

Table with columns for advertising rates: TERMS OF ADVERTISING, Single copy, Weekly, Monthly, Quarterly, Semi-annually, Annually.

Business Directory.

B. T. MORLEY, star foundry. All kinds of castings, machine work, etc. etc. etc.

H. E. BRADLEY, Photographer. First-class work at low prices.

F. S. DODD, M. D., physician & surgeon. Office first floor of "Record" building.

E. M. PLIMPTON, attorney & counselor at law. Office on south side of Front street.

F. A. WHITE, Druggist and Apothecary. Office on south side of Front street.

F. A. M. SAMMILL, M. D., 192. Holds a regular meeting every Monday evening.

F. A. M. SAMMILL, M. D., 192. Holds a regular meeting every Monday evening.

G. GEORGE F. EDWARDS, Attorney at Law. Office on south side of Front street.

G. H. MOLIN, M. D., homeopathic physician and surgeon. Office on south side of Front street.

J. O. F. F. The regular meetings of the Board of Health.

J. M. WILSON, dentist. Office first floor of "Record" building.

JOHN WEISBERGER, manufacturer of leather. Office on south side of Front street.

N. HAMILTON, licensed auctioneer. Office on south side of Front street.

REDDING HOUSE, Z. P. Redding. Office on south side of Front street.

REDDING HOUSE, Z. P. Redding. Office on south side of Front street.

S. & W. W. SMITH, dentists in staple and cutlery. Office on south side of Front street.

S. F. & C. C. HIGH, dealers in Dry Goods. Office on south side of Front street.

VAN RIPER & HINMAN, Attorneys and Counselors at Law. Office on south side of Front street.

WOODLAND HOUSE, Three Oaks. Office on south side of Front street.

W. G. THOMPSON Auctioneer, GALEN, MICH. RATES REASONABLE.

Poetry.

Written for the Record. SCENES FROM THE PAST. BY C. R. N.

I am dreaming to-night in the fire's bright glow of days that are past and gone;

When life's fair vista before me was spread, Like a bright sunlit landscape at noon.

I see it all in the glowing coals, The home that I loved of yore:

The little, low cot in the valley laid, And the old elm tree drooping o'er.

The grand old hills are mirrored there, In a beautiful, sparkling stream;

Hark! I hear it now, the gurgle and drip, It cannot be a dream.

And the faces I loved, I see them there, My brothers and sisters so dear;

Together we played by the streamlet's side, Together we knew no fear.

The stream still winds its sparkling way, But the little low cot is gone;

Those whom I loved are scattered wide, And I am left alone.

The fire is low, and the coals grow dim, A mist is before my eyes.

One brother is roaming in foreign lands, One 'neath the ocean lies.

And my only sister, a beautiful girl, My idol and my pride;

When I thought to see with earth's gifted ones, Far up on the mountain side,

Smiling, more blithe than all was her fate; The withering slanders' tongue:

Blighted her life in its morning time, Her fire work was well begun.

She saw her friends and those she loved Turn sadly from her side;

They look from hence, as if life held dear, And in my arms she died.

We buried her there by the brooklet's side, And the hills kept watch above;

While I sat to-night in the glowing coals, The wreck of that loved.

BRECHMAN, March, 1878.

A Yankee Trick in England.

An amusing trial has just been concluded before Mr. De Kutzan, at the Surrey Assizes, England.

The defendant, during his cross-examination, admitted that in his neighborhood there were thirty public houses, all of which were trying to out each other out. Talking on one occasion of the difficulty of making a livelihood where there were so many competitors around him, a tall Yankee addressed him:

"Stranger, how much would you give to get all the big-zones of the neighborhood?"

"Twenty pounds," he replied. "Twenty pounds," the Yankee extended his hand, and saying, "Put it there," left.

The next day he came again, and told me "No success, no pay." I took him into my vault and left him alone.

That night all my customers came a dozen times, where before they only came once. They were all the time saying, "I wonder what makes me so dry?"

As I was about to close, the Yankee came up and said: "Stranger, that's a success. I want my balance square."

I acknowledged the bargain, and as I paid him the money, I said: "Now you will give me the receipt."

"Certain," he said; "we all do it in the States, when business tends to be dull."

"Well, what is it?" I asked. "Why, sir, you did British fool," and the Yankee, pocketing his money, left my house.

The court, while listening to the evidence, were convulsed with laughter. As salting beer was an offense against which there was no provision in law, James Scott was discharged.

What Liquor-Drinking Costs. An English factory operative, who once worked in New Bedford, but has returned to England, writes as follows:

"There is at present a great stagnation throughout the whole country, excepting the drink trade. We have spent in drink, the last year, one hundred and forty-seven millions of pounds sterling (directly upon drink).

At the end of another half hour she said, "Why do you fidget so with your feet?" I said, "Do I?" Then I put my attention there and kept still.

At the end of another half hour she said, "Why do you say, 'Yes, oh, yes,' and 'Ho, ho, certainly, very true' to everything I say, when half the time they are irrelevant answers?"

I blushed and explained that I had been a little absent-minded. At the end of another half hour she said, "Please, why do you gaze so steadfastly at vacancy and yet look so sad?"

I explained that I always did when I was reflecting. An hour passed, and then she turned and contemplated me with her earnest eyes, and said, "Why do you cry all the time?"

