The Chicago Exposition closed last Saturday.

HON. ALLEN POTTER will please accept our thanks for favors by way of valuable public documents.

A RATHER damp rain fell yesterday, to break the monotony of good weather.

We would call the attention of our readers to J. W. Fancher's advertisement, headed "A Bargain."

A bouncing baby girl made bright the happy home of Frank Chittenden, of Dayton, last Saturday.

SOME person left an umbrella at this office last week. The owner may have it by calling.

The Lake Shore Daily News has ceased to exist, and it is expected to resume operations in the Spring.

Detroit thieves make formal raids on the warehouses of public schools for a supply of winter clothing, with pretty good success.

There will be a grand ball in Collins & Weaver's Hall to-morrow evening and all lover of the "light foot" are expected to come and shake.

SOME of those subscribers who were to pay in wood, will greatly oblige if they will bring it along now, as we are nearly out.

Soon the work of gathering corn will be in order, and care should be taken that the crop be thoroughly dry before being placed in large cribs.

Mr. J. J. Roe intends starting this afternoon for Hooper's, Ill., to assist Rev. Wm. Roe in conducting a series of revival meetings.

CAPT. BARTLETT now has full swing between St. Joseph, Benton Harbor and Chicago, the competing boats having been taken from the line.

ELD. JOSHUA V. HINES started for his home in Bridgeport, Connecticut, Monday morning. He has been visiting in this place several weeks.

TRAPPERS are beginning to spread about their traps for muskrat. Pretty early. Just wait until February and you will find better trapping, and get more for the fur.

NEXT week we shall issue seven thousand copies of the RECORD. The greater part of this issue will be for advertising purposes, and will not go to our regular subscribers.

MISS LIZZIE MALOX, of Three Rivers, formerly of this place, has been spending a few weeks with friends in this town.

We learn that there has been a late addition of a pair of twin boys to the family of Henry Herpolsheimer, formerly of this place, now of Grand Rapids. Happy, twice happy Henry.

WEATHER very like that of mid-summer has prevailed the fore part of the week. And of this those who have early sown wheat complain most bitterly, saying the fly is doing them great damage.

MR. BLODGETT, our cider maker, left at our office to-day a jug of "the devil's kindling wood," which is pronounced good.

POTATOES.—Mr. Henry Broesus left on our table, this morning, six potatoes of the "red marino" variety. One of them measured ten inches in length and none were less than nine.

We are authorized to offer the Western Rural to new subscribers from this time to the end of 1878 for the price of one subscription. With the RECORD for $8. Both papers.

JUDGE O. L. RAY, of Hastings, Mich., will deliver a temperance lecture, in Collins & Weaver's hall, Saturday evening, Oct. 20. Mr. Ray comes well recommended as a temperance speaker, and good audience is expected.

This country is full of tramps of the most audacious and dangerous kind. A man is hardly safe to be out at night without being armed lest he be attacked and robbed or murdered. The greater part of these rascals are foreigners who have been shipped to this country to clear the paper lists over in Europe.

THE Grangers of this place met in their hall last Friday, and partook of a sumptuous feast prepared for the occasion. Several of the patrons from neighboring districts were present.

The Detroit Post and Tribune company now propose to start a cheap evening paper in Detroit, and will endeavor to make it just a little hot for the Evening News. We'll see what we shall see.

THE Board of Supervisors have appointed a committee of three, of whom the Treasurer is one, to purchase new safe for the keeping of the county funds. This will take some of the business from the Banks in different parts of the county.

THE dog case of Peter Nolan against Wilford Stratton, mentioned last week, came off before Esquire Balgallon on Saturday. Stratton paid Mrs. Nolan a board bill of $26, and $10 for shortening the dog, and then went his way rejoicing.

JAMES W. ORR, who was a student in the office of J. J. Van Riper last year, was admitted to the bar of this county, at Berrien Springs, on Tuesday, after a very acceptable examination. Jim has good natural abilities, and we doubt not will, before many days, be among the leading members in the practice.

THE season of the year has come when very sudden changes in the weather may be expected, and the greatest care should be taken in dress. A little extra pains in dressing properly may save more pains and a doctor's bill. It is better to use preventive than cure.

A communication defending the inscription on the Lake township school house, was received by us, but the writer failed to sign his true name. There is also an unpleasant attack made upon a disinterested person. For these reasons it remains suspended on our scrap book.

THE attention of stock raisers is called to the advertisement of sale of Berkshire pigs, in another column of this paper, by Samuel Johnson, of Dowagiac. Mr. J. is a noted grower of fine blooded stock, some of his animals having taken first premiums at the State and other fairs. Besides this he is a man of his word and means just what he says.

