JOHN G. HOLMES, Editor.

THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1880.

FOR PRESIDENT,
GEN. JAMES A. GARFIELD
 OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
CHESTER A. ARTHUR
 OF NEW YORK.

OUR PLATFORM IN BRIEF.

This is a Nation. No man shall be deprived of peacefully and peacefully casting his vote, be he white or black, or a resident of any State in the Union.

The Federal election laws shall remain as they are and be fully and unflinchingly enforced in all parts of the country.

The laws and amendments made necessary by the war of the Rebellion shall not be swept from the statute books by Joe Blackburn or any other man or set of men.

The continuance of the Republican party in power will warrant the support of the above principles. To turn the government over to the hands of the Democracy will place it in exactly the same condition as it was in 1860.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention to nominate candidates for State officers and Electors for President and Vice President of the United States, will be held at the Convention hall in the city of Grand Rapids, Mich., on Thursday, August 5, 1880.

In accordance with the resolution adopted at the Convention held at Grand Rapids, Mich., on Thursday, August 5, 1879, an additional delegate for every precinct of 200 votes, but each precinct cannot be entitled to more than one delegate.

Under a resolution of 1880 no delegate will be entitled to a seat who does not reside in the county he represents.

In accordance with a resolution adopted at a meeting of the State Central Committee at Detroit, Mich., on Thursday, August 5, 1879, the Secretary of the State Central Committee is requested to forward to the Secretary of the State Central Committee for the purpose of the convention, a certified list of all delegates as are entitled to sit in the State Convention.

H. P. BALDWIN, Chairman.

W. R. BATES, Secretary.

Detroit, Mich., June 25, 1880.

Republican Congressional Convention.

A Republican Convention of the Fourth Congressional District to nominate a candidate for the office of Representative in Congress, and for the transaction of other business, will be held at the Convention hall in the city of Grand Rapids, Mich., on Thursday, August 5, 1880.

In accordance with the resolution adopted at the Convention held at Grand Rapids, Mich., on Thursday, August 5, 1879, an additional delegate for every precinct of 200 votes, but each precinct cannot be entitled to more than one delegate.

Under a resolution of 1880 no delegate will be entitled to a seat who does not reside in the county he represents.

In accordance with a resolution adopted at a meeting of the State Central Committee at Detroit, Mich., on Thursday, August 5, 1879, the Secretary of the State Central Committee is requested to forward to the Secretary of the State Central Committee for the purpose of the convention, a certified list of all delegates as are entitled to sit in the State Convention.

H. P. BALDWIN, Chairman.

W. R. BATES, Secretary.

Senator Blaine will soon visit the Pacific coast for the purpose of doing some speaking for Garfield.

The public debt statement for June shows a decrease of $10,214,424 for the month, or $8,504,191 since June 30, 1879.

Canadian authorities complain because so many of their subjects are emigrating to the United States and permanently settling there.

In an international shooting match at Dolywood, June 20, the American team was again victorious, carrying off the first and second prize.

It is now expected that Miss Dacey of Elkhardt, who was shot twice through the head, will recover, as neither ball touched the brain.

Through the wonderful workings of Democratic reform and economy the annual running expense of the government has been increased $4,000,000 since its management came to their hands.

A woman in Kokomo, Ind., gave birth last week to a child which weighed at birth 20 pounds. When six days old, it only weighed five pounds; its father was a greenbacker. Comment is unnecessary.

The Democrats come to their Southern brethren with a man whose war record has no other they say can not be excelled, and say to them: Our man did his best to whip you and for this reason and no other you are asked to vote for him.

The English parliament has spent more time and money over the question of whether a man shall be allowed to marry his deceased wife's sister or not, than would make a dozen common men rich. Where business is it if he marries the whole family, one at a time?

It is somewhat amusing to hear a Democratic speaker dilate on the merits of General Grant after having spent twelve years in condemning his public work and character in the strongest and most abusive of Democratic language. The comparison shows a devil turned saint.

Schuyler Colfax takes the Chicago Times up to task for an article in which it takes up what it calls his credit mobiler record. In the sixteen line article he points out ten errors and one truth. Yet there are thousands of people who swear by the Times in preference to their Bible.

