The Clear Vision.

I did not dream, I never knew

What charms our sternest season wore;

Was never yet the sky so blue,

Was never earth so white before.

Till now I never saw the glow

Of sunset on yon hills of snow.

And never learned the bough's designs

Of beauty in its leafless lines.

Did ever such a morning break,

As this my eastern window sees?

Did ever such a moonlight gleam

On the white walls of my room?

Wend photographs of shrub and tree?

Rang ever bells so wild and free?

The music the winter winds bring

Was ever yet so loud and strong?

So merry as your school-boy's laugh?

Oh, Earth with gladness overfraught,

No added charm thy face hath found:

Within my heart the change is wrought.

My footsteps make exultant ground.

From couch of pain and curdled foam

Forth to the light and air I come,

And with the wind my hair I fling

The freshness of a glad surprise.

Fain these winter days and soon

Shall blow the warm west winds of Spring.

To set the unbounded hills in tune.

And hither unto the blushing wing

The vireos shall laugh in flowers, the woods

Glow misty green with leafy buds.

And violets and wild flowers wait

Against the laughing light of May.

Break forth, my hills, in praise, and own

Thy power to have revealed.

Since, where I once was blind,

See, where I once was blind.

The world, oh, how it has not wronged

With love the day by then prolonged!

But still, in every varied year

More beautiful Thy works appear!

As Thou hast made 'The world without,

Make Thou mine as of world within;

Stare through its living clouds of doubt,

Rebuke its haunting shadows of sin;

Fill, brief or long, my granted span

Of life with love and true and man;

And when Thou wilt be gone, I'll find

Thy last day by my best!

—By John G. Whittier.

MISS DINAH'S RASH VOY.

"Beautiful, Miss," said Teresa, having thrown open the shutter and looked out up, now looking in again with every pleasant smile on her round, rosy face, now almost handsome in the cherry sunshine that streamed in. "Not a cloud, no rain to-day, Miss; and he will come for sure."

"Do you think so?" returned Miss Dinah, smiling brightly and, rising from her bed to run across the floor to peep over Teresa's round shoulder. "Yes,

a very pretty morning," after a minute's inspection, and a pause to listen to the birds and inhale the fresh breeze. "Dress me, Teresa."

No longer young, was Miss Dinah

Prague—quite 50, and perhaps even more, but wonderfully active, with eyes as bright and as in her girlhood, not much wrinkled, and faculties as clear as ever. Her hair, once a gleaming step and quick motion she flitted about the room, making her toilet, humming to herself, stopping now and then to scold at Teresa, who hobbled after her—that sort of scolding which is under certain circumstances, an expression of good humor, such as possessed Miss Dinah this morning.

"And you think it will not rain," she said for the tenth time. "I don't know," said Teresa, "but I have seen a sign of year thunder storms come up very surely, remember." She spoke as if Teresa were some important officer on the staff of the clerk of the weather, and had better be careful about her predictions.

"Oh, I am not afraid of a little weather,"

she said, smiling at her prediction.

How the Chinese Fish.

A thousand years ago the Chinese had the same ideas in regard to the catching of fish and the working of nets as they have the present. On the coast, however, the generally accepted system of procuring fish is in vogue. The lakes and rivers of China, especially those in the north,

are so abundantly stocked that the fish-catchers make their living by actually seizing and drawing the fish out of water with their hands. The man goes into the stream, half-swimming, half-walking, with his hands above his head and letting them down, striking the surface with his hands. Meanwhile his feet are working the muddy bottom.

By a rapid stroke he brings up fish in his hands. Striking the surface, frightens the fish, who sink below, and thereby are led by the feet and secured. Another method is sometimes practiced on several of the lakes. A man stands on a long, narrow boat, and with a river narrow sheet of white canvas stretched along the side of the boat, and Mr. Sor. ROSEN has our thanks for ninety-three strawberries. This is not a very large number, but they filled a quart measure heaping full.

SPENCER & BARNES' new engine has come, and they expect to let hot steam into it about next Monday, morning or a little later.

CAL. CROFTS was arrested in this place last evening and taken to Jackson by the Sheriff of that county, on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses.

A BROKEN bolt whipped things around pretty lively in Spencer & Barnes' shop Monday afternoon. No damage done other than a pair of purple shins for Fred Smith.

GOKE—John Simmons has gone to other and distant parts. It is a woman that is after him this time, and will make it decidedly warm for him if she gets hold of him, too.

