

The Berrien County Record

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 1, 1874.

To Advertisers. The Record is the best Advertising Medium in South-western Michigan, having the largest circulation of any other paper in this part of the State.

Agents. Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 41 Park Row, N. Y., and S. M. Pettigill, 37 Park Row, N. Y., are our authorized agents to contract for advertising at our lowest rates, for the columns of the BERRIEN COUNTY RECORD.

FROM and after October 5th, until further notice, P. O. hours will be from 7 1/2 A. M. to 7 1/2 P. M.

The canvas is fairly opened. Those who wish to stump the county will send their appointments to the RECORD for publication.

OVERCOATS are a necessary article of apparel during these chilly days.

DECEASED.—Mr. Ireland declines the nomination of County Surveyor at the hands of the Democrat-Liberal Party.

NOTICE.—The only place in the county to get your Solid Jewelry made to order, is at Lapierre & Brown's, Niles, Mich. 14tf

The Board of Supervisors, for Berrien County, hold their annual meeting at Berrien Springs, commencing on Monday of next week.

SENATORS Ferry and Chandler are canvassing the State, doing good work for the Republican party.

A LARGE and varied assortment of Lamps, Lamp Glasses, Glass-ware and Crockery, very low for cash, at Smith Bros. & Co.

SEAN B. is billed for Niles on Monday evening, October 24th.

The 2d session of the Woman's Congress will convene at Chicago, October 17th, and continue for three days.

L. P. & G. W. Fox have just received a full line of Fall and Winter Clothing, and are selling cheap for cash.

A CONTEMPORARY says: A newspaper and a newspaper editor that people don't talk about and sometimes abuse are rather poor concerns. The men and business that an editor sometimes feels it a duty to defend at a risk of making enemies of another class, are often the very first to show ingratitude. The editor who expects to receive much charity or gratitude will soon find out his mistake; but he should go ahead and say and do what he conscientiously thinks right without regard to friends or smiles.

Mrs. E. W. DeVinny has been to Chicago and bought a large and complete stock of Millinery for cash. Which she will offer to the people of Buchanan, and vicinity, as cheap as can be found anywhere. Thankful to be so well patronized.

THE cider made this year is of a very poor quality generally. The apples did not mature well on account of the dry weather, and the cider, in some instances, ferments within twelve hours after it is made.

REASON IN ALL THINGS.—The reason Kinyon & Vincent can afford, and do sell groceries twenty per cent cheaper than any other firm in Berrien County is this, they have no book-keeping or collecting to do, no loss in bad debts, and buy of first hands in large quantities, for cash down.

THE health in this locality is improving, attributed to the recent showers and the heavy frosts we have had of late, which do much towards cleaning and purifying the atmosphere.

Fox has the best shilling Muslim in town. Also, nice Black Alpaca at 35 cts. a yard. Best Prints in town for 35 cts. Nicest Batting in town at Fox's.

JEWELRY.—A fine new stock of Jewelry just received at J. H. Roe's from New York. Prices lower than ever.

OUR Indiana exchanges come to us nearly every week, with large supplements, containing campaign documents. The contest across the line is getting to be quite exciting and interesting.

Mr. John O. Dick is now foreman at the large Furniture Factory in this village.

NOTICE.—B. T. Morley has on hand a full assortment of pool points. All those having unsettled accounts are requested to call and settle at once. Oct. 1st, 1874.

CORN.—Corn husking is now in order. The crop in this part of the country will be very light, not much over one-half of an average yield.

BUCKWHEAT cakes are ripe. The crop this year will not more than supply the demand.

ACCIDENT.—This (Thursday) morning at Mr. P. M. Weaver was attempting to cross the railroad, at the depot, in this village, an engine from the west ran in his buggy, throwing him over ninety-three feet and killing him instantly. Mr. Weaver was an old resident of the place, highly respected, and his death has cast a gloom over the entire village. The statements of reliable witnesses make the company guilty of gross negligence in this instance, and ought to be held strictly responsible for all the consequences.

DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT CONVENTION.—The Democrats held their convention at New Buffalo, Tuesday last, and organized by electing A. L. Draw, of Chickaming, Chairman, and J. S. Beers, of Lincoln, Sec'y. After taking two informal ballots, C. B. Potter, of St. Joseph, was nominated by acclamation for Representative in the State Legislature. A resolution disapproving of Representatives receiving railroad passes was presented and was adopted.

