Richard Nixon

New Jersey Loss Key To Electoral Victory

Approval Of Propositions Set By Voters

The resounding victory of Republicans in Berrien County was in sharp contrast with the narrow victory by Richard Nixon in the national balloting.

But local propositions in the city of Buchanan and Buchanan township mirrored an almost even division on the question of Sunday sale of beer and wine and the sale of liquor by the glass.

With a margin of 119 votes, a majority of voters favored lifting the ban on Sunday sale of beer and wine. The final vote was 1,026 — "no" and 907 — "yes" on permission to prohibit.

Just when local tavern owners can begin the Sunday sales is a matter of conjecture since city officials and State Liquor Control Commission enforcement officers passed the question back and forth to each other when the Record attempted to get an opinion on an effective date for action on the question.

In Buchanan township, the question of the "sale of spirits" by the glass was approved, 597-510. Two places of business in the township are affected by the favorable vote.

In Gallen township, voters soundly put down a request by officials for a 1 mill tax levy over a two year period to meet operating expenses. 139 voters favored the move while 466 indicated their disapproval.

Also in Gallen, Esther Cook and Gladys McLaren ran unopposed for two six year terms on the Township Library Board.

Hubert Humphrey

Shortly after 3:30 a.m. Wednesday morning, Hubert Humphrey stood at a podium in the ball room of the Leamington hotel in downtown Minneapolis and said confidently:

"I feel sufficiently at ease to get a good night's sleep."

As he spoke, New Jersey Governor Richard Hughes conceded his state to the Republican candidate for President and conditions in Ohio and Illinois came into play to move Richard Milhaus Nixon into an electoral vote lead.

The lead blossomed into a win for the former Vice-President with Illinois' critical electoral votes swinging into the Nixon camp just eight hours later.

With the Illinois swing, Nixon had amassed 286 electoral votes, 16 above the needed 270 for election.

Humphrey Concedes

At noon Wednesday, Hubert Humphrey stood before television cameras in the Leamington hotel and read a telegram of concession addressed to Richard Nixon. In his wire, Humphrey pledged his support and indicated his desire to go on with the "business of building the better America we all seek, in peace and harmony."

"The democratic process has worked its will," the Vice President went on, "now let us get on with the urgent task of uniting our country."

A well of emotion was evident on Humphrey's countenance and his voice cracked as he uttered his final words and walked quickly from the dais.

It was then the major election coverage system, the National Election Service (NES) said their projection of results of reports from 94 percent of the popular vote in the state indicated Illinois would land in the Nixon column.

The apparent Nixon victory, which followed a see-saw donkey-ends an eight-year Democratic encampment in the White House as well as a gain of GOP seats in the House and Senate.

The Congressional gains, however, will not be enough to swing control of either house across the aisle — the Democrats will enjoy a comfortable margin in the Senate despite an early report of five new GOP seats.

A familiar face is among those Senators elect — the face of Barry Goldwater who returns to the Senate from Arizona, replacing the veteran Carl Hayden who, at 91, is retiring from the Chamber.

Other GOP Senate winners represent Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, Florida and Maryland.

In the House, the Republicans still are faced with Democrats.

Cold Forge Process Set For Buchanan

National Standard company has acquired production equipment and inventory of Precision Cold Forged Products division of Curtis Noll corporation, Cleveland, according to T. H. Pearce, NS president and S. B. Noll, Curtis Noll president.

The purchased items were acquired for cash and will be part of National Standard's Buchanan Steel Products division.

"Cold forgings represent a new line of products which we can offer customers," said John F. Cress, Buchanan division general manager.

National Standard is completing the construction of a 20,000 sq ft addition to the Buchanan plant for the cold forging operation. Installation of production equipment is scheduled for the month of November.

Cold forgings are used in many industrial markets already served by National Standard's forging division, such as agriculture, automotive, off-highway, aerospace, machinery and others. Close tolerance parts are best produced by the cold-forging process, as less machining is required.

National Standard operates 18 domestic plants and nine foreign subsidiaries and affiliates. The company makes specialty wire, strip, wire cloth, perforated metals, special woven belts, welding equipment, tire retreading equipment, metal lithography equipment and specialized machinery.

Methodist Church First In Buchanan

Homecoming and First Church, Exhib-68 at First United Methodist church and the marking of the 61st anniversary of the dedication of the present sanctuary focuses interest on the church's history and the fact that the Methodists were the first denomination to organize in Buchanan.

An Atlas of Berrien County published in 1880 gives the circumstances of organization as follows: In the summer of 1831 John Hunter, his wife, Martha, their son, Thomas J., and their daughter, Sarah, presented letters from a church in Ohio to the Methodist church in Niles. They lived in the Niles township on the east bank of the St. Joseph river near the present site of Buchanan and very soon after they joined the Niles church, prayer meetings began to be held at the Hunter home. These developed into the formation of a class. The first to preach at the Hunter home was an itinerant Methodist minister, J. F. Robe, followed by Thomas McCool and Richard Meek.

