CLARK PLANT WILL SHUT DOWN JULY 3

City Commission Votes Down Rezoning of East Front For Business

Will Open Again Monday, July 14 if Strike Is Over

Now Here's the Proposition

Congratulations to Mrs. Leah Weaver and Her Helpers. The Record wishes to extend its very sincere compliments to Mrs. Leah Weaver and all others who were in any way responsible for the fine success of the recent trip of the Spanish class to Mexico City and return.

The perfection of the arrangements are indicated by the compliment paid by Mr. Oscar Bell, representative of Wells Fargo, who was in charge of their three-day tour of Mexico City and its environs. The Wells Fargo furnished automobiles and supervision for the tours. Mr. Bell said that the Buchanan group were the "best organized and best behaved" of any that he had ever conducted during 15 years of experience in such tours all over the world.

Proposal Made For Rezoning By Planning Board

The proposal submitted by Atty. Henry J. Dongvillo to the city commission that a section of East Front street extending from Liberty street to the east city limits be transferred from a "Residence A" to a "Business B" zone classification was rejected by a unanimous vote of the city commission following a hearing on the proposal held at the beginning of the regular bi-monthly meeting Monday night.

A considerable number of citizens in the area affected were present to oppose the rezoning classification, on the grounds that such rezoning would affect the value of their properties for residential purposes. The recommendation was made by Atty. Dongvillo in behalf of a client who is seeking a location for an automobile agency headquarters. Objectors stated that the presence of such business would render the area less desirable for children, would tend to inordinately increase auto traffic, and by its consequent surroundings would render the area less desirable. Objection was also made that the section of East Front street involved constitutes a main approach to the city and for that reason should not be classified as a Business B zone, which would permit indiscriminate entry of business types which would be prejudicial to residence values and to the appearance of the thoroughfare.

Betty Ingleright Sets A National Shooting Record

Ed Ingleright Wins Fourth Tournament in Row At Wheaton, Illinois

The shooting Inglerights shot themselves into another "right smart mess of medals in a little tournament at Wheaton, Ill. Sunday, with some right smart competition to shoot against, including the American Olympic Rifle team who go to Helsinki this year.

Ed Ingleright won the high aggregate for the four matches of the day with a score of 1597 out of 1600. Betty Ingleright won the medal for the high score of the day in a single match, with a score of 400 plus 37 X's, shooting at a 50 meter target. This is a national women's record.

In both cases they were shooting against the members of the American Olympic team, plus a field of experts. Well, well! We just can't understand this. Ed and Betty must get a lot of practice shooting at each other. Or else they were holding their mouths just right Sunday.

On July 5 and 6 they will shoot in the Michigan state championship matches for men and women at Ionia. In August they will go to Florida to try for the national honor. Ed Ingleright has shot in four tournaments this summer, winning this highest honors in every one.

They will be guest speakers on the Sports Hour at WHOT Friday at 10:30 a.m. and will tell you all about how they do it.

4th Fireworks Program Slated To Begin At 9:15

To Shoot Ground Pieces Near Football Stadium, Aerial Pieces, Between MCRB and McCoy's Creek

Aerial curtains of incandescent loveliness will alternate at intervals from both sides of Memorial Field on the evening of July 4th relieving the up-and-down wear and tear on the spectators by occasional horizontal swivel action.

The program should be better than anything seen here previously, weather permitting, states the committee chairman, Dale Nelson. The ground displays will be set off on the hillside adjacent to the football stadium, where an area will be roped off and guarded by the police. The aerial pieces will be shot from the bench of land immediately south of Memorial Field and located between the Michigan Central railway and McCoy's creek, on property belonging to the city.

In all about 230 pieces will be discharged, including 150 aerial and 80 ground pieces.

The Story of Buchanan

Awesome Flights Wild Pigeons In 1874 Described

50-Mile-Square Roost in Benzie Co. Near to Interlocken Is Described

(While we are gathering and organizing materials for advance chapters, we insert the following description of a Michigan wild pigeon "roost" in 1874 Benzie county, the scene of the roost, is a county on the Lake Michigan coast of the lower peninsula, just south and west of Grand Traverse Bay. The county's main town is the lake port, Frankfort. The Betsy river winds through the southern part of the county toward Bendon and Interlocken.)

The following story describing one of the great pigeon roosts in Benzie county, last occupied in 1850, was printed in the New York Times of June 25, 1874.

"The number of birds this spring has exceeded anything recorded in the tradition of hunters and the oldest inhabitants. The miraculous flight of quails that fell by the camp of the Israelites, a day's journey on this and a day's journey on the other side and two cubits high on the face of the earth, was nothing to the Betsy river nesting.

