School To Be In Charge Instead of Navy Mothers

State OPA and Michigan School Dept. Asks That Schools Have Charge in All Places

Registration for Ration Book 2, to govern the point program for canned, bottled and frozen fruits and vegetables, juices, dried fruits and all soups, will be held at the Buchanan high school building Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week between the hours of 1 p m and 5 p m to accommodate all registrants of Buchanan and others from adjacent rural areas for whom it is most convenient to register in Buchanan...

This declaration form may be clipped from the Record and filled out beforehand...

1. Pounds of coffee owned on November 28, 1942 minus 1 pound for each person included in Declaration whose age as stated on War Ration Book One is 14 years or older. 2. Number of persons included in this Declaration whose age as stated on War Ration Book One is 14 years or older.

Monday, 1-5 p. m. -registrants living north of Front st. Tuesday, 1-5 p. m. -Registrants living south of Front st.

1. Cut the form out of the paper and fill it out before hand. 2. Follow the time schedule. 3. If you have time and can, volunteer your help as a clerk by telephoning Supt. Stark at Tel. 40.

Be sure to take your Ration Book One with you. Supt. Stark stated that he wishes to thank the Paul E Thurston Navy Mothers club for their offer of assistance and to state that the change was made without prejudice to them but solely because state authorities insisted on uniform school management in Michigan. Any member of the club or any other person may help by volunteering, and their assistance will have a real value to the community by shortening the time lost by Buchanan young people from school for if congestion and lack of help should make it impossible to cover the registration in the three half days indicated above, then it will be necessary to take more time out of school.

Must Declare Cans

Registrants must take with them book No. 1 and before obtaining book No. 2 must fill out and submit a consumer's declaration form on which they declare the number of eight-ounce or larger cans, bottles and jars of commercially packed vegetables, fruits, juices and soups on hand Feb 21, in excess of five per person, and also the amount of coffee on hand Nov 28, 1942, in excess of one pound for every person whose age as shown on Book No. 1 was 14 years or over.

On the basis of the consumer declaration of inventory, one eight-point stamp will be detached from book No 2 for each over the allowable amount of five cans, bottles and jars for each member of the family. The maximum deduction of blue stamps which will be made, however, is 24 per book. (Continued on Page 4)

S. Naval Training Station here today. Eligible for promotion to a petty officer rating, he now awaits assignment to active duty afloat or ashore, or to an advanced service school for further specialized training.

Service school students, selected upon the basis of a series of aptitude tests taken during their recruit training, receive two weeks of intensive instruction in a navy trade under the supervision of experienced chief petty officers.

Party for Soldier A surprise party was given a week ago Friday for Donald Pierce of Bakertown, the occasion being in honor of his induction into the army. About 105 guests attended the event at the Bakertown tavern. It was a strictly Victory affair, with tables decorated in Victory style. The guest of honor received many lovely gifts. Many guests attended from South Bend and St. Joseph. Pierce left the following day for Camp Custer.

Robert Squier at Pre-Flight School Del Monte, Calif.—Robert J. Squier, of Buchanan, Mich., is included in the group of aviation cadets that reported at the Navy Pre-Flight School here last week for three months of rigorous physical training as their first step toward becoming pilots.

Reporting Feb. 4, two days before the school was put into commission, the group constitutes the First Battalion at this, the fifth Pre-Flight School. Others are located at the University of Georgia, Athens, the University of Iowa, Iowa City; St. Mary's College, California, and the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

In addition to a strenuous sports program, the cadets will receive instruction by the military department in precision drill, gunnery, first aid and become cognizant of the duties and responsibilities of a naval officer. In addition, the academic department gives the future fliers courses in essentials of allied and axis planes and ships.

After successful completion of his course here, Cadet Squier will be graduated to a primary training base for additional ground school work and flight training.

BHS Scores Win at New Buffalo, Loss at Dowagiac

Games Here With B. Springs Feb. 26, N. Troy March 5, End Season

(By Jack Greer) Buchanan has scheduled a game for Friday, March 5, with New Troy to be played on the Buchanan court. This game is to take the place of the St. Augustine game which was cancelled because of transportation difficulties.

Buchanan will play the Berrien Springs Shamrocks Friday, Feb. 26, on the local floor. The Bucks journey into Indian territory, on Tuesday, Feb. 9 did not fare out so well as the Dowagiac Chiefs sent them home on a short end of a heart breaking 40-39 count, but then the Maroon team took a little trip to New Buffalo last Friday night and brought back a 53-43 victory.

Against the Bisons, Buchanan stated out in their usual slow manner and were behind 11 to 9 at the end of the first quarter. Trapp, Miller, Topash and Dick Snodgrass accounted for Buchanan's 9 points.

In the second quarter the scores were just reversed as the Bucks got 11 and New Buffalo 9. Dretzler, Trapp, Miller, Bachman and "Boob" Topash did all of Buchanan's scoring that quarter to gain a 20-20 tie at the half.

After a few words of instruction by Coach Art VanRyzan during the intermission, the Buchanan thin-clads, using a more defensive held the Bisons to 7 points while collecting 18 on the sharpshooting of "Zook" Trapp, Miller, Snodgrass and Topash.

