

The Berrien County Record.

W. A. WAGNER, Editor. THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 22, 1871.

DEATH OF HON. C. L. VALLANDIGHAM.

On Saturday morning the country was startled by the telegraphic dispatches that Hon. C. L. Vallandigham had accidentally shot himself at Lebanon, Ohio, and that he was in a dying condition.

The best medical skill was summoned, and at first it was hoped the shot was not fatal, but on a close examination the wound was found to be dangerous, and all medical skill proved of no avail.

HORACE GREELY.

It is known that Horace Greeley has just returned from a visit throughout the South. The letters which he has written and the statements which he has made in recent speeches and otherwise have furnished information as to the actual condition and prospects of the South that is reliable and full of interest.

The railroad and question is not one of politics. No political party dare advocate the giving away of the people's money or the public domain to railroad corporations and expect success.

ANNEXATION OF BRITISH COLUMBIA TO THE DOMINION OF CANADA.

The British government has approved of the objection of British Columbia to the dominion of Canada, and the date fixed upon when the union is to take place is on the 10th day of next July.

ROME THE CAPITAL.

The news has just been received that on the 1st of July Rome is to be made the political capital of United Italy. The establishment of the national capital at the Eternal City is a coming event that will mark a very important era in the history of Italy.

IOWA DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Iowa Democratic Convention met in Des Moines on the 14th of June. The attendance is said to be the largest the party has ever had in the State.

Every one will say at once, that if a man is imprisoned for the commission of a crime, as a punishment and an example to refrain others from violating the law, the expense to the State should, if possible, be paid from the earnings of the prisoner.

TOOMBS.

The following special dispatch to the Evening Post speaks for itself: New York, June 21.—A Herald correspondent who has been interviewing Robert Toombs reports:

Reporter.—Do you think the people of the South are prepared to accept the new platform? Toombs.—Why, of course they won't accept it. They cannot do so without being untrue to every principle of justice and freedom.

Reporter.—What are they going to do about it? Toombs.—I don't know, but they cannot support it. I don't know but that it is about time for us to fight again. Our only hope is in a new platform.

The Detroit Free Press, of the 14, commenting on the Geyer Patent Right Note case, tried before Judge Blackman, and which which many of our citizens are acquainted, says:

For several years the people of the southern counties of Michigan have been swindled by vendors of patent rights who have, by holding out certain inducements, which were never intended to be fulfilled, become the possessors of notes of hand which, afterwards transferred to the hands of third parties, were held to be valid and the makers held liable to payment.

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY INTO BERLIN.

Berlin, June 16.—The triumphal entry of the army, and the inauguration of the equestrian statue of King Frederick William III, took place today, in exact accordance with the programme given in the Imperial proclamation of the 12th.

THE EMPEROR.

The German Emperor, in his train, preceded by the Prussian Guards at the head of the line, was mainly composed of detachments representing every regiment which took part in the war, each bearing a banner or pennant.

Biographical Sketch of the Late Hon. C. L. Vallandigham.

From the Boston Journal. A brief memoir of the late Hon. C. L. Vallandigham, written by his brother, we gather the following facts: The maternal family of Mr. Vallandigham is Scotch-Irish, his grandfather, James Laird, having been born in the county of Tyrone, North Ireland.

The ceremonies closed with conferring honors on the victorious commanders. Among those who received these marks of respect were the Emperor of the Empire, Prince George of Saxony, and Prince Leopold of Bavaria.

Foreign.—Latest Dispatches.

Paris, June 15.—The Gaulois states that the fusion of the Orleansais and Legitimists is complete. The various members of the Left protesting against the intrigues of the monarchists, is generally approved.

London, June 15.—Napoleon visited the Kent cricketers yesterday. He received quite an ovation and held a fete. He is undoubtedly surrounded by his old adherents, and bold movements are rumored.

New York, June 15.—Paris advices estimate the losses from insurgent incendiaries at $10,000,000. The thirty thousand volumes were burned at the Hotel de Ville. Not a single volume escaped at the Louvre library.

Paris, June 16.—There will be for the present no transfer of the Executive and Legislative departments of the Government, which will remain, as at present constituted, at Versailles until October.

Paris, June 16.—A proclamation has been issued by the International Society which declares "We are disarmed but not conquered, and are still one hundred thousand strong."

Fire Insurance. No man should be without Insurance on his buildings and his goods. The undersigned is Agent for Buchanan and vicinity, for three of the best and most reliable Fire Insurance Companies in the United States, the Atlas, of Hartford, the Insurance Co. of North America, of Philadelphia, and the Underwriters Agency, of New York, representing a capital of $1,000,000, and having a large and experienced Office, first floor of the Record brick, Front Street, Buchanan, Mich.

Commissioner's Notice.—Estate of John W. Gendler. 3 o'clock. $775 a Month.—Saco Novelty Co. Teachers and Students.—Ziegler & McCurdy. Agents Wanted.—R. P. Fisher, of the State of New York, representing a capital of $1,000,000, and having a large and experienced Office, first floor of the Record brick, Front Street, Buchanan, Mich.

Agents Wanted for History of the War in Europe.—National Publishing Co. Local Notice.—John O. Kellogg, of the State of New York, representing a capital of $1,000,000, and having a large and experienced Office, first floor of the Record brick, Front Street, Buchanan, Mich.

Without a Pastor.—Rev. Mr. Budge having resigned the Pastoral charge, the Presbyterian Church is now without regular services.

Harvest will commence next week. Don't buy Fish until you see Kinyon.

Late Papers.—Thanks to Mr. I. N. Stevens for late Atchinson (Kan.) papers.

Without a Pastor.—Rev. Mr. Budge having resigned the Pastoral charge, the Presbyterian Church is now without regular services.

Mean.—The boys that dug out that turtle's eyes should be made to feel that there is a law against cruelty to animals.

Bilious King.—Thanks to Dr. P. B. Myers for a bottle of Bilious King. This medicine is gaining a popularity, which its merits deserve.

Farmers Know that the sale of wool has started some money in circulation among them. It will be better yet in a few days—after harvest.

New Potatoes.—Yesterday, we had a mess of new potatoes, the first of the season, from our own garden, and of the Early Rose variety.

Transfer.—On last Monday Willard B. French bought a farm of one hundred acres about two miles west of town, belonging formerly to DeBert Bliss. Consideration, $7,000.

Saturday was one of the busiest days seen in Buchanan for a long time. Every available hitching post was occupied, and the streets were full of teams from end to end.

Telegraph.—A telegraph line is to be built from New Buffalo, along the line of the C. & M. L. S. R. R., to Montague, a distance of 143 miles.

Good Young Hyson Tea, 75 cents at H. H. Kinyon's.

Wool.—The clip this season is not as heavy as it has been frequently, but we are told that the quality will more than make up for any deficiency in quantity.

Disappointed.—On Tuesday last, we thought we would have to chronicle a "bloody battle" between John Andrew and John Cage, but the affair ended in jaw, and a good local item was thereby lost.

Looks Good.—It is pleasant to see our friends from "over the river," drive into town again, as in days gone by. The new bridge is open to travel and we all duly appreciate the fact.

Go to Fox's for Summer Dress Goods, Lawns, Peaches, Gingham, Parasols, Fans, Gloves and Hosiery.

Cherries and Flowers.—Hon. L. P. Alexander brought into our office the other day some of the finest specimens of cherries that we have seen. The "John Bull" cherry was delicious as a plum, and almost as large. He also showed us a Cactus flower, taken from a plant having 153 flowers on the present season. Who can beat that?

Those who have used Barr's Pectoral Elixir regard it as the best expectorant obtainable.—Sold by Osborn.

Three.—On Sunday Wm. Cassey, who had been working for Riley Scott, of Bertrand Township, stole from Mr. Scott, a suit of clothes, a lady's watch and chain, a revolver and $15 in gold and silver. Cassey then made for parts unknown, and has not yet been found.

In Town.—West E. Wilkinson, formerly foreman of Adiant Christian Times office, but now one of the Editors and Proprietors of the Seneca (Kan.) Courier, has been in town for a week or two. "West" reports Kansas all right, and the newspaper business flourishing in that young and growing State.

Highest cash price for Wool. B. SPARKS.

Arrested.—On Saturday night Officer Evans arrested Henry Rosell, on complaint of Frank Needham. It seems Rosell had become offended at Mr. Needham and had threatened his life. The case came off on Monday before Esq. Hinman, who put Rosell on bonds of a $1000 for his good behavior for one year, or failing to give bonds, 60 days in the county Jail.

Austin's Ague Drops, purely vegetable.

Personal.—We are glad to hear that Julian Bostwick, formerly of this village, has become a member of the United States Marine Band. Judge says that there were over a hundred applicants for membership, and that he barely succeeded in getting the situation, through the recommendations and intercessions of Senator Chandler.

The species of Whooping Cough are much relieved by Barr's Pectoral Elixir.—Sold by Osborn.

Job Cram.—All hands in the office, including the Editors, pronounce that Ice Cream, brought around the other day by Mary Arthur, excellent, and return thanks therefor. If anybody wants good, genuine, first-class Ice Cream, just call at Mary Arthur's, next door west of the Record office.

Fish.—Mackerel and White fish as retail or by the barrel, at Smith & Sons.

Serenade.—We forgot, in the bustle of moving, to return our thanks for that serenade on Tuesday night of last week. Never did we hear strains of richer music, no never. We were quietly slumbering, and for some time we hardly realized that we were "away off in some garden of delights." Thanks to the performers, whoever you were, for your kind visit and sweet music in the "fairy night."

Men's Suits for only $5, at S. L. Estes'. Don't go ragged any more.

The Evidence.—We have heard of men's running against time, but Charlie Rouse says it is very dangerous business. He ran against one Day last week and has had a very sore eye ever since. Charlie carries a black spot under the eye that you may know which one is effected while yet a good way off.

Barr's Pectoral Elixir is recommended to any one afflicted with a severe cough.—Sold by Osborn.

Strawberries.—Mr. A. Richards, of this village, up to last Monday evening had picked from 25 acres, 380 bushels of strawberries. They were gathered in a little less than two weeks. Few of them were sold in our home market, but the larger portion of them were shipped. If any one in or out of the state of Michigan can beat this we should like to hear from him.

Runaway.—Dr. Pierce's ponies, which he has been driving for about fifteen years, became frightened last Tuesday by the heavy coming home, and making such strange movements that Dr. P. pitched over the dash board of his buggy in front of one of the fore wheels to see what the matter was, and was dragged along several feet and was considerably bruised. The "colts" got away but no serious damage was done. Broke the tongue of the buggy, and a few other small repairs will set things all right again. Any one who would like a young team could, doubtless, get a good bargain out of the Doctor.

For Sale.—A pleasant house and lot for sale. Enquire at the Record office.

The Reason Why.—Great many, no doubt, when they see some long paper giving an account of some occurrence with which we at home are all acquainted, or some intelligence with regard to the state of the weather, or condition of the crops, say to themselves, "I would like to know what they put that in the paper for?" They forget that the object the publisher of a paper must have in view is to please all who may chance to see his paper, must have a variety of news calculated to be of some interest to all classes of readers.

All our subscribers do not live in Berrien County. Many have gone away from here, leaving their friends and friends, who comprise not a small proportion of our subscribers. No news item can be of more interest to them, than to know about the kind of weather for fruit and grain, and many other matters well known to those living here. We trust our home patrons will remember this and not find fault if we print an item occasionally that is intended more particularly to interest those who do not reside among us.

Table with 4 columns: Name, Amount, Total, etc. Lists names like John Smith, James Brown, etc.

Weather, &c.—There has been several showers the last few days that were impartial in their visitation and liberal in their supply. We fully appreciate a part of their blessings to our town in settling the dust. The dust had become almost intolerable. Now is the time to make preparations for a sprinkler, and to prevent our streets from becoming so dusty again this summer.

Salt.—The best quality of salt, both by the barrel and in sacks, at Smith & Sons.

Circuit Court.—The June term of our Circuit Court is now in session. The calendar is made up of six criminal cases, issues of fact, forty-eight, seven marked to be tried by Jury, and one case, water craft cause. The criminal cases will occupy the court two weeks when the Judge will have to go to Cass County to hold court. The civil cases will probably all go over by consent until the September term, save those that can be heard by the court at chambers.

Sensible at Last.—In putting a stop to the vending of worthless medicines, stove polish, Blacking, "prize" packages, etc., of the atrocious character, by a set of graceless scamps who perambulate the country for the sole purpose of swindling those who fall to read the papers and consequently are easily "taken in," the City Council has done one good act, for which let us make haste to give them credit.—Niles Republican.

Potato Bugs.—At the special request of a subscriber we insert the following which he says by experience has been found an effectual destroyer of the potato bug.

Throw into hot water enough soft soap to sature, and a sufficient quantity of the weed, marigold, betony, known as dog fennel, to make a bitterish taste, let it cool, and sprinkle on the plants through a watering pot. This will kill the bug instantly.

Reduction in prices, at Fox's. Extra inducements to purchasers in Spring and Summer Dry Goods. Full assortment of Victoria Lawns, Bishop Lawns, Swiss Mulls, striped and check Nansook, Jackonets, &c.

Mr. Jerome Stevens, a farmer of Darby township, has a splendid patch of early potatoes unscathed by the potato bug and promising an abundant harvest. He has a large lot of Brame fowls, and they go for the little line backs in the liveliest and most life destroying manner, and the fowls aforesaid thrive on what they feed. Mr. Stevens shuts his hens up for a day or two, when the bug dot begins to be some monotonous, and getting pretty hungry the birds are let out and they swallow all potato bugs they can find.—Kalamazoo Telegraph.

National Horse Exhibition.—The Eighth National Exhibition of Horses comes off at the National Park, in Kalamazoo, on August 16th, 17th, and 18th. The entire amount of premiums offered is $80,000. All entries close on August 5th. There are 200 stalls on the grounds. For further particulars address the Secretary, Frank Little, Kalamazoo, Mich.

Any one who would like a young team could, doubtless, get a good bargain out of the Doctor.

Runaway.—Dr. Pierce's ponies, which he has been driving for about fifteen years, became frightened last Tuesday by the heavy coming home, and making such strange movements that Dr. P. pitched over the dash board of his buggy in front of one of the fore wheels to see what the matter was, and was dragged along several feet and was considerably bruised. The "colts" got away but no serious damage was done. Broke the tongue of the buggy, and a few other small repairs will set things all right again. Barren Lake Picnic.—On Friday of last week twenty-five couples went from this village to Barren Lake on a pleasure excursion, and to hold a picnic. We very much regret that circumstances prevented our accompanying them, as we learn it was a pleasant affair in every respect, and more than met their expectations. The day was spent in playing croquet, boat riding, fishing, &c., and one of the company told us that there were enough of the choicest of edibles prepared to "feed a regiment." The party could not have selected a better time or a more suitable place for the occasion, and the day will recall many pleasant recollections in the minds of those who participated in the enjoyment.

Visit to the Ancient Village of Bertrand, Berrien Record.—Having there was a heavy job of grading to be let near the Bertrand bridge, a couple of us concluded to make a trip up there, and, if time served, we would explore the ancient city. We arrived on the spot about 10 o'clock. It seems that the St. Jo., in some wild freak, had seen fit to leave its natural channel, and go cross-lots over the road, west of the bridge. They propose to raise an embankment, from the end of the bridge west about thirty rods, 10 feet high in places and twenty-three feet wide on top. Having examined the premises, and being satisfied that the embankment could not be put in short of $1,000 or $1,100, and as it was getting about noon we concluded to go into town and put up at some of the hotels. So we did so. Alas for all human expectations! We must come down a few pegs. We reined up to the best hotel we could find, and asked the host (?) if we could get dinner there. "Nix; mine vrow ish gone der Niles. She said she would go pack," said he, getting mad, "by 10 o'clock, and gleebish vish schriben von schoonen heuten," thundered he. We thought he was more than half right, and seeing we could get nothing there we put out. We made several more equally unsuccessful attempts, and finally found, on close calculation, that there were only three dinners in the place, and there were more than twice as many persons to eat them, so we gave it up entirely. The next thing was to see what we were to be seen of the city, and "kill time" till two o'clock. We thought we would go up and see the new passenger house, on the new railroad. Turning round two or three squares and passing Washington, Adams, and Jefferson streets, we ascended a hill and caught a glimpse of the building and a little nearer the whole structures came in full sight. It consisted of a board, 12 feet long, standing on end in the corner of the fence. It is to be completed inside of three weeks. We noticed that five or six persons were sufficient to stand outside of the board. Finally we returned to the hotel and asked "George" if there was any possibility to get a feed for our horses. "Yah, I gets nine-teen ears of corn on hand, and will gets twelve more in three days." Good. We fed the noble animals and sid out. We close by making one or two remarks. Persons traveling in this city without a "traveler's guide" might profit by our classification. All houses that had as many as five whole window lights on any one side, we put in the first class. Those having three we put in the second, and so on. One whole light in the gable end should be taken into the estimate. Where you find two slabs spiked on crosswise on the end of a building, and over the door, it may indicate, either that said building is unoccupied, or that it needs thus bracing to enable it to stand on two corners. Any over-optimistic to make this tour should bear in mind that it will be absolutely necessary to take a large crust of bread in the corner of their sachel. Two or three extra ones for the poor famishing creatures there might be profitably used.
