Storm of Tornado Size Hits The Area

Last Thursday night, while Buchanan was experiencing rain, lightning and thunder, other areas had winds of tornado proportions. A twister was reported to have touched down on Runyon Road, and there was considerable tree damage along the Galien-Buchanan Road. Galien itself had only slight damage. All through the area, men from Indiana and Michigan Electric Company and from Michigan Bell Telephone Company worked all night restoring service which had been lost because of fallen lines and even poles.

One of the worst hit areas was Clear Lake. Many large trees went down, although little damage to the summer cottages was reported. The storm there was accompanied by hail and high winds which seemed to travel along a path close to the shore. Boats at their docks or ones which had been beached were tossed for several feet, some badly damaged, and neighbors spent Friday morning hunting for some of the boats which had been set loose in the lake. Fortunately, no injuries were reported. Although the winds did damage to the ceiling in the house of Laverne Spales, there was comparatively little damage to the camping units at Fuller's Resort.

Heavy tree damage was reported north of Buchanan along Main Street Road, although there was little on North Redbud.

Another area which was hard hit by the storm was the Dayton Lake neighborhood where large trees were uprooted by the force of the wind and power was cut off in some cases until Friday afternoon. Also it was reported that there was considerable damage on Broseus School Road including a tree which fell on a barn and damage to the Fruit crop.

On Saturday, 19 young people from Jesus Unlimited in Niles, seeking to find good works to do, came out to Clear Lake and worked from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. clearing away the debris and hauling it away. They came equipped with three trucks and four saws.

Tabor Hill Sets Harvest Rites

The centuries-old European harvest tradition of Blessing the Vineyard will be re-created at Tabor Hill Vineyard on Sunday, September 7 at 2 p.m. The blessing by Rev. William Pearson, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church of Benton Harbor, will be followed by grape treading and stomping, the now abandoned method of pressing grapes. Barrels of grapes will be available for all who want to try their hand, or in this case, their feet at it at this third annual event.

Tours of the winery, wine tasting, tractor rides through the vineyards and games and races for the children round out the events planned to help usher in the harvest season at Tabor Hill Sunday from noon until 5:30. Tabor Hill Vineyard and Winery is located west of Snow Road, north of Buchanan. Admission to the winery and all events is free.

In the wine producing regions of Europe, village laws, social gatherings and church life almost totally revolved around the vineyard calendar. Many of the fall festivals and carnivals celebrated today originated as grape harvest celebrations.

Margaret M. Baxter has been appointed director of nursing services at Unity Hospital in Buchanan. She had been director of nursing services and psychiatric nursing director for the State of Indiana from 1952 until her retirement in 1975. She graduated from Indiana University with a degree in nursing education and did her postgraduate work at the University of California in San Francisco.

Michigan A Leader In Leukemia Research

Great strides are being made in one field of medicine, and a great deal of the progress and research in that field is being done in Michigan. New hope is being given to leukemia patients. A special type of blood transfusion known as leuopheresis is being widely used in the treatment of leukemia and other serious blood diseases. Unlike transfusions of plasma or whole blood, this method of transfusion transfers only the white blood cells from the body of the donor directly into that of the patient. According to the Child Research Center in Detroit, the new treatment, now in effect with both blood disease and seriously ill cancer patients, is producing remarkable results in prolonging life.

The Children's Leukemia Foundation is a Michigan United Way service. Michigan United Way has budgeted $165,000 toward the foundation, which can offer free of charge all help needed for the care of a serious blood disease patient, including sympathetic counseling for the family and even financial help if needed.

The Buchanan United Way budgets a portion to the many agencies served by the state United Way. Proportionately, $215 from Buchanan will go directly to the Children's Leukemia Foundation.

Through this donation, Buchanan residents will be eligible for help from the foundation. Other diseases closely related to leukemia include Hodgkin's disease, lymphoma and multiple myeloma and sickle cell anemia, all of which are being confronted by the research which is being conducted in Michigan.

Dr. Wolff Zuelzer, director of the Child Research Center, said, "Never before has medical science been closer to a cure for leukemia." Leukemia, which now claims the lives of over 600 people in Michigan every year, is not licked, but great strides have been made in the remission of the disease to the point where the lives of some patients have been extended as much as twenty years.

To Lower River

The Indiana & Michigan Electric Company will lower the level of the St. Joseph River above the Berrien Springs dam on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 3, 4, and 5. The Department of Natural Resources plans to paint the fish ladder at Berrien Springs. The river will be lowered between Buchanan and Berrien Springs.

Reckless Driver

Last week, Robert Marsh of 314 Main Street was arrested on a charge of reckless driving after his auto struck a motorcycle driven by Daryl Morris, 301 Liberty Street. Marsh allegedly crossed the center line at Fourth Street just west of Chippewa in an attempt to run Morris off the road. Marsh was released on $150 bond.

Would You Vote For Him?

Let's suppose that a man by the name of Abraham Lincoln is running for the presidency in 1976. He hasn't a very good winning record. He was beaten for the Senate and had a mediocre record in the House.

He's almost six and a half feet tall. His appearance is different. He has never been to Brooks Brothers. He has a high squeaky voice and he has a prominent mole on his face. Things he's already been quoted as saying have alienated him with every southern delegate to the forthcoming convention. He's practically an unknown outside of his own district, where folks say he's a card.

He's interviewed by Barbara Walters. "What is your education, Mr. Lincoln? None? Not even high school? Well then, tell us about your hobbies. Golf, tennis, boating?" You say it's reading? How interesting," the interview continues, and Barbara, deciding that she doesn't care for this uncouth character, is able to cut him to ribbons.

In this day of television and advertising agencies, what kind of an image could be created for this hillbilly from Illinois? What chance would he have of getting elected, even nominated, against the smooth talking, fine appearing candidates of today?

As Nixon and Johnson and Kennedy have shown us, it's possible for advertising agencies to build up an image for their man. The profanity of Nixon, the sexuality of Kennedy or the boorishness of Johnson can all be hidden to the television viewer's eye. A man like Adlai Stevenson, nice guy though he may have been, can be made into a great intellectual, which he was not.

