LEE STRASBERG (1901 - 1982)
 "American culture is very powerful today all over the world. That is something most Americans don't realize, because we are used to thinking in terms of industrial power or a general sense of power. We have never quite realized the real power--culture."

The Buchanan Community Center for the Arts'

LEE STRASBERG

Memorial Season

We are proud to dedicate our premiere season to Lee Strasberg, one of our country's great cultural influences.

Strasberg's work, through The Actor's Studio, has developed performing artists such as James Dean, Paul Newman, Marilyn Monroe, Marlon Brando, Susan Strasberg, and Anne Bancroft.

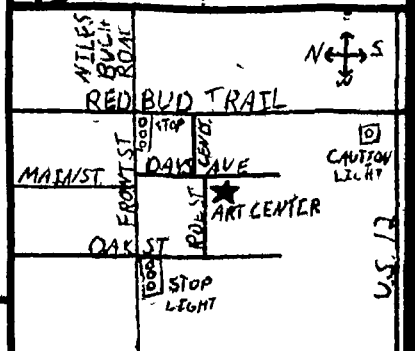

In an effort to emulate the high standards of art Lee Strasberg stood for, the films in our season feature actors that have studied at The Actor's Studio.

Quality art is the legacy that Lee Strasberg left behind. This legacy is the artistic premise of The Buchanan Community Center for the Arts.

The Buchanan Community Center for the Arts is run under the auspices of The Buchanan Area Fine Arts Council, The Buchanan Area Foundation, and The City of Buchanan.

Curtain time for all productions is 8:15 pm, except Sunday at 3:00 pm.
