San Francisco Opium Den.

A first-class opium den is fitted with a table about eight feet long and five feet wide...

This is covered with matting, and the feet are placed on mats. In the center of the table is a tray containing opium pipes...

The opium pipe is made of a piece of mahogany or ebony wood. The stem is about three-quarters of an inch in diameter...

and about two feet in length. The bowl is half an inch in diameter and the length of the stem is about three inches...

of the bowl of the stem is the bowl of the pipe. It is made of a peculiar kind of sand and clay in China, and is very hard and fire-proof...

The bowl is about two inches in diameter. The top of the bowl is entirely closed, except a small hole in the center of the bowl...

which is inserted a brass coupling, connecting the stem to the bowl. The coupling is in a small hole in the bowl...

When a person desires to smoke opium, he reclines upon the table, upon one side. With a piece of steel, about the length of the stem, he inserts it into the hole...

and gently draws through the cartridge of opium. The smoker then turns the bowl of the pipe to the flame of the lamp...

How Smelts are Caught in Maine.

The Belfast (Maine) Journal says that on the coast of that State smelt visit the river about the 20th of December and remain almost all winter...

For about two months they take the hook readily, and are caught in considerable numbers through holes in the ice. Formerly, a cold day it was very severe fishing without shelter, except by piling up cakes of ice, evergreen boughs, etc.

Last winter one of the fishermen made a canvas tent, and it proved so comfortable that it has now become the universal custom of the fish in them. There are now on the ice, about the bridges, two villages of these canvas houses, much resembling an Indian encampment...

A light wooden frame with a sharp roof, is put together, and the whole covered with a light canvas or cotton cloth. In some instances the canvas is supported by a letter to rest the pitching northward wind. The ordinary tent is about six feet square, occasionally one is larger for two persons. The interior is provided with a stove, and a bench upon which the angler sits while fishing. The whole rests upon runners, and can be easily moved from place to place.

When the fisherman reaches the river, he closes the door, drops his line through the hole, and waits for bites. Each man has four lines. The bait used in this vicinity is the clam worm, which is found in the clam flats. The upper end of the line is fastened to a rack above the fisherman's head, while the hook is from six to ten feet from the surface. The fisherman sits on his bench, and the stove, and patiently waits for the fish to bite. There is not much skill in this kind of angling, for when a smelt takes the hook the motion of the line conveys the fact to the fisherman, and he quickly hauls him in. The fish bite best on cold, stormy days. From ten to fifteen pounds is a fair day's work for one man.

The Microphone. A battery transmitter, the invention of Prof. Bell, which will enable one to hear a whisper over a distance of several miles, was received by the Bell Telephone Company of Chicago. A voltaic current is passed through conductors which are connected with the diaphragm of the transmitter, and a certain resistance to the current, and are so arranged that the vibrations of the diaphragm caused by the sound waves vary this resistance with every wave, thus producing a current of varying intensity, which correspond to and reproduce the articulation. A magneto-telephone, however, is required as receiver. This transmitter acts more powerfully, for the reason that the magnetic induction is stronger than the magneto-electric current ordinarily produced by the telephone, and on that account the faintest articulation can be transmitted over a long distance. The battery telephone, however, possessing the advantage of larger articulation, and not being liable to get out of order under ordinary circumstances, is more delicate and complicated in its construction, requires the maintenance of a battery in connection with it, and, occasionally, the attention of an electrical expert. It will doubtless be used principally in the larger cities, where the long distances between telegraph and other wires interfere materially with the weaker currents of the magneto-telephone; also in the transmission of messages over long distances, or where, for special reasons, a greater volume of sound is necessary. It has been used successfully between Milwaukee and Chicago.

When a person needs not put one's mouth close to the diaphragm. The speaker can stand off four feet and talk in an ordinary tone, or turn his back to the instrument.

The Turkish Wife. The Turkish wife is not a slave; the chief fault to find with her is that she has too lofty a sense of her own dignity. An advocate of female rights would have some difficulty in persuading her that her lot was pitiable; she has never known the emancipation of Christian women, whose free ways shock her; while she has noticed the inferior position of the women of her own faith than that which is invariably vouchsafed to herself. She will her face with no more regret than a Western lady unveils her hair. The Turkish woman would not shut up. They go out when they please, attended by their maidens, if rich, or holding their children by the hand; and their meagre voices fill the streets. They are noisy talkers. Whenever they pass a man of all creeds stands aside deferentially. If a husband neglects his wife in the street, he makes no sign of recognition. If he perceives her talking to a man, he looks on with a cold and gazing significantly at silks dearer than she can afford, he must possess his soul in resignation, muttering "Allah-shah!" This respect for women prevails also in the domestic life. The Turkish wife is not a slave; she has too lofty a sense of her own dignity. Error more days in this month.

