Tells of Daylong Fight in Mud and Rocks - No Food

Story of How U. S. Troops Took Mountain From Herman Goering Div. Troops

Here in North Africa close to Tunis

Hello dear friend Hawes: This is Sunday morning, a bright Sunday morning here in North Africa. I am sitting here in a wheat field writing on a box of T.N.T. Here in this same spot just a few days ago there was a big battle but you would not know now there had been a battle except for shell holes.

I thought that, as the war is over here now, I would write and tell you a little about it. You can print it if you want to or just part of it. The outfit I was in left Fort Dix Dec. 15 and landed in Casablanca Christmas eve. We went there a while, and then we went to a place called Marrekkeh, where I helped guard Churchill and Roosevelt. I saw them very plainly. I passed within three feet of Churchill and saluted him with my rifle. From there we went in training at a town called Petit Jean and from there we went on a 1008-mile motor march to the front at Tebessa, close to Kasserine Pass. There we went into battle. I cannot tell you much on paper but I will try to give you a little notion of what it was like.

Our outfit went to find the enemy. We worked in platoons, each platoon under a leader. Our leader, 1st Lt Walker of Terre Haute, Ind. is a swell leader. If he had not been for him I think we would have been lost. I don't have room on paper to tell you all but I will tell you about one battle we were in. We were called on to take a mountain ten miles away that had two companies of the Herman Goering division on it. We got up at 4 a. m. and left without eating. On one side of the mountain there is a big lake, and on the other side for a mile from the mountain there is waist-deep water and mud. We had orders to have a C.P.—a command post—on the top of the mountain by night.

The mountain was sure high, the highest around there. Well, we went for the middle of it, marching through mud and water. We were getting close when hell broke loose. They opened on us with machine gun fire and mortar fire and some fellows were hit. We all went down in the mud. Our leader gave us orders to crawl back. We crawled over a half mile through the water and mud. It was sure tough going, with bullets whizzing all around. I think we were all praying. I heard one fellow say he had never prayed before.

Then without stopping we went back through it again, plastered from head to foot with mud, but under cover of our own fire this time. Well, that was a bad battle. We captured a lot of Germans and there were a lot killed and wounded on both sides. We went on all day and about four in the afternoon we hit the highest point of the peak.

Rev. Charles Hahn Is Retained at Buchanan 4th Year

Rev. Charles Hahn has been retained to the pastorate of the local Methodist church for another year by the action of the annual Methodist conference held last week at Benton Harbor. Kenneth Hoffmaster of Niles, Rev. John O'Higgins of Berrien Springs, and Rev. Emerson Minor, who resides in Stevensville and serves that locality, and the Galien and Dayton churches. Rev. Puffer remains at Dowagiac for his third year, Rev. Rice remains at Belding and Rev. Henry Liddicoat returns to Grand Ledge.

To Start Y. C. Fund Campaign Friday, June 25

At the meeting of the board of the Buchanan Youth Council at the City Hall Tuesday evening it was decided to set Friday, June 25 as a tentative date for a drive for funds to carry on the Buchanan Recreation room for a year. This action was taken because the board considered it advisable not to wait until present funds were gone and because mounds had been made on the funds secured last fall by heavy expense for alterations, improvement and equipment. The funds to be raised for the next year will go to maintenance expense. Fuller information on the drive will be printed next week.

Cabin Cruiser Goes to Bottom of Lake Chapin

Ivan Dalrymple, Party of 7, Escape as Submerged Log Wrecks Boat

A marine disaster resulting in the loss of one ship occurred Sunday afternoon on Lake Chapin, when the cabin cruiser of Ivan Dalrymple was snagged by a log just below Camp Belts, the boat going to the bottom while all occupied with a picnic. The boat was not in a dry condition.

