Commission Authorizes Attorney to Rewrite Ordinances

Will Submit Proposal To Bond In Anticipation Receipts 5-Mill Tax

To Hold Polls To Enable Electors To Vote On Acceptance Of $78,000 Grant Offered By Federal Works Agency

Now Here's the Proposition

On July 4th of Other Days "Are we so patriotic or do we just want to lick the Japs," queried a local man recently prompted by the mystery of conducting wartime attitudes.

It would be hard to answer the question. But as Buchanan faced another July 4th in the past week, thoughts traveled back to the fervor and enthusiasm of the old time celebrations of that day and we wondered what caused the difference.

The day-dawn of the 4th of July in Buchanan was of rare beauty and surpassing loveliness. On the previous evening when busy throngs had completed their preparations for glorious demonstrations, the hydraulics and artillery of the upper world were put in requisition to purify the heavens and brighten the adornments of a rejoicing earth.

City Ordinances In Many Cases Dated From 1883

Old Regulations Resulted In Loss Of Fine Money By City Government

On page 5 of this issue will be found publication of three city ordinances, being the first of a series of revisions or additions to already existing ordinances, in order to bring the city regulations up to date.

Practically the entire set of city ordinances governing matters of public order have come down from 1883. Many parts of these old ordinances have been repealed, as obsolete, but the remainder are unsuited for the most part to modern conditions.

As the result of deficiencies of the city ordinances in the past it has been often necessary that arrests be made under the state laws by representatives of the sheriff's department. In this way the city has been deprived of considerable money from fines that would have accrued if the arrests could have been made by the local officers under local regulations.

Telling How James Herbert Knight Had Name "Jack" Fastened On Him

And A Few Notes On Knight Homestead He Loved To Come Back To

In a visit at the ancestral home of Jack Knight, just across south of the Michigan Central tracks on the South Bend Road, I uncovered the solution that had been a mystery to me at least—how he came to be called "Jack."

During his boyhood he had been formally James Herbert Knight, and informally to his youthful friends "Sky" Knight. Then all of a sudden, just as he crosses the threshold of manhood, comes this name "Jack."

With him it stuck. He was the sort of youth that the name "Jack" would stick to. Congenial, vivacious, friendly, a good mixer, a guy that was easy to "hit" at— a real boy, and a boy as long as he lived on the walls of the living room of the Knight home are many things that would prove even to a stranger that a member of the family had been an aviator.

But the earliest one of Jack when he was James Herbert smiling chummily at you 'out of a washbowl where he sits in the altogether and unembarrassed by duels, at a tender age of—say 12 months. And looking at that picture you can see the authentic image of the smile that came to him so easily the rest of his life.

Bolt Of Lightning Damages Home On West Front Street

Telephones were burned out for a considerable distance along West Front street, and the home of Mrs. Louane Rutan at 611 West Front sustained some damage.

There is the winged gold cup award given to him at Hollywood at the time the moving picture "Men With Wings" was given its premiere showing. It is inscribed with the title of the play, followed by the citation "For outstanding achievement in Aviation."

There is the gold plaque mounted on a walnut backboard the award to him by United Airlines, with the citation "In Appreciation of Your Valuable Contribution to Air Transportation Progress." And another gold plaque with a similar citation from United Airlines and a huge key, tied with red, white and blue bunting, the gift of the city of Cleveland.

The old house has been the home of members of the family for 78 years. In 1867 the father of Mr. Knight and of her sister, Miss Mattie Knight, Seth Smith by name, brought his young family there from Canada.

Jack Knight was considered a rather delicate boy by his family at least, so his mother said. He had a rather slight build and he didn't take much to the usual games. When he announced to his parents that he was going to try to enter army aviation just before World War I, they were quite agreeable to that course, believing

Explosion Menthol Gas Tank Damages W. Thanning Truck

Thanning Sales & Service had a very noisy and somewhat damaging accident at Union Pier last Thursday—which might have been much worse.

While in that lake-side village on a service call Walter Thanning parked his car on the street and, fortunately, left it. While he was gone, there was a resounding explosion and the top of the truck was torn open by explosive force.