I explained that very funny comedies always made me cry. At last human nature surrendered, and I secretly slipped my boots off. This was a mistake; I was not able to get them on any more.

It was a rainy night, there were no omnibusses going our way, and as I walked home, burning up with shame, with the girl on one arm and my boots under the other, I was an object worthy of some compassion, especially in those moments of martyrdom when I had to pass through the glare that fell upon the pavement from street lamps.

"Where are your boots?" and, being taken unprepared, I put a fitting reply to the follies of the evening with the stupid remark, "The higher classes do not wear them to the theater."

A Devilish Act. Some time ago a poor frail waif of humanity drifted into Canton, Pa., in the person of a young woman.

She has lived around nobody knows how, sleeping at night, it is said, over the boilers in a mill in order to keep warm. A few nights ago from twenty to thirty young bloods of the town assembled together, and at night seized her, stripped her naked, and proceeded to treat her in an outrageous manner, tarring and feathering her, burning her flesh, and finally thrusting her into the street in a cold night without a particle of clothing.

Several hours after, she made her way to a negro's house, where the poor creature, more dead than alive, was kindly treated, showing that in spite of his black skin he was a better man than the others.

One of the young men has turned state's evidence, and disclosed the names of the perpetrators of the act. Some of the leading citizens of the town have, in the name of outraged humanity, taken up the case, and will prosecute it to the bitter end.

Stock of Whisky in the Country. A recent investigation of the records of the Internal Revenue office at Washington, with reference to the condition of the stocks of whisky in the United States, shows that on the 1st of January last the amount of tax-paid spirits in the hands of wholesale dealers and rectifiers was 17,145,279 gallons, but there were several districts throughout the country from which reports were received giving the exact amount.

It will be within bounds to say that the quantities returned from these districts will not augment the number of gallons in the hands of wholesale dealers and rectifiers beyond 18,000,000. The department is as yet unable to approximate in a satisfactory manner the stock in the hands of 156,000 retail liquor dealers throughout the country, though it is probable that there are about 10,000,000 gallons thus distributed.

The entire stock in the country, exclusive of that in bond, will scarcely exceed 28,000,000 gallons. The quantity in bond is about 13,000,000 gallons, which would bring the stock in the country to about 45,000,000 gallons. This is very low as compared with the amount ascertained to be held in previous years.

The Horrors of War. What the Pall Mall Gazette ironically calls "incidents of the holy war of the nineteenth century" are vividly described by a correspondent of the Daily News who accompanied the Russian army from Philippopolis to Berranli.

He saw the files of Bulgarian peasants with terrible wounds in the head and neck, sometimes mutilated and disfigured; women and infants, children and old men, both Turkish and Bulgarian, fallen in the fields by the roadside, half buried in the snow, or lying in the pools of water.

It seemed to have been one long battle between peasants of both races, in which the dead were counted equally for each; but while many of the bodies bore marks of violence and showed ghastly wounds, the great proportion of the women and children were evidently frozen to death, for they lay on the snow as if asleep, with the flush of life still on their faces, and the pink skin of their feet and hands still unblanched.

Side by side with these, many corpses of old men, full of dignity even in death, lay stark by the roadside, their white beards clotted with blood, and their helpless hands fallen upon their faces. From the muddy water of the ditches the hands and feet stretched out, and baby faces half covered with snow looked innocently and peacefully, with scarcely a sign of suffering on their mothers' breasts, they were thrown down into the snow to lighten the burden of the poor creatures who were struggling along in mortal terror.

A Big Tusk. Bear Tooth was described by those pioneers of Western exploration, Lewis and Clark, and has always been regarded as the most conspicuous landmark in Northern Montana. It can be seen sixty miles away, and is in full view from Helena. It is at the end of the canon known as the Gate of the Mountains, through which the Missouri river flows, and in photographs of Northern scenery two tusks rise, black and grim, from its crown.

Not long ago a party of hunters, who were encamped near the base of the mountains, heard a rumbling sound and felt the earth tremble beneath them. It was not earthquakes, for when they continued their chase, they reached a clearing where these animals took up, they saw that the Bear's Tooth had lost a tusk. An immense mass of rock and earth, 300 feet in circumference at the top, and 500 feet in height, had been dislodged, and sliding down the mountain side like an avalanche, had swept through a forest of big trees for a quarter of a mile.

Living Barometers.—At Sacramento, Cal., according to a local newspaper, there are two animated barometers which have proved trustworthy, even when the artificial instruments have failed. One of these is a catfish which is kept in a water trough. No matter how clear the weather, when the barometer indicates a change, this fish always, before a storm, swims about with his head below the water and his tail above until rain begins to fall, when he goes out of sight until the weather changes. The other barometer consists of two frogs under the floor of the police office, which have never been seen by any of the officers, but which presage a storm several hours in advance of the barometer indications by a series of discordant croaks. No matter how clear and bright the night the police officers prepare for a storm when the warning comes.