"Imagine, if you can, a tract of land about sixteen miles long and three miles wide, where every inch is occupied by a dozen nests and a hundred birds, where the air whirs from dawn until dark with ceaseless wings, where the flights that settle cover 50 square miles with a living carpet, where from 250 to 400 men have for six weeks or more been engaged in trapping and killing without cessation, and yet do not make the numbers appreciably less; that is the scene.

"Almost daily armies of reinforcements fly northward from faraway Kentucky and Missouri, the beat of whose wings and whose countless numbers obscure the sky and emit a hollow roar, as if a tornado or a thunder storm were approaching.

"There are three regular flights a day—two Tom flights and one hen flight. At early dawn the male sets out, flying to the east and north, to seek a breakfast of seeds and berries, ten, 20 or 50 miles away. By six or half past the sky is black with the departing birds. They tower in great armies to a considerable height, each sheet of birds—sheet is the word that best describes them—wavering a moment like the needle of the compass when disturbed, then taking flight in the appointed direction with a unanimity and evenness that would make one believe that every bird was animated by the same impulse at the same instant.

"An hour later not a bird was to be seen, but toward eight o'clock the rush of the returning birds is heard. Squadron after squadron arrives, cleaving the air with unwearied wings and unflinching sense, fluttering, wheeling and descending, each division over its own district, each bird over the nest of its own faithful mate.

"As 'tom' after 'tom' returns to take his trick at the domestic helm, hen after hen rises upward, and the armies of the Amazons go to the east and north. Toward nine the scene is indescribable. It is a very atmosphere of wings, earth and forest have been converted into feathers, and the eye gazes down vistas of pigeons to far horizons of squab pies.

"By and by the last female departs and the meek males remain incubating with a faithfulness and an amenability to domestic discipline that would delight the sternest unfeathered sister. In the middle of the afternoon the hens return and the toms depart to make an evening of it, returning before or about sunset. The late birds who stay out late after dusk, apparently having the latch key to their several nests, seem bothered and fly very low along the ground until they get their bearings.

"Then begins a slaughter such as marked the coup d'etat Pole

Wagner District Sells $32,000 In Building Bonds

Detroit Firm Buys Issue At Interest Rate of 3%

The board of education of the Wagner district held a special meeting in the school building Tuesday evening and opened bids on the sale of $32,000 in school bonds to finance the construction of a new two-story building. The bonds were sold to the Berrien Security Corporation of Detroit at an interest rate of 3% on $22,000 payable annually on August 1, 1953 through August 1, 1963, and a rate of 2 1/2% on the remaining $10,000, payable August 1, 1964 through August 1, 1968.

Director of the board of education, Kenneth Herman, stated that the board will go ahead and advertise for bids on the construction of the new school so that work can begin as soon as possible. Plans for the school have been drawn up by the Knox Association of St. Joseph, architects.

The new building is to be a near droproof as possible and is to be constructed to allow future additions. At a special election last November voters of the district voted to raise the $32,000 on a bond issue and to raise the tax millage to 22.3 to finance the building of a 2-room addition to the present school. Later plans were made to erect a new school building.

V. Young Tells About Odessey Of Spanish Club

Never Dull Moment In 5,500 Miles Says Member Of The Party

(Following the arrival home of the 31 pilgrims to Mexico City and return at 11:20 p.m. Tuesday, a member of the entourage, Van Young, wrote the following excellent resume at the request of the Record.)

After fourteen days of touring, the little band of unity-one arrived home Monday night with the same spark they started out with. Over 5500 miles had fallen behind them. The usual greeting by parents and handshakes by all were present, but also there was the feeling amongst the young people and grown-ups that something was bound to pop up around the next corner. Indeed, there will be much story-telling for the next few months.

From the minute the bus left Buchanan until Monday night there never was a dull moment. Many sights were to be seen along the road. Unexpected sights such as helicopter maneuvers in Texas, and stopping at the Will Rogers Memorial in Oklahoma, plus many gorgeous views of the Sierra Madres in Mexico, added up to make the trip twice as nice, as it was remembered at the winding mountain highway thills—and thrills they were! The Buchanants can tell you with the least bit of exaggeration, that they were indeed "walking on top of clouds." One rest stop was made going down to Mexico City that was 14,000 feet in the air. Compare that with our own 700 feet!

The beauty of the gold-laden altar at the Shrine of Guadalupe and the many other cathedrals and churches weighed deeply on everyone's heart. The group saw the oldest cathedral in the United States when they saw the St. Louis cathedral in New Orleans.

Plenty of souvenirs graced the inside of the traveling bags of everyone. The tours in Mexico included stops at a leather factory and the silver shops in Taxco. As the Mexican peso is equal to only 11 cents in our money almost everyone bought at least one. The rings, handbags and cloth goods were the main objects of purchase. A pure silver ring could be bought for less than five dollars.

