

The Berrien County Record.

BUCHANAN, MICH., THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1872. NUMBER 7.

Established 1865.

Chancery Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a decree made in the Circuit Court of the County of Berrien, on the 4th day of June, A. D. 1871, a certain parcel of land, to-wit: Charles Clark and Eugene F. Alexander are complainants and Homer N. Hathaway, Mary Hathaway, William O. Hathaway, and Catherine J. Hathaway are defendants.

John C. Welch, Drafter in Diamonds, Fine French and American Clocks.

Gold and Silver Watches, Fine Jewellery, Ladies' and Gents' Gold and Silver Chains, Coin Silver Table Ware and Silver Plated Goods.

Of every description, and of the most celebrated manufacturers. I am also agent for Aiken, Lambert & Co's

Gold Pens, Of which we have a full and well selected supply.

Violin & Guitar Strings, And a large stock of Gold, Silver & Steel-Bowed Spectacles. Made a specialty of.

Having closed up my News, Book and Stationery business, I am prepared to give my attention to the Jewelry business exclusively, and in making the change, it is with a view to benefit those who may give me a call, by offering them goods at prices that defy competition.

Large sales and very small profits is emphatically the motto of all my future business transactions.

Your Clock, Watch and Jewelry repairing is earnestly solicited, and in every case my personal attention shall be directed to its execution. Satisfaction guaranteed.

For your past favors allow me to return you my sincere thanks.

Very Respectfully, JOHN C. WELCH.

The place-foot of Main Street.

Farm for Sale. This subscriber offers for sale of 80 acres of land, being the N. 1/2 of Sec. 16, and the W. 1/2 of Sec. 17, in Township of Chillingham situated on the Lake Shore road, between New York and New Buffalo, half a mile from the Chillingham Station, on the Chicago and Michigan Lake Shore R. R. The land is of the best quality, and well adapted for a fruit farm, and is about twenty acres cleared, a good young orchard of choice apple and peach trees, some of them bearing; a good log house and barn; a good well of water, and a never-failing spring creek runs through the lot. Any person wishing to go into the growing of fruit, or the place before purchasing, please apply to the subscriber at the premises.

W. H. HARRIS, Sec'y.

BUCHANAN FLOURING MILLS. ROUGH & PEARS PROPRIETORS.

Cash Paid for Wheat, Corn, &c. CUSTOM WORK CAREFULLY ATTENDED TO.

J. H. ROE. Clocks, Watches, Jewelry. Musical Instruments Repaired.

Prices Reasonable and All Work Well Done.

W. M. SAWYER, Justice of the Peace. Notary Public. Real Estate Agent.

W. H. FOX & CO., Dealers in Dry Goods, Notions and Fancy Goods. First door east of the Bank Building, Buchanan, Mich.

W. M. OSBORN, Druggist & Apothecary. South side of Front Street, Buchanan, Mich.

W. D. KINRGY, Attorney at Law. Solicitor in Chancery and Notary Public. Office in the Record Building, Buchanan, Mich. Particular attention paid to collections.

W. J. PETERSON, Well digger. Wells dug, cleaned and repaired. Work guaranteed. Residence—Buchanan, Mich.

Eating House and Ice Cream Saloon.

MISS MARY ARTHUR. Insurance Agency. Buchanan, Michigan.

D. A. WAGNER. Insurance Agency. Buchanan, Michigan.

W. H. HARRIS, Sec'y.

W. M. OSBORN, Druggist & Apothecary. South side of Front Street, Buchanan, Mich.

W. D. KINRGY, Attorney at Law. Solicitor in Chancery and Notary Public. Office in the Record Building, Buchanan, Mich. Particular attention paid to collections.

W. J. PETERSON, Well digger. Wells dug, cleaned and repaired. Work guaranteed. Residence—Buchanan, Mich.

Eating House and Ice Cream Saloon.

MISS MARY ARTHUR. Insurance Agency. Buchanan, Michigan.

D. A. WAGNER. Insurance Agency. Buchanan, Michigan.

W. H. HARRIS, Sec'y.

W. M. OSBORN, Druggist & Apothecary. South side of Front Street, Buchanan, Mich.

W. D. KINRGY, Attorney at Law. Solicitor in Chancery and Notary Public. Office in the Record Building, Buchanan, Mich. Particular attention paid to collections.