A few years later in 1841 or 1842 the settlement at Buchanan had reached some importance and a class was formed at the home of David Sanford, who was the class leader. Among the members of the first class were T. J. Hunter, David Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. James Swift, Mr. and Mrs. James Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hobart, Mrs. (Dr.) Harrison Services were held in private houses and in the old school house until there was the new school house in 1843, when they were held there. In 1853 the society leased the Presbyterian church for five years. In 1860 a church was built on Days avenue. That church served the congregation until the present sanctuary was built on Oak street.

Many interesting historical facts are contained in the following account of the dedication of the present Methodist church taken from an issue of the Record of Sept. 1, 1907:

"Last Sunday was red letter day with the Methodists, when their church was dedicated with impressive services. Hundreds of people filled the church, many stood outside and listened to the addresses by prominent ministers.

"The choir rendered several enchanting anthems.

"The crowds thronged the church both morning and evening.

"Behind this magnificent $8000 church building, the pride of all Buchanan Methodists, is a brief and interesting history. "Last October the congregation of the Methodist Episcopal church which was the first church organized in the village, the date of its organization being 1842, decided that a new church building should be erected to substitute the old brick structure, which stood on Days avenue since 1860.

"The congregation poured in liberal subscriptions and it was decided to erect the new church on a site at the corner of Oak and Roe streets, which was donated for that purpose by the late Isaac M. Vincent. A building committee consisting of Messrs. A. A. Worthington, E. J. Stopp and J. A. Garland, was appointed; and the committee let the contract to Wilson Letter, who allowed $1,000 for the building material in the old church which was subsequently demolished.

"Work on the new structure was begun last January. The new building is brick with stone trimmings and the interior finishing is considered by all who behold them as most magnificent. There is a cork carpet on the floor which weighs upwards of a ton. There is the hip-roof effect in the ceiling, which is finished in hard pine, the only plastering being on the side walls. The comfortable seats are of oak and the seating capacity is about 300. The electric fixtures are magnificent, and when the lights are on it appears as if balls of living fire were suspended from the ceilings with heavy black chains. There are numerous incandescents and the memorial windows, which form an important feature of the building, are surrounded with lights aglow, thus showing off to splendid advantage.

"The grandest of these memorial windows, which would ornament a $20,000 sacred edifice, was donated by W. A. Palmer, who paid $450 therefor. The memorial windows represent an outlay of $1,050.00. Others who made donations along this line are State Senator Beardsley of Goshen, Mrs. W. H. Keller, Messrs. Clyde Baker, J. D. Lyon, Mrs. Jos. Binns and Dr. and Mrs. Dodd of this place, also the church board of trustees of which board A. A. Worthington is president.

"A $1,600 pipe organ has been contracted for and taken all in all, the new church will be the finest place of worship Buchanan proudly boasts of."

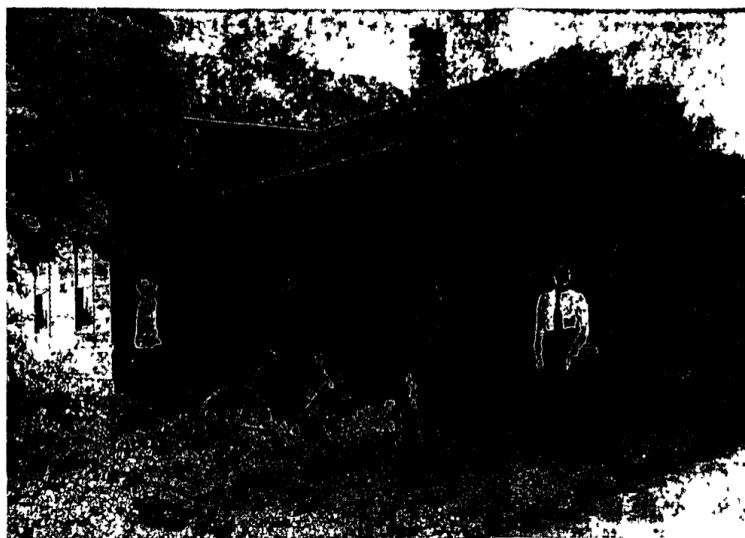

In recent years, the church building has been extensively remodeled and an educational wing has been added. During the pastorate of the Rev. William Pohly, 1940-1952, the basement was enlarged and completely remodeled. The education wing, with six classrooms, was constructed in 1960. One room in the wing was dedicated to the memory of Bernice Satterlee, wife of the pastor, Rev. Claude Satterlee.

The Rev. Dale Ward was church pastor at the time of the last remodeling program in 1964. At that time, new floors were laid in the sanctuary and a new ceiling and new lighting were installed.

In October of this year, the Oak street parsonage was demolished to provide space for a parking lot adjacent to the church and it was announced that an additional home would be demolished for the same purpose.

Purchased this year, the new parsonage is located at 205 Moccasin avenue.

The Rev. C. Robert Carson is the church pastor.