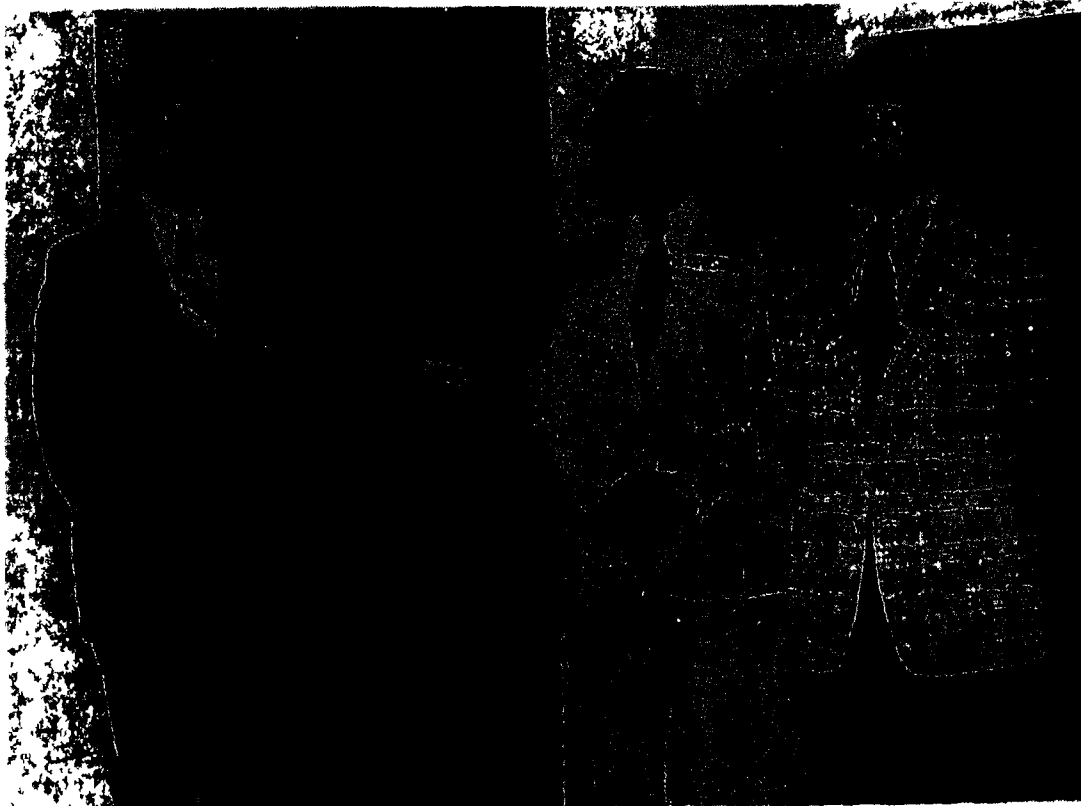

Let's be honest. If Abraham Lincoln were to declare his

New teachers at the Buchanan elementary schools include (front) Evelyn Lauer Stark, Andrea Godersky, Moccasin, Noel Risler, pre-school, (back) Kathy Jones, Ottawa, Kay Sorrentino and Debbie Dye, Moccasin.

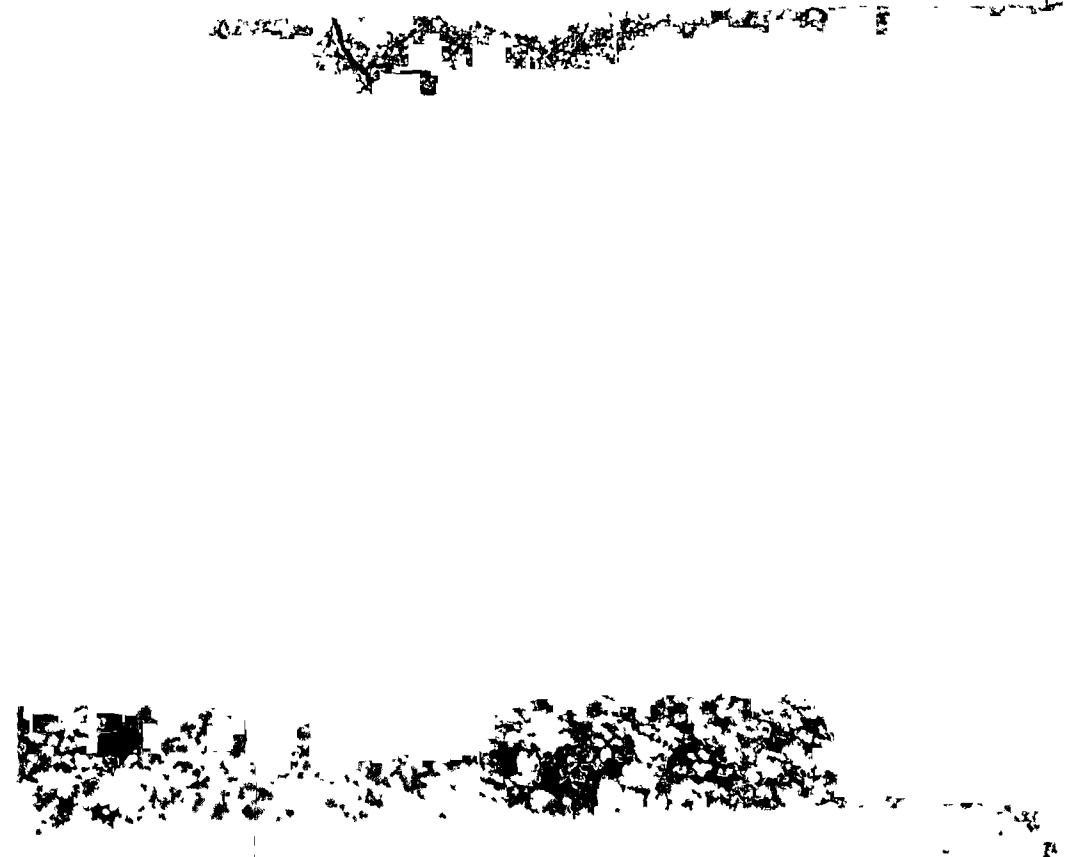

Cathy Bruibaker, Pat Flathau, Jody Westland and Tess Lehman have been added to the middle school staff this year.

The new high school teachers are Dave Kellam, math, Kay Harker, natural science, Terry Piath, math, and Don Hecklinski, math and head baseball coach.

Some of the most severe damage in the area last Thursday occurred at Dayton Lake. This large old tree fortunately just missed the home of the Alex Vidars by inches. A row of willows was nearly destroyed on the other side of the home along the lake front. The entire area on the peninsula at Dayton Lake was covered with uprooted trees and large fallen branches. Even though I&M got on the job quickly some residents were without power for over 12 hours, because the big utility trucks had to clear a way in before starting to work.

