THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1878.

The South is said to have the largest cotton crop this year ever produced.

By act of Congress: This is a Greenback victory. Swing your hats!

The Paris Exposition closed Saturday. The receipts of the season amounted to 12,858,746 francs.

The second and last regular session of the Forty-sixth Congress will commence on Monday, December 2.

The Bankrupt law had 103,014 converts who took benefit of its provisions for paying debts.

During the last year the money or department of the postal service made a net profit to the Government of $3,000.

The Czar of Russia has been so unwell as to be unable to attend to any business.

Ben. Butler is said to have spent $25,000 in the political canvass and was beaten by 80,000 majority.

Butler's majority in Massachusetts was in good keeping with his principles. Flat, you know.

Senator Christian's health is very poor, and he is unable to perform any mental labor, even to give personal attention to his private correspondence.

Cape May, N. J., had a $400,000 blaze Saturday, carrying away about forty acres of buildings from the best of the city.

De La Matry, the Greenback Congress man elected in Indiana, thinks Hendricks just the man for the next President, and confidentially looks for breaking up of both the old parties. What a disappointed man he is doomed to be.

An advertisement has been published in the N. Y. Herald, proposing to produce the body of A. T. Stewart for a reward of $100,000. It is firmly to be hoped the proposition will not be complied with.

Passenger rates to New York have recently been cut down as follows: From Chicago, $22 to $13.50; from St. Louis, $27 to $13.50; from Cincinnati, $20 to $7; from Louisville, $27 to $13.50. Competition and a firm resolve among the railroads to kill themselves is the cause of the reduction. It may lead to trouble.

Before election, Henry S. Smith, Greenback candidate Governor, and C. C. Comstock, candidate for Congress, from the fifth district, on the same ticket, held a chattel mortgage on the Grand Rapids National Inquirer, and the next day after election they foreclosed, and now that paper is no more. These people belong to the clan that does not believe in mortgages.

The prospect for 1880 is now quite favorable to the Republican success. The Electoral College, not counting Connecticut (Republican) and California, now stands 156 Democrats to 201 Republicans, and does the National convention but use fair discretion in its choice of candidates, a Republican victory at that time is plainly assured.

Secretaries Key, Sherman, Thompson and McGroarty, of the Cabinet, announce themselves in favor of Grant for the Republican candidate for the Presidency in 1880. Secretary Key said, in an interview, that he found no Republicans on his trip from California, who were opposed to this candidacy, and all feel confident that he will have a sweeping majority if nominated.

The resumption policy will have a decided majority in the Forty-sixth Congress, so that no danger to the country will come from the "flat" craze for the next two years. What may follow that time is yet among the mysteries, but it is to be hoped the American people will fully return to consciousness ere that time.

In the United States Court, at Grand Rapids Saturday, in the case of the Haskell Baker Car Company vs. St. Joseph township, for the collection of township bonds for aid in building the L. S. & M. & R. R., a verdict was rendered against the township for $21,000.

The next Congress will be Democratic, notwithstanding the Republican gains in the North on the 5th. There were corresponding losses in the South, so that the House will be divided solid North Republican, against a solid South Democratic, with Independents enough to hold the balance of power in organizing the House.

On Saturday last, an arrangement was effected by Secretary Sherman and a number of bankers, and Comptroller Knox, of New York, to the effect that the Clearing House in that place should receive legal-tenders at par with gold. It is also stated that after Jan. 1st, the Treasury Department will send to parties desiring the standard silver dollar in quantities of $1,000, and upwards, free of transportation, in exchange for like sums of greenbacks deposited with depository banks.

Last week a large amount of American gold coin was received at New York from France. Some of it came in the original unbroken packages, just as it had been abroad four years ago. It had slumbered in the vaults of the banks of France and the bank of England, and London, and was based upon it was issued by both banks. Within a fortnight $7,500,000, all in American gold coin, was drawn from the bank of France for remittance to New York and London. It was true "money of the world," and, as such, had formed a part of the currency of three different countries. —Lancet.

The question as to whether National Banks or the Government receive the benefit of any bank notes that may be destroyed, has been a vexing one to some. The only part of the National banking law referring to redemption of these notes may be found in Section 5,222 and 5,224 of the compiled statutes of the United States, which read as follows:

Within six months from the date of the vote to go into liquidation, the association shall deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, lawful money of the United States sufficient to redeem all its outstanding circulation. The Treasurer shall execute on duplicate receipts for money thus deposited, and deliver one to the association and the other to the Comptroller of the Currency, stating the amount received by him, and the money shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, and placed to the credit of such association upon redemption account.

