingers and toes go cold. You are probably experiencing stress.

You might be walking down a dimly lit hallway, or having an argument with someone. Maybe you just learned that you have been promoted. These and many other life events commonly cause stress.

"When this happens, do something, but not just anything," recommends Dr. David Imig, Michigan State University Extension Family Life Specialist.

The feeling of stress is the extra energy your body provides so you can react. If you don't do something, you are left with stressful feelings pent-up inside.

There are three major ways people react to stress: aggression, withdrawal and adaptation. Aggression is a quick way to expend the excess energy that comes with stress. Physical aggression may be socially acceptable (playing tennis) or unacceptable (abusing children).

Verbal aggression is a typical way humans deal with excess energy. Instead of hurting people physically, they hurt them emotionally by ridiculing them, being sarcastic, etc.

Aggressive responses do not eliminate the source of stress, they only temporarily alleviate uncomfortable feelings.

A second way people may react to stress is by withdrawing from the stressing situation. Some stay home from work. Others daydream, sleep or take drugs. Some adults may reach for a cigarette or a drink. Any number of responses may occur, but not all of them are good.

"Adapting to the situation is probably the best way to react to stress," states Dr. Imig. Learn to recognize stressful situations, so you can control your heart rate and relax. Stress can kill. People who are chronically under stress may develop serious health problems.

Medical studies show that excessive stress is related to problems such as hypertension, nervousness, irritability, ulcers, colitis, heart problems, depression, anxiety, alcoholism, headaches, backaches, nervous breakdowns, constipation and diarrhea.

Next week's article will be on "Coping with Stress."

One Man's Way to Watergate
By Jeb Magruder

This is a frightening book. It frankly tells of some very ruthless men. Haldemann comes off as the toughest. Gordon Liddy's whole operation sounds like something from a silly movie. Some of John Mitchell's problems with Martha are recounted so that a reader might feel that this man has already been punished enough.

There is something still rather uncertain about the role of Nixon himself. Apparently Magruder saw little of him and answered directly to his henchman. Practically nothing is said about Ehrlichman. Another character who comes off badly is Colson, who had little use for Magruder and vice-versa.

The book doesn't really tell us anything we don't already know, but it's well written and gives an inside picture of much of what was going on in the White House. The author himself tends to gloss over his own involvement and indulges in quite a bit of self-congratulation for having blown the whistle on the whole mess.

Break-In

A break-in at the Buchanan Co-Ops on Bakertown Road is being investigated by the State Police. A door was kicked open sometime Sunday or early Monday and a Burrows 50 brass gram probe and two pairs of pliers stolen.

Police reported that while investigating they discovered an abandoned motorcycle nearby. It was traced to Tom Lister of Bakertown Road whom police said did not realize the cycle had been stolen from his garage.

Another Case of People Needing Help In Buchanan

The paper was ready for the press last Tuesday, so the editor and his wife went home, tired from a normal Tuesday. They stopped on the way to pick up some sweet corn. It was great with pork chops and deviled eggs.

Things weren't going well at the Record, however. A small screw in the folder broke off, and Mike Carlisle was desperately trying to fix it himself.

The phone rang at home. It was a minister to report that there were nine people downtown who needed help. Unable to sit and think about them, we drove down.

In front of the post office was an old car full of people. On the post office lawn were some long haired characters who hang out there. They had been yelling at passersby, and the people in the car were frightened.

Their story was sad. They were originally from near here and had moved many years ago to the state of Washington. The man and his son in law were both carpenters but had been unable to find work. They decided to come home. In their possession, strangely enough, they had a letter from the state of Michigan telling them to come on, and they would help provide housing for them when they got here. The great generous state of Michigan!

The two men had found work to begin the next day in Dowagiac. They merely needed a place to stay for the night. It was discovered that none of them, adults or the five children, had eaten anything. Boosters to the rescue again. Fifteen hamburgers were cooked by Kenny himself. A store was visited for milk and oatmeal cookies.

They came up to the hill where the editor's wife busied herself with washing up some of the children, something she hasn't been doing for several years.

Phone calls netted some concern but no real offers of help except money, which really wasn't needed, until one great lady was called. She went to work and started calling too. Eventually she called back to say that arrangements had been made for two rooms and a bath in a motel in Berrien Springs.