The Hotel Reforma, in which the group stayed, is to Mexico City like the Waldorf-Astoria and the Shamrock are to the States. Of course, it was much cheaper because of the money exchange. The street peddlers and beggars in the streets made walking unwise in the capitol, although it was much fun to stop and argue over a peso or two with the peddlers. This is their fun. The tours we took of Guadalupe, Taxco, and Cuernavaca were very interesting. Cuernavaca had as its most interesting subject, Maximilian's home and the beautiful gardens surrounding the estate. An old cathedral across the street was inspected also. The silver mines and shops in Taxco provided a great deal of information on the silver industry. The great cathedral in Taxco was taken in also. This provided a thrill for some of the movie goers in the crowd. "Viva Zapata" had been in Buchanan only a few weeks before and the cathedral had been one of his forts in revolutionary times.

The first day there was the most entertaining of all the days in Mexico City for the bull fight was taken in by all. Six bulls were expertly handled by the professionals. The fights were indeed bloody but the skill of the men in the ring made up for it all.

The group was fortunate in the line of sickness. Only a bit of cat sickness coming over the winding curves in the Madres was encountered. Many reports of hives were reported however. The girls and boys were well protected by three able nurses, Mrs. Calbetzer, Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Morrison and very resting. The Reforma, Mexico City, The Jung, New Orleans, and the Gunter, of San Antonio, were particularly comfortable. Greyhound lines showed the best of co-operation all along the line. The connections clicked like clock-work all along the way.

The Alamo in San Antonio with its museum and gardens were interesting. The gardens are placed where the parade ground was at one time. Flowers were in abundance everywhere along the road.

Planning Board Meets Commission On Rezoning Issue

The city planning board was scheduled to meet Wednesday evening of this week with the city commission to confer on the subject of the recommended rezoning of East Front street and the situation resulting from the rejection of that rezoning by the commission following a public hearing Monday evening.

It was the belief of the planning board that the commission members were not at all familiar with the thinking behind the proposed rezoning at the time of their vote against it. It was the further belief in the planning board that there is need for a creation of an area accessible to future business development that will contain open and obtainable areas, not already occupied for any other purpose and containing unused areas with room suitable for types of business requiring considerable space.

It has come to the attention of the planning board that such areas are lacking or entirely absent in the Business A and B zones now existing. This situation came to light when a local business man attempted to find a site for an auto agency building, with large frontage. It is the belief of the planning board that such development areas should be available, and that if they do not exist in the present business zones, then it is the duty of the board to create them in selecting areas for such rezoning. The board has taken the position that one needs of both business and residence should be considered impartially, since they are both necessary to the city.

Then procedure, then, should be to create such opportunities in an area which would in their judgment best locate the interests of business and residence. That is, the location selected should be made in an area that would be suited to such development which, in the least possible harm to residential interests.

The planning board selected the section of East Front street on the following grounds: 1. It would be a favorable location for the type of business desired. 2. Damage to residential interests would be less than in other areas because (a) that area is already immediately adjacent to an industrial zone which abuts on East Front street in the area selected, (b) the area already contains a large bowling alley and a considerable traffic and a parking lot, also a semi-public building which has in the past been maintained by a veterans organization and may be maintained by a fraternal organization again, with large residential traffic.

The planning board consequently recommended the creation there of the needed business development area. Since the city commission voted that down, it is the wish of the planning board in their joint meeting with the city commission, held at the meeting of the Planning Board, to consider that action of the selection of other areas, being sure this time that each of the aims or the city government are fully conscious of what the other is thinking about and trying to do.

7-Car Posse Combs Buchanan Area For Four Youths

A combined mounted posse including three state police cars, two Niles police cars, one Berrien county sheriff department car and one Buchanan police car combed the countryside south of Buchanan for nearly five hours Sunday afternoon for three South Bend juvenile youth who had stolen a car the previous evening and were out for a week-end of adventure.

The party of juveniles, ranging in age from fifteen to sixteen, had stolen the car in South Bend Saturday night. They first got into trouble in Niles when they hit a stop sign on Green Gable street, Niles, and went on without stopping. The sign was adjacent to the home of Robert and Edward Klose, two Niles youths, who saw the accident and jumped into their car, giving chase. They chased the South Bend boys across the state line into Indiana and through the roads on each side of the line. The South Bend boys finally doubled back into Michigan and onto M-66. They were set on their heels on M-66 when the driver tried to make a left turn onto Portage going south, and upset the car.

The Klose boys captured one of the South Bend boys, but the other three got away. The Klose boys then telephoned the Buchanan police to help. The local police relayed the call to the state police post at Niles, as having jurisdiction. Later the state police called for help from the Niles, and Buchanan police and the Berrien county sheriff's department.