The boat was gliding smoothly along with that experienced seaman, Chummy Dalrymple, at the helm when it came to a sudden stop on top of a log, that had no right to be there according to all accepted navigation soundings of the lake. Thinking at first that the log was a snag, the party were considering measures to push off when suddenly water was seen pouring rapidly into the hull. Luckily a motor speed boat was near them, but loaded already with a near capacity passenger list. However they managed to take on the three women in the Dalrymple boat, taking them to land, about 150 yards away.

By the time they had returned, the boat had plummeted to Davy Jones, however, and the three men and one boy were swimming to the best of their ability. All were picked up and taken to land, the only loss being the boat, a bilfold belonging to the skipper, and other lesser valuables. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dalrymple, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Canfield and son, Erwin, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reed. It is thought that the log had drifted there during the recent high waters.

Mr. Dalrymple was exploring the lake Tuesday with a view to diving operations to recover his bilfold, if not the boat.

Robt. Morgan, Former Grid Star, Talks to Local U. M. Alumni on Fri. Night

He was a member of Phi Mu Alpha fraternity. He has also been athletic coach and assistant principal in a high school in Buffalo, N. Y.

Church Council Sends Out Second Letter to Parents

The following is the second and concluding letter which was compiled by the Buchanan Community Council and sent to the parents of pupils of the Buchanan schools.

Dear Parents of Our Community: Again we come to you in these trying times with a message from the united forces for good in the community. We have three great institutions in the community and the nation which should work together for the upbuilding of morale, of life and character, and of true patriotism. These are the home, the church and the school. The churches of the community realize their great responsibility, and the school is doing a fine work. We appeal to the parents to put the homes of our community solidly back of every effort to build good citizenship. The home is the first institution given us by God and it is still the most vital influence in the life of the individual.

If we are to win this war we need to be on God's side. The churches are sincerely trying to help. We believe that they must have the backing of the parents for more Christian education through the home, the Sunday school and through an extensive week day, definitely Christian education. Back us up in trying to organize and carry on these classes. Give us any suggestions of a constructive nature you may have. As an immediate project send your children to the Daily Vacation Bible school, June 7 to 18.

We must build positive influences for good citizenship, and also we must seek to overcome the negative influences which tear down and tend to destroy good citizenship. There are evil influences in every community which are destructive of the lives of our boys and girls and our men and women. Juvenile delinquency is increasing in the nation by leaps and bounds, at a rate that alarms many who are not particularly interested in morals and religion. The home, church and school must have the answer. The youth center for recreation has been a constructive help. Along with such efforts there must be a positive religious and moral spirit put into each life. And also we must do something to meet the evil influences that seek to lead the youth astray, such as liquor, gambling and vice. Education, parental influence and authority, religion and law, all have a part in this. Won't you give your support to all of these? Our democracy is clearly built upon the foundations of Christianity. If it is to endure it must keep the foundations.

Navy Mothers Club Collects Jewelry For Native Barter

"The first thing to turn green in the spring is the Christmas jewelry," opined that most droll of the Indiana humorists, the late Abe Martin.

If your old jewelry has turned a little green, due to a thin gold wash or an undue brass content, it may still be worth its weight in gold, in that land where anything that glitters like gold is just as good as gold—the South Sea Islands. It has been discovered by American soldiers, sailors and marines serving in the South Pacific area that even dime store jewelry, cast-off at that, has an almost fabulous valuation in the terms of man-hour labor which the native natives of those climes will barter for if they can.

The discovery as reported by Lt. General M. F. Harmon, during a brief visit to San Francisco from the South Seas, came when a shipment of games sent by the San Francisco League for Service Men to the South Pacific area was found to have some strings of beads and dime store clips together with the recreational equipment. The boys dangled the baubles in front of the natives, with electrifying results. The natives were willing to do almost any task, however difficult or dangerous, to acquire the trinkets. Fifty-two foxholes were dug for a brooch and a pair of earrings. Muntions and other supplies were carried through the jungle, the wounded were carried to front line hospitals from the battlefields.