SITE OF FIRST METHODIST MEETINGS — The first meetings of Buchanan Methodists were held in 1831 in what was then the John Hunter home on the East River road in the photo above the house is pictured as it appeared in 1901 when it was the home of Mrs. William M. Denno, second from the right. Others in the photo from left to right are Elita Denno, husband of Rose Batchelor Denno, Sanborn W. Denno and Alice Denno. The John Schmalz family presently resides in the house, which has since been covered with stucco.

SIX GENERATIONS OF METHODISTS — Five consecutive generations of the descendants of Nathan and Martha Norris, who came to Buchanan in 1867 from Wayne, Maine, have, as they did, attended the First Methodist church. Pictured with Mrs. Elita Denno nee Rose Batchelor, center, oldest member of the family currently attending the church are her daughter, Mrs. Robert (Ruth) Rose, Mrs. Rose's son, Gene, and his children, Scott and Stacey. Mrs. Denno's parents were the late Frances and George Batchelor. During the early years of her marriage, Mrs. Denno and her husband resided in the home which was the site of the first meetings of the Methodist denomination in Buchanan. The family will attend Homecoming day at First United Methodist church Sunday.

Junior Girl Scout Troops Hold Halloween Party

A Halloween costume party for members of the six Buchanan Junior Girl Scout troops was held Wednesday afternoon in the fellowship room of First Presbyterian church.

The party, planned to promote inter-troop activities, had 91 scouts in attendance.

Highlight of the program was a march to show off costumes to the judges, Rev. Keith Morrow and Patrolman William E. Darnell. Prizes for the prettiest costume were awarded to Tammy Mattson of Troop 240, Karen Aalfs of Troop 67, and Barbara Bowker of Troop 146, for the funniest costumes, to Becky Gray of Troop 146, Tracey Renbarger of Troop 128, and Kim Brownfield of Troop 128. The scarfiest costumes were worn by Lori Nelson of Troop 146, Ronda Huebner of Troop 68, and Chris Swank of Troop 68, and having the most original costumes were Laura Kelly of Troop 240, Shelley Hamilton of Troop 196 and Nancy Kingsbury of Troop 146.

Special leader's prizes were presented to Mrs. Jane Beaverson and Mrs. Delores VerCruyese for their costumes.

The opening of the program was conducted by Troop 128, followed by group singing led by Tracey Renbarger and accompanied by Vicki Metzger on her guitar.

Entertainment as provided by Troops 146 and 68 included a peanut relay and a Halloween story, "Going on a Ghost Hunt." Refreshments of doughnuts and cider were served by Troops 240 and 196. Name tags in the theme of the party were made by members of Troop 146.

The next inter-troop Junior Girl Scout meeting will be a hayride Nov. 13 with a rain date Nov. 20. The girls will meet at the Presbyterian church at 4 p.m. and return to the church at 7:30 p.m. Scouts wishing to attend Homecoming activities.

tend are each requested to turn in her permission slip and dollar as soon as possible to her troop leader.

Blake Letter Received

In a letter recently received by Miss Ruth Ann Stoner of 401 Days Ave., Miss Wilfred Blake described some of the experiences of the Blake family on its journey to the interior of southern Brazil where the Blakes will serve as missionaries under the Brazil Inland mission.

After leaving Miami airport two hours late, Mrs. Blake described the 65 mile taxi ride from the airport to Sao Paulo as "hau-raising"—traffic like stampeding cattle.

They arrived in Sao Paulo only to discover that their hotel was located in the rioting section of the city. As they stepped from the taxi, troops were in the streets opposing the protesting students. They were rushed into the hotel where Mrs. Blake and children were put on an elevator and taken to a room. Then Rev. Blake came with the suitcases.

After a few hours the area quieted, so Rev. Blake tried to return to the air terminal to retrieve the family's duffel bags, but the taxis refused to go thru. Later in the day, they arrived at the airport to find the driver of the airport bus still waiting with the duffel bags. Mrs. Blake remarked, "This was of God. They just don't do that!"

The family had found the food delicious, reporting also that they had eaten french fries, hamburgers, fried chicken and ice cream.

The flight scheduled to take them into the interior was cancelled giving them another day in the city.

Friends may write to the Blakes at the following address: Rev. Wilfred Blake, Umuarama, Parana, Brazil, South America.

Miss Ruth Ann Stoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stoner of Route 1, was recently selected by a vote of the student body as Graceland College Homecoming Queen 1968.

Miss Stoner is a sophomore majoring in psychology at the college which is located at Lamoni, Iowa. The former Buchanan high school graduate is also a second-year member of the Gadgets, a precision marching team.

controlling the delegations of 26 states, a clear majority.

In gubernatorial contests across the nation, the GOP made some important gains — most notable the win by Richard Ogilvie over incumbent Illinois Governor Sam Shapiro Ogilvie, long associated with Chicago and Cook county interests, extended his influence to downstate Illinois Republicans to carry the state.

In Michigan
The election eve was hardly underway when NES told its clients, the major wire services and the big three television networks, that Michigan was in the Humphrey column. The decision was based primarily on the heavy labor vote in southeastern and central sections of the State.

