THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I don't blame the fellows overseas for gettin' all het up over it, Judge. For the likes of me I can't see what's all the hurry about holdin' these local prohibition elections while they're away."

"I agree with you, Steve. Time after time... in their letters, in articles, in polls taken to get the views of our fighting men... they have indicated an unmistakable trend that they don't want any action taken on prohibition, either local or national, until they get back."

"Too bad there isn't a law or somethin' to be sure their wishes are carried out, Judge."

"There is in one state I know of, Steve. Just recently it passed a law prohibiting the callin' of any prohibition election until a year after the peace is declared."

"That really makes sense to me, Judge."

Farming Is Business

Modern farming is distinctly "business," with all of the requirements of capital, credit and other facilities which a bank can furnish.

And supplying of such facilities is our business. We will be happy to meet any of the farmers of this community at our bank to talk over with them their banking needs.

Sees Shakespeare's Plays Performed at Home of Dramatist. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Willard have received the following letters from their son, M/Sgt R. L. Willard in England. June 15, 1944, England. "I had the thrill of a life time yesterday. I went to Shakespeare's home Stratford on Avon, and saw the local production of Macbeth. It was wonderful. Of course being right in his home town enhanced the whole thing. We wandered around town and took in practically everything of interest. All of the old buildings are still standing. One place was built in 1490 and there are others that date back from that time. There is an old church that was built in 743 A. D. and shows all the types of architecture from that time as parts were added. We're going back and see his birthplace, his wife's home, Anne Hathaway, his mother's home, and several other interesting spots. They are having a Shakespearean festival and producing all of his plays so we are going back and see at least one more. I hope "The Taming of the Shrew" and "A Midsummer Night's Dream." I thought of you a lot. Dumb and how much she would have enjoyed it all. She introduced me to Shakespeare and built my appreciation for his works. I'm so thrilled by it that I'll probably be mentioning it often."

Pots Too Big For Mert
Mi and Mrs Don Hanlin have recently received the following letters from their son, Meiton Lee Hanlin, now serving as gunner on a Merchant Marine ship on the Atlantic.

I don't know when this letter will reach you, but from now on I'm going to write you one letter each day. So when we are able to move them, you'll get a lot at one time. You ask me if there is anything you can send me. Well, there is—magazines and books. Where we are now it is real cold at night.

We sleep like logs. I'm gaining weight and I've added a few inches to my height. I measure about 6 feet 1 1/2 inches, couldn't feel better and hope everyone at home is the same. In the Merchant Marines mess with pots running from $100 to $200. Boy, that's not for me! One guy lost $1,000 last night. We listen to the Japs broadcast.

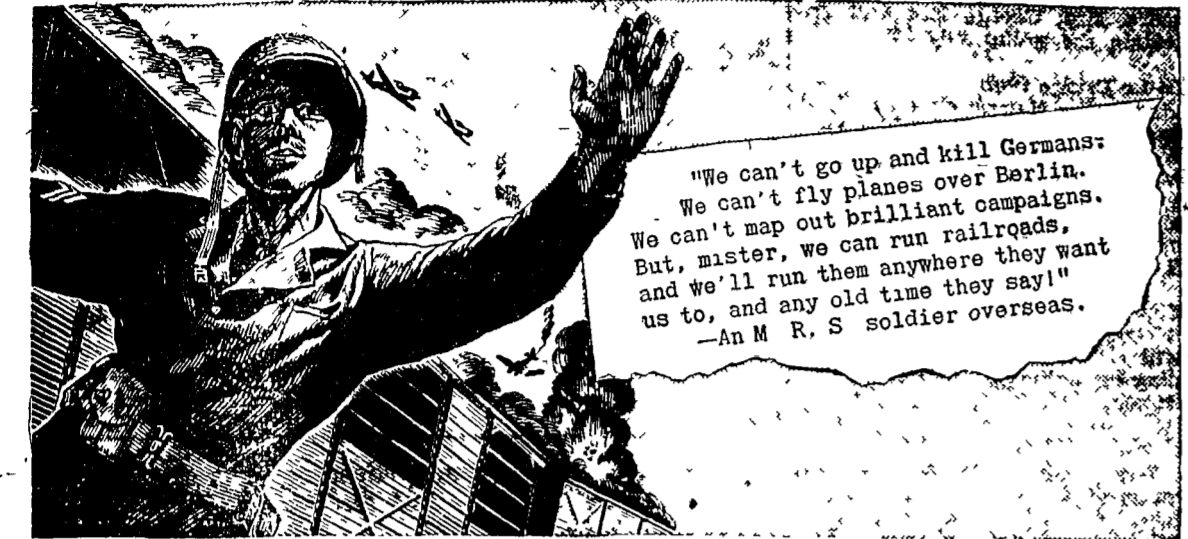

They have Jap music on the radio and it sounds like little kids pounding on tin cans. Love, Mert. Paul Arnold, G M 2/c and his wife, the former Miss Evelyn Quinn of Gretna, Iowa, are visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. James McCarty, 808 N. Main St. Paul leaves soon for overseas duty.