Large old oak trees were uprooted Thursday along a path of cottages on Clear Lake. Little damage was done to the cottages, although a great many trees were blown down.

Portage Prairie

Robert Shaw returned to East Lansing after spending the weekend with Mrs William Shaw.

Strictly Personal By D. E. N.

A good friend called Friday morning to alert us of storm damage. Up on the hill, everything had been serene.

Skilled Trades reported that a truck full of appliances was on the way two and a half weeks ago, and nobody knows where it went.

A letter mailed from Missouri on a Thursday was delivered in Buchanan the following Thursday. Pony express would have been almost as quick.

Last week an out of town paper called to inquire about Buchanan's Gene Wesner, who they said had been killed in an accident. Fortunately the report of Gene's departure from earth was greatly exaggerated.

Jolly Dozen Club

The Jolly Dozen Club met last week at the home of Mrs John Giver when the birthday of Mrs Everett Baughman was observed.

At The Library

The Lion of Justice
By Margaret Butler

This is the second of a trilogy dealing with Henry II of England. This segment is mostly about his quarrel with his once good friend Thomas A. Becket. The Archbishop of Canterbury is still alive as this book ends.

The reason for putting these small books into three instead of one comprehensive one about Henry is not clear. But this one gives a tantalizing taste of life at the court, Henry's strong-willed queen Eleanor, and various of the affairs of the king itself. It does a pretty good job of explaining the feudal system and the quarrel over responsibility to church and king.

The Palace Guard
By Dan Rather and Gary Gates

This is the disturbing story about the Nixon White House and the events which led up to Watergate. It doesn't really discuss Watergate as much but delves into the minds and actions of the men who were calling the shots during that administration.

Some of the story is pathetic when told. There is the J. Walter Thompson attempt to create images, many of which came off poorly. There is the ruthless element of men who get rid of those who don't agree with them. Rather or his associate give the impression that they blame the whole affair on the mentality and thinking of people from Indiana and Ohio and he tends to have the typical attitude that anything outside of New York or Washington couldn't be important.

Do Autumn Chores With Youth Power

Jeanne Roti, director of Youth Power, with offices located in the Teen Center, announces that the service will remain open until November 15. Area residents are reminded that a call to Youth Power will provide needed help with fall cleaning chores -- both indoors and out.

Miss Roti can be reached at the office mornings at 695-3611 and evenings at home, 695-5390. She will then make contact with a young worker for the caller.

American Electric Power System
AMERICA'S MOST EFFICIENT
POWER PRODUCER

Who cares? Because you benefit, we care.

We're proud.

For the third year in a row we are America's most efficient electric utility in power generation—an achievement based upon the use of the most advanced technology available today and the burning of coal.

At American Electric Power and all our operating companies, striving for greater efficiency is a never-ending process.

On the basis of latest industry reports, we managed to squeeze more electricity out of the fuel burned than any other electric power company in the U.S.A.

And the benefits are big.

If, for example, last year we were average instead of best, we would have had to burn 3 million more tons of America's coal. An expense of over $60,000,000 our customers would have borne.

Or, looked at another way... if we had been burning oil instead of coal, America's fuel saving would have been over 12,000,000-barrels!

That's conservation... pure conservation in keeping with Federal Energy Administration goals. When anyone conserves, all America benefits.

If every American will commit to conserve through the efficient use of energy... and if our government will make a full commitment to coal, our most plentiful fuel, America will have the basic ingredients for solving our energy problem:

Coal and conservation.

Together they can blunt the inflationary effect of cartel produced foreign oil prices.

Together they can further our country's magnificent production record, which will make possible a fuller life for every American—especially the less privileged.

Show you care.
Join the movement to coal and conservation.

The amount was set at $23,700.00 for 1975 and the mail campaign and other special events raised a total of $26,739.00. This satisfying conclusion according to Mr. Mack, it "was the result of hard work on the part of everyone connected with the campaign and a public that gave generously in spite of a difficult economic year."

This pole barn at the home of the Duane Wregglesworths on Brocus School Road was damaged in last Thursday night's severe storm that struck just certain areas. Two large willows came down as well as several rows of grapes and a great deal of fruit from trees on their property. The strength and peculiar sound of the wind arising soon after 10 that night was sufficient to send the family to the basement for safety.

Appoint C/F Drive Chairman

Mrs. Lawrence (Juanita) Swank has been named local Chairman of the 1975 Breath of Life Campaign to fight children's lung diseases. The newly-appointed Chairman lives on Batten Road and will lead local volunteers in raising funds to support the research and care for children suffering from Cystic Fibrosis, severe asthma, chronic bronchitis and other related lung-damaging diseases.

The 1975 Campaign will be conducted during the month of September, which is C-F month nationwide. September 7-20 are the dates for Buchanan.

Cystic Fibrosis, presently incurable, is inherited when both parents carry the recessive gene. It is believed that one in twenty persons carries the C-F gene, usually without knowing it. When C-F research began in 1960, a child's life expectancy was only two years. Today it is eighteen years. The key to continued progress and eventual cure or control lies in expanded research to be funded by Breath of Life Campaigns throughout the nation such as the one presently being organized by Mrs. Swank.

The Indian Hills School Community Club will meet at the school on Monday, September 8 at 7:30 p.m. Plans for the coming year will be made, and the parents will meet their children's teachers. New officers will assume their duties for the year. Mrs. David Reitz is president, Mrs. Roger Davis, vice president, Mrs. Ronald Johnson, secretary, and Mrs. Joseph King treasurer.

The Sunday School Camp Contest for the Oronoko Methodist Church begins the first Sunday after Labor Day and ends with the school year in June. Any youngster who is at least 8 years old by next June is eligible. They may miss 3 Sundays and still have their complete way paid for a week of Church camp next summer. If they miss 6 Sundays, half their way will be paid.

A birthday dinner at the Elza Lolmaugh residence on Glendora Road last Sunday honored Elza Lolmaugh and his grandson Mike Duns. Forty-six relatives and friends were on hand for the potluck dinner and for games played afterward. The gathering also honored the birthdays of Ross Lolmaugh and Christie Johnson.

Old Area Church To Note Anniversary

Hamilton Church, a colonial building three miles northeast of New Carlisle, Indiana on Chicago Road, offers a quiet little haven of rest September 14 the public is invited to attend a Special day of Praise and Thanksgiving there.