"Now, mamma, you be Mitheth Dones, and I'll be Mitheth Smith, and run and mate you a tall." "Mamma—" "Very well, Mrs. Smith, I'm glad to see you. How do you do, and how are the children?" "Totty—" "I'm twice well, I thank you, but the children has all dot do hoopin' toff." "Mamma—I'm sorry to hear it. How many children have you, Mrs. Smith?" "Totty—" "Oh, I has ten, an dey is a gate yal to me wif my housekeepin'." "Mamma—They must be, indeed. But how does your husband, Mr. Smith do?" "Totty—" "He's very well, thank you; but he has had bithness, and he hath failed." "Mamma—" "I'm sorry to hear that your husband has failed, but you haven't lost everything, Mrs. Smith, for I see you make calls in your own carriage." "Totty—" "Oh, yes. I keep my carriage. We has paid one cent on of dollar and does right on."

The above is a fact.—Commercial Bulletin.

A Child's Narrow Escape. For some weeks Mr. Pierce, of Georgetown, had heard a peculiar noise at night, and discovered the gradual loss of chickens. He came to the conclusion that it must be made by rats. Friday night he and his wife were awakened by a sharp cry of distress from the crib adjoining their bed, in which their two-year-old infant was sleeping. Mr. Pierce immediately sprang out and discovered a weasel at his child's throat. Catching the animal with his hand he threw it to the floor, killing it at once. A few moments later the little one would certainly have been killed, as a deep gasp was already made in its throat. The animal was about eighteen inches long, very slender, with short legs.

Dr. A. N. Van Ripper. Eye & Ear. Operations performed at the residence of the patient.

DR. A. N. VAN RIPPER, M. D., Buchanan, Mich.

DR. A. N. VAN RIPPER, M. D., Buchanan, Mich.

DR. A. N. VAN RIPPER, M. D., Buchanan, Mich.

Madison Dispensary.

DR. C. H. KELCOV, Buchanan, Mich.

THE BICKFORD AUTOMATIC FAMILY KNITTING MACHINE.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best Family Knitting Machine.

Best for particulars and lowest prices for the Best

Berrien Co. Record.

THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 1878.

To Advertisers. The "Record" is the best Advertising Medium in South-western Michigan, having the largest circulation of any other paper in this part of the State.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 41 Park Row, N. Y., E. M. Pettigill, 37 Park Row, N. Y., and Rowell & Gleason, St. Louis, Missouri, are our authorized agents for contract advertising, at our lowest rates, for the columns of the BERRIEN COUNTY RECORD.

Don't Forget It. BEFORE YOU SPEND ONE DOLLAR FOR BOOTS & SHOES,

CLOTHING, For yourself or family, you ought to see the nice new stock, and how cheap you can buy of

L. P. & G. W. FOX.

We Defy Competition.

REGISTRATION NOTICE. The Township Board of Registration will be in session at the office of Will E. Plimpton, Township Clerk, on Saturday, March 30, 1878, from 7 o'clock A. M. to 5 o'clock P. M.

W. E. PLIMPTON, Township Clerk.

Greenback. An Independent Union Greenback Caucus will be held at Collins & Weaver's Hall, on Saturday, March 30th, 1878, at 2 o'clock P. M., to nominate candidates for the various offices to be filled at the ensuing Township Election.

REMEMBER David Copperfield tomorrow night at the hall.

ONE week from next Sunday is easter.

GENERAL moving day will soon be here.

WILLIAM LOUGH has a ferret for a pet.

LOOK on the cast side of this page for a new advertisement.

FIVE moonlight nights, the past week.

If you haven't trimmed your grape vines, now is a good time to attend to it.

GOOSE HUNTING is among the sports on the Kankakee just now.

DUCK HUNTING is becoming a favorite sport in some parts of the State.

BLUE GOOSESS trimmed in black is the latest style.

THE mud still appears to prosper and grow less very slowly.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS was paid on the village indebtedness last week.

LAKK fish are being taken from the St. Joseph river.

The Campbell-Mosher scandal at Berrien Springs is still at high ebb.

DANIEL McFARLAND has been giving public readings in South Bend.

SUGAR-MAKING is about over for this year.

WHEAT in this vicinity is in splendid condition.

BEEs are doing good work among the soft maples.

THE song of the cricket is now among the signs of spring.

MISS MINNIE WHEBER, of Dexter, is visiting friends in this place and Dayton.

REGISTRATION day, Saturday, March 30th, and election the following Monday.

THE Cassopolites charter a car when they want to go to Edwardsburgh to a one-horse theatre.

THE young boy is now building large hen's nests, in preparation for easter.

The Cass County Republican has changed its day of publication, and will now appear on Wednesdays.

AWNINGS begin to spring up on the north side of the streets, these warm days.

THERE seems to be some difficulty in finding houses to rent in this place. Is that not a sign?

THE foreman of the Era office sends us a neat sample of their work, a card in three colors of bronze work.

A WISE DOG in Dayton will listen for the hens to cackle, and then will set out to find the last egg. He is nearly always successful, too.

SATURDAY must have been a good day for trade, judging from the number of teams hitched in the mill yard. The room was all occupied.

THE Township Board of Registration will meet at the Clerk's office, on Saturday, March 30th, and if you want to vote and are not already registered, then will be your time to attend to it.

TO-MORROW will settle up the school work for the winter term in the Buchanan schools. There will be an entertainment in the hall in the evening.

There was not an exceedingly large crowd out to the donation for Rev. Mr. Burton at Willie Foster's, last Thursday, but for all that they had one of the best suppers possible and a good time. Receipts not given.

ONE week from next Monday will be "All Fool's Day," also township election day, and in all probability there will be a good many people fooled pretty badly that day.

SOLD.—The Tremont House and lot was sold at auction, Monday afternoon. It was bid in by Wm. R. Rough at $255, he assuming all liens against the property, which amount to about $750.

THE president and two of the directors of the Michigan Central, passed through this place, on Friday afternoon, at the rate of sixty miles per hour.

THE regular session of Circuit Court will meet next Tuesday, at Berrien Springs, if the roads are in such a condition that people can get there.

THERE were two accessions to the Advent Church by baptism, on Saturday last. The converts were Mrs. Mendell, the minister's wife, and Mrs. Wade, from near Berrien Springs.

ONE fellow who carries a black eye from his election fracas, upon being asked if a mule had kicked him, said, no, he got that from voting the green-back ticket, and he would be blowed if he would ever do it again.

THE new village Board was sworn to support the various constitutions, and be good to themselves and the village of Buchanan, on Monday, and are now ready for business.

CRESTUS ROE returned Saturday afternoon from Ann Arbor, where he has been attending a course of lectures in the Law department of the University.

SOCIAL.—The Good Templars of this place will meet at their hall on Wednesday evening next, March 27, for the purpose of having a good time. All are invited to join them. Admission five cents.

R. T. TWOMBLY send us a late copy of the St. Louis Daily Journal, containing a graphic description of Fort Worth, Texas, where he is located. A card also accompanies, introducing Twombly & Jones, real estate and immigration agents of Fort Worth.

MR. A. M. COLLINS, formerly of this place, is now in Chicago making arrangements for the publication of a book for the computation of interest.

A LIMITED number of the new silver dollars have made their appearance in this vicinity. Have you seen one?

HORSE BILLS.—Owners of stallions will do well to give us their orders for bills this season. We have eight cuts from which customers can choose.

MR. O. S. ABBOTT, for several years cashier of the Citizens' National Bank, of Niles, was found dead in his bed at the Clifton House, Saturday morning.

THERE was a sort of one-horse theatre followed by a dance, in Cottage Hill Grange Hall, Tuesday evening. They report a good time and lots of it.

THOMAS CAMPBELL, mentioned last week as having been arrested in New Buffalo for some committed in North Liberty, Ind., has been sentenced to three years imprisonment in the State Penitentiary at Michigan City.

HARVEY HUDSON writes from Kansas, not giving a very favorable report. Among other things he says there are the laziest and most worthless set of farmers he ever saw; also that it is very hard to find any man who has been five or six years and is not anxious to sell out.

NOTICE.—Subscribers who receive the RECORD at Three Oaks, and in arrears, are requested to call upon W. K. Sawyer, who is our agent, and settle their accounts. Mr. Sawyer is also authorized to receive new subscriptions.

THE sale of the property belonging to the estate of Sarah A. Watson was opened again on Saturday last, and the bid raised to $300. The sale now stands adjourned to Saturday, March 30th, at ten o'clock in the forenoon. The property now stands to the bid of Mr. Abijah Estes.

SHERIFF WILCOX, of St. Joseph county, passed through this place Tuesday evening with a prisoner who escaped from the jail in his county the 14th. He was recaptured in Laporte, and gave the officers a grand struggle to get the shackles on him.

THE Niles Democrat does some blowing about its circulation, probably basing its calculations on the "estimates" of George P. Rowell & Co., in their last copy of the American Newspaper Directory, which is nothing but a mess of guesswork which missed the mark in the case of the Record by several hundred.

THE ELECTION.—There are many, perhaps, who do not fully appreciate the importance to Republicans of the coming township election, not only in the selection of good men to the various offices, but in the effect this canvass will have on the State next November. It is very important that every Republican be at the polls on the first of April, and cast your vote with the party more for the future effect than otherwise, as the color of other and more important election will necessarily be affected by the result of this. Do not fall to vote!

MR. LEWIS BAKER returned from Ann Arbor, where he has been attending the medical department of the University, Saturday morning. He appears to have fared well while in the pursuit of that most necessary of luxuries, an education.

WE would ask special attention to a book list in another column. There will be others added in a few weeks, and respectfully invite inspection of other lists. No man should be without good books in his house. Purchasers may have books mailed direct to them, without extra expense over the prices named in the list.

ARNOLD BURGESS, of Hillsdale, refused an offer of $2,000 for his dogs Druid and Queen Mab, while at the St. Louis dog show, last month.—Ezra St. Louis man can get a thousand dogs for that money in this vicinity, and our citizens will never shed a tear at the parting.

CHANGE.—There was a slight change in affairs on Front street last Saturday night. S. P. & C. C. High removed their stock of dry goods to the room formerly occupied by G. W. Noble, and A. L. Noble's stock of clothing and boots and shoes take the room with S. & W. W. Smith.

Remaining in the Post Office at Buchanan, Wednesday, March 20th, 1878. Ferguson, Martha Graham, Amy Fuller, G. C. Levey, Retta Gray, George W. Williams, Fyema

This is published here for the information of the readers of the Record, therefore there is no charge for delivery of letters addressed herein. Persons will, however, in claiming any of the above, call for "advertised letters."