However, propositions on the ballot for voter approval were not as easy to project.

It was not until late Wednesday morning the outcome of the major questions were resolved. Propositions 3 and 4, clean water and recreation, respectively, were sold together, but voters considered them separately.

Across the state, voters overwhelmingly accepted the $335,000,000 bond issue for clean water while withholding their approval of the $100,000,000 bonding proposal for modernization of the state's recreation programs and facilities.

Time Issue Close

The proposition to accept or reject Daylight Saving time was a "nip and tuck" issue through the night after polls closed. At press time with 93.6 per cent of the state's precincts reporting, 1,300,185 voters had approved of Daylight Saving time while 1,275,865 voters had refused the fast time.

While many of the precincts not reporting to the Record by press time are small and outstate, the outcome on the vote remains cloudy.

Voters also denied state legislators the right to seek office while serving their term. Legislators presented the argument they had a right to seek office while serving in the State House since the State Constitution already contains provisions calling for their resignation from their current seat if elected to another post.

As the Record went to press, final voter tallies were not available, although observers felt Michigan would surpass its record vote total of 3,203,102 set in the 1960 Kennedy-Nixon presidential election.

NAMES

Interested persons may remember our men and women in the armed forces with cards and letters at Christmas.

Donald Ryman, Chamber president, asks that friends and relatives of area servicemen and women mail or deliver their addresses to the Chamber office immediately so that the addresses may be printed in next week's Record and because of the mailing deadline.

In addition to cards, letters and packages mailed by interested individuals and groups, the Chamber will again send Christmas greetings to all servicemen and women whose names and addresses are received.

Postmaster Charles Wesner has issued the following guidelines for persons wishing to send parcels to servicemen in time for Christmas: For surface mail parcels the recommended cut-off date is Saturday, Nov. 9, SAM (space available airmail) parcels recommended until Saturday, Nov. 23, PAL parcels, Oct. 28 to Nov. 30; and airmail parcels, Nov. 30 to Dec. 11.

Traffic Deaths Up In County

With three fatalities in October, Berrien County traffic deaths for 1968 number 50, an increase of eight over the first 10 months of 1967, according to figures released by the Berrien County Sheriff's department Wednesday.

Michigan traffic deaths in October number 218, a decrease of seven fatalities compared with 225 in the same month a year ago, according to State Police provisional figures.

This is the fourth year in a row that October deaths topped the 200 mark in the state. The October count was also 11 higher than the average of 207 for the month in the five years 1963-67.

The October deaths brought the accumulated count for the first ten months of 1968 to 1,906, which is 197 or 11 per cent more than 1,709 deaths for the same period in 1967.

According to Undersheriff Joe Heward, delayed death reports will increase somewhat the fatality counts for October and the 10-month period both in Berrien County and the state.

Scientists at Michigan State university are now working on more than 2,000 research projects.

More Than Cement Needed At Bridgman Nuclear Plant

Some imposing statistics already have been logged as preliminary construction activity continues on the Donald C. Cook Nuclear plant planned by Indiana & Michigan Electric company on the shore of Lake Michigan at Bridgman.

Robert H. Lawson, veteran resident engineer of American Electric Power company, parent firm of I&M, cited these figures on the 2,200,000 kilowatt facility: "Clearing of the site has been completed and 650,000 cubic yards of dirt moved. The removal of tree stumps and other debris over 105 acre area. The planting of dunes grass over approximately 50,000 square yards which prevents the drifting of sand at the site. The application of 2,200 cubic yards of a mixture of sand and gravel in 6 inch layers over the access roads and parking lots constructed at the site."

Lawson explained that unlike ordinary grass seed, the dunes grass planted at the site matures from a foot to 14 inches high. Individual plants with 12 inch centers are an immediate deterrent to drifting sand. Without the dunes grass strong winds would cause the sand at the site to drift in much the same manner as snow and retard preliminary construction work.

Full scale construction of the giant nuclear facility awaits the issuing of a required construction permit to I&M from the Atomic Energy commission. The plant will house two 1,100,000 kilowatt generating units with the first scheduled for operation in 1972 and the second in 1973.

R AN AGING PROBLEM "CRUMBLING" BONES

Osteoporosis is a loss of calcium in the bones. The bones become less solid. This can cause more frequent fractures. Some changes in the joints may result, causing arthritic type pains. Women past their menopause are susceptible because hormone changes can result in a calcium loss, without sufficient replacement of new calcium to the bones.

Relief is slowly possible. Your physician may prescribe a special vitamin supplement to encourage depositing of calcium. Often intake of hormones is helpful. The diet should include calcium-rich foods.

Deer Prospects Better Than '67

Deer hunting should be pretty good, probably better than in 1967 when hunters took more than 104,500 whitetails, says the Michigan Department of Conservation in the October Conservation Digest.

A favorable spring season accounts for optimism, the Digest points out. Increased applications for antlerless deer permits indicate hunter numbers may be up from a year ago.

Best hunting prospects appear to be in the north central counties of the lower peninsula while the upper peninsula offers little improvement over last season except in the southwestern-most counties.

