THE Reunion of the Soldiers and Sailors of Berrien County will be held at Niles May 29 and 30. When the Association first formed it was the understanding that the meetings were to be held on the Indian fields at Berrien Springs, but last year they elected Niles men for officers, and it is directly against the religion of any Niles man to allow anything he has anything to do with to go to any other place than Niles.

ACCIDENT.—Last Friday evening as drayman Johnson was driving along Day's avenue, in front of the residence of W. Harrison, (colored) Mr. Harrison's little boy of about five years of age ran out and tried to catch on a bolting saw, and fell under the hind wheel, which ran over his head, and killed him almost instantly. The horses were walking quite fast, and it was impossible to stop them in time to avert the accident. We trust this may be a warning to others to keep away from moving wagons in the streets, that will be heeded. The RECORD has, time after time, made the prediction that some serious accident would occur from the careless way in which children of all ages cling to moving vehicles in the streets, but of no avail.

W. SCOTT MILLER, Secy.

ITEMS FROM STEVENSVILLE. May 19, 1879.

By the sudden death of Mrs. E. R. Johnson, at Galesburg, Ill., society was lost one of its most valued members. The M. E. Church, of which she was a member for the past sixteen years, has lost one who always rendered valuable assistance in everything connected with the church. Her family has lost a most excellent wife and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson came here from Niles about fourteen years ago. They have been engaged in every good way during their stay in our community, and are greatly missed by all who SOLDIERS, ATTENTION! At a regular meeting of the veteran soldiers of Buchanan township, held Wednesday evening, May 21, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we the ex-soldiers of Buchanan township, do ignore the call and proposed annual reunion of the soldiers and sailors of Berrien county to be held at Niles on the 29th and 30th days of May respectively, for the following reasons: That this call has been issued without sufficient authority. That the Vice Presidents of the various townships have not been consulted, (as far as our knowledge extends) in the matter, and that it does not meet with the approbation of the comrades generally throughout the county. And further, that it was generally understood by the comrades at the reunion at Berrien Springs last year that Berrien Springs should be the permanent location for all future reunions, and September, 1879, the date for the next annual reunion.

Notice your townsmen, Mr. Levi Lister, is actively engaged at work on his fruit farm near this place.

Our Supervisor, Alonzo D. Brown, is now at Lansing taking care of his "little farm" near that city.

I am happy to hear once more from "Lake Shore," of Bridgman. May he always be found actively engaged in the temperance work, and may he never grow weary of corresponding for your excellent paper.

ITEMS FROM GALIEN. Farmers are through planting corn, except the unfortunate and lazy. Wheat in this vicinity looks well. Fruit is not hurt yet by the frost.

Our milliner and dress-maker is a quiet lady, but her needle is not quiet for she has plenty to do.

Mr. E. Harris has improved his property by building a nice new fence in front of his house.

Last Saturday Mr. Redding tied his horse to a hitch post in front of his hotel, and went into the house for a moment. While he was gone, the horse got scared by the cars and broke loose, and was not caught until it had run a mile or more, and had nearly annihilated the buggy and hurt itself some.

ITEMS FROM THREE OAKS. Splendid rains last week. The farmers are cheerful over the prospect of good crops. In fact, this section of country appears more pleasant and prosperous every new month of May. The country shows a marked improvement each year. More nice farms building; more acres cultivated, and many thousand fruit trees of the best varieties are set out each year.

Three Oaks lives in the edge of the great fruit belt, six miles from the beautiful Lake Michigan. The eastern shore of said Lake, from New Buffalo many miles down the lake, will one continuous fruit belt, extending back from the lake from five to ten miles. Let it be understood that the St. Joseph fruit district lies in Berrien county, and although New Buffalo, Chickening Lake, and other towns are saddled with a railroad tax, they are not dependent. They are going right ahead in growing grain and fruit. We expect in a few years to see some of these townships the best fruit section to be found in the United States, with one of the best markets (the city of Chicago) near at hand—only sixty miles across the lake—and with a railroad now running through the center of said fruit belt, having fruit cars built especially for the fruit business. Fruit arrives in Chicago in about three hours after being loaded in the boat or car. It will pay to buy land in Three Oaks, Chickening and other townships in this county near the lake. In a few years, as the county becomes more mature, no doubt many of the wealthy citizens of Chicago will visit this fruit section, in the fruit season, and invest in the fruit lands. Here we raise the best of winter wheat, corn, oats. The famous peach blow potatoes and all other crops grow in this latitude. This is the famous blackberry field. As the timber is cleared from the land, the blackberry and raspberry grow up and produce thousand of bushels of berries. The people of Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan come here to pick and can the fruit, and picnic on the lake shore, and thousands of bushels are sent to all parts of the country. Come and see us in the fruit season, or any other time, and we will do you good.

know them. Mr. Johnson and Arthur left here last September, locating in Phelps county, Nebraska, having traveled all the way with the team, where they remained all winter, building a good house, and were anticipating a happy reunion "when mother comes," but who can imagine their feelings when a telegram informed them of her death. Mr. Johnson came on and accompanied her remains to Niles, where they were interred April 27. Their son Frank accompanied her to Galesburg, remained one day and then proceeded to their new home, leaving his mother to visit with Mrs. Lawrence, a friend whom she had not seen for twenty years. She was taken sick with a severe attack of bilious pneumonia on Thursday, April 10, and died on Monday morning, April 21.

Tomatoes. Success in raising tomatoes, says A. E. Hunt in the Rural New Yorker, to make them profitable or to produce the smoothest and largest specimens, depends first on selection of seed; second, on a knowledge of the demands of the plants, its habits and wants; and third, on the soil, plant-food and cultivation, necessary to perfect the fruit.

On a knowledge of the demands of the plant, its habits and wants. The plant requires, at its early stages, rich, moist soil, concentrated in pulverized and moist soil. It flourishes best, in all seasons, by treating the soil with manure.

On the soil, plant-food and cultivation. A rich, friable one, put in a high state of cultivation; a red clay soil—sandy, light, and porous—being the best.

Roses. The ever-blooming roses are best for home-culture in pots. They are more commonly than any of the others, and besides this, they are a habit of growth is more bushy and better adapted to the purpose.

1. Do not use too large pots—if possible, not more than three or four inches. The rule is, one size larger than the plants have been grown in.

2. Have good rich soil—mellow and friable. That made from old and decayed sods is best. If manure is used, it should be old and thoroughly composted; charcoal or injurious.

3. Put on a good drainage. Crocks, or other similar material in the bottom of each pot to facilitate drainage, then enough fine earth to raise the plant to a proper height.

4. When first potted, water thoroughly, and if the sun is strong, shade for a few days, then give full light and air.

5. Though the plant should not be allowed to wither for want of water, it should be watered moderately dry before watering again. Too much water is worse than not enough.

6. If the first potted, water thoroughly, and if the sun is strong, shade for a few days, then give full light and air.