About 5:30 p.m. the Buchanan police received a call from Robert Franklin stating that three boys answering the description of the South Bend youths were walking on Portage road into Buchanan. Chief Krugh and Deputy Sheriff Robert Rinker went out, meeting the boys south of South Portage just this side of the Michigan Central Railway.

The boys were turned over to the state police and placed in the Niles jail until the matter of jurisdiction could be determined.

While in the Niles jail the boys confessed to the theft of the 1952 Chevrolet they were driving from in front of the home of Louis Meel, South Bend. They then held up a taxi in the South Bend area, taking $12 from the driver. They divided the money and then drove to Kalamazoo, and thence to St. Joseph, where they said they spent the rest of the night sleeping on the River Road. They then returned to the Niles area and became involved in the chase previously described.

Following the robbery their names were released as follows: John Webster, 16; Robert Brown, 15; Lester Brown, 16; Francis Longest, 16, all of South Bend. They were also turned over to the South Bend police.

Francis Longest was the lad who was captured by the Klose brothers. At the time he drew a nine-foot blacksnake whip which he had wrapped around his waist and attempted to hold his captors at bay. However one of the brothers grabbed the whip and pulled it from him. When captured by Krugh and Rinker, one of the other boys had a blacksnake whip wrapped around his waist under his shirt. All the boys carried sizeable knives.

Girls Softball 9 Trims Niles 17-16

The Buchanan Girls' Softball team, Robert Reamer manager, defeated the Niles girls' team last week by a score of 17 to 16. The Buchanan girls playing and their positions were as follows: pitchers, Jane Stark, Chesterne Karpinski, Peggy Cramer, 1st Nancy Nelson, 2nd Joan Lewis, Hank Joyce, 3rd Marilyn Ravish; shortstop, Jane Stark, fielders, Sandy Hanlin, Jane Stark, Chesterne Karpinski, Shirley Nordin, Sarah Marrs, Patty Heincy, Jill Hombaker.

All Plants Are Affected Either Directly or Indirectly

All operations at the Buchanan plant of the Clark, Equipment company will be closed down Thursday, July 3, except for some maintenance work, engineering machine shop and tool division operations, according to bulletins posted Tuesday throughout the departments.

The immediate reason for the shut-down is the conditions prevailing in the steel industry, resulting from the continuance of the steel strike. Meanwhile the annual inventory will be taken while the plant is closed, instead of during the fall as has been customary.

As far as can be determined at this time, states the bulletins, operations will be resumed in all departments on Monday, July 14, except in the housing division, unless the plant personnel are meanwhile notified to the contrary. A main determining factor in the reopening on July 14 will be the previous reopening of the steel mills.

While the overall reason for the closing is the general shortage of steel, the situation is complicated by the shortages of customers, who are not ordering on that account. However, the housing division will be able to supply when the plant closes on July 3.

A factor in the selection of the date is that there will be a general shut-down over the country on that date, unless the steel strike ends sufficiently long before that time to change the situation.

Typical instances are, the announced closing of the Whirlpool plant at St. Joseph on June 27, the two weeks, and the closing of the Studebaker plant in South Bend on July 3 for two weeks. Although these plants announce that either vacations or inventory are the immediate reasons, the actual consideration is material shortages and then reopening afterward will depend on the continuance or cessation of the steel strike.

Buchanan Steel, Electro-Voice, and the Electro-Voice.

Customer reactions to the growing steel shortage will determine the continuance of operation of other plants here, as the Buchanan Steel Products and Electro-Voice, Inc. If the steel strike were to be settled very soon the Buchanan Steel would not be obliged to slacken operations, stated Elmer Gies, president. However a continuance of the strike will increasingly diminish plant operations.

Electro-Voice, Inc., because of the relatively small amount of material entering into their production, is less directly affected than other plants. However, stated Mr. Kahn, president, the customer's will write our ticket. The diminishing parts business of the company is already affecting and will increasingly affect the volume of operations of the Electro-Voice, Inc., plant.

V. Viganysky, Jr. Slightly Hurt in Bike-Auto Collision

Victor Viganysky, Jr., suffered painful bruises and abrasions on head and body when the bicycle which he was riding east on West Front street collided with a car driven west by Mrs. Stella Proud, 805 North Portage street.

The boy, age 9, was enroute to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Viganysky, 109 Lake street at 5:44 p.m. Thursday, near the intersection of West Front and Detroit street, carrying groceries in a basket on his bicycle. The groceries were not secure in the basket and the boy had grabbed to keep them from falling out.

