LIFE ON THE OCEAN WAVE.

"A Life on the Ocean Wave!" The man who wrote it was green: He had never been to sea, And a storm he had never seen.

He had never been aroused From the morning's gentle doze By the sound of splashing water As it fell from the horrid hose!

He had never heard a man Scrubbing right over his head With a noise sufficient to rouse From their graves the slumbering dead.

He had never seen a fat woman Growing thinner every day, And leaning over the vessel's side, And throwing herself away—

While people look carelessly on, Though in tears the woman may be, And unfeeling say it is nothing at all But the rolling of the sea.

And, oh! he has never been sea sick, And crept into bed with his coat, While every motion increased his throes, And his feelings were all in his throat.

The Devil in Kentucky.

Brookville, Ky., Oct. 19, 1868.

A wonderful phenomenon has recently made its appearance on Willow Creek, in Bracken County, about two miles from Brookville, and has been seen by quite a number of the worthy citizens of our county. Our people have been in a constant state of excitement since it first made its appearance.

On the 16th inst., as one of our citizens, a prominent tobacco merchant residing in Brookville, was returning home from the southern portion of the county, where he had been buying some crops of tobacco, and, being belated, was riding along the road, when suddenly he beheld a frightful object in the middle of the road, immediately in front of him. I will give you a description of it as I heard it from his lips.

The object was about six feet in height, and walked upright. The face was at times that of a man, very pale, with curls of flame falling over his shoulders; eyes of sulphurous blue, changing constantly in size, one moment as large as a tin cup, and then gradually decreasing in size, until it was almost invisible. Its arms were those of a man, and hands deadly pale. In one hand it held a torch, and in the other a sword that seemed to be about four feet in length. Its lower extremity was that of a horse. Its tail, which was about three feet in length, was a flame. Its breath was a solid sheet of fire, which vibrated with the heavings of its breast like a pendulum of a clock. It was certainly the most frightful object I ever beheld. It walked off to the side of the road and vanished. When it disappeared I immediately cut spurs to my horse and galloped by the spot where I had seen it. When I arrived to the summit of the hill, about two hundred yards off, I looked back and saw the object in the spot where I first beheld it. I stopped my horse and watched it for a moment; it walked over to the left side of the road, and mounting a rail fence that stood there, commenced running toward me. I did not stay to see the remainder of the drama.

He hastily rode to town, and, having told the adventure to some of the citizens, they immediately formed a party and started out to see the strange visitant. Lawyers, doctors, preachers, and tradesmen, armed with guns and pistols, made their way en masse to the scene of this strange adventure. When they arrived at the spot, some of them beheld the spectre and others could not see it. It was when they saw it on the fence, and, running rapidly along up and down, it passed the crowd for a distance of a quarter of a mile. As it passed the crowd, several fired at it, but without effect.

About 11 o'clock it vanished, and was seen no more that night. Since then it has been seen every night at the same place. Hundreds of visitors have been on hand every night, and the excitement is at a very high state just now, and is increasing. The cause of this is beyond human conjecture. It has only been about a year since it was seen in this county before. The county is astir, and the people are eager to get rid of their unwelcome visitant. This is the whole narrative.

Will not some visitor explain the cause of this wonder? Yours truly, JOSEPH PEYTON.

STATE OF KENTUCKY, BRACKEN COUNTY, s. s.—We, the undersigned, make oath that the above statement is substantially correct, and has been examined by us. LUCIUS LANGDON, JONATHAN SOULE, JAMES S. WOLFE.

Sworn to before me this sixteenth day of October, 1868. JOHN P. JONES, J. P.

Wall Paper.

Twenty-five years ago our markets were mostly supplied with paper hangings by importations from France and England. Printing paper by the hand process was a long, slow and expensive method; but now, by new mechanical methods, 20,000 rolls can be produced, where one thousand could be a quarter of a century ago. There is a manufactory in New York city where 1,700 tons of paper were converted into finished paper hangings last year. The facilities are such that blank paper, as it comes from the mill, can be converted in half an hour into printed wall paper, reeled and ready for the market. In such establishments the first process is to cover the paper with a ground color, preparatory to printing. The patterns are partly furnished by American designers, though many of them emanate from France. These are cut on blocks of wood, which are cylindrical in form for the ordinary kinds of paper. By special arrangements the cylinder machines will print a dozen colors at one operation. The finer grades of hangings are printed by hand presses. Polishing machines impart a satin surface before the figures are printed. Gold and velvet papers are made by first printing the pattern with glue size, and then with varnish or gold size. Colored flock or ground wool sifted over it gives the effect of velvet plush, or by being passed through a bronzing machine the pattern is covered with bronze.