Leah Weaver Is English Tutor To Young Mexicans

Mrs. Leah Weaver, instructor in languages at the Buchanan high school, is now employed as instructor in English to young Mexican men working in southern Berrien county, under an arrangement sponsored jointly by the University of Michigan and the University of Mexico.

The young men, ranging in age from 20 to 36, came to the United States to work on the maintenance department of the Michigan Central railway with the understanding that they would be given an opportunity to learn English.

Mrs. Weaver has a class at the Niles high school Tuesday evening 7:30 class at three Oak Woods apartments. She reports that her students are of a fine type, eager to learn, attentive, courteous, with a good sense of humor and an attitude best defined "in American" by saying that they are good sports.

Most of the young men have high school educations. One Efrim Galva, Three Oaks, has had two years at the University of Mexico in training for the practice of medicine. They live in box car apartments at the railway terminals.

There was a high wind accompanying the storm. The wind and lightning were more damaging in the eastern part of the county. In Berner Springs the west end of the village was left without electricity when the lightning struck a power cable.

Approximately $500 worth of damage was done when lightning struck a welding shop on North Second street, Niles, owned by the Sarley Heating and Roofing company. The entire roof was ablaze after the bolt struck, about 2:30 a. m., and extensive water damage was done inside the shop.

Damage in most rural areas south of St. Joseph was slight. One tree was blown down in the Stevensville cemetery.

The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Buchanan Residence Property Owners Association held at the American Legion hall Thursday evening: president, E. N. Schram; vice-president, Dr. H. M. Beistle; secretary-treasurer, A. J. Horvath.

Chief Mitchell Pours 25 Half Pts. Whiskey In Sewer

If the works at the sewage disposal plant have been acting up recently, it's probably because of that whiskey Chief Edward Mitchell took from an Illinois guy and poured down the drain.

The whiskey was found in the form of twenty-five half pints sealed and bearing the stamp of the state of Illinois, in the possession of a gentleman from Jacksonville, Ill., bearing the distinguished name of Cleveland Calhoun. Mr. Calhoun's intentions in disposing of the whiskey did not enter the case, as it was enough to put him behind the legal eight-ball that he had in his possession whiskey not bearing the stamp of the state of Michigan.

Frank Benak Is Released By Army

Frank Benak arrived home last week from Fort Dodge, Kan., after having received his discharge from the army air service.

Before returning from Europe he had served in the North Africa, Italian and French theatres of action. He stated that he expected to take a long vacation before taking up civilian work. He had been instructor in aviation at Fort Dodge for several months.

T/5 Lee Lister Is Awarded Bronze Star

Technician third grade, Lee Lister, 38, son of Mrs. May Lister, South Bend road, serving with G-3 plans section of the Seventh Army headquarters division stationed in Augsburg, Germany, has been awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service and indirect support of combat operations in France and Germany from Jan. 12 to May 7, 1945.

The citation stated that Sgt. Lister, a draftsman, handled tactical plans of highly important and secret nature in a manner indicating intelligent appreciation of their importance. He frequently analyzed unwritten plans from other headquarters and often difficult to visualize and reduced them to graphic form, making them easily understandable.

Robert Hamilton is released from army. Sgt. Robert Hamilton arrived here at 1 a. m. Tuesday morning from Fort Sheridan, Ill., having received a discharge from army service because of his 100 service points at 9 p. m. Monday evening.

Sgt. Ray Batten Released By Army. Mrs. Hazel Widing received a telephone call Saturday evening from Fort Sheridan, Ill., from her brother, Sgt. Ray Batten, stating that he had been discharged from the army on the basis of service points after more than three years overseas and expected to be home soon.

Sgt. Fred Reamer Arrives Home Here. Mrs. Hazel Widing received a telephone call Saturday evening from Fort Sheridan, Ill., from her brother, Sgt. Ray Batten, stating that he had been discharged from the army on the basis of service points after more than three years overseas and expected to be home soon.

Property Owners Elect Officers. The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Buchanan Residence Property Owners Association held at the American Legion hall Thursday evening: president, E. N. Schram; vice-president, Dr. H. M. Beistle; secretary-treasurer, A. J. Horvath.

In a legal advertisement printed elsewhere in this issue the qualified electors of the Buchanan school district are notified that a special election has been called by the school board for Monday, July 23, at which said electors are to decide for or against two proposals whose passage would be essential to qualify the district to receive the grant of $78,000 offered recently by the Federal Works Agency toward the construction of a ten-room grade school building at an estimated cost of $143,000.

The immediate facts of the election are these: It will be held in Room 4, Buchanan high school building, between the hours of 2 and 8 p. m. on Monday, July 23. The first proposal to be voted on is that the district shall borrow $45,000 through a bond issue as a means of providing such part of the local district's share of $65,000 of the building's cost as has not been made available by the first levy of the special five-mill tax voted by the electors Oct. 13, 1944, which amounts to $24,037.07.

The second proposal is that the voters shall authorize a cancellation of that part of their decision last fall which placed the returns of the five-mill tax in a sinking fund for future construction including the amount already collected, and shall further authorize the creation of a new sinking fund under terms which shall make the receipts available more immediately in taking advantage of the opportunity to build at once with federal aid.

Buchanan school boards have been confronted with two housing problems in recent years. One is that some 225 pupils in the lower grades are housed in the Dewey avenue school which was first used as a school in 1856 and will consequently be 90 years old next fall. Even when this building is used there has been a very pronounced over-crowding which cramped existing space facilities even before the influx of war workers since 1940, and which has since made necessary the lease of makeshift quarters in three church basements.

In 1922, the date of the last school construction, there was an average attendance of 645 pupils. By 1940 there had been an increase of 61.6% in average attendance without any space addition. At the end of the first month of 1944-45 school year the increase of average attendance over 1922 was 85.7%.

In calling the special election of last fall, the school board had in mind preparations for postwar construction, such as are now being made by practically all American municipalities and school districts with any long-term policy. The receipts from the special five-mill tax were to go into a sinking fund which should be used "in the ultimate construction of a new school building." "Ultimate construction" meant building after the war, when it was believed that programs of public aid by building grants and other means would be made to promote employment during the period of change-over from a wartime to a peacetime economy.

Previous to that date the school board had negotiated with federal agencies for help through the provision of temporary space at least to house the influx of children of war workers whose presence made a bad situation worse. They had not received any definite encouragement and had determined to handle the present emergency by such makeshifts as renting church basements, but to look to the remoter future by taking advantage of a wartime prosperity to create a fund to be used to match the expected public grants after the war.

Then came the unexpected offer by the Federal Works Agency of a grant of $78,000 to match a local appropriation of $65,000. In making this proposal, the federal officials stated that in their judgment it would be more practical to make a substantial grant toward a long-term construction than to waste public funds on the creation of temporary facilities.

If the local district is to take advantage of this recent offer, then it will be necessary to pass the two proposals embodied in the legal on Page 5. The electors will have to do this to secure the immediate appropriation required from the district. The $45,000 receipts from the proposed bond issue, plus the receipts of $24,037.07 now in hand from the first levy of the five-mill tax would take care of our share. However it will be necessary to amend the arrangements defined for the use of the receipts of the five-mill tax to render them more immediately available and to secure a more economical rate of levy, as defined in the legal notice.

The voters need to bear these things clearly in mind: 1. By voting the $45,000 bond issue they will not be voting more debt. They will merely authorize borrowing in anticipation of the receipts from the five-year five-mill tax authorized last fall, in order to take advantage of an immediate federal grant which was not anticipated then. As a matter of fact the receipts of the special tax now in process of payment will not only pay off the bonds, but will also leave a substantial fund over to provide for possible additions on buildings.

2. They should consider that this grant is made by the Federal Works Agency on the basis of an assumed "wartime emergency". When asked by board members what the federal government might do if the war-created emergency should suddenly terminate, the representatives of the federal agency stated that they could make no commitments that might not be terminated at any time by executive decree or by act of congress. Although such a reversal on the part of the government is not considered likely, the statements of the federal men referred to above make it clear that it can-

State, Federal Laws Guard Song Birds

A boy with an airgun who shoots song birds may not be a Dillinger, but the G-men can get him.

It is a federal offense to shoot robins, bluebirds, catbirds, woodpeckers, and other song and insectivorous birds, and the penalty may be a $500 fine or six months in jail, or both. State law also protects such birds, with penalties ranging to $100 fines or 90 days in jail, or both. Only birds not protected by law in Michigan are owls, crows, hawks (except eagles and ospreys), starlings, bronzed grackles, rusty blackbirds, and English sparrows. Killing of some of these species is not advocated, owls, for instance, help farmers by destroying rodents.