The family were grateful for the place to stay and were somewhat refreshed from their meal, but the item which seem to appeal to them most was the promise of a bath. They'd been cramped in the car, all nine of them, for eight days, all the way from Walla Walla.

Some argue that Buchanan doesn't want to get the reputation for being a place for every indigent person to come for help. But several persons slept better last week for helping these people. It also pointed up the need for somebody to contact in such an emergency.

If it hadn't been for one fine lady, nine people would have had to sleep in a car. The part about it all which is ironic was the man's final remark, "It's great to be back in Michigan where people are good."

At eleven, Mike called to say that the folder still wasn't working. Good neighbor Barry Manley came down and helped. It's another long, long story, but the paper finally was printed last Wednesday.

Bicard Reunion

The fifth Bicard Family Reunion took place at Centennial Park July 26 with 30 family members attending.

Mr and Mrs Leonard Bicard had six children and 13 grandchildren. Mr and Mrs Van Fely, Cheryl, Tammie, DeVone III, Deborah and Pamela of Osceola, Indiana. Mr and Mrs David Bicard, Beth, David and Becky of Niles. Mr and Mrs Steven Bicard, Terri, Jimmy and Mike, Mr and Mrs Jake Kirk, Jimmy and Deanna, Warren Bicard and Patrick Bicard, all of Buchanan. Also their nephew Dewey Bicard and his sons, Randy and Rod, also of Buchanan.

Guests attending included Lee Wilder, Ruth Kirst and Margaret Rogers.

Roast corn and fried chicken were on the menu as well as watermelon cooled in McCoy Creek.

Games were played with Jimmy Kirk, Davey Bicard and Tammy Fely - Deanna Kirk winning the three legged race. Adults and children separated into teams for a 16" softball game ending in a tie. Horseshoe champs were Van Fely and David Bicard.

Here From Florida

Former residents Mr and Mrs AW Phoenix are here from Nokomis Florida, visiting their children and friends in the area. They plan to return home approximately the 15th of August.

City Hall Notes

By Robert Faulhaber,
City Manager

The success of the sprinkling ban and water consumption alert imposed last Thursday demonstrated a wonderful sense of community spirit in response to a problem.

All of our local industries curtailed water consumption short of limitation on production and were really effective.

Home owners responded to the sprinkling ban and must have made other water-use savings as our records of consumption were indeed impressive.

During the first 24-hour period after the first radio announcement of the problem our records indicate a drop of over 180,000 gallons per day. This moved us up above the danger area, and at no time after that did the water level in the tanks approach a danger level.

The city water department extends its appreciation for this outstanding cooperation and response to the problem.

Neal Burks, Superintendent of Water Department, cannot remember any time since the installation of the second water tank, that the department has been faced with the necessity of calling for limited use. Three wells have always been able to handle the problem. Very seldom, if ever, are four wells used simultaneously. However, based on our experience last week we shall attempt to have back up capability always available during the months of July and August in the future, pending, of course, the unavoidable mechanical breakdown.

Incidentally, the Fire Department with the cooperation of Bertrand and Buchanan Townships is always in a position to meet the water demands of fire fighting with or without a city water supply - another example of outstanding cooperation in face of a problem.

Help Make Flags For Youth Fair

A group of 34 flags and banners used by explorers and colonial forefathers are to be flying over the Berrien County Youth Fair next week. Mary Snow Search, Extension Home Economist, drew up the designs and did the research for the flags.

Various organizations furnished the money for them and 4-H and extension club leaders volunteered their time and effort to make the flags, which were then presented to the Youth Fair directors.

Among the Buchanan area women involved in this effort were Mrs Jack Harroff, Mrs Robert Rose, Mrs Otto Jury, Mrs Lester Sebasty, Mrs John Pfeil and Mrs Arthur Covault. From all reports the handwork of the women will be clearly visible to fair goers.

A maintenance retirement supper for Clark Equipment men at the Legion last week honored (front) Harold Carlson, Claude Denno, Louis Bruno, Jim Novak, Joe Mottle, (back) Elvin Fortner, Warren Smith, Leroy Shepardson, and Robert Naragon. Lee Topash was absent.

It's An Opportunity For All Of Us

What this community seems to need badly is more things to bring us together. Each of us seems to go his own way. There're the people who frequent the Moose or the Legion, there are the Lions and the Masons. There are those who prefer the country club. Each little church group is a tight little circle, apparently self-sufficient.