LECTURE.—John G. Saxe, the favorite poet of America, will give a recitation consisting of selections from his unpublished lecture-poems and published works—humorous, satirical and sentimental, at Collins & Weaver's Hall on Wednesday evening of next week, Oct. 14th. You may never have an opportunity to hear this distinguished poet and humorist of world-wide reputation. Admission 25 cents. Reserved seats 50 cents. Reserved seats can be secured by calling at J. H. Roe's.

L. P. & G. W. Fox have just received a full line of hats and caps for men and boys. Call and examine.

A LARGE lot of improved Mason Fruit Jars, at Day & Binns.

PERSONAL.—Our townsman, Mr. L. P. Fox, made a splendid run at the Republican Convention on Monday last, so will be seen in another column, coming within three votes of having a majority of the votes cast. He was our choice, and if it had not been for strong sectional interest, he would have received the nomination without a doubt.

UNSCRUPULOUS parties in Buchanan are endangering the lives of others and violating the law by selling 110° test oil. Smith Bros. & Co. sell 150° test oil for twenty-five cents per gallon.

We have suffered no little loss and inconvenience on account of being bed-ridden with our job printing for the last few weeks. We have now secured all the help we desire, and will soon be in a condition to fill all orders promptly. We invite all who are in need of job printing of any kind to examine our work, and get our figures, which will always be as low as can be afforded.

A full and complete stock of boots, shoes, hats and caps, cheap for cash. Call before you buy, at Noble's. Talk cash and down they go. w2

"ADVERTISING costs money." So does store rent, so do all good and useful things. The object of advertising is not to cause a man to expend money, but to make it.

REDDEN & GRAHAM. We propose on the 1st of January next to revise our table of advertising rates, and charge by the inch instead of by the square. We believe this will be more generally understood and give better satisfaction.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. W. W. Wells, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in this place, has commenced a series of Sunday evening discourses, on the subject of "Future Punishment." Next Sunday evening the subject will be "Future Punishment not Reformatory."

CALL and see Smith Bros. & Co.'s large assortment of lamps before you buy.

THE recent showers have improved the pasture. As hay is scarce and feed high, it is hoped that winter will not set in very early, and that farmers will have the benefit of their pastures for several weeks yet.

An effort is being made by the M. E. Church, to have the State divided into three districts.

RELIGIOUS.—Until further notice, services will be held at the Old Advent Church, on Sunday morning, at 10 1/2 o'clock, A. M., instead of three o'clock, P. M.

The Niles Independent came out last week enlarged, but with patent outside. There are eight papers in the county and only three of them are all printed at home.

It is now less than four weeks until our fall elections.

THREE cold mornings causes the house flies to submit to being swept "down and out."

We have had a few days of delightful fall weather.

Mrs. HAZLETT delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture at Collins & Weaver's Hall, on Saturday evening last. We are glad that she had so good a hearing, and that the lecture gave such good satisfaction.

SAXS at Collins & Weaver's Hall on Wednesday evening of next week. No one should fail to hear this distinguished scholar and poet.

Many valuable horses die from the effects of colic. The best thing to do in a case of this kind, is to pour a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment into a long-necked jug-bottle, add half pint of molasses and water, then pour the whole down the horse's throat. In ten minutes the horse will begin to eat.

Persons Purgative Pills will give relief, if not entirely cure, dyspepsia when everything else fails. They have been tried in some desperate cases, and have given more relief than any other medicine.

THE number of children in the State under 21 years of age is reported to be 421,822.

CLUB LIST. We will send the RECORD and either of the following papers or magazines one year for the prices as stated below. Payments always in advance. Record and Weekly Detroit Tribune.....$2.50 Record and Weekly Detroit Tribune.....$2.10 Record and Western Rural.....$2.00 Record and Young Ladies Record.....$2.00 Record and Live Stock Journal (monthly).....$2.50 Record and People's Journal (a $1.00 Mag.azine) 1 year..... 2 00

THE FAIR.—We were unable to attend the Fair at Niles this year. We are sorry that this is so, as we would like to give our own opinion in regard to the same. If we can rely on the Niles papers, it was a grand success and a credit to the county. If we believe other reports, it was a slim affair, and in some of the most attractive features came far short of the expectations of many who attended, although none blame the Society in the least that such was the case. We do not believe that Niles is the best place in the county to hold a Fair. If the Society will give Buchanan a chance another year, our citizens are ready to guarantee one of the best exhibitions ever given under its auspices, and believe that general satisfaction can be given throughout. We regret that this has not been the case the present year.

