THEY are having the measles in South Bend.

SOME fine sturgeon are being caught from the river now.

GRAFTERS are now making war on apple orchards.

THE street sprinkler was needed last week.

HEN FRUIT is getting cheap again. Only 10 cents per dozen.

THE editor of the Michigan City News announces a girl at his house. Weight, 23 pounds.

PEACH buds are beginning to swell and show indications of life and a crop of peaches.

WE learn that Dr. Seely intends giving a lecture on Spiritualism to-morrow, Friday, evening.

REPORT says that ducks are very plenty in the Kankakee, at Lemons bridge. Get out your shot guns.

FARMERS in this vicinity complain that they are badly bothered with tramps.

THE Red Ribbon reform seems to flourish in St. Joseph. There are over 200 members there.

REDDEN & GRAHAM removed their stock of goods from this place to Berrien on Tuesday last.

MRS. HONNIKER, wife of Jacob Honniker, of this place, was buried on Sunday last.

Don't forget to read N. H. Merrill's advertisement of trees for sale, in another column on this page.

COME and hear Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton on "Home Life," April 27th, at Collins & Weaver's Hall.

THE girls of the Senior class of the Niles High School have agreed to graduate in calico.

O. W. ROSE has taken up his abode in Berrien Springs, to be continued in the employ of Redden & Graham.

THE light warm rains on Sunday and Monday nights started the grass into life once more.

MRS. ELIZABETH CADY STANTON will lecture in this place on Friday evening, April 27th. Don't fail to hear her.

MR. Wm. PEARLS has invested in the fish raising business. He has had some large sturgeon put into the race above the mill.

A NEW jewelry sign has been swung on Front street, telling us of the return of our former citizen, George A. Harris, from Three Oaks.

THE work of erecting awnings over the front doors, is now the work of merchants on the north side of the street.

THE potato bugs come out this spring as bright as a dollar, and are ready for the first potato that dares come above ground.

FOUR Two couples met in Collins & Weaver's Hall on Tuesday evening and tripped the light fantastic until early morn.

THERE was a social gathering at the residence of Alvin Bates, on Tuesday evening last, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church.

W. H. FOX made his appearance in this place on Tuesday morning. It seems natural to see him about the streets once more.

THERE will be a mass social in Grange Hall, for the benefit of the Grange, on Tuesday evening next. Ice cream will be furnished as refreshment.

Our wood pile is getting low. Those of our subscribers who are to pay for their paper in wood, will oblige by bringing it along now.

The Common Council is now making calculations for placing new planks on the bridge over the creek at the corner of Front street and Day's avenue.

It must make a young man feel "streaked" to have his mother walk him out of a saloon. This occurred in this place on Saturday evening last.

The Good Templars of this place are going to try the social business again on Saturday evening, at their hall. It beats all what sociable people there are in this vicinity.

RILEY GRAGO, a resident of this county for twenty-five years, died at St. Joseph on Monday, and was buried yesterday.

THE time for the payment of the annual liquor tax is near at hand, and dealers will have to scratch around a little and get their $150 together.

WHEAT is now selling in this place for $1.60 per bushel. A higher price than it has borne before in two years.

THE Berrien Springs Era has gone into the garden seed business with a vengeance. They sell a lot of garden seeds and throw the Era in, like a chromo, you know.

OWING to a slight blunder of our foreman in "making up" last week, two of the articles on the second page were slightly mixed. We don't know where he gets his "snake juice."

STEPHEN ATWOOD and Chaucery Sabin intend starting to Nevada on Monday next, with a view to settling in that country. A question arises as to who will be depended upon for machine-blacksmithing in this place when "Steve" moves out.

QUITE a number of former citizens of this place, who had become dissatisfied with their lot and moved to other places, are returning to their old homes this spring, probably convinced that Buchanan is not the worst place in the world after all.

MR. and MRS. MANSFIELD having been detained here on account of sickness, will stop over next Sabbath and occupy the pulpit in Oak Street Chapel. Mr. Mansfield will speak in the morning and Mrs. Mansfield in the evening.

