CLASS OF 1975

Candidates Give Their Reasons For Running For the School Board

The four candidates who are seeking two seats on the Buchanan board of education all have decided viewpoints about their reasons for running for election.

Paul William DeVos says, "Lack of communication is the greatest problem in our school system. Methods must be devised to open communication lines between parents, teachers, administrators, board members and tax payers. Lack of communication has produced a gigantic rumor mill which results in distrust at all levels. Experience indicates a response can be obtained from the board, but the process is complicated by administration actions which create rumors rather than answers. Parents and taxpayers provide the students and funds for our system, and both deserve understandable reports on costs and results. I will work to create less rumor and more factual results."

Mrs. Mary Beth Larson states, "I am a candidate for the board of education because I believe I have had experiences which are advantageous for making sound policies within our school system. Having been a teacher and now the mother of two school age children, I am aware of the many fine things our school offers, but also I am aware of areas that need improvement. I would like to emphasize that we must be realistic about what is important and not important in the curriculum we offer. Second, we must establish a strong alliance between school personnel and citizens of the community to work toward providing the best education possible for our students. Third, we must have the same regard for our school budget as we do for our own personal budget."

Robert Luke said, "Having some awareness of the community problems, needs and desires, I feel I can work with the existing board for the improvement of the community schools. Buchanan has given all of us a good place to raise and educate our children. The community needs our support, and I feel it is worth working for. I believe it is very important to encourage communications between parents, teachers and the school administration, to relate the problems to each other. We parents must encourage our students to partake in school functions. I believe it is necessary to have board members who are willing to give unlimited hours in time in meetings, listening to parents and citizens and always working for all of our children. A board member must be able to weather criticism. And must now work even harder because of the high inflationary cost and unemployment. The board must keep down the rising cost of the school budget. The school taxes of our community are everyone's concern. Retired citizens and those on fixed incomes are always hurt in rising costs."

Cletha Wade stated "I am a lifelong resident of Buchanan and have two children in the Buchanan school system. By involvement on my part as a parent and a concerned citizen, I feel I could offer suggestions which might be of services to the school system and, on the other hand, discourage any conduct misleading or otherwise to the welfare of the school or children. The feeling also of a great need for representation from my neighborhood, for awareness purposes as to how the schools are functioning and conducted. A possibility also of more participation and support of my neighborhood in better school involvement and activities on a parent-child and teacher relationship. Most of all I feel it would be a great experience and total dedication on my part just being a part of Buchanan school board."

I have an interest in all school participation and business. I am also a graduate of Buchanan schools and have a family of eight brothers and sisters who also were and are a part of the Buchanan school system."

District Tourney

The Buchanan High School baseball team won its pre-district game by beating Brandywine 8 to 1. The team will meet Paw Paw, which beat Dowagiac. The first game of the semi-finals is Saturday at 12:30 at Thomas Stadium in Niles. The finals will be at 3

Absentee Ballots

Absentee Ballots for the June 9 school election are available Monday through Fridays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the office of the assistant superintendent.

On Friday, June 6, 147 seniors are expected to graduate from Buchanan High School.

Commencement speaker will be Dr. Gorton Riethmiller, president-emeritus of Olivet College. His subject will be "First Class Citizens."

Dr. Riethmiller served as president of Olivet for 13 years. He was appointed to the State Board of Education in 1969 and is now the president of that organization. He serves on the Governor's Commission on Higher Education.

Commencement, weather permitting, will be at Memorial Field starting at 8 p.m.

Dave Runkewich was president of the Junior Achievement of Four Flags Area and Awards Banquet on May 16, attended by some sixty college and area high school student journalists and faculty members. Chuck Dougherty of the BHS Buchanan staff received an award.

Best News Photo Award

At Lake Michigan College's fifth annual Professional Journalism and Awards Banquet on May 16, attended by some sixty college and area high school student journalists and faculty members, Chuck Dougherty of the BHS Buchanan staff received an award.

Royal Valley Needs Help

Royal Valley Ski Resort has developed into one of the Buchanan area's fine facilities. The people who manage it have worked long and hard.

Three winters with not enough snow have had disastrous financial effects. Royal Valley is in trouble. There has even been doubt whether or not it can continue.

Ski clubs travel from one resort to another and make their plans way in advance. When they approach Royal Valley for accommodations, the first question they ask is if there is a bar available.

During the summer months, organizations and companies have inquired whether Royal Valley could be used for meetings or parties. They also require a bar.

As it is now, the control of liquor on the premises is difficult without a license. If Royal Valley had a license, it would be imperative to control and carefully supervise any consumption of alcoholic beverages.