Did you know it had been cold the last week?

Dr. Myers has been quite sick, but is out again.

The season of ham and eggs is close at hand. Yum, yum!

SCARLET FEVER is in town, so keep your children under shelter.

MEMORY crawled down to zero again Saturday morning.

SATURDAY will be the anniversary of Washington's birthday.

If all reports be true they are in need of a coat of tar, up in Pipestone.

See call for Republican State convention in another column of this paper.

MR. AND MRS. W. OSBORN are the ones to be congratulated. It's a boy this time.

HON. E. M. PLIMPTON spoke before the Red Ribbon Club, at Niles, last Sunday.

SEE new advertisement of T. M. Fulton & Co. in another part of this page.

The ground-hog seems to have known something about the winter weather this time.

Michael Debolski and Francesca Powlowicz were recently married in South Bend.

THE Duke of Three Oaks received eighteen votes for Senator to fill vacancy. What next?

THE Greenbackers have called a County Convention to be held at Berrien Springs, Feb. 25.

Senator Chamberlain nominated John J. Bagley in the Republican Caucus, at Lansing, last Thursday.

Mrs. F. F. CLARK, of Bertrand township, has been quite sick with typhoid fever the last two weeks.

TO-MORROW EVENING is the time of the grand anniversary ball in Rough's Hall. Of course there will be a crowd.

FARMERS say they prefer having their winter now to having it in harvest time. Don't blame them much.

ALBERT J. ROUSE, a furniture dealer in Dowagiac, died suddenly Tuesday. He was sick but about two hours.

THE National has passed into the hands of Dr. Berrick, who will have the editorial and business management of the sheet hereafter.

By the way dead rabbits are brought to town we imagine the crop in this section must be getting pretty well thinned out.

Mrs. J. N. STEPHENS talks of starting to Silver Cliff, Colorado, in a short time. Mr. Stephens has been there during the past three months.

NO ONE can complain of not having had enough good sleighing this winter. A brisk storm yesterday continues it for a few days yet.

TO-DAY is the last day of grace with the tax-gatherer, and he will probably begin to use the sharp stick on those who have not settled up.

Mrs. H. C. FRENCH, of Cassopolis, was in this place, on a visit with her father, Mr. L. P. Alexander, the last week.

THERE are nine pounds of young Halleck of the feminine gender, over the river, and Corydon answers the call of "daddy."

ATLANTIC MONTHLY for March is at hand, and contains the usual amount of fresh reading that is always first-class. So will pay for the Atlantic and Record one year.

Mr. W. I. HINES left for Jackson, Tuesday morning, as representative of the Buchanan Lodge I. O. O. F. in the Grand Lodge of the State, which is in session in that place.

It is more profitable for a business man to advertise in a paper having a fair list of prompt paying subscribers than one with twice as many who are all dead beats.

PERRY FOX says he didn't write the advertisement in the National. We hardly thought he would do such a thing, but it sounded so natural.

A Detroit architect has written for the job to plan and erect a hall in this place, and wants to send estimates. Hope he will get the job.

BERRIEN COUNTY is entitled to fourteen delegates to the Republican County Convention to be held in Lansing, March 6.

PERSONAL.—The receiver of the poem signed "Valentine" is enchanted with the idea of gold, and golden prospects portrayed, but can't see the point. Will you explain?

ONE WAITING AND WATCHING.

A LYCORN is in full blast at the Stems school-house in Weesaw township. Last night they decided whether intemperance or war was the cause of the greater amount of misery and suffering.

"A BILL to establish the Benton Harbor ship canal as a common highway and public navigable water" is to be introduced by Col. Ward into the House of Representatives.

ALL of the steady old people of Warren township, Ind., are signing the temperance pledge. Many of them probably never knew how whisky tastes. A few papers are doing likewise, and the effect is not entirely lost.

WE desire to return thanks to our friends who were so attentive during the illness of our late little Ernest. Such kindness can never be forgotten.