The Digest reported that in the southern half of the lower peninsula, deer are in good numbers and hunting may be better than '67 if the animals stay on state-owned lands open to hunting.

NEW APPROACH — Radio communications played an important part in the counting of ballots in the City of Buchanan following Tuesday's General Election. Using a special piece of radio equipment, Ray Suabedissen, left, city clerk-treasurer, kept in constant contact with his office. His duties require moving between the city's four precincts, often without benefit of the convenience of a nearby telephone for messages. "The equipment was invaluable," said Suabedissen, "in helping us get to problem precincts before they became unmanageable." Shown with Suabedissen is Katherine Tees, precinct two chairman. —Record Photo

GETTING EXTRAS — City Clerk-Treasurer Ray Suabedissen was called on search for extra ballot boxes Tuesday because of the extreme size of the "A" or Presidential ballots. Early in the afternoon, precinct workers became alarmed when they began to run out of secure storage space for voted ballots. Berrien township, which now uses voting machines, made their unused ballot boxes available to fill the gap. —Record Photo

Farm Storage Loans Available

Frank Light, chairman of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, stated today that farm storage and dryer equipment loans are available to eligible producers.

At the present time it appears that most of the approved farm storage space is filled and many producers are in need of additional space to store their 1968 corn and bean crops.

Light pointed out that county ASC committees loan to producers 85% of the net cost of storage, drying and operating equipment. By constructing on-farm storage, farmers will be in a position to hold their crops off the market during the harvesting season, thus providing a more stabilized market and price condition.

At the same time producers may obtain CCC loans on the stored crops. This will give the farmer an immediate return for his crop and possibly a higher price in the future when supplies being marketed have leveled off from the seasonal peaks.

Producers needing storage space and in need of a CCC loan to help finance it should immediately contact the local county ASC office, located at 4035 M-139 in St. Joseph, telephone 429-5634.

"The process is crude, irrational and unsatisfactory. Neither the bureau, the governor, nor the committee is adequately trained or staffed to evaluate or reconcile the conflicting demands."

Suggested by the AAUP was legislation turning over to the State Board of Education full authority to scrutinize the spending requests and determine financial needs.

Another recommendation proposed the board establish "minimum support standards" for all institutions, based on the objective of providing quality education for all in Michigan who desire it.

"Finally," the AAUP said, "we urge all responsible officials to develop and agree upon a long-range state plan for higher education and more courageous than any of the preliminary drafts we have so far been furnished."

Brown To Run

Jim Brown of Mason has been nominated to replace the late Rep. Charles J. Davis of Onondaga on the Republican ballot for the 59th house district seat in the Nov. 5 election.

Davis died recently of a heart attack. He had served in the house since 1962.

Brown was tapped by the Ingham and Jackson county Republican committees under a state law granting them authority to select a ballot replacement in the event a candidate dies before an election.

Brown has a political background in Michigan. His grandfather, the late Vernon J. Brown, was lieutenant governor in 1945-46.

Mulch Critical Areas, Prevent Soil Erosion

Neglecting fields now that harvest is over can contribute to soil erosion, says Clare M. Musgrove, Berrien county agricultural agent.

In late fall and early spring, there are periods of rainfall, melting snow and rapid run-off. When this occurs on sloping, unprotected land, the result is water erosion, Musgrove points out.

This gradual loss over an entire field may not seem great, but the total soil loss may be five to 20 tons per acre.

The erodible topsoil contains most of the soil humus and much available plant food, says Musgrove. In these top few inches are the most favorable conditions for plant growth.

Bare fields of sloping land are very vulnerable to erosion. While it may be too late to plant cover crops to hold the soil, it is not too late to mulch critical areas, comments Musgrove.

Russell G. Hill, Michigan State university soil conservation specialist, reports that more than 50 per cent of the usual between-crop erosion can be eliminated by shredding corn stalks after harvest and leaving the mulch until seedbed preparation in the spring. Other crop residues such as bean and small grain straw may also be used as mulch.

Where wind erosion is a factor, shallow disking of the mulch is effective for holding the material in place. On critical erosion areas, mulches such as manures and straw should be spread in a thin layer, Hill says.

Michigan State university is one of 40 American schools selected for membership in the Association of American universities. The group is composed of universities noted for research and graduate programs.

Backing up on a highway or major artery is no way to get where you are going, remind safety experts. By taking a little extra time to take the next exit and circle around you have a better chance of arriving at your destination.

AAUP Seeks Greater Tax Aid For Public Schools

By Elmer E. White
Michigan Press Association

Greatly-expanded tax aid for the state's public colleges and universities is the goal of the Michigan Conference of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP).

A study shows that present funding falls woefully short of meeting the institutions' needs to provide for quality education.

"It is our conviction that the next few years will be crucial for higher education in Michigan," the organization said. "If the practices of recent years are continued, they will buy Michigan a third-rate system."

State colleges and universities currently receive $226.6 million a year in tax funds. They have been assigned a "target" figure of $240.3 million for fiscal 1969-70 by Gov. George Romney.