The alcoholic beverage commission is willing to give Royal Valley its license. Buchanan township board voted two to two, which in effect denied the license.

Everybody is certainly entitled to his own principles and feelings on the subject of liquor. Those who feel strongly on the subject need not frequent a place which serves liquor. But if ski groups want to have their mulled wine or if companies want their cocktails before dinner, it shouldn't affect anybody else in the township.

Whether we like it or not, Royal Valley needs that liquor license for survival. We wonder if it isn't possible for those on the township board, who feel so inclined, not to vote at all on this issue, thereby still being true to their convictions but at the same time allowing this great asset to the community to continue.

Little League Starts With Parade

New uniforms have arrived and new equipment is here. The new building is all paid for. On Saturday, June 7, the 1975 Little League season will get underway.

There will be a parade. Miss Buchanan, Brenda Kyles, and Miss Poppy, Nikki Penland, will be in it. Nikki will be riding in the school-farm pony cart. It's expected that the middle school band will participate. The parade will start at 9:30 a.m. at the ICB lot and proceed to the Little League field. There opening services will be conducted by the color guard, and city commissioner Gene Wesner will throw out the first ball to catcher Bob Musgrave of last year's first-place Indians.

There will be five games on Saturday starting right after the opening ceremonies at about 10:30. From then on, a full schedule of games is planned for the whole summer.

J.A. Makes Annual Awards

Junior Achievement of Four Flags Area had its fourteenth annual banquet at St. Mary's College Thursday. The achievers and their parents and sponsors were invited. Board president A.O. Morningstar gave the welcoming address. The toastmistress was Gloria Cooper from Niles.

James Hodgins, senior from Niles High School, was the achiever who spoke to the assemblage. The main address was given by Donald F. Walter, president of the First National Bank of Southwestern Michigan.

Dave Runkewich from Buchanan accepted the award for company of the year for outstanding service for his J.A. company, the 1st J.A. Bank of Berrien County. He was also named one of four chosen to attend a special leadership conference at Indiana University in Bloomington. Co-companies of the year for outstanding achievement in manufacturing and sales were ISAT and OASIS, with Anne Seager of Buchanan accepting the award for OASIS.

Karen Kowalski received special recognition for 100 percent attendance on two nights weekly. Robert Eady was named officer of the year. Frank Ackermann, whose company made coat hangers, was named salesman of the year. He sold his product to the new Clark Equipment office building.

Others selected to go to Bloomington included Karen Kelly, Pat Mahoney and Greg Schweinzer.

The 1st J.A. Bank of Berrien County took the award for the best annual report.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Remmo from Buchanan, who have provided leadership to Junior Achievement, were in charge of the arrangements for the banquet and were recognized for their contribution to the program with the presentation of a plaque.

City Announces Hefty Millage Reduction

Last week, Mayor Joseph Bachman spoke at the annual chamber of commerce dinner and announced that the city of Buchanan would reduce its millage from 15 to 12.5 mills.

Bachman reviewed the city's tax revolt and urged others to join in support of the protest against the whole tax system. He said that the city is objecting to the loss of local control over the local tax burden.

"We have lost local control through the coercion exercised by the county equalization board and the state tax commission in adjustments of equalized valuation of assessments," Bachman stated.

He reviewed the state tax commission's action in reinstating the county valuation and adding on an additional amount to the original "that was so small and so minor that it can only be interpreted as a slap in the face."

as an admonition to be good boys or we will exercise our penalty powers (which they assume they have!)"

In announcing the reduction in millage, Bachman said that the city commission recognized the need for economy in government to ride out the time of this recession and the importance of not adding to the tax burden. "We will accomplish this not by a reduction of city service, but by a reduction or postponement of capital improvements."

In asking for support from citizens he closed by saying "Hopefully if we all work together, we can do something about getting 'Big Brother' off our backs. I'm sure that if we all join in a consistent effort, we cannot only re-establish local control over our own destinies but can continue to work together to make Buchanan a fine place to live."

School Arrives At Policy For Early Graduation

The Buchanan board of education met in special session Friday morning to resolve a policy on early graduation. They pointed out that, although 8 semesters have been and will be the normal amount required for graduation, some exceptions will be made. Anyone who wishes to graduate in seven semesters must have satisfied all requirements and must make his request for waiver in writing to the board two months prior to the seventh semester. In order to show evidence of continued educational growth, the graduate must also have completed two hours of high school credit beyond the 20 credit hours required. Since it is now possible to acquire only 21 credit hours in seven semesters, the applicant would have to have made some arrangements to pick up the other credit hour (by summer school). The board pointed out that in extreme circumstances it would use its own discretion on individual cases.

