Chummy Dalrymple's Craft Raised; Also His Car Keys, Ration Books and Billfold

Dalrymple had secured a diving helmet from the coastguard station at St. Joseph. With several men above him he dove the 30 feet down to the launch and secured it with grappling hooks. The men had rigged up a raft with six barrels on each side, on which they rigged a winch. They hoisted the boat to the surface, when it was found that the hole through which the water had poured sinking the craft was made by the springing loose of a three-inch board for about three feet in length. They patched this hole with layers of tin and old inner tube. The temporary patch held water. Then it was found that the coil had been damaged by the water, so a trip to Buchanan was necessary to get a new coil. By this time it was night, and a storm had started so the Dalrymples moored the launch to the bank just above the Berrien Springs dam and stayed the night there.

He Raises Gardens

One day this week while on an errand on Front street ye scrivener got a glimpse of Joe Swartz's garden, always, or for years at least, one of the best in Buchanan. This year it is again one of the best. It is not a victory garden—it's just Joe's regular garden but it makes most of us victory gardeners' efforts look like the rout at Dunkirk or the skedaddle of the Axis at Tunis.

All Out With Junk Joolry

Well, friends and neighbors, it's just like we said—the weather was crying for three weeks ago we're now crying about. The customary salutation of "Is it hot enuff fer you?" is again in use, and if you answer, "Just rite" be sure you duck. The wind turned up again Monday night and the timid souls all tuck to the cyclone cellars. But the real question of the day is: how are you gittin' along taking up your junk joolry? The Mothers of World War Two got a box car ordered for Friday to send in the harvest and they're counting on you. To date they say they got enuff to fill a baby cab, so we haif to work. You get that engagement ring you wouldn't give back when that blonde beat your time—the stone was probably a fake anyway and it only makes you mad ever time you look at it. And hubby's Elk's tooth and Masonic pins he ain't had any use fer since he got through 'em out of the lodge. You talk as well throw in grandma's old breastpin, and the Centory of Progress suvancers. It's junk to the local heathen but it might save a marine's life of a tribe of South Sea cannibals was about to stow him. It's worth our while and we all got sum. Git it out while the gittin' is good.

To Commence Later in Office and Shop Canvass at Clark Equipment

The Buchanan Youth Council begins its second drive during the coming week for funds for the continuance of the recreation room in the DiGiacomo building. The Youth Council and the service it has attempted to give the community are the outgrowth of a Community Council organization meeting held in Buchanan in May, 1939. The youth organization was an offshoot, but it has grown and flourished, after the parent organization has gone. It was organized officially during the fall of 1939, and in the intent of its organizers it was a wartime project, to serve youth in the troublous days that seemed looming on the horizon. The efforts of those who have worked it have been sincerely if not always effectively, dedicated to the education of young people who are now bearing the burden and the heat of the worst days in American history. It seemed then that on them was very likely to descend the heavy and the grievous responsibilities of war and of the reconstruction after peace. The question was—what is to be the effect on the generation of the young who are to assume this burden? Can they emerge from the ordeal of flame without bitterness or warping of character? Doubtless they can. But the decision of a world congress of education held in 1940 at Ann Arbor that "a selected segment of our young people on whom will be placed the tremendous responsibility in the years immediately ahead to serve our special attention."

Wide Scope Participation in National Wartime Efforts

The training of these soldiers and sailors includes the following: training 700 for military mechanical work, instruction in the Japanese language to 300 young men, training 250 members of the army engineering forces in the language, customs, and the political, economical, social, educational and cultural frame-works of different nations where reconstruction work may be in order following the war. These studies are being handled by the usual faculty of the university, who train the military personnel in addition to the forty-hour week in civilian education. The East Quad, West Quad and Fletcher Hall are being turned over entirely to military personnel. Fraternity houses are being turned over for use as dormitories for freshmen men. The girls' dormitories are still held for their regular use. The young women are also very active, donating time for regular work in the hospital and for waiting table, and other work where they make up for normal help shortages. They are also taking over much of the ordinary "night crew" work in caring for the grounds and doing janitor work. All girls are receiving tests to determine where they might best fit in war activities. Robert O. Morgan spoke on the work of the alumni chapters of the University of Michigan as they are being conducted in wartime all over the world. Special guests were this year's scholarship student, Miss Phyllis Carleton, and Miss Margaret Semple, who received the award last year and has received it again on the basis of her work during the freshman year. Forty guests attended the banquet which was presided over by the president of the local chapter, Dr. M. J. Converse.