A RATHER interesting love letter was handed us for publication, but so long as it was lost by the owner, we refrain from doing so, although we would advise "Owl" not to be discouraged, as his sweetheart is not so unfaithful as his mistrust. Keep stiff upper-lip, and you will be all right.

ON Wednesday of last week Asael Kelsey, who was crippled by falling from and being run over by a freight train several months since, had a second amputation of the maimed limb. The operation was performed by Drs. Bonine and Bulkup. The amputation was necessitated by a diseased condition of the bone that kept the former wound from healing. Mr. Kelsey has suffered extremely since this accident befell him, and the great wonder is that he has lived through it all.

HATTIE HAIN and ROSE WHITE were out riding, last Saturday, with J. F. Hahn's colt and buggy, and in turning too short when on Oak street, near the church, the buggy was overturned, throwing both girls out and the colt flat on his side. He got up a little quicker than the girls, but was caught before he could do any damage. No one was hurt. The girls don't want anything said about it, so keep mum.

COMPLAINT comes to us that somebody's chickens are about to intrude on somebody else's garden patch. Now this should not be, for there is a By-Law in the village that says that all poultry and other geese shall not be allowed to run at large between the first day of March and the first day of October of each year, and they are supposed to be authority on all subjects of this character.

ROBERTED.—Mr. N. Johnson will reopen his select school, in the school building on Second street, on Monday, April first. For particulars regarding terms or board, apply to or address Mr. Johnson. Owl.

"To-Night you've been drinking again." Great Temperance Song and Chorus, by C. F. Shattuck, sung by hundreds of Temperance Clubs, with greatest effect, mailed by all music dealers for 35c. Published by M. S. Huyett, St. Joseph, Mo.

A QUESTION that interests the fruit growers of this county is, "What is the Yellow, and how can the disease be cured?" The theory of one of our townsmen who raises a considerable number of peaches, is that the yellow is caused by a large grub or worm that works in the body of the tree near or just below the surface of the ground, and that on the first appearance of the disease the removal of the insects will save the tree. He says that in trees having this disease he finds the grubs, but whether they are the cause of the diseased condition of the tree he does not know. It is very evident, however, that the borers should not be allowed to stay there, and that the tree will do just as well without them. Should any other of the peach growers arrive at any other conclusion regarding this trouble we shall be pleased to hear from them.

REMAINING in the Post Office at Buchanan, Wednesday, March 20th, 1878. Ferguson, Martha Graham, Amy Fuller, G. C. Levey, Retta Gray, George W. Williams, Fyema

This is published here for the information of the readers of the Record, therefore there is no charge for delivery of letters addressed herein. Persons will, however, in claiming any of the above, call for "advertised letters."

A RATHER interesting love letter was handed us for publication, but so long as it was lost by the owner, we refrain from doing so, although we would advise "Owl" not to be discouraged, as his sweetheart is not so unfaithful as his mistrust. Keep stiff upper-lip, and you will be all right.

ON Wednesday of last week Asael Kelsey, who was crippled by falling from and being run over by a freight train several months since, had a second amputation of the maimed limb. The operation was performed by Drs. Bonine and Bulkup. The amputation was necessitated by a diseased condition of the bone that kept the former wound from healing. Mr. Kelsey has suffered extremely since this accident befell him, and the great wonder is that he has lived through it all.

HATTIE HAIN and ROSE WHITE were out riding, last Saturday, with J. F. Hahn's colt and buggy, and in turning too short when on Oak street, near the church, the buggy was overturned, throwing both girls out and the colt flat on his side. He got up a little quicker than the girls, but was caught before he could do any damage. No one was hurt. The girls don't want anything said about it, so keep mum.

COMPLAINT comes to us that somebody's chickens are about to intrude on somebody else's garden patch. Now this should not be, for there is a By-Law in the village that says that all poultry and other geese shall not be allowed to run at large between the first day of March and the first day of October of each year, and they are supposed to be authority on all subjects of this character.

LAST week a young man called at Dr. Pierce's to have his hand dressed. He had been helping another man split rails by placing the wedges while the other struck them with a maul, and by some mishap got his hand on top of the wedge just as his comrade was about to strike, when the heavy maul came down on his hand, completely smashing three of his fingers. His home is near Berrien Springs. His name is Charles Gray, son of Amos Gray.

ACCIDENT.—Master Frank Binker met with a rather painful accident on Monday afternoon last. He was playing with other boys in the school-yard, when Harry Samson, a boy of about the same age, threw a piece of brick, nearly half of the full size, and struck him on the left side of his face, near the joint of the jaw and just in front of the ear, cutting a deep gash that bled quite badly. Had the blow been an inch higher it would most certainly have killed him on the spot. Will there ever be a time when boys will have done with such utter carelessness? It appears to be necessary that some one must be killed every little while to keep them within bounds.

THE Northern Berrien County Agricultural Society is making certain calculations upon holding a fair the coming Fall, on grounds they have purchased near Benton Harbor. One society of that kind should suffice for a county the size of this, and the formation of this association is no doubt due to the fact that the first society has clung too tenaciously to one place instead of holding their fairs in the several towns in the county, say two seasons each, and thus the better accommodating all parts of the county. There are several towns, this place for one, that would be glad to furnish suitable grounds and buildings for the accommodation of the Society, which they have the fair once in a while. The largest fair ever held in this county was when the fair was held in Buchanan, and our citizens would make a desperate effort to do so again if the opportunity were offered. Give all a fair show.