The AAUP says the governor and legislature should refrain from clamping a ceiling on appropriations to colleges and universities and dole out whatever sum is necessary to make them the best in the country.

"The state can afford it, and any other course is self-defeating in that it provides an inadequate education for the future leaders of the communities of the state," it said, pointing to economic studies showing that personal income rose 5.23 per cent in Michigan last year.

"Michigan is the seventh most populous of the 50 states, it is a major industrial state, and ranks in the top 10—as it should—in gross product, average earnings and family income."

Specifically, the AAUP suggested the legislature appropriate not less than $700 per year for each freshman and sophomore enrolled at a state-supported institution, $1,300 for juniors and seniors, $2,000 for master degree graduate students, and $4,000 for doctoral degree and professional students.

Michigan State university and the University of Michigan, the state's two largest schools, now receive an average of $1,344 and $1,628 per student, respectively, in state aid.

The AAUP also called for additional funds to boost faculty salaries to an average minimum of $12,400 annually for professors, $11,170 for associate professors, $8,520 for assistant professors and $7,250 for instructors.

Highly critical was the organization of the state's present budgetary process, which involves a review of each school's tax fund request by the governor's office, the budget bureau, the senate appropriations committee and finally the legislature itself.

It said none of the agencies is properly qualified to determine the colleges' needs, yet they invariably pare down the spending blueprints. "The annual scramble for appropriations by our institutions of higher education is highly wasteful of time and effort for all concerned," said AAUP.

MARKET TIPS November Advice: Look For Frost Free Bargains

November is the month when the frost is on more than the pumpkin, when menus turn to even heartier stick-to-the-ribs fare and plans are shaping up for the big feasting day.

It pays to know the November food picture if you hope to make ends meet, and stretch food dollars, says Maryann Meldrum, District Extension Food Marketing agent.

Remember, too, that the big festive month is coming up so the pennies saved now can only add joy to December budgets.

Beef, pork, turkey and chicken will all be competing heavily for your favor this month. Pork prices will remain about as they were in October and you'll see many features on all kinds of pork cuts. Check the specials and use these features whenever you can.

Beef supplies for November are expected to be larger than in October so prices will be somewhat lower. Even though larger supplies usually mean much lower prices, this may not be the case with beef for consumer demand is strong.

The demand may be great enough to keep up with the supply but keep your eyes peeled for some special features. Again, check the features carefully.

Chicken supplies are larger and prices are expected to be lower this month. Look for some extra special specials here to entice you to buy chicken rather than pork and beef.

Turkey wholesale prices are up over October and will also be higher than a year ago. This normally would indicate that turkey will be higher priced. However, at holiday time especially, most retailers special turkeys and use them as "loss leaders" to get you into their stores to buy all of the rest of your holiday foods.

Best turkey buying advice is to watch the specials around Thanksgiving time, compare prices on the kind and type you want and then shop the store that offers the best value to fit your needs.

BUCKY EMIL

Defensive Mistakes Net Lancer Victory, 24-14

The passing of Lakeshore's Jay Craig and defensive mistakes by the Bucks proved to be the keys to the Lancers' 24-14 win over Buchanan Friday night at Memorial field.

Craig connected on seven of ten pass attempts and the Bucks were constantly drawn in on long yardage plays instead of being out in the flats protecting their interest against prospective receivers.

It was the first time in seven years the Lancers had topped Buchanan. The series began in 1902 with the Bucks outscoring the conference's westernmost team 191-0 going into Friday night's contest.

Take the Lead
Lakeshore took the initiative late in the first quarter after an exchange of downs with the Bucks and came up with its first score on an 11-yard pass from Craig to end Dan Rosenhagen. The Lancers' first PAT boot as they would fall on the three remaining conversion tries.

Buchanan's first tally came in the second period after Pat Sexton nabbed a Lancer aerial attempt from Craig and took the interception to the Lakeshore eleven.

Halfback Gary Elliott took the ball on the next play and lunged through the line for the eleven yards and the score, adding the conversion with a successful kick.

But the one-point margin proved unstable as the Lancers came in with a 12-7 halftime lead on the strength of a 37-yard romp by Mark Tollas with 2:21 remaining in the stanza.

Widen the Margin
The margin grew wider late in the third period when Craig found end Bob Zinkil open for a 29-yard scoring "bomb." At the end of the period, the Bucks were on the underside of an 18-7 score.

Buchanan began to spark early in the fourth quarter as

AROUND THE CIRCUIT

Eddies Take Bud Honors With Brandywine Defeat

The Eddies walked off with the Blossomland crown Friday with their victory over the Bobcats of Brandywine. The title was made more secure through the efforts of the Mustangs of River Valley who dumped the Shamrocks of Berrien Springs, 20-6.

Edwardsburg 16, Brandywine 14

The ability of the Eddie halfback Randy Hoffman and a last minute field goal by rookie kicker Robin Ward were the factors that combined to upset what appeared to be a Brandywine victory march.

