MAYBE IT'S SOMETHING YOU DIDN'T EAT!

YES, it's true that many disorders may result from not eating. And the "well-fed" are often sufferers. In periods of stress and strain, we may require more vitamins than the average diet will supply. In such cases, Physicians make up this vitamin deficiency by prescribing vitamins in concentrated form. Vitamins should not be taken promiscuously. Consult your Physician: His diagnosis will determine the vitamins you need. And, when you have his prescription, bring it here to be filled with those ever dependable Abbott Vitamin Products.

luring them from swamp areas, according to conservation department game men.

Deer are now seen regularly away from their usual winter feeding areas in swamps, attracted by the food provided in the tops of fallen trees. This extra food is a considerable aid to deer, which in some places will exhaust the normal winter food supply within their limited browsing reach above ground. Their absence from the swamps assists heavily browsed cedar to become re-established.

Student Problems

Undoubtedly, many students dread the coming semester. There are several reasons for this. The first and most prevalent is that there are too many low grades. The man thing that can be done about this is to study more. If one of the "gang" wants you to go to a show or some place else, when you have lots of home work, use your will power, and stay at home. This may take a little effort but will show on your report card.

Another reason is always the student who just can't seem to get up in the morning. Evidently the only thing that they can do is to go to bed earlier (at night) than usual.

If students would stop to analyze their problems, there would be a lot more satisfied with the school and school life.

New Semester

Time has come again when we have to make out our schedules for the subjects we are taking. The courses offered are Speech, Economics, Commercial Arithmetic and Trigonometry.

Yes, indeed, this next semester has a lot in store for pupils in school.

Band Receives Sweaters

The Band sweaters have arrived. They are maroon and will have letters of white with a maroon lyre. The names of members are on the inside of the new garments. The band members are very proud of them.

Miss Sheppie was recently called to Chicago because of the death of her mother. We are sincerely sorry and wish to express our sympathy.

See Big City Without Cash

It seems as though two of our Senior girls found what it was like to be stranded in a big city without any money. Hermna and Bette went to Fort Wayne to see some friends and were left there without enough money to get back to Buchanan. After telegraphing home for money and waiting in bus stations for seven hours, they finally pawned Bette's watch and started for home. After they got back in Buchanan, they found that the money had been sent to the wrong station in Fort Wayne. It was quite an experience and wasn't even necessary. But then, who cares — they don't! Because — Well, they got to see their soldiers.

Library News

The library is grateful for fifteen Junior Literary Guild books presented them by Miss Virginia Arnold. These books are all by well known authors.

There were no duplications in the library of any book in the collection.

Health News

Keep in Good Health

1 Eat a variety of nourishing foods including those which are rich in vitamins A and C. Milk and milk products, green leafy vegetables, both cooked and raw, eggs, and liver are all good sources of vitamin A. All fruits, particularly citrus fruits, and tomatoes, canned or raw, are especially good sources of vitamin C. If you catch cold easily, you may also need to take cod liver oil or some other concentrate of vitamin A.

2 Get eight hours of sleep every night, if possible, and take some form of outdoor exercise daily.

3 Dress according to the weather. Put on adequate wraps when going outdoors, instead of wearing heavy underwear all the time. Wear rubbers or overshoes on the stormy days. If you get wet, by all means, change your clothing, shoes and hose as soon as possible.

4 Live and work in well-ventilated rooms. Unless the room is air conditioned, windows should be opened at least twice a day for a complete change of air.

5 See a physician if you have trouble in breathing properly, if you take cold often, if colds hang on, or if you have a persistent cough.

Velmarian Lit. to Present 3 One-Act Plays

The Velmarian Literary Society presents three one-act plays Friday, January 23, at two o'clock.

"Myrtle, Dear Myrtle," by Myra Richter, covers the lives of several 12-year-old children Gene Dalrymple, Lynea and Eleanor Ingelright play as the youngsters, Myra Richter as the nurse, and Jacqueline Bilotti as the kind-hearted mother.

Vivian Wallace presents "The Blind Date." A play that shows the trouble of college girls and their small brothers.

"Convict 9999" or "The Woman Paid the Price," a melodrama by Josephine Pascoe, brings out the characteristics of the small town jail house in the gay nineties manner.