ROUGH & PEARS have been putting a new machine in their flouring mills, for the purpose of more thoroughly separating the flour from the "middlings" and thus enabling them to get more and better flour from their wheat.

THE city fathers of Niles have adopted a new plan for the protection of their tramps. They fine them and set them to work on the streets to pay the fine. This will probably work better the tramp fund.

A Niles paper announces that a change has been made in the time of running the trains on the Michigan Central, but our agent, Mr. Smith, informs us that if such be the case he knows nothing of it and the way freight runs West in the evening as heretofore.

SINCE the announcement of the probability of an immediate war in Europe, there has been a rise in the price of grains in the leading markets of this country. It adds a shining to the price of a twenty-five pound sack of flour, in this place already, and with a prospect of more.

NOTICE.—There will be a meeting of the "Dare to do Right Red Ribbon Club," of this village, at Collins & Weaver's Hall, on Friday evening, April 20, commencing at half-past 8 o'clock. The public are cordially invited to attend. Good singing and speaking may be expected. "Come along, with us and we will do you good."

E. M. PLIMPTON, President of the Club, April 17, 1877.

ON Friday forenoon last the sound of the fire bell again greeted the ears of the citizens of this place. Fire had been discovered in the roof of Mrs. Rose's house, on third street. The prompt work of the fire company saved the house, with a loss of a part of the roof. About $150 or $200 will cover all losses. Fully insured by the Watertown company.

PROF. JONES went out to Wagner's school house, one evening last week, and gave one of his entertainments. He was assisted by our friend Charlie Hamlin. After the entertainment was over the temptation to see one of the good looking girls home was so great that Charlie could not withstand it, and in consequence he had the great pleasure of walking home, which place he reached about the time the roosters commenced crowing the next morning. Charlie does not know whether to say he likes the show business or not.

FRANK CRAMP who was arrested in Michigan City, by officers from this place, on complaint of Mrs. Vanderhoff, charged with burglary, has pleaded guilty and been sentenced to imprisonment for one year in Jackson State Prison. Two others have been sentenced to imprisonment, two years and two months each, convicted of larceny, during the present session of the Circuit Court in this county.

DURING the editor's absence at Chicago this week, a friend of the Palladium sent up to the editorial room a large, flat cabbage head. He didn't know that the editor was gone, but our "devil" said that one cabbage head was just as good as another, and lugged it into the sanctum.—Benton Harbor Palladium.

That "devil" knows what he is about, and has a due appreciation of the things of this world.

Are you going to Niles next Thursday? The Odd Fellows are making calculations on having a grand time then.

The President of the Berrien Co. Association informs us that $12 more were taken in at their Store on Saturday last than on any previous day since the store was started.

The red ribbon club of this place met again on Friday evening last. About a dozen, ladies included, joined. For some reason or other the enthusiasm that is found in other places in this movement does not seem to show itself here. There is something in the way or more would join. If all who have already joined will remain faithful, it will have accomplished a great good as it is.

DANIEL PRATT, the great American traveler, struck this town again on Monday. He was, as usual, in need of the necessary funds to extend his investigations. He is now on a lecture tour for the benefit of Henry Ward Beecher, and also touches the finance question a little now and then. He has been laboring in Chicago the last few months, in conjunction with Moody, and for the election of Mayor Heath. Mr. Pratt now expects to visit Washington and confer with President Hayes on the management of the Government, and put him on the right track.

"BRICK" POMEROY lectured on the subject of Greenbacks, in Collins & Weaver's Hall, on Friday evening last. There was a very good audience but not so many as was expected, probably owing to the novelty of an addressee being charged for a political speech. If we understand Mr. Pomeroxy correctly, he would have the Government issue all of the currency of the country, which is well enough, and would have an amount of it equal to the valuation of the property of the country. He mentioned as a case of this kind, the Ancient Bank of Venice and the prosperity of the people of that country during its existence.

Letter List.
Remaining in the Post Office at Buchanan, Mich., April 18th, 1877.
Arnold, Hester, Manchester, James A.
Buchanan, Albert, Smith, Edward
Cowan, John V., Stinson, Jennie
Gray, Jennie, World, Martha
Hemlin, A.

This list is published free for the information of the readers of the Record, therefore there is no charge for delivery of letters addressed to the above. Persons will, however, in claiming any of the above, call for "advertisements list."

FRANK MILLER, an engineer on the Michigan Central, was riding east on the Michigan City freight engine yesterday morning, and when opposite Mr. Lister's house, fell off the engine and was left. He did not have the care of the engine, but was on a grand drunk of his own and riding out for the fun of it. He is not seriously hurt.

The policies of the busted Continental Life Insurance Company are being transferred to another company. Quite a number in this vicinity are interested in this gigantic swindle, and will grasp eagerly at some apparent chance at saving their present investment.

The Berrien county Mutual Fire Insurance Company have reduced their rates for issuing policies. A $500 policy, $1. a $1,000 policy, $1.50; a $1,500 policy, $2; a $2,000 policy, $2.50; a $2,500 policy, $3, and the last named sum is the highest that can now be charged. The former rate was $3 per policy without reference to the amount.

A correspondent to the Detroit Tribune of April 18, from Niles, has the following:

"Miss Maria Bass, an elderly maiden lady, upon a visit to the family of Thomas L. Stevens, of Niles, blew out the gas when retiring Saturday night, and Sunday morning she was found apparently dead. Everything possible was done for her by Mr. Stevens' family and physicians, and she is now conscious, although suffering greatly from the effects of her treatment."

RUNAWAY.—On Sunday forenoon last, Mr. Will Pennell, from north of Berrien Springs, drove his team in front of the S. C. Rose house, west of town, and alighted for some purpose, when the horses became frightened at a freight train that was passing, and started off towards town on the run, and brought up against a tree, in front of A. C. Day's house, on Front street, where they were freed from the wagon. They ran into Mr. Day's barnyard and stopped. This left Mr. P. in rather a sad plight; fourteen miles from home, with his harness and wagon in a dilapidated condition. Messrs. Burch, Slater and Kelley, however, took pity on him and opened their shops repaired all damages, and sent him on his way rejoicing that he was still alive.

A correspondent of the Niles Mirror says the lightning rod sharp has been evincing the Germans near that city. They go to a man and promise to put up a rod for about $10, and then get him to sign a contract which the unsuspecting farmer does not examine. The next day another of the gang comes along and puts up a rod, and according to the contract it amounts to about $100. Of course the farmer gets mad, but the swindler keeps cool, and finally settles for about $80. If there is a "cheekier" set of men in the country than the lightning rod swindlers we would like to see a specimen. Give them a wide berth.

An eminent physician makes the following observation for the especial benefit to have a wad of tobacco tucked under their lip:

"A boy who in any way uses large quantities of tobacco is never known to make a man of energy, and generally lacks muscular and physical as well as mental power."

A new paper has been started in Flint by the red ribbon men, to be called the Red Ribbon Journal.

MR. N. A. HAMILTON, of Berrien county, seems in this legislative session to have had a weakness for getting on the unpopular side of questions. He fully redeems himself, however, in a bill he is pushing through (house bill No. 586) for the appointment of a State accountant whose duty it shall be to visit in turn, at least once each three months, all the various State institutions, and inspect and supervise their books and accounts. For this service the appointee is to have a salary of $1,200 and his traveling expenses. The idea is a capital one. With such oversight and inspection, loose financial management will be instantly detected and checked, and the saving to the State may be immense. By all means let the bill pass.—Evening News.

In the North West of Cambridge, Texas we find the following:
Now comes Alex. Metzger, and reports the farming being done this season in his neighborhood, a strip of country east of Bastrop, four miles long and three wide, upon which are twelve farms, with crops growing and being planted, as follows: winter barley, 30 acres; winter wheat 200 acres; winter oats, 200 acres; cotton, 300 acres. The winter crops are excellent in stand and growth. Mr. Metzger has about one acre of red clover, sown last season, that he says is as good as any ever grown in Michigan or any of the tame grass States.