While he was retrieving them his bicycle drifted across the middle line of Front street into the course of Mrs. Proud's car. She applied her brakes and stopped in a distance of 20 feet, slowing down her car so that the impact of the collision was diminished. The bicycle hit the car head on and Victor was pitched over onto the hood of the car, his head denting it.

He was knocked out for the time being. The Swem ambulance was secured and started for the Niles hospital, but stopped to check with a physician in the business section. The doctor advised that he be taken home until morning at least. By that time the boy had recovered from the shock and it had become apparent that his injuries were not serious.

She applied her brakes and stopped in a distance of 20 feet, slowing down her car so that the impact of the collision was diminished. The bicycle hit the car head on and Victor was pitched over onto the hood of the car, his head denting it.

He was knocked out for the time being. The Swem ambulance was secured and started for the Niles hospital, but stopped to check with a physician in the business section. The doctor advised that he be taken home until morning at least. By that time the boy had recovered from the shock and it had become apparent that his injuries were not serious.

They also formally dedicated the new Ranger cabin with Louis C Upton making the dedication and Malcolm Ross, council president, responding on behalf of the council and the camp. Registration of Scouts from all four corners of the council for their first week at camp were accepted. The Scout officer emphasized the fact that registrations for this summer's camp are very heavy. He said that the third period, July 6-13, and fourth period, July 13-17, are already filled, and urged all leaders to get their reservations in, so that Scouts will be assured of one of the finest programs ever provided at the camp under a strong, completely trained staff. Camp Madron is considered one of the finest camps in the nation. It has been in almost continuous use since January 1, serving Scout and Explorer troops for overnight and week-end camping. In addition, it has been host to Scouts square dancing parties, Girl Scouts, YMCA and YWCA groups, church and other community groups. It also conducted a junior high school camp for one week and a national camping school during another week. Howard A. Grant Leaves Theatre Work To Be G.E. Salesman Howard A. Grant, former film projectionist at the Hollywood

Niles-Buchanan Force Report 350 Contacts In U. S., Canada, Canal Zone

A force of 14 licensed amateur radio operators from the Niles and Buchanan area kept three transmitters operating continuously through the 24-hour radio communications drill from 4 p. m. Saturday to 4 p. m. Sunday on the site selected on the west bank of the St. Joseph river, a short distance north of the Bertrand road.

Thomas Mitchell, plant manager for the Electro-Voice, Inc., plant, was one of the organizers of the event. He stated that he had taken part in ten such events, but that the June 21-22 event was the best of them all. The operators contacted approximately 350 amateur stations all over the United States, sections of Canada, and one from the Panama Canal Zone in Central America. While all this was going on a far larger number of St. Joe river mosquitoes were contacting the operators.

On Thursday evening Mike Balos and John Eiders of Buchanan set up two poles for the antennae for which they received the profound thanks of the radio hams. Two tents were set up, one for the operators and one for cooking, and a part of the fourteen-man force took over the culinary arrangements, with no fatal results ensuing according to last reports received. The power-on-the-spot for the transmitters was furnished by the power generator bought by the city of Buchanan.

The site of the temporary camp was the top of a high hill from which South Bend could be seen. Since the event was a national one, observed all over the United States as part of a Civil Defense drill, there was great activity on the amateur circuit. Very careful logs of all calls were kept. Mr. Mitchell ran a finger down a row of stations listed from Kentucky, Missouri, Iowa, Indiana, Kansas, Maryland, Rhode Island, Virginia, New York and the eastern Maritime Provinces of Canada off its northeastern coast, also two stations in California.

The activity was entirely of the "hello, goodbye" kind, stated Mitchell, being chiefly for the purposes of seeking proficiency in making contacts. There are something over 75,000 licensed radio amateurs in the United States. Narrow frequency bands on the radio spectrum are devoted to their operation.

The operators use for the most part the International Radio Morse code, which resembles the continental code for telegraph use, but has many variations from it. They were making contacts during the week-end drill by signaling the "CQ" Field Day call Hams whom they contacted would respond with their call letters and location. In addition to the disarranging, they were getting a relatively large number of contacts close at hand, in the Northern Indiana and Michigan areas, within what is known as "emergency aid" distance. The drill proved the possibility of setting up in an hour's time an emergency radio station independent of all regular power sources, which could carry on satisfactory communications, relative to giving or receiving emergency aid.

Another similar drill will be held some time this fall, stated Mitchell.

Court Wards See White Sox Play Phil. Athletics

Industrial, Business Firms of Berrien Co. Finance Trip for 30 Boys From South Berrien

Probate Judge Malcolm Hatfield today announced that the second of a series of excursions furnished by and at the suggestion of Berrien county industrial and business leaders took place yesterday when a group of 30 boys from the south end of the county, who are wards of the Court, attended the double-header ball game between the Chicago White Sox and the Philadelphia Athletics. As on the previous occasion, when a group of youngsters from the north end of the county attended the game between the Harlem Globe Trotters and the College All-Stars, transportation again was provided by Pete Lovell of the Twin City Motor Coach Lines.

