[This act authorized still further issues of "greenbacks" and "certificates of indebtedness," and constituted the authority for the issue of the bonds known as "the loan of 1863," for the one and two year five per cents, for the "compound interest notes of 1863," for the "certificates," and for the "fractional currency."] AN ACT TO PROVIDE WAYS AND MEANS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE GOVERNMENT—Vol. XII, p.

709, Stat. at Large.

SECTION 1. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby,

authorized to borrow, from time to time, on the credit of the United States, a sum not exceeding $800,- 000,000 for the current fiscal year, and $800,000,000 for the next fiscal year, and to issue therefor coupon or registered bonds, payable at the pleasure of the Government after such periods as may be fixed by the Secretary, not less than ten nor more than 40 years from date, in coin, and of such denominations not less than $50, as he may deem expedient, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 6 per cent, per annum, payable on bonds not exceeding $100, annually, on all other bonds semi-annually, in coin; and he may, in his discretion, dispose of such bonds at any time, upon such terms as he may deem most advisable, for lawful money of the United States, or for any of the certificates of indebtedness or deposit that may at any time be unpaid, or for any of the Treasury notes heretofore issued or which may be issued under the provisions of this act. And all the bonds and Treasury notes or United States notes issued under the provisions of this act shall be exempt from taxation by or under State or municipal authority; Provided, That there shall be outstanding of bonds, Treasury notes and United States notes, at any time, issued under the provisions of this act, no greater amount altogether than the sum of $800,000,000.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to issue, on the credit of the United States, $400,000,000 in Treasury notes, payable at the pleasure of the United States, or at such times not exceeding three years from date as may be found most beneficial to the public interests, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 6 per cent.

per annum, payable at periods expressed on the face of said Treasury notes; and the interest on the said Treasury notes and on certificates of indebtedness and deposits hereafter issued, shall be paid in lawful money.

The Treasury notes thus issued shall notes, and for other purposes, approved February 25, 1862, and of the act to authorize an additional issue of United States notes, and for other purposes, approved July 11, 1862, as restricts the negotiation of bonds to market value, is hereby repealed.

And the holders of United States notes, issued under and by virtue of said act, shall present the same for the purpose of exchanging the same for bonds, as therein provided, on or before the first day of July, 1863, and thereafter the right so to exchange the same shall cease and determine.

Sec. 4. That in lieu of postage and revenue stamps for fractional currency, and of fractional notes, commonly called postage currency, issued or to be issued, the Secretary of the Treasury may issue fractional notes of like amounts in such form as he may deem expedient, and may provide for the engraving, preparation and issue thereof in the Treasury Department building. And all such notes issued shall be exchangeable by the Assistant Treasurers and designated depositaries for United States notes, in sums not less than three dollars, and shall be receivable for postage and revenue stamps, and also in payment of any due to the United States less than five dollars, except duties on imports, and shall be redeemed on presentation at the Treasury of the United States in such sums and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. Provided, That the whole amount of fractional currency issued, including postage and revenue stamps issued as currency, shall not exceed $50,000,000.

Sec. 5. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to receive deposits of gold coin and bullion with the Treasurer or any Assistant Treasurer of the United States, in sums not less than $20 and to issue certificates therefor, in denominations of not less than $20 each, corresponding with the denominations of the United States notes. The coin and bullion deposited for or representing the certificates of deposit shall be retained in the Treasury for the payment of the same on demand. And certificates representing coin in the Treasury may be issued in payment of interest on the public debt, which certificates, together with those issued for coin and bullion deposited, shall not at any time exceed 20 per cent.

beyond the amount of coin and bullion in the Treasury; and the certificates for coin or bullion in the Treasury shall be received at par in payment for duties on imports.

Sec. 6 relates to the form, signature, etc., of the various notes and bonds.

Sec. 7 relates entirely to the duty on bank circulation, etc., after April 1, 1863.

Sec. 8 relates to the counterfeiting, and appropriates $600,000 to meet the expenses of the act.

THE ACT OF MARCH 3, 1864.

[This act authorized the issue of the bonds known as the "ten-forties of 1864," and extended the scope of on the public debt, by a period not exceeding one year, from time to time, either with or without a rebate of interest upon the coupons, as to him may seem expedient; and he is hereby authorized to dispose of any gold in the Treasury of the United States not necessary for the payment of interest on the public debt; Provided, that the obligation to create the sinking fund, according to the act of February 25, 1862, shall not be impaired thereby.

THE ACT OF JUNE 30, 1864.

[This act established various limitations upon the previously authorized issues of "temporary loan certificates," "greenbacks" and "the loan of 1862," and authorized the issue of the bonds known as "the five-twenties of 1864," and also of "the seven-thirties of 1864," and "the compound interest notes of 1864."] AN ACT TO PROVIDE WAYS AND MEANS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE GOVERNMENT—Vol. XIII, p.

218, Stat. at Large.

States, $400,000,000, and to issue therefor coupon or registered bonds of the United States, redeemable at the pleasure of the government, after any period not less than five nor more than thirty years, or, if deemed ex-pedit, and payable at any period not more than forty years from date.

And said bonds shall be of such denominations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct, not less than $50, and bear an annual interest not exceeding 6 per cent., payable semi-annually in coin. And the Secretary of the Treasury may dispose of such bonds, or any part thereof, and of any bonds commonly known as five-twenties remaining unsold, in the