A Hundred Years in Prison.

A certain housebreaker was condemned in the latter part of last century, in France, and, under peculiar circumstances, sentenced to a hundred years in the galley, and, strange to relate, this man recently made his appearance in his own native province at the advanced age of 120 years, he being about 20 years of age when the sentence which condemned him to such a dreadful punishment was passed. It is difficult to conceive what the feeling must have been with which he returned, as soon as emancipated from the shackles which had enthralled him for a century, to breathe once more the cherished air of the scenes of his infancy. Bourg in the department of Ain, was his native home. But time had so changed the aspect of the whole place that he recognized it only by the church of Bron, which was the only thing which had undergone no alteration. He had triumphed over laws, bondage, man, time, everything. Not a relation had he left, not a single being could he hail in acquaintance, yet he was not without experiencing the homage and the respect the French pay old age.—For himself he had forgotten everything connected with his early youth; even all recollection of the crime for which he had suffered was lost or if at all remembered, it was a dreary vision confounded with a thousand other dreary visions of days long gone by. His family and connections for several generations, all dead; himself a living proof of the clemency of Heaven and the severity of man, regretting, perhaps, the very irons which had been familiar to him, and half wishing himself again among the wretched and suffering beings with whom his fate had been so long associated—well he might be called the patriarch of burglars.

A GIRL'S IDEA OF BOYS.—A little girl in Kentucky, at a boarding-school, responded as follows to a note from her father, announcing an interesting event in the family: "My Dear Papa: I was right glad to hear from you, and that you were well; but I did not like it a bit to hear that mother had a baby, because it was a boy baby. I should be glad if it was a little girl, but I hate boys they are not nice—Now I am going to tell you what I want you to name him. I am going to choose a homely name, because I don't think boys ought to have pretty names. Boys are squealing all the time. You don't have one minute's peace while there is a boy baby in the house; but a girl baby is a good thing to have in the house, for it never cries. Name him Yabba Dam; that's good enough for a boy. You must excuse me for writing so much about boys, as the reason is because I don't like boys. My love to Ma, and tell her I hope she will do better next time."

A CURIOUS SENTENCE.—The following curious sentence—"Sator arepo tenet opera rotas" is not first class Latin, but can be freely translated, "I cease from my work; the sower will wear away his wheels." It has these peculiarities: First, it spells forward and backwards the same; second, the first letters of each word spell the first word; third, all the second letters of each word spell the second word; fourth, all of third, and so on through the fourth and fifth; then we find that the last letters of each word spell the first word; the next to the last of each word spell the second word, and so on through.

PHOTOGRAPH BEFORE USING AFTER USING HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer Has stood the test of seven years before the public, and no preparation for the hair has yet been discovered that will produce the same beneficial results. It is an entirely new scientific discovery, combining many of the most powerful and restorative agents in the VEGETABLE KINGDOM. It restores GREY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL YOUTHFUL COLOR. It makes the scalp white and clean; cures dandruff and humors, and falling out of the hair; and will make it grow upon bald heads, except in very aged persons, as it furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft, and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a HAIR DRESSING. It is the cheapest preparation ever offered to the public, as one bottle will accomplish more and last longer than three bottles of any other preparation. It is recommended and used by the First Medical Authority. The Wonderful results produced by our Sicilian Hair Renewer have induced many to manufacture preparations for the Hair, under various names; and, in order to induce the trade and the public to purchase their compounds, they have resorted to falsehood, by claiming they were former partners, or had some connection with our Mr. Hall, and their preparation was similar to ours. Do not be deceived by them. Purchase the original: it has never yet been equalled. Our Treatise on the Hair, with certificates, sent free by mail. See that each bottle has our private Revenue Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations. R. P. Hall & Co., Prop's, Nashua, N.H. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

DEMOCRATIC.—The Democrats of Buchanan and vicinity turned out to a goodly number to attend the Democratic meeting, at Niles, last Friday.

NOTICE.—All persons indebted to the subscribers will confer a favor on us by calling and settling up, as all of our accounts must be settled immediately.

36w3 H. MARHOFF & Co.

BEST PHOTOGRAPHS.—The best and most durable Photographs in the county are taken at Cathart's Gallery for $2 per dozen.

All those wishing to avail themselves of good reading matter cheap, should not fail to get a book from Fitzgerald's Circulating Library.