This is the way the Democratic campaign is to be managed in Mississippi. The Star of that State says:

Inaugurate social ostracism against every white man, North or South, that gives his support to the building up of the Republican party; discountenance any man who will go on or assist in making the bond of any man elected on the Republican ticket; refuse to have dealings of any sort with the Republican party, and show to the world that you are in truth and deed a true Democrat.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The coinage executed at the United States mints for the fiscal year ending June 30, was valued at $84,377,414, of which $27,292,750 were standard silver. This exceeds the coinage of any previous year.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

THE SOUND OF THE SHOTGUN.

The sound of the shotgun will be heard in the neighborhood of Willie Foster's, Thursday. Mr. Foster intends starting to thresh for Curtis Lamb, J. B. Currier, and so on through the neighborhood.

A small party went to Forest Lake to see the boat race. Doc. Wilson thinks it was good, but thought the walk from Buchanan, about three in the morning, was invigorating.

Our grist mill has been rented to one Hoffer, from Lacey's mill at Niles. He is said to be a first-class miller. Farmers and others can now get No. 1 flour without going so far from home. We wish him success.

Through the energy of a few ladies the church has a new carpet, mottoes on the walls, &c.

Cass DeArmond is home on a visit from St. Joseph.

Mr. Kern's money is now safe, he has one of those new Detroit Safe Co's safes. When he gets the glass front he will be O. K.

Mr. Thomas has taken up his abode on that farm.

COUNTY PRESS.

[Niles Democrat.]

Jacob Hoffer, who has been engaged in one of the other of the flouring mills of this city for the past ten or fifteen years, has rented the Dayton mill, and will take charge of it at once. Mr. Hoffer is a thorough, good miller, and will render satisfaction to all who may favor him with their custom.

[Niles Republican.]

Wm. Evick met with a painful accident on Tuesday afternoon. He was being hauled by two horses, and in going down a hill the horses ran off, throwing him forward on the road, when the prong of a pitchfork ran through his leg below the knee, inflicting an ugly wound. His right leg was also cut in some manner at the same time. Two queer looking westward bound teams passed through the city last Friday. Each wagon was loaded with two milch cows and two steers, the latter being about two years old, and they moved along with their loads like regular roadsters. In the wagons were the usual number of children, and household treasures with which the western emigrant is generally well supplied.

Some Leaves From Mr. English's Record.

The discreditable part taken by William H. English in the memorable scheme of duplicating the census and fraud, by which the South sought to rivet slavery upon the virgin soil of Kansas, is the only act of his life which gave him a national reputation. This story, as it can be found in the records:

When Mr. English was elected to Congress it was known that he was a pandering to the slave oligarchy. That he was proud of the fact is seen in the boast he made on the floor of Congress on March 9, 1858, when he said:

"I claim to be one of the old guard who never gave an opposition vote, or handed to free abolition."

There is a stain of free will in my record."

Still it was originally believed that there was a degree of subservience to the slave power of which he was incapable. A man who caused the people of Kansas to be framed in Leecompton, by delegates elected through the same appliances that now make a solid south, the whole power of Buchanan's administration, with all the corrupting appliances in which it was skilled, was used upon the congress to secure the admission of Kansas as a state under that constitution. At the outset Mr. English (as reported in the Congressional Globe, 1857-8, p. 1014), said of this attempt:

"The great fact which stares the country in the face, and which no man can deny, is that the Leecompton constitution was adopted by the people of Kansas, and that they do not wish it imposed and fastened on them as their organic law. (P. 1017.) If I am brought to vote the naked and unqualified admission of Kansas under the Leecompton constitution. I distinctly declare that I cannot in conscience vote for it. If for this honest conviction I am to lose the favor of southern gentlemen, and am to be misrepresented and abused, so be it."

On the 23d of March, 1858, the bill admitting Kansas under the pro-slavery Leecompton constitution, passed the Senate. The house of representatives, on the part of the re-submission of the fraudulent constitution to the vote of the people of Kansas. A conference committee was ordered up to this disagreement by the casting vote of the speaker of the house, William H. English, was appointed one of the members of the committee as a representative of the anti-Leecompton men. The other members were Charles S. Green, and Wm. H. Seward, Republican, on the part of the Senate, and Alexander H. Stephens, Democrat, and William A. Howard, Republican, on the part of the House.