Hamilton Church has stood since 1831 surrounded by maples in its quiet location.

The church has held itself aloof from the clutter of the marching years. It has heard the rumble of oxen that pulled wagonloads up and down Sault Trail, (Chicago Road), the first road through the wooded area. Its huge timbers were cut from the virgin forests. On a frosty morning the thunder of hooves could be heard as the stagecoach left the Inn, a stopover between Chicago and Detroit.

The old Hamilton Church gives a feeling of warmth, quietness and worshippers' minds drift back to the service of a century ago and such sweet music as Amazing Grace, How Sweet The Sound and When the Roll is Called Up Yonder I'll Be There.

Detroit (July 26, 1943) Thirty-four people are dead and property damages is running into the hundreds of thousands of dollars in the wake of one of the bloodiest race riots in the country, which occurred here in Detroit.

Exactly how the disturbance began is unclear. But it appears that it began at the Belle Isle Bridge on Sunday where an estimated 100,000 persons had gathered to escape the heat of the inner-city.

For three days Detroit was an armed camp with Blacks and Whites fighting each other in the streets of the Motor City.

The Detroit City Police were unable to control the unrest and some say they fueled the situation. After three days of outbursts Martial Law was declared and Federal troops brought the situation under control in 30 minutes without firing a shot.

The statistics and the destruction add up to 41 people dead, 25 Negroes and 9 Whites, countless injuries and untold property damage.

Wayne County Prosecutor, William Dowling, said that "the NAACP and the Negro press were to blame for the riot. They have been fomenting trouble with their crusades in the Negro neighborhoods from the start. If you want to do something constructive in this situation, you might try to control the Negro press," he said.

Dr. James J. McClendon, Negro physician and President of the Detroit Chapter of the NAACP, disagreed. "As for propaganda and the NAACP, and the local Negro press, when did it become a crime to ask that all citizens be treated fairly in a democracy? When did it become a crime to ask that loyal Colored Americans be given jobs commensurate with their skills and training?"

We are fighting a war against race hatred, subjugation and domination. Surely all Americans ought to be willing to risk their own country of these evils. If that is propaganda, we are forced to plead guilty," he said.

Two Ways

that won't compromise your profits

WHY COMPROMISE? When there's a profit squeeze, it's only natural to think about cutting costs. But sometimes, cutting costs, like eliminating feed supplements, will end up costing you more.

Instead of eliminating feed supplements, Farm Bureau has dairy programs to maximize your profits with its research proven dairy feed supplements. Here are Two Great Ways:

MILK MAKER is a high quality, 34% all natural protein supplement suitable for both the milking parlor or feed bunk.

55% DAIRY SUPPLEMENT is a top quality, low cost protein supplement for ruminants. 55% Dairy contains urga and can be mixed with grain, silage, or chopped roughage.

There are a lot of factors in choosing the proper ration for your herd. Palatability, performance, method, and cost are all important. Ask the Farm Bureau People about a customized dairy profit program for you.

Taking Survey Of Disabled

A survey of the needs of the Developmentally Disabled is being conducted by the Berrien-Cass Regional Interagency Coordinating Committee for the Developmentally Disabled (RICC). Marsha Kennedy, president of the RICC, is directing this survey.

"The survey includes", Kennedy said, "a census of all persons who are mentally retarded, have cerebral palsy, or have epilepsy; a survey of the services available to them; and an assessment of the amounts and types of additional services needed."

Information from this survey will provide a basis from which to plan and coordinate future services for the developmentally disabled and their families in Berrien and Cass Counties. Questionnaires are currently being completed by all agencies in both counties that serve the Developmentally Disabled. "However", Kennedy added, "we need to survey the needs of the Developmentally Disabled who don't receive any services."

If you are developmentally disabled, or if you have a friend, neighbor, or relative who has mental retardation, epilepsy, or cerebral palsy, and does not receive services, call Marsha Kennedy at Riverwood Community Mental Health Center. The telephone number is 983-7781.

The funeral fulfills at least three important functions as we adjust to the absence of the person who has departed

- It provides a dignified opportunity to acknowledge that a life has been lived and to mark the separation of one from our midst
- It allows those most intimately associated with the deceased an acceptable context in which to express their intense feelings of loss
- It offers an occasion for concerned persons to share their love and support, their mutual grief and their grateful respect as they gather the resources which the community has to offer in this time of need.

children and if just one can be helped, this campaign effort will be worth all the hours and concern spent in its behalf. Having had experience with this incurable disease in one of my children and having lost that child because of no cure, I feel it is most important that I and others help other children. This is one way we can all help.

We are still in need of more volunteers. The campaign starts September 7-20. If some of our area mothers would care to help collect for C-F, please call me at 695-6413 after 5:15 p.m.

Thank you for your support, Mr. Nichols, of the many projects that are held in Buchanan.

Dear Editor

As local chairman for the Breath of Life Campaign for the Buchanan area, may I please bring to your readers some information that will help to explain this campaign and the importance of all the help we can get both in contributions of money and the need for more volunteers to help us in door-to-door contact with our area people?

The Breath of Life Campaign is not included in any of the other drives held in our area. It is not included because of the urgent need to tell people about cystic fibrosis (C-F) and other lung damaging diseases, more money can be given to research, patient services and professional and public education and a budget control with the power to determine the distribution of funds raised.

Cystic fibrosis is an inherited disease, as yet incurable, that affects the lungs and digestive system. One baby in every 1500 is born with cystic fibrosis. Both parents must be carriers of the gene for a child to be born with it and one in twenty or ten million Americans are carriers of the gene for C-F.

At present, there is no cure, but, early diagnosis and specialized treatment is lengthening lives. Today 50 percent of C-F patients are living longer than 18 years of age. Twenty years ago children died at a very early age -- usually a two year life expectancy. Thanks to the Breath of Life Campaign, much progress has been made in helping the child live longer, be more comfortable and also helping the stress that is placed on the parents in the care of the child with C-F and the knowledge that this disease is incurable.

Cystic fibrosis signs may include a salty taste of the skin, persistent bulky diarrhea and nasal polyps as well as signs of lung damaging diseases such as recurrent wheezing, persistent coughing, excessive mucus, pneumonia more than once and clubbing (enlargement of fingertips).