Real estate in this place begins to change hands at good figures, which indicates that St. Joseph is again "taking up." Mr. O. B. Dickerson, of Chicago, who this week purchased the Benjamin Kingsley place of 40 acres, paying therefor $6,500....Wm. Hale Maynard accidentally knocked his coat from a hook at his residence yesterday morning and as the coat struck the floor one of the chambers in a loaded pistol, which was in one of the pockets, was discharged, the ball entering Mr. Maynard's right leg on the outside, just above the knee, and passing upward and inward lodged near the hip joint on the inside of the leg. The ball just missed cutting the main artery. It was a narrow escape for Mr. M.

REMAINING in the Post Office at Buchanan, Wednesday, March 20th, 1878. Ferguson, Martha Graham, Amy Fuller, G. C. Levey, Retta Gray, George W. Williams, Fyema

This is published here for the information of the readers of the Record, therefore there is no charge for delivery of letters addressed herein. Persons will, however, in claiming any of the above, call for "advertised letters."

A RATHER interesting love letter was handed us for publication, but so long as it was lost by the owner, we refrain from doing so, although we would advise "Owl" not to be discouraged, as his sweetheart is not so unfaithful as his mistrust. Keep stiff upper-lip, and you will be all right.

ON Wednesday of last week Asael Kelsey, who was crippled by falling from and being run over by a freight train several months since, had a second amputation of the maimed limb. The operation was performed by Drs. Bonine and Bulkup. The amputation was necessitated by a diseased condition of the bone that kept the former wound from healing. Mr. Kelsey has suffered extremely since this accident befell him, and the great wonder is that he has lived through it all.

HATTIE HAIN and ROSE WHITE were out riding, last Saturday, with J. F. Hahn's colt and buggy, and in turning too short when on Oak street, near the church, the buggy was overturned, throwing both girls out and the colt flat on his side. He got up a little quicker than the girls, but was caught before he could do any damage. No one was hurt. The girls don't want anything said about it, so keep mum.

COMPLAINT comes to us that somebody's chickens are about to intrude on somebody else's garden patch. Now this should not be, for there is a By-Law in the village that says that all poultry and other geese shall not be allowed to run at large between the first day of March and the first day of October of each year, and they are supposed to be authority on all subjects of this character.

LAST week a young man called at Dr. Pierce's to have his hand dressed. He had been helping another man split rails by placing the wedges while the other struck them with a maul, and by some mishap got his hand on top of the wedge just as his comrade was about to strike, when the heavy maul came down on his hand, completely smashing three of his fingers. His home is near Berrien Springs. His name is Charles Gray, son of Amos Gray.

ACCIDENT.—Master Frank Binker met with a rather painful accident on Monday afternoon last. He was playing with other boys in the school-yard, when Harry Samson, a boy of about the same age, threw a piece of brick, nearly half of the full size, and struck him on the left side of his face, near the joint of the jaw and just in front of the ear, cutting a deep gash that bled quite badly. Had the blow been an inch higher it would most certainly have killed him on the spot. Will there ever be a time when boys will have done with such utter carelessness? It appears to be necessary that some one must be killed every little while to keep them within bounds.

THE Northern Berrien County Agricultural Society is making certain calculations upon holding a fair the coming Fall, on grounds they have purchased near Benton Harbor. One society of that kind should suffice for a county the size of this, and the formation of this association is no doubt due to the fact that the first society has clung too tenaciously to one place instead of holding their fairs in the several towns in the county, say two seasons each, and thus the better accommodating all parts of the county. There are several towns, this place for one, that would be glad to furnish suitable grounds and buildings for the accommodation of the Society, which they have the fair once in a while. The largest fair ever held in this county was when the fair was held in Buchanan, and our citizens would make a desperate effort to do so again if the opportunity were offered. Give all a fair show.

Real estate in this place begins to change hands at good figures, which indicates that St. Joseph is again "taking up." Mr. O. B. Dickerson, of Chicago, who this week purchased the Benjamin Kingsley place of 40 acres, paying therefor $6,500....Wm. Hale Maynard accidentally knocked his coat from a hook at his residence yesterday morning and as the coat struck the floor one of the chambers in a loaded pistol, which was in one of the pockets, was discharged, the ball entering Mr. Maynard's right leg on the outside, just above the knee, and passing upward and inward lodged near the hip joint on the inside of the leg. The ball just missed cutting the main artery. It was a narrow escape for Mr. M.

REMAINING in the Post Office at Buchanan, Wednesday, March 20th, 1878. Ferguson, Martha Graham, Amy Fuller, G. C. Levey, Retta Gray, George W. Williams, Fyema

This is published here for the information of the readers of the Record, therefore there is no charge for delivery of letters addressed herein. Persons will, however, in claiming any of the above, call for "advertised letters."

A RATHER interesting love letter was handed us for publication, but so long as it was lost by the owner, we refrain from doing so, although we would advise "Owl" not to be discouraged, as his sweetheart is not so unfaithful as his mistrust. Keep stiff upper-lip, and you will be all right.