BUCHANAN, June 18, 1879. The Buchanan Shooting Club will please accept my sincere thanks for kindly remembering me at their last meeting.

A. H. MORRISON's son Dan, made an engagement to enter into a four-ours' walking match at St. Joseph, but the "old man" put his foot on the scheme. Not good for the boy's health.

A noticeable change can hardly be seen in the running of the Wagon Factory. Piles of new lumber are going in every day, and the work of cutting it up going ahead with a rush.

The school board, by a unanimous vote, have engaged Prof. Howell for the next school year at a salary of $900. The teachers in the several departments have not yet been engaged.

The scholars of the Grammar department of our Union school, at the close of the term, presented their teacher, Miss Ludena Drago, with a handsome silver cup and a bottle of cologne.

The fire-cracker celebration commenced early this year. The boys should remember that once in a while a building gets burned by these things, and it isn't infrequently a whole town.

Mr. E. A. BERGE will hereafter take "show-bus" at Berrien Springs, having moved his car to that place. We can recommend him to the people of the county as a fine gentleman and a good artist.

MICHAEL CURRAN was tried before Justice Sparks, Friday, on the charge of assault and battery, on complaint of Jacob Swartz. He was found guilty and fined $10 and costs, but appealed to Circuit Court.

LAWN SOCIAL.—There will be a lawn social for the benefit of the Buchanan Cornet Band, on the Old School House grounds, next Wednesday evening. There will be good music and refreshments on the grounds.

RECTOR says the Chicago lawyer who owns that steam skiff that has been trying to get through the dam at Niles the past few months, has come for his charge and will take it with him in search of other worlds to conquer.

COOK is getting frantic about the milk man's "goak" because some one else detected his little ruse. You will have to try again before you can make that go down. Mr. Cook, find out some abnearer that is so old that people have forgotten his jokes, and you will not be so apt to be detected.

LOOK out for the chap who comes around and offers you a wind mill free if you will lend your influence to help him gull your neighbors, and when he draws his contract out of his pocket for you to sign, kick him out of doors and set the dog on him, and you will ever be blessed.

Mrs. SOPHRONA WELCH had a picnic for her little pupils, about twenty in number, and a few invited children, making in all about thirty little folks. Saturday. The rain prevented them from going to the woods, and they ate their dinner in Mr. W. F. Molsberry's yard. They report "lots of fun."

NEW MARKET.—Messrs. Tourje & Warner have repaired, papered and otherwise improved the room formerly occupied by H. H. Kinyon, and are now snugly ensconced therein for the sale of all kinds of meats, where they have room according to their strength.

A CARD.—Thanks, for the beautiful cake presented by Mr. Terriers, in behalf of Buchanan Fire Company. It was as delicious as it was beautiful. Thanks, for the many tokens of kindness from many generous hearts. May the Lord bless and keep you all.

Mrs. N. S. WELCH.

THE school board of St. Joseph has elected eleven teachers for the coming year, and among them is Miss Adelia Smith of this place, who is paid the highest salary of any excepting the Superintendent and Preceptress.

THE steamboat masters between Benton Harbor and St. Joseph and Chicago make fools of themselves, by entering into a cutting competition, and the fruit growers reap the benefit by getting their berries taken to Chicago for two cents per crate.

OSE of the meanness of tricks is to cut a man's harness so that when he starts his team it will break. Such a trick was played on a man in New Troy recently by some miserable wretch, and when the harness was brought to this place for repairs, the tugs were cut nearly in two. No matter who he may be, the one who will do such a thing would be just good enough to do almost anything in the catalogue of deviltry.

Wool, bears an excellent price this year, and farmers are well pleased in consequence. Lots from this vicinity were sold at the South Bend woolen mills last week for as high as thirty-eight cents for the unwashed.

THE Berrien Springs Journal thinks we do not dress or live well because of the prediction that more was spent here for tobacco than for clothing or food. We live and dress as well as we can afford after paying for the tobacco.

A COPY of the Hostia, Col. Index, of late date, has the following concerning our fellow townsman now in that place:

"J. N. Stephens' Ben Wade claim near the Bussick mine is looking up well. It is only down ten feet and shows a well defined lead, bearing mineral in spar and carbonates. A sample will assay from the dump run thirty-three ounces per ton."

Our young friend Albert Worthington was admitted to the bar on Tuesday of this week. The examination was in open court, and he is said by some of the attorneys to have passed the best examination ever witnessed in our court house. We congratulate "Bert" on his success and predict for him a bright future. We learn he is to remain in the office of Hon. J. J. Van Riper.