Led by Dretzler with 6 points and Topash with 3, Buchanan scored 15 points in the final quarter to win 53 to 43.

For Buchanan the defensive playing of Trapp and Topash was the highlight but for New Buffalo it was the play Deaneer and Toffelmire, who were assigned to guard Pete Dretzler and who held him to 8 points High point man for Buchanan was Jack Miller, with 12 points. The Buchanan second team lost its game to Dowagiac by a score of 25-16 and again lost to New Buffalo 25 to 24. This last game was decided by the point system as the teams battled through two overtime periods and still came out with the score tied.

The defeat at the hands of Dowagiac was a hard pill to swallow for Buchanan as it was the first loss in 8 starts. Buchanan was behind 13 to 11 at the end of the first quarter, 25 to 15 at the half, and 30-25 at end of third quarter.

Dretzler was high scorer for both teams with 15 points, scoring 10 of them in the fourth quarter in a vain attempt to overcome Dowagiac's lead. Topash was next for Buchanan, scoring 9 points.

White Red Maple Groves The red maple grows from Canada to Florida and westward to Wisconsin, Iowa and Texas. It is an exceptionally brilliant tree, putting out red flowers early in the spring. In the fall the leaves turn a brilliant red or crimson. Red maple reaches its best development in Kentucky and Tennessee and nearby states. It grows best in damp soil, but is not a rapid grower. Average mature trees are about 70 feet high and two feet in diameter. In the extreme South red maple becomes a swamp tree and is frequently found in the water locations associated with black gum.

School Teachers May Join WAAC's School teachers can now enroll in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps and wait until the end of the current school term for reporting to active duty, it was announced today by Lt Col Aiche B Whitlow, western Michigan recruiting officer. Teachers who enroll under this plan, however, will be given no assurance of how long after the year ends they will receive their active duty assignment. Many teachers have already enrolled in the WAAC's at Kalamazoo and are now stationed at a training center, leaving a substitute to carry on at home. Others, bound by contract, have been unable to do so. Teachers have been given this deferment as are the college girls because of their recognized interest in the women's army. "The need for WAAC's is acute," Colonel Whitlow stated. "Many women do not realize the serious, urgent need for the women's army. It offers women a chance to serve their country to its best advantage in a patriotic way that has no peer."

Opportunities in the rapidly expanding feminine army are still many and varied. Chances for advancement are excellent. Starting as a $50 a month Auxiliary, a WAAC can receive specialized training and earn up to $138 monthly as a non-commissioned officer. Commissioned officer pay starts at $150 a month plus full maintenance. Women, 21 to 44, in good physical condition, of average intelligence and who have no dependent children below 14 years of age may enroll. Information on the enrollment procedure may be secured from local information centers or Kalamazoo WAAC headquarters.

Morse an Artist Samuel Morse, inventor of the telegraph, studied painting and sculpture in England and opened a studio at Boston in 1815. Indifferent success led him to travel as a portrait painter. In New York he became more successful and was elected first president of the National Academy of Design.

Youth Council Party Is Guest South Bend 'Y'

Learn Table Tennis From Ind. Tournament Winners to Promote Better Game Here A party consisting of 15 members of the Buchanan Youth Council was the guest of the South Bend Y.M.C.A. on Friday evening, the two and one-half hours in the Y.M.C.A. building being spent in intensive coaching in table tennis by the instructor, John Varga, and by five South Bend boys who had won places in the city tournament.

The party went at the invitation of J. Z. Nebbergall, general secretary of the South Bend Young Men's Christian Association. Fifteen boys and girls formed the party, under charge of Walter C. Hawes of the Youth Council board. They left Buchanan at 7:20 p.m. by the People's Rapid Transit bus, which delivered them at the door of the Y.M.C.A. building. There they were met at the door by Mr. Nebbergall, who conducted them to the table tennis club rooms in the basement.

There John Varga, formerly rated as the best table tennis player in Indiana, and instructor at the Y.M.C.A. for the past eight years, took the young people in charge. In the time stated Varga has built up some fine players who have dominated the Indiana state tournaments, sweeping nearly all places for several years. A selection of these boys alternated in playing with the Buchanan young people, instructing them in playing technique. The purpose of the trip was to promote more intelligent use of the equipment of the Buchanan Recreation Room. The guests left unwillingly at 10:20 p.m. after an evening of excellent coaching, caught the bus to Niles, and returned home by the Buchanan-Niles industrial bus bringing workers to the midnight shift at the Clark Equipment company.

V. L. Coonfare Is Coach, Repair Man In Recreation Room Among the fortunate things which have happened to the Buchanan Youth Council Recreation room has been Rev. V. L. Coonfare, who has proved that he is a first rate repair man and an excellent game coach. Coonfare has given a number of evenings to coaching games. He has been an untiring advocate of high standards among boys, including opposition to smoking, but he takes the stand that the old objections to pool were mistaken and that it is a fine game of skill, no more harmful than marbles. He has been able to very definitely improve the game played by the young novices, both boys and girls, and in improving their game, he has been able to help very materially in conserving the equipment. He has also saved the Youth Council very materially by numerous repair jobs, as he has a good array of tools which he uses with competence.

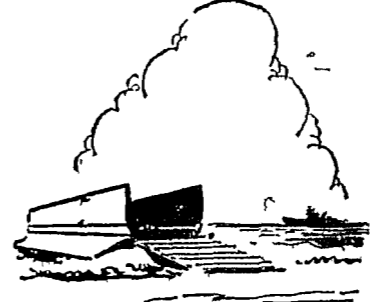

These Are Hard Days For Local Feathered Friends A friend of the Record called the office Saturday and asked why this publication had not advertised the Buchanan community for the graph during continued periods of snow when the normal supplies of food for the feathered population may be covered. The writer knows of some local people who keep the birds in mind in weather such as has prevailed here. But if there are others who would profit by a reminder that we have overlooked giving up to now, we hereby correct that oversight and hope that it is not too late. After all, it might take your mind off your troubles.

PTA, Band Boosters Have Joint Project If you have been up town on Tuesday afternoons, during the last three or four weeks, you may have been a little curious if you saw ladies "trekking" toward the Youth Council Recreation hall. You may even have suspected that these mothers were hustling their brush up on their game of pool, but such was not the case. Their pockets contained needle, thread, thimble, and scissors. One lady even brought her electric sewing machine. Who were these women? They were representatives of two local organizations, namely the Parent-Teacher Association and the Band Boosters. What were they doing? They were making curtains for the Recreation hall. Since the two organizations, above named, had vowed to assist the Youth Council, their committees agreed to work together on this project. The ladies state that the curtains are almost completed, and that they are on the last mile. Judging from the length of the windows, they probably meant the preceding statement literally.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Down in the Solomons and on the African coasts the Crocodile Boat or tank lighter played a most important role in landing our invasion armies. These self-propelled, light, fast boats haul tanks, artillery and other equipment from the big ships off-shore to the beach-heads.

We need more and more of them, for they are essential to the successful operation of the war. They are made in several sizes from small fifty-footers, costing about $2,400, to the big 500-tonners costing around $37,000. Your purchase of War Bonds every payday will help pay for them. Explains Reason of Miscarriage of Soldier's Mail Enormous Congestion Reported in Army Post Offices The Buchanan post office has shared with all other American post offices the extra burden arising from the increased flow of mail between the soldiers and the home front, and also the burden of the misunderstanding over the cause of failure of mail to reach soldiers. A common question, according to Postmaster A. G. Haslett, is, "The mail my boy writes me always reaches me, so why doesn't mine reach him?" There are a number of reasons, but outstanding is the fact that the soldier is constantly shifting, and that the problems of following him up with his mail is in the hands of comparatively inexperienced mail clerks in the army and navy forces. The mail congestion is reported to be enormous in practically every camp and military center. The personnel of the army post offices cannot be equal in acquired skill in mail direction to trained and experienced staffs in the civilian post offices, yet they have to handle a situation far more complicated and difficult than that of handling civilian mail. Mail for members of the armed forces is delivered by the postal service to army and navy authorities at post offices in this country or to ports of embarkation when addressed to persons overseas. The postal service then has no further jurisdiction over the mail, and responsibility for its delivery from that point on lies entirely with the army and navy. Likewise, the army and navy handle mail from members of the armed forces until it is delivered to civilian post offices in this country, and the postal service has no jurisdiction over the mail until so received. Army and navy post offices are technically, branches of civilian post offices in this country, but they are not under the jurisdiction of the postal service, being maintained and operated by the War and Navy departments and manned by military and naval personnel. For instance, A.P.O. 1234, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y., would be a branch of the New York post office, although it may be located with troops in Africa or elsewhere. Mail deposited in that post office for delivery in this country would carry the return address of "A. P. O. 1234, New York, N. Y., although it came from abroad, and the postmark on the envelope is placed thereon at the overseas location and not at New York.

Directory service, through which improperly addressed mail is re-addressed and forwarded, is provided by the army and navy. Delays in the mail to the armed forces may be caused by various factors. Transportation of the mail sometimes must be postponed so that more urgent needs for arms, food, or more military and naval personnel may be filled first. Although mails are dispatched at every opportunity, at times the overcrowded facilities cannot accommodate all the mail and it must be held until shipping space is available. Ships must travel in convoys, in the interest of safety, and a convoy can start only when the last ship is loaded and can travel only as fast as the slowest ship in the group—all of which consumes much time. Transfers of personnel from one point to another also add to the time required to mail to catch up with the mail. Censorship, which is done by the Office of Censorship or military authorities, may also cause some delay, although this is held to a minimum. The Post Office Department does not have jurisdiction over the censorship of mail. Ship sinkings by the enemy account for much of the lost mail. Many thousands of letters and packages have been on ships lost by enemy action. Many postal patrons have wondered why there is more rapid and regular mail service from the armed forces overseas than from them. This is because less mail comes from overseas than goes to our armed forces overseas; ships and planes on return trips have more space available, and the location of addresses in this country is more stable than that of overseas personnel. V-mail letters are given priority in transportation by the army and navy over ordinary mail, and, when possible, are sent by plane. Some of the public are under the misapprehension that the post office department can provide the addresses and locations of soldiers, sailors and marines abroad. The postal service has no such records. When it is necessary to obtain such addresses of soldiers—they may be had from the office of the Adjutant General, War Department, Washington, D. C., of sailors, from the Bureau of Naval Personnel, Navy Department, Washington, and of marines, from the Marine Corps Headquarters, Navy Department Building, Washington.

'Pachyderm' From Greek Pachyderm is derived from Greek words meaning thick skin. Here's Proposition (Continued from Page 1) To safety and the care of doctors at the bottom of the track. May the moths of Australia, when they offer up a prayer, mention these unprompted angels with the fuzzy-wuzzy hair. Here is an "Australian newspaper" verse indicative of the attitude of that people toward the American troops. AUSTRALIAN SONG OF THANKSGIVING The Americans have taken All my chewing gum and bacon, And it's hard to find a biscuit for my tea. Though my waist line's getting thinner, As there's no more pork for dinner (The Americans have got them all). Thanks Be! There are things I'd fail to muster From Cape York to far Augusta; No flats, no jam, no girls, no ham for me. But I'll shout despite frustrations, And these manifest privations (The Americans have got them all). Thanks Be! For today I toast Old Glory, And I ponder on the story Of a fleet of Jap ships underneath the sea. Whose designs upon Australia Were translated into failure. The Americans—they Got Them All. Thanks Be! Last comes a verse found on the body of a slain Australian soldier. "By that have faith to look with fearless eyes Beyond the tragedy of a world at strife, And know that out of death and night shall rise The dawn of ampler life. Repose, whate'er anguish rend the heart, That God has given you the pieceless power To live in these great times and have your part In freedom's crowing hour, That ye may tell your sons who see the light High in the heavens—thence heritage to take. 'I saw the powers of darkness take their flight, I saw the morning break!'"

Ration Registration To Be at B. H. S.

(Continued from Page 1) one-half of the total points for a certain period. Should the value of the consumer's supply of processed fruits, vegetables and milk exceed 21 stamps, the surplus will be recorded on the book and additional stamps will be detached from later books. One Sugar for Family Deductions also will be made from book No 1 for every pound of coffee in excess of the allowable one pound per each person who was 14 years or over at the time of registration for book No. 1. Any person may register for his entire immediate family group. Special rules for certain cases have been announced. A person not confined in an institution or not receiving subsistence in organized messes in the armed services, but who will be absent from the family group for more than 30 days, must register for himself. If a consumer is not a member of a family group, he must register and apply for his own book except that applications for minors should be made by the parent, guardian or a responsible person over 18. A consumer is not eligible to obtain book No 2 if he is confined in a hospital, asylum, prison or similar institution, whether public or private, or while he is enrolled in the armed services and is receiving subsistence in organized messes. Consumers who are incapacitated so as to be unable to register for themselves may have registration made for them by responsible adult whom they designate. Extra Points Possible Certain consumers may obtain additional points allowances if the 48 points allowance is not sufficient. Application for additional points must be made to the local war price and rationing board and be accompanied by a doctor's certificate explaining why extra processed foods are needed and stating the amount required. Where such applications are allowed, special certificates, valid for 60 days will be issued. Provision also is made in the regulations for return of books. Within 10 days after the death of a consumer, the person who has the book of the deceased must surrender it to the local board. A consumer confined to an institution for a period likely to be longer than 30 days must return his book to the local board or surrender it to the head of the institution. Anyone inducted into the armed services who will receive subsistence either in organized messes or in kind, must surrender his book to the local board or the induction center. Persons leaving the United States for a period of more than 90 days must surrender book No 2 to the local board.

Soldiers Yield Books Anyone inducted into the armed services who will receive subsistence either in organized messes or in kind, must surrender his book to the local board or the induction center. Persons leaving the United States for a period of more than 90 days must surrender book No 2 to the local board.

Editorial

"Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal"

This is part of the great Gettysburg address by the sixteenth president of the United States, Abraham Lincoln. Everyone should appreciate these words this man has fashioned for us to live by.

Let's show our gratitude for the everyday blessings we daily experience. Don't mumble or grumble about the food that is rationed. Think of the people in war torn Europe who are freezing or perhaps starving to death. We have plenty of food and clothing while people over there haven't any. We must all pitch in and help so we and generations after us can live happy and free lives forever.

So! You Think You're a Genius

If you are one of the rare students blessed with a few of the qualities it takes to make a genius, put those qualities to work in a way that will benefit, to them, to you, and your associates. No one ever got anywhere by being arrogant, telling everyone else how much they know, and how much they can do. On the other hand your qualities can do quite a lot in the way of helping your fellow students. An intelligent and talented person should be humbly thankful for his God-given talents and should help his fellow students instead of uttering a grunt of disgust when asked a civil question, or remarking that "he was too dumb to know if you told him anyway, so why bother with him." It might turn out that you're the dumb one after all.

Mr. Stank went to St. Joe last week to see about organizing a class for citizenship of aliens or a class to help naturalize aliens. This is in reply to several requests.

Grade Students Work in Shop

Perhaps some of you students have noticed strange red and yellow objects in the shop. They are projects made by the second graders. Some of them guns, airplanes and book ends have been built quite well.