It would be great if some common purpose could unite us all in common effort, for there's a great deal of talent among all those groups. It would be wonderful if there could be more exchange of ideas among those connected with labor and those in management, among blacks and whites, among the various many denominations of our churches and among the organizations.

This opportunity may be presented to us if we take advantage of it. The plan commission is busy now trying to determine the future of this community and to establish priorities on the needs or desires of the citizens. They need input from the whole community, and it will be a tragedy if everyone with an idea, no matter how simple, doesn't participate.

One good friend has been gathering information on how in other places neighbors help neighbors to the mutual benefit of all. Her ideas wouldn't cost much money but could involve citizens from all segments of this area. Such ideas backed with some good research should be aired.

The plan commission isn't necessarily thinking in terms of expensive buildings or grandiose plans but is seeking a consensus from people on just what they would want for their community of the future.

If anyone has an idea, no matter how trivial, let the Record know, and we will guarantee that the idea is studied and discussed. Such ideas may be positive suggestions or negative complaints as long as the result could be constructive.

A lot of people are out there wondering why something isn't being done about a certain item or why some situation is allowed to exist. This is a perfect place to get something started which, when all put together, might benefit every one of us.

If nothing else, it's a great way for us to all sound off on what's good and not so good about Buchanan and what can be done to make it better.

To Speak In Depth On Mexican Town

The public is invited to a meeting of The Friends of the Three Oaks Library on Thursday, August 14 at 8 p.m. at the Episcopal Church on Red Arrow Highway.

Kurt Becker of the Prairie Club will present a talk augmented by slides about a Mexican Hill town, San Miguel de Allende, famed for its Fine Arts College.

Mr. Becker is a retired chemical engineer, his profession has taken him to Central and South America, Europe and the Far East. He and his wife, Sabina, spent two winters in San Miguel where he was able to mingle with the Mexicans because of his fluent Spanish. He will describe and analyze the character and flavor of this old colonial town where 17,000 Mexicans and 3,000 Americans live.

This will be no ordinary travel, tourist-type talk and everyone is urged to come and bring friends, neighbors and relatives. Light refreshments will be served.

Cole Porter Review A Treat

By Greg Hoadley

Spending "An Evening with Cole Porter" at the Tin Tree Theater in New Buffalo was enlightening and entertaining. To see the production one may want to learn more of Porter's life and writings, a true compliment to the cast of the show.

The choreography added depth to an otherwise long list of songs to be sung. The variety helped personify Porter's writing, which dealt directly with living.

Another point favoring John Putzke and his directing was the theater in the round. The people on stage seemed real instead of artificial and untouchable. Major drawbacks to the "tent theater" and round stage were the acoustics and some obvious movements of talent on stage. The turns were necessary to allow all attending the play to hear and see the characters performing at the time.

Songs such as "In the Still of the Night", "I've Got You Under My Skin", "Take Me Back to Manhattan", "I Love Paris", "Another Opening of Another Show" and many more were performed. Cole Porter wrote twenty-six opening numbers to shows and plays.

All in all the small dedicated group at the Tin Tree Theater put on a good show. Their next production, "The Music Man" with Ray Rayner started August 5 and will continue through the 31. Jon Putzke, the play's producer, suggests making reservations early as tickets are going fast.

This Week At Fernwood

Everyone who is familiar with the name McBride knows that when it is attached to watercolor it is a team effort. Area watercolor painters have a treat in store this coming week at Fernwood. Walter and Lois McBride will be on hand August 11 thru August 15 for a full week of Watercolor Painting open to beginning and advanced students. Their class will begin at 9:30 a.m. and run until 3 p.m. each day.

Walter's specialty and his own one-man show will be on display at the Meeting House through August 16. Class members, as well as visitors to the gallery, can be inspired by Walter McBride's own watercolor talent. He is the past director of the Grand Rapids Art Museum and has a keen method and ability of teaching watercolor. His wife, Lois, well known to Creative Stitchery and Basic Design students, will assist in teaching Watercolor Painting. Together Lois and Walter are unique in being able to give students double attention, direction, and added encouragement. According to Walter, "anyone can paint - just use your eyes and the rest comes."

Watercolor students will begin with basic pencil and brush drawing techniques. The latter will be stressed and students will learn to let the brush do the work of mixing colors and making washes. Shaded line, wet on wet and dry brush techniques will also be explored. Through out each class period, composition will be examined and stressed. After the second class, students will divide to spend half of the class period inside working from a still life situation and the other half outside working from nature. And time will be set aside on the last day to discuss and work with simple matting and framing procedures. Only a few places are left in Watercolor Painting for beginning students wishing to try their hand, or experienced painters seeking advanced guidance.

Friday night, August 15 at 8 p.m., a Fernwood first will make its debut in the Meeting House. World of the Prairie marks the beginning of the new 'One-a-Summer Series' designed to acquaint local Fernwood members and friends with the ecosystems in this area.

Ray Schulerberg of Morton Arboretum will open the new series with an evening lecture about the prairie ecosystem. A prairie specialist, he was responsible for the planning and reconstruction of the Morton Arboretum prairie, now one of the most original restored prairies in the nation. He received his B.S. degree from Iowa State College and is constantly at work in research and study at Morton's.

On Saturday morning a special 8 until 12 noon visit to a local wet prairie is planned. Class members will have a first hand chance to view and explore the vanishing prairie ecosystem with an expert. Several places remain for those wishing to take part in this fun and educational experience.

Unlike ordinary slow to absorb polyester that traps perspiration inside, Visa absorbs it fast and carries it to the surface for quick evaporation and a cool, fresh comfortable feeling. Visa lets go of even tough oily stains in a regular washing too and it won't pick up other dirt while it's there. The result? Whites and colors that stay just bought bright for the life of the shirt. And because they're Arrow you know you're getting quality workmanship and perfect on-set detailing. Pick a wardrobe's worth of Arrow Carlton in Perfection Knits in fashion colors.

Compare these laboratory test results:

Visa absorbs moisture. Ordinary polyester doesn't!

Water placed on Visa is completely absorbed. In perspiration gets carried to surface for quick evaporation. A cool, fresh comfortable feeling. Water remains beaded on surface of ordinary polyester. So perspiration gets trapped inside. Makes shirt hot and uncomfortable.

Horse Show Starts Friday

Berrien County Youth Fair officials announce the annual Open Horse Show will begin Friday, August 8 at 9 a.m. at the Youth Fairgrounds, preceding the Youth Fair. The show will be held Rain or Shine with performances on Friday and Saturday at 9 a.m., 1 and 7 p.m. Sunday showtime will be 8:30 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Co-chairman, Delos Potts of St. Joseph and Ralph DePoy of Niles, are expecting the largest number of entries in the history of the show with inquiries coming from as far away as Missouri, Pennsylvania, New York and other neighboring states.

Approved by the American Horse Shows Association with an A rating in Arabians, Morgans and Junior Hunter Division, the show is also sanctioned by the Michigan Horse Show Association, Indiana Saddle Horse Association, Justin Morgan Horse Association of Michigan, Arabian Horse Association of Michigan, American Shetland Pony Club, American Quarter Horse Association and various other breed organizations.

The committee has increased the number of classes over previous years up to 230 with performances in two rings Friday all day and evening, two rings and hunter classes on the Outside Course on Saturday and two rings on Sunday all day. Entrants will compete for a total of $7,710 in prize money with classes scheduled for Arabians, Half-Arabians, Morgans, Hackney, Shetland and Roadster ponies, Saddlebred, Pintos, Quarter Horses and Hunters.

This is the only horse show in the western half of the state offering classes for the American Saddlebred, the "peacock" of the horse world who thrill spectators throughout the country with their bold, high-stepping motion in Three-Gaited and Five-Gaited events. It is second only to the Michigan State Fair in Detroit in the number of horses on hand for a three-day period which last year reached 750.

The Open Show has many events for adults as well as youth exhibitors. For young riders there is Equitation in Hunter Seat, Saddle Seat and Stock Seat along with Junior Exhibitor classes in the breed sections such as Arabians, Pintos, Quarter Horses, Saddlebreds and Hunters. Only horse shows approved by the American Horse Shows Association may offer the AHSA Hunter Seat Medal Class and AHSA Saddle Seat Medal Class open to Junior members who have not yet become 18. Both these classes are included as well as the UPHA Challenge Cup Class sponsored by the United Professional Horseman's Association for Saddle Seat Equitation riders, 17 years of age and under who must be Michigan or Indiana residents. The A.S.P.C.A. Maclay Trophy Class is open to Junior Riders not yet 18 and is a Permanent Championship Trophy of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals donated by the late Alfred B. Maclay. All contestants are required to perform over at least eight fences not exceeding 3'6".

