A GREAT SECRET.

BT ALICE CARET.

My friend, here's a secret.

I am fifty years old, And my wife's forty-five.

A queen among beauties, 1

The wedding-guest said, - When we went to the church

That's thirty long years past;

Has ploughed with its furrows

Her young roses down.

And still like a girl, when Her praises I speak, Her heart fairly blushes

Her smile is more tender

In my eyes are only .

For still we are lovers,

As I am alive; Though I, sir, am fifty, And she's forty-five.

I meant to unfold,

Nor does she get pettish,

And sulk to a pout, So, since we fell in love.

We never fell out.

And here's the full secret,

I kept her a sweetheart.

In making her wife!

And if you but well on

My pattern; you'll thrive, For I, sir, am fifty, And she's forty-five.

When a man is wounded in battle, even slightly, he is likely to be knocked prostrate, which is, in fact, often the first intimation that he gets that something has happened. It is not the force of the blow nor the wound that brings him to the ground, for he may presently get up and walk away, or fight again if he is very determined, but it is the shock upon the nervous. system. A similar shock may come through the mind, or through any accident, just as would be the case through a stroke of lightning. Sometimes it may be so violent that death will overtake the victim beyond recall by any reaction, while there is no sufficient injury to the tissues or organs. or loss of blood to cause a fatal result. A sudden death occurred recently in a prominent family in this city, where the young man had no disease of any tissue, that could cause alarm, and no one could have predicted the result. Nothing could be said of it but that some violent shock fell upon an enfecbled hervous system and took life away before the trouble, whatever it was could pronounce itself by disorganizing any part of the body. Civilization and its intense activities bring a great strain on the nervous powers; physicians have to bear this in mind and direct their counsels accordingly: A great desideratum is to discover some remedy which will act promptly as a counter shock. In cases of a certain kind, as in lightning strokes, dashes of cold water, suddenly given by the pailful, sometimes avail. Perhaps when the nervous force is better understood The music was at its merriest and it may come within a control as decithe dance at its gayest, when Mrs. sive as that over galvanic currents in Martindale found in opportunity to a cable, which are charged and disshould be sufficient knowledge disseminated among the people to enable them to exercise caution in avoiding successful farmers in this State: "I do not care to have my men get up before five or half-past five in the morning, and if they go to bed early and sleep soundly they will do more work than if they got up at four or half-past four." We do not believe in the eight-hour law, but nevertheless, are inclined to think as a general rule, we work too many hours on the farm. The best man we ever had to dig ditches seldom worked, when digging by the rod, more than nine hours a day. And it is so by chopping wood by the cord, the men who accomplish the most work the fewest hours. They bring all their brain and muscle into the exercise and make every blow tell. A slow, plodding Dutchman may turn a grindstone or fanning mill better than an energetic Ynnkee, but this kind of work is now mostly done by horsepower, and the farmers need, above all else, a clear head, and with all his faculties of mind and muscle light and active, and under complete control. Much, of course, depends on temperament; but as a rule, such men need sound sleep and plenty of it. Let farmers, and especially farmers' boys, have plenty to eat, nothing to "drink, and all the sleep they can take.

When to Visit California.

The first six months of the year are the best time to visit California; everything is bright and growing and from January to June there is comparatively little dust or heat. After that the drouth is parching, and the whole interior, from the Sierras to the Coast Range, becomes yellow and arid. For days of travel not a green spot is to be seen, for not one house in fifty has a grass plat about it, the same requiring a little irrigation and the use of a wind mill. The old fields from which the wheat has been cut in May or carly June look distressingly barren in their coat of dirty yellow; all the footbills are brown or dirty gray, and over everything is dust, dust. Not a drop of rain falls from May till late in October; then comes the drenching rains of autumn, and the whole plain becomes a sea of liquid mud-a little too thick for navigation and a little too thin for roads. But this passes away in a month or two; the roads harden, and only moderate showers fall, and by the middle of January the growing season is fairly begun. Then everything is lovely for a while. Strawberries are abundant in March, and every kind of early fruit and vegetables most plentiful. But the heavy fruit season comes later; so, if you cannot visit the State before July and avoid the dust, then come late in August cr in September and enjoy the fresh fruits. Do not, as the majority of Eastern tourists do, come in July, get all the evils and miss. the comforts.

He Winked Too Late.

A handsome bachelor clerk in one of the most popular dry goods stores in Atlanta, Georgia, is smitten with a fair resident of a neighboring city. The father of the young lady came to Atlanta, recently, and registered at the hotel where the young bachelor boards. As soon as this discovery was made, the old gentleman was looked up and made the recipient of earnest ittention—such as all of us have been disposed to pay to the parents of the "hoped for"—to ingratiate himself into his parental favor.

Just before going to dinner, the old gentleman wanted information of the young one where he could get a drink

"Well, I dont know myself; but I've heard that at the bar good liquors are kept," was the innocent reply. The old gentleman asked the young one to show him the way.

myself," replied the teetotaller. Arrived at the bar the want of the old gentleman was made known, when the bar-tender, turning to the young man, coolly remarked:

as usual, Mr. ——?"
He "had orter" winked sooner.

Martiage under Difficulties.

Constable Sample, of Esquire Boggess' office, was a witness day before yesterday to a singular wedding at Brazil. One of the miners had debauched the daughter of a citizen of that place. Her brother, learning of his sister's dishonor, and of the refusal of her seducer to rectify the wrong as far as possible by marriage, procured a loaded revolver, went down nto the mine where the man was at work, brought him up and gave him, the alternative of immediate marriage or instant death. The fellow weakened, and consented. The two (the brother still keeping the revolver ready for use) then drove to Bowling Green, fourteen iniles away; procured a license and returned. Before the wedding, the Justice who was called upon to perform the ceremony, discovered a flaw in the license. Back to Bowling. Green went the brother and his prospective brother-in-law, and had the error corrected. Before their veturn the crowd had got wind of the operation, and had, gothered around the Justice's office. To get rid of them the wedding took place in a saloon opposite; after which the unwilling bridegroom ordered the "drinks set up" for the entire town. Indianapolis Sentinel.

Every American boy should have written on his memory with the point of a diamond, the history of Cyrus Field, in his efforts to perfect the Atlantic telegraph. It required thirteen years of the most untiring labor, and "often," says Mr. Field, "has my heart been ready to sink. Many times when wandering in the forests of Newfoundland, in the pelting rain, or on the decks of ships, in dark, stormy nights, alone, far from home, I have almost accused myself of madness and folly, thus to sacrifice the peace of my fainily, and all the hopes of life for what might prove at last only a dream. Yet' one hope led me on, and I have prayed that I might not taste death till this work was accomplished. That prayer is answered, and now, beyond all acknowledgement to men, is the feeling think of the old homestead, if you ever do, your thoughts go straight to the wide chimney and its burning logs. No wonder that you are ready to move from one fire-placeless into another. But you have something just as good, you say. Yes, I have heard of it. This age, which imitates everything, even to the virtues of our ancestors, has invented a fire place, with artificial iron or composition logs in it, hacked and painted, in which gas is burned, so that it has the appearance of a wood fire. This seems to me blasphemy. Do you think a cat would lie down before it? Can you poke it? If you can't poke it it is a fraud. To poke a wood fire is more solid enjoyment than almost anything else in the world. The crowning human virtue in a man is to let his wife poke the fire. If a wood fire is a luxury, it is cheaper than many in which we indulge without thought, and cheaper than the visits of a doctor, made necessay by the want of ventilation of the house. Not that I have anything against doctors; I only wish, after they have

Lucky Men.

-Charles D. Warner.

There is a paragraph now "passing the round" of the American press which tells of the shrewdness of the Rothschilds, by saying that they never take into their employment any one who has been unsuccessful in the affairs of life; but if true it does not prove that the Rothschilds have adopted the only wise course of action in this matter. For example, the great New York millionaire and man of business, Stewart, has for a quarter of a century carried out a policy exactly opposite to that attributed to the Rothschilds. Stewart has always been in the habit of taking into his employ men who had previously failed in business on their own account. He has probably at this time not less than 100 broken down merchants in his employ in various capacities at home and abroad. Most of them are men of middle age, but many are even older than that. He considers them the most valuable and faithful of his subordinates, and acknowledges how much they have done to build up his immense interests. He not only gets the benefit of their experience and knowledge, but many of them have been the means of bringing to him a large amount of business through their mercantile connections and acquaintances. Some people have said that Stewart's establishment is a hospital for those broken down merchants. but he certainly knows how to turn his hospital to profitable account.

A Distressing Conundram. The New Orleans Picayune tells of in ambitious young debater in a village society who propounded this abstruse conundrum:

A physician in the Grand Army Journal tells this ghastly joke: "I remember one day in making my hospital rounds, a patient just arrived presented me an amputated forearm, and in doing so could scarcely refrain from a broad laugh, the titter was constantly on his face. 'What is the matter? This does not strike me as a subject of laughter. It is not, doctor, but excuse me. . I lost my arm in so funny a way that I still laugh when I look at it. Our first sergeant wanted shaving badly, and got me to do it as I am corporal. We went together in front of his tent; I had lathered, took him by the nose, and was applying a razor when a cannon ball came, and that was the last I saw either of his head or my arm. HORMONDOM. The excitement over the Chicago fire, and the fires in different portions of our own State, has been so great that the people have given but little heed or attention to other matters for the time being. We fully justify the people in regarding this as the subject of absorbing interest, and contribute a large share of our columns to detailed accounts of the suffering and devastation which mark the course of the fire fiend in our own State. Ma ny, however, would perhaps read with patience a short account of the war which is now being waged against the Mormons at Salt Lake City. Brigham Young and several others, of less prominence among them, have been arrested on a criminal charge of polygamy and lascivious collabitation. Since the proceedings have begun Brigham has not seemed to have felt the least uneasiness or excitement. Says it is only done by the judges and officers for the purpose of gaining a reputation in the unholy warfare. Although little faith in Judge Mc Kean, Brigham has faith in our laws for the protection of his pet institution, and says he is willing to fight it out in the Courts. He was happy to know that there was a Supreme Court of the Unito! States whose Judges were lawyers and jurists and not pomp-

No undue credit should be given to Brigham's statements that no serious trouble will result from this attack now being made upon them. Our laws protect the citizen in the free enjoyment of his religious belief, but in doing so will not permit an open and plain violation of our criminal code. Conviction must surely follow the prosecution of the cases now in progress, and the sentence of the law faithfully executed. As the subjects are liable to subsequent convictions at any time for the same offense, even after the payment of the fines imposed, it would seem that this method of prosecution, if resorted to, would not fail in time to totally overthrow and destroy polygamy within the United

EXTRA SESSION OF THE LEGISLA-

There has been considerable talk recently, in different parts of the State, relative to the Governor calling an extra session of the Legislature, in view of the recent great calamities by fire. It seems, however, that the Legislature would be so tied up by constitutional provisions that no aid from that source could be rendered. Moreover, from present indications, there will be timely assistance to the destitute and suffering. The cry has been heard in other States, so that not only are the people of Michigan, who have been fortunate enough to escape harm from the flames, coming to the rescue, but sympathy, in substantial form, is coming from many cities and towns through-out the Union. As, therefore, the immediate wants of the sufferers will certainly be supplied, and an extra session of the Legislature seems inevitable the coming winter, it seems the part of wisdom to wait, and not unnecessarily convere that body to simply create a bill of expense for the State without accomplishing any good. The Governor will undoubtedly take this view of the case, and refuse to vield to the pressure for an immediate

There was some business left unfinished at the last session of the Legislature, which needs attention. Also after Congress meets, an apportion-ment will undoubtedly be made, which will require action relative to the increased Congressional representation. This, together with other important interests of the State, will, undoubtedly, demand an extra session of the Legislature the coming winter. Upon the question of an immediate session of the Legislature the Detroit Post extra session.

"The statement telegraphed from Grand Rapids, Saturday, to the effect that there would be an extra session of the Legislature on account of the recent fires in this State, was wholly unauthorized by the State authorities. and was a mistake. Gov. Baldwin has carefully considered this question, and is clearly of the opinion that the State constitution so stringently ties up and limits the power of the Legislature, that, if it were called together, it could accomplish nothing substantial in the way of relief. The constitution forbids the State from contracting debts, or loans, except in time of war, for any other purpose than to meet deficiencies in the revenue, and for that not to exceed Fifty Thousand dollars. It also forbids granting the credit of the State to or in aid of any person, association or corporation. It also forbids the issue of any scrip, certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness. The State shall not be a party to, or interested in any work of internal improvement. All moneys now on hand, and provided for by present taxes, must be used for purposes specified by the constitution, and all moneys now on hand and to be received are already constitutionally appropriated for specific purposes. The constitution of this State is particularly restrictive in hampering the powers of the Legislature and State authorities. There will, therefore, be no extra session of the Legislature, as suggested in the Grand Rapids dispatch."

RE-DISTRICTING OF BERRIEN

Now, that the re-districting has been accomplished, and as a part of the comes us all to do the very best we can under the circumstances. St. Joseph and Benton Harbor are undoubtedly well pleased, and the new ond District, as it was, suited the south part of the County very well. Harmony had always prevailed therein, a good feeling existing among Republicans of all sections. We trust that the same good feeling will continue in the new District, and that no Republican will have to regret the change on account of internal wrandings. The present arrangement is fully as good as the old for the First and Second Districts, but too bad for the Third District. It is wholly given over to the Democracy, while under the old regime it was debatable ground. We are truly sorry for our Republican friends of the entire Niles

Below we give what our County cotemporaries have to say on the action of the Board of Supervisors in the re-districting of the County:

"The Board of Supervisors at their regular session last week, as in duty bound, re-divided this county into Representative districts, but what induced them to make the division that finally prevailed is more than we can tell. In fact, we have yet to meet or hear of a man in the county, Republican or Democrat, who is pleased with the division. The Board of Supervisors is a sensible body of men, but in this we have faith to believe they have not satisfied even themselves, let alone their constituents. In point of population, the districts are more unequal than they were under the old apportionment. Under the division adopted last week the First District is composed of Benton, Hagar, Watervleit, Bainbridge, Sodus and Pipestone, six townships, and has a population of but 8,575. The Second District is made up of St. Joseph, Lincoln, Royalton, Lake, Chikaming, Weesaw, Bu-chanan, New Buffalo and Three Oaks, nine Townships, with a population of 14,484. The Third District is composed of Niles City and Niles, Berrien, Oronoko, Bertraud and Galien townships, containing a population of 11,939. The population of the county is 34,998, one-third of which is 11,666; yet the First District has but 8,575, which is nearly two hundred less than one-fourth of the county's population. The Second District is about forty miles in length along the Lake shore, and but seven miles wide in the center, widening out to nearly twice that width, and then running to a point as sharp as a knife blade at the north end of the district, and again spreading out in the lower part to eighteen miles in width.

"Politically, under the old appor-tionment, the First District was Republican, and the Second and Third debatable ground, of late years. Under the new dispensation, the First and Second are Republican, and the Third Democratic. St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, or rather the Republican element of these townships, have been at loggerheads for years, and every nominating convention of late has witnessed a battle of words between the two contending armies. Both parties desired that the river should divide them in the future, and in this they are now happy. But St. Joseph will find that she has jumped from the frying pan into the fire.— Niles Republican.

"The Board of Supervisors, at their session last week, had on their hands the difficult work of re-districting the county. Considering the difficulties encountered, the interests to be harmonized and the political status of the several townships, it must be acknowledged the Board nobly did their work, and though this, the First District, has been made smaller than either of the other two-its population being much less than that of the Second, the St. Joseph district, still the change by which the townships of St. Joseph and Benton are left in separate districts is a judicious and wise one, and the harmony of the Republican party in this part of the county will be promoted. The Third District, as now organized, will cast a strong Democratic vote, but it seemed impossible to organize the towns so as to insure any other result.—Benton Harbor

"It is to be hoped that the new arrangement will do away with much of the unchristian rivalry which has existed between the townships, east and those west of the river. Although this District is considerably extended along the lake shore, the new Districts are more compact than before, while the political complexion is not materially changed .- St. Jo. Travel-

CONSOLIDATION OF THE REPUB-

LICAN PARTY IN MISSOURI. A large Republican meeting was held in St. Louis, Mo., on the evening of Oct. 18th. Resolutions were offered by ex-Senator Hudson, and adopted, looking to the reorganization and consolidation of the party in that State the coming canvass. The two State committees were carnestly recommended to call a State Convention, announcing themselves as being desirous of harmony, thorough re-organization of the party, and pledged themselves to abide the action of the Convention.

This movement on the part of the Republicans of Missouri, will be applauded, not only by all those belonging to the party in that State, but by Republicans everywhere. There is no reason why there should be any divisions and dissensions in the party anywhere. As the Presidential campaign approaches, we witness on every hand that the great Republican party is gaining strength—becoming more uni-ted and harmonious. The party will enter the contest of 1872 presenting a bold and formidable front, come out victorious, and add another glorious victory to the cause of right and free

CHICAGO.

The Chicago papers speak in the most hopeful tone of the future prospects of that city. They predict the greatest possible speed in the re-building of the burnt district. Business is resuming, in many respects, its wont-ed activity. Business men are more hopeful, even sanguine that the great trade cannot be diverted from Chica-

This, no doubt, will be true in many respects. Those persons accustomed to obtain supplies from Chicago will, out of sympathy, as well as justice, feel under obligations to patronize old firms and dealers who have dealt fairly by them in the past. Taking in view the energy with which the live business men of Chicago are pushing ahead their establishments, we see no reason for any great amount of the Chicago trade being diverted from that city. Even now many of the heavy dealers in that city, in the various departments, are ready to supply and fill all orders promptly. This being true it is but just, and is surely due to a city having suffered so severely, that her old patrons and customers should not desert her in this her hour of greatest need. Let. the people then stand by and patronize the enterprise of these men who have built that city, the pride of the West. This done, and soon Chicago will arise from her ashes in more beautiful garments than she ever wore before.

Kansas Correspondence.

Winfield, Cowley Co., Kas. Eds. Record:—Myself and family, accompanied by my brother, left our home at Bazaar, Oct. 4th, for a tramp down the Walnut valley. Our outfit consisted of a span of horses and a wagon, a sack of corn, a bundle of hay, two or three days' rations, and a supply of blankets and Buffalo robes. The first thing that attracted our attention, after leaving South Fork valley, the place of our home, was (at the head of one of its tributaries) Mercer Springs. Here the water comes gushing out the side of the bluff, sufficiently strong to carry a grist mill a great part of the year. The children dake their thirst, the horses drink, and we take up our journey. We cross a strip, eight miles wide, of as beautiful prairie as one could ask for, and come to Sycamore Spring, at the head of the Walnut river. The Spring is not quite so large as the former one, and comes gushing out from under the roots of a large Sycamore tree, hence its name. This is a good watering place, and as it is noon we stop to feed and get dinner. Although we eat out of doors, we have hot coffee, and plenty to satisfy the demands of a craving appetite, a thing that Kansas travel ers are generally blessed with. We are now in Butler county, after a ride of twelve miles, across a pretty farming country, we come to the beautiful village of Chelsea. Near it is a lovely stream, where we find quarters for the night, resting as sweetly in our temporary tent as we would in the palace of a King. The next day at 10 o'clock we find ourselves in Eldorado, the town so recently destroyed by a tornado. The houses are all repaired and rebuilt, so that a stranger would not know, from appearances, that anything uncommon had happened. It is a beautiful town, full of business, and has the appearance of thrift in everything. It is the County Seat of Butler county. After resting awhile we resume our journey, stopping again at Augusta at 3 p. m. This town is located at the junction of the Whitewater and Walnut rivers, and is quite a large town, has a Gov-ernment Land office, and is surrounded by a very fine country. Here a meeting of three days was held, and the South-western Kansas Baptist Association organized. Five churches were represented. Three others expect to join the organization. Seven Baptist ministers were present. Sermons were preached by Revs. A. M. Averill, of Emporia, T. D. Grove, of Augusta, and the writer. These churches have all been organized within three years. lascivious cohabitation have been made. SALT LAKE, Oct. 21.—The jury in the Hawkins' case came in last night with a scaled verdict, which; on being opened this afternoon, was found to be "guilty." The court room was crowded, and the announcement created much sensation. The counsel for The People moved the court that defendant be taken into custody, which motion was stoutly resisted by defend-ant's attorneys. The prosecution, however, were firm in their demand that the case should take the ordinary course, and the United States marshal was directed to hold Hawkins as a prisoner. Time was allowed to prepare a motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment. The penalty of the Utah statutes for the crime of adultery is imprisonment not exceeding .20 years, and not less than three years, or by fine of not over $1,000, or both fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court. This is a test case, and virtually places all polygamists at the mercy of the first wife, who, under the act, is the only party who can institute proceedings against the husband. The case was contested on both sides with great determination, and the charge of Chief-Justice Mc Kean to the jury last night is spoken of as being eminently able.

To The Public.

HOLLAND, Mich., Oct. 14, 1871. The earnest and practical sympathy which neighboring places are manifesting in the calamity which has so suddenly overwhelmed our rising city, calls forth our deepest gratitude. Yet we are constrained to make known more fully our circumstances.

After a severe and apparently successful conflict with the fire during the week, our citizens were summoned by the Sabbath bell to work instead of worship; and their usual day of rest had to be converted into a season of anxious labor. For many weary hours they fought, until human nature could no longer endure or resist the smoke and heat. Then the city was swept with destruction. Our morchants and manufacturers having begun to acquire a small capital, the result of years of toil, find themselves in a moment stripped of everything. If Chicago were not herself prostrate in ashes, she would at once furnish all they need. But now we must look elsewhere—and we appeal to Michigan. Shall a community which has for twenty-five years been doing the most painful pioneer. work, be compelled at last to surrender? Will the capitalists of our own State, who under the Divine blessing have attained their present prosperity, by similar labors, suffer these colonists with their American associates to be driven by misfortune from the spot where they have toiled to establish social, civil, educatioal and religious, as well as business institutions? Will the State itself, which fostered the Colony in its infancy, now see its whole work brought to nothing? We earnestly ask the citizens of Michigan, not only for temporary help with food and clothing, but for permanent aid with materials, machinery, implements of labor, and such foundation of capital as shall enable us to resume our various industrial

Democracy.

Gen. Blair, of Missouri, in his speech at Montgomery, Alabama, proved the extent of the confusion and differences in the Democratic party. Gen. Blair was the last Democratic candidate for Vice President, and is a powerful leader in his party. He argued in faver of nominating some Republican for President, and he ridiculed the new departure. Thus the Democratic party presents four or five warrning factions. One adopts the new departure. Another proposes not to make any nomination at all, or construct any platform, but to encourage a split in the Republican party, and join the Republican bolters. Another proposes to run the Democratic party hereafter, as heretofore, with a regu-lar party ticket and platform. An-other proposes, with Gen. Blair, to run some dissatisfied Republican upon a Democratic regular ticket, and with a sort of half-and-half non-committal platform. Yet another proposes that the Southern Democrats shall take no part in the National Democratic Convention. There are nearly a dozen other minor splits in the party. One goes for unlimited greenbacks and virtual repudiation. Another goes for resumption of specie payments. Another adopts the Tammany platform and leaders. Another follows the Confederate Vice President Stevens, and sticks to the old secession heresics. In short, if anybody knows what the Democratic party really is, means, or hopes, as a whole, he has not yet been discovered.—Detroit Post.

-At about four o'clock yesterday afternoon, the Heavens presented a most remarkable appearance, the like of which has never before been witnessed by the "oldest inhabitant." The sky being almost cloudless, a brilliant rainbow was visible in the heavens, nearly overhead, with the arc towards the southwest, while another could be seen towards the south, at an angle of about 45 degrees, with the arc towards the east; and still another near the southern horizon, with the arc towards the zenith.—At the same time brilliant sundogs were vis-ible in different directions. At sea their appearance would indicate a terrific gale. If they bring us rain, anything short of a deluge will be acceptable, -- Monroe Commercial, Oct. 19.

-A scody looking chap claiming to be a "sufferer" from Chicago was lianging around the Central House last Friday night, and on being told he must either go to bed or to jail decided to accept the former. In the morning he was missing, as was also the wardrobe of one of the boarders. He was tracked through Marengo, to Albion, where upon representing himself as a tinner from Chicago, and out of money, he was generously provided for, and his hotel bill paid for the night, Saturday. During the night Sheriff Richfield called at the hotel and by giving his description found his man in bed with his pants and boots on, with the stolen goods in his posession, and a number of ladies' diesses, the other women for wives, except that she had had her day, and it was proper that he should have some one else. 12th day of Sept., saying that he was with him in the morning. MINNE STATEMENT

To any person producing any Medicine able to show one-third as many living, permanent cures as Dr. Fitler's Vioetaule Rheumatic Remedy; and a further reward of Sloo for any case of Chronic or Inflammatory Rheumatism, Neuralgia Rheumatic Ague, Sciatica, and Rheumatism of the Ridneys it will not cure. This Rheumatic syrup is used in artily only, pleasant to the taste, and guaranteed free from injurious Drugs. It is not a Quack Medicine, but the scientific prescription of Jos. P. Filler, Al. D., Professor of Toxicology and Chemistry, graduate of the celebrated University of Pennsylvania, A. D. 1838, whose entire professional life has been devoted specially to this disease. This preparation under solemn eath is conscientiously believed to be the only positive, reliable, infallible specific ever discovered. The proof that no other specific for many years past and still suffering. If physicians could cure it, if a specific did exist, this would not be so, a fact that must be universally admitted. The off deceived sufferer may wisely ask, what security or evidence has that Dr. Filler's Rheumatic Syrup will cure his case. The protection offered to patients against imposition is in a legally signed coutract which will be forwarded without charge to any sufferer sending by letter a description of affliction; this guarantee will state the exact number of bottles wurranted to cure, and in case of failure the money paid will be returned to the patient. No other remedy has ever been offered on such liberal and honoration to the control of the principal office, 46 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa. Dr. Fitler's Rheumatic Syrup is sold by Druggists.

Is widely known effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying stood the test of stantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhoea, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

MARRIAGES .- We notice by our exchanges that an unusually large number of marriages have taken place this fall in various parts of the State. Young people act in getting married a good deal as sheep do in breaking an enclosure, when one leaps the bars they are all sure to follow.

CONCERT.-The Concert given at Collins & Weaver's Hall, on last Friday evening, for the benefit of Michigan sufferers, was largely attended, Like the waves of the deep they move onward and was pronounced by all a very good performance. We have not room to speak of each actor, and to singularize would be showing undue partiality. Every one of these home entertainments we have attended convinces us of the absurd folly in spending money to patronize traveling shows and exhibitions. The net proceeds, How long shall we sit in the shadow of death, How long shall we faint in thy withering breath, How long for our sins, for transgression and we learned, were $34.

FROM LARETON.

Oct. 23, 1871. EDITORS RECORD :- In your last issue I notice the losses by the late fire in Lake are much exaggerated. Price's mill and lumber, loss $600 instead of $2,500. Loss to Brown and Medaris, about $4,000 instead of $6,000. Henry Ford lost no hay and grain. In place of Fred Ballard. please read Fred Haller, loss $400. B. Hathaway, loss $500. Mr. Clymer lost buildings, hay, grain, &c., loss $1,000. J. Price lost house and grain, loss $300 to $500. W. L. Wheelock lost hay and logs, loss $200. J. Haller lost tarn and hay, loss $150. These are the principal losses in this vicinity, although many lost fences, &c. Those that had land to clear, and lost nothing but fences, are greatly benefitted by the fire. Yours, 0. A. E. B.

ENLARGED AND BEAUTIFIED—the Great Family Paper for half a century. On the occasion of entering up-on its Fifty-First year, the Saturday Evening Post comes to us greatly enlarged, and in a complete suit of new type. Fifty years is a long time in the life of a paper, and the Post may well be proud of its long and honorable career. The Post makes now a New Departure, enlarging its size fully one-third, and claims to be the largest and cheapest of the Family Papers. It also leads off with a new Revolutionary story, called "Agnes Ayre, a Tale of the Times of Sumter and Marion." The Post takes ground against the low and corrupting stories now becoming so common, and pledg-MONEY TRANSFERRED BY TELE- es itself to the publication of a pure literature, such as any man may take with safety into the bosom of his family. It also pledges itself to entire neutrality in politics. Price $3.00 a year. The Post and The Lady's Friend $4. Single numbers 6 cents. Address H. > [From the Editor Waupun (Wis ) Leader.] For the past ten years Dr. V. Clarence Price has made regular visits to Waupun, and the fact that each succeeding year has added to the number of his patients, would indicate that he is not one of the swarm of traveling humbugs that infest the country, if his uniform success in cases under his treatment, did not prove him to be a phy sician of scientific attainments and extensive experience. Candid at all times with his patients, taking pay from none unless he believes he can assist them, telling them frankly, when he believes their case is be youd the reach of medical skill, undertaking no case that can as well be cared for by local physicians, and devoting himself to the treatment of a class of chronic diseases which long experience and study en ables him to master, more certainly than a physician in general practice could be able to do, his regular visits afford an opportunity to the afflicted, which they should not be slow in improving. Dr. Price can be consilted in person at Niles, Reading House, Sanday and Monday, the 5th and 6th of November. Laporte, Merrill House, 22d and 23d October.

Burlington.

Leaving the East and arriving at Chicago or Indianapolis, how shall we reach the West? The best Line is acknowledged to be the C. B. & Q. joined together with the B. &. M. Raitroad by the Iron Bridge at Burlington, and called the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

The main line of the Route running to Omaha, connects with the great Pacific Roads, and forms to-day the leading route to California. The Middle Branch, entering Nebraska at Plattsmouth, passes through Lincoln, the State Capital, and will this year be finished to Fort Kearney, forming the shortest route across the Continent by over 100 miles. Another branch of the B. M., diverging at Red Oak, falls into a line running down the Missouri through St. Joe to Kansas City, and all Kansas. Passengers by this route to Kansas, see Illinois, Southern Iowa, and Missouri, and, by a slight divergence, can see Nebraska also.

Lovers of fine views should remember the Burlington Route, for its towns 'high gleaming from afar"-its tree-fringed streams-its rough bluffs and quarriesits corn-oceans stretching over the prairies further than the eye can reach.

Land buyers will be sure to remember t, for they have, friends among the two thousand who have already bought farms from Geo. S. Harris, the Land Commissioner of the B. & M. R R. at Burlington, Iowa, or among the four thousand home steaders and pre-emptors who last year filed claims in the Lincoln land office, where "Uncle Sam is rich enough to give us all a farm."

SPEAK THOU THE TRUTH, . Speak thou the truth. Let others fence, And trim their words for pay; In pleasant snushine of preten Let others bask their day.

Guard thou the fact, though clouds of night Down on the watch-tower stoop; Though thou shouldst see thing heart's delight Barne from thee by their swoop.

Face thou the wind, though safer seem In shelter to abide; We were not made to sit and dream; The storm must first be tried. Where God has set his thorns about,

Is paved with toil and pain. One fragment of His blezel Word, Into the spicit burn d.
Is better than the whole half heard,

Ory not, "The way is plain;" His path within for those without

And by thing interest turned. Show that the light. If conscience gleam, Set not the kushed down; The smalest spirk may send its beam O'er hamlet, tower, and town.

Was, was to him, on selety bent, Who creeps to age floar youth, Falling to gousp his life's intent, Because he tears the truth.

Be true to every inmost thought, And as the thought, the speech; Weat then has there by suffering bought, Presume thou not to teach.

Hold on, hold on; then hast the rock, Thy foes are on the sand; The first world-tempost's rutiless shock Scatters their shilting strand;

While each wild gust the mist shall clear We now see darkly through, And justified at last appear, The true, in Him that's True. -DEAN ALFORD.

Scur Words.

1. They indicate a sour origin. They show that the heart is in an acid state. The hearer of such words cannot but have his own, and not very complimentary opinion of the speak-

2. They make the speaker himself more souc. Words react upon those who utter them. As kind words beget kindness, and increase the power of it in the soul, so sour words increase the bad temper of him who uses them. They add fuel to the fire and augment the heat.

3. Sour words dangerously tend to make the hearer sour. They create an atmosphere which he breathes, and the virus is likely to penetrate his soul and make him sour too. Vinegar gives its own character to anything it can reach. So, it is not the fault of the sour in heart and speech that they do not spoil all the sweetness there is about them.

4. Sour words are all but certain to give sourness to the countenance. The face is a tell-tale of the heart, and the heart's sourcess, rising to the lips in bitter words, has wonderful power over all the features. Look on the countenance, as its owner is using sharp and bitter words. Do you see a smiling June or a scowling Novem-

5. Sour words are not soon forgotten: Sharp and piercing, they enter, like iron, into the soul. As with hooks of steel, they hang on to memory. All that you can recollect of some people are the sour words you have heard them use.

Now, my young friends, if sour words indicate a sour heart, and make the speaker more sour, and make hearers sour, and give a sour countenance, and make one's sourness long and painfully remembered—there are five reasons why such words should never be found upon your lips. Let the last ones you have used be the last!

This One Thing I Do.

Dr. Chalmers said:-"Unless I make religion my great and engrossing concern, I shall be a stranger to ali solid peace and enjoyment. I have at times caught a glimpse of the comfort which it yields to the spirit, when I merge my will into God's will—when I resolve to have no will of my own separate from God. I feel quite assured that this renunciation of self, and entire devotion to God's service, would give a simplicity and grandeur to my existence—would throw an unclouded sunshine over all my wayswould raise me above the cares and provocations of this life-would enhance even my sensible gratifications. and superadd those gratifications of a higher order which constitute the main and essential blessedness of heaven. O my God, may it be thus with me! Call me out of Nature's darkness into Thine own marvelous light. Give me to aspire after the graces, and hold forth to my acquaintances, and, above all, to my children, the example of all righteousness. Conform me to the Gospel economy under which I sit—that as Christ died for sin, I may die to it—that as He rose again, I may rise to newness of life, and feel it my meet and drink to do Thy will."

Pitch Sticks!

"Oh, dear, how it sticks!" cried Willie, who while passing through the street where men were laying a new pavement, formed of asphalt, ran against one of the workmen who was carrying a kettle of the boiling pitch, some of which made great black patches on his clothes.

Pitch is not the only thing that sticks. There are bad habits—oh! how they stick; and the little everyday sins that you do not think anything of; and bad companions—oh! how these stick! Far better, children, that you be covered with pitch from head to foot, than consent to go with bad company, or learn bad habits, or read bad books, or say bad things. Remember that there are many other things as black as pitch.

Talk With God. There are some men who having formed the habit of talking with God in the closet, carry it with them into the pulpit, to the great edification of God's people. We have one such in mind. He is never flippant; his prayers are never marked by that fluent familiarity which characterizes the intercessions of the Praying Band; but his prayers are always simple in thought and expression as a child's talk with his father, always adapted to the occasion on which they are of fered, and not to some ideal or general convocation of God's people, always fresh and permeated by the vital forces of a loving, trusting heart. Would it not be pleasanter, and every way better, if more pastors would conceive the idea of simple talking with God?—Examiner.

THE PICTORIAL FAMILY BIBLE, in addition to the features already alluded to, contains the Apocrypha, Concordance, Patins in Metre, a Funnary of the Sacred Truths as taught in the Inspired Book, together with numerous and comprehensive Tables and other Historical and Explanatory matter, embodying the labors of many of the most eminent Biblical globars? It is printed on finest calladered paper, from clear and open type, in one large and handsome quarto volume, and is bound in the most durable and attractive manner, while the prices are sufficiently low to place it within everybody's reach.

EXPERIENCED AGENTS are wanted throughout the country for its sale, with whom liberal arrangements will be used. An opportunity of equal promise is rarely or never presented. Its sale will not be limited, but will continue for a life time, constantly increasing with the growth and intelligence of the country. It is therefore desirable that those who engage with us, shall do with a view to making the business a permanent one: MINISTERS, TEACHERS, STUDENTS, TARMERS, YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN—those who would inset with the most profitable employments—are invited to correspond with us with a view to an agency. Not a few such are now averaging from $5000 to $7000 annual profit in its sale. There is a great want for the book and a rich field offered, while it will elevate the spiritual condition by constant contact with, and conversations upon its beautiful and eternal truths.

AGENTS ON THE INSTALMENT PLAN will be furnished the work in fine bindings. This plan is quite popular and profitable in cities and large towns. We have an edition of the book, superbly bound, with massive panelled sides, which has been everywhere received with parked favor. Subscriptions for the Pictorial Bible, in this style and in this way, can be obtained to an almost unlimited extent, as there is no outlay of money that the Bible reader can make, which will yield him so rich a return.

We are also the Publishers of POTTER'S STANDARD EDITIONS of Eamily, Pulpit, Pocket and Photograph Libbes and Testaments—nearly 300 different styles—so well known everywhere for their accuracy of text, beauty of finish and dumblility of bluding. Vinegar Bitters are not avile Fancy Drink. Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors dectored, spiced and sweet-ened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE CIVING PRINCIPIE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direc-tions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or inflam-mation of the Liver, and all the Viscoral Organs. FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of wo-manhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheuma. tism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful.

Chest, Dizzness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Month, Billous Attacks, Palpliation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of enequalled offsets in cleaning the blood of all impositions and officacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its, healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggisticate cleansed by Aper's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:

For Thyspersia or Endigestion, Listless, iees, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy to simulate the stomach, and restore its healthy to end action.

For Elver Complaint and its various symptoms, Billious Mendache, Sick Headache, Sick Headache, Jaunifice or Green Sickiness, Ellicus of the formaching the formaches, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Byserpsia or remove the obstructions which cause it.

As a Dinner PIU, take one or two PIUs to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PIUs makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

A recently married man in Franklin county, Mass., coming home rather late the other night, took an umbrella from the rack in the hall and proceeded to his room. The grieved: and indignant wife opened her eyes, and seeing her husband supporting himself by the foot-board with one hand and holding an umbrella spread over his head with the other, cried in astonishment: "What are you doing? Are you crazy?" "No," said he in an unsteady voice, "but-hic-I supposed there'd be a storm-hic-and so I've come prepared for it."

An angry Western editor wrote to a poetical correspondent the other day: "If you don't stop sending me your abominable poetry. I'll print a piece of it some day with your name appended in full, and send a copy to your gal!" The poetry from that fountain was quickly dried up.

Among the Sunday school children of a certain church was a poor little fellow. He could not tell the number of the house in which he lived, and was charged when he next came to school to bring it. The next time he appeared he was asked if he brought the number. "No, sir," said he; "it was nailed on the door so tight that I couldn't get it off."

"You say," said a judge to a witness, "that the plaintiff resorted to an ingenious use of circumstantial evidence; state just exactly what you mean by that." "Well," said the witness, "my exact meaning is that he

MEA Boston trader called at a house in Maine some time ago to buy cheese, but when he came to look at the lot, concluded not to take it, as it was full of skippers. As he was going off, the farmer said to him: "Look herd, how can I get my cheese to Boston the cheapest?" The trader took another look at the cheese, and seeing more and more evidence of its being alive, replied: "Well, let it be for a day or two longer, and I guess you can drive it down."

Doctor," said a wealthy patient to his physician, "I want you to be thorough. Strike at the root of the disease!" "Well, I will," said the doctor, as he lifted his cane and brought it down hard enough to break into pieces a bottle and glasses which stood upon the sideboard. It was his last professional visit in that house.