F. E. AND A. J. ALLIGER.

OUR Presbyterian friends had an ice cream social at the residence of Mrs. Anna Tichenor, over the river, on Tuesday evening. Over one hundred were present who enjoyed a fine time. The receipts were $15.

A QUITE lively dispute has arisen among those interested, about how deep the piles were driven in building the new bridge at Crocker's mill. It is evident that they were not driven deep enough or the bridge would be there now.

"SOMEBODY'S Coming When the Dewdrops Fall" is the title of the new song and chorus just issued by S. Brainard's Sons, Cleveland, Ohio. It is one of the finest pieces in the market. Send 40 cents and get a copy by mail.

IN another part of this paper may be found the advertisement of Harper's Weekly. Our clipping rates for the Record and either of Harper's publications are $3. The regular price of Harper alone is $4. Subscriptions are solicited.

THERE was a Valentine Social in Grange Hall, Friday evening, for the benefit of the Grange. There were about fifty present, and they had a good time. Rather stormy weather for a moment to attend any meeting for amusement.

MR. ASHLEY KELSEY has just completed a wooden leg he has been making for his own use. It displays good workmanship, and will answer the purpose nearly as well as one that would have cost him $200 at a factory.

MR. H. H. KINSON has bought the part of Union block now occupied by Spencer & Barnes, and will fit it up for the grocery business, preparatory to moving in a few months. Where Spencer & Barnes will go is not yet fully decided.

"WIDE AWAKE" for March contains more than the usual amount of entertaining reading matter and illustrations for the instruction of the little folks. No child of ten or twelve years should be without this valuable book. Subscription taken at this office. $3.25 pays for the Wide Awake and Record one year.

SALE.—Mr. Otis Sterns has traded farms with Mr. Godfrey Joy, and previous to moving to his new home will make a public sale of his personal property, at his residence, on Wednesday, February 26. This takes Mr. Sterns into Oronoko township.

WM. BURRUS has both index fingers in the care of the doctor. One he caught between two saw-logs and had it smashed, and the other has a felon on it. Nothing like having hands that are mates.

A FIVE-FOUNDER from Chicago was in town yesterday looking after our friend Mr. Scullen, but failed to find him. The founder's bill is $300. He claimed that Scullen used fraud in order to get the material for which the bill calls, and proposes that Mr. Scullen shall pay the penalty if he can be found.

THE Funny man of the Burlington Hawkeye will lecture in South Bend next Wednesday. Get yourself hooped and go and hear him.

BUCHANAN is threatened with the organization of an anti-slavery band. If sincere sympathy is of any comfort to those in distress, here's the tender of a large amount to the Buchanmites. —Free Press. Thanks.

MR. CARTWRIGHT talks seriously of bringing suit against this village for damages, because he fell down on a icy sidewalk and broke his arm. Better let that job out, Mr. Cartwright, and save your attorney fee, for you would certainly have the cost to pay.

Mrs. DELLA WHITE has had both of her little toes amputated close to the foot. Her reason for doing so is not known. The amputation was done by Dr. McLean.

Mr. TYNDAI, Huxley, Darwin, and the rest of the faculty, are respectfully invited to be present at the meetings of the Conversational Society of Niles and learn something new on the subject of evolution. The depths of the subject are brought to the surface by them and made perfectly plain.

A HAND of juvenile thieves and pick-pockets have been making considerable trouble in West Niles, for some time, by pilfering such things as they may find displayed in ladies' dress pockets, such as pocket-books, handkerchiefs, &c. We learn that five of the young rascals are in limbo, and are likely to suffer the proper punishment for such conduct.

MR. McNEIL, the editor of the Three Oaks Independent, was in town Friday, and complains that we have more of the snow storm here than our share. Some parties in this place have been trying to persuade him to take possession of the National and move his Three Oaks establishment here, thus consolidating the two papers, but from some cause or other the scheme was a failure.

THE regular annual sale of unclaimed packages, by the American Express company, for Michigan, will be held at Detroit, March 1. From Buchanan there are four packages advertised. They were directed to Miss A. B. Dyer, N. E. Colburn, H. Congdon and Smith Simonds respectively. These sales are considerable like investing in a lottery that has no blanks and you pay your own price for the ticket.