Where the Youth Council is going to go in the coming year will depend very materially on what the community of Buchanan does for us within the next two or three weeks. This movement has been brought to the place where it now is by a group of people that have worked together hard and disinterestedly, and with a measure of cooperation rare in this and other communities. The original reason for the work has been stated above. Later it has been stated as to a movement designed in a measure to protect all ages of children against adverse social conditions, partly due to war. The workers have never assumed that it could be an entire preventive of "delinquency." The forces contributory to social failures on the part of the young are too powerful to be entirely offset. We know as well as any what effect they are having now. But we believe that this movement is one of the factors of amelioration. The recreation room was for some months after its opening, an experiment. We think it is now past the experimental. But it took three months of hard work to create the room. Then there was another two months of organization of activities. Then warm weather was here. We had gone far enough to see what we could do, but since summer time in this part of the world is pre-eminently a time of outdoor activity, we have to wait for the second big indoor push until summer is over. Meanwhile we organized the employment service which seems at this date to be doing a service. We have the satisfaction of knowing that what we have been working toward for years is now being started in large ways in nearby towns and cities—in South Haven, in Charlotte, in Cassopolis, in South Bend, in Elkhart, in Fenton, in Sturgis, in Hastings—to mention a few that have come to our attention. We are now a part of a wide movement. We have had a request from the University of Michigan for information about the local movement which may be broadcast later in a University program. We hope that when this campaign now beginning is concluded the boys in the camps and on the

M. S. C. Will Test Gauges of Cookers

As a wartime service to Michigan housewives, the agricultural engineering department at Michigan State college offers to test pressure cooker gauges so that home food processing will be safer, lead to less spoilage and produce a better quality food reserve.
 Pressure cooker gauges have dials reading in pounds of steam pressure. Through corrosion or misuse the needles sometimes read too high or too low. Pressures too low confuse the cook, often lead to food spoilage or to food poisoning. Pressures too high, caused by gauges reading too low, result in over-cooking, destroying the quality of the product.
 Gauges to be tested should be removed carefully from the cooker cover. If the threads appear to be too tightly corroded, owners are warned not to damage either gauge or cover. Instead they can send in the entire cover with gauge attached, although this requires more packing, more postage and makes the testing more difficult.
 Protection should be adequate, packing in layers of crumpled newspaper and enclosing in a stiff paper box. Twenty-five cents in coin or stamps should be enclosed to cover part of the cost of return postage and handling. Another warning is to write clearly or print owner's name and return address.
 The packaged gauges may be mailed to W. H. Sheldon, agricultural engineering department, Michigan State college. Unless a deluge of gauges arrives, the instruments will be checked and re-mailed the day they arrive.

 "No, Sam, I'm just going up the line away on business. Wasn't that a troop train that just pulled out?"
 "Sure was, Judge... stopped over here for ten minutes and what a swell bunch of fellows they were."
 "That's true all over, Sam. Our present Army is the best trained, best disciplined, best behaved in American history. That's why I get my hair up when I hear of some people trying to dry up the areas around

Army camps. Why, in a recent report made by the government, it said the Army usually prefers its camps to be located in wet instead of dry communities. And there's a sound reason. In a wet community the Army can control drinking. In dry communities where bootleggers run wild it's almost impossible. We know that from our nearly 14 years of experience with national prohibition.

and Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Here patriotic and enterprising young women are busy studying code, typing, teletype operation, chart plotting and the principles of calibration necessary in the use of radio direction finders.

WAVES and SPARS are proving apt pupils in work that requires an exact and quick mind, a good memory, ability to concentrate and a more than ordinary sense of responsibility. There are more billets in both the navy and coast guard for women radio workers than can be filled from the lists of those coming out of training school. The exacting nature of the work and the length of time required to make a competent radioman make it difficult to train WAVES and SPARS fast enough to fill increasing billets.