The one student who had applied for early graduation was granted it, and the board certified 143 graduates instead of 142.

Before the ink was dry on that policy, a parent appeared to ask for a waiver for his son. That student has only six semesters but has a scholarship award to a university. In order to receive that scholarship, he needs a diploma. The board and the administrator wanted more time to consider that unusual case.

In other action, the board accepted the resignation of Karen McBratne, special child development teacher.

Clark President Optimistic About The Future

Clark Equipment Company is "confident" of its long-range outlook, said Bert E. Phillips, president and chief executive officer, in an address before the Cleveland Society of Security Analysts.

"Our product lines tend to become an essential part of the infrastructure of any economy," he said. "By year end, if the economy improves as many have predicted, we plan to regain the substantial momentum of sales and incoming orders that was evident during most of 1974."

He said he expects sales for the first half of 1975 to fall in the $700-$750 million range, compared to $663 million for the first six months a year ago. First half performance is due largely to a backlog of orders that stood at $846 million at the end of 1974.

He noted, however, that the order backlog had declined to $621 million at the end of April 1975, making the second half of the year difficult to forecast. "A bright spot in the short-term is that a slowdown should aid us in conserving cash by enabling us to reduce inventories," he said. "For the first time in many months the severe shortage of materials has eased, and we are beginning to achieve a much better inventory balance. As production declines, we will also be able to increase production efficiencies and reduce costs in that area."

He pointed out that, after the 20 percent annual growth experienced the past four years, the company faces a need to deploy its assets in those areas that offer the best potential return on investment. He said the company is moving ahead with most of its $90 million dollar expansion plans, and will be prepared to share in the rebound of the capital goods sector.

Clark Equipment Company produces a broad range of material handling equipment, construction machinery, axles and transmissions and commercial refrigeration equipment.

There was something for everybody in the Memorial Day parade.

Everybody agreed that it was a great Memorial Day parade in Buchanan.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor
If you had your "druthers" which position in public schools would you prefer? That of high school principal or would you rather be a high school English teacher?

The high school principal, of course!

Apparently high school principals are just not capable of doing wrong. But high school English teachers: "Culpable, baby, really culpable!"

Take the recent case involving the principal of Brandywine High School.

Charges were brought against him by the teacher and the teacher's aid. And what happened?

He was absolved, (of course!) by the most compassionate and generous Brandywine school board, and rewarded with continuing service in the Niles School System - and back pay!

Now take the Buchanan High School English teacher:

He was charged with "permitting students to tap the intercom button in his room" ("Violating building procedure!")

He was charged with "not providing an assignment for an absent student" ("did not follow directives!") That's right! You read correctly JUST ONE STUDENT OVER A THREE YEAR PERIOD!

There were other charges against this teacher - as ludicrous as they were frivolous. And what happened?

He was fired by the school board. Naturally!

Perhaps he should have had a cream soda or two at the home of one (or two) of his girl students. He might still be teaching English at Buchanan!

Signed
John S. Moulder
ex-Buchanan H.S. Teacher
(But STILL Fighting On!)

Dear Editor Nichols,

Just a word to ask that you stop sending the RECORD to us at the above address as we won't be here to receive them when they arrive. It takes at least six weeks for an issue to get here and we hope to be back in the States on the 18th of June.

Perhaps you could readdress our subscription to 401 Days Ave. Buchanan, as we will spend two weeks there before going on to Colorado in July. We will then make arrangements for the future.

Let me just say, too, how very much I enjoy the RECORD. I am sorry that so many think this Moulder affair was such a "bad" thing for Buchanan. Personally, I find it refreshing and reassuring that such a trial as was had could still be made in the USA! It speaks much that our liberties are still with us and that our "system" still works! What better propaganda for the Centennial (or is it Tri-Centennial?) Committees to promote as evidence that our Founding Fathers were so right in formulating the Constitution. That, along with all the ado even to the Presidency, proves that America is still healthy and progressive, built upon a solid foundation! May it ever continue thus!!

This is not to say that I like or care to be involved in such affairs. Far from it! Or that I don't understand the bitter feelings and bitter taste that remains with those thus involved. These cannot be avoided, man being what he is. And that that bitter effect does not often fall back upon those involved. In this sense it could be said that it was "bad" for Buchanan. But that it was carried out to the end and that the original basis for the dismissal of Mr. Moulder were upheld and the whole question of tenure was brought to the attention of the public for some serious, I hope rethinking, was "very good" for Buchanan, at least in my personal thinking. I have a much better opinion of the Buchanan school system than I had previously as a result. I could hope that other areas, such as dress code, etc., might also be improved. But at least this proves to me that there is someone in at least one public school that has some standards and ideals of education and decency and the determination to stick by them, no matter what. Personally, I had thought such had long ago disappeared from the public school systems of Buchanan and America. It is one reason that my own children are enrolled in a private, Christian school when in the States. But perhaps there is yet hope for the public schools if such as Dr. Vanderbush and Supt. Dougherty continue their effort such as they have in the Moulder case!