SEVERAL months since Mrs. J. R. Boyce presented Henry Schaefer for damages done by selling liquor to her husband, and obtained judgment for $50 and costs. Schaefer appealed to the Circuit Court, and there the case was decided last week in the same way as by the Justice court, but the damage placed at $97.50, and the attorney informs us that the Judge was of the opinion that if the case was taken to that court at the commencement, two or three hundred dollars might have been recovered.

AN interesting article appears in the Post and Tribune of Saturday, showing the cost of the Narrow Gauge Railroad from Lawton to Lawrence, a distance of 24 miles. It will cost $50,000, which includes two depots and the entire engine. It need require but little more expense to build a similar road from South Bend to St. Joseph via this place and Berrien Springs, and there appears no good reason why such a road could not do more business than does the one alluded to above, which is paying its owners a good living profit, and surely the passenger traffic would be far greater.

WE learn that there is to be a sailing yacht placed on Clear lake for pleasure purposes as soon as possible after the breaking up in the spring. The boat is thirty-five feet long and thirteen feet wide and will run in thirty inches of water. It is now at Benton Harbor and will be brought up the river to this place. Clear lake is one of the most pleasant lakes in Berrien county and there is no reason why it should not be made a general resort for pleasure parties during the warm months.

MR. CHARLES VINTON, of Galien, was married to Miss Ella Ingles, of the same place, at the residence of the bride's parents, last Sunday. The young couple started for the West for their bridal tour, Monday morning, accompanied by the well wishes of a host of friends. Rev. Mr. Barthelem, of this place, was called to perform the marriage ceremony, but owing to the bride being below the legal age for marriage, he refused to perform the ceremony, but afterwards some other person was found who performed the rite.

THERE was a special meeting of the Common Council, Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of discussing the propriety of asking the Legislature to amend our village charter as to make the office of Marshal an appointive instead of an elective office, the appointment and discharge to be controlled by the Common Council. This is the way things are arranged in Niles. This year there is an even political division of the Board of Aldermen and they cannot appoint any Marshal, city printer, or anything else. Consequently the officers of last year hold over until there can be a new election of Aldermen, whether the people are satisfied or not. We don't want any such work in Buchanan if it can be avoided. An election each year will be more apt to give general satisfaction than the other method.

A LADY named McKee, of Terre Coupe, Ind., is in a peck of trouble. She was married to McKee about five years ago, and everything passed off in lovely style until about three months since, when a lady from Mishawaka came to their home for a visit of two or three weeks, and McKee fell in love with her, and after she went away he told his wife of his intention to run away with the Mishawaka girl, if he could raise the necessary funds, and proceeded to offer for sale a span of mules, in which she claims to have an interest to the amount of $75. She now advertises that she will prosecute any person who buys those mules or has anything to do with her husband. He is a young man, light-complexion, and curly hair. The mules are one day and one black.

ACCIDENT.—Last Saturday evening a sleigh-load of nine persons went from this place to J. D. Wells' to spend the evening. They started home in good season and in coming up the large hill just this side of Mr. Wells' house, the hind "hobs" veered to one side and the box tipped over, throwing the load into an excavation in the bank, where some one had been getting gravel. In the fall Mrs. Post had one rib broken, and Mrs. N. Hamilton was so badly bruised about the hips and back as to render her helpless, and will be confined to her bed for some time. Some of the others were somewhat injured, although none of them seriously. Taken altogether the sleigh-ride turned out rather a dear one.

Mr. Linton was brought here Tuesday from Buchanan by officer Bommerstein on a complaint and warrant for assault and battery made by one Dr. Gray. The case was called before Dr. W. K. White, Esq., and after many motions for adjournment, &c., the case was called. No witness called. Complaint and defendant each made a statement. Dr. Gray stated that Linton had written something representing him as a fraud. They met in a certain room. Mr. G. called Linton's attention to the charges. Linton opened him out of the room, and struck at Gray several times with a flat-iron, and finally hit him. Linton stated that Gray talked to him angrily and the lady of the house ordered Gray from the house and Gray would not go. Finally Gray called Linton a liar when Linton struck Gray. Linton then pleaded guilty. The Justice fined him $3 and costs. The persons present then raised the money and paid the fine. It is intimated that the Doctor will be arrested for an assault on the Paddock boy at Basswood. People there feel very indignant towards him for abusing the boy. We have no desire to misrepresent either Messrs Gray or Linton, but this is quite a civil complaint, and we dislike to have outsiders making so much disturbance in our midst.