Upon graduation from radio school, enlistees may qualify for the petty officer rating of radioman, third class. As such they must have a thorough knowledge of the maintenance and performance of their equipment and have a fair degree of proficiency in sending and receiving in international and special codes. Some of the most competent women who have taken their place in airfields and communications centers entered the radio school without any preliminary knowledge of either typing or commercial code. The navy's method of instruction is such that it utilizes all of the latent talents of the trainee. Many opportunities will exist for women who wish to do their part in hastening victory and, at the same time, prepare themselves for attractive peacetime occupations in the field of radio.

Buchanan Youth Council News

Y. C. Employment Service
The Manpower Corps, or the Youth Council Employment Service, is proving to be a success. To date fifty-five young people between 12 and 17 are registered, ready to do any kind of job at any time. On the whole we have had very little trouble in placing several of these youngsters in the various jobs that have come in. The young people have taken an enthusiastic liking for the Employment Service and are co-operating in every way possible to make the Service "work". The employers likewise are becoming more acquainted with the Service. We were quite surprised to have two farmers, one north of town and one west of town, call at the library for boys to do farm work such as planting and hoeing. We are confident that as the growing season lengthens, we will have more farmers call in for the services of these boys. People out on the River Road have been calling for boys to do garden work and mow lawns.

Milk is very rich in the protective food substances human dynamism need. Produce as much milk as you can to help win this war!
How can you increase production when your barn is already full of cows? See if this gives you an idea—Research Farm cows give as much as a fourth-pound more milk per pound of grain with Dr. Hess' Srock Tonic added to the ration.
Srock Tonic stimulates body functions and that ordinarily means a better milk flow. Srock Tonic also supplies essential minerals. We suggest that you check these statements by trying Srock Tonic.

The demand for girls to do part time house work also seems to be growing. Fortunately, we have been able to fill most of these jobs and we hope that people will continue to let us know when they need help. We are always ready to do the best that we can in filling the job and suiting the customer.

Suggestions which might lead to the improvement of the service will be gladly received.

The Friday Night Dance
Last Friday night we held our weekly "jazz session" at the "good ol' rec". If you would have peered in the windows you might have seen many different sights. You might have seen the better dancers in the middle of the floor really "cutting a rug," or Zook Trapp and J. Haslett dancing well together. You might have seen all the males decorating the furniture and sidelines, or still better that stag line that looped in and out consisting of Dretzius, Roberts, Reese, Bachman, Myers, and a few others.

Among the out-of-towners present these were four which took my eye. One was Chuck Trapp, who is in the United States Marines at Sanford, Fla. Chuck had a very hard time keeping his uniform to himself. Everywhere you looked there popped up a part of his uniform. We were beginning to wonder if we wouldn't have to get him a barrel to dance in.

Another was Shirley Erskine. She is visiting from Battle Creek, a third one was David Pierce, a student at Michigan State College, East Lansing. He was very active in the Youth Council two years ago. Then there was Dora Shreve, who recently moved to Kalamazoo. She was one of the first to get her Youth Council monogram.

This time the floor was not made slippery but we were so intent upon dancing we did not notice it much. The music was furnished by those splendid musicians, the Youth Council Dance Band.

Tribute to the Dance Band
This week we wish to pay tribute to the Buchanan Youth Council Dance Band and its director, Philip Hanlin. It has done a great piece of work and Buchanan should be very grateful it has done so much to make it a more joyful place in which to live. It contains a gang of swell kids who have spent a lot of time and effort to make it what it is today. It was conceived by Robert Yoder and organized one year ago. He rounded up the first group, which consisted of six or seven pieces. They rehearsed over the

Co-ops Then the band was enlarged to sixteen pieces and they practiced at the high school. They rehearsed for four months before they had a public performance. They first appeared before the public at a P. T. A. meeting held at the high school and were a tremendous hit because the older people started dancing. Then they played at the high school dances on a 50-50 basis.

They have been adding new music to their old and their ambition is to build up a good library. Anita Pawman is the president and assistant director and Bud Mills is the librarian. They practice three hours every week besides playing for dances. The Youth Council Revue is the biggest thing they have done. They want to have at least two musical Revues every year and hope to have a glee club along with the band. The band leader wishes to make a special request that anyone who can sing, dance, play a musical instrument, or anything else in that line, see him and help the band to an even better success.