Competent judges have been hired to tie the classes with H. Karl Yenser of Jessup, Maryland officiating in the Main Ring, Charles Dennehy, Jr. of Lake Forest, Illinois judging the Hunters in the Jack Dean Ring and the Outside Course and Roland C. Wood of Ballston Spa, New York choosing the winners in the Quarter Horse, Pintos and Michigan Association of Western Horse Clubs in the Jack Dean Ring.

Admission is $1.50 for adults each day with box seats available at $2. Children under 10 years will be admitted, free, according to Potts and DePoy.

The show is sponsored by the Berrien County Youth Fair Association, Inc. The fair itself will begin Tuesday to run through the following Saturday

New Theatres To Open

The new Forum I and II Cinema complex at 52709 U.S. 31 North, just north of Cleveland Road, will open this weekend, Friday, August 8.

In each theatre, a special area has been provided to accommodate paraplegics who might be confined to wheelchairs. Ramped entrances from the parking lot into the theatres will greatly aid in making their movie going a simple and pleasant event.

According to Mariano Randazzo, president of Forum I & II, Inc., it is the intention of the management to present the very finest in first run motion picture entertainment, in an atmosphere of comfort and refinement, and at popular prices.

Grand opening attractions will be "The Other Side of the Mountain" in Forum I, and Forum II will present "Russian Roulette".

Both Forum I and Forum II will present bargain matinees every Monday thru Friday from opening until 5 p.m. Admission $1.25.

Jackson (July 6, 1854) A new political coalition calling itself the Republican Party was established here today, illustrating conclusively the power of anti-slavery feeling in Michigan.

About 1,500 influential citizens from a variety of parties and factions - Free Democrats, Free Soilers, Whigs and others - gathered here for the birth of the new party.

Despite their differences of opinion in the past, all were held together today by a common threat - opposition to slavery and its spread elsewhere in the nation.

The turnout was so enormous that it was impossible to hold the convention indoors.

Temporary chairman Levi Baxter, of Jonesville, after convening the meeting in one of Jackson's largest halls, called for a recess and the convention was moved to a place called "Morgan's Forty" on Jackson's outskirts. There a platform was hastily built in a grove of oak trees and the convention re-assembled.

The convention adopted a platform articulating the new party's opposition to the practice of slavery and concluded its business with the nomination of candidates for state office.

Kinsley S. Bingham, of Livingston, was nominated to head the ticket as the party's candidate for governor. Bingham previously had been the Free Democrat's candidate, but that party withdrew its ticket February 22 to support the new party.

Political observers here feel the future of the new Republican Party is uncertain, principally because it seems narrowly based on the single issue of anti-slavery.

However, many prominent Michigan citizens were involved in today's convention.

The party's survival appears to be dependent on how strong the anti-slavery feeling is among the citizens of Michigan. That question will be answered in the November election.

Fun At The Parks Strictly For Kids

The many people who attended the tug-of-war at Centennial Park last Thursday got a surprise. Not only did the losers get a dunking in the creek -- but the cheering spectators also had a bath. Among those there to enjoy a quick dip the hard way were Mel Ravish and Wayne Writer.

The next feature day special event will take place at Kathryn Park August 7, (today) at 1:00. We invite all those who wish to show their badminton and whiffle ball skills.

Future plans include a trip to Brookfield Zoo for all the parks. More information will be available at a later date.

Never Again?
Thousands and thousands of dead animals Law suits over where to bury them More law suits over who caused the problem

Remember last year's battles over PBB?
Somehow a fire retardant chemical, known as polybrominated biphenyl, was mixed into feed instead of an experimental additive. When the problem was finally diagnosed, thousands of animals were slaughtered and the court action began

Today, Michigan has what Agriculture Department officials hope is another tool to help avert any repeat of that tragic mix-up

Gov William Milliken recently signed the new law requiring that the agriculture director be notified immediately of any feed being recalled that may of potential danger to animals or cause illegal residues in human food

No such requirement existed when the PBB problem broke, and the Agriculture Department was not told that the feed had been recalled in January "But we didn't know until May," a department spokesman said