Mrs. Lamb Wishes Records

To all students that Mrs. Lamb doesn't have a record of diphtheria immunization and small pox vaccination.

tion will be sent a card to be filled out. The purpose of this card is to complete school and state records.

The small pox vaccinations are not being offered at school at this time. The most recent vaccinations that were given were in April of 1937 and April of 1942.

Recent cases in Gary and Michigan City remind us that there are still many children and adults who have never been vaccinated. It is recommended that people be vaccinated every seven years. A study of history will show the terrible epidemic of small pox in past years.

Lewis and Norman Striegler from Grand Rapids have enrolled in Buchanan High School. Lewis is in the tenth grade and his brother is in the ninth.

The Buchanan Faculty Club held its regular meeting last week with Mr. Ray Miller presiding. Reports from the committees were read and accepted. Miss Dorothy Lovell was elected treasurer to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Helen Smith.

A Pre-Flight Aviation course is now open to Senior boys. Officers have been elected as follows: Pilot, Bill Montgomery; Co-Pilot, Jim McIntire; Bombardier, Herry Arnick; and Navigator, Bob Yoeman.

February

February brings to memory The deeds of eight great men. One of these is Dickens, Who won fame through his pen.

Washington and Lincoln were, As I'm sure you all must know, Two of our greatest presidents, Who loved their country so.

And no one will forget Edison For he helped brighten our home. Not Charles Lindbergh, the aviator Who flew o'er the ocean foam.

Then there is St. Valentine, Beloved through many a year. Teddy Roosevelt, with his big stick, Made his policy clear.

Last, but not least is Longfellow Whose poems brought his fame. So let's be loyal to February, And cherish every name. Nedra Smith, Seventh Grade.

Grade School News

Miss Carnagan's first graders have been writing jingles about each health rule to help remember them. This is the one written about brushing your teeth: Brush, brush, brush, your teeth, Scrub, scrub, scrub your teeth, Up and down and in between. If you want to keep them clean.

Miss Morley's room enjoyed their valentines. Each child had a box for theirs. It was fun to try to read them. Nearly every one had the word valentine on it. The ones that move are the most fun.

In talking about Abraham Lincoln, the children have decided that he must have been a good president. He did so many kind things for other people.

Miss Fritz' children had a valentine party Friday—afternoon. Miss Lamb, Miss Graves, and Miss Brown were guests.

The boys and girls in Miss Kinney's room are reading stories about the people of Lapland and their lives, habits, foods, etc. They are having interesting stories about reindeer, and how valuable they are to the people who live in very cold countries.

The boys and girls enjoyed having Miss Swen visit them last week.

The enrollment in Mrs. Fuller's fourth grade is again forty. Jack Striegler from Grand Rapids is taking Monday. Now there are twenty girls and twenty boys.

The pupils in Miss Ekstrom's fifth grade visited the library this week. The children are reading library books and make reports on them.

Miss Dorothy Lovell's room has begun a contest between the boys and girls in library reading. We have two charts, one with donkeys and carts, and the other with Mexican men with baskets, into which sheets of papers are put for each book read. So far the boys are ahead by one book.

Miss B. Lovell's room had a lovely valentine box. They opened it Friday afternoon.

The fifth grade is preparing talks in history. The talks are about the life in the thirteen colonies.

The children in Miss Ream's room are learning how to divide a whole number by a decimal. We enjoyed the valentine party that we had last Friday afternoon. Miss Alleshouse's room chose new captains and lieutenants. Charles Allsworth was chosen captain and Betty Sue Pendley and Bill Fairman were chosen for lieutenants. We all like to choose captains and lieutenants.

Today we had an arithmetic test.

Dewey Avenue News

In Miss Kappel's third grade we've been busy this week making plans for our valentine party. We've also had some fun making valentines.

The children in Mrs. Wilcox' third grade have been making February calendars, and valentines. We enjoyed the story of "Wallie, the Walrus" which Mrs. Wilcox read to us.

Edanell Earnest has entered Mrs. Home's first grade. Miss Groussing's fourth grade has had fun decorating napkins for its valentine party. The class used plain white paper napkins and worked out interesting heart designs on them. The results were very original, and we're really proud of our work.

In the second grade we are very enthusiastic about our assembly program which is to be given the latter part of this month. We have decided to dramatize "Little Red Riding Hood" and we are all enjoying making plans for giving the play.

The kindergarten children are very much interested in valentines and getting ready for a little party tomorrow.

HOLLYWOOD

Most Thrilling of Scattergood Baines Series. Guy Kibbee essays his popular role of Scattergood Baine for the fifth time in "Scattergood Survives a Murder." In this new RKO Radio production, however, Kibbee sheds his guise of storekeeper for a clever and successful fang at amateur detective work. The story's action stems from the mysterious murder of two aged spinsters who will their entire fortune to a house cat. When Kibbee discovers that the recluses' demise wasn't accidental, he contrives a clever plan whereby the culprit unwittingly reveals himself as the murderer. In the meanwhile, Kibbee manages to cast suspicion on a half dozen other people, until he is able to gather enough evidence to trap the guilty one. John Archer and Margaret Hayes are seen as the romantic leads, in support of Kibbee, in "Scattergood Survives a Murder." Others in the cast are such well-known performers as Wallace Ford, Willie Best, John Miljan, Spencer Char- ters, Florence Lake and Ely Mal- you.