THE Berrien County Journal complains because some of the county papers copied from that paper the list of appointments of primary school funds, for the various townships in this county, without giving credit for it. If other papers complained every time those papers at the county seat copied without giving credit there would be nothing but complaints in any of them.

DISSOLVED.—The Buchanan Shooting Club had a shooting match, last Thursday afternoon, to break the barrel of glass balls they had on hand. The prize was the steel trap used to throw the balls, which was won by William Glover. They then divided up the club funds, which amounted to a little over three dollars each, and now the Buchanan Shooting Club is no more.

REV. JOSHUA V. HILMES, formerly of this place, and late of Onabala, Neb., has been called to the Rectorship of St. Andrews Parish, Elk Point, Dakota Territory. He officiated in the Episcopal church, at Niles, last Sunday morning, and at the Advent Church in this place at night. Mr. Hilmes goes to take charge of his Parish, and other missionary stations in Dakota, this week. He appears well, and is as active and vigorous as in former years.

Mr. W. H. TALBOT's brother Howard, from Colorado, was in this place Monday on his return from New York, where he had been learning to operate the Artotype press. He had a machine with him which he expects to operate in the production of pictures of the mountain scenery of Wyoming and Oregon. The pictures resemble a photograph in fineness, and the difference can hardly be detected by an inexperienced person, but they are printed on a press similarly to a steel engraving, using a glass plate instead of steel.

THE Red Ribbon Picnic at Clear Lake yesterday, was a jolly affair. There were probably five hundred persons on the grounds during the day. Addresses were given by Revs. J. V. Worthington, J. V. Hilmes, and Payton and Hon. E. M. Plimpton. There was a good steady breeze that made the sailing excellent, and it was enjoyed by all who were not too timid to venture out of dry land, and fortunately the day was passed without any serious accidents on the water, although there was considerable carelessness displayed on the part of some. During the evening those who wished were granted the privilege of a lively dance that lasted about two hours, when the company started for home, tired enough for a hard day's work.

BELOW we give the average cost of running the schools in several of the towns in this State per capita, of pupils in attendance for the year 1877-8 for superintendence and instruction, and not including any incidental or janitor's expense: Benton Harbor, $9.70; Albion, $8.40; Niles, $11; Dowagiac, $10; Paw Paw, $9.40; Three Rivers, $9; Decatur, $9.20; Dexter, $9.40; Sable, $11.00. Marshal, $10.50. In Buchanan it amounted to $8.51, and this year to but $8.01. These calculations are made from the number of pupils present on a certain day in each of the places named, as given in the report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. By making an average of all the pupils enrolled in this district the past year, and the total expenditure, including janitor's fees and incidental expenses, it brings the average cost per capita to $7.49. This calculation is made exclusive of foreign pupils, of which there were twenty-eight.

BUCHANAN, JUNE 14, 1879.

The members of the Buchanan Red Ribbon Club convened at the Oak Street Chapel, Friday evening, June 13, 1879.

The meeting was called to order by the President. Exercises opened with Bible reading and prayer by the Chaplain, after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Moved and supported that we have the band with us at the picnic, providing we secure the money. Motion carried.

Moved and supported that a subscription be passed for the purpose of securing money to pay the band. Carried.

Moved and supported that a new committee be appointed for the purpose of raising money to defray picnic expenses. Carried.

The following are the members of that committee: Miss Maria Wells, Mrs. A. J. Eychamer, Miss Edith Beardsley, and Mrs. Taylor.

Moved and supported that Prof. Howell read and answer the questions in question drawer. Motion carried.

Moved and supported that the Secretary be requested to prepare the minutes of the meeting and hand them to each of the editors. Motion carried. A short address was given by Rev. H. Worthington.

Exercises closed with a song. Receipts of the evening, one dollar and three cents.

On motion we adjourned to meet at the Oak Street Chapel, Friday evening, June 20, 1879.

A. C. GYER, Secretary.

TERMS FROM THREE OAKS.

June 18, 1879. No sickness. The people are hard at work. Crops looking well, excepting corn. The Gospel Temperance picnic, at Galien Center, was a success. The largest gathering ever held in the western part of Berrien county.

Rev. Mr. Meel, State Baptist Missionary, preached here Sabbath day, and on Monday evening. He understands the Missionary work. Is a capital worker financially, as he helped the Baptist Society here to clear up the debt against the church.

Dr. Baker, I understand, did not buy Dr. Wilcox's place—he boards there. By the way, he has one of the finest offices in the city.