Milliken says the new law "will go a long way toward preventing incidents such as the PBB contamination problem

Besides requiring the notification, the law calls for each feed manufacturer or distributor to obtain a state license and it creates an inspection fee system based on the tonnage of feed sold

The law also demands that the date of manufacture of lots, or coding of such a date, be placed on feed containers, and it gives the agriculture director power to promulgate rules and regulations and to revoke, suspend or refuse to license an applicant That applicant then has the right to a hearing on the matter

Bumps in the Future?
The higher costs of keeping county roads in good condition - coupled with lower income for doing the job - may point to problems in the future, warns the County Road Association of Michigan

"As a result of declining tax revenues and continuing inflation in operating costs, most counties have had to reduce construction and maintenance, while some have been obliged to lay off employees," says Earl F Rogers, engineer-director of the Association

"We are very concerned about maintaining county roads, let alone making needed improvements, if the gap between revenues and expenses continues to widen"

An association survey of Michigan's 83 county road commissions indicated a nearly 19 percent average increase in county road system maintenance and construction costs over the past year

At the same time, Rogers notes, gasoline and weight tax collections - used to finance state, county and municipal roads as well as mass transit - decreased more than $128,000 during the first quarter of 1975, compared to the same period last year

Rogers blames a decrease in gasoline use for the decline in revenue
Highest cost increase uncovered through the association survey was for steel grader blades, now priced an average of 60 percent more than a year ago

Care in the Country
If you're driving on country roads this summer, be careful Meandering down the back county by-ways can be a fine way to spend some time But watch out for slow-moving farm tractors and other heavy machinery that might also be trundling down those roads

Farm equipment must carry a slow-moving vehicle sign when it's on the roads, so be on the lookout for the bright-colored triangle

Smoke! Beware!
"Don't smoke up the lettuce" may well be the cry in your supermarket if Democratic Rep John Markes of Westland has his way

Markes wants to ban smoking in retail food sales places He says folks who don't smoke have no alternative when it comes to grocery shopping Everybody has to eat, and those who shun tobacco should have the opportunity to buy their food in a smoke-free atmosphere

In addition he argues, food packaging isn't always airtight, and smoke can seep into unpackaged products

One more point Markes suggests that a smoking ban in such stores could reduce the establishments' insurance costs Any such savings, he says, could and should be passed on to the consumers

Harroff Reunion

The 49th reunion of the descendants of Isaac and Barbara Harroff was held last Sunday at Bertrand Township Hall with 62 attending

The oldest present was Mrs Pearl Miller of Galien who is 83, and the youngest was two year old Donald Harroff, son of Mr and Mrs Carl Harroff of Buchanan

Coming the greatest distance were Mr and Mrs Charles Montague of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and others came from Lansing, Dalton, Illinois, Granger, Nappanee and Bourbon, Indiana as well as Buchanan

The meeting was conducted by president Nick Powers and those elected as new officers were William Harroff of Granger as president, Ray Harroff of Bourbon, vice president and Mrs. Pearl Miller as secretary, assisted by Mrs Doris Miller of Nappanee

The reunion was also the occasion of the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr and Mrs Francis Wright
Next year's reunion will be the first Sunday in August at the same place

The Spinal Column

The habit of sitting with crossed legs can bring on or aggravate a raft of problems through interference with blood flow. Some examples are chronic arthritis of the knees, varicose veins, dropsy, sciatica, and formation of blood clots Persons with long legs and pregnant women are especially vulnerable to hazard of clots which later lodge in the lungs

Crossing one's legs at the knees is an almost universal sitting habit - especially of women Then, to feel more secure perhaps, they sometimes hold onto their ankle - likely fearing it will get away!

In this position, the muscles of the leg are stretched. People do not realize that the lumbar and sacral nerves feed these muscles and are strained every time they sit with legs crossed Sacroiliac trouble can be aggravated by sitting in this position or on one hip. If indulged in often or at length, it is apt to cause spinal curvature.

For men, a typical careless sitting position is a low slump with shoulders against the chair-back and legs extended. Don't they realize they are sitting on their sacrum, not their sitting bones?

Be kind to your sacroiliac - and to the beholder - watch how you sit!

Yours for better health, naturally,

Ask Senator GRIFFIN

By cutting through red tape, members of Congress often lend a hand to those with problems involving the federal government. Through the columns of this newspaper, Senator Griffin answers questions of general interest. He will respond personally to all communications addressed to: Senator Robert P. Griffin, Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510.

