Story.

"DOLLY VARDEN.

"What is to be done?" And bonnie Pet Ingersoll looked the very picture of despair as she sat in the broad window-seat and gazed vacantly out on the landscape. A huge snowball bush tossed its branches to and fro, greatly discommoding the position of a red bird, which seemed to be a scarlet flower transformed to song, in the midst of the fluffy white blossoms; the sweet-breathed lilacs reached their drooping fingers in at the window until they caressed the fair, brown curls of the silent girl, but she heeded none of this. A light, quick step was heard in the hall, and a cheery old lady entered the room as briskly as if she had not braved the storms of three score both hands over her breast, closed her eyes, and passed over the dim, wide river of death before the mother could reach her side. But the Captain could not remain at home even under this sad affliction. As soon as Pet was laid in the graveyard, he was obliged to leave his sorrowing wife, and re-

"This will be my last, wifey. I'm coming home to stay always," he wrote after a few weeks. Nothing further was ever heard directly from him, and in a few months word was brought that the vessel and crew had become another victim to the merciless sea. "Misfortunes never come singly."

Before Mrs Thorne had worn her widow's cap one week, a telegram came announcing the dangerous illness of her only daughter, Alice. Swiftly she sped on her journey to the rural home of Farmer Ingersoll, only to reach there in time to receive Alice's parting injunction, "Mother, take care

"That's just the trouble, grandma," and Pet's face grew a shade gloomier.

"No, I ought to be thank-Here Pet was interrupted by her | ful that I have such a good granddaughter. She shall never know the sad history connected with the dress, as that might mar her happiness.' So hastily locking the chest, kind-hearted grandma allowed her cheery smile to resume its wonted place, and

Pet Ingersoll was examining with a mournful countenance the accurate pattern which Bettie had sent. when suddenly, like a good fairy's gift, a bundle fell at her feet, while in an ecstacy of joy she beheld a dress pattern of the finest chintz, with a rich white ground, over which wandered delicate green vines, while here and there were the loveliest pink moss rosebuds that man could devise. "Why, where did this come from?"

transparent that Pet knew at once who was the fairy godmother. Then came a shower of kisses on grandma's wrinkled cheek, and the sacrifice was fully repaid by witnessing Pet's joy. No explanation could the smiling girl get, but to make it a Dolly Varden, and look her prettiest at the picnic. So with this she was obliged to be satisfied. wisely ignored it. It was strange that soon after this Saturday, Alfred Lorraine should find his health needed recruiting in the country, and strange too, that the vicinity of Thorne Cottage should be the most hygienic locality in his knowledge. But as he had a snug income of his own, and no inquiring relatives, his actions were not closely questioned. Upon his first visit to the country after the picnic, he armed himself with a fishing tackle, and set out from the little tavern ostensibly to angle. But, somehow, a remarkable thirst overcame him as he passed the Thorne Cottage gate, and he was inside the wicket, bowing to Pet, before he realized what he was about.

That damsel, looking prettily demure from the depths of a gingham sunbonnet, was picking currants in the yard. Lorraine offered to assist her, and the much wished for drink of water was forgotten in the subsequent confersation carried on by the two.

A Dear Whistle. The way of the transgressor is hard, but the hardest road that transageressor ever had to tread was trod by by a certain George Riley, who was convicted in New York on Thursday of robbing a man of 27 cents, and was sentenced by Recorder Hackett to twenty-seven years in Sing Sing. Twenty seven years for twenty-seven cents! We do not sympathize with the ruffain, who doubtless expected to get more, and who would, if hard pressed have beaten his victim's brains out. At a rough calculation, he serves two hundred and sixty-three days, odd hours for every cent of his ill-gotten gains. His error was in flying at such small game. Had he robbed a bank whistle. Let us hope he will come

Married in Haste. Last evening there was a grand "hop" at the Mansion House, and many New arkers were on the floor doing the deightful, together with a brilliant company of ladies and gentlemen from other sections. Shortly before 10 o'clock Counselor-at-law John D. Banghart, of Jersey City, was intro-duced to a dashing widow of thirtyfive summers, named Mrs. Caroline Marsh, of New York. The widow is said to be possessed of $200,000. She is, perhaps, the most extravagantly fashionable dresser seen here for years, and has no end of magnificent suits. She has been a very noted lady here. After dancing together awhile the pair promenaded on the piazza, and clung together with such tenacity that everybody was struck and said the Counselor was certainly struck too. "A genuine case of love at first sight." not a few said. The Connselor is a fine looking fellow of about 33 -two years or so her junior. She is radiant in her elegant widow's weeds, and looks really well for one who has grieved at the graves of two husbands. To cut the story short, the two were after spending the day together promenading and carriage riding. I have seen the certificate, which Mr. Banghart seems to be quite proud of, as indeed he is of his bride.

A romantic marriage took place at the Garno House, Wyandotte City, on Saturday last. The circumstances are these: A Miss Moshier, living in Freeport, Stevenson county, Ill., became engaged to a young man named Morrison, of the same place. Business being dull there in 1865, the time our story commences, he concluded to try his fortunes in California. He departed, promising to write reguarly, and either come or send for her as soon as fortune smiled upon him. Two years rolled by, and she received no letters from him, and nothing was heard by his or her friends of his whereabouts. A report about this time was circulated by a young man named Shipman, Postmaster of Freeport, that Morrison was married. Although hardly her whim, but in vain. In no other credited by Miss Moshier, still his respect was there any evidence of conclusion that she was forgotten. Shipman now became very assidious in his attentions to her, and after a short courtship, asked her to become they came into his hands they were ter a time she commenced action for a grounds of abandonment. Five Hundred times Around a Shaft. [From the Detroit Free Press of July 26th.] About half-past ten o'clock yesterday a young man named Edward Clouter, engaged in varnishing furni-ture on the third floor of No. 34 Atwater street, met with a horrible death. The young man has had a great passion for gymnastics, expecting to attach himself to a circus as soon as he became a proficient. While working around the building he has used all his spare moments in swinging from the beams, turning hand-springs, and performing other feats calling for suppleness and activity. He was seen clinging to the main shaft of the two hundred horse power engine a few days ago, and was warned by his employers never to attempt the feat again. This shaft runs along within thirty inches of the floor, and makes about one hundred and fifty revolutions per minute. In the morning yesterday, after fin-ishing up a table Cloutier went to the north end of the building and prepared himself to perform some feat which he had studied up. Taking the tackle rope which is used to hoist articles from the alley below he passed the free end over the shaft. This much was ascertained after his death, but his further proceedings can never be known A boy was working forty feet away, and was first alarmed by hearing Cloutier call out: "Stop the enginequick!" Running around, the boy saw that he was caught in the folds of the rope and wound over the shaft. The boy ran, as did others, but it was two or three minutes before the engine could be stopped, and then the victim was past help. As soon as the rope lashed him close to the shaft the young man had to turn with it. One of his arms was caught around the shaft so that it drew his face and shoulder close down, but left his limbs free to pound on the floor. The noise of his feet striking the boards was heard half married this evening about 7 o'clock a block away above the hum of the by the Rev. James B. Wilson, D. D. | machinery. His boot heels tore a strip off one of the boards and were then flung from his feet clear across the room. His hat went the other way and his pants were stripped off and thrown fifteen feet away. An Indiana Divorce. An interesting example of the way in which the liberal divorce laws of Indiana sometimes operate is given in a Louisville paper. A woman in Indianapolis was in poor health, and fearing that in case she should die her husband would obtain the control of certain property that she possessed, she visited her sister in Louisville, Kentucky, in order to carry out a scheme which she had projected to prevent it. While staying with her sister she crossed the river to New Albany, where she rented a house for three months, and on this transaction based a residence there. She then instituted a suit for divorce, after which she returned to her husband in Indianapolis.-About a year ago she received a telegraph despatch requesting her immediate presence in Louisville in consequence of illness in her sister's family and showing this to her husband he readily consented to a second visit to that city. At this time she again went over to New Albany, where she received her decree of divorce, which she quietly put in her pocket and carried home. It is possible that the husband would never have known what had taken place, at least during her life time, had he not excited her ire by insisting one day too much on his own way as the head of the family; upon which she very curtly informed him that he need not try to tyrannize over her, as she was not his wife, at the same time producing the documents to prove her assertion. The husband was more than astonished; but he insists upon it such a divorce as that will never stand, in which opinion he is probably about

Startling Facts. Since the close of the rebellion not ess than twenty-three thousand persons, black and white, have been scourged, banished, or murdered by the Kuklux Klans of the South. The victims of their horrible barbarity have been Republicans. Not a single Democrat has suffered. Loyalty to the United States Government brought persecution; disloyalty exemption.

Since the enforcement of the Kuklux acts by the present Administra-tion, peace and security have reigned throughout those States infested by the Klans. The defeat of this Administration will be the renewal of these organizations and a repetition of past outrages. Is there a Republican in the land base enough to be a party to so great a wrong? The Republicans of Buchanan Township will meet in Caucus, at the office of D. E. Hinman, Esq., on Saturday. August 21, 1872, at 3 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting 12 delegates to attend the Representative District Convention to be held in New Buffalo on Monday, Aug 25th, which Convention will nominate a candidaty to represent the 2d District of Berrien County in the State Legislature. I. P. ALEXANDER, Republican DAVID FISK, CHAS. S. BLACK, Committee.