On the 23d of April, 1858, Mr. English introduced to the house the report of the committee in a measure since known as the "infamous English bill," the Democratic conference concurring in that report and the Republican dissenting.

This report can be found on pp. 1765-6, Globe, 1857-8. In it Mr. English proposed to admit Kansas under the Leecompton constitution, with all its enormities, though he had but a few days previously solemnly declared in Congress it did not embody the will of the people of Kansas; and that he could not in conscience vote for it. The "English bill" proposed this "fundamental condition precedent" to admission, viz:

"That the question of admission with the following proposition, in lieu of the ordinance framed by Leecompton, be submitted to a vote of the people of Kansas and assented to by them, or a majority of the voters voting at an election to be held for that purpose, namely: That the people of Kansas do hereby assent to and ratify the Leecompton condition precedent" to admission, viz:

"That the question of admission with the following proposition, in lieu of the ordinance framed by Leecompton, be submitted to a vote of the people of Kansas and assented to by them, or a majority of the voters voting at an election to be held for that purpose, namely: That the people of Kansas do hereby assent to and ratify the Leecompton condition precedent" to admission, viz:

"That the question of admission with the following proposition, in lieu of the ordinance framed by Leecompton, be submitted to a vote of the people of Kansas and assented to by them, or a majority of the voters voting at an election to be held for that purpose, namely: That the people of Kansas do hereby assent to and ratify the Leecompton condition precedent" to admission, viz:

"That the question of admission with the following proposition, in lieu of the ordinance framed by Leecompton, be submitted to a vote of the people of Kansas and assented to by them, or a majority of the voters voting at an election to be held for that purpose, namely: That the people of Kansas do hereby assent to and ratify the Leecompton condition precedent" to admission, viz:

G. W. NOBLE.

UNCLE SAM WAS 104 years old Sunday.

NILES paper mill has been closed for repairs and is now in operation once more.

This is the kind of weather that makes fat folks wilt. We speak from experience.

If you want a first-class sewing machine call and see what you can get at this office in that line.

NEARLY every body who was not busy harvesting went for a half fare frolic Saturday.

THE Common Council of Niles city has elected Worth Landon as justice of the peace in that city.

THERE is one of the largest crops of blue berries in this vicinity this year that has ever been known.

A GREAT number of pleasure seekers have gone to the resorts in the north part of the State this season.

PREACHING in the Christian church next Sunday by W. P. Birdsell. Subject, "Conversion." Good singing.

OUR friend of the Reporter has doffed his "Independent" cloak and once more appears a full-fledged Democrat.

UNCLE JOHN ROBERT is probably the oldest harvest hand who did actual service in the field this year. He is 84 years old.

ANOTHER case illustrating that it is better to keep the cows off the streets was the killing of Mr. Snyder's cow Sunday.

NEW DRAY.—Mr. Joseph Anstiss has bought a new wagon and is going into the draying business. Give him a helping hand.

THE greater part of harvesting in this vicinity will be completed this week, and the threshing machines are already at work.

REMYNY was presented with a fine gold watch by the admirers of his music in South Bend, during his last visit to that place.

58,920 crates and 26 baskets of fruit have been shipped from Benton Harbor by Graham and Morton's transportation thus far this year.

MR. D. WESTON is the first to introduce the weather sign in this place. He has a fine one for the front of his drug store on Front street.

THE last week's shut down at the wagon factory was the cause of a new door being laid in the south half of the lower story. An improvement.

WHY is it that as soon as a boy gets a bunch of fire crackers he will rush to some back alley that is filled with dry inflammable rubbish to have his "fun"?

THE farmers have made a formidable attack on the timothy hay. There is an exceedingly large growth, and it is being secured in good condition.

MR. SAMUEL FRENCH cut ninety acres of wheat on his place last week with a Walter A. Wood self-rake. Making an average of fifteen acres per day.

ACCORDING to the present census Niles city shows with a population of 4,195. Ten years ago the enumerator found 4,929 there. A decrease of 430. Encouraging.

THERE is a short piece of road just south of the railroad that is in a most horrible condition and but a little work would be required to put it in good shape.

THERE are oat fields growing just south of this place in which a short man would be in danger of losing himself if he undertook to wade through them.