My youngest son recently became interested in coin collecting. I heard that the U.S. Mint has issued a series of special coins commemorating the Bicentennial. Can you tell me more about this, and whether or not they are still available to the public?

—J. F., Benton Harbor

Yes, they are still available. The U.S. Mint extended the deadline for purchase of these coins until July 4, 1976 to allow more people a chance to place orders. Another welcome bit of news about the coins is that the price for a proof set has been reduced from $15 to $12. A proof set contains one dollar, one half dollar, and one quarter, each with commemorative designs on the back and dated 1776-1976

If you are interested in purchasing a set, mail your order to Bureau of the Mint, 55 Mint Street, San Francisco, California 94175.

Our family is doing some early planning for a vacation trip later this year, and we hope to include some bicentennial sightseeing. I know that Washington and Philadelphia will be very crowded. I HATE crowds. Where can I get some information on Bicentennial attractions in other parts of the country that would be less crowded?

—J. I., Detroit

Any bicentennial attraction is likely to draw record numbers of tourists next year, no matter where it is located. But you can obtain some guidance from a 28-page booklet entitled "Bicentennial Events" that was recently issued by the National Park Service. The booklet lists bicentennial-related exhibits, tours, and points of interest for the remainder of 1975 in all sections of the country.

An update of "Bicentennial Events" for next year, which the Park Service anticipates will be even larger, will be published later.

You can get a free copy of the current booklet by writing to: Mr. Jim Schaak, National Park Service, 1709 Jackson Street, Omaha, Nebraska 68102.

Dig, Divide And Replant

If your irises and lilies didn't do so well this year, they may need a little tender loving care. And, according to horticulturists at Michigan State University late summer or early fall is the time to give it to them.

Both varieties tend to become overcrowded after a few years. The result is blooms that are both smaller and less vigorous than they once were. You can revitalize them and get better flowers next year by dividing and replanting them.

Wait until the flowers have faded and the foliage has dried. Then dig up the iris rhizomes (root clumps) and lily bulbs, separate or divide them, and replant or prepare for winter storage.

To divide irises, dig under each root clump and lift the whole clump from the soil. Wash soil away with a steady stream of water.

With a sharp knife, cut the rhizomes, making sure each division has at least one growing point or fan of leaves, a few inches of healthy rhizome and a number of well developed roots. Discard any rhizomes showing signs of insect damage or disease.

The lazy man's way to divide irises is to make many small divisions the horticulturists note, so that you won't have to divide the rhizomes again for three to five years. They point out, however, that you'll get more flowers next year if you divide the rhizomes into a few large pieces.

To thin lily bulbs, dig them up carefully after the leaves have dried and separate the bulbs. It's best to replant lily bulbs immediately, the experts say because they do not store very well.

Plant the bulbs of small lilies 12 inches apart and larger ones 18 inches apart. Plant a depth two or three times the height of the bulb.

If you must store the bulbs do not try to store them dry, the horticulturists advise. Pack them in moist peat moss or sand and place them in a plastic bag at temperatures of 32 to 38 degrees F. Do not let the temperature exceed 40 degrees.

If you have a greenhouse or similar plant growing structure, you may want to plant the bulbs in pots so that they'll already be growing when you set them out next spring.

The outdoor planting site for both irises and lilies must be sunny and well drained, the experts advise. If left in soil that remains wet for long periods, the rhizomes and bulbs will rot.

After planting, leave the soil bare until it freezes. Then apply a winter mulch of straw, leaf-mold, sawdust or similar material.

Class Of 1960 Plans Reunion

The graduating class of Galien High School 1960 is holding its class reunion Saturday, September 13 at Bertrand Township Hall at 6:30 p.m.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Jerry Lutz, Mrs. Robert Kuntz, Jack Warren and Jerry Wolford. Anyone who has not contacted about the reunion at this time is asked to call one of the committee members.

Tourney Results

Two Galien teams played recently in the Southwestern Michigan Little League Tourney.

Galien 1 lost to Bridgman, 8 to 0 and then was eliminated Saturday when defeated by New Troy 1 by a score of 17 to 8.

Galien 2 won its first game 11 to 8 over New Troy 2 and then lost a 24 run shutout to Bridgman 2. In its final game Galien 2 was downed by Berrien Springs, 12 to 10.

