SPORTS PROBE

The A.L.'s top rookies

By Steve K. Walz
Every year the minor leagues produce a crop of eager young graduates. Properly nurtured by their parent major league clubs, these phenoms can turn pretenders into contenders and resurrect dying franchises. This year is no different.
Here are players to watch during the 1982 season
Baltimore Orioles: Cal Ripken Jr. — Pre-season favorite to cop the Rookie of the Year award. Outstanding third baseman with good power
Boston Red Sox: Wade Boggs — Although the Beantown squad has plenty of infielders, they lack bat punch. Boggs hit .335 in Triple-A last year.
California Angels: Tom Brunansky — One of the most coveted power-hitting rookie outfielders. However, the Angels are overstocked at those positions.
Cleveland Indians: Jack Perconte — Released by Dodgers after several cups of coffee. Has all the tools to be a good second baseman.
Detroit Tigers: Larry Pashnick — The Bengals need a stopper and Pashnick could be the pitcher who manager Sparky

Anderson is looking for
Milwaukee Brewers: Frank DiPino — If they are to contend, the Brewers are going to need another starter. DiPino has many years of minor-league experience, and seems ready to do battle in the majors.
Minnesota Twins: Kent Hrbek — On any other team, Hrbek, a first baseman, would still be sharpening his tools in the minors, but Twins need help now. Hrbek has big-league power, but can he hit for average? Garry Gaetti — Power-hitting third baseman who could make Twins into a 500 ballclub.
New York Yankees: Gene Nelson — The best pitching prospect in the American League. He has everything going for him, yet with the Bronx Bombers you never know how long anyone will stay in the rotation. Andre Robertson — Natural successor to either Willie Randolph or Bucky Dent in Yank infield. Can hit, run and field.
Texas Rangers: Mike Richardt — Led American Association in hitting last year. Will probably play second base in 1982. Dave Schmidt: An excellent relief pitcher.

Your wife has been nagging you to do the yard work.

You hate yard work.

You should . . .

- run away to Tahiti
- cement your lawn and paint it green
- place a help wanted ad for a gardener in the Berrien County Record and THE ADvertiser.

Berrien County's biggest advertising bargain.

Your advertising message will get "double exposure", appearing as an Action Ad in Tuesday's ADvertiser and as a classified ad in Thursday's Berrien County Record.
It will reach 15,000 households across southern Berrien County - in Buchanan, Galien, Three Oaks, Sawyer, Union Pier, Bridgman, Baroda, New Troy and rural routes of Niles and Berrien Springs.
To place your ad, complete this form and mail with payment to:
