

The Berrien County Record.

W. H. BUCHANAN, Editor.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 2, 1871.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENCY.

That there is a large portion of the people, and that, too, among the best informed and most influential citizens of the State, opposed to the County Superintendency system...

What think you, free men of Berrien County, who oppose the system of County Superintendency, are you all fools? Do you not know anything about education?

LANSING CORRESPONDENCE.

Messrs. Editors:—The past week was truly a busy one at the Capital, in the line of legislation.

The various committees have been very busy during the week when the Houses have not been in session, and a very large amount of business, both in Committees and in Legislature has been transacted.

The Democratic and Republican State Convention were largely attended. The Republicans showed good sense in nominating Chief-Justice Campbell, thereby sustaining his decision on the railroad bond question.

OUR HOMESTEAD LAWS.

The bill to enable discharged soldiers and sailors, their widows and orphan children, to acquire homesteads, which originated in the lower house of congress, has been so modified and amended that but few of its original features remain.

Under the Homestead act, full title to the land is not obtained until the settler has resided upon the lands five years.

The bill as it passed the House permitted the soldier at any time during the first twelve months to assign his homestead certificate to any one who had not previously availed himself of the benefit of the Homestead act.

It also permitted the soldiers and sailors now on the pension list to set the land by agent or attorney. These features of the bill were stricken out by the Senate.

As amended the bill simply modifies in behalf of soldiers and sailors the probationary term of occupation and settlement, which were imperative conditions under the Homestead law.

NATIONAL VS. STATE RIGHTS.

The Cincinnati corporation has appealed to Congress for a national charter to enable them to build a railroad connecting that city with the southern States, en route through central Kentucky to Chattanooga.

The city has proposed to build the road, and all the southern counties of Kentucky favor the project, which would add largely to their inhabitants, wealth and prosperity.

A few days ago a bill was again introduced in the legislature of that State for the same purpose, and the opposition to it was such that no hopes are entertained that such a bill can ever be passed.

Discouraged in the attempt to do anything with the Kentucky legislature, an appeal has been made to Congress to grant the same rights and privileges twice granted by the House of the Kentucky legislature, but which the Senate has twice refused.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 22, '71. Eds. Record.—As I am a witness of the grand carnival just closed, I will give you a hasty sketch of some of the scenes.

The city boasts its champion street. New York has Broadway, London its Regent street, and Washington its Pennsylvania Avenue. This avenue, for the past two days, from the Capitol to the Treasury building, has been crowded with one immense mass of human life.

On each side of the avenue between the trees wires were stretched, on which were suspended Chinese lanterns the entire length of the Treasury to the Capitol.

After the fireworks, through the kind invitation of members of the "Sons of Michigan," I attended a ball given by the society.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill to amend the act in relation to the duties of the Secretary of the Treasury.

County Superintendency.

Mr. Editor:—Since the subject of School Superintendency has been so much agitated lately, it may not be uninteresting to your readers to publish the following copy of the preamble and resolution of the Board of Supervisors, of this County together with a statement of the County Clerk, accompanying the same.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Berrien, continued and held at Berrien Springs, on Thursday, January 6th, 1871.

Present:—James H. Marvin, Chairman, and a quorum.

Resolved:—We believe that general intelligence, universal knowledge, and the education of the masses should be a fixed principle of all governments, and that upon that foundation the future continuance and prosperity of our great and glorious Republic; and

Resolved:—We believe that the system of free schools is the only correct system whereby the rich and the poor can be alike educated; and

Resolved:—We have found by practical experience, that a County Superintendent of County Schools is not calculated to advance and develop the greatest benefit of benefit in our free school system; therefore

State Items.

—The Pontiac Bell Post says:—From a reliable source we learn that the wife of David Hicks, a saloon keeper on Lawrence street, has fallen heir to a very large sum of money, not less than $100,000, by the death of her father in New York.

—Yesterday afternoon, Lawrence Coon, a brakeman in the employment of the F. & P. M. Railway Company, fell from the top of a lumber car of the mixed train that leaves Flint at 2:20 p. m. for Detroit, and was run over by several of the cars, his body being literally cut in pieces.

—The Jackson Citizen of Feb. 21st, says:—Mr. Elijah Beck, of Sandusky, has shown some splendid specimens of Norway oats, which he raised on his farm in that township. Mr. Beck sowed one bushel of these oats upon one acre of ground in the latter part of April, and they have yielded an astonishing product of ninety-eight bushels.

—A meeting of the mineral well company was held on Tuesday evening and measures taken for the early erection of the necessary buildings for the accommodation of visitors at the opening of the spring.

—Several citizens of this place are the sufferers from one of the most bold, and apparently successful swindlers ever perpetrated. A man calling his name Burton, sold a large quantity of lumber land in this vicinity, parties residing here, for the sum of $8,000, and he has now received 500 down, and giving obligations for the balance.

—The Manistee Times, gives the following:—Mr. L. L. Boothie, of this city, on Saturday last, saw with a common wood-saw, one and a half cords of dry hickory and maple wood, in just two hours and forty-five minutes.

—The Electors of Allegan County are to vote on the 2d of March, and in connection with a new building for our County officers and for the appropriation of $6,000 therefor.

—A dastardly attempt was made last evening, about 7 o'clock, to burn the Catholic Church in this city. A house of shavings had been ignited in the vestry room, and had got under pretty good headway, but it was accidentally discovered in time to be extinguished before much damage was done.

—The Leslie Herald gives the following account:—O. E. Fickett, has bought in Leslie, and is sending away this winter, one thousand dozen eggs.