HOME CANNED FRUIT

This year more than ever it will be advisable to can extra quantities of fruits. There will be an extreme shortage of commercially canned fruit next winter and points will be high.

The shortage of sugar need not hinder home canning. You can can without sugar. Fruits keep as well without sugar as with it. Non-sweetened fruit when opened may be served with prepared gelatin and puddings.

If you want light syrup on fruit, sugar can be extended by adding corn syrup or honey. Send to Bursley & Co., Fort Wayne, Ind., and get a free leaflet entitled "Canning With Less Sugar."

Jeepers... what a man!

Now MEET a man who could walk at the rate of 135 miles a day... Captain Robert Barclay of Ury, England. In 1808 he bet he could walk one mile every hour for 1,000 consecutive hours. The amazing thing is he did it! Imagine... one mile during each hour, day and night, for 41 days and 16 hours.

But Captain Barclay's feet hurt, and plenty... Now that cars are wearing out at an alarming rate, many ex-motorists are unhappy about their feet, too.

Every mile you drive speeds the day when your own car will wear out and quit... UNLESS it gets the professional care that can check needless wear.

Oliver York First To Harvest Grain

Oliver York was one of the first to start cutting the current crop of grain, having cut a field of barley with a binder and placed it in the shock Saturday.

The wheat crop, which first promised to be early because of good spring growing conditions, has been held back by weather and will not be ripe until late in July. Meanwhile rust has set in in many fields. The weather has been more favorable for oats, which are looking very well.

The heavy hay harvest is being deteriorated by adverse harvest weather. However, alfalfa fields which were cut in days to two weeks ago already have a heavy growth of second cutting started.

Hero's Proposition

(Continued from Page 1) Esq., was in matter, manner and effect creditable to the young orator and favorably received by the intelligent audience. (That there last took in just about everybody.) Inspiring notes by the Carlisle Hill and Rolling Prairie Brass Bands closed the exercises on the stand and an appropriate benediction was announced by Elder William M. Roe, when the procession marched to the dinner table.

So it was done 85 years ago by our "rude forefathers" under the oaks on the Niles Road hill. And there's little left that witnessed the day's proceedings except the hill and the old oaks in Gamin's yard. And they're not talking.

With the Boys in Service

Enid Army Air Field, Enid, Oklahoma—Aviation Cadet George Roberts, Jr., 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Roberts, 306 Cecil Ave., Buchanan, has been awarded his silver pilot's wings and appointed a second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces upon completion of his twin-engine advanced training at this advanced unit of the AAF Central Flying Training Command.

Lewis Roger Striggle, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Adam Striggle of 104 Lake street, Buchanan, is receiving his initial Naval indoctrination at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

Richard Leigh Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schwartz, left a west coast port on an American Merchant Marine ship two weeks ago and is now somewhere on the Pacific, presumably in Alaskan waters.

Helps Crack Siegfried Line (Delayed) Ernest 36th "Texans" Division troops on German soil were doughboys of the 141st Infantry Regiment who in 10 days, battered the Wehrmacht from strong positions along the Moselle River through the Siegfried Line. Engaged in bitter house-to-house fighting in the town city of Hagenu, these U. S. 7th Army infantrymen broke out from a small bridgehead across the Moselle, clashed with German rearguards and finally knocked out 35 pillboxes and forts in cutting through the Siegfried Line.

The doughboys, commanded by Col Charles H. Owens of Wallace, Idaho, have left landmarks to a defeated Reich from Salerno, Italy, to the Rhine in Germany in 363 days of conflict with the enemy. Among the most veteran infantrymen in General Jacob L. Dever's 6th Army Group, they captured more than 6,000 Germans in France alone. Several Nazi leaders were added to their bag in Austria.

They were the first Americans to assault now-crumbled Fortress Europe with the Salerno landings and later fought in the Rapido River's famous "Battle of Guts" below Cassino. The mountain city of Velletri fell to them when they took part in the spectacular 36th Division infiltration maneuver that opened the gates to Rome.