"Scattergood Survives a Mur- der" was directed by Christy Car- banne from the screenplay by Michael L. Simmons. Jervald T. Brandt produced the film. The pic- ture appears at the Hollywood Theatre Friday and Saturday, Feb. 19-20.

Love Me, Love Juanita

Pretty Rita Quigley is living for the day when her kid sister, Juanita, will appear in a film with her, as her kid sister. Rita has played Juanita grown up once or twice, but not Juanita's older sister.

At the moment Rita is appear- ing in Paramount's comedy, "Hen- ry Aldrich, Editor," showing at the Hollywood Theatre Friday and Saturday, Feb. 19-20, and if she has her way there'll be a part for her kid sister in the next Aldrich Family film for which she is sched- uled.

It was while Rita was taking care of her sister some eight years ago when Juanita was only two years old, that she became fam- ilar with picture-making. For six years, Rita took care of Juanita in studios and didn't miss a trick while she was nursemaid. She kept her eyes open for an oppor- tunity to slip into a picture and finally did, in M-G-M's "Susan and God." But Rita, who feels she owes her movie career to her kid sister, won't be really happy until they're cast together — as sisters.

Meanwhile, she's advancing her own career considerably as Henry Aldrich's girl friend in "Henry Aldrich, Editor."

Battle Royal Rivals

A highlight of Metro-Goldwyn- Mayer's "A Yank at Eton" is a battle royal to rival the famed William Farnum-Tom Santschi fight of "The Spoilers" and the Clark Gable-Spencer Tracy melee in "Boom Town." Wrecker-in-chief of the scene is Mickey Rooney.

Mickey leads twelve Hollywood juveniles against four adult "heavies." The result is both thrill- ing and hilarious, as all Buchanan theatre goers may see at the Hollywood theatre Sunday, Mon- day and Tuesday evenings, Feb. 21-22-23.

The youngsters, as Eton stu- dents, are trying to kidnap the proprietor of a roadside inn, his testimony being needed to clear Mickey in a scrape at school. In the resultant fracas, caution, and everything else, is thrown to the four winds.

At the end of eight days, the time required to film the scene, all these were smashed to smithereens. To add to the comedy, most of the action found five-foot-two- inch Rooney opposing six-foot- eight-inch Allan Napier.

Most exhausted person at the end of the battle, however, was Property Man Harry Edwards. It was his job to supply and main- tain, as much as possible, all the "weapons," plus fifteen dozen towels for cleaning up purposes.

"Across The Pacific" Coming to Hollywood "Across the Pacific," Warner Bros. adventure picture about a ruthless attempt by would be Jap saboteurs to blow up the Gatun Locks of the Panama Canal, will be at the Hollywood theatre Wed- nesday and Thursday, Feb. 24-25. The picture reunites the quartet which made "The Maltese Fal- con" the hit it was — Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor, Sydney Greenstreet and Director John Huston. "Across The Pacific" starts its engagement on Friday. Richard Macaulay did the screen- play from the Saturday Evening Post serial by Robert Carson.

Victory begins on the Home Front -

YOU boys and girls take charge of processing the tin cans in your home—save fats and turn them in to the butcher.

Best of all, take over some of Mother's work so that she can do her share of war work. Electrical appliances make it easy and we will do our best to back you up with plenty of juice to run them.

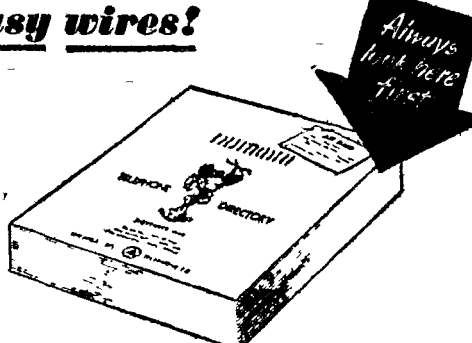

Man power shortage, rubber scarcity, gas rationing and all of the other restric- tions necessary in Wartimes naturally "cramp our style," but the cheerful co-operation of our customers of all ages inspires every effort possible, and, with your help we will carry on. One thing the Axis can't take away from us—we have more power in the U. S. A. than in all the Axis countries combined! And five times as much as we had ourselves in World War I.

Take good care of your Electric appliances—let them help you for Victory.

Warren K. Schultz, who was one of a group of American technicians who engineered the great tractor works at Stalingrad, center of the fighting in the great battle recently completed, was the speaker at the dinner meeting of the Buchanan Business and Professional Women's Club at the Methodist church Monday night. Schultz and his wife lived in Stalingrad for nearly a year, and also in Moscow and other Russian cities for a shorter period. He gave an interesting description of Russian life and assessed the qualities of the Russian character which have enabled them to stand against the Germans.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR MEAT GO FURTHER

Nutrition authorities say that Mrs. American Housewife's job of feeding her family is one of the most important in the war effort. For nourishing food is going a long way toward building strength and morale on the home front. At the same time, women are being called upon to conserve food as a war measure. This means they must use every ingenuity to eliminate waste and get the most out of the food they buy. How to make their meat go further seems to be a subject of special interest, since building meals around this food is an American tradition. So home economics experts have come to the rescue with all sorts of ideas and recipes designed to extend the meat purchase as far as possible. Here are a few of many practical ideas along this line.