Judge Hatfield and his staff composed of County Agent Thomas Starkey, Probation Officer Harry Muldoon, decided not to accept donations from the north end industrialists and business leaders, as the youngsters were from the south end of the county and leaders in that area had repeatedly requested that they be permitted to assist. Therefore, the trip was made possible by the Clark Equipment and Electro-Voice companies of Buchanan, and the Niles Rotary Club, the City Club of Niles, Niles Lions Club, and the Niles Fraternal Order of Police. Robert Liggett, Twin-City manager of the South Bend Tribune office in St. Joseph, contacted the White Sox management and secured complimentary tickets for 30 boys and three adult chaperones. Liggett, together with Thomas Starkey and Muldoon, accompanied the boys in the special Twin City Motor Coach Lines bus.

On the previous trip some eight weeks ago the star that attracted the attention of the boys was the famous Goose Tatum of the Harlem Globe Trotters. Yesterday the boys were looking forward to the leading pitcher of the big leagues, in action. All the boys in the group being rabid baseball fans knew that pitcher Bob Shantz had won 11 games and lost only one this season for the Athletics.

Judge Hatfield concluded by stating that Berrien county is exceedingly fortunate in having industrial and business leaders who make such trips possible and also juvenile employees who are willing to sacrifice long hours of their time after their working day is closed to help wards of the Court.

The evening program will be heralded at intervals in advance by the discharge of 24 8-inch aerial flash salutes. The continuing display will begin with a large lighting "welcome" sign, followed by a dazzling array of pyrotechnic beauty, including all of the old familiar favorites, as "The American Flag", "Niagara Falls", "Electric Storm" and a number of novelties in ground pieces.

Alternating with the ground pieces will be selections of the aerial display shot from the higher ground to the south, including a beautiful variety of shooting stars, flame ribbons, and curtains, mists and gold and silver flowers.

The spectators will park their cars in Memorial Field and adjacent streets, with Chief of Police Jack Kugh and a number of regular and auxiliary police to handle the traffic. The American Legion will have a food and refreshment concession in Memorial Field and will present the preliminary program, which will be fully described next week.

Using Old Pie Pans
Old pie pans not needed longer may be painted or enameled to match the flower pots and used as saucers to catch the drip when flowers are watered.

Commission Names Three To Draft New Plumbing Code

Banke, Orpurt, Mollberg Named To Write Draft

Must Conform With Up-To-Date Requirements Of State Plumbing Code

The city commission, on advise from City Manager Barclay Omans, voted to revise the present unenforced city plumbing code, naming H. H. Banke, E. A. Orpurt and A. H. Mollberg to make the draft. The draft is to be drawn in accordance with present state requirements.

City Manager Barclay Omans presented the following proposal for the formulation, adoption and enforcement of a new plumbing code for the city of Buchanan, at the regular meeting of the city commission Monday evening.

Our present plumbing controls are lengthy and outdated. They have not been enforced to the point that was originally intended or that is provided for in the ordinance.

The State of Michigan recognizing that plumbing is a matter of public health and that adequate control over plumbing installations were necessary has set up a code of minimum requirements as well as a licensing arrangement. These plumbing laws are mandatory throughout the state. They have also taken the position that a town of 5,000 or over should provide its own enforcement and consequently do not attempt to enforce these laws in cities over 5,000 other than licensing master and journeyman plumbers.

The State Plumbing code is recognized as a minimum law and most cities with any enforcement whatsoever operate under the State Code or under requirements more stringent than the State Code.

Four things are necessary for adequate plumbing control. They are, an adequate ordinance, registering of state plumbers licenses, permits for all plumbing work and adequate plumbing enforcement by a plumbing inspector. The last item is probably the most important and will be the hardest to meet. Unless we can provide adequate inspection and control we have very little hope of making our plumbing ordinance mean anything. If we appoint a local plumber as plumbing inspector, we run into the difficulty of the man inspecting his own work and the work of his competitors.

Permit fees should be adequate to pay all costs of enforcement but should not be used as a source of revenue.

So that we can get off on the right foot and get as much support as possible for a new plumbing ordinance it is recommended that a committee of three be appointed to work with the Manager on formulating a new plumbing code that will meet the minimum requirements for health and public welfare.

Henry Eisele Is Honored As Dean Wagner Teachers

Taught in Wagner in 1893 With Nine Grades and Top of 52 Pupils

Henry Eisele, oldest living person who has taught at the Wagner school, was honored in absentia at the annual reunion of pupils and teachers held there a week ago Sunday.

Mr. Eisele had been spending the winter with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Gowel at Jackson, Mich. He returned last Friday to spend the summer with another daughter, Ruth Eisele, in the old home at the corner of Third and Lake streets.

Mr. Eisele started teaching at the Wagner school in the fall of 1893, back in the prehistoric days when Coxy's army was marching, three years before Bryan emerged with his "cross of gold" speech. Twenty years before the auto age really was under way, thirty years before the flapper age and the unveiling of the emancipated knee cap—but there is no use going further. It was a long time ago.

He started at $28 per month in the fall, and was upped to $30 when the big boys arrived to spend their annual vacation in school, between the fall shuckin' and the spring plowin'. He taught two years at Wagner and then went to the Bakertown school. The top enrollment at Wagner was 52 pupils, and nine grades. The school had not been graded before, and the first elementary grading was done by Mr. Eisele.

The Wagner school had been his own alma mater years before. His father and mother, Mathias and Dorothea Eisele lived on a farm on the Madron Lake Road and he went to Wagner for grade school work. When he was sixteen years of age, his father died, and Henry, as the oldest boy, had to take over the work on the farm. After spending several years farming with his mother, he finally started in at Buchanan high school, working his way and being graduated with the class of 1893. For two or three years he did the janitor work at the Dewey avenue school.

After he was graduated he took the examination for a teacher's certificate, passed and spent 14 years teaching. He taught in the Wagner, Bakertown, Hills Corners, Lydick and Mead schools. Among his pupils at Wagner were Willard Marsh, Mary Weaver Ferris, Nelson Pease, June Markley Coffman, Mrs. Frank Imhoff, Noah Weaver, Mrs. Cora Boone and others.

The bald eagle was adopted as the national emblem of the U. S. by Congress on June 20, 1782.

Harold P. Smoke Elected Commander Of American Legion

Members of Ralph Rumbaugh Post No. 51, of the American Legion met Thursday evening in the Legion hall and elected Harold P. Smoke commander of the organization to succeed John I. Moyer during the regular meeting following a dinner. Forty members were present.

Other officers elected were: A. Preston Sprague, first vice commander, John W. Fulks, second vice commander, Orin Allerbrook, adjutant, Patricia C. Fulks, finance officer, Frank LeRoy Williams, chaplain, Jack E. Pinkerton, sergeant-at-arms, Lester McGowan, historian, Arthur Johnston, welfare officer, Simon Hempel, custodian.

Plans were made to co-operate with the Buchanan Business Association in sponsoring a Fourth of July celebration to plan a patriotic program to be presented just before the fireworks display at Memorial Field. Commander Moyer named Harold P. Smoke chairman of the program committee. Others on the committee are William Baker, Arthur Johnston, Lester McGowan, Mrs. Fulks, A. Preston Sprague and John Zachman. A. Preston Sprague was named chairman to plan the induction of officers Aug. 21.

Colored lights speed culling of cherries

Colored lights help sorters of fruits and vegetables to detect small but important defects before processing. In a new technique developed in the agricultural engineering department of Michigan State College, plain white, blue and red fluorescent lights were tested. Under blue fluorescent light, sorters spotted defects 10 to 30% more efficiently than under white fluorescent. Under red fluorescent, sorter efficiency increased an average of 64% over white. Red light proved especially effective in culling cherries. For more information, call your County Agricultural Agent.

DIAPHRAGM

A plastic makes listening easier

Inside your telephone receiver a sensitive diaphragm produces the sounds you hear. Bell Telephone Laboratories have developed a new kind of diaphragm made of stiff, light plastic, driven by a magnetic-metal ring. This new diaphragm reproduces the human voice more naturally than before, lets you hear higher tones that make a voice more personal. Also, telephone lines need deliver only a third as much power to work this new receiver, so finer wires can be used. Once again telephone research increases the quality of service, keeps costs down.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Whitey Sure "Rang the Bell"

Telephone woke me out of a sound sleep last Friday about eleven-thirty. "This is Whitey Fisher out on River Road," says a voice. "I just wanted to tell you how much I like this week's Clarion."