Speaking a beach landing in Southern France, they struck north to aid in the destruction of the German 19th Army near Montolmar. Other battles included rugged warfare in the Vosges Mountains, the defense of Colmar passes, and combat against Germans employed in Maginot Line fortresses near Bitche.

Fighting with the famous 141st Regiment was Pfc Floyd Horner, R. R. 2, Buchanan.

Cpl. McEwen writes: Cpl. Norman McClen, former well known Buchanan boy, went overseas in August, 1944, went through several battles, was wounded and hospitalized, and then transferred to the Military Police Bureau as a truck driver. He is now in Le Havre, France, from which place he recently wrote the following letter to his mother, Mrs. John McClen.

Le Havre, France June 5, 1945

Dear Mom: Here I am again, I don't know of much to say but I thought I had better drop you a few lines to let you know that I think you are the nicest and most wonderful mother a fellow could ever have. I hope this letter finds you in the best of health. I hope I will be home by Christmas—how would you like that for a Christmas present?

I am still driving truck and I like it as always. I just got back from Rennes. I drove down day before yesterday and back today, about 500 miles round trip. The Colonel said he wanted me to drive the trip and no one else.

so I drove the trip. He is from Battel Creek.

We are working in Le Havre now. We have traffic points all over the town.

There are a lot of soldiers that are going home and we have to see that they don't get lost or miss the boats. It is sure a tough job to watch all the guys go home while we have to stay here. I sure would like to be in good old Buchanan again. How is the Jones family? Fine I hope.

Did you get the German insignias I have been sending in your letters? I will tell you what they are and all about them when I get home. I hope it will be here too long. We hear all kinds of rumors and stories about going home. But I have learned to not believe anything I hear any more. Yours in Him, Norm not be entirely ruled out. The schedule of payment of the grant is to be as follows: $10,500 at the time of the beginning of construction; $60,000 at the time the building is 50% completed; remainder at time of completion. The voters should consider the implications of the above facts.

3. If on the other hand the grant is accepted and the project goes through it is still necessary to consider that we will have to assume all of the hazards and handicaps of wartime construction, including a wage-scale based on wartime inflation, an inflated cost of materials, the impossibility of securing certain building materials and the necessity of replacing them with wartime makeshifts, the hazard of such construction resulting in deterioration such as we have witnessed in buildings erected in World War I.

4. If these proposals are rejected, it will mean that the postwar program of construction from the proceeds of the five-mill tax will be carried out according to the arrangements initiated at the special election of Oct. 13, 1944.

The Buchanan school board is very desirous that during the time intervening before the special election, the district electors consider the issues very carefully. If they have any questions or any objections, they are asked to state them at once. During future issues of the Record, any such questions will be answered as fully as possible.

REMEMBER VOTERS—IT'S UP TO YOU FIRST TO INFORM YOURSELVES AND THEN TO VOTE YOU WILL MAKE THE DECISION.

Surviving are the widow, four daughters, Mrs. Henry Haun, 407 South Oak street, Buchanan, Mrs. Gertrude Euntun, and Mrs. Gladys Quinn, Mill Creek, Ind., and Mrs. Alice Eider, LaPorte, four sons, Delbert of Grand Rapids, Mich., Russell of New Tracy, Ind., Orrin of Downey, Ill., and James, Jr., of LaPorte, twenty grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, two stepsons, Guy Dodge, Michigan City and William Dodge, Canton O., and two brothers, David and Charles Bradley, South Bend. Certainly, fowl pox can be prevented. I've just vaccinated my pullets with Dr. Salisbury's FOWL POX VACCINE. Takes mean lifetime immunity. For my laying flock use Dr. Salisbury's PIGEON POX VACCINE. It's milder, contains about three months' immunity and doesn't throw them off lay. Vaccinating is really easy to do.

This is an illusion but this is NOT!

The average American family gets about twice as much electricity for its money today as it did 15 years ago.

Yes, the first is a trick, but the second is a fact—a fortunate fact for you.

By using more and more electricity over the years, you've helped us reduce the price to a point where the average family now gets about twice as much electricity as it did 15 years ago for the same money.

Keeping the price of electricity pinned down to the floor in wartime is a much tougher job than keeping a pin-up girl floating in mid-air! It takes much more than magic. It takes careful planning, hard work and good business management.