A hurry-up message was sent to the League for more, and in short order that organization had a shipment en route by plane. The league is now appealing to the public for donations of any kind of cast-off jewelry. Even an earring without a mate is of value. The Paul E. Thurston Navy Mothers club of Buchanan is assisting in the campaign by placing boxes in the following places: A & P store, Kroger's store, Wilson's Dairy, The Grill, Indiana & Michigan Electric company. The boxes will also be placed in charge of the following people in the following departments of the Clark Equipment company: Alta Rouse in drill department; Hazel Landis in drill department; Belle Miles in main offices; Pauline Jesse in service department.

Mrs. Joseph Richards will entertain members of the Dessert Bridge club Friday afternoon.

Ruthe Montgomery Admitted to WAVES

Miss Ruthe Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery, 109 North Cayuga street, successfully passed her examination Saturday at the University of Notre Dame, for entrance in the Women's Auxiliary Volunteer Emergency Service. She took the navy oath along with a large class of WAVES and SPARS recruits, during the Flag Day program Monday evening in South Bend. Miss Montgomery will leave June 28 for Hunter College, New York, to report for indoctrination. She was graduated from Buchanan high school in 1941 and is employed as assistant cashier at the Union State bank.

Will Recruit Men for Seabees at City Hall Fri.

Officer of WAVES to be Here Also to Recruit

Petty Officer First Class, Weakly, of Benton Harbor, will be in Buchanan Friday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. to interview applicants for Seabees.

Men in 1-A, 3-A, or 4-H, with experience in the building or construction trades, are wanted. The rate of pay is considerably better than other branches of service in which men are drafted.

Petty Officer Weakly will be accompanied by an officer of the WAVES who will interview candidates for that branch of the service.

Interviews will be conducted at the city hall. A navy banner will be displayed.

Seventeen-year-olds and men 38 through 50½ may complete Seabee enlistment directly.

Men in 1-A with experience in the building or construction trades are advised to investigate the opportunities offered by the navy's construction battalions, or Seabees, before receipt of their final induction papers.

According to Lieut. Comdr. R. G. Buller, civil engineer corps, construction personnel procurement officer for the Detroit area, men who have received their induction notices no longer are eligible for the Seabees. Only men in 1-A, 3-A, or 4-H may apply for enlistment.

Men of draft age must obtain interviews at a navy recruiting station so that their qualifications for a navy rating may be determined before they receive induction notices. These interviews enable the navy to clear them through their local draft boards for Seabee enlistment. Seventeen-year-olds, and men 38 to 50½, may complete Seabee enlistment directly, through the navy recruitment stations.

The Seabees build vitally needed air and land bases for American fighting forces in all parts of the world. Their work makes it possible to carry the offensive directly into the enemy's camp—and will undoubtedly play a major part in winning the war.

Enlistment in the Seabees offers many advantages to skilled tradesmen and artisans. Petty officer ratings paying as high as $188.70 per month are available in more than 50 skilled occupations. In addition, food, uniforms and clothing, living and sleeping quarters, transportation, medical care, dental and most other incidental expenses which would entail considerable expense in civilian life—are provided free of charge. Thus, many men leaving good-paying jobs in private industry to join the Seabees find themselves financially ahead.

The recent opening of several hitherto closed ratings widens the field of skilled men now accepted for enlistment. The newly-opened ratings cover such occupations as gunsmith, baker, cook, police officer, instrumentman, sail or awning maker, steward, excavation foreman and powderman helper. In addition to these, there is urgent need for men with experience as auto and truck mechanics, blacksmiths, bull dozer operators, carpenters, concrete workers, crane operators, divers, draftsmen, drillers, electricians, machinists, motor patrol operators, pile driver operators, pipefitters, plumbers, pipelayers, powdermen, riggers, sheet metal workers, stationary engineers, steel workers, switchboard men, telephone men, welders, wharf builders, winchmen, and wire splicers.

Further information may be obtained at the city hall Friday or at the recruiting office at Benton Harbor any time.