Admission is only ten cents for three good plays. Come and see them, you'll like 'em.

News Notes

It seems as though the lovebug has bitten Robert Gridley, the 7th grade glamor boy! He was caught primping and slicking down his hair in front of Mr. Stari's office between halves of the Buchanan-Berrien Springs basketball game. Then he ran as fast as he possibly could for the balcony to meet his heart throb. Did you find her, Gridley?

"Oh, look at the stairs! I am afraid to walk on them!" These were some of the remarks overheard from students when they returned to school from their vacation.

This fine painting was done by Ray Miller and Mr. Elbers.

Similes

Day dreaming is like an old car — It never gets you anywhere.

A leaky fountain pen is like an old mule — You can never get any results.

Another Open House

There will be another "Open House" at Hugh Pierce's for apprentices and their dates. It will be held at 8 o'clock on Friday, the 23rd.

We hope that more of the boys will bring their girls as there was only one at the last party.

School Dance

The dance January 16, which was sponsored by the Boys Home Ec. and the Usher club, turned out very successful. It was held after the basketball game with Central Catholic at South Bend. Recordings furnished the music.

Lorna Jameson Leaves

Lorna Jameson, who portrayed the role of the colored maid, Lula in the recent Junior play, has registered in the Gallen high school. She is one of those rare souls who has a good sense of humor. Anyone who knew Lorna Mae, as jolly as she was, will miss her very much. The good student that she was, makes her a superior student in her work. We wish you happiness in your new surroundings Lorna.

Home Economics

Girls in the advanced Home Ec class are making the large block print for the Home Ec. room this week. It is to be made out of red and white print.

Grade News—H. S.

Donald Boyer is the new captain in Miss Carnagan's room for this six weeks period. The lieutenants are Richard Van Deusen and Annette Eoyer.

We are talking about good health and safety rules in Miss Connell's grade. We have made some safety posters about fires, stop lights, playing in the street, eating vegetables, drinking milk, and refusing rides with strangers. We are trying to keep our hands and nails clean and our hair very neatly combed.

There are twelve children in Miss Fritz's room buying Defense stamps.

Miss Graves has been giving achievement tests in the second grade.

Miss Kinney's room and Miss Fritz's rooms have started working on their assembly program. They are dramatizing the story of Hansel and Gretel. The program is to be given in February.

Boys and girls in Miss Kinney's room are learning to solve problems in multiplication and division. Most of them enjoy the new work very much.

Last week Miss Kinney brought phonograph records of "Hansel and Gretel." The records tell the story and they also have music from the opera. We are learning the songs.

Eight people in Mrs. Fuller's fourth grade have not been absent from school this year. They are Norman Leal, Cleb Lofmough, Ted Thurston, Dale Rifenburg, Birde Swaim, Max Wallace and Billie Jo Warner.

More than fifty per cent of Mrs. Fuller's children are buying Defense Stamps weekly. They have already purchased a total amount of $55.00 worth.

Miss Gates' room has found the study of New York City and its many industries very interesting.

Last week in Miss Sheppie's class they cut out snow scenes. Kay Bailey brought the outfit, husk of a coconut for the children to see.

Miss Elkstrom's fifth grade is learning the list of one hundred "spelling demons," which is a list of words most commonly misspelled.

Miss Halnon's room has four large pictures of Eskimo life on the back bulletin board. The title of one picture is "Women Fishing." It shows women fishing through holes in the ice. Another is "The Walrus Hunt." The other two are "Building An Igloo," and "Dog Teams." We like the pictures very much. Miss Halnon says she has pictures of other people and that we will put some of them up when we take the Eskimo pictures down.

EDWINA TRAPP, (5th) We like the story, "The Soap Box Derby" that Miss Reams is reading to us. This story is in our new book, "The Story Parade."

In Miss Jeffrey's room seventeen people bought over $70 worth of Defense Stamps. More pupils are expecting to start buying the stamps. Everybody ought to save for the defense in these urgent times.

They have been learning the days of the week. They are making a calendar for the month of January.