Keith Bunker writes that he is "somewhere in France" serving with an engineer aviation fire fighting squadron, or in shorter parlance, in a "carsh" unit. His job is to go to the location of plane crashes to extinguish possible fire.

Alaska. Sgt. Franklin had been in Alaska two years, serving most of the time as secretary to a chaplain. He is now awaiting re-assignment. Theodore Upham, son of Mr and Mrs Clifford Upham of Portage Prairie, recently returned to Princeton University, Princeton, N. J. where he is taking special military training as an electrical engineer.

working hard, and getting the Record, in bunches. Mrs. Fred Welch reports that her son, Richard Welch, went into France on June 17, with his medical unit, and writes that he is "living in foxholes." Sgt. Harry Frew has been transferred from Camp Barclay, Texas, to Camp Gruver, Okla., where he is working in a military hospital. Green Tomatoes Full-size green tomatoes may be picked to ripen in storage at ordinary room temperature. "We can't go up and kill Germans. We can't fly planes over Berlin. We can't map out brilliant campaigns. But, mister, we can run railroads. And we'll run them anywhere they want and we'll run them any old time they say!" —An M. R. S. soldier overseas.

When they're passing out the medals, they may pass him by. When they're looking for headline heroes, he may be overlooked. But on every battlefield of the war, from New Guinea to Normandy, you'll find him up where the shooting is... rolling supply trains in. He's the G I "boomer"—the soldier-valet of the Military Railway Service. And he risks his neck 24 hours a day to keep fighting equipment on the move. He builds his own tracks when he has to. He repairs his own rolling stock. He runs ammunition, medicine and food right up under the enemy's guns. It's the toughest railroading in the world... and it gets tougher with every mile he moves toward Tokyo and Berlin. Our railroading job over here... the job of backing him up... gets tougher every day, too. For now, in addition to moving more men, more guns, more fighting supplies to embarkation ports, we are faced with a new responsibility—that of carrying the wounded from hospital ships to hospitals throughout the country. And these returning heroes are entitled to first priority on every railway line in America. All this adds up to the biggest job the railroads have ever tackled... And only by even closer cooperation between the railroads and the shippers and receivers of freight... only by even greater understanding on the part of railway passengers... can this bigger job be done.

New York Central ONE OF AMERICA'S RAILROADS — ALL UNITED FOR VICTORY!

Railroad men and women are working to the limit of their capacities. More railroad workers are needed at once. If you are not now employed in essential war work, TAKE A RAILROAD JOB FOR VICTORY!

Bill Strayer, who has been in New Guinea since April with a field artillery unit, recently wrote his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Strayer, that he had been homesick after his arrival, but that he saw "a couple of Clark tractors. They sure looked good. I just stood and looked at them for several minutes and then walked on. Anyway, I'd seen something from home."

Barney Hemminger arrived in Buchanan July 13 for his nine-day leave after completing boot training at Great Lakes. Robert and Dale Hanover, sons of Mr and Mrs Dale Hanover Sr., Portage Prairie, are now cooks on the same coast guard ship on the Atlantic. The brothers have been together except for a few days since enlisting for coast-guard service.

Robert Thurston, son of Mr and Mrs William Thurston, is now stationed in one of the islands of the Marianas in the west Pacific, where he is serving as a cook.

Lt (j g) Harold Knight, U S N, R., has arrived safely in England according to word received by his mother, Mrs Mabel Knight. He is stationed on an escort destroyer.

Morton Hempel, seaman 2/c, returned to Sampson, N Y, Wednesday after spending a five-day furlough with his parents, Mr and Mrs Simon Hempel. Their son, Edward Hempel, boatswain, 2/c, has been promoted to the rank of boatswain 1/c. He is now in a rest camp in America.

Robert Machalack, gunner's mate 1/c who has been stationed in Hawaii, is now located at the U S Coast Guard station in Grand Haven.

Fred Heeter, seaman 2/c of Great Lakes, is spending an 8-day leave with his wife, Ruth, and children.

Frank Forman, hospital apprentice 1/c, of Annapolis, Md., was visiting his mother, Mrs C. P. Forman, while on leave last week.

Pfc George Fitch arrived Tuesday from Camp Bowie, Texas, to spend a 10-day furlough with his parents, Mr and Mrs L. G. Fitch.

Lewis Pascoe, seaman 2/c, came Sunday from Great Lakes, to visit here and in Flint.

Pfc Walter George Snider and family of Cincinnati, O, are visiting his parents, Mr and Mrs Ira Snider, this week.

Pvt. Albert Allis arrived from Camp Chaffee, Ark., last Wednesday to spend a ten day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs Lee Allis.

Irving VanLew, seaman 2/c, returned Saturday to the naval base at Great Lakes after spending a 10-day furlough with his wife, Berta, and children.

Mi and Mrs Chalmers Luke, 209 Lake street, received a cablegram Thursday from their son, Pfc. Richard Luke, who is in a base hospital in England. He was reported by the war department to have been wounded in action in France June 6. He is with the air borne engineers. The cablegram read "Feeling fine, don't worry, letter will follow."

Pvt Burdett Weaver of Camp Blanding, Fla., is spending a furlough with his wife, Ruth and children.