I am sure many Americans have not heard of cystic fibrosis or the Breath of Life Campaign. I had not either until 1952, when my daughter was diagnosed as having cystic fibrosis of the pancreas. Not much was known about it at that time. Research has been able to help other

Dear Editor and Community:

School is just about ready to begin and today in the mail the School News was received with information concerning the start of the new school year. In it was an article which interested me in which the Superintendent of Schools made the statement that, "The lack of motivation is one of our most serious school problems. A student should come to school with a clear idea of his objectives and be willing not only to 'just get by' but to do the best work he is capable of doing. Given this attitude, and the reinforcing of it throughout the year, will be his best guarantee of success." But my question is, success at what?

Success at simply accepting what the school is giving you, no questions asked, and simply accept a trade so you can somehow fit into society after you graduate? Or success at really understanding who you are and how to find peace of mind and being happy and knowing what you want to do?

Surely both of these are what the school should at least be able to offer. But when he says that the student should come to school with a clear idea of his objectives, this implies that the student must approach some sort of education without the facilities of the school before he even goes to school. But that's the purpose of education, to give the student a clear idea of what his objectives should be. If the student doesn't know who or what he is, how can he properly decide what to do with himself? It seems that by the superintendent's statement he is completely disregarding one of the most important functions of any educational system. As far as motivation goes, why should anyone have motivation to participate in something he's not sure of, or in something which is not taking him where he wants to go? If the superintendent's comment anywhere near reflects the attitude of the teachers of this community's educational system, I would be pretty concerned as to what type of school I was sending my child to if the capabilities and concern of the teachers were so limited. I feel that it is absurd to let teachers have the right to make so many demands from students when the teachers themselves cannot fully explain why those demands are there. It cannot really be expected that students will understand things very well when the teachers themselves are so foolish. It is already established that a fool cannot teach anyone to be more than a fool. I do not see much value in an educational system where the mentality of the teachers have become so dogmatic that they are quarreling amongst themselves over position and prestige just like dogs fighting over a bone.

Now days people elect others to become teachers and leaders who are addicted to so many things such as intoxication, illicit sex, cheating, gambling, and so much nonsense, and who are bereft of any knowledge of who or what they are and what the purpose of life is. How can anyone like that be a teacher? In this way the schools are simply mass-producing fools and rascals every year without providing them with any real knowledge as to the reason of this existence at all. Real knowledge is not just knowing how to eat, sleep, have sex, defend yourself, and maintain sense gratification and economic growth. Education means not just knowing some craftsmanship, but to know the exact difference between matter and spirit, how to get out of material entanglement of birth, decease, old age, and death. To know who and what you are, how you got here, where this universe came from, how it works, who or what God is, what your relationship is with all this, and how to work according to that relationship for the ultimate benefit and happiness. These are all questions that any sane man should ask, if not others, then at least himself. This is real knowledge and this knowledge is being denied in this day and age. Otherwise all you know is simply relative truth, truth providing that the circumstance around you remains the same. If the situation changes, and change is the only constant in this world, then you have to change your way of thinking or update your knowledge.

That is why the government, our educational systems, and even so-called religions, in their attempt to solve so many problems, are always changing their ways of doing things to suit the situation or to suit man's changing mental attitude of likes and dislikes, because these organizations neither have nor are they backed by any real knowledge. It is time that people wake up to understanding this, that so many of our teachers and leaders are simply cheaters, cheating the people out of their rightful position. They just tell the people, "No, don't bother approaching the truth. We'll solve everything by political adjustment." What is this nonsense? They've been trying that for thousands of years. Truth is the divine knowledge of the soul, when one approaches the highest truth, all other mysteries and questions are automatically solved and answered. Naturally not everyone is interested in the knowledge of the soul. For the most part people are simply caught up in the temporary glitter of material advancement, which has made us so dullheaded that we cannot even see what we are simply dying with each breath and that instead of trying to make this life of only a few years so perfectly comfortable, we should worry about where we're going after death, and what the real duty of life is and what is to be accomplished in this lifetime. Otherwise one is simply wandering around blindly, not knowing the purpose of anything and just caught up in his whimsical activities and his temporary and false prestige. Thus he simply makes up his own imperfect philosophy and his own ideas of what people should learn and how the world should be run.

Everyone is a philosopher to some extent because everyone is looking for the way to work things out so that their life is pleasant and they're happy and satisfied. But this eating, sleeping, mating, and defending, is simply polished animal life. Polished animal life is materialistic life with no concern for spiritual progress. It's simply life like cats and dogs, except with a little better facilities to enjoy. It offers no real factual way to be relieved from this worldly confusion. No wonder so many people are discontent. This confusion is simply craziness. There is no solution to anything found in the cultivation of craziness.

In order to understand things fully and see things completely one must use full philosophy and complete knowledge, not just a little bit of knowledge to understand things a little bit. That is why it is very important that the high school should offer a class in Vedic philosophy. The word "Veda" means ultimate truth. Some people may say that the Vedas are sectarian, but how can ultimate truth be sectarian? Just as the sun shines on everyone no matter whether you're a human, a dog, a cat, a tree, or a worm in stool, it is available to anyone. But if someone says the sun is sectarian and hides in his closet, he'll simply grow sickly and pale. If someone says ultimate truth is sectarian then he'll simply be stuck with all his problems due to lack of full understanding. The Vedas, or ultimate truth, is for everyone. Why don't you take it?

This is why the school should offer a credit class in Bhagavad-Gita, not just any Gita, but "Bhagavad-Gita As It Is." Colleges are starting to do this now with much success. This is not just another religion or philosophy, it is a handbook of self-realization which answers, in detail, all the essential questions of existence. In the Gita it is explained, "This knowledge is the king of education, the most secret of all secrets. It is the purest knowledge and because it gives direct perception of the self by realization, it is the perfection of religion. It is everlasting and joyfully performed." (Bg. 9.2)

So if such a class could just be offered to anyone, to adults also, people would take it and so much understanding would be given, providing the teacher was good. Students would not be so confused, they'd understand the reasons of life and their existence, which is more than most people know. They would not be so troublesome and their motivation for learning would come back and those who look the class would become of more solid and stable character. Otherwise the school will continue with all their problems and the administration can speculate on how to solve them until they die, without ever finding any real solution. So in this confused society it is even more important to make this knowledge available for the welfare of the people in general.