Whether sufficient deposit of lawful money to redeem the outstanding circulation of an association proposing to close its business has been made the bonds deposited by the association to the credit of its notes shall be re-assigned to it, in the manner prescribed by section fifty-one hundred and sixty-two. And hereafter the association and its shareholders shall stand as sureties on all liabilities upon the circulating notes, and those notes shall be redeemed at the Treasury of the United States. And if any such bank shall fail to make the deposit and take up its bonds for thirty days after the expiration of the time specified, the Comptroller of the Currency shall have power to sell the bonds pledged for the circulation of said bank, at public auction, in New York city, and, after providing for the redemption and cancellation of said circulation, and the necessary expenses of the sale, to pay over any balance remaining to the bank or its legal representatives.

By this we think it plain that when any benefit accrues the Government will receive it, for it redeems all notes presented for redemption and no more, but receives deposit of lawful money to amount equal to the entire circulation of the bank.

A proposition is afoot to transfer the students from the University to the Reform School if they don't behave themselves better. Three of them were arrested Saturday morning for stoning the colored Baptist Church of Ann Arbor.

On Thursday last the tomb of the dead millionaire, A. T. Stewart, in New York city was robbed of its precious contents. Mrs. Stewart has offered $25,000 for the recovery of the remains and conviction of the thieves. This addition to the long list of crimes revives the question, especially among the wealthy, of cremation as the only means of safely disposing of the remains of the dead, that they may not be disturbed by the criminal hands of the grave robbers.

English Opinion of the November Elections.

The London Times, in a leading editorial article commenting on the elections in the United States, says: "It is with very sincere satisfaction that we publish the results of the November elections in the United States. The gravity of the issues on which the voters have practically to decide could scarcely be over-estimated, and there was some ground for apprehension that the caprices of the democracy might turn the scale in favor of a reckless agitation and ruinous policy. Now, as often before, the good sense of the American people has come to the rescue just in time to save the country from the consequences of party brawling and immorality of professional politicians. Little thanks are due to the leaders of the Republican party and still less to those of the Democrats. Neither side can be exonerated from the guilt of paltering with inflationists, repudiationists and socialist agitators which culminated in the formation of the Greenback-Labor party. The Times thinks that it is not improving that both Messrs. Tilden and Thurman will disappear from the ranks of the Democrats before 1880, and that Mr. Bayard will be their candidate for President.

A SMALL grey-eyed man about fifty years of age, plainly dressed, good looking, loaded with credentials, is going the rounds, proposing to various newspapers to canvass neighboring towns for advertising, collecting twenty-five per cent of amount in advance for his remuneration. This proposition is fair enough, but he is an unmitigated swindler, and all newspaper men are hereby advised to kick him into the street without ceremony, and save themselves much perplexity. Exchanges please copy.

CHARLES BERRICK has bought the right of Berrien, Cass and Van Buren counties for running the Feather Renovator, and assumed charge of the business Friday last. The machine will remain in this place a short time longer, and give those who have not had their work done an opportunity to get it done while the machine is yet near them, and they may depend upon its good work as has been done heretofore.

Major Murdoch had libel suits against half a dozen papers, and was not elected Secretary of State; C. C. Comstock had two libel suits against newspapers, and he was not elected to Congress. Joe Nicholson had a big suit against the News, and Joe won't come in for the $12,000 per annum income the Sheriff of Wayne county gets. Gentlemen! It does not pay to kick against the pricks.—Evening News.

NEARLY A BLAZE—Monday night one of the employees in the National office took the ashes from the stove into a basket and left it standing in the back room of the office. During the night the basket caught fire and burned a large hole in the floor and but for the timely arrival of Mr. Waterman, who sleeps in the upper part of the building, there would have been a warm time in that row of wooden buildings. To cap the climax the proprietors and friends of that institution told upon the street the next morning that the building had been set on fire by some of the "hard money" party to get rid of the paper. House-burners and communists belong to the other party, besides that institution is not of sufficient consequence to any party to warrant burning.

ACCIDENT.—The Misses Nannie, Libbie and Sue Wells met with a rather uncomfortable accident, Sunday afternoon. As they were driving from the school house in their district, where they had been to attend meeting, one of the lines came unstitched and the horse started to run, and on passing the corner at the Matthews place, the buggy was overturned, and the horse thrown flat upon his side. One of the girls knew enough of horses to get on the horse's head and hold him down until others, who were following after, could come up and put matters right, when they got into the buggy and drove off once more. Luckily, no damage was done other than to give the girls a good fright.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a meeting of the Mount Taber Grange, No. 43, of Berrien county, held Nov. 2, 1878, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, that we, the Grange in the death of our sister have lost one of our most valuable and worthy members; her loss we bow with submission to the mandate and say "Thy will be done."

Resolved, that we tender our heartfelt sympathy to her bereaved family.

Resolved, that one blank page in our Grange record book be draped in mourning and devoted to a notice of her death.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased; also to the BERRIEN COUNTY RECORD.

JAMES BEACH, Wm. M. Tabor, Mrs. W. M. Tabor.

FROM DAYTON.

Election has come and gone; no blood shed by the Greenbackers, notwithstanding their previous threats and loud howls.

A. H. Rothmel is doing a fine trade in his line.

Needham is making it lively in the way of grain deal.

Our friend Young has returned, and all say "welcome home, John."

Kearns pegs away as usual.

The heavy weight mill is grinding steadily on for pope and toll.

Wilson is making it lively at the new mill.

Little Dave, the blacksmith, hammers away late and early, and seems contented with cooking his own grub.

No deaths to report this week.

Our new agent, Stow, is giving good satisfaction. His wife has been quite sick, but is better.

GLEASER.

FROM DAYTON.

Nov. 13, 1878.

ED. RECORD.—A. H. Rothmel has been improving his stock with lime and mortar, and general cleaning, which improves its appearance very much. He now has L. S. Jakway clerking for him.

Mrs. Henry Spicer, daughter of Philip Martin, died Oct. 29, leaving a child two weeks old.

Our Surgeon, Dr. C. C. Now, supports a new carriage and harness. Frank is nowhere now.

The quarterly meeting was held at this place Saturday and Sabbath, Elder Boggs presiding. A goodly number in attendance.

Benjamin Franklin Needham has very much improved the hotel by making more rooms, and a hall to dining room, &c.

Everyone appears to be pleased with our school this term, and scholars like the teacher very much. Hope we can secure his service the next term. This changing teachers every term is not in good taste.

Miss Jaquith, of South Bend, has been visiting with friends here. Returned home last week.

Election passed off very nicely. Of course no one lost their vote. The ones they voted for were elected.

PROV.

If any of those new greenback boys want to die they can now be executed to go off and die. They fought a good fight, stuck to their stock lies splendidly, and—well, boys, the job is laid.—Evening News.

A DIRGE.
Friends, breathe the dirge, the Fiat's doom;
For them no more the canons boom;
For them no glad returns;
Their tattered emblems send to view,
Wearing a wisp of straw,
Their drooping banners mourn.

Ye feathered songster of the roost,
No more they hear thy crowing boast—
Silent they sleep in death.
They must obey the stern command;
T'was from the redeeming gold on hand,
Flats resigned their breath.

T'was from the hand of Bennett, you know;
Who led astray the Dr. Roe,
And dealt the fatal coup,
Assured by him that Brick Pomeroy
Would give them money without alloy,
And fill their coffers up.

And Jerry O'Connell, you must know,
Who Spark's tender heart did move,
And deluded Perry Fox,
For by his false promises,
They now are numbered with the dead,
And fill this dismal bog.

With agonizing pain oppressed,
And aching hearts within their breasts,
They cast their farewell vote.
Is it a crime to go to glory,
When brighter stars have led the way,
And fall in this dreadful bog?

Bennett, it was a barbarous deed;
It makes my wounded bosom bleed,
While I lie in the cold,
Yet who have passion for fear,
Must give it vent and let it hear,
O'er Fate's helpless fate.

Scarcely two short years have passed away,
Ere flat to death must fall a prey,
A poor fellow much to be pitied,
Expecting soon to join in hand,
With Old Ben Bennett's jolly band,
And feed at the public rack.

But, Al! the sad reality we see:
O'er cruel, cruel reality!
To the cruel, cruel reality,
Instead of a vote stamped on gold,
Redeemable—reenables doth appear,
And honest money's a doct.

Low in the dust, confused they lie—
Forever done! their wishful cry—
And may their path be adorned afar,
By the sweet perfume of the alluring tar
On their journey to the moon.

Fell monster Bennett, hear thy doom!
As Fiat's fiat is thy doom!
To the cruel, cruel reality,
For their pale ghosts talk through the air,
And whisper in thy careless ear,
"Stand without the political wall."

On Balaam's wings their spirits fled!
The Briar creek courses led!
We mourn a bright life so soon,
And may their path be adorned afar,
By the sweet perfume of the alluring tar
On their journey to the moon.

COUNTY PRESS.

[Mr. Corbin Republican.]
The steamer Corona, having completed her work for the season, left on Wednesday on her last trip, and ere this she is probably gone into winter quarters. The new passenger depot is nearly completed.

[Niles Democrat.]
A very heavy fall of snow fell at Elkhardt and vicinity, on Wednesday, last week. It was of some seven or eight inches in depth. It was a wet, heavy snow and caused great destruction among the trees and shrubbery, owing to the fact that they were not as yet divested of their foliage.

[Berrien Springs Journal.]
A tame vulture one hundred feet long was taken from a young lady in Benton township last week. From the Lake Shore News we learn that on last Saturday afternoon, the skeletons of eight men were found buried on the bank of the St. Joseph river, on the farm of Daniel Martin, in Benton township. From indications it appeared that a hole had been dug and the bodies thrown in in a promiscuous heap. The skeletons had evidently been buried for a number of years, but who they were or how they came there is a mystery.