ON Wednesday of last week Asael Kelsey, who was crippled by falling from and being run over by a freight train several months since, had a second amputation of the maimed limb. The operation was performed by Drs. Bonine and Bulkup. The amputation was necessitated by a diseased condition of the bone that kept the former wound from healing. Mr. Kelsey has suffered extremely since this accident befell him, and the great wonder is that he has lived through it all.

HATTIE HAIN and ROSE WHITE were out riding, last Saturday, with J. F. Hahn's colt and buggy, and in turning too short when on Oak street, near the church, the buggy was overturned, throwing both girls out and the colt flat on his side. He got up a little quicker than the girls, but was caught before he could do any damage. No one was hurt. The girls don't want anything said about it, so keep mum.

COMPLAINT comes to us that somebody's chickens are about to intrude on somebody else's garden patch. Now this should not be, for there is a By-Law in the village that says that all poultry and other geese shall not be allowed to run at large between the first day of March and the first day of October of each year, and they are supposed to be authority on all subjects of this character.

LAST week a young man called at Dr. Pierce's to have his hand dressed. He had been helping another man split rails by placing the wedges while the other struck them with a maul, and by some mishap got his hand on top of the wedge just as his comrade was about to strike, when the heavy maul came down on his hand, completely smashing three of his fingers. His home is near Berrien Springs. His name is Charles Gray, son of Amos Gray.

ACCIDENT.—Master Frank Binker met with a rather painful accident on Monday afternoon last. He was playing with other boys in the school-yard, when Harry Samson, a boy of about the same age, threw a piece of brick, nearly half of the full size, and struck him on the left side of his face, near the joint of the jaw and just in front of the ear, cutting a deep gash that bled quite badly. Had the blow been an inch higher it would most certainly have killed him on the spot. Will there ever be a time when boys will have done with such utter carelessness? It appears to be necessary that some one must be killed every little while to keep them within bounds.

THE Northern Berrien County Agricultural Society is making certain calculations upon holding a fair the coming Fall, on grounds they have purchased near Benton Harbor. One society of that kind should suffice for a county the size of this, and the formation of this association is no doubt due to the fact that the first society has clung too tenaciously to one place instead of holding their fairs in the several towns in the county, say two seasons each, and thus the better accommodating all parts of the county. There are several towns, this place for one, that would be glad to furnish suitable grounds and buildings for the accommodation of the Society, which they have the fair once in a while. The largest fair ever held in this county was when the fair was held in Buchanan, and our citizens would make a desperate effort to do so again if the opportunity were offered. Give all a fair show.

Real estate in this place begins to change hands at good figures, which indicates that St. Joseph is again "taking up." Mr. O. B. Dickerson, of Chicago, who this week purchased the Benjamin Kingsley place of 40 acres, paying therefor $6,500....Wm. Hale Maynard accidentally knocked his coat from a hook at his residence yesterday morning and as the coat struck the floor one of the chambers in a loaded pistol, which was in one of the pockets, was discharged, the ball entering Mr. Maynard's right leg on the outside, just above the knee, and passing upward and inward lodged near the hip joint on the inside of the leg. The ball just missed cutting the main artery. It was a narrow escape for Mr. M.

REMAINING in the Post Office at Buchanan, Wednesday, March 20th, 1878. Ferguson, Martha Graham, Amy Fuller, G. C. Levey, Retta Gray, George W. Williams, Fyema

This is published here for the information of the readers of the Record, therefore there is no charge for delivery of letters addressed herein. Persons will, however, in claiming any of the above, call for "advertised letters."

A RATHER interesting love letter was handed us for publication, but so long as it was lost by the owner, we refrain from doing so, although we would advise "Owl" not to be discouraged, as his sweetheart is not so unfaithful as his mistrust. Keep stiff upper-lip, and you will be all right.

ON Wednesday of last week Asael Kelsey, who was crippled by falling from and being run over by a freight train several months since, had a second amputation of the maimed limb. The operation was performed by Drs. Bonine and Bulkup. The amputation was necessitated by a diseased condition of the bone that kept the former wound from healing. Mr. Kelsey has suffered extremely since this accident befell him, and the great wonder is that he has lived through it all.

HATTIE HAIN and ROSE WHITE were out riding, last Saturday, with J. F. Hahn's colt and buggy, and in turning too short when on Oak street, near the church, the buggy was overturned, throwing both girls out and the colt flat on his side. He got up a little quicker than the girls, but was caught before he could do any damage. No one was hurt. The girls don't want anything said about it, so keep mum.

COMPLAINT comes to us that somebody's chickens are about to intrude on somebody else's garden patch. Now this should not be, for there is a By-Law in the village that says that all poultry and other geese shall not be allowed to run at large between the first day of March and the first day of October of each year, and they are supposed to be authority on all subjects of this character.

LAST week a young man called at Dr. Pierce's to have his hand dressed. He had been helping another man split rails by placing the wedges while the other struck them with a maul, and by some mishap got his hand on top of the wedge just as his comrade was about to strike, when the heavy maul came down on his hand, completely smashing three of his fingers. His home is near Berrien Springs. His name is Charles Gray, son of Amos Gray.

ACCIDENT.—Master Frank Binker met with a rather painful accident on Monday afternoon last. He was playing with other boys in the school-yard, when Harry Samson, a boy of about the same age, threw a piece of brick, nearly half of the full size, and struck him on the left side of his face, near the joint of the jaw and just in front of the ear, cutting a deep gash that bled quite badly. Had the blow been an inch higher it would most certainly have killed him on the spot. Will there ever be a time when boys will have done with such utter carelessness? It appears to be necessary that some one must be killed every little while to keep them within bounds.