I hope that people will consider this wisely because the closed-mindedness attitude that much of the people in this area seem to have could be the one most self-destructive aspect of the character of this community, which could keep them from looking at many things that could help enlighten their progress and as well as their concern for one-another.

I hope this finds you in good health.
Hare Krishna
Sincerely,
Stephen Knapp

Quickie rustproofing. It's no bargain.

Some rustproofers will tell you that they can rustproof your new car in only a couple of hours. Usually they're the same guys who'll tell you they've got "drip proof" rustproofing.

The truth is, real rustproofing has to drip and run. So it can penetrate all the seams of your car. Even the welded ones.

That's why Ziebart Rustproofing takes one day. It's worth waiting for. Give us a call.

Miss Wahlstrom Becomes Bride Of Larry Hall

The First United Methodist Church was the setting last Saturday for the 6 o'clock ceremony joining in marriage Teresa Lynn Wahlstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wahlstrom of 607 Days Avenue and Larry Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hall of Wyandotte, Michigan.

The bride graduated from Buchanan High School in 1972 and from Ferris State College in 1974. She is presently employed at Clark Equipment Credit Corporation. The bridegroom, a 1972 graduate of Lincoln High School in Warren, Michigan, and of Ferris State in 1975, is employed in South Bend at Burroughs Corporation.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Elder John P. Rees with Mrs. Corbin DeLgen at the organ and Kathy Moody of Berrien Springs as the soloist. Candelabras at the altar and on each pew and baskets of white mums and ferns decorated the church.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, chose a gown of satapeau styled with a high Victorian illusion neckline and long full bishop sleeves with buttoned cuffs. Pin tucking and Cluny lace adorned the empire bodice and full skirt and a double flounce trimmed the hemline and chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a Camelot cap and both were trimmed with Cluny lace. She carried a bouquet of baby's breath, yellow sweetheart roses and yellow tipped carnations.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Barbara Herman of Buchanan, as matron of honor and Mrs. Sharon Davis, Mrs. Carol Moynihan, Anne Lowery, Billie Carter and Nancy Baumrucker as bridesmaids. All wore A-line gowns of yellow jersey knit with detachable hooded capes accented with ruffle edging. They carried baskets of baby's breath and daisies of rainbow colors. The flower girl, Kristal Rhodes of Niles, was identically gowned. The ring bearer was Jason Herman, nephew of the bride.

The best man was Dennis Bellinger of Portland, Michigan and groomsmen were John Nowacki of Warren and Bob King of Kent. Seating the guests were Al Behnke and the bridegroom's brother, Ted Hall, both of Warren, and Tom Moynihan of Niles.

Blue jersey was selected by the mother of the bride for her gown styled with a high neckline and long sleeves. The bridegroom's mother wore ivory knit with lace accenting the high neckline. Both wore corsages of yellow sweetheart roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the reception took place in Niles at the Elk's Temple. Mrs. Alice Miller of Niles catered the dinner and LeVerne Morgan of Buchanan served the guests.

The couple left afterward for a week's trip to Hawaii and will then be at home in Buchanan at 808 West Front Street, West Wind Apartments.

Brown - Elwood Vows Exchanged In August

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Brown

An early afternoon ceremony on August 2 united in marriage Donna Elwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Elwood, 1344 Rynearson Road, and Chet Brown of Brighton, Michigan. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren V. Brown of Port Huron.

The double ring ceremony in the Buchanan Church of Christ was performed by the pastor, Robert Hudson, with Mrs. Roland Earnst as the organist and Mrs. Winslow Balluff of Aurora, Illinois, as the soloist. The sanctuary was adorned with circular candelabra decorated with white carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an ivory gown of polyester knit, trimmed with ivory lace at the v-neckline and on the long sleeves and cuffs. Her veil, also trimmed in lace, served as a train with a fingertip length overveil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations combined with ivy.

Mrs. Rob Cody of Bloomington, Illinois, attended her sister as matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Kim Balluff and Marsha Martin, both of Aurora, Illinois, and Kathy Brown of Farmington. All wore apricot v-neck gowns trimmed with lace and fashioned with short puffed sleeves. Their bouquets of carnations were arranged with ivy and they wore ivory pendants presented to them by the bride.

The best man was the bride's brother, David Elwood of Niles, and groomsmen, who also served as ushers, were Lorence Brown of Ferndale, brother of the bridegroom, Tim Royer of South Lyon and Rob Cody.

Yellow knit with long sheer sleeves was worn by the mother of the bride and beige lace over beige taffeta by the bridegroom's.

The reception followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church with Mrs. Grove

Martin and her daughters, Sara and Lynn, of Aurora, Illinois, serving, assisted by the ladies of the church.

Following a week's wedding trip to Stratford, Hamilton and Niagara Falls, Ontario, the couple is now settled in Brighton where the bridegroom, a 1974 graduate of Ferris State College, is employed at Donald W. Ross, Associates, a surveying firm. The bride will graduate from Western Michigan University in December of this year.

This Week At Fernwood

In addition to the many obvious advantages of a center such as Fernwood is another most people do not generally think about. The clubs and organizations using Fernwood's facilities as a base for their activities are as important a part of Fernwood's role as the botanical, ecological and crafts programs that are so well known and widely supported. During the next few weeks three of Fernwood's special interest groups will be involved in activities which are not only interesting and enjoyable to club members, but also helpful in promoting Fernwood's goals for public education and facility improvement.

The Fernwood Nature Photographers is probably the best known organization. Each year an exhibit of their nature photographs is on display in the Fernwood Meeting House, and this year is no exception. Beginning Saturday, September 20 and running through Arts and Crafts in Action, Fernwood members and the public may view the excellent work done by the Fernwood Nature Photographers.

Coming up the 14th of September is the Third Annual Fall Meeting and Field Trip. The field trip is scheduled to Saret Nature Center and will leave from Fernwood's parking lot. After the field trip a 2 p.m. meeting is planned to set up the photography exhibit and discuss the guidelines for exhibiting prints.

The Fernwood Nature Photographers learn an awareness of nature through their camera lens and share it with you in their show. The club offers an exchange of ideas while working together to promote nature photography on a non-competitive basis.

The second club to resume meetings this fall is the Fernwood Chapter of the Indoor Light Gardening Society of America. The shelf light garden in the Office Building class room is a delightful addition to Fernwood's botanic displays. It has also generated interest among the various groups and members who have visited Fernwood's newest building. Not everyone is lucky enough to have a sunny exposure in every room. Light gardens are a perfect solution to the problem as well as an excellent way to grow and learn about different plant species.