Will withhold my thought on tenure, teachers' unions, etc. Keep up the good work, Mr. Nichols! Your editorials are striking, stirring, stimulating and fair. Your morals are apparently high - keep them that way. Buchanan needs you. But then so does every other community. Those original signers of the Constitution, if I'm not misinformed, were men of means who were willing to risk the loss of all they had, yea, their very lives, for the principles of liberty and justice. I place you and the present school administration in the same category. May we have more of the same.

Sincerely,
Bill Blake

Dear Sir,

On behalf of the Exchange group from Cambridge who recently visited Buchanan, we would like to convey a sincere thank you to all our friends there for being such wonderful hosts. The warm welcome and wonderful hospitality made our visit to your City an experience we will remember all our lives.

Very many lasting friendships were formed and our group are looking forward to the visit to Cambridge by a group from Buchanan and continuing the international friendship and understanding that has developed over the past few years between the two communities.

Very many thanks to all

LWW Elects At Annual Meeting

The Niles-Buchanan League of Women Voters had its annual meeting May 21 at a luncheon in the Holiday Inn, followed by a presentation on county government given by Berrien County Commissioner Leslie Fischer.

Mrs. Ronald Neff presided as the new budget and by-laws were adopted. Adopted as a new local program item was a study of local zoning and land use problems, in addition to those retained items under the study of the orderly growth and development of the Niles-Buchanan area.

Elected as new officers and directors were Mrs. John Barr, president, Mrs. Gary Swanson, first vice president, Mrs. Daniel Shelles, secretary, Mrs. Daniel Mitchell, unit chairman, Mrs. John Clark, environmental quality chairman, Mrs. Daniel Stenberg, bulletin editor and Mrs. Gilbert Brazo, membership chairman. Appointed to the board or retaining board positions were Mrs. Charles Sippel, 2nd vice president and voters service chairman; Mrs. William Mapei, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur Anderson, land use chairman, Mrs. John King, human resources chairman, Mrs. James Schmidt, publications chairman and Mrs. Richard Noid, public relations chairman.

Mr. Fischer, a member of the Berrien County Commission for over ten years, discussed the structure of the board of commissioners and the county government. He feels the present structure of 13 rather than the previous 49 member commission is very effective, involving such committees as finance, planning and social services, and county administration and a hired coordinator who effects cooperation between the departments. Concerning tax evaluation, he suggested that those disagreeing with the tax structure should contact their state legislators to attempt changes and those who disagree with their property assessment should contact their county assessor, the board of review, or the state tax tribunal.

Program on Burns For Clark Women

Clark Professional Womens Organization met May 21 at the Heidelberg. Gladys Canfield, president, introduced Ann Baldwin who presented a program about the National Institute of Burns Medicine which included a film "A Fighting Chance". June 18 members will travel to the CMD division of Clark Equipment in Benton Harbor and afterwards will have the dinner-meeting at the Dank restaurant. The July meeting will include a tour of the Niles YMCA after the dinner meeting in a Niles restaurant. Following the reports of the secretary and treasurer it was announced that a mini tour had been arranged to Dearborn, Michigan, to the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village on June 28. One price includes bus transportation, tickets to the village and museum and the evening meal at Webber's in Ann Arbor. Members are to contact Joanna Davidson, trip chairman. Door prizes were awarded to Arlene Thomas, Cora Collins, Alice Weller, Barb Evans and Jan Gaul.

New Instructions from Kerr
One complaint that many consumers had last summer, was that the two major manufacturers of lids for canning jars did not have the same instructions for use.

This year the instructions from Ball Corporation and Kerr are the same. Kerr has dropped the re-tighten instructions when removing jars of food from the boiling water bath or pressure canner. As a result of consumer complaints, Kerr has gone back to their original instructions - to screw the screwband firmly (very, very) tight before processing. Do not tighten the bands after processing.

Here's an example where consumer complaints got some action.

Asparagus Questions
Does asparagus really have to be blanched before freezing? Yes -- if you want to get the best quality from your freezer. Blanching slows the enzyme action that ages and deteriorates vegetables. Asparagus must be blanched (steamed in boiling water) two to four minutes. The amount of time for blanching depends upon the stalk size.