Halfback Jack Burrows got the action underway for the Bobcats early in the second period when he took a pass from quarterback Mark Asure and scampered to paydirt on a play that covered 46 yards. Jim Johnson's kick for the PAT was good.

Brandywine increased its first half lead with a one-yard plunge by fullback Dennis Kuehns for a tally. The tunge wound up a 70-yard drive — including a 63-yard off tackle romp by Johnson.

Again Johnson's kick was good for the PAT and at the half, Brandywine had a comfortable 14-0 lead over the frustrated Edwardsburg squad.

The Eddies began their move to victory in the third period as they held the Bobcats and narrowed the margin by six points.

The Eddie score came late in the third frame on a six-yard run by quarterback Randy Hoffman. Hoffman had brought the ball to the Brandywine six after snagging a Bobcat pass and running 51 yards. An illegal procedure penalty against the Eddies on the conversion attempt held them to six points as the period ended.

Early in the fourth period, the Eddie's Al Smith intercepted a Bobcat pass to set up the second scoring threat by the conference leaders.

The drive from their own 46 was capped by the Eddies' Hoff man who went over from nine yards out with 9:13 remaining in the game. Ward booted the extra point.

The final minutes of the game were hectic as each team tried to put it on ice—the Bobcats vowing to put the contest out of reach and the Eddies to counter the aggressive Brandywine offense and still work for the victory goal.

Ward's field goal climaxed a 94-yard drive that began on the Eddie's six yard line where he recovered a Brandywine fumble with 4:50 on the game clock.

The Eddies finish their season with a 5-1-1 conference record and 6-1-1 overall. Brandywine has 3-5 for conference play and 3-5 for the season.

River Valley 20, Ber Springs 6

River Valley was sparked for victory Friday night as they traveled to Berrien Springs to meet the Shamrocks.

The Springs squad ran into a brick wall when they met the Mustang defense. They never got inside the Valley 50 in the first half — and the only time they penetrated inside the 20-yard line throughout the game was on a fourth period touchdown pass of 24-yards from Shamrock quarterback Mark Boehm to fullback Tom Lueneen.

The Mustangs' 5-2 defense with Jim Turley working as the monster man on Shamrock halfback Denny Fox, the conference's leading ground gainer, proved effective as they held Fox to only 66 yards in 18 carries.

Matt Caid took offensive honors for the Mustangs as he scampered 80 yards in the first period for the TD, after covering ground in a gaping hole cleared on a key block by Mustang guard Robin Wooley.

The Valley eleven took a seven-point lead with 10:12 left on the clock in the opening frame when Jim Turley snapped a pass to end Dave Hanover for the PAT.

The Turley Hanover combination paid off later in the second stanza as Turley connected with the long end with a 40-yard

"bomb" for six points with 35 showing on the clock in the half. The kick for the extra point failed.

The Shamrocks, however, were not entirely without defense in the contest. The Mustangs went without a first down in the first 18 minutes of the second half. It was during this drought the Shamrocks were able to get on the scoreboard.

But Matt Caid came back in the picture with the final Mustang tally, scooting 38 yards around left end with 5:57 on the clock.

Berrien Springs is 4-3 for conference play while River Valley shares the second slot in the conference standings with a similar record.

Coloma 13, Cassopolis 10

Coloma ended its conference season with a 500 record Friday in an evenly played contest with the Rangers of Cassopolis.

Coloma got the first tally of the game in the second frame on a nine yard run by Dan Miller with Dave Stowers booting the extra point.

Cass made the first half a draw when quarterback Jeff Hlemstra hit halfback Barry Hilton on a 56 yard touchdown pass play with '02 showing on the clock. Bernard Thomas booted the conversion.

Cassopolis gained a short-lived edge late in the fourth period on a 25-yard field goal off the toe of Thomas, but the Comets took the following kickoff and marched 80 yards for the deciding TD. Sophomore Dana Carlson went the final 12 yards for the Comet score with 8:16 remaining in the contest.

Cass finishes its conference play with 2-3-2 while the Comets wind up their season with a

JV Takes Lakeshore With 4th Frame Tally

The Buchanan Junior Varsity rolled to its fifth win of the season, against two losses, with a 31-27 victory Thursday, Oct. 31, against the Lakeshore JV.

Fritz Thompson and Jeff Wood keyed the full time effort of the offensive squad with a pair of TD's apiece.

It was Thompson who scored the Bucks' only tally in the first half on a trap play over left tackle. He scampered 40 yards for the second period score. Despite the run the Bucks were not able to overcome the Lancers in the first half—20-0 was the score with the Lancers having the advantage as the second frame ended.

It was a busy third period for the little Bucks as Wood took a pass from quarterback Ron Hartine for the first tally of the frame. The play covered 35 yards.

Thompson then scampered off left tackle for 12 yards and the second penetration of pay dirt. Mel Cashier, at the left half slot, topped off the frame with a seven-yard charge which capped a 40-yard drive for the third tally in the period.

ASC Extends Crop Loans

Frank Light, chairman of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, announced today that Secretary Freeman has authorized extended (renewal) loans for the 1968-70 program year.