THAT MONUMENT.—We have received several letters this week in reference to the monument recently erected in our cemetery, some of which we publish in this issue. This controversy has been continued beyond what the parties promised it should be carried. After this week we shall publish nothing containing personalities, whether in regard to this subject, or any other. If parties wish to discuss, at proper length, any religious subject, in the columns of the RECORD, we have no objection. Though they would better have their communications appear in some religious publication. You can discuss that monument all you please, give your opinion as to the meaning and intent of the inscriptions, etc., without referring to the character of the person who placed them there, or the goodness and moral standing of those who benefit to criticize the religious views and sentiments of others. We wish it plainly understood that hereafter letters containing personal allusions, of this nature, will go directly into our waste basket. We can't sacrifice the interest of the paper to gratify any who may have a disposition to settle difficulties in this manner. We denounce everything of the kind, as do the majority of our intelligent readers.

New subscribers can have the RECORD for four months for fifty cents in advance. Send your names and address and try the paper. It gives all the local news throughout the county of any special interest, the proceedings of the Circuit Court, Conventions, meetings, and the result of elections, besides a large amount of information on other topics of general interest. Address RECORD Office, Buchanan, Mich.

JUST RECEIVED.—Piles of New Goods, cheaper than ever. Now is the time to buy your winter supply at Redden & Graham's.

THE Grangers are almost universally in favor of woman suffrage. They show good sense in this respect.

STATE TAXES.—The apportionment of State Taxes for the current fiscal year for Berrien Co., as just made by the Auditor General, is $23,560.00, and the aggregate of real and personal property of the county, as equalized by the State Board of Equalization for 1874, $16,430,000.

VICE CHANCELLOR Little, of Liverpool, has recently decided that a publisher was not compelled to tell the source from which he derives any news reported to him by others.

PERSONAL.—Mr. James Cummings, of California, formerly of this place, and brother of Mrs. H. Stephenson, is now visiting his friends in Buchanan.

ELDER John Couch, editor of the World's Crisis, at Boston, Mass., preached at the Oak Street Chapel on Sunday last, morning and evening, and also on Tuesday evening of this week.

SEE advertisement in another column for proposals to build a bridge across the St. Joseph River, at Berrien Springs. This would be a good job for some of our mechanics. "Go for it."

SOME railroads have proposed to reduce the rates of passenger and freight fares if trains are permitted to run on slower time. They claim that the fast travel wears out the track and makes the expenses large. This looks to us like blind economy. What is gained in wear of track would be more than lost by additional expenses of hired help, as more time would be required to do a given amount of business.

FILE.—The house at Avery, belonging to Mrs. Collins, a widow woman, burned on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. HAZLETT delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture at Collins & Weaver's Hall, on Saturday evening last. We are glad that she had so good a hearing, and that the lecture gave such good satisfaction.

Republican Township Caucus. The Republican Caucus of Buchanan Township, was held at the Engine House in this village, on Saturday last. The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. V. Van Riper, chairman of the Republican Township Committee, who appointed Dr. J. M. Roe as President of the meeting. On motion W. D. Kingery was chosen chairman. The President stated that the purpose for which the Caucus convened was to choose twelve delegates to the Representative Convention of this District, to meet at New Buffalo Monday, Oct. 5th. The following were chosen as delegates: W. E. Plimpton, Proxy, L. P. Fox, E. M. Plimpton, J. H. Van Riper, L. P. Alexander, N. H. Merrill, John Graham, Wm. Burruss and B. E. Binns.

On motion, the delegates chosen were empowered to choose substitutes if unable to attend the Convention, and those in attendance be authorized to cast the full vote of the Township. On motion the meeting adjourned. W. D. KINGERY, Secretary.

About Advertising. We received the following order recently from a gentleman who lives many miles from here, and who contemplates moving to Buchanan: "Send to the following address the last issue of your paper. I want my wife to see what business is done in your village."

We sent the paper, of course, and was obliged to send it with a letter explaining that our business was not all represented in the paper. With the exception of our flouring mills and one furniture factory, not a manufactory of any kind was represented in the paper. We have two drug stores, one hardware store, three grocery stores, four dry good stores, a bank, two butcher shops, produce markets, and a number of small shops of different kinds, millinery and dress-making establishments, harnessshops, &c., &c., that no one would have learned anything about by that paper. We can only say to our villagers that they are using very blind economy by neglecting means of advertising their business, that is so convenient and cheap, and do their share towards supporting the paper that is a constant advocate for their interest and the interest of the place.

If the right effort was made in this direction the business of this village would be increased during the coming year at least $100,000, and we would be permitted by a small per cent of the profits of the increase of trade, to publish a paper that would be much more attractive, and would show that it was supported by a liberal enterprising community. We can get our advertising space filled up by advertisements from Lepton, Galien, Three Oaks, Berrien Springs, New Troy, Niles, and South Bend, but we would rather it would be used directly in the interest of our own town. This is plain talk, but we mean just what we say. Every week the RECORD contains accounts of the business transacted in this place, and matters in praise of the village, to induce the people to patronize the town, and we work for the interest of the place continually at an expense, of late, which we cannot afford.

If the people of this place take any interest or pride in their own paper and wish it to prosper, they must gather around it and befriend it, especially when it will be to their best interest to do so. If the paper is neglected it will certainly decline and finally be compelled to suspend altogether. Take up a Jackson paper, South Bend paper, Grand Rapids paper, or a paper published in any of these prosperous and growing towns and every business of any importance is represented in the advertising column at prices at least one-third more than the same space would cost in the RECORD. One of the editors of the above papers says that his advertising space is crowded all the time, and that he could cover his paper if it were as large again, that he has had work to get his patrons to reduce their advertisements so as to accommodate a large number. There are men who know how to appreciate such a medium of advertising their business to an advantage, and are the kind who help to make a live business town.

We clip the following from the Ovid Register: The ladies connected with the Ladies' Temperance Association, and the gentlemen from the Workingmen's Temperance Union of Ovid, together with some other Temperance friends, gathered at the residence of the Rev. J. Russell, on Tuesday evening last, to testify their kind regards for the departing family. Mr. Russell has been laboring for the people of Ovid the past year, as Pastor of the M. E. Church, but is about removing his family to Buchanan, as the field of his future labors, and as he and his lady have been among the prominent leaders in the Temperance movements in Ovid for the past few months, and as they have been unflinching friends of the Temperance cause, it was esteemed beneficial that the friends of Temperance should show them some token of their appreciation of their worth and of their services in our midst. Hence, about seven o'clock in the evening the people began to gather, until it became apparent that the current must soon cease to flow or the capacity of the house would need to be enlarged. The evening passed in a pleasant, social way, until the hour arrived for the closing scene, when Mrs. J. B. Dawson, on the part of the company, presented to Mr. Russell a purse containing a roll of greenbacks, and also to Mrs. Russell, a package containing some money, a pair of black alpaca-wool suit, together with presents for other members of the family, in all amounting to upwards of fifty dollars. The presentation was followed by some appropriate remarks from Mrs. Dawson, and also by the Pastor of the Baptist Church, responded to by Mr. Russell in a few happy remarks, when we were led in prayer by Rev. Mr. Dawson, of the Congregational Church, and thus closed a pleasant season, the doings of which has been written on the pages of memory to remain there as a permanent record.

Sunday Reading.

THE LOST SHEEP. There were ninety and nine that safely lay in the shelter of the fold; And one was out on the hills away. Far off from the gates of gold; Away on the mountains wild and bare— Away from the tender Shepherd's care.

And all through the mountains, thunder-riven, And from the rocky steep There rose a cry to the gate of heaven, "Where is the one who has gone astray?" "Where is the one who has gone astray?" "Where is the one who has gone astray?" "Where is the one who has gone astray?"

"What is True Religion?" The following beautiful reply was written in a young lady's album (in answer to the above sceptical inquiry) by Mr. John C. Smith, of New York:

"True religion is a fountain of bliss, refreshing the weary traveler in this vale of tears. It is a cherub of innocence commencing with the poor in spirit. It is a winged messenger of consolation to the forlorn children of misfortune. It is an unbroken mirror of devotion, reflecting 'one Lord, one faith, and one baptism' for all ages and nations. It is an unchangeable diadem of glory, irradiating the footstep of deity. It is a bright star of revelation in the celestial firmament.