THE SALOONS.—At the request of some of our Democratic friends the Village Board passed an ordinance requiring all the saloons to keep closed on election day.

NOTICE.—All who are indebted to us are requested to balance their accounts. This cash or note with ample security. It is imperative, we shall carry no balances over this fall. CLARK & ALEXANDER.

FINISHING UP.—Messrs. Collins & Weaver are finishing up the basement story to their new brick block, and also several rooms in the second story. This block, when all finished up, from basement to the Hall, would be a credit to many places of larger pretensions than Buchanan.

DON'T DO IT.—No, don't spend a restless night on a hard bed, when Warren & Parketon are selling a Spring Bed Bottom for $6. Warranted to please, or no sale.

PHOTOGRAPHS.—Do you want the best Photographs made in Berrien County? If you do go to H. M. Robinson's Gallery, in the bank building, Buchanan. Pictures of all kinds made in the best style.

AID SOCIETY.—The Ladies' Social and Aid Society of the M. E. Church, will meet at the residence of Mr. Buren Blake, on Tuesday evening, November 10th, 1868. All are cordially invited to attend.

BY ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT.

NEW CARLISLE.—Quite a delegation, from Buchanan, Bakertown, and vicinity, attended the Republican Mass Meeting at New Carlisle, on Monday.

Now while you are looking over the locals, don't forget to look in at Warren & Parketon's Furniture Room. New stock arriving daily. Cheaper than ever.

Those Patent Folding Bed Lounges, at Warren & Parketon's, can't be beat. Call and see them.

STOVE PIPES.—As cold weather approaches hot fires become necessary, and increased danger exists from fires. Let everybody examine their chimneys and stove pipes, and see that everything is in a safe condition. Immense amounts of property might often be saved by a little timely caution and care.

UNION SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The regular meeting of the Union Sunday School will take place next Lord's day, at 4 o'clock P. M., at the Christian Church. A general attendance of all interested in the Sunday School cause is confidently expected. These meetings are doing much toward keeping up the interest in Sunday Schools in our place.

ELECTION.—Tuesday was one of the most quiet election days in Buchanan that it has been our lot to witness. The day was lovely, pleasant, and balmy, so unlike election days often are, that we were led to think Providence was smiling on the efforts of a distracted people while trying to settle quietly and fairly the destinies of a great nation.

JOB WORK.—THE BERRIEN COUNTY RECORD Steam Printing Establishment is the place to get all kinds of Job Work done, from the finest colored card to the largest poster. As far as prices are concerned we defy competition by anything either outside or inside of Chicago or Detroit. All we ask is for the citizens of Berrien County to give us a call, examine work and prices, and we will guarantee satisfaction. We keep no "one-horse" job workmen about the RECORD establishment, but employ the best that the country affords, and are therefore not ashamed to compare our work with that done in any Printing House in the country.

COME TO GRIEF.—It is amusing to find that Democracy comes to grief, and once in a while one is caught in his little intrigues to defeat Republicanism. A case of this kind occurred on election day. One of Haslett's particular friends, living in Bertrand township, circulated a slanderous report against a Republican, on the streets, on Tuesday, evidently to aid Democracy and injure Republicans. The gentleman, however, being responsible, came to grief, and very penitently acknowledged what he had done. This he did in an affidavit, a copy of which has been left in our possession for the inspection of those who may feel interested. We opine the gentleman in question will use great caution before he again circulates a slanderous report against a Republican with whom he is unacquainted.

POSTAGE STAMPS.—The contract for furnishing the Government with postage stamps for the next four years, has been awarded to the National Bank Note Company of New York. New designs have been adopted for all stamps as follows:

The two cent stamp represents a post boy on a horse running at full speed, illustrating the fact that this stamp is most speedily used for dispatch letters.

On the three cent stamp there is a finely engraved locomotive. This is surrounded by lines of lightning, indicating the speed with which letters are carried on which this stamp is used.

The five cent stamp has an excellent portrait of Washington.

The ten cent stamp has an excellent microscopical copy of the painting of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, hanging in the rotunda at Washington.

The twelve cent stamp, mostly used for foreign postage, has a picture of a steamer at sea.

The thirty cent stamp has a copy of a painting of the surrender of Burgoyne, hanging in the rotunda of the national capitol. The ink to be used will prevent washing and using the stamp a second time. The fibre in the centre of the stamp is broken completely, and they adhere better, while the ink of cancellation sinks into the paper.

THE VOTE IN BUCHANAN.