W. J. PETERSON, Well digger. Wells dug, cleaned and repaired. Work guaranteed. Residence—Buchanan, Mich.

Eating House and Ice Cream Saloon.

MISS MARY ARTHUR. Insurance Agency. Buchanan, Michigan.

D. A. WAGNER. Insurance Agency. Buchanan, Michigan.

W. H. HARRIS, Sec'y.

W. M. OSBORN, Druggist & Apothecary. South side of Front Street, Buchanan, Mich.

Poetry.

WHAT IS THE USE. What is the use of raiming a lamp, If you never intend to light it?

What is the use of grasping a weapon, If you never intend to fight it?

What is the use of removing your hat, If you do not intend to carry it?

What is the use of wooing a maid, If you never intend to marry it?

What is the use of buying a coat, If you never intend to wear it?

What is the use of a horse or two, If you never intend to share it?

What is the use of gathering gold, If you never intend to keep it?

What is the use of planting a field, If you never intend to reap it?

What is the use of buying a book, If you never intend to read it?

What is the use of a grade to you, If you never intend to need it?

Story.

A HANDKERCHIEF FLIRTATION. BY BELLE FINELAYSON.

A glorious day in June. Thursday afternoon at Lafayette Park. Waldauer's best band is discoursing its most enchanting music.

What an Elysium this place is. Thus thought two young girls as they sauntered over the rustic bridge.

They stopped, negligently leaning over the unique railing, and idly watched the rippling water; the pebbles; the moss and the beautiful shrubbery.

Presently one of them started suddenly, and uttered a little exclamation.

"Oh! isn't he handsome!" This appealed to Stella glanced up and encountered a pair of dark and bewildering eyes bent ardently upon her.

The gentleman was at a little distance, leaning listlessly against a tree, and, like themselves, seemed overcome with the surrounding loveliness.

Stella blushed scarlet and glanced the other way, as the handsome stranger did not seem disposed to withdraw his gaze, and then tossing her head saucily, which veered her coquetish little gipsy a little to one side, she wheeled around and went over to the other side of the bridge.

A very gipsy she seemed herself, this little rosy-eyed and curly-haired wench, with her jaunty style and defiant air.

"Oh! Julia! it's Prof. Barotini, the great tenor singer; you remember he was with that opera troupe last winter at Dea De Bar's. He must have returned from Europe. What a figure he did make, this celebrated Italian; and how all the ladies did pet him and court him, sending him bouquets and all manner of presents, and no wonder, for he is a perfect Apollo. I never saw him off the stage before, but I know I was perfectly enchanted with his fine voice and handsome face.

Many of the ladies invited him to their house, but of course he never came beneath our roof; mamma and papa are such rigid Presbyterians that they imagine an actor or professional singer perfectly awful; and I would never have been permitted to hear Barotini at all if I had not stolen off by some contrivance, you remember he is cousin Sarah's family, while there spending the night."

"Well, he is very, very handsome, and I don't wonder that those ladies were infatuated; but he seems to have fallen in love with you; he has withdrawn his eyes from my single instant."

"Oh! I do wish I could become acquainted with him, just to get even with that haughty Maud Banoroff, who, it seems, succeeds in entrapping all the lion's who visit our city. He actually called there, and they sauntered together. But wishing is useless, for there is no one to present me."

"Well, I shouldn't care, Stella, for you know he's married, and then, besides, what would your mamma say to your conversing with a public singer?"

"Julia, did you notice that? Did you see his 'draw' his handkerchief across his lips? You know that is 'dehors' an acquaintance."

"Oh! that was doubtless an accident."

"I am not so certain about that; but I intend to try a little experiment that I find out."

Here she took her handkerchief by the center and held it for a moment, which in handkerchief parlance means "you are most too willing."

Soon the elegant figure sauntered leisurely away.

"Oh! what a goose I am, I have driven him away."

"Not at all, Stella; I think his act was a mere accident, and a quite natural one, and I presume he did not even notice you."

"Oh, I do wish I knew!" said Stella as she observed the handsome face, now far in the distance, and still increasing the intervening space, though the young ladies had started, and were now walking in the same direction.

Presently the attention of the stranger was once more directed toward them, and quick as flash Stella held her handkerchief, opposite corners in both hands, which "do wait for me."

Then the handsome stranger stopped, and Stella was now satisfied, though she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

but her nature was entirely different; and the more so because of the rigid and unyielding bands which ever bound her, and which she was continually trying to burst asunder. Like an imprisoned bird, she beat the bars of her cage all day, and sighed for many a thing, just because it was inaccessible and unattainable.

When the golden moments did finally come, at long intervals, in which she could do just as she pleased, she had a kind of jaunty, defiant air, and thought of doing many things that, had her life been a different one, would never have come into her mind.

Her father was a wealthy banker, and they lived in a fine marble front mansion on Grand avenue. Stella's matrimonial plan had likewise all been arranged, long before, by the same far-seeing father and mother, whose anxiety for their daughter's future welfare was so great that they concluded that she should be a minister, or something of the kind, if it was possible, would do for her. Accordingly, when she was yet a very small child, her father and his old friend, Rev. Josiah Elwood, who had been in the same class with him at Harvard University, and now pastor of a church in Brooklyn, made an arrangement that their children should marry, and so it had come about that there was a distinct understanding that Stella was to marry the Rev. Josiah Elwood's son, Bernard.

Of course, the young lady demurred great at this; in her own mind, but she sought consolation in banishing the evil day as far as possible, as she was troubled with no visits from the family, they residing in Brooklyn and she in St. Louis. The dutiful son was even further off than that, and he never intruded upon her letters upon her. She remembered him only as he looked when she was a little girl, the great, tall strapping youth, that seemed to take very little notice of her, further than to do all he could to tease her. She had now many admirers, as she had a certain dash about her, which was quite captivating; but Deacon Lawton would not permit his daughter to receive visits from any one who attended the opera, or was the least worldly in his associations.

Thus it was, that the dauntless, and somewhat romantic little Stella was forever studying out in her own mind some delicious little adventure, which never found realization, save in a pre-giggle-eyed and curly-haired wench, with her jaunty style and defiant air.

"Oh! Julia! it's Prof. Barotini, the great tenor singer; you remember he was with that opera troupe last winter at Dea De Bar's. He must have returned from Europe. What a figure he did make, this celebrated Italian; and how all the ladies did pet him and court him, sending him bouquets and all manner of presents, and no wonder, for he is a perfect Apollo. I never saw him off the stage before, but I know I was perfectly enchanted with his fine voice and handsome face.

Many of the ladies invited him to their house, but of course he never came beneath our roof; mamma and papa are such rigid Presbyterians that they imagine an actor or professional singer perfectly awful; and I would never have been permitted to hear Barotini at all if I had not stolen off by some contrivance, you remember he is cousin Sarah's family, while there spending the night."

"Well, he is very, very handsome, and I don't wonder that those ladies were infatuated; but he seems to have fallen in love with you; he has withdrawn his eyes from my single instant."

"Oh! I do wish I could become acquainted with him, just to get even with that haughty Maud Banoroff, who, it seems, succeeds in entrapping all the lion's who visit our city. He actually called there, and they sauntered together. But wishing is useless, for there is no one to present me."

"Well, I shouldn't care, Stella, for you know he's married, and then, besides, what would your mamma say to your conversing with a public singer?"

"Julia, did you notice that? Did you see his 'draw' his handkerchief across his lips? You know that is 'dehors' an acquaintance."

"Oh! that was doubtless an accident."

"I am not so certain about that; but I intend to try a little experiment that I find out."

Here she took her handkerchief by the center and held it for a moment, which in handkerchief parlance means "you are most too willing."

Soon the elegant figure sauntered leisurely away.

"Oh! what a goose I am, I have driven him away."

"Not at all, Stella; I think his act was a mere accident, and a quite natural one, and I presume he did not even notice you."

"Oh, I do wish I knew!" said Stella as she observed the handsome face, now far in the distance, and still increasing the intervening space, though the young ladies had started, and were now walking in the same direction.

Presently the attention of the stranger was once more directed toward them, and quick as flash Stella held her handkerchief, opposite corners in both hands, which "do wait for me."

Then the handsome stranger stopped, and Stella was now satisfied, though she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie and drew it tenderly across his cheek, which means "I love you."

The two girls now came to a dead standstill, and Stella, fearing that some "would notice" this little by-play, hastily put her handkerchief in her pocket, which signifies "no more at present," and then left the ground.

Stella Lawton's parents were attracted by her beauty, and she was betrothed to a young man of fortune, but she was so hot and embarrassed, and felt so confused, she hardly knew what to do; but the face of the distinguished-looking stranger was beaming; almost a smile played about his beautiful mouth; and then he took his cambric mousie

The Berrien County Record. P. A. WAGNER, Editors. W. D. KINGERY, Printers. THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 4, 1872. Republican State Convention.

Resolutions of the Convention. A Republican State Convention, to appoint 20 delegates to represent this State in the National Republican Convention...

Republican County Convention. The Republican County Convention will meet in Convention at the Court House, Buchanan, Michigan, on Tuesday, April 3rd, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Congressional District. The Legislature at its late session finally succeeded, after much debate, in re-districting the State into Congressional Districts.

Valuable Statistics. The Government assisted by Gen. Walker, Superintendent of the last census has taken pains to compile a table showing the population, wealth, indebtedness and rate of taxation of the various States.

Ohio Correspondence. DELPHOS, O., March 27, 1872. MESSRS. WAGNER & KINGERY—Gold weather is not good here in North-western Ohio.

Chicago Relief Bill. At last the Chicago Relief bill has passed Congress, but in a less objectionable form than it first passed the House.

State Items. The Hudson Post has the following items:—Wheat looks poorly about here.—Potatoes are scarce in our market.

State Items. The Hudson Post has the following items:—Wheat looks poorly about here.—Potatoes are scarce in our market.

State Items. The Hudson Post has the following items:—Wheat looks poorly about here.—Potatoes are scarce in our market.

State Items. The Hudson Post has the following items:—Wheat looks poorly about here.—Potatoes are scarce in our market.

State Items. The Hudson Post has the following items:—Wheat looks poorly about here.—Potatoes are scarce in our market.

stamping and clapping. In a few days they subscribed about $55,000. Some farmers putting down, as stock, $1,000 a piece. They have the promise of the road of which Col. Sprague, of Detroit, is the President.

TOWNSHIP ELECTIONS. The following is the result of the Elections of Monday in the County so far as heard from up to the hour of going to press:

Berrien, John Tate, Dem., Supervisor, over J. F. Peck, Rep. Chikamingo, Wm. A. Keith, Dem., Supervisor, A. L. Drew, Clerk, and Rep., Treasurer.

Lansing Correspondent. LANSING, Mich., March 25, 1872. EDITORS RECORD:—The past week has been a busy one in the Legislature.

Congressional. SENATE, MARCH 25.—The bill was passed for the relief of certain officers of the navy; the bill was passed for the sale of the Marine Hospital and grounds in San Francisco, Cal.

Congressional. SENATE, MARCH 25.—The bill was passed for the relief of certain officers of the navy; the bill was passed for the sale of the Marine Hospital and grounds in San Francisco, Cal.

Congressional. SENATE, MARCH 25.—The bill was passed for the relief of certain officers of the navy; the bill was passed for the sale of the Marine Hospital and grounds in San Francisco, Cal.

Congressional. SENATE, MARCH 25.—The bill was passed for the relief of certain officers of the navy; the bill was passed for the sale of the Marine Hospital and grounds in San Francisco, Cal.

Congressional. SENATE, MARCH 25.—The bill was passed for the relief of certain officers of the navy; the bill was passed for the sale of the Marine Hospital and grounds in San Francisco, Cal.

Congressional. SENATE, MARCH 25.—The bill was passed for the relief of certain officers of the navy; the bill was passed for the sale of the Marine Hospital and grounds in San Francisco, Cal.

Congressional. SENATE, MARCH 25.—The bill was passed for the relief of certain officers of the navy; the bill was passed for the sale of the Marine Hospital and grounds in San Francisco, Cal.

Congressional. SENATE, MARCH 25.—The bill was passed for the relief of certain officers of the navy; the bill was passed for the sale of the Marine Hospital and grounds in San Francisco, Cal.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

There have been about two hours of good sugar weather this week.—Albion Recorder, 15th.