The Fernwood Chapter of the Indoor Light Gardening Society of America will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 16 after a summer respite for gardening and lawn chores. Meetings will continue through the winter season on the third Tuesday of each month.

Discussions and entertainment range from growing flowers and vegetables under lights to plant swaps to special care for a droopy house plant. Anyone with an interest in indoor plants and gardens is invited to join Membership in the American Indoor Light Garden Society is encouraged to receive full benefit of the Fernwood Chapter. The membership fee is nominal.

Also of special interest to Fernwood's members and friends is the newest organization using the Fernwood facilities. The Fernwood Potters' Guild is now well organized and ready to share their skills and knowledge. They will be on hand at the Pottery Studio during Arts and Crafts in Action for a pottery sale. The guild plans to use the profits of their sale for improvements to the Pottery Studio. It is a project from which pottery students as well as guild members will benefit.

First U.M. Church Changes Hours

This Sunday the First United Methodist Church will resume its regular schedule with Church School at 9:45 and morning worship at 11 o'clock.

For this Sunday only, September 7, there will be a breakfast for nursery through eighth grade youngsters at 9:30 at the church.

Royal Neighbors

The Royal Neighbor Lodge will meet Thursday (tonight). Members are reminded that a silent auction is planned.

Control Slugs

Slugs in your vegetable garden can be quite a problem, because they will attack almost all crops and there are no chemicals registered for use against them.

Slugs - which look like snails without shells - dry out if they're exposed to the sun. So entomologists at Michigan State University recommend controlling them by eliminating the cool, moist places where they can hide to feed on your plants.

Begin by getting rid of mulch, so the soil surface around the plants has a chance to dry out, they advise.

Water only once a week so the soil surface doesn't stay cool and damp.

Make a slug trap by watering the soil and putting a board on the wet ground. As the area around the board dries out, the slugs will be attracted by the dampness underneath. You can remove the board and let the sun destroy them.

Slugs are also attracted to shallow saucers of beer placed in the garden at night, the experts note. After the pests have crawled in and drowned, all you have to do is dispose of them.

Arrested With Gun

On Friday night an Indiana man was arrested for violation of the conservation laws and driving with no valid operator's license after his automobile was stopped for an improper turn. Earnest Brown of Gary was arrested after the Buchanan police found a loaded shotgun under his front seat.

The Spinal Column

The most valuable asset a person or family can have is good health. Chiropractic is the avenue chosen by millions of people throughout the world for restoring health and maintaining vitality. More and more open-minded and intelligent people everywhere are realizing that good health is gained and maintained only when normal nerve energy flows from the brain, down the spinal cord, and out between important spinal vertebrae to vital body organs and tissues.

Many patients have come to our office and have been restored to health and then have not followed through in order to maintain the alignment and balance of the spine which we were able to achieve. To these people I sincerely and cordially urge a program of maintenance chiropractic care now. If you once correct the spine, it is relatively easy to maintain the correction. However, if you, through the same bad habits, allow the original weakness and distortion to reaccumulate, we will have to start correction all over again. So please, if you have never embarked on a program of maintenance or if you have but then got careless, now is the time to start again. Your most important asset is your health and feeling of well-being. Without this, life is hardly worth living.

Yours for better health, naturally,

Dr. K. R. Jones

Death — Capital punishment — which Michigan abolished more than 125 years ago — may be back in the news when lawmakers return to Lansing this fall. Rep. Richard Fessler, R-Utica, has introduced a resolution that would, if approved by a two-thirds margin in both House and Senate, put the question of restoring the death penalty in Michigan on the ballot next year. The penalty would be applied only in cases of first degree murder.

death penalty," Fessler says. "Some want it as a deterrent to violent crime. Some view it as a way to make sure that the public is protected from dangerous criminals. Whatever people's reasons," he says, "it's time the people of Michigan have a chance to express themselves on capital punishment."

Rep. Kirby Holmes, R-Utica, tried that route, seeking a public vote on capital punishment, a couple of years back. He tried to collect enough signatures to put the question on the ballot after fellow lawmakers failed to give him the support necessary to make any progress in the House.

Holmes spoke optimistically at first about the signature-collecting process, but eventually gave up the project when it became evident his forces wouldn't be able to get enough names.

Now, Fessler says, "people are fed up with first-degree murderers being released to kill again before they have served even a minimum sentence."

He points also to recent action by the Michigan Commission on Criminal Justice, which voted 24-17 against seeking to amend the state constitution to permit the death penalty.

"The fact that the commission was sharply split on this issue only serves to further emphasize the need for a public vote," he says.

Cycle On

Wheels move Michigan — two wheels at a time on brand-new bike paths.

Nearly $600,000 in contracts to build bicycle paths along state highways were let during the past year, reports Gov. William Milliken. And another $750,000 is expected to be spent on similar projects this coming year.

The paths, Milliken says, "will make travel safer and more pleasant for many of Michigan's more than three million bicycle owners."

Why should bike paths cost so much?

Most of the projects involve work on road shoulders, addition of lanes and other features to make biking easier alongside the highway traffic.

The paths are built on both sides of the highway so cyclists can travel with auto traffic as the law requires, rather than in the opposite direction.

Completed bike path projects are to be found in Berrien, Hillsdale, Iosco, Kalamazoo, Livingston and Ottawa counties. Still under construction are others in Hillsdale, Calhoun and Kalamazoo, Wayne, Oakland and Macomb, Washtenaw, Grand Traverse, Benzie, Ionia, and Kent counties.

In the planning stage are projects in Delta, Ingham, Kalamazoo and Van Buren, Kent, Marquette, Mecosta, Menominee, Muskegon, Oakland, Ottawa, and Roscommon counties.

IMW Wins First Game

In the state Class D's Women's Softball Tournament last weekend at Cadillac, IMW, regional champs, won the first game 14 to 4 over Tecumseh. In the game, called after the sixth inning, Jean Summers, Brenda Horvath and Teresa Carson each got two hits and Janet Hess, Lisa Swem and Kelly Letchers had one apiece.

The girls lost to Baldwin by 9 to 4. They were ahead 4-1 until the fifth inning when they ran into trouble with errors and their opponents racked up seven runs. Hits came from Janet Hess, Teresa Carson and Brenda Horvath.