Hours on Completing Lessons
Listen, my children and you shall hear, not about the famed tale of Paul Revere, but about the completion of lessons at the recreation hall. Maude Slate has kindly given her services to teachable tennis on Tuesday evenings and from 7 to 8:30 Friday evenings. We hope Margaret Quinlan will soon be with us again to teach us a peppy game of badminton.

We need a pool instructor very badly, so if you can play pool well enough so you can pass on your information please help us out. If you know any one who can instruct would you please give their name to Maude so she could see them as soon as possible.

Dramatic Course
A dramatic club is being organized which will be under the direction of Ed Rudon. It will be held one night a week, but as yet no certain time has been set. Ed has outlined for us a regular college dramatic course which I have an idea won't be so simple but loads of fun for those interested. The following have signed up: Willa Miller, Dorothy Geary, Catherine Babcock, George Johnson, Jackie Vandevan and Edna Lauer. Ed says he wants ten before he starts, so come on all you actors and sign up with Maude Slate now.

Proposal For Bike Rack
It has been suggested by Miss Maude Slate that a bike rack be made and placed in front of the recreation hall. Sometimes the bikes have been found laying across the entire sidewalk, thus inconveniencing the people walking along the sidewalk. This would also be very handy for those who wish to ride their bikes down town to do shopping, as it is very conveniently located.

We sincerely hope this plan will work out and some of the more industrious people might see Miss Slate and ask if there is anything to hurry this plan along.

French-Canadians Numerous
About four-fifths of Quebec Province's 3,000,000 population are of French origin. There are nearly 4,000,000 French-speaking Canadians from coast to coast in Canada.

County Agent Gives Canning Estimates Per Bushel Produce
Many an amateur will be involved in home canning in Michigan kitchens this summer, according to estimates of the home economics extension service at Michigan State college.
For the benefit of newcomers to this home war industry of feeding war workers on farm and in the city, some typical yields of fruits and vegetables commonly canned are presented by H. J. Lurkins, agricultural agent for Berrien county.
Lima beans, for instance, weigh 28 pounds to the bushel and yield 6 to 8 quarts, or a housewife can figure on 4 to 5 pounds of lima beans to fill one quart can.
Similarly, snap beans, 24 pounds to a bushel, can 16 quarts. A bushel of beets weighs 60 pounds and fills 24 quarts. Carrots weigh 50 pounds to the bushel, fill 20 quart jars. Sweet corn, 72 pounds to the bushel, yields 8 to 9 quarts of whole kernels.
Greens, a bushel weighing 12 pounds, fill 5 to 7 quart cans. Peas weigh 32 pounds to a bushel and 2 bushel cans 12 to 16 pints. Forty pounds of squash yield 20 quarts. Tomatoes weigh 56 pounds to the bushel and a bushel yields 15 quarts.

State College Furnishes Plans Legal Rabbit Trap

It's illegal to shoot a rabbit out of season even if the pest is feeding on a victory garden, unless the gardener gets a permit from a conservation officer. But it is legal to live-trap a rabbit. Gardeners can obtain a sketch of a simple box trap by writing R. G. Hill of the Michigan State College Conservation Institute at East Lansing. The live rabbits are turned over to the local game officer for removal from the vicinity of a garden.

Time Yet to Plant Many Vegetables

Farm, suburban and city vegetable gardens still offer good prospects for helping solve the food problem in 1943, advises Paul Krone, chief of the Victory Garden section of the Michigan office of civilian defense and on loan from the Michigan State college horticulture department.
Early lettuce, radishes and green onions may not have been coming out of gardens on schedule and their season is about over. But, says Krone, there still is plenty of time right now to plant and plant important crops like tomatoes, carrots, beets, corn, beans, potatoes, cabbage, turnips, squash, rutabagas, broccoli and cauliflower.

Peas sown this late probably wouldn't pod well in summer, spinach likely would go to seed in hot weather and in southern counties it's too late to get head lettuce headed before summer heat arrives.
This is a reasonable period on the calendar to put in green and yellow beans and to set out early and late cabbage plants. The early cabbages should take 65 to 90 days to mature. Late cabbage will take about 100 days from transplant.