Can asparagus be frozen by putting water in the containers and simply freezing it? This is not a recommended method because the extra water causes the asparagus cells to rupture. When you thaw the asparagus you'll have chunky asparagus soup.

What Ziebart knows about rustproofing:

What car dealers know:

We use 2,000 pages of instructions compiled from factory specifications. Your car dealer uses a few pages of general directions from the salesman who sells him sealant.

We use 9 patented spray tools to get at every inch of vulnerable metal inside your car's body. Your car dealer uses 2, maybe 3 tools.

There are other important differences, too. And you should check them all out.

Vamooses Varmint

A Florida reader sent the Record a 2 column spread taken from the Orlando Sentinel about Orlando Police Sgt. Robert E. Tucker, a graduate of Buchanan High School who is the nephew of Mrs. Leo Finney of Buchanan.

It deals humorously with Tucker's apprehension of a suspicious intruder at the Orlando Jetport taken from the police duty book

"A struggle ensued when said mouse attempted to run past the sergeant. The final result was one bit thumb (Sgt. Tucker's) and one arrested mouse, released after posting bond"

Tucker was reported recuperating after a band-aid was applied on the scene. The director of environmental health for the county health department said state health officials didn't recommend rabies shots for rodent bites unless the critter acts funny and attacks. His information was that Tucker started it

James Welford (left) of Route 2, Three Oaks and Mike May of 210 Eddie Street, Galien, show their catch after a Friday morning fishing expedition to Dayton Lake.

Jim holds the 4 lb. 27 inch Northern Pike he brought in, saying however it's a small one for Dayton - in the past he's caught a 13 pounder measuring 37" there.

The four pound catfish Mike holds put up a real fight as it repeatedly dove for the weedy bottom. It measured about 24". An unusual aspect to this catch, aside from the size, is that Mike caught it about 11 a.m. on a live minnow.

Does anyone know the record for catfish at Dayton Lake or where to find out about it?

Last Tuesday night during a violent thunder storm the Pioneer Farm Bureau Group had its May meeting at the home of the Gerald Tichenors.

Although it rained fitfully, the spirit of the group was not dampened.

Electric power failure made it necessary to "rough it" by resorting to primitive illumination which included decorative candles and perfumed oil in the table lamps.

Chairman William Schwab conducted the meeting and although "Waste Problems" was the topic chosen for discussion, conversation and interest drifted off into various other less irritating targets and issues.

With spring planting running about ten days late, some "Drooling" was in evidence when the new corn planter at the Farm Fair was described.

This machine will plant 24 rows of corn at one time and one fill of the hoppers with seed and fertilizer costs five hundred dollars at today's prices.

The machine carries a modest price tag of $23,000 -- which seems to be in keeping with current prices on all farm machinery.

Someone pointed out that there was a time when you could operate a family farm on a "shoe string" but today, about the only thing you can do on a shoe string is trip.

The morning serenade of the returning birds -- the colorful buds and blossoms on the bushes and trees -- the splendor of the season's flowers and the promising evening chorus of the frogs in the hollow are much appreciated signs of the changing season -- and it is mutually agreed that, perhaps, there is nothing prettier than the first green in the Spring, as we enjoy the change in scenery.

It was noted however, that one of the disadvantages of the arrival of spring is that when the snow melts, it reveals piles of waste thoughtless citizens have discarded along the roadsides. Littering and mishandling of waste material have been labeled as "national disgrace". We are reminded that Farm Bureau policy encourages all members to actively report and assist in the prosecution of persons contributing to the litter problem.

A bitter car owner noted that even with "TLC", an automobile costing several thousand dollars a couple of years ago, is now starting to show the ravages of rust. Whereas, a beverage

Awarded Scholarship

Applauding the fine record of Clark Federal Credit Union, the officers of the Michigan Credit Union Foundation unanimously voted that the Buchanan company should be the 1975 recipient of the Woodman Scholarship Award. The scholarship was awarded on the basis of efficiency, expense ratio, growth and management of the credit unions.

As of their April 30 statement, Clark Federal Credit Union had $7,488,423.21 in deposits and 5,584 members.

This writer has been getting undue praise for the coverage of the baseball team. The writer of those articles has chosen to remain nameless.

Some ex-veterans are referring to the new apartments as Jefferson Barracks.

Because of the necessity for getting the paper to the post office in time, Tuesdays are always rough at the Record. The chamber of commerce seems to plan everything on Tuesday. Thus for the third year, the staff had to miss the annual dinner, which we understood was good.

