W. H. WAGNER, Editors. THURSDAY MORNING, JAN. 25, 1872.

GOVERNMENTAL.

Many of our State exchanges are discussing the qualifications of several persons whose names have been mentioned as candidates for the nomination of Governor of the State.

The western part of the State claims, with much consistency, that the next Governor should be chosen from the western district, and if a candidate is decided upon from the western portion of the State, who possesses equal qualifications with others who are proposed at the convention, he will doubtless receive the nomination.

By order of the Secretary of War. (Signed) E. D. TOWNSEND, Adjutant General.

When Carter concluded his speech the crowd slowly dispersed. Canal street, this afternoon, was unusually quiet. The action of the President, in preventing a conflict, seems to give satisfaction to the citizens, in view of the early coming of the Congressional Committee, which promises peace and a solution of the political troubles.

SENATE, JAN. 16.—Petitions were presented for the repeal of the salt duty; for a national Prohibitory Law; against the Government manufacture of envelopes; for national schools, and against employing Government officers who drink intoxicating liquors.

HOUSE, JAN. 16.—Messrs. Scofield, McGreevy, Smith, of New York, Voorhees, and Marshall were appointed a Committee on the Louisiana imbroglio.

SENATE, JAN. 17.—Bills were introduced as follows: To admit tea and coffee free; for the relief of the East Tennessee University; to indemnify Kentucky and other States for expenses incurred in defence of the United States; the bill for the relief of Marshall Campbell, of the Northern District of California; the bill for the relief of the United States and the possessions of Great Britain, from the Lake of the Woods to the Rocky Mountains.

SENATOR CHANDLER AND THE CHICAGO RELIEF BILL.

Senator Chandler on Tuesday offered an amendment to the Chicago Relief bill extending its provisions to certain towns in Michigan. If Chicago is entitled to the consideration of admission of building material free of duty, we can see no good reason why every other place that has been destroyed by fire is not entitled to the same consideration.

THE LOUISIANA LEGISLATIVE IMBROGLIO.

Carter, the head of the opposition to the Warmothites, claiming to be the rightful Speaker of the Legislature, and that the Governor's course had been revolutionary, issued a proclamation that he should, on Monday, Jan. 22, proceed to clear the approaches to the State House of the armed metropolitan police, and take possession of the Legislature.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22.—A copy of the following was sent to Carter and Warmoth this morning: HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF, NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22. SIR: The following despatch has just been received from Washington, and I consider it proper to furnish a copy to the commanding parties.

HOUSE, JAN. 22.—The day was spent without action on any bill. Petitions were presented in favor of the Civil Rights; from the widow of Gen. R. E. Lee asking an appropriation of $300,000 for the building of the Arlington estate.

HOUSE, Jan. 22.—The following bills were introduced and referred: A bill for the building of a railroad bridge across the Ohio river at Cincinnati; to repeal the income tax; to authorize the construction of the Tennessee river; for a public building in Paducah, Ky.; to indemnify Kentucky and other States for expenses in defending the Union.

State Items.

A fund has been raised by subscription among the citizens, sufficient to put up and maintain sixteen street lamps, which will be placed in the most prominent places around the town.—Port Austin News.

HOUSE, JAN. 17.—A number of petitions were referred, and numerous persons were sworn in. The bill was passed fixing the date of pensions at the time of the discharge or death of the soldier, and extending the time for application to July 1st, 1874.

HOUSE, JAN. 18.—A large number of pension bills passed. One passed which allowed the widow who has been drawing a pension for nineteen years to receive fourteen years' back pension, on the principal of the bill passed yesterday.

HOUSE, JAN. 19.—Senate not in session. HOUSE, JAN. 19.—On the contested election case, from Pennsylvania, of Cassin (Republican) against Meyers (Democrat) two of the nine members reversed their votes in the committee, giving Meyers a larger majority.

HOUSE, Jan. 22.—The following bills were introduced and referred: A bill for the building of a railroad bridge across the Ohio river at Cincinnati; to repeal the income tax; to authorize the construction of the Tennessee river; for a public building in Paducah, Ky.; to indemnify Kentucky and other States for expenses in defending the Union.

Union Farmers' Club. BUCHANAN, Jan. 20, 1872. The Union Farmers' Club met pursuant to adjournment, David Fisk, President, in the Chair.

The undersigned beg leave to announce to the public that they now have the entire control of the Sash and Door Factory, which, for the past few years has been run by Marhoff & Warner, and that it is the design of the new firm to try and do the best they can for those interested in their line of business.

FROM BERRIEN. Jan. 20, 1872. Eds. RECORD.—The following touching and beautiful poem was read at the funeral of George S. Pardee, the good man and devoted teacher, who died at Berrien Springs on the 16th inst.

FROM CHICKAMING. Jan. 16, 1872. Eds. RECORD.—I suppose you think it about time you heard from me on our six-months correspondence.

"How To Go West." Forty years ago, Illinois was as far West as most people wished to go, and journeys were made in the legendary "Prairie Schooner," but in these days of Progress and Improvement, the word West, has come to mean Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, California and the Territories, and the traveler reaches almost any point therein by a splendid Line of Railroad.