THE Northern Berrien County Agricultural Society is making certain calculations upon holding a fair the coming Fall, on grounds they have purchased near Benton Harbor. One society of that kind should suffice for a county the size of this, and the formation of this association is no doubt due to the fact that the first society has clung too tenaciously to one place instead of holding their fairs in the several towns in the county, say two seasons each, and thus the better accommodating all parts of the county. There are several towns, this place for one, that would be glad to furnish suitable grounds and buildings for the accommodation of the Society, which they have the fair once in a while. The largest fair ever held in this county was when the fair was held in Buchanan, and our citizens would make a desperate effort to do so again if the opportunity were offered. Give all a fair show.

Real estate in this place begins to change hands at good figures, which indicates that St. Joseph is again "taking up." Mr. O. B. Dickerson, of Chicago, who this week purchased the Benjamin Kingsley place of 40 acres, paying therefor $6,500....Wm. Hale Maynard accidentally knocked his coat from a hook at his residence yesterday morning and as the coat struck the floor one of the chambers in a loaded pistol, which was in one of the pockets, was discharged, the ball entering Mr. Maynard's right leg on the outside, just above the knee, and passing upward and inward lodged near the hip joint on the inside of the leg. The ball just missed cutting the main artery. It was a narrow escape for Mr. M.

REMAINING in the Post Office at Buchanan, Wednesday, March 20th, 1878. Ferguson, Martha Graham, Amy Fuller, G. C. Levey, Retta Gray, George W. Williams, Fyema

This is published here for the information of the readers of the Record, therefore there is no charge for delivery of letters addressed herein. Persons will, however, in claiming any of the above, call for "advertised letters."

A RATHER interesting love letter was handed us for publication, but so long as it was lost by the owner, we refrain from doing so, although we would advise "Owl" not to be discouraged, as his sweetheart is not so unfaithful as his mistrust. Keep stiff upper-lip, and you will be all right.

ON Wednesday of last week Asael Kelsey, who was crippled by falling from and being run over by a freight train several months since, had a second amputation of the maimed limb. The operation was performed by Drs. Bonine and Bulkup. The amputation was necessitated by a diseased condition of the bone that kept the former wound from healing. Mr. Kelsey has suffered extremely since this accident befell him, and the great wonder is that he has lived through it all.

HATTIE HAIN and ROSE WHITE were out riding, last Saturday, with J. F. Hahn's colt and buggy, and in turning too short when on Oak street, near the church, the buggy was overturned, throwing both girls out and the colt flat on his side. He got up a little quicker than the girls, but was caught before he could do any damage. No one was hurt. The girls don't want anything said about it, so keep mum.

COMPLAINT comes to us that somebody's chickens are about to intrude on somebody else's garden patch. Now this should not be, for there is a By-Law in the village that says that all poultry and other geese shall not be allowed to run at large between the first day of March and the first day of October of each year, and they are supposed to be authority on all subjects of this character.

LAST week a young man called at Dr. Pierce's to have his hand dressed. He had been helping another man split rails by placing the wedges while the other struck them with a maul, and by some mishap got his hand on top of the wedge just as his comrade was about to strike, when the heavy maul came down on his hand, completely smashing three of his fingers. His home is near Berrien Springs. His name is Charles Gray, son of Amos Gray.

ACCIDENT.—Master Frank Binker met with a rather painful accident on Monday afternoon last. He was playing with other boys in the school-yard, when Harry Samson, a boy of about the same age, threw a piece of brick, nearly half of the full size, and struck him on the left side of his face, near the joint of the jaw and just in front of the ear, cutting a deep gash that bled quite badly. Had the blow been an inch higher it would most certainly have killed him on the spot. Will there ever be a time when boys will have done with such utter carelessness? It appears to be necessary that some one must be killed every little while to keep them within bounds.

THE Northern Berrien County Agricultural Society is making certain calculations upon holding a fair the coming Fall, on grounds they have purchased near Benton Harbor. One society of that kind should suffice for a county the size of this, and the formation of this association is no doubt due to the fact that the first society has clung too tenaciously to one place instead of holding their fairs in the several towns in the county, say two seasons each, and thus the better accommodating all parts of the county. There are several towns, this place for one, that would be glad to furnish suitable grounds and buildings for the accommodation of the Society, which they have the fair once in a while. The largest fair ever held in this county was when the fair was held in Buchanan, and our citizens would make a desperate effort to do so again if the opportunity were offered. Give all a fair show.

Real estate in this place begins to change hands at good figures, which indicates that St. Joseph is again "taking up." Mr. O. B. Dickerson, of Chicago, who this week purchased the Benjamin Kingsley place of 40 acres, paying therefor $6,500....Wm. Hale Maynard accidentally knocked his coat from a hook at his residence yesterday morning and as the coat struck the floor one of the chambers in a loaded pistol, which was in one of the pockets, was discharged, the ball entering Mr. Maynard's right leg on the outside, just above the knee, and passing upward and inward lodged near the hip joint on the inside of the leg. The ball just missed cutting the main artery. It was a narrow escape for Mr. M.