The following is the full vote as polled in Buchanan on Tuesday.

Table listing election results for Buchanan, including Presidential Electors, Governor, County Clerk, Sheriff, etc., with Republican and Democratic vote counts.

Gent's Furnishing Goods a speciality!!! CLARK & ALEXANDER.

GREENBACKS WELL INVESTED.—Whatever may be the political decision about the value of "Greenbacks," a dollar-and-a-half of them cannot be better invested just now than in securing the most valuable and beautifully illustrated journal, adapted to the wants of every Man, Woman, and Child in City, Village, or County—the American Agriculturist—so called because it was originally started, 27 years ago, especially as a rural journal. It is now three times its former size, and is filled with highly useful non-political information for all classes—for the Household, for the Garden, for the Orchard and for the Farm. The hundreds of beautiful and instructive Engravings are alone worth many times the cost, while its forty large pages contain a world of carefully prepared practical instruction, including an excellent Household Department, and a very useful as well as pleasing Department for Children and Youth. It is taken and read by at least seventy five thousand people in Cities and Villages, and by as many more Farmers, Gardeners, Fruit Growers, etc. Probably nowhere else can one get so much that is really valuable for so little money. Now is the time to subscribe, for the publishers offer the balance of the year free, to all new subscribers now received for 1869. Four copies are supplied from now to the end of 1869, for $5. The number for October 1st, just at hand, like its predecessors, is a superb paper. The Publishers offer a large and valuable Premium List to those securing clubs of subscribers.—Address, ORANGE JUDG & Co., 245 Broadway, N. Y.

PROSPECTUS.—"ONWARD" along the track of civilization—on toward goodness and glory—a fine post pointing to all that is worthy of attainment—a guide to conduct the Youth of America along that path leading to the highest and noblest manhood: such is the design of Mayne Reid's Magazine.

And it is meant for the Youth of America—they who in a few short years will hold as in the hollow of their hand the destinies not only of America, but of mankind.

Supreme satisfaction to be even the humblest guide in such a glorious march: and while acting as such, "Onward" will endeavor to prove not only a sure guide, but a cheerful companion; one who, while dealing largely with the realities of life, will not forget that life has also its romance—essential to its healthy existence as the food that is eaten, or the air that is breathed.

The literature of this magazine is intended to be of the highest character known to the pages of a periodical: since the experience of its Conductor tells him it is not necessary to write down to the Youth of America. It will be illustrated, and to this end the best artists have been engaged.

Its first number will appear in time for the Christmas Holidays; and, in addition to the lore suitable to that mystic season, will contain the opening chapters of a story of South American life, entitled the LOST SISTER; a Tale of the Pampas; as also the commencement of the YELLOW CHIEF; a Tale of the Prairies.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE, in another part of this paper. This truly Valuable Medicine is recommended by all who use it. Read the certificates.

From Galien. Nov. 3d, 1868.

EDITOR RECORD.—Sir:—Once again, dear RECORD, will I take upon myself the duty to inform you of affairs at Galien. In regard to political matters, (and that is the only interesting subject just now) Galien has become thoroughly awakened; thrice have we surpassed in delegations its sister towns, in numbers and nicety of regulation, and we honorably won the Prize Banner from Niles, that at a late Republican mass meeting was offered as a prize to the company bearing the most torch lights. It is a beautiful banner, and does credit to the citizens of Niles. And I will assure them, in the name of the gallant Tanners of Galien, that the banner will be borne by them with credit to themselves and honor to the donors, and by you, dear RECORD, we one and all, thank the citizens of Niles for their splendid banner. To J. B. Clark was given the honor of bearing the said banner, and he bore it with pride to the rally at New Carlisle yesterday, where it was placed conspicuously upon the speakers' stand, where stood Schuyler Celfax, our Vice President if you please. In this political campaign, Galien has done well. How well, will be shown to-night when the votes are counted at the polls.

Oh you Democrats, (or I might with more truth call most of you rebels) where now is your boasted power. Geo. Bates, yesterday at New Carlisle, preached Horatio Seymour and F. P. Blair's funeral sermon, and to-day their political life will be buried; and Horatio Seymour can return to his quiet home in the country, there to rest after his laborious but futile efforts for power. Welcome! thrice welcome Ulysses S. Grant, to your new field of labor! May you, nor your honest successor never be Johnsonized over by any party or power, but prove sacred to the trust reposed in you. Let this be our motto, "In God is our trust."

Yours truly, INDEPENDENT.