Rev. E. S. Faust, Kalamazoo, at Evan. Church Fri. Night

Dr. E. S. Faust, Kalamazoo, district superintendent of Evangelical churches, will conduct the first quarterly conference of the church year at 7.30 Friday evening in the local Evangelical church.

Parchment System of Home Works Corporation

Floyd Starr, superintendent of the Starr Commonwealth, says "There is no such thing as a bad boy." Well, he's right—but prove it! The village of Parchment, Michigan, six miles north of Kalamazoo, for the past eight years, has been substantially "proving" Mr. Starr's statement, by providing a youth employment service. Buchanan has just started one, modeled after the Parchment set-up, although Parchment had the advantage of starting in depression times, when there were plenty of jobs to be done and not much money to pay for them.

The Parchment system is supervised by Mr. Glenn Stewart and Mr. Jacob Kindleberger, both of the Kalamazoo Vegetable Parchment Company, paper manufacturers. In this system, a company of fifteen boys and three supervisors is formed and all the jobs are supervised by the company. Wages are set at a fixed price per job and all money that is earned by the boys is collected by the company and at the end of each week, each boy is paid twenty cents per hour for the number of hours that he has worked. Under this system, the boys learn the rudiments of business organization, learn how to work efficiently, learn salesmanship as well as earn enough wages for spending money and for clothes and school needs. The supervisor inspects an O.K. each job. If he O.K.'s it, he collects the money for the company. If the job is rejected, the boy does it over.

In the Parchment set-up, the boys allow 20% for overhead. This means that for every dollar collected for work, twenty cents is company funds. Actually, less than five cents is needed for real overhead. A certain amount for gardening tools, mowers, etc., are needed, and must be kept in order, also sponges for washing cars, polish, and so forth. At the end of the summer the "company" meets to decide what to do with the surplus as there is no carry-over of funds from one year to the next. Sometimes they have gone on a camping trip. Lately big league ball games in Detroit and Chicago have been the choice. Boys do not get their pro-rated share in cash.

Under this system, Parchment helps to keep boys off the street corners, and so discourages the things that make those whom we see walking along the railroad tracks.

At the Fuller home the tennis nets for the athletic park are kept.

To these interested and industrious Youth Councilers we take off our hats.

Minutes of the Meeting

Last Thursday, a group of interesting youth climbed the stairs to the weekly meeting in the loft. Billie Lou Lamb was acting as a very wise secretary, while Mr. Hawes called the meeting to order. We were informed that Cynthia Johnson could not be on the editor's board. It was formally voted upon that the remaining editors should appoint a third one (This has not been done as yet).

It was voted that we call Council News for our first edition newspaper corner. The Youth After that we will stage a contest to find the proper name for the paper.

It was decided that we have a definite plan and set of rules to be posted at the recreation hall, which are to be enforced.

Billie Lou Lamb made the motion that we have Youth Council meetings every two weeks, on Mondays, starting June 21. This was seconded and a majority voted on it.

It was proposed that we have posters made to advertise the registry for the employment agency. These will be made by JoAnn Dalrymple and Tom VanDeusen.

At last Jackie VanderVen made the motion we adjourn and it was seconded and voted for by a majority.

In a previous meeting of the Youth Council a motion was made by Mary Frances Batchelor that we take over, for the summer, the space in the Record used by the Microphone during the school year. After it was discussed it received a majority of votes and officers were elected. It was decided to have a board of three editors, one acting as chairman. Anyone else interested was to be a reporter.

In the paper we hope to inform the public of the work the young people are doing and entertain with their activities. We hope to acquaint you with the young people by letting you in on some of their actions. We sincerely hope

2 6-Year-Olds Stage Extensive Warehouse Raid

The Buchanan community was startled last Wednesday afternoon by news that the warehouse stock kept by Fred S. Carbon in the former city hall quarters at 108 West Front street had been broken into and considerable damage done.