There was a very glaring error in last week's paper which the editor (the one we can't fire) did note the date on the front page.

This old farmer from Chicago is growing pumpkins for his grandchild. If one gets as big as advertised on the package, it'll be displayed in Gamble's window. They still have a long way to go.

Sentimentalist or not, if you ever saw or see the traditional service at the shrine of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery on Memorial Day, you would have or see moist eyes, quivering lips, a tightening of the throat in reverent silence.

The story behind the story of the Unknown Soldier is drama without equal on any stage. It starts first with New York Congressman Hamilton Fish introducing a House Joint Resolution to have an unidentified, killed in action American Soldier returned from France for reinterment at Arlington. The drama continues with Admiral Dewey's famous Flagship "Olympia" commissioned to return the body to America with Marine Corp escort. In story book manner, the drama relates the care with which anonymity was made certain how the selection was made -- how an ordinary American, a Chicago orphan, as a sergeant in France was chosen and ordered to walk into a room and place a bouquet of roses on one of four unidentified caskets -- how Sergeant Younker placed the bouquet and thus made a selection which he later described as God's choice.

The tomb of the Unknown Soldier is more than a symbol of sentiment. It is an American voice which gives thanks to the glory of God that we as Americans, can and do respect the honor and memory of our departed ones, soldiers and civilians alike.

The Spinal Column
"HOUSECLEANING" Our Most Hazardous Occupation
Yes, we are perfectly serious about that headline. Most emphatically it is not a jest or a joke.
It is a sobering fact that more persons are injured in the course of "Spring Housecleaning" than in any other occupation.
But, you will hasten to insist, the injuries aren't serious. True, Mom may fall from a step-ladder in the course of taking down the living room draperies. Dad may wrench his back while moving the furniture about. But these, you say, are minor mishaps. Not many of us land in the hospital as a result of our housecleaning activities.
But let us pause for just a moment. Before you label those mishaps as "minor" suppose we call to the witness-stand those seasoned old hands at this business -- the insurance adjusters. They will tell you there is no such thing as an "unimportant" accident. A very high percentage of their claims result from accidents where the victims believed at the time that "no harm was done." The serious trouble did not develop until weeks, or perhaps even months after the accident occurred.
As a matter of fact the conditions directly traceable to an accident represent only a part -- and perhaps a very small part -- of the actual damage. Your chiropractor sees in his daily practice the dire results of accidents that the patients had long forgotten, or marked off as of no consequence.
The danger here lies in the fact that spinal displacements occur without your knowledge. There are no visible signs of distress or disorder. You pick "yourself up" and go on your way apparently unharmed. But the pressure continues and will continue, in all probability, until your chiropractor discovers the trouble and makes the required adjustment. Meanwhile, you may experience only a gradual impairment of efficiency and well-being. Bear in mind, however, that this pressure is the basic cause of disease. Neglect this condition for a long enough time and you are going to be in for some serious trouble.
It is for this reason that the prudent patient will call upon his chiropractor at regular intervals for a general check-up.
Yours for better health, naturally,

Exchange Vows Here Saturday Afternoon

Mr and Mrs. Jacob Lee Bratzler

Deborah Sue Madden and Jacob Lee Bratzler were joined in marriage last Saturday in a four o'clock, double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Roberta Thompson, 109 Cayuga, Buchanan, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Madden, 2253 Lake Street, Niles.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Keith Morrow with Ken Snook and Tom Townsend providing guitar accompaniment. Spring flowers decorated the church for the occasion.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride chose a white cotton leno weave gown with long sleeves with cuffs. Trimmed in white lace and satin ribbon, it was styled with an empire waist and a tie in the back.

The bride's sister Catherine Madden was her maid of honor and her long voile gown of a spring flower print was complimented with a ripple brim sheer hat.

The bridegroom's brother John Thompson was the ring bearer.

Tom Townsend served the bridegroom as best man with Eric Thompson of Buchanan, the bride's cousin and Kurt Bratzler, the groom's brother, seating the guests.

A pale pink knit gown with matching jacket was worn by the bride's mother and a sleeveless gown of apricot knit by the bridegroom's.

The 6 o'clock reception was held at the Bend of the River Conservation Club on Mayflower Road and the couple left afterwards for a trip through the midwest. They will be at home at 401 Redbud Trail.

A 1974 graduate of Niles High School, the bride is employed at Thompsons Supermarket. The bridegroom, who graduated from Buchanan High School in 1973 and attended Southwestern Michigan College is employed by Michigan Mobil Mechanics in Niles.

Those interested are asked to help by pledging a certain amount of money for each mile run. The club hopes to run 200 or more miles.