"HINTS TO HORSEKEEPERS," by William Herbert, is one of the most valuable books for the horse-breeder, farrier or farmer. Mr. Herbert in this work gives a thorough treatise on horse breeding and selection, with a brief history of the different noted stocks. There is also a chapter for the farrier, treating of the diseases to which the horses are heir, and a complete treatise on the training of the horse either to the saddle or harness. The work will be sent post paid to Orange Judd Company, 245 Broadway, N. Y., on receipt of price, $1.75.

THE COUNTY PRESS.
[Benton Harbor Palladium.]

The Messenger made her first trip of the season to Chicago last Tuesday. While digging her way through the river channel the spiles to which she was fastened gave way, letting her drift around with the current upon the bar. She got out of port about eleven o'clock and returned again Thursday morning. Captain Bartlett is at his old post again as commander of this popular vessel. Dr. Reynolds, the great red ribbon champion is expected to be in Benton Harbor the 1st and 2nd of May and organize a club.

[Niles Democrat.]
Weather permitting, the speaking on the occasion of the Odd Fellows' anniversary (26th), will take place on the Union School grounds.—Mr. D. Schnorr, commissioner of highways for Niles township, is going to let a contract for building a bridge across a creek near St. Bradbury's, on Saturday the 24th of April, at 2 o'clock, p. m. There is over $2000 high money in the treasury, and this is a good opportunity for some one that wants a cash job.

LOCALS.
Encouragement for the Feeble.
Debility, whether it be inherent, or caused by overtaxed strength, or protracted illness, has a most depressing influence upon the mind, breeding an object melancholy nearly akin to despair, and enforcing the most morbid and gloomy views of high hopes. Happily, the embodied system, even in extreme cases, is susceptible of invigoration. It is proved by incontrovertible evidence that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an unfailing strengthener of the weak, and that in addition to vitalizing the physical organization, it establishes regularity among those organs whose wise efficient discharge of the duties imposed on them by nature continued vigor and health depend. Thousands of instances might be cited to show the regenerating influence of this health-giving agent in cases of debility, liver disease, dyspepsia, nervous ailments, constipation, intermittent fever, urinary and uterine troubles, gout and rheumatism, and other maladies.

Phunygrams.

While a number of lawyers and gentlemen were dining at Wisasset recently, a jolly man from the Emerald Isle appeared and called for dinner. The landlady told him he could dine when the gentlemen were one.

"Let him crowd in among us," whispered a limb of the law, "and we will have some fun with him."

The Irishman took his seat at the table.

"You were born in this country or you, my friend?"

"I was born in Ireland."

"No, sir; he is dead."

"What is your occupation?"
 "A horse-jockey, sir."
 "What was your father's occupation?"
 "Trading horses, sir."
 "Did your father ever cheat any person while he was here?"
 "I suppose he did cheat many, sir."
 "Where do you suppose he went?"
 "To heaven, sir."
 "What do you suppose he is doing in heaven?"
 "Trading horses, sir."
 "Has he cheated any one there?"
 "He cheated one, I believe, sir."
 "Why did they not prosecute him?"
 "Because they searched the whole

“Got any pocket hankers?” said a small, soiled boy, with the chief part of his wardrobe hanging from his shoulders by one suspension, and a bundle of papers under his arm. The shopkeeper started for a moment, but hard times have made even small purchasers desirable, and he answered blandly: “Here you are, sonny; all linen; fifteen cents.” The young merchant cast a scornful look at him and said: “I wonder at your showin’ them cotton sieves to a gentleman.” I want suthin in fancy silk, with a chance for my mo-no-gram in the corner. Where’s there a first-class dry goods house ’round here, your yeller feller?” And he got out of the door just in advance of a shower of yardsticks and scissors.

Mr. Ministers will have their little jokes like other people. “Come over and preach for me to-night,” said a Chicago divine to a clerical friend when he met in the street not many days since. “I can’t to-night,” was the reply: “I’m almost down sick

A dandy with exceeding slender legs passing along the street, the following dialogue, in a screeching voice, was indulged in by a couple of archdukes: "Say, Billy, that fellow's got a heap o' courage as risk himself on such legs as them this weather." "Why?" "Might freeze, break off, suck in his body and bleed him to death."