During the following day the local police ferreted out two six-year-old boys responsible for the damage. The boys readily told all when confronted. They had gotten into the warehouse by removing a pane of glass in the window at the east end of the old library quarters. Evidently no male little alley back of the present library quarters. They spent about three-quarters of an hour in the warehouse, enjoying themselves by climbing to the top of tiers of cases of cola concentrate, ketchup and other valuable stock in glass containers, tipping them over for the delight of the crash. Breakage included 10 cases of cola concentrate, 4 gallon bottles to case, 8 cases of cola concentrate, four quarts to case; 30 cases of finished product cola, 4 gallons to case, miscellaneous breakage of containers with pineapple juice, tomato paste, ketchup and maraschino cherries, several neon signs. Previous to breaking into the warehouse, the two boys had spent some time in the library. The boys' instinct could be ascribed to the actions of the boys, notwithstanding the heavy damages. Apparently they lacked direction of their time. Police were at first hardly able to believe that the boys had done all the damage unaided until the two urchins explained thoroughly how they had done it.

Farmers Plant Tail End Corn Crop This Week

Buchanan farmers are still planting the tail end of the 1943 corn crop, according to Bob Koenigshoff, impresario of the Buchanan Co-ops, Inc.

The hybrid strains now planted mature earlier than old varieties, but a late season will be needed for maturity. The soy bean crop is being planted now in good season. The 75% stand of early potatoes is in good condition. Some farmers' are already starting to plant late potatoes.

Haymaking is starting this week in the alfalfa fields. The hay crops now look excellent. The strawberry harvest is in full swing. Prices which ranged as high as $8 per crate (a record on the Benton Harbor fruit market) had dropped to an average of $4.25 per crate on the market Sunday.

Red Cross Meetings Suspended Until Materials Arrive

Workers will be notified when the work essentials have been secured. It is not expected that the meetings will be resumed for at least two weeks.

3-Month-Old Son Frank Trapp Dies

Tuesday Blackout Reported Okeh As New Sirens Blare

Buchanan civilian defence officers and local police report that the test blackout Tuesday night was 100% perfect except for one organization neon sign that happened to be overlooked. The new siren system operated successfully and was demonstrated to be adequate for warning the entire town, notwithstanding the absence of city sirens, blown down in the storm.

Jack Post Works On Foreman's Club Business in East

Jack Post, president of the National Association of Foremen's clubs, left for the east Tuesday evening, expecting to be gone about 12 days. He went immediately to Framingham, Mass., to work on the new siren system. He will be out two days from there to Connecticut, and thence to the vicinity of Greater New York City where he is expected to be busy several days. He will return home about Sunday, June 27.

Farm Labor Wage Not Deducted Now From Old Age Aid

Berrien County Bureau of Social Aid, Benton Harbor, wishes to announce that a very recent change in law now encourages the acceptance of farm work by old age assistance recipients as such labor is so badly needed. Any old age assistance recipient now working or able and willing to work on farms to help out in the acute farm labor shortage will not have their grant reduced under the amount received in April, 1943, because of agricultural earnings, or canceled unless their circumstances or living arrangements will have changed.

It is hoped that any person receiving old age assistance will earnestly consider accepting farm work, health permitting, and should consult the county office or his caseworker if further explanation is desired.

This liberalized ruling of disregarding income refers only to income from agricultural labor.

By Fern Inman Miles
Happiness comes from within, yet everyone has the power to dispel it in their own two hands, with very little effort. So let's have more smiles to help us through these trying times.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Quick and children, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Kennedy and son, James, Buchanan, spent Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miles and children.

Mrs. Emily Vaughn and mother, Chicago, were here Thursday, looking after their property.

Mrs. Campbell, Chicago, week-ended here preparing her cottage for Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gelow, Three Oaks.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Miles and children took Forrest, Jr., and Miss Aleta Rolf to their local home Saturday to participate in the Berrien County eighth grade commencement exercises.