Anyone wishing to pledge may call Tom Smith 683-3089 or Larry Robinson 695-9225 or pledges may be sent to Coach Robinson c/o Buchanan High School, 401 West Chicago.

Caribbean Trip Follows Sandy - Casey Nuptials

Mrs. James Monroe Sandy

A 7 o'clock double ring ceremony last Friday night at St. Anthony's Catholic Church joined in marriage Joan Michele Casey and James Monroe Sandy, 929 Pettibone, Flint. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William Frank Faulhaber of 4955 Buffalo Road, Buchanan, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sandy, 4309 East Baseline, Mt. Pleasant.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Donald Atchison, assisted by Rev. Terrance Alverson. Mrs. Robert Bellare was at the organ and Nancy Dorman, a cousin of the bride, was the soloist. Candelabras with blue daisies and yellow sweetheart roses decorated the sanctuary.

Escorted to the altar by her stepfather, William Faulhaber, the bride appeared in silk organza over peau satin, styled with a fitted bodice with a sheer yoke and a high collar trimmed in Alencon lace applique, accented with seed pearls. Matching applique trimmed her sheer straight sleeves edged with ruffles at the wrist. Lace appliques and pearls encircled her A-line skirt, swept into a cathedral train. A Juliet style bonnet of Alencon lace held her waist length bouffant illusion veil. She carried yellow sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Julie Anne Feifar, whose baby blue, flowered flocked crepe was fashioned with an A-line skirt and a fitted bodice with collar and short puffed sleeves. Pamela Joan Casey, the bride's sister from East Lansing, Ruth Louise Sandy, sister of the bridegroom and Shirley Anne Faulhaber, the bride's cousin of South Bend were the bridesmaids, similarly gowned in yellow flocked crepe.

All the attendants carried blue daisies, yellow sweetheart roses and baby's breath arranged on a lace doily.

Gary James Bevington of Toledo, Ohio was the best man and Patrick Michael Casey of East Lansing and Dale Edward Sandy of Shepard brothers of the couple and James Schulte of Scottsville were the groomsmen.

Crepe and mauve chiffon over cream double knit with a pink tinted daisy corsage was chosen by the mother of the bride and mint green double knit with open weave long sleeves and white daisies by the bridegroom's.

The bride graduated in 1971 from Galien High School and in 1975 from Central Michigan University where the bridegroom graduated in 1974. He had graduated previously from Mt. Pleasant High School and is employed in Flint as director of youth activities at The Pipe. Following their return from a week's trip to the Caribbean, the couple will be at home in Flint.

FDR's Last Year
By Jim Bishop

This is a well written, well documented account of the last year of a sick old man.

When he indicated that he would run for a fourth term, Roosevelt went out of his way to demonstrate that he was in good health. He went above and beyond the necessary physical exertion during the campaign.

There is an account of how Truman became vice president. Roosevelt led several to believe that they were his choice and he made promises to others which he couldn't keep. Then after Truman became the vice president the president failed to keep him informed on developments. Just about everybody in the administration knew about the development of the atom bomb before Truman did.

At Yalta Roosevelt was a dying man. His mind wandered, he vacillated on decisions and he was unable to study many of the important reports and briefings given him. He was devoted and far from candid. He pitted Churchill against Stalin and often double-crossed both of them. He made important concessions to Stalin which resulted in chaos later. Two of his closest advisors, Harry Hopkins and Pa Watson, were also ill and spent much of the time at Yalta confined to their beds.

The love affair which Roosevelt conducted for several years is discussed, and the hurt to Mrs. Roosevelt is apparent.

Those who feel Roosevelt was far less than great will enjoy this book.

Activities At Fernwood

Memorial Day weekend visitors as Fernwood were treated to a special bonsai exhibit of about 45 plants staged by the Elkhart Chapter of the Midwest Bonsai Society on Sunday. Afternoon bonsai demonstrations and films were shown continuously by the chapter, as a counterpart to Saturday's full class workshop by Harold Lenz. Class members went home with properly pruned and potted dwarf trees, with the necessary shaping required to age them into valuable bonsai specimens.

Early summer evenings at Fernwood are a combination of enchantment along the trails and the busy sounds of creative workshops going on near the river. If you become tired of the same "after dinner routine", and the long daylight hours wane, a stroll along shaded paths at Fernwood offer exercise and intrigue. By seven o'clock the lengthening shadows and breezes off the St. Joe River have cooled the air. The setting sun filters down through the trees, dappling wooded paths with changing patterns of light and dark. Reflections off the foliage and bubbling streams create sudden splashes of pink and gold. This is a busy time of day in the woods and gardens when squirrels and chipmunks scurry along their ways, newly awakened from hot afternoon naps. Birdsong heralds the oncoming darkness. Moths fly up from the grass, alight, and fly off again, as though to stay one step ahead of passers-by.