In the last outing, IMW dropped another, 10-4, to Dewitt Griffel from Lansing. Cindy Prenkert had two hits, Brenda Mottl a double; Brenda Horvath, who pitched for all three games had a triple and singles from Janet Hess and Lynda Mitchell.

The team enjoyed taking part according to their coaches Phyllis Enders and Phyllis Amiel, and hope to return another year with more experience. All the Sunday games were rained out. However it was a rough day for the team because the schedule was uncertain and they spent six hours on the road to report and avoid forfeiting when a definite answer on schedule wasn't available.

Need Bowlers

The Friday Nite bowling league, to bowl at Shula's this year, needs one more team for first shift bowling or three or four individuals. Anyone interested in taking part is asked to call Lee Padgett 695-6993.

state is the aim of a new task force recently appointed by Gov. William Milliken.

The Task Force on Small Business Participation in State Purchasing will review state law and existing rules and regulations to see what changes need to be made to open up the system to smaller entrepreneurs.

"Although the state has in the past attempted to provide Michigan businesses with the opportunity to sell their commodities and services to state departments, small businesses have had difficulty in obtaining much state business," Milliken says.

Minority businesses historically have had even greater difficulty getting into the mainstream of our American business enterprise system, Milliken reports.

"In view of this fact," he says, "and the fact that mostly minority businesses are small, special emphasis and assistance must be given to them. We can and must improve the opportunity of all small businesses to obtain a greater share of the state's business."

Galien Acreage Cited As Centennial Farm

The farm owned by Ralph R. and Faye Smith, Route 1, Box 182, Galien, has been designated as a Centennial Farm by the Division of Michigan History.

Located in Galien Township, the farm has been in the possession of the family since 1875. It was originally purchased March 1, 1875, by David Bryant, a relative of the present owners. It therefore qualifies as a Centennial Farm, having been in the continuous possession of the same family for at least 100 years.

Secretary of State Richard H. Austin, whose Department administers the Centennial Farm program, said that since the program was inaugurated in 1948, more than 3,000 Michigan farms have been certified as Centennial Farms.

A centennial farm comprises only the land and not the farm buildings, which may be remodeled or even new. Applications for Centennial Farm recognition are obtainable from the Centennial Farm Program, Division of Michigan History, Michigan Department of State, Lansing, Michigan 48918.

Clark Ladies League Ends Season

Clark Ladies Golf League ended its season with a banquet at Hans Haus in South Bend. Dean Swem of corporation personnel was the speaker and also awarded the trophies.

First place winners were Wilma Mesaros and Alice Curry and second place trophies went to Wally Dodge and Emily Cody. Awarded low gross were Maryellen Robards and Cathy Sexton and low net, Wilma Jesse. Most improved award went to Sandy Lohmough. The good sportsmanship award was presented to Sue Glossinger.

Officers for the 1976 season were announced with Maryellen Robards to serve as president, Marie VerValm as vice president, Phyllis DeWierdt as secretary and Wilma Jesse, treasurer.

Registration Starts For P P & K

On Tuesday, September 2, registration began for the 1975 Punt, Pass & Kick competition in the showroom of Habischt Ford, 501 Redbud Trail North in Buchanan. In making the announcement, Bob Habischt, president of the dealership, said, "We're looking forward to a big local PP&K competition in Buchanan on Saturday, October 4. We hope all the youngsters 8 through 13 years of age in this area will come in to register and take part."

Habischt pointed out that PP&K — throughout its six levels of competition — is free of any charge, and that youngsters need only have a parent or guardian accompany them to the showroom to register.

"Our competition here will have 1st, 2nd and 3rd place trophies for contestants in each of the six age groups, or 18 trophies in all," said Habischt. "Increasing each entrant's chances of winning is the fact that youngsters compete only against others in their own age group," said the Ford Dealer.

"Of course there is no body contact in PP&K. It's punting, passing and place-kicking for distance and points, just as the name says. First place winners in each age group in our competition will go on to the Zone competition. And from there, top winners go on up the ladder through District, Area, Division and National Finals," he said.

This year, the National Finals will be held at the Super Bowl X in Miami on January 18, 1976. "Naturally, we hope some of our Buchanan PP&K winners will make it all the way to the Finals," added Habischt.

The Ford Dealer further explained that each entrant, upon registering, receives a free PP&K Tips Book. In the 1975 edition, there are competition tips by NFL stars Ray Guy, Ken Anderson, and Chester Marcol. The Tips Book also includes complete PP&K rules and helpful conditioning exercises for contestants.

PP&K registrations will close at Habischt Ford on October 3.

This is the 15th anniversary year for PP&K. From its inception the youth activity has been sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America in cooperation with the National Football League. In that time more than 11.5 million youngsters have taken part in PP&K, making it one of the largest youth activities.

Last Chance For Men Tennis Players

Many unsuccessful attempts have been made to organize a Men's Doubles tournament during the summer. It is hoped that with summer conflicts now past at least all the city league players will be able to enter.

The tourney is now scheduled for Saturday, September 13 with the finals on Sunday. The fee will be $3 per couple and noon Friday, September 12 is the deadline for registering.

This is the last time the tournament will be offered this year just for city residents. If not enough interest is shown in the city, the tournament will be offered as an open event.

4-H Plans Salute '76

"People were friendly, and interested in one another. They got together and had fun just showing off a little. When the celebration ended, they went home glad to be alive and proud to be an American."

That's one nostalgic view of the old-fashioned country fair. And that's the kind of spirit 4-H'ers will be seeking to recapture in "Salute '76", their celebration of the American Bicentennial, according to Dr. Norman Brown, director of the Michigan 4-H Youth Programs.

Everyone's invited to the Michigan State University campus on Saturday, June 26, 1976, according to Mrs. Colleen Howe, whose entire family will be acting as chairpersons for the event. She herself is on the Board of Trustees of the Michigan 4-H Foundation.

"4-H members will be manning exhibits with a historical flavor — heritage kitchens that recall our great-grandparents' childhood homes, displays of artifacts assembled by 4-H'ers along with modern counterparts, genealogical tracings — all with a view toward giving us all a clearer perspective on our history," said Mrs. Howe.

Bargain-hunters will have their chances, too, said the mother of four. "We're planning sales of everything from antiques to modern farm implements and livestock."

The entire family will enjoy the activities which also include a country barbecue as well as a big-name entertainer, according to Frank Merriman, president of the 4-H Foundation Board of Trustees and past president of the MSU Board of Trustees.