Beets should be sown now with a second sowing about July 1 and, in southern Michigan, a third beet sowing late in July or early August. The latest beet planting in northern Michigan should be made in mid-July. Rutabagas and turnips should be on the schedule for early July planting, according to Krone.

GOEBEL BEER

The Union Oyster House, established in 1826, is the one place where you would naturally go when you want a recipe for Down-East Lobster Stew at its very best. But you need not search for a recipe for another famous good taste, it is at hand when you order Goebel Beer. With Goebel you get good taste that won popularity from Florida to the Great Lakes in a few short years. Wouldn't you like to add that good taste to your "recipes" for today? Order Goebel Beer now.

GOOD NEIGHBORS - and good party line service

AMERICANS have come to know their neighbors better since Pearl Harbor. They've worked together in Civilian Defense — shared their cars to save gas and tires — and they are sharing telephone service in the same friendly spirit.

With more and more people being asked to share party lines, as a war measure, there is a real opportunity today to practice good-neighborliness. Being considerate of others who are on the same line helps to improve service for everybody.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

A GOOD-NEIGHBOR CREED

A good party line neighbor thinks of it this way: "Somebody else on my line may be waiting to make a call, so I won't talk any longer than I have to. When the line is in use and I'm waiting my turn, I won't interrupt. When I finish a call, I'll make sure I've hung up properly, because if one instrument is left 'off the hook' it puts all the telephones on the line out of service."

Waste in war is a Crime.
Do not waste Electricity just because it is not rationed.

How'd you like to carry home 500 POUNDS OF CANDLES?

YOU: I wouldn't like it—and what would I do with 500 pounds of candles?

US: They would light your home for a month.

YOU: I don't need them. We've got electricity.

US: But if you DIDN'T have it, you'd need about a quarter-ton of candles to do the same job.

YOU: A quarter-ton! That's terrific.

US: And the cost would be about $200.

YOU: No sale! My electric bill now is only about three dollars a month—and that's enough.

US: Three dollars is just about average. Remember, of that, the average customer spends only about 85 cents for LIGHT. The remainder runs the radio and refrigerator and—

YOU: Electricity IS pretty cheap when you come to think of it.

US: Right! Cheaper than it's ever been.

SNUFF OUT THE AXIS BY BUYING BONDS!

Today you are getting about twice as much electricity for your money as you got fifteen years ago. Though you don't see much change in the amount of the bill, think of ALL THE ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES YOU'VE ADDED.

The answer is simple. Sound business methods — experience — efficiency. The Electric Companies know their job — to give you, their customer, the best possible service at the lowest possible price. ELECTRICITY IS STILL CHEAP!

Johnny Jones is about to take a sea-trip. Whether his destination is the Arctic, the Tropics or an unnamed port on the Continent, he is the best-equipped traveler that ever stepped up a gangplank.

For an average of 10 1/2 tons of supplies and equipment goes overseas with every American soldier... and after he lands on the other side, he'll get another ton-and-a-half a month to keep him going!

Almost every pound of these military supplies speeds over America's hard-working rails... in addition to organized troop movements totalling 2 million men monthly, and about the same number traveling on furlough.

Add this to the tremendous volume of freight that flows to and from the nation's war plants... plus the increased number of civilian passengers traveling on essential war business. Then you can understand why passenger and freight traffic on the New York Central—which serves the busy heart of industrial America—has more than doubled since World War II began.

Lightning Never Strikes Twice In The Same Place... BUT WINDSTORMS DO!

READ THE STORY BELOW THIS PICTURE

This is a picture of the second wreck on this property, belonging to Dora Westfall and located two miles west and four miles south of Fowlerville. The first wreck occurred May 29, 1942, loss $2,568.94, and the other loss caused by this year's storm, April 27, was $6,465.00. The Michigan Mutual Promptly Paid these losses. It is interesting to note that these two buildings stood on exactly the same spot

TWO STORMS — TWO LOSSES — ONE SPOT
 There is no telling where the next windstorm will strike!

Although windstorm losses have been very heavy each year since 1939 ($2,397,145.74 in the last five years) this company has paid its policyholders losses without borrowing money or increasing the annual assessments of 15c per $100.