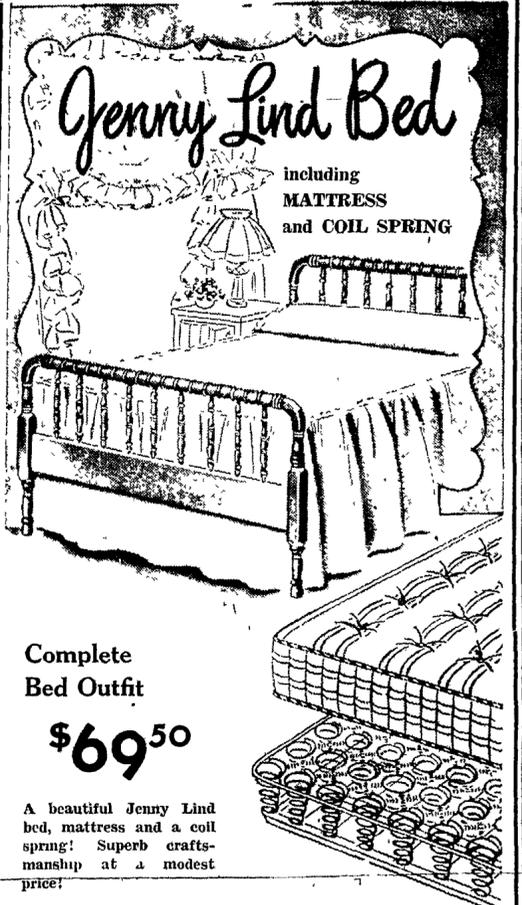

"Thanks, Whitey," I told him. "But why in blazes call to tell me at this time of night?" "Simple," he says, "your paper boy just delivered it a short while ago. Been waiting for it all evening."

Next day, Buzzy Wilson tells me he delivered Whitey's paper late because he stayed for the school dance and thought it would be OK to drop it off on his way home.

From where I sit, I can't blame Whitey for his joke. He was just reminding me we owe other people the same respect we expect from them. Since I'm always talking about respecting the other fellow's rights—including his right to enjoy a glass of beer if he chooses, it was only fair that Whitey should "wake me up" to his right to get his copy of the Clarion on time. Thanks again, Whitey!

Have you tried BUICK'S POWER STEERING?

HIGH-TAILING down a broad straight road, you have that same sure sense of command that has always put such a thrill into piloting a great performer.

You're the boss. Your hands tell you so. It's the feel that so many folks who love to drive have come to know and enjoy.

This year, you also have at your command the highest horsepower in Buick history—and an Airpower carburetor, with two barrels in reserve to deliver an extra spurt when needed.

You have the size, the silence, the smoothness that make this ROADMASTER so distinguished among fine cars.

Where then, you ask, does Power Steering come in?

When you want to get into—or out of—a tight spot at the curb, Power Steering takes over the extra effort of turning the wheels, and you can forget the two-tons-plus of automobile you're handling.

When you want to turn around in a narrow space—Power Steering lets you get the last inch of benefit from Buick's short turning radius, because it makes the maneuver so easy.

When one front wheel hits a chuckhole, a bump, loose sand or dirt at the edge of a road—Power Steering takes up the jerk—makes control of the wheel easier and therefore safer.

Many folks who have tried it tell us that Power Steering has added almost as much to the pleasure of owning a Buick as famed Dynaflo Drive.

When would you like to try it?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. †Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster only.

Richard Pollitt Goes Overseas

Camp Rucker, Ala.—Cpl. Richard Pollitt, route 1, previously assigned to the 47th "Viking" Infantry Division here, has been transferred to a new Army unit. He is scheduled to report to a port of embarkation for overseas shipment after a 27-day leave. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd F. Pollitt, same address, Cpl. Pollitt entered the Army at Ft. Sheridan, Ill. on Feb. 9, 1951.

Former Sgt. (now just plain Mr.) Jacob Myers was a visitor in the Record office Friday.

Myers returned from Germany after seven months with the American occupation forces in Germany. Myer's unit was the 317th Engineering Pontoon Bridge company. Its business was instructing other units how to build pontoon bridges. In the course of his work the former sergeant saw quite a bit of southwest Germany in the region of Mannheim and Karlsruhe. However there were no three day vacation treks to Paris, Switzerland, Italy.

"I figured I would be better off spending my money at home in America, where I had a wife and child. There would be a home to build, a car to buy when I got back," explained Sergeant Myers.

The German country was beautiful, but there was nothing there to regret leaving, said Myers. The country farming sections were well kept, but they are farmed the way we did here 75 and more years ago. In seven months in Germany Myers saw only two tractors. The spring crop operations were well under way when he left in May, most of the plowing being done by milk cows. There were very few horses to be seen.

There were as many women as men in the fields. They wore long, full black dresses and many wore wooden shoes. They lived in central villages and walked back and forth to their work in companies. Their farming was done in small contour strips, each planted to a single crop. The strips were perhaps from 75 to 150 feet in width and the length of an ordinary American field, say 40 rods.

There is one bad condition there, said Myers. The young men do not have work. This is largely because the factories were destroyed in the war and have not been rebuilt. Consequently the youth are restless and they would like to have a large army again. What they might do with it is uncertain, but they are not friendly toward Americans.