BEEF BRISKET
First meal. Brisket cooked with beans is a delicious dish for the first serving. The beans are soaked over night and brown sugar, onion and seasonings added, then placed in a covered kettle with brisket on top. Brisket and beans should be covered with water and cooked in a moderate oven for about three hours.

Second meal. Broiled toastwiches suggested for the second meal, are prepared by slicing left-over brisket and making into sandwiches. The sandwiches are dipped in beaten egg and milk—and broiled until brown.

Third meal. The left-over meat from the brisket may be ground and combined with boiled rice and seasonings to make a stuffing for green peppers. These are baked in a hot oven until done—about 45 minutes.

BLADE END OF PORK LOIN
First meal. Blade end of the pork loin is excellent for a roast. The end cut is lower in price than the center cut. Roasting is easy when a few simple rules are followed. The roast should not be covered and no water added. A low temperature saves both meat and fuel. A bread dressing, shaped in balls and placed around the roast half an hour before it is done, will extend the servings. This roast requires 30 minutes per pound.

Second meal. The cold slices of meat may be delicious heated in barbecue sauce.

Third meal. The remaining lamb "bits" may be ground and mixed with cooked oatmeal, an egg and seasonings to make Scotch Pancakes for supper or for breakfast.

Sorority to Meet
Mrs. Wm. Gnodtke will be hostess to members of B.G.U. sorority Tuesday evening.

Rebekah Lodge
Regular meeting of Bay Leaf Rebekah lodge will be Friday evening in the I.O.O.F. hall. Mrs. Frank Hickok, chairman of the committee for the social hour, will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Barrett, Mrs. W. S. Crull and Mrs. Gertrude Cook.

Men's Brotherhood Meets
Thirty-seven attended the dinner meeting of the Men's Christian Brotherhood in the Church of the Brethren Tuesday night. Rev. G. W. Phillips, pastor of the church, presided. Mrs. Velma Dunbar presented a talk on "The Things Worth Remembering." Rev. Malcolm L. McNeal conducted the devotional.

Royal Neighbor Club
The Royal Neighbor club met Tuesday night in the Woodmen hall. Contest prizes were won by Mrs. Bert Fowler, Mrs. Nora Miles, Mrs. Albert Decker, Mrs. Gerald Mitchell, Mrs. Floyed Antidel, Mrs. George Barmore, Mrs. Earl Beck, Mrs. J. C. Ovington and Mrs. Lester Mitchell. The next meeting of the club is set for March 2.

Attend Manager's Meet
Robert Koengshof and Rex Milhon attended a dinner meeting of managers of Berrien County Co-operatives in the Waincomb hotel, St. Joseph, Wednesday.

Birthday Club Meeting
Mrs. Mary Eckler and Mr. and Mrs. Ethel Gutschmitter, Niles, attended a meeting of the Birthday club Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tebedo, Sawyer.

Methodist Service Society
The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon in the church. Rev. Norman Klump spoke on "A Christian's Responsibility for a Just and Durable Peace." Mrs. J. C. Coleman led the devotionals. The committee included Mrs. Harold Mann, Mrs. J. R. Semple, Mrs. William Letter, Mrs. Charles Hess, Mrs. Bert Montgomery and Mrs. Jay Woolley.

Attend Orchestra Concert
Mr. and Mrs. John Giver chaperoned a party of young people to South Bend Monday evening to hear Lawrence Welk's orchestra at the Palace Theatre. Those attending were Mrs. Robert Taylor, Miss Rozella Chilson, Miss Betty Bristol, Miss Mildred Miller, Miss Dorothy Hawk, Miss Betty Allen, Lynette Giver and John Giver, Jr.

Rambler's Club
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Neib, of Niles, were hosts to members of the Rambler's club Tuesday night at a 7 o'clock dinner. Prizes at 6:00 were awarded to Mrs. Glenn Hasett and Howard Smith. The club will meet March 6 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Steinbauer, Bend of the River.

Birthday Dinner
Mrs. Carl Remington was hostess at a dinner party Sunday evening honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Morley Myers.

C. J. L. Book Club
Miss Helen Graves was hostess to the C. J. L. Book Club Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Susan Curtiss.

Double Birthday Observance
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Juhl, Jr. and Mrs. Charles Babcock and Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Swartz attended a dinner party Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lorenson, Niles, which honored the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Juhl and Mrs. Lorenson.

B. & P. W. Club
Buchanan Business and Professional Women's club had a dinner meeting Monday night in the Methodist church parlors. W. K. Schultz, engineer at the Clark Equipment company spoke on "Russia." Members planned an "International Day" tea to be Sunday, Feb. 28 in the home of Mrs. May Desenberg, West Front street. Following the tea there will be a panel discussion on, "Problems We Will Face After the War." New members attending for the first time were Aris Fairman, Andrea Wright and Myrtle Reinke. During the business session reports were made by chairmen of various committees. Plans were also made for "International Day" tea and arrangements were made for a discussion of "Plans For World Peace" to be held Sunday afternoon, Feb. 28, at the home of Mrs. L. M. Desenberg.

