SUPERMAN
 In 1978, "Superman" was released by Warner Bros and became an impressive memory in the minds of millions of movie-goers
 "Superman" headlined a stellar cast of popular talent Marlon Brando, Gene Hackman, Ned Beatty, Margot Kidder, Jackie Cooper, Susannah York and introduced Christopher Reeve (pictured) as the Man of Steel
 Christopher's description as an 'unknown' at the time of the filming of this spectacular motion picture was not quite true to the fact, as at the age of 24, he had worked more than ten years as a professional actor including a stint on Broadway, and on tour opposite Katherine Hepburn
 "Superman" will air in two parts on ABC-TV, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 7 and Monday, February 8

TATTLETALES

Host Bert Convy leads the festivities on "Tattletales," the lively celebrity game series featuring well-known couples and involving the studio audience each weekday, including THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11 on CBS-TV. Each of three celebrity couples, challenged to guess how their partners will respond to a variety of questions, has a studio-audience rooting section, among whom the winning monies are divided. "Tattletales" rejoined the network this January after it ran for five years previously following its debut in February 1974. CHECK LISTINGS FOR EXACT TIME