REPRESENTATIVE.

There has been but little discussion as yet who should be the nominee for Representative to the State Legislature from the 2d District of Berrien County. The names for the position that we have heard suggested are the present incumbent, Hon. Wm. Chamberlin of St. Joseph, Geo. Bridgeman, Esq., of Lake, J. V. Phillips, Esq., of New Buffalo and Alonzo W. Sherwood of Weesaw. These are all good and true men, tried Republicans, any one of whom would creditably represent this District in the Legislature.

FIRST DISTRICT.

The Republican Convention of the First Representative District of Berrien County, met in Benton Harbor on Wednesday of last week, and nominated Thomas J. West, Esq., of Bainbridge, by acclamation as candidate for Representative. Mr. West is a thorough Republican, one of the tried and true ones, a man of thorough business qualifications, and fully able to express his views forcibly on any sub-ject. The Convention has made a good nomination, and one that will receive the hearty support of the Re-publicans of the First District, and one too that meets the approval of the entire party of the County.

ELECT GRANT AND NOT GREELEY.

Yes, we say, elect Grant and not Greeley, because we believe the best interests of our country demand it. It is true that there is corruption in the Republican party, but is there less in the party that boasts the Tammany thieves? It is true, as a general thing, that the Republicans who have left the party, and now affiliate with the Democracy are not of the purest and most undoubted political standing. They are men into whose hands the rank and file of the Republican party -the people-were not willing to commit the interests of the country. As a class, they belong to that shrewd political wire pulling clique, who have always been in office or constantly intriguing or working for office, which the people would not bestow, and hence have become discouraged and have fled to the enemy's camp.

That this is the case, it is only necessary to instance the leading spirits in Berrien County, which is a fair illustration and sample of the Greeley movers of every other county and

We have first, Hon. A. H. Morrison, who once had almost unlimited influence with the party in Berrien County. His influence began however to wane and grow less and less continually, till the very fact that Morrison desired the Republicans to adopt a certain course, was enough to set the faces of the rank and file in the opposite direction. It is needless to go into explanations why this was so The people know and understand. He failed to receive that consideration and support at the hands of the party that he sought after, and hence he became sour. He left and now affiliates with Tammany, that ring of purity.

There, too, is W. S. Maynard, whom the Republican party has honored with high office, who has held Government appointments, when he saw that he no longer could expect a supply of Government pap suddenly became sour and fled to Greeley. There he would run if he was not indorsed at needs no comment on his course. The Baltimore. It was a devilish thing to igan who can draw larger crowds or most illiterate person in the County, who knows Mr. Maynard, knows of tion under these circumstances. He would his dissatisfaction with the party be- not say he would run without the Balticause of its failure to support him in more nomination."

greatest foe, within the Republican people in the selecting of candidates for office, has taken shelter under the folds of Horace Greeley's mantle, and now affiliates with Tammany purity!
The Republican party had honored him by electing him to office, but when they discovered his purpose to run the party for selfish interest only, they concluded he was not the proper person for positions of honor and trust. He saw and comprehended this, like Austin Blair, and fled - the party that he might more successfully carry out his personal political aspirations in working with Tammany and Horace Greeley. Only one more of the leading spirits in the Greeley ranks in our County. We would not forget the bland and pliant Harvey Palmer. The man who held for a long time the Niles Post-Office, and who was an active Republican so long as that party would satiate his political appetite. When, however, another succeeded in the appointment to the post-office at Niles, his countenance fell, and his Republican principles fled, till he, too, can most heartily affiliate with Tammany, and hurrah for Horace Greeley.

This is enough for the candid of the rank and file of the Republican party, if there chances to be one who contemplates Greeleyizing, to stop and consider whether the leaders in the Greeley movement in Berrien County are such men as should be placed in office—such men as into whose hands we would desire to commit the affairs of the County. If not, it is time to be suspicious of the whole Greeley movement. Berrien County is but an index to the whole country, and what we know to be true of Greeley Republican leaders in this County, will prove true throughout the length and breadth of the whole country. This being true, we cannot see, for one moment, how any candid, thoughtful Republican can for a single instant seriously contemplate the support of Greeley and his Tammany associates. The political character of the men engaged in the Greeley cause is enough to cause every lover of his country, of free institutions, stability of values, and honest administration, to repudiate the movement and use every lawful and honest effort to preserve the integrity of the Republican partythe party that aved the nation from the hands of assassins—the party that has honestly administered the government, reduced taxation and the national debt, preserved the credit of the nation, and protected the rights of all her citizens of whatever name, clime, nationality, condition or color.

How shall the Republican party be preserved, its purity maintained, and its usefulness perpetuated? Can it be done by deserting its ranks and there assembled in front of the Court Low so, then there must be more purity in the Democratic-Greeley party than in the Republican party. Who will dare assert this? Who will dare to claim that there is more honor in Tammany and Greeley's associates, than Grant and his associates? The one has plundered New York City of millions, and plunged her into debt, the other has honestly administered the nation's affairs, reduced taxation, and at the same time paid three hundred millions his supporters the very South, who are unrepentant, did all in their power to overthrow a nation. Shall we now, by electing Greeley, let this element again control? God forbid. But rather, let every lover of his country-every patriotic heart, and every strong arm, rush to rescue and preserve the nation from so sad a catastrophe, by reelecting Gen. Grant to the Presidency of these United States, and not

STRAIGHT DEMOCRACY.

The Straight Democrats throughout the country are becoming more and more incensed at the way their party was sold out at Baltimore. In fact those that adhere to principle, instead of "anything to beat Grant," cannot swallow the Greeley pill. There are no small number of Democrats who will not vote for Greeley but if a straight Democratic nomination is made at the Louisville Convention they will support it.

There seems now, to our mind, little doubt but that the Convention to meet in Louisville on Sept. 3d will nominate candidates for President and Vice President. The indications now point to Charles O'Conor, of New York, as the probable nominee for President. He is extremely popular with the Democratic masses. An associated press dispatch, from New York on Monday, relative to Mr. O'Conor's position, reads as follows:

"Charles O'Conor was interviewed yesterday, but refused to state whether he would accept the nomination of the Louisville Convention if tendered or not. He said he should vote for its nominees. Mr. O'Conor said of the present status of political parties: It is curious how little pretense even there is to having any principle on either side; but then I cannot very seriously blame them. There is no great question uppermost to excite the enthusiasm or the spirit of sacrifice. The country is in a prosperous condition—teeming with plenty, in fact—and there is no cause for any kind of apprehension.

As far as Grant and Greeley are concerned, I do not see what they can fight for, except possession of the offices. But why the Democratic party should interest itself in Mr. Greeley's fortunes is what I never could comprehend, especially when one remembers that Greeley would never say think of his getting a Democratic nomin

The Tribune says of the Times:

"After having hated Grant as a General, indiscriminately maligned him as a President, whether right or wrong, and loudly demanded that the Democratic party should take the new departure and nominate a Republican in order to defeat Grant; after having coaxed and cuddled the Cincinnati movement, and claimed to be its very Pope and chief; and after pretending as first to denounce Greeley solely on the plea that he could not unite the Democratic party in his favor and would not draw a heavy Republican support; and then pretending that the Louisville candidates might, by a general change of popular feeling, be elected,-it now gets down so low in the mud as to concede that the Louisville machine is a mere feeder to the Grant mill, and that it only aims to draw off votes enough from Greeley to elect Grant. Could any political apostasy be meaner or more stupid?"

Truly are the Greelevites alarmed, as well they may be. They have discovered that there are many Democrats of principle, who cannot be made to swallow their life-long enemy, and vote the lie to all their former faith and deeds. Hence their Chicago organs slander the straight Democrats as they do the Republicans. Their slanders will only recoil on their own heads with redoubled force, when the. result of the November election shall sound the funeral notes of the "Anything-to-beat-Grant" party.

Notwithstanding the extensive notice that the exwar Governor of Mich. would be present on the occasion, and an earnest appeal to the voters to turn out en mass and listen to what he "knows about the Chapaqua candidate for and a great disappointment to the low interest. hotel proprietors, as they had made |. "The State Fair has this year been"

House, there was great spatting of hands by three men besides Mirdock and Frankenberg. The Speaker la-bored hard for about one hour con-vince the voters that the President ought not to be elected to assecond term. We think the people will decide next Nov. that his candidate ought not to be elected to the first term. If their demonstration here is a sample of the kind but the State, it is of no use epublicans to make any effort, as it is waste of time and loss of powder. The game is too small. If Gov. Blair can't see it now, he will find out next November that he is not so popular as when he was stumping the State, and declaring that Jeff. Davis and his allies ought to be made forever to take back seats. Nearly half the audience to-day were Grant men, and many of the Democrats present won't vote for Greeley.

Iowa Correspondence DAVENPORT, Ia., Aug. 15, 1872. EDITORS RECORD :- I have been thinking for some time past of writing to you, and your paper, which I have read many times in my own little village, (New Troy, Mich.) when there; and in these times when political strife seems high, and the names of Greeley and Grant are on every tongue, and will be until about the 15th of November next.

There are a great many clubs of the Grant and Wilson order in our city, and the feelings of the masses tend that way. When I left my home about one year ago, little did I think that Horace Greeley, one of the strongest of Republicans, should disgrace himself and the Democratic party for sake of being President. I believe that he did not think as far as Henry Clay did when he gave for an answer, "I would rather be right than President." Davenport, including Iowa will, no doubt, give Grant a great majority. There are a few hot-headed Democrats who were Democrats before the Cincinnati Convention, and to-day will vote for Greeley, simply because he endorses Democratic principles; but where we find one of this stripe, we find a dozen who were Democrats vote for Grant. They say Grant has been a good President so far, and has reduced the Public Debt considerably; and we are going to

We all seem to think out here that Uncle Horace will need a few more white hats, and bail bonds, before he can reach the White House. J. WILLETT SMITH

The Lansing Republican on Burrows

The Lansing Republican of the 15th says of Capt Burrows' nomination: Thenomination of Julius C. Burrows in the Fourth District will be hailed with delight by the Republicans of Michigan outside of that district. Through two campaigns he has established his fame as a first-ciass stump speaker, and there is no man in Michbetter present political issues. He is now engaged in speaking in the larger cities of the State, and will continue the work until the 5th day of November, speaking both in the afternoon and evening when required. Having lican in the County does not know of his political intrigues? What Republican does not feel that in getting rid of him a good work has been done for The Chicago Tribune; the leading him.

 $\operatorname{Record}$ .

The Tribune and Post on Capt. Burrows received the nomination.

We take the following items, edil torials, from the Detroit Post and Tribune, of Friday:

"The Post says:

"The long and active preliminary ination in the Fourth District was supplemented by a prolonged contest in the convention itself. Four candidates were in the field from as many different counties, and the strength off each remained unbroken through one hundred and fifty-one ballots. On the next ballot Captain J. C. Burrows received the nomination. Captain Burrows is a young man of brilliant parts, a fine speaker, and an active, energetic worker. He has an honorable record and a good reputation at home, and is well known throughout the State as an eloquent and effective stump speaker, having taken an active part in previous campaigns as well as in the present one.

PLUM ORCHARD.—Mr. A. G. Hunter, living about three miles east of Buchanan, has one of the best, if not the best plum orchard in the western country. We were in this orchard one day last week, and saw the finest show of growing fruit that we ever expect to see. There are 100 trees in this orchard, of different varieties, and every tree is hanging literally full of rich plums, varying in size from a walnut to that of a large goose egg. Mr. Hunter evidently understands the cultivation of plums and can, we believe, furnish the nicest specimens of

THE PAPER.—It is not a little flattering as well as decidedly encouraging to receive the reports from all parts of the County, of the entire satisfaction given by the RECORD as a home ..... 1 00 paper. . We appreciate these words of cheer, and promise our readers that no effort shall be spared to maintain the high-standing of the paper and to continually improve it, so that it shall not only equal but even excel any County paper in the West. We heartily thank our many friends throughout the County who have so nobly interested themselves in the success of the RECORD. We assure all such that your labors have not been in vain, as to-day we issue eighteen hundred copies of the RECORD instead of five hundred as we did five years ago.

> ACCIDENT.—One day last week Mr. Charles Blake while examining a horse's mouth in front of Messrs. Collins & Weaver's Hardware, had his hand caught by some means in the harness about the animal's head, and by a sudden movement of the horse, was thrown over the railing and upon the stone with which the gutter is paved. Mr. B's head was pretty badly cut, and at first it was feared he was seriously injured. On examination the hurt proved only flesh wounds.

> CORRECTED. - Our subscription lists have, at last, been corrected. Every subscriber may be enabled to tell just how his account stands with the REC-ORD by reference to the date on the slip following his name. If that reads John Smith 20 472

John Smith 20 sec 2 it means that John Smith has paid his subscription up to the 20th of September, 1872. If it reads John Smith.  $20 s_{\rm F} 71$

John Smith  $20s_{\rm P}1$ it means that John Smith has been reading the RECORD since the 20th of September, 1871, without having paid therefor, i. e., he is in arrears on subscription since that time, and the amount due, with another year in advance would come very acceptable to the RECORD establishment.

PEACHES-MIELONS .- Peaches and melons are plenty in our market at present writing:

RELIGIOUS.—Elder Wm. M. Roe, formerly of Buchanan, preached in the Christian Church on last Lord's day afternoon.

PERSONAL.—Hon. J. J. Van Riper, of Downgiac, was in town the other

FESTIVAL.—The results of the festival at Collins & Weaver's Hall on last Friday evening was about $40 net for the benefit of the Presbyterian meeting at the Court House in Berrien Saturday night, and an excellent speech Sunday School .. made by Orville W. Coolidge, of Niles.

> REPAIRS NEEDED .- Work is very much needed on Portage street hill. Every time a shower occurs the sidewalk is covered with sand for fifteen or twenty rods. The boards put up to prevent this are bursted off in places, and hang over the sidewalk obstructing the passage. A person stumbled over these boards after night not long since, and some more serious damage will be the result if the nuisance is not removed. The committee on sidewalks, to report to the Marshal where repairs are needed, we hope will give the matter attention.

> CAMP MEETING .- We attended Methodist Camp Meeting, near Sumnerville, on last Sunday. The meeting was largely attended, orderly and very interesting.

SOME TOMATO. - Mr. Nathan Johnson placed upon our table the other day a tomato which weighed 233 ozs. This is the finest tomato we have seen this season. Mr. Johnson informs us that he has tried, for the last two years, putting saw dust around his plants, and that the tomatoes, on those vines with the saw dust around them, were a third larger than those on the vines that had no saw dust around them, though the plants were set out at the same time. This is worth remembering and trying by others.

MORE TOMATOES .- Hon. L. P. Alexander brought into our office the ers and friends. We will commence other day a cluster of tomatoes raised Saturday, Aug. 17th and continue for by Mr. B. Avery, of Buchanan, that *weighed six pounds and six ounces. There were 27 tomatoes in the cluster, all compact together, so that the or Sickening Oils. SOLD.—On Monday evening a candy sharper made a Greeley speech on the streets, sold money, $10 for $9, put a lot of candy in packages, and $20 or $50 greenbacks, tore up one of the packages and then offered the lot for $10, but nobody would buy. Finally he offered to sell to the highest bidder, or if enough was not bid to justify him in selling to pay to the bidder the amount of his bid. Five dollars bid-five and a half, and so on. till $9.75 was offered. The candy vender was then going to pay the bidder the $9.75, when $10 was bid by a this fruit to be found anywhere in | young man, the money paid over, the packages delivered, the speaker thanked the crowd, blew out his lamps and bade all good night. Mr. Young Man, who bought the packages, had three partners in the enterprise, another young man and two older ones, whom we supposed were too sharp to be caught in such traps. The quartette now talk of going into the whole-sale candy business. It would have done you good to witness the eagerness of the interested as the packages were opened, and the falling of countenances when "nary" greenback was > speculation soon again. Pugilistic.—On Monday a couple adopted citizens of the Erin Isle persussion came in contact with one of our native citizens of the African descent. Our colored boy backed out till he could back no further, when quick as thought his fist flew into the face of his antagonist, felling him instantly. The sidewalk in the region of the encounter shows many visible marks of the bloody contest. The battle ended with victory on the side of the gentleman of color. Wonder where the Marshal was?

to be found? We guess some of these parties will not go into the candy

Meeting of the Board of Trustees. At a meeting of the Board of Trusices of the Village of Buchanan, held Aug. 19th, 1872, there were present: Wm. Pears, President; Messrs. Ross, Day, Binns, and Osborn, The minutes of the previous meeting were read and on motion approved.

On motion of Trustee Ross, supported by Trustee Binns, the Board ordered by a full vote of those present, that twenty-five hundred dollars be raised by taxation the present, year for village purposes. On motion Board adjourned.
W. D. Kingery, Clerk.

Buchanan Union Farmers' Club.

The Farmers' Club met in their usual place of meeting Aug. 17, 1872, according to appointment. President Fisk presiding. There was quite a good attendance of members of the Club, and others. The subject for discussion was "Fences," to be spoken upon according to the following order: 1st, Is it necessary to have any fences? 2d, If we do have fences what kind is it best to build? 3d, Shall we fence our farms into large or small fields; also, what kind of gates is it best to have on a farm? It was almost the unanimous decision of because they are a useless incumbrance, and the building of them a needless tax upon our time and money. They cost the farmers a very large sum of money to construct and keep the fences in repair. It is estimated that it would cost more to fence

the United States into forty acre lots than it would to pay the National Debt. And it would build as many more school houses as we now have; furnish them with teachers and pay all the expenses of educating the rising generation. Our fences also occupy a large space of ground that might be used for cultivation. Making a fine place for noxious weeds and brush to grow in, and a good harbor for all kinds of vermin. We firmly believe that no stock should be allowed to run at large, because it is no advantage to the owner and a great. source of annoyance to farmers. In the Old Country they do not build fences, and stock is not allowed to run in the road. That is also the case in some of our States, why cannot it be so in this State? Every man should he obliged to take care of his own stock and not be obliged to fence against his neighbors. It is believed by the Club if we are obliged to have fences, the best and cheapest for road and division fences is the Osage Orange Hedge fence. For inside fencing build of boards. The rail fence was once the fence to build; but is not at present. A portable fence that can be easily moved and put up is just the fence for farmers to have. Some of the Club recommended soil ing stock, said it could be done cheaper than to build fences and spare the ground to pasture them on. The best gate to be built in places that are to be used much is the common hinge gate. In other places the Roller, or

Common Sense gate. The subject to be discussed at the next meeting of the Club, to be held in two weeks from to day, is The best manner of raising Grapes and making Wine, and such other subjects of interest as the members shall see fit to A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH speak upon. By a unanimous vote of the Club it was decided to present through the: columns of the RECORD their thanks to the Hon. Henry Chamberlain, of Three Oaks, for the able address which he delivered to them on Wednesday of last week at their festival, Also to the Glee Club for the fine farmers' songs they sung on the occasion. We appreciate such songs, especially the Dinner Call. May they long live to cheer the people's hearts with their sweet song, and the farmers to hear many more such calls. BENJ. CHAMBERLAIN. SEC. pro tem.

ONE HALF the people cannot take Castor Oil from its terrible nauseating taste, and recoil in the throat. The Castoria prepared by Dr. Pitcher is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, pleasant to take, and more effective than Castor Oil. It does not distress or gripe, but regulates the system, and operates when all other remedies have failed. It acts like magic for Stomach Ache, Constitution, Flati-lency, Croup and Worms. It contains neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol. Its soothing, quiet effect, produces natural sleep, and particularly adapts it to crying and teething children. "How To Go West." This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money. The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago through Galesburg to Burlington, has achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Route to the west. At Burlington it connects with the great Burlington Route which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Berrien County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the C. B. &. Q. and Burlington Route.

This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R. Burlington, Iowa.

IT IS A MARK of the unsuccessful man, that he invariably locks the stable door when the horse has been stolen. This sort of wisdom never thinks about bodily health until it is gone. But just as much as any disease has become seated, the power of the system to resist and throw it off is weakened; hence time is all important. For dyspepsia, all diseases of the liver, stomach, skin and kidneys, and all that begin in viitated blood, do not wait until the trouble is confirmed, but attack it by a timely use of Dr. Waleer's California Vinegar Bitters. 26w4

DROBATE ORDER.—State of Michigan, County of Ber-rien, as.—At a session of the Probate Count for the County of Berrien, holden at the Probate Office, in the vil-lage of Berrien Springs, on Monday, the 19th day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sev-enty-two. In the matter of the estate of Benjamin Butler, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Julia A. Butler, praying for the probate and allowance of an instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and that administration on said estate may be granted to herself.

Thereupon it is ordered that Monday, the 16th day of September next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said position, and that the heirs atlaw of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at assession of said Court then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the village of Berrien Springs, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted. And it is further ordered, that said Petitioner give notice to the porsons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Berrien Country Record, a newspaper printed and ofreculating in said County of Berrien, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

CURING' NEW AND USEFUL PATENT ZINC COLLAR PAD

That has given such Universal Satisfaction to Thousands that have Used them since their intreduction in April, 1870. Having, in every instance, produced a perfect cure in the worse cases of sore neck. The medicinal and cooling properties, with the advantage of always having a perfect, smooth surface, is a guarantee against chafing, and will in all cases cure the most irritated sore necks, as hundreds will restify that have given them a trial. All we ask of the most scrupulous is to give our Zinc Collar Pad a fair trial, as we feel confident in warranting them to do all we claim, and give satisfaction.

WHAT WEICLAIM.

FIRST. Is the chemical action of the Zinc, with the acid and satine constituents of moist sores, resulting in an astringent, acting speedily on the edges of the wound, and by its smooth surface and cooling tendency, quickly produces a curte.

SECOND. It prevents, in all cases, the hame straps coming in contact with the neck, or the hames from contracting the top of the collar, and thereby pinching the cords of the neck, and is the culy Pad made that will not wear the hair on the neck.

Thind. With the use of them you can work a rawnecked horse every day, and cure the worst cases in from six to ten days, as has been done in many cases during the last season. the last season.

ROURTH. It is the most durable Pad ever made.

We deem it unnecessary to add other advantages, or even to add the numerous testimonials we have received during the short use of our Zinc Pad, and only ask that it may have a far;trial; feeling full confidence in the success of the goods. it may have a sairitrial, feeling full confidence in the success of the goods.

AS The Zinc Pad must be protected from the sun, by being covered over the top with either cloth or kather, in extreme hot days, as it will, in such days, become heated in the sun, but will always ever oood in the sunsitied from the sales already made, that it will be to the advantage of all Saddlery Hardware and Heroers establishments to assist us in opening up a trade for a to long needed article. ## True Greatness.

Mere decision of character, taken in a worldly sense, is insufficient to produce true greatness of character. What is further needed is a clear, commanding view of duty as one and unalterable, to be the pole-star in the heavens. It is, therefore, hard to overrate the importance of cultivating this distinct and unclouded apprehension of right and wrong as a permanent mental habit. In order to attain this, we must be often thinking of moral questions, and settling principles before the hour of trial. In this, likewise, men widely differ. Happy is the youth who begins early to meditate on such subjects, and to clear his notions as to what he ought to do in given emergencies. He will find the bracing influence of such views in moments when all are shaking around him. Looking only at principles of eternal right, he will go forward, even in the face of adverse popular opinion. While weaker minds are halting to collect the votes of the masses, he will bare his bosom to the shower of darts, and march up to the requisitions of conscience, in spite of the instant tyranny, or, what is often more formidable, of the turbulent populace.—Rev. Dr. J. W. Alexander.

The Face of God.

The heart of God lies about our lives as closely as the air. There is no smallest act or thought that does not echo itself in him, and this divine presence is intensely sympathetic. It is not the mere oversight of a judge, registering praise and blame. It is the companionship of one who rejoices in all our joy, and suffers in all our pain. There is no glad heart-beat in the world that the Almighty heart does not beat with gladness in response. There is no little child's cry of sorrow over its broken toy, that a more than a mother's love does not catch. The sense of this presence should not be burdensome to us Nothing is falser than to suppose God to be always exacting. He gives himself with all the generosity and free-dom of love. He would not have us always serious towards him. Our God dwells not in Sinai; not even Calvary dwells not in Sinai; not even Calvary is his only home. He is in all the beauty of the world about us. In the trees of the forest, in the dewdrops quivering on the grass, in the robin's song, in the fleecy clouds, in all the beauty and music that fill the heart on spring's brightest day—in all these is our God. They are his vestments and his voice. As, looking on the face of a friend, we feel the soul within, so we are to look upon Nature and say, "This is the face of God." say, "This is the face of God."— Christian Union.

Angling.

We are building churches. The outsiders, as we call them, very soon understand that. They see that we are on the lookout for men who can build us up, not the men whom we can build up. If a wealthy man comes into the place, we angle for him. If a devout, active, praying Christian moves into the neighborhood, we anangle for him. If a drunken loafer drops down upon us, does anybody ever angle for him? If a poor forlorn widow comes to dwell under the shadow of the church, do we angle for her? Yes, but the shrewdness, the energy, the tact, is displayed in the other kind of fishing. Don't you suppose the world understands this? Don't you suppose rich Mr. Wheaton understands what we want him in the Board of Trustees for? Such men interpret our invitation as, Come with with us and do us good, not Come with us and we will do thee good.— Laicus.

A Beautiful Thought. When the Summer of youth is slowly wasting away on the nightfall of age, and the shadow of the past becomes deeper and deeper, and life wears to its close, it is pleasant to look through the vista of time upon the sorrows and felicities of our earlier years. If we have a home to shelter, and hearts to rejoice with us, and friends have been gathered together around our fireside, then the rough places of wayfaring will have been worn and smoothed away in the twilight of life, while the many dark spots we have passed through will grow brighter and more beautiful.

Happy, indeed, are those whose intercourse with the world has not changed the tone of their holier feeling, or broken those musical chords of the heart, whose vibrations are so touching in the evening of their life.

Gentility. This is neither in birth, wealth, manner, nor fashion—but in the mind. A high sense of honor, a determination never to take a mean advantage of another, and adherence to truth, delicacy, and politeness, towards those with whom we have dealings, are the essential characteristics of a gentle-

Jesus was poor, I should have known it from his own words. Who would have talked about putting pieces upon old garments, or about sweeping the house diligently, if he had not seen his mother doing it? So while I was busy over these things and a hundred household works like them, I knew that he knew exactly all about prictors Jackson, Mich., and PAREAND, WILLIAMS & them, and that made them sweet to them, and that made them sweet to me. Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or missmatic

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity. That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of Fever and Ague from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the chapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it-within the reach of everybody; and in bilious districts, where FEVER AND AGUE Levails, everybody should have it, and use it freely, both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy ever any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinien or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysteries, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical.

Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and deraugement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This Cures' expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure; and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity, and producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines fail.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cirre.

For Dyspepsia or Endigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bulious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Billous Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Billous Colic and Billouis, Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it:

For Dysentery or Diarrhoen, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Theumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Buck and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Droips, and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should; be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dirner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite; and invigorates the system. Hence, it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels to learning and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

It is said that a clergyman who preached in a prison lately began by saying, "I am glad to see so many of you here this morning!". But it is doubtful if he felt any worse when he was shown his error, than the crazy man in the gallery of the Senate of the United States during a rambling debate, who was taken out, the Sergeant-at-Arms telling him that he was "out of place in that gallery." "That's so," said the lunatic; "I ought to be on the floor with the Senators."

An old gentleman remonstrated with his married son, who did not live on good terms with his wife, on the impropriety of their contentions, since, in the eye of human and divine law, they were one.