Perhaps also while you walk, light from a studio door may catch your eye. If it does, let it draw you in. Sheltered under the trees by the river, the craft cabin and pottery studio resound with voices and busy construction. Inside, Robert Venn is teaching the principles of leaded glass. His students have chosen their projects and now they are cutting their glass into shapes designed to fit their carefully drawn patterns. Some are constructing Tiffany type lamps in the brass foil method, while others have chosen lamp styles using lead. Others are making stained glass windows or hanging decorations for their homes.

In the pottery studio next door, Marie Remington's pottery design students are in their fourth week of working with the clay. Being experienced potters, they have taken on more advanced problems of design and application. Tuesday night class time is divided between slides, lectures and actual studio work. Marie's students are taking their new ideas in design and expanding them to suit each individual's needs. Friday afternoons and evenings the studio is open for students to practice use of class at their own pace.

Silversmithing is in its final week. Katherine Willard's class is producing finished pieces of jewelry and this would be a fine time to stop in and admire some of the work while the last touches are being added. This class has many hours of trial and error practice to their credit giving them sound experience for future silversmithing attempts.

May closes an eventful month at Fernwood, as well as the final guided bird walk Saturday morning, May 31 at 7:30 a.m. Meet the naturalist at Fernwood's parking lot.

Summer Library Hours

Next week Buchanan Public Library will go on its summer hours. The library will then be open from 10 to 5 on weekdays with the Saturday hours remaining the same, 12 to 5.

To Attend Girl Scout Convention

Among the official guests and delegates to fill vacancies is Mrs Duane Koeng of Buchanan.

Southern Michigan Prison in Jackson ran a show-place farm, complete with prize dairy herd.

But interest in learning agricultural skills appear to have waned.

"The advantages of this program are much less than they used to be," says Republican Sen Richard Allen of Ithaca. "Very few inmates seek agricultural skills anymore and it's becoming more expensive to produce the food (for prison kitchens) than it is to buy it."

What's the answer? Allen thinks it might be best for the state to turn over prison farmlands to educational institutions.

That solution, Allen suggests, would allow continuation of the prison program, through use of prison labor on some projects, and offer more valuable use of the land.

He's proposed a legislative study committee to look into the question and report back to lawmakers next year.

Horses and this colt brought up the rear of the Memorial Day parade.

Marc Harrison, a senior, was number 2 player on the Buchanan tennis team. He's a three year letterman.

Jim Fagras is a freshman and shows promise of being one of the better tennis players in the area. He was number 3 on this year's tennis team.

The Money Changers

By Arthur Hailey
This is another novel by the man who wrote "Airport". This one deals with a large bank in the midwest. As usual, Hailey tells a good story and has done a great deal of research to make it authentic.

The plot deals with the death of the president of the bank. There are two likely successors, but it's decided to select an interim president long enough to come to a firm decision on one of the other two.

There are the usual amount of interesting characters. All of them are woven into the plot and are important to it. As in "Airport", it's hard to imagine that a bank could be faced with one crisis on top of another, but the whole thing is plausible.

This is the kind of book that makes for quick, light summer reading.

The Michigan Mirror

To Register or Not?

Confusion over Michigan's new watercraft registration law prompts Secretary of State Richard Austin to issue the following reminder for folks getting their craft ready for spring and summer boating.

That new law requires many formerly unregistered boats to be registered.

All motorboats, for instance, must now be registered, with pontoon boats and motorized canoes both charged a flat fee for three years, regardless of size, and other motorboats charged according to length.

Exempt from registration, non-powered boats under 12 feet, non-motorized canoes not used for rental or commercial purposes, boats 16 feet or under that are hand-powered and not used for rental or commercial purposes.

Other non-powered boats at least 12 feet long generally are not exempt, and that includes sailboats.

Austin notes also that there no longer is a special boat license plate required for the Great Lakes or connecting waters.

5 years.
 That's the exact time it takes for a U.S. Savings Bond to mature.
 Unfortunately, most people still think it takes 10 years. Or 7. Wrong. It's exactly 5 years.
 Of course, if you want to keep your money earning, there's a 10-year extension privilege beyond maturity.
 We'd appreciate it if you'd help us clear up the confusion. Next time somebody tells you it takes 10 years for a Savings Bond to mature, smile indulgently. And then show him this ad.

Take stock in America.
 Now Bonds mature in 5 years.