Wish everyone could have heard Mr. Robert Small's talk, "Forward America," at the above mentioned exercises. Certainly a theme of inspiration.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowling have purchased a new Packard.

Lt. Walter Inman, army air corps, has been transferred from Harlingen, Texas, to Laredo, Texas.

HOLLYWOOD

Build-Up for Uncle's Kids' Bright Ideas in "The Great Gildersleeve"

How two ingenious youngsters campaign to make their uncle the most important man in town, in order to avoid being taken away from him, is the basis of the new comedy feature, "The Great Gildersleeve," based more or less on the radio program of the same name.

Starring Harold Peary in the title role, the film has its locale in the little town of Summerfield, where Gildy himself and crusty old Judge Hooker quarrel over the proper handling of Gildy's niece and nephew Gildy has custody of the pair but the Judge is their legal guardian, and matters reach a point where the youngsters fear they will be taken away from their uncle unless something is done and done quickly.

The picture appears at the Hollywood theatre Friday and Saturday, June 18-19.

Doris Dudley Joins Civilian Plane Patrol

As soon as she completed her current assignment in Columbia's "City Without Men," which features Linda Darnell at the Hollywood theatre Friday and Saturday, June 18-19.

With 184 hours solo flying time to her credit, she applied for active duty in the Civilian Coast Patrol Air Corps, first, brushing up on her flying at the Civilian School in Tucson.

Doris' husband, Captain Jack Jenkins, has been a member of the Ferry Command for more than two years, and presently he is ferrying bombers to Cairo. Before the actress could become actively engaged in the women's air corps, the law required that her children be financially protected, as the job pays only $50 a month.

But with both Skipper and Little Butch working in movies and a guardian appointed for them, Doris was easily able to meet that Civilian Coast Patrol Air Corps requirement.

"They Got Me Covered" Makes the Sixth for Hope-Lamour Team

Pictures with stars in them usually do well at the box offices, but pictures with star-teams do even better. That's why any studio is lucky that has a chance to team Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour together.

The Hope-Lamour duo's latest vehicle, "They Got Me Covered," which Samuel Goldwyn produced for RKO Radio release, is the sixth in which the two favorites have appeared. Sometimes they've had Bing Crosby with 'em, but there wasn't any part for him in this one. It may be seen at the Hollywood theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 20, 21, 22.

The two stars first reached the screen together in "The Big Broadcast of 1938," about five years ago in 1940 they met again in "Road to Singapore," and the following year in "Road to Zanzibar" and "Caught in the Draft." In 1942, being accustomed to roads of some sort, they were discovered in "Road to Morocco," which led them into their present piece of nonsensical entertainment.

"They Got Me Covered" might have been, but wasn't, called "Road to Washington," for most of its hilarious action takes place in the nation's capital, when Bob gets involved up to his ears in a mess of Axis spies. It, like its two predecessors, was directed by David Butler, one of the best comedy directors in the business.

Ann Sothorn, Douglas Teamed for First Time

Whimsical Ann Sothorn and sophisticated Melvyn Douglas are teamed for the first time, in something really new in laugh-making romances, in "Three Hearts for Julia," coming Wednesday and Thursday, June 23-24, to the sordidwood theatre, with the screen's Maizie in a "straight comedy" role, and with some elaborate musical presentations, though the picture is not a musical, embellishing a series of comic situations.

White Studio Nets $100 for USO Fund

The USO benefit staged Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week by the Teresa White Studio was a very fine success, providing an evening of good entertainment and netting over $100 for the cause.