The lawyers of Berrien county cannot understand how it is that a letter written on Sunday could be mailed the day previous. W. H. Breese was trying to solve that question yesterday, at Berrien Springs.

W. A. Palmer and E. Ritzler are putting new roofs on their buildings. John Burns and family, who formerly resided here, are here. Will soon go to Missouri.

TERMS FROM GALIEN.

June 18, 1879. The M. C. R. R. water tank at this place is completed and will hold 60,000 gallons.

The village prison is done and christened "Brown Beds." Our Marshal is waiting for a bird to cage in it. The side-walk leading laid rapidly on Main street.

Our marshal is now collecting the first village tax. The Red Ribbon picnic at Galien Center was a success. Everyone seemed to enjoy himself " hugely."

Last Monday night some unknown parties entered Churchill's tin shop by a back window and stole about six dollars worth of pocket cutlery, a hand vice, half a dozen pocket rules, and a few other notions.

Dr. Smith has sold his entire crop of rye, and mammoth crop of wool, to Hugh Doyle and Dan Holmes.

Proceedings of the Common Council of the Village of Buchanan.

A special meeting of the Common Council of the Village of Buchanan was held at the Council Room, in Engine House No. 1, on Friday evening, June 13, 1879.

Present.—John D. Ross, President; B. D. Harper, Recorder; Trustees John Osborn, John Rea, and John Rea. The President stated the object of the meeting to be to receive certain petitions and transact such other business as might be presented.

A petition signed by J. J. Van Riper, and others, asking that the street be extended from its present southern terminus to the southern boundary line of the village, was presented and read.

Another petition, signed by Charles E. Howell and others, asking that proper steps be taken to procure a crossing of the M. C. R. R. track, from the south end of Oak street to intersect the west end of Front street in Howell's addition to the village, was presented and read.

Moved by Mr. Osborn, supported by Mr. Johnson, that the two petitions be referred to the Committee on Streets, Side-walks and Bridges, and that they be requested to report on the same at the next meeting of the Common Council. Adopted.

The Committee previously appointed to prepare village bonds, and secure money to pay the same, reported that they were unable to borrow money at that rate of interest.

Money having been offered the village at 8 per cent. interest, it was moved by Mr. Rea, supported by Mr. Johnson, that three village bonds of the denomination of $500 each, to run two, three and four years at 8 per cent. interest, interest payable annually, be issued, and the money realized upon the same be used to pay the present indebtedness of the village. Motion adopted.

Moved by Mr. Osborn, supported by Mr. Johnson, that the Common Council adjourn. Adopted.

B. D. HARPER, Recorder.

COUNTY PRESS.

[Berrien Springs Journal.] Mr. John A. Tibbets, a resident of Niles for upwards of forty years, died at his residence in that city, on last Thursday, at the age of 71 years.

[Berrien Springs Journal.] Extra Wilson came to this place 44 years ago last Friday. David Gano, near East Claire, has had sixteen lumps killed by dogs. The Berrien Springs cornet band has purchased a new set of instruments.

[Niles Mirror.] The stores near West of the Woodstock corner, at Stevensville, got lost to the North Western Life Insurance Co. for $5,000. The mortgage was $10,000, with several years accruing in interest. This forms a good portion of the Clifton House.

[St. Joseph Traveler-Herald.] Edmund, a thirteen-year-old son of Mr. Morrison, of Stevensville, got his foot caught and badly jammed between the "bumpers" of two cars, on Tuesday. It is reported that some evil disposed party filled the oil cups of the Sky Lark engine with emery while she was at her dock in Chicago, on Tuesday night, which caused several hours detention, and some injury to the machinery. The outrage deserves severe condemnation.

[Niles Republican.] Jas. W. Orr, a young lawyer of this city, has taken Greeley's advice and gone West. He will settle in Kansas—probably at Lovensworth—where he will follow his profession. He has the best wishes of his friends here for a successful future. Charles Lyon was performing some tricks that were strange, at the Old Settlers' meeting, at Berrien Springs, last week, among which was the peculiar one of putting needles through his nose into his head. While some parties were trying to detect the trick, the half of a darning needle passed through his nose, and remained in his head. He made every effort to get it out, but without success. On Tuesday he commenced suffering considerable pain from it, and on Wednesday he went to Chicago to see if it could be removed. The operation, though a difficult one, was successfully performed by Dr. Ralph N. Isham, and it is needless to say that the needle had remained in his head a few hours longer, death would have been the result.