Family Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rouse had as their guests at dinner Sunday the latter's mother, Mrs. Emma H. Coombs of Sturgis, a brother, Amos Coombs and wife of Centreville, and another brother, Walter Coombs and wife of South Bend.

Contract Bridge
Mrs. Lloyd Sands entertained at contract bridge Tuesday evening, honors going to Mrs. George Denning and Mrs. D. J. Rouse.

Removal of Buchanan Signs on Highway Causes Confusion

Residents near the intersection of M-60 and the Portage road to South Bend report that the highway signs directing traffic to Buchanan, located on each side of the M-60 approaches, have been removed, occasioning considerable confusion and waste of time and gasoline by truck drivers unfamiliar with the locality and bound to Buchanan on night trips. These drivers often stop and go to nearby houses, arousing the inmates at all hours of the night to find out where Buchanan is. It is believed that the signs were temporarily removed by the snow removal crews because they interfered with the operation of the shovel.

Niles All-Stars Trim Buchanan 5 30-20

The Niles All-Star team defeated the local cagers Tuesday night at the Niles gym 30-20. Crocher, Niles center, topped the scoring honors with 16 points, Hemphill lead the locals with 9. Buchanan players were Hemphill and Jetter, F. Huss, C. Rouch and Donley, G.

substantial change in gasoline needs, the person may be asked to fill out the regular application form for new rations. In all cases of irregularity, applicants may be requested to appear personally, before the board issues a new book.

Women Can Build Novel Book Cases

Bricks and boards in the hands of Michigan farm women are emerging as bookcases and toy shelves in many homes this year. Besides being inexpensive they are easy to make, for no nails are used and they simply build up as you go. "Streamline your living for efficiency," says Ruth Peck, office manager at College specialist in home furnishing. "Put away the dust catchers and catch up on important war work." Miss Peck advises homemakers to provide a place for things as an aid to helping the family.

Members of home economics extension groups are finding materials right at home in the form of unused boards and either white or red bricks. The boards often come from the head of an old wooden bed that is beheaded to resemble the modern Hollywood style. The building of the book shelves is simple. Two bricks on the floor under each end of the first board form the base; the space between the next is determined by the size of books or objects to place on them. Five or six bricks high is usually ample. Modern touch is easy when either soft or hard wood boards are bleached, sanded satin smooth, waxed and then used with creamy white bricks. Red bricks add color to make a cheerful corner with gay backs of books and magazines or bits of pottery and trailing green vines for war time or a little time for the family besides providing added space.

Standard Oil Has Developed New Way of Making Neohexene

Edward G. Seubert, president of Standard Oil Company (Indiana) announced today that a "new and excellent" process for the manufacture of neohexene has been developed in Standard's laboratories. The development is important, he said, in connection with the petroleum industry's undertaking to supply increased quantities of high-octane fuels for the allied air forces.

Neohexene is one of the almost innumerable combinations of carbon and hydrogen atoms obtainable from petroleum. Like iso-octane it will burn without knocking in high compression engine cylinders. On this account it is regarded as one of the best materials to blend with other petroleum derivatives to make fuels for high-powered airplanes. Since neohexene occurs in crude petroleum in very limited quantities, if at all, it must be made synthetically. In this new process atoms of other and more common hydro-carbons are shoved around by the methods known best to chemists and refinery technologists to arrange them in the pattern which distinguishes neohexene.

In the past the transformation has not been an easy or cheap one. While the new process discovered in Standard's laboratories will not by any means make neohexene as abundant or cheap as ordinary gasoline, it does offer promise, Mr. Seubert said, for increasing economically the quantity and the quality of high octane aviation fuels.

The new process resulted, according to Standard, from further aviation gasoline work made largely by mixing or blending several agents, which have extremely high anti-knock properties, with virgin naphthas, with relatively much lower anti-knock qualities. However, the available or obtainable quantity of the higher-octane ingredients was strictly limited. Naphthas were available in quantities practically unlimited. When the isomate process came along and made it possible to improve the quality of the naphthas it also made it possible to make larger quantities of the final, blended aviation fuels with the limited stocks of high-octane materials. Now that the quality of aviation gasoline must be improved the neohexene process offers means of increasing production of aviation fuels still further by facilitating the manufacture of a high quality light component needed to blend with the heavier blending agents required for the new type of aviation fuel.

Details of the new process will not be made public, Mr. Seubert stated, owing to government secrecy restrictions applicable in war time. With the approval of appropriate authorities, however, essential information concerning it is available to companies now manufacturing or contemplating the manufacture of 100-octane aviation gasoline, so that the advantages the process offers can be taken into account and utilized for the benefit of the air forces with the least possible delay. The new process can also be used for the manufacture of iso-pentane, the company statement added. Iso-pentane is a hydrocarbon extensively utilized in high-octane fuels. It has been obtained, for the most part, from natural gasoline.