The first grade children in Miss Moen's room have made some interesting winter pictures with chalk. One day they cut snow flakes. They have a new plant in their room, it is a sweet potato plant and Doris S. brought it.

Children in Mrs. Heim's second grade are enjoying the book "The Adventure of Johnny Chuck." This is a Burgess book about the little animals of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows. The book was brought by Gladys Nelson.

The second grade in Miss Doolittle's room is talking about the snow, where it comes from, how it helps us, and the fun we have with it.

The children in Miss Wilcox's third grade are enjoying the story of "Paddy, the Beaver," which she is reading to them. They have been drawing snow scenes in art class, and are learning a brand new song, "King Winter"

Miss Olson has been reading the story of "Black Beauty" to her fourth grade. They like it because the story is told by an animal. The children are trying to improve their penmanship by the practice of writing every day.

Warner Bros. Donated Equipment to Navy. The low pressure chamber and other highly technical flight studio equipment built by studio technicians for Warner Bros' big super-special Technicolor picture, "Dive Bombers" are going into active service.

Setting Records

Gene Autry's pictures are played in more theatres records than those of any other star. "Sierra Sue," latest Republic western with Gene in the lead will show Friday and Saturday, Jan. 23-24 at the Hollywood theatre.

Riding High

For one week Alan Curtis was the world's highest paid motorcycle messenger.

When Curtis was assigned to an important role in "We Go Fast," the new 20th Century-Fox film at the Hollywood theatre Friday and Saturday, he found that he would have to be able to ride a motorcycle. This was a new experience for the actor as he had never before ridden or driven one of the vehicles.

On instructions from Director William McGann, Curtis took driving lessons from Bill Bryan, 20th Century-Fox's regular motorcycle messenger.

After completing his lessons Alan practiced by carrying packages from the studio's transportation department to the mail room on the other side of the lot. Since his salary runs into a very neat figure, this made Curtis one of the highest paid motorcycle messengers they've ever had.

Other important roles in "We Go Fast," are filled by Lynn Bari, Sheila Ryan and Don DeForest.

"Manpower"

Edward G. Robinson making love to Marlene Dietrich is certainly one of the novelties of the Hollywood season.

Robinson treated himself to this experience when he took the role of Hank in Warner Bros' "Manpower," which has its first local showing Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 28-29 at the Hollywood. George Raft is co-starred with Robinson and Miss Dietrich.

Dietrich appears at her wickedest and most glamorous as a sleek and tawny E-Girl, hostess of a clip joint on the West Coast. "Manpower" was directed by Raoul Walsh from the Richard Macaulay-Jerry Wald script.

"FLOWING IN" a new cable line. These huge machines bury several miles of telephone cable a day.

Cables for America's Battle

- ★ IN THE past year, while the nation was preparing for the present struggle, Michigan Bell spent $28,000,000 largely to meet the need for increased telephone service.
- ★ Part of that total went into new buildings, additions and new central office equipment. But a large and important share was buried in the ground—in the form of telephone cable. 448,000 miles of new telephone wire were used in the cables placed by Michigan Bell in 1941—enough wire to go more than 18 times around the earth!
- ★ Hundreds of miles of new cable bring telephone service to military bases and munitions plants. Other hundreds supply the swiftly growing districts of defense workers' homes. As long as the necessary materials can be obtained, your Telephone Company will do its level best to provide good telephone service for all who need it.

It's very special food—powdered, concentrated—calories carefully counted—but complete from soup to coffee. It gives husky men the reserve power to keep going when other supplies are cut off.

Reserve power is just as vital in industrial as in military emergencies. When tank factories, plane plants and shipyards began to eat up more and more electric power, reserve rations were ready.

Reserves built up in advance by the business men who manage America's power companies... Reserve that met almost every defense demand overnight.

... Reserves available almost anywhere, because of carefully planned and interconnected systems.

But no power reserves could continue to satisfy hungry, humming machines indefinitely. So the electric companies have been working fast to keep ahead. They put over 2 1/2 million more horsepower into production during 1941—enough to light one-quarter of all the nation's homes!

Here is a basic defense industry, able and willing to do its part—glad to pledge all-out co-operation with government and industry—until the skies and seas around America are secure and free forever!