Galien, Bridgman In Tie For First

Tuesday Galien was clobbered by Bridgman 17-8 in the completion of a suspended game. Galien out hit Bridgman 11 to 9 but the 5 Galien pitchers gave up 14 walks to none for Bridgman. Gallup was the winning pitcher while Sears took the loss for Galien. Tim Barinka paced Bridgman with 3 hits while Denny Williams went 4 for 4 for Galien. The other Galien hits were by Doug Barnett's home-run and single, Matt Koziel with 2 triples, Jerry Sears' double and single and Willy Cantrell's single.

In the second game with Bridgman, Galien was beaten by a score of 6-2. Bridgman pitcher Bill Moreland was the winner while Matt Koziel suffered his first loss after 6 wins for Galien. Koziel struck out 11 and gave up only 3 hits but the defense kept him in constant trouble by committing 8 errors. Matt Koziel and Dave Wright with 2 hits and Marty Koziel with 1 led the Galien offense.

Friday Galien got back on the winning track blasting R V North 15-0. Galien pitcher Jerry Sears was in complete control as he kept the R V hitters off balance all night by nicely mixing his fast ball and off-speed pitches. Sears struck out 6 and gave up 4 hits to turn his record to 2 shutouts and 3 losses.

Galien broke the game open in the 6th inning exploding with 11 runs. Galien hitters were paced by Steve Benson's 2 hits (a double and 2 rbi's), Dave Pearson's triple, Denny Williams and Jerry Sears doubles and a single from Willy Cantrell, Marty Koziel and Chris Pence.

With one week to go in regular season play, the league standings look like this:

Galien	9-5
Bridgman	9-5
R.V. South	8-6
R V North	5-9
New Buffalo	4-10

Galien Little League

By Stan Tucker

The Tigers rallied July 28 to defeat the Lions 14 to 12. Leading hitters for the Tigers were Doug Brewer, Tim Longfellow, Steve Zbacnik, Lee Morrill and Mike Cronin. For the Lions hits came from Dean Decker, Mike Hall, Dennis Soyk and Rex Carpenter. Pitchers were Zbacnik for the winners and Ron Kelley for the losers, both going the distance.

On Tuesday the Yanks lost their last chance to win the league crown as they lost 12 to 6 to the Cubs. Cub extra base hits came from Dennis Koziel, Dave Goodenough, Mike Rowe and Lou Wagner, getting them for the Yankees were Scott Geik, Lori Patton and Craig Estep. Koziel pitched a steady game for the Cubs and Geik absorbed the loss.

The next night the Braves shut out the Sox 8 to 0 in the first league shutout of the season. Tony Sears and Jimmy Harroff led the Braves and Ritchie Schlutt got the only extra base hit for the Sox. Scott Dalrymple pitched a three hitter for the Sox and Schlutt was tagged for the loss.

The Yankees clinched a share of second place as they hounded the Tigers 18 to 10 on Thursday. Tony Krueger, Scott Geik, Craig Estep and Lori Patton came through with big hits for the Yanks. For the Tigers the big hitters were Steve Zbacnik, Doug Brewer, Brian Richter and Lee Morrill. Yankee pitchers were Geik, Krueger and Estep, who got the win. Doug Brewer was the losing pitcher.

On Friday the Lions dropped their 10th game for the season losing to the Braves 16 to 9. Lion chances again were hurt by errors Jim Harroff, Don Marsh, Mike Hyatt, Tony Sears and Mike Blank got the big blows for the Braves and Rex Carpenter and Dean Decker led the Lion offense. Chris Benson picked up the winning relief for the Braves and Rex Carpenter, relieved by Todd Canfield, was the loser.

Who bailed out the Navy in 1798?

We were still paying off the Revolutionary War. Then we were faced with yet another war, this time on the seas.

How could we afford to build up our Navy?

Well, Congress called for help through the issuance of government securities. And the citizens came through to the tune of $70,000. Enough to make the down payment on 10 new ships.

Their investment paid off. And you can follow their example today.

When you buy U.S. Savings Bonds at your bank or through the Payroll Savings Plan at work, you're investing in your country.

And as if that weren't enough, you're helping yourself to a safe and generous return.

What better way to stay afloat?

Series E Bonds pay 8% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.