The names of the young performers who helped to make the program a success are: Kenny Clark, Lorraine Sigle, Terry Leazenby, Jimmy Hooker, Janice Mills, Eddy Heilmann, Lee Fryane, Tommy Funeer, Barbara Haas, Janet Letcher, Kathryn Furner, Lee Roti, Phyllis Postlewhite, Barbara Boast, Shirley Caste, Eloise Young, Gladys Dame, Rollando Brado, Jean Dokey, Shirley-Nordin, Sue Ann Markham, Sandra Hanlin, Dee Ann Calbetzor, Ray Blotli, Mary Ann Haag, Geraldine Flanagan, Doris Dokey, Ronny Lewis, Sonny Ritter, Tommy King, Charles Haffner, Sharon Ritter, Nancy Sue Lauer, Patty Ritter, Eddie Poorman, Nancy Bristol, Janet Lee Edberg, Barbara Martin, Patsy Quinn, Wanda Ott, Eileen Thompson, May Lou Carbon, Rosa Lee Hall, Kathleen Quinn, Jean Simpson, Janet Beck, Maxine Heilmann, Joanne Forthman,

New Shoe Stamp Good Until Oct. 31

The office of piee administration (OPA) announces that the new shoe ration stamp which became valid Wednesday must last through October 31.

The stamp is No. 18 in the sugar-coffee book. Stamp 17, first of the shoe ration stamps, expired Tuesday night.

The new stamp will have to last for four and one half months, which is 11 days longer than stamp 17. However, OPA said that the dates were in line with the policy of providing an average of three pairs per person per year.

As in the case of stamp 17, stamp 18 will be transferable within a family so that, for instance, a parent who does not need his stamp may use it for a child.

The announcement disposed of unofficial reports that OPA would encourage the use of the No. 18 stamp for the purchase of white summer shoes. While OPA has no objection to anyone buying any kind of shoes he prefers, it made it plain it is not providing any extra stamps for such a purpose.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"How about joinin' us in a game, Judge? ... I'll drop out for a while."
"Sorry, Phil, but I can't today... I'm on my way up to the hospital to see how Frank's wife is coming along. I just dropped by to give you the answer to that question you asked me about synthetic rubber yesterday in the barber shop. I looked it up and found out that the beverage distilling industry's facilities for producing grain alcohol make it possible to include 200,000 tons of rubber from grain in the government's 870,000 ton synthetic rubber program."
"I also verified the fact that no distiller is making whiskey today. They all stopped making whiskey last year and are working night and day, 7 days a week, producing war alcohol for the government... for smokeless powder, chemical warfare materials, medical supplies, as well as for synthetic rubber. It's a mighty good thing these distilleries were in existence ready to do this important job."

Murdock Calls For Better Help in Second Drive

First Drive Not Marked by Good Results

During the first week in May the first tin can campaign was carried on. It was not as successful as it should have been. The south Berrien county area did fairly well. Nearly a car load was collected. In the north Berrien area where the larger population is only about two-thirds of a car load was collected.

All people of the county should continue to save and prepare cans for the next drive. It takes little effort to save and prepare them. The salvage of the cans means a great deal nationally. It must be remembered that only 44 tons of the 109,000 tons used last year were produced in continental America. To get the tin needed for this year it will be necessary to obtain it from salvage. Household, restaurant owners and others should feel it a patriotic duty to take an active part in this salvage.

The second tin salvage collection will take place about Sept. 15. As far as is known now, the collection will be made in about the same manner as before. People should read newspaper articles carefully so as to know what to do with the cans at collection time.

Keep Milking Machine Clean
Both motor and pump of the milking machine should be in a clean dry place and far away from the dust of hay and grain.

He wrote that he had received a gift of $20 in money given by the men at the shop. You can be a "GOOD NEIGHBOR" on your party line, too!

If you were acquainted with the other folks on your telephone party line, the chances are you'd find them good neighbors—people you'd like.

And being "good neighbors" is mighty important these days, because more and more people are sharing party lines. When each person on a party line is considerate of the others, everybody has better service.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

A GOOD-NEIGHBOR CREED

A good party line neighbor thinks of it this way: "Somebody else on my line may be waiting to make a call, so I won't talk any longer than I have to. When the line is in use and I'm waiting my turn, I won't interrupt. When I finish a call, I'll make sure I've hung up properly, because if one instrument is left 'off the hook' it puts all the telephones on the line out of service."