This applies, he added, in Michigan to wheat, corn, oats, barley and soybeans for the 1968 crops that were eligible for price support loans, both in farm storage and commercial storage. He added that 1964 through 1967 crops currently under extended loan will be continued in a similar status.

Light pointed out that the extended renewal program enables farmers, themselves, to continue to own and control the major share of the Nation's grain reserves. This, along with the assistance given farmers to increase farm grain storage capacities, is aimed at helping producers to strengthen their bargaining position in markets.

NOW YOU CAN HAVE YOUR CAKE and EAT IT TOO!

THIS IS THE PLAN: DECIDE HOW MUCH YOU'LL SAVE each month and put that amount aside monthly before you start your spending. IT PAYS TO REMEMBER that regularity of saving over a period of time is what really counts. THE CHART IS BASED on saving $100 monthly for 15 years, then withdrawing $100 monthly for the next 15 years. Throughout the entire period, earnings are added to the account and compounded regularly. TO USE THE CHART to figure the effect of saving $25 a month, divide all figures by 4. For $50 a month, divide by 2. For $200 a month, multiply by 2, and so on.

THIS IS THE TIME: LOOK AHEAD 15 YEARS into the future. No matter how young or old you may be, there's something you'll need money for, isn't there? YOU CAN HAVE the money you need 15 years from now, if you start your own sensible "15-Year Savings Plan" at once. But don't put it off... TIME IS THE MAGIC INGREDIENT in this practical savings plan. And, as the chart shows, time is—literally—money to you. Delay is costly. SAVINGS IS EASY once you start out right with a workable plan you know will get results. Here you have the workable plan. Strategy

It's Tim's move, and he is taking a long time thinking it over. In chess, if you're a good player, you don't play quickly. If you do, your opponent may outwit you.

Military strategy, they say, is based on the rules of chess. So are many of the "higher games" in business and finance. Yet, when it comes to life itself, the rules of chess apply in only a limited way. In life, you can't be totally objective. You can't exist on logic alone.

The Church teaches that though we surely need logic in order to live successfully, we also need compassion, tolerance, love, understanding, and the strength that comes with faith.

Although life is not a game, we must have the help and strength of the Church to discover those rules that will determine our ultimate destiny.

This can cause more frequent fractures. Some changes in the joints may result, causing arthritis type pains. Women past their menopause are susceptible because hormone changes can result in a calcium loss, without sufficient replacement of new calcium to the bones. Relief is slowly possible. Your physician may prescribe a special vitamin supplement to encourage depositing of calcium. Often intake of hormones is helpful. The diet should include calcium rich foods. Oronoko Young Adults Adopt Brazilian Boy

Joel Souza is 12 years old and lives in a one room shack in Niteroi, Brazil with his mother, five brothers and two sisters. Their "home" is crude and an old bed, which nearly fills the space available for living, is their only possession. Joel is the third eldest son (the oldest is 14) and the children range from as young as six months. He and his older brothers attend school, but lack everything, including a good meal.

mother often cannot go to work —and when she does, she earns 30 cents a day as a laundress or is given food as her wages. What of Joel's father? One day last spring, the father left the house, saying he was going to look for work. He never returned. This was the plight of young Joel. It was the plight, but today, Joel continues in school with his brothers. The family receives a monthly cash grant, new clothing and some medical care is available.

Joel Souza, 12

in this pitiful case? It came with the financial "adoption" of Joel by the Young Adult class of the Oronoko United Methodist church on Glendora road.

The 20 member group of young men and women have taken on the responsibility thru Foster Parents Plan, Inc.

The Foster Parents' responsibility," says Mrs. William Conn, moderator of the Young Adult class, "is financial, not legal and the child grows up with his own family."

Mrs. Conn explained the $16 contributed each month by the class thru the Foster Parent plan provides a monthly cash grant, supplementary new clothing and household goods carefully selected to meet the needs in each area.

In addition, she points out, the plan offers medical care when called for, primary school education and, in some cases, vocational training.

"The family," reports Mrs. Conn, "receives guidance and counseling thru a staff of trained local case workers."

Lenore Sorin, a-associate director for the plan at its international offices at 352 Park Ave., New York, N.Y. 10010, explains that despite the distance that separates Foster Parents from their "children" overseas, the "adoption" is very personal.

Monthly letters between them keep both parties in constant touch and over the year fast and loving friendships are often developed.

In their monthly letters, the children share their sorrows and joys with their second Parent—the wonder and cruelty of show in Greece during a bitter winter when even the birds had a rough time finding food, or the complaint of Hong Kong children because the government forbade all firecrackers for the traditional New Year celebration.

"And too, they offer continued hope that all can be right in the world," said Miss Sorin.

One little Korean girl wrote her foster parent, "I had your gift parcel with your warm thought I held it in my arms and danced."

For her, for Joel Souza, for the Young Adult class of the Oronoko United Methodist church, the miles dwindle to the distance between pen and paper. For them the hope for a better world thru understanding shines thru their Foster Parent experience.