"Let Us Help One Another." This little sentence should be written on every heart and stamped on every memory. It should be the golden rule practiced not only in every household, but throughout the world. By helping one another we not only remove thorns from the pathway and anxiety from the mind, but we feel a sense of pleasure in our own hearts, knowing we are doing a duty to a fellow creature. A helping hand or an encouraging word is no loss to us, yet it is a benefit to others. Who has not felt the power of this little sentence? Who has not needed the encouragement and aid of a kind friend? How soothing, when perplexed by some task that is mysterious and burdensome, to feel a gentle hand on the shoulder and hear a kind voice whispering, "Do not be discouraged; I am your trouble, let me help you."

An honest blacksmith was once grossly insulted and his character infamous defamed. Friends advised him to seek redress by means of law, but to all he replied: "No; I will go to my forge and there in six months I will have worked out such a character and earned such a name as all the judges, law courts and lawyers in the world could not give me."

He was right. It is by honest labor, manly courage, and a conscience void of offense, that we assert our true dignity and prove our honesty and respectability.

Let the winds and waves of adversity blow and dash around you, if it will; but keep on the path of rectitude, and you will be as firm as a rock. Plant yourself upon principle, and bid defiance to misfortune. If gossip, with her poisoned tongue, meddles with your own name, heed her not. Carry yourself erect; let your course be straightforward, and by the solemnity of your countenance and purity of your life, give the lie to all who understate and belittle you.

ROBERT FOR A HAPPY HOME. Six things, says Hamilton, are requisite to create a happy home. Integrity must be the architect, and it must be the foundation. It must be warmed by affection, and lighted up by cheerfulness, and industry must be the ventilator, renewing the atmosphere and bringing fresh salubrity every day; while over all, a protecting canopy of glory, and nothing will suffice except the blessing of God.

"Phungrams." A young lady in a neighboring town, went into a dry goods store and thus unburdened herself: "It is my desire to obtain a pair of circular appendages, capable of being contracted or expanded by means of oscillating burnished steel appliances, that sparkle like particles of gold leaf set with Cape May diamonds, and which are utilized for retaining in proper position the habitment of the lower extremities which innately delicacy forbids me to mention.

"Not in." A pompous well-dressed person entered a bank one day, and addressing the teller, who was something of a wag, inquired, "Is the cashier in?" "No, sir," was the reply. "Well, I am dealing in pens, supplying the New England banks pretty largely, and I suppose it will be proper for me to deal with the cashier."

"I suppose it will," said the teller. "Very well, I will wait." "After sitting in a chair, with which the teller had politely furnished him, for an hour and a half, the peddler asked, "How soon do you think the cashier will be in?" "Well, I do not know exactly," said the waggy teller, "but I expect him in about eight weeks. He has gone to Lake Superior, and I told me he thought he should be back in that time."

A little girl that had been promised a lap dog, saw a shaggy, ill-favored one, snaking his throat from a pool in the gutter, ran into the house, crying, "What is the matter?" "I don't want a lap dog," said the child. "See that great, hateful dog out there; he laps."

The Buffalo Press cannot understand how so large a paper as the Providence Press can be printed in Rhode Island, and a man, whose name probably does not appear in the paper, where there are a lot of men.

Prof. Braun is a man whose name is frequently mentioned in the Southern newspapers. With such personal remarks as the following: "He is an infidel, a Godless teacher of languages, distinguished by his unparalleled cheek and his remarkable facility with truth as a shorthand principle; indeed, it may be said that with him truth is stranger than fiction."

A stout old woman in Detroit got mad lately, because a photographer wouldn't let her have her picture taken. "What is the matter with you?" she asked. "I have had my picture taken."

A Buffalo paper announces that the recent burning of a house there, twenty thousand dollars' worth of property, included a cow.

A lady undertook to chase the flies out of her room, the other day, with a towel pin, when her husband, leaning carelessly in, received a whack on the head which could be heard all over the house. Upon recovering his senses, he gazed on her with a look of mingled pain and melancholy, only to remark: "I'm even with you, wife."