SEVERAL of the dealers in this place said that last week they made larger cash sales than any week for several months. One of them made sales to the amount of seven hundred dollars, where about four hundred has been the usual amount, and another says if they had two more such days as Friday and Saturday, they would sell entirely out. Hard times!

SURPRISE.—On Tuesday evening last some twenty-five or thirty ladies went to the residence of Mrs. Hattie Matthews, before she came home to supper, and took possession of the house. When Hattie got home supper was ready, and a large company present to help her eat it. The visitors remained until a late hour, and each one declared she never had so much fun before in her life.

MR. ROTHERMEL has made quite a marked improvement in the appearance of the store in Dayton, since it came into his possession, by more tastefully arranging the goods on the shelves, and other changes. The old saying, "Every man to his own business," is made quite prominent in this case. It is not hardly to be expected that a blacksmith will be a first-class writing-master.

THERE has been considerable said of the scarcity of apples, but there certainly must be some about Galien. Mr. S. A. Dennison, of that place, left with us thirteen of the Alexander variety, one of which measured thirteen and one-half inches in circumference and twelve of them weighed ten pounds and six ounces. No small ones.

MR. J. M. MATTHEWS sends us a copy of a paper from Independence, Kansas. He also writes from the same place. He seems in good spirits, and entertaining great expectations. He says that the poorer classes in that country build their first houses of wild sunflower stalks for the legs, and shingle the roofs with pumpkin seeds, and appear quite cozy, which we would naturally suppose would be the case.

THE old question of moving the County Seat was brought before the Board of Supervisors, at their meeting last week, and talked about to some extent. There have been several efforts made to have the county seat moved, so as to have it accessible by rail, but to no purpose. Should it be moved it will, no doubt, go to the place that is the most liberal in the matter of buildings. The best place, so far as railway facilities are concerned, is New Buffalo; for that place may be reached from all parts of the county more easily than any other. Niles and Buchanan on the South and Benton Harbor and St. Joseph on the North will probably make the most decisive efforts to obtain it, but for either of these places there exists the difficulty of being in an extreme corner of the county, and accessible from but one way, and should either get it, there would be but a short time before those living in the opposite end would move for a division of the county, and that would be a good argument for its division. This would be a very foolish move, as we have no more territory than we can manage handily, but would most certainly follow, as there are many prominent ones who are anxious for a division, and will use every means to that end. Our plan would be to build a railroad from Benton Harbor or St. Joseph, across the county, through Berrien Springs, and let the County Seat remain where it is. A road, such as was talked of a few years since, would cost but little more than a new set of buildings. We should be glad to hear the opinion of others on this question.

COURT in session this week at Berrien, with an uncommonly large number of cases on the docket. There are thirty criminal, 100 civil, and 17 chancery cases. Of the criminal cases, eight are for burglary, five for larceny, two for forgery, two for assault, two for illegal voting, three for attempt to murder, one for perjury, one for obstructing an officer, one for attempt at rape, one for violating the liquor law, two for receiving stolen goods, and one for breaking and entering a house with intent to commit murder.

THERE is a certain class of business men in this place, and we suppose that other places have them, who would set up an awful howl if they were to learn that their customers had been to some other town to buy goods; yet when they want a piece of furniture or a job of work done, they will rush to Chicago or some other place and buy. They not only do this but they require the home dealer to furnish first class goods, and will put up with a very inferior article from some other place, when it costs a little less, but is not actually so cheap. The life of a town depends upon the amount of legitimate business that can be brought to it, and those most interested should be the last to carry this life away.

A society calling itself the Advance Colonization society is operating in Pennsylvania in raising a colony to locate in Manalapan, Antrim county, 160 miles north of Grand Rapids, and the members were instructed to make all necessary preparations to start for that place on the 1st of November. A number of miners express decided interest in the proposed colony, and several have signified their intention of joining the society. The society numbers about 600 members.—Evening News.

THE COUNTY PRESS.

[Benton Harbor Palladium.]

There is a great deal of dissatisfaction in this part of the county among those who attended the fair at Niles. We have already heard numerous complaints of unfairness, such as the manner in which Mr. Nichols was treated, his buggy being run into and a wheel mashed by a Niles man in the trotting match. Had it not been for this little trick, Gray Dobbin would have won the race beyond doubt. The Canning Company have discharged about half of their hands. The business is growing lighter.

[St. Joseph Republican.]

During the dry weather preceding the late heavy rains the wheat is said to have suffered greatly, both from the want of rain and the ravages of the fly. In many instances the farmers say they had to plow and sow again. This being done the weather at present is very favorable for the development of this important cereal. Mike Note, of Boonville township, was shot and killed by the accidental discharge of a gun which he was handling on Monday last. He and a friend were shooting at a target, and Nole was just raising the gun to his shoulder, when for some unaccountable reason it went off, the charge lodging in his body, and in a short time he was no more.

[St. Joseph Traveler-Herald.]

The past week has been quite a boisterous one for this section. Old Equinox postponed his visit rather late, but he more than made up for the delay in the quantity of rain and wind that he supplied us with. Wednesday was the most turbulent of the week. The fierce north-wester which set in before daylight on that day kicked up a terrible sea so that the steamers did not deem it best to venture out—and in fact could not leave until Thursday evening. The slop Clara went ashore early Wednesday morning near the north pier, and there remains. During the forenoon the propeller G. F. Heath, and scow Granger, of Saugatuck, both loaded with lumber from Packard's pier for Chicago parties, made this port, the Heath losing a part of her cargo while coming through the breakers. The schooner Magdalena, loaded with lumber from the same point, went ashore near J. L. gap. About 9 o'clock the scow D. G. Williams, of Marysville, bound from Muskegon to Chicago with a load of lumber, tried to make this port but failed, and was at the mercy of the wild waves. She was carried to the southward of the light-house, the "water dashed over her decks and half way up to the crossbeams, soaking the men who had ascended thither to the skin, and it seemed as though all would be washed overboard. Capt. Jos. Napier at once got his life-boat crew together, and taking the Meenger's life-boat dragged it with the assistance of Capt. Bartlett, and a hundred or more of our citizens, across the sandy beach to a point abreast of where the scow had drifted. In a very few moments the boat was launched, the vessel reached and her crew saved. Capt. Napier and crew, and the citizens who so promptly assisted in the rescue are deserving of much praise for their gallant efforts.

[Niles Mirror.]

A sad affair took place on Monday night about 9 p. m. Mr. Geo. Kendall, who resides about two miles from Niles, on the Edwardsburg road, kept a gun in his barn for the purpose of shooting a fox that annoyed him. On Monday evening he went for a distance from his house of about 40 rods, found the barn door open and a tramp sitting inside on a box, smoking. "What are you doing here," asked Mr. K. "It is none of your business," said the tramp. "You had better get out of here," said Mr. K. "I will get out when I get ready," said the tramp, and he started taking with him the gun. Mr. Kendall accused him of having his gun. "No, it is my own, look where you left yours and you will find it," Mr. K. turned to look when the tramp started on a run and Mr. K. after him. He purchased him around the back side of the barn where Mr. K. overtook him and the man levelled his gun at his breast. Mr. K. knocked the muzzle of the gun down and received the charge in his leg about half way between the knee and ankle, blowing in entirely off, excepting about three or four inches of skin that held it. The tramp went through his pockets, and took about $250 of money just received for wheat and escaped. Mr. K. to raise an alarm, seized the gun and discharged the other barrel. No one appearing, he crawled about six rods to the front of the barn and called for help at the top of his voice, when his son who happened to step out of the house, heard him, and went to him with two others. He found him sitting on a stone under a cedar tree, and went for doctors and others took him home on a stone-boat. Amputation was performed about half past one by Dr. Bonine & Belknap, assisted by Dr. Greenmeyer, Mr. K. cannot recognize the villain, but thinks he was a colored man, medium height, with whiskers on the chin.

[Niles Herald.]

James Hand, barkman on Air Line freight from Niles, had his fingers severely pinched while coupling cars Tuesday. Dr. Bonine dressed the wound. On Friday last Joe Sullivan, a South Bend boy, riding a horse in the running race, on the fair grounds, was thrown from his horse by the saddle turning. He was knocked senseless for quite a while and considerably bruised.

LOCALS.

The Season of Intermittents.

All miasmatic complaints, in other words, all disorders generated by unwholesome exhalations from the earth or water, are prevalent at this season. In every section subject to the visitation of fever and ague, or other forms of intermittent disease, the causes which produce these malarial are now actively at work. This, therefore, is a period of the year when the inhabitants of such districts should prepare their systems to meet the unwholesome condition of the atmosphere by a course of tonic and alternative treatment. Amongst the invigorants, recommended by time and experience, as a means of fortifying the system against all endemic and epidemic maladies, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. By a timely use of the Bitters, the feeblest resident of an unhealthy soil may escape the sickness which, without the aid of this potent ally of nature, will be apt to overtake the strongest.

TO THE PEOPLE OF BUCHANAN AND BERRIEN COUNTY.

We beg to announce to you that we have purchased the elegant and well known store, late occupied by Messrs. Redden & Graham, and have gone to great expense to beautify and furnish it in the best possible manner, and we now propose to open a general mercantile establishment, second to no house in Michigan. We hope, by energy, industry and honorable dealing, to build up in the beautiful city of Buchanan, a business that town and county will be proud of our success.

We would like to meet and become acquainted with every man, woman and child in the county, and cordially ask you and yours to come to our general opening, and help us to build up a business creditably to the city. We have bought property which we propose to improve and beautify, and we are coming to Buchanan, we hope, to stay permanently. The people will find us full of enterprise, and we hope to so conduct our business and ourselves that every person in the county will feel like taking us by the hand and say "welcome."

We are no shoddyites. We are not coming to Buchanan to put on airs. We are coming, to work and try and do you and ourselves good. We do not propose to try and tear down the already well established business houses. We hope by push and enterprise to bring trade back to Buchanan, long since gone away, and trade from afar that has never been asked to come.

The business men of Buchanan will find us honorable competitors. We shall work hard to secure all the trade we can, but shall do it in a straightforward, businesslike way. To you, we say: let us all work to bring more business to Buchanan and we hope, by thorough advertising and carrying an immense stock to attract attention of close buyers for many miles around, and well knowing we cannot do all the business, we believe that instead of dividing the trade, the other houses by push may secure even a larger trade than at present, and we wish at this point to be thoroughly understood; we are coming to you as business men, and earnestly hope we may live in peace and harmony.

To the people, we will say: We shall keep in the Dry Goods Department everything desired in Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, Silks, Shawls, Cloaks, Knit Goods, Trimmings, Ribbons, Velvets, Flannels, Notions, Fancy Goods, Hosiery in elegant styles and immense variety. This department will be managed by Mr. O. S. Brown, for many years a prominent and favorite Dry Goods dealer in Chicago. He will be ably assisted by Mr. John Morris, whose good qualities as a gentleman and business man is the admiration of all who know him. Our next department, Boots and Shoes, will contain everything in Men's, Women's and Children's Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Overshoes in all styles, qualities and variety. These goods we buy in case lots from the manufacturer. Chief in this department will be found Mr. W. M. Johnston, of Toledo, Ohio, an old associate of ours, whose hair has grown gray in the Boot and Shoe trade. We will be proud to introduce him to the people of Berrien county.

In our Clothing Department, occupying the entire second floor, will be found stylish dress and business suits, Overcoats, Extra Pants, Vests, Hats, Quiffs, Mufflers, Underwear, Knit Goods, Hosiery, Mittens, Gloves, Furs, &c., &c. This department will be under the careful supervision of W. H. Wadsworth, of Baltimore, who can fit you to perfection. You will find it a pleasure to go through his department and inspect his stock.

We shall make a specialty of Tea, and hope to sell many hundred chests of Tea. These goods we shall handle in small one-half chest lots at jobbing prices. We have secured the assistance of Mr. L. C. Barnhart, for many years with the Great Oriental Tea Company, of San Francisco. We will say most emphatically that what he does not know about Tea is not worth knowing.

Our China, Crockery, Glassware, and House Furnishing Department will be under the management of Mr. James Mackenzie, a native of Scotland, for over fifteen years, of Baltimore. He is a good worker, and can sell as much Crockery in a day as any man that lives.

John H. Hartman, who you have all known for years, and Capt. T. L. Fisher, late from New York, will occupy the Auction Stand. We have not time to write of their virtues, but believe that they are among the best Auctioneers in the land. We shall sell at Auction, Wholesale and Retail. We shall employ two traveling salesmen in the North-west, selling to the Retail Crockery and Glass Trade, a business we have followed for fifteen years, and hope to handle one hundred crates of Crockery a year. We are also engaged in traveling parties in Michigan and Indiana, selling at Auction, buying in package lots for our three branches of business.

We believe we can buy, for ready cash, goods as cheap as any house in the country. As our sales are all for cash, we shall be well satisfied with a jobber's profits and hope, by so doing, to sell an immense amount of goods.

We again earnestly request your presence at our grand opening about the 1st of November. We hope to buy goods during the next twenty days from 10 to 25 per cent. cheaper than we could four weeks ago. This is the reason of our late opening.

Yours respectfully,
N. O. FANSLER & CO.

That Dr. V. Clarence Price is skillful, able, and successful in the treatment of chronic diseases, is granted by all who have been his patients. We do not remember to have done business with a more fair and candid man, or with a more thoroughly trained physiologist and practitioner. Very few are the chronic diseases which are curable or relievable that ever baffle him. Dr. Price's appointment for Niles,