The address of Lt Donald Roti Roti now stationed at Martha's Vineyard, Mass., is as follows: Lt. Donald Roti Roti, VT-87 FPO New York, N Y.

Sgt. John Zachman returned on Sunday to Greenwood, Miss., after spending twenty days with his parents, Mr and Mrs Theodore Zachman. Sgt. William Zachman of Memphis, Tenn. and Cpl George Zachman of Fort Meade, Md., were both here at the same time and have returned.

Victor Vigansky, aviation student, completed his pre-flight college work at Centenary College, Shreveport, La., and has been transferred to Foster Field, near Victoria, Texas, on the Gulf of Mexico, where he is taking his "on-the-line" work. This is an intensive study of airplanes, including the entire mechanism and its operation.

Same Old Tin Cans Master Sgt Ray Juhl writes his parents that he is located on the Adriatic sea toward the "toe of the boot" in Italy. He says that he had visited Maynard Post four times at the time of writing. Post is located a short distance away but cannot get leave. He recently invited Juhl to have dinner with him. Juhl accepted eagerly, hoping to get a change from the tin can variety. However when he got to the mess hall at Post's station, he found the same old tin cans.

Elwood Verguson writes home that he is now stationed on a barren Pacific island (believed to be in the Marshalls), where "if a sharrow lived on grass it would starve to death." There are no natives on the island and in fact nothing for anyone to live on that is not shipped in. However a nearby island is inhabited by natives.

Mrs Ross Lolmaugh has returned from spending a week in Tyler, Texas, visiting her husband, Lt Ross Lolmaugh at Camp Pannin there.

Mrs June Hartline Kerschner left by plane Saturday evening for San Diego, Calif., where she will spend a week with her husband, Edwin J Kerschner, G, M 22/c, whose ship will be stationed there a short time.

Capt John Strayer was graduated a flight surgeon at Peterson Field, Colorado Springs, Colo., on July 15. His brother, Capt Robert Strayer has been transferred from Camp Adair, Ore., to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. Both are sons of Dr and Mrs J. C. Strayer.

Mr and Mrs Leslie Huff have received word from their son, Tom Huff, that he has been transferred from the island of Trinidad off the north coast of South America, to a smaller south of the equator and off the east coast of Brazil.

Lt Henry Knapp writes his parents, Mr and Mrs John Knapp, from the French invasion coast, where he has been working day and night in an army engineering unit since D-Day, June 6. He reported that he had received the gift of a knife from them and could now throw away the knife he had taken from a German. He added that he would appreciate a can of coffee to help with the dry rations he was receiving.

Mrs Charles Zimmerman has received a letter from her son, Sgt. Edward Smith, stating that he is in France, doing clerical work in a truck used for office headquarters by the service company of an armored unit. He stated that he was well, but was living out of tin cans.

Mr and Mrs Lewis Lolmaugh of Terre Coupe road had the pleasure of receiving a letter from a former officer of the L. C. T. boat in which their son, Lyman L. Lolmaugh, serves as machinist. The officer stated that he had been transferred to the United States, but that Lyman had been well when he left. He included a picture of the crew of ten.

Mrs Alice Koons received a letter recently from her great grandson, Charles Garner, serving with a mechanized cavalry unit in France, which stated that he had had the vehicle in which he was riding "shot out from under" him, but was not injured. However he had to walk back through the German lines to his unit. He was shot at by several snipers, but they were wild shots and he arrived unhurt. His home is in Kalamazoo and he was formerly a frequent visitor in Buchanan.

Mr and Mrs. Fred Herman had a recent letter, dated July 3, from their son, Sgt. Arnold Herman, stating that he was then still in England with his field artillery unit, feeling fine in spite of rainy, muddy weather.

Billy Rotzen, son of Mrs Laura Rotzen of Dyton, is a machinist's mate somewhere in the south Pacific. His wife and baby live at Bertrand.

Fred Heeter arrived Saturday from Great Lakes Naval Training Station, after finishing boot training there, to spend a nine-day leave at his home at 412 West Front.

Sgt. Ben Franklin is now stationed at Vancouver, Wash., where he arrived three weeks ago from Well-trained GHOST wants work! THE local Society of Spooks and Spectres blames us for unemployment among its members. They say a ghost has got to have long dark halls to work in and flickering candles to blow out. How can any self-respecting wraith rattle chains or utter mournful moans in a brightly lighted room with the radio playing swing music? Seriously, today's children have little chance to learn the fear of the dark, that once oppressed their elders. They don't know how shivery blackness can be. They never fumbled blindly for a match or felt tremulous relief as the lamp wick caught flame and slowly drove back the shadows. Who's afraid of misty apparitions — with reassuring light always instantly at hand? And just as electricity has all but banished haunted houses, so it has laid the ghosts of many household jobs that once were done by hand. In fact, electricity is so common, so constant today, that most people take it for granted. But the folks who work for this company can't do that. It's their hard work, careful planning and good business management that keep electric service friendly, dependable and cheap — even in wartime. DON'T WASTE ELECTRICITY JUST BECAUSE IT ISN'T RATIONED!