THE bridge across the St. Joseph river at this place is a good subject for the sober contemplation of a bridge inspector. It may not be in a dangerous condition.

A MIND reader named Brown has been creating considerable of a stir at Benton Harbor and St. Joseph the past week. The Palladium pronounces him a legendarist, and advises people to not be too credulous in accepting his words as lay and gospel.

PREACHING next Sunday at the Old Advent church, at 10:30 a. m., by Rev. Geo. A. Cole. Subject: "Precious Jewels, or How to Obtain a Crown." Seats free to all.

IN the garden of ye editor grows sweet corn that the average height of the stalks is less than two feet, yet each stalk bears from one to three good ears, now ready for cooking.

NILES west-siders and a gang of Mishawaka rousts got into a general row at the Diamond Lake celebration Saturday. A few broken heads was the result.

THE same old story. The St. Joseph Republican finds fault with the census enumerator of that place because there are only 2,600 inhabitants in that village. A little less than there were in 1870.

HOW often have the papers warned boys against attempting to jump on moving trains of cars. Yet not long since Dr. Bonine came near losing his life by such a performance in Galien.

A. H. MORRISON's tub and pail factory at St. Joseph was burned last Friday night, incurring a loss of $75,000. The property was insured to the amount of $25,000.

THE grangers of Berrien county will hold a grand picnic at Barnard's grove in Berrien Springs, August 26, 1880. Hon. C. G. Luce, of Branch county, and Hon. Thomas F. Moore, of Lenawee county will deliver addresses.

QUITE a large company from this place have gone to Diamond Lake this week for a rest of two or three weeks. Among them are R. Morris and W. S. Wells and ladies, of Chicago. They will have a good time.

THE burning of Morrisons wooden ware works at St. Joseph throws 245 men out of employment, a great calamity to the town. The paper mill works will be put in running order again in about thirty days.

MR. G. A. HENDERSON reports in the Niles Reporter having milked from one cow 320 pounds of milk in one week, and made from that seventeen pounds and one ounce of butter and now asks some farmer to beat that.

THE personal goods and chattles of Dr. Seelye were sold at constable sale in South Bend, Tuesday, at the instance of three of his many creditors in this place. Such is life, and it keeps getting "sucker" and "sucker."

MR. JOHN WEISBERGER has just purchased the timber on the Stephens lot, of about 150 acres, in Niles township, paying $26,750 for it. There is a good lot of fine timber on this place, and with this disposition gives a good job in getting it out.

NILES Common Council has voted to appropriate $12,000 of the city funds toward building a bridge across the river at the dam in that place, and has received from Mr. Millard, of Three Rivers a promise that he will build a paper mill there if the bridge is built.

GEORGE CHURCHILL recommends a liquor law that is certain to win if adopted. It is to hang every man who will get drunk, up by the neck until he is dead, dead, DEAD. That is the only true prohibition that will ever succeed.

MR. JACOB MILLER says we were too soon in reporting the increase of his swarm of bees, and that they have since given off two more swarms, making five in all, and within eight days, the first coming away on Wednesday and the last on Thursday of the following week. Others are in order.

THE speaker Thursday evening said there was no issue between the two parties. He was probably in Europe or the other world during the extra session of Congress of last year and did not know what was done and said there.

A FREIGHT train going west about 10 o'clock Sunday forenoon ran against J. S. Snyder's cow near the hand car house at the depot, picking her up on the pilot and carrying her down to the switch. She was so bruised up as to render it necessary to kill her.

MR. LEWIS W. GATES of this place died Saturday morning, aged 71 years. Mr. Gates was the oldest brother of Mrs. M. H. Mansfield and one of the first to settle in Buchanan. He had been an almost helpless cripple for the past several years.

J. F. RYDER, 239 Superior street, Cleveland, Ohio, has sent us a fine lithograph portrait of the next president of the United States, James A. Garfield, representing the youth, soldier and statesman. It is a fine picture and very cheap for the price, 25 cents, asked for it.

ALTHOUGH there was no machinery run at the wagon factory Saturday steam was raised in order to be prepared to run the pump and hose in case of a fire made more probably by the burning of fire crackers about the town in nearly every alley and the most dangerous places that could be found.

THAT settles it for the present. The case of F. A. White vs. John Holloway, for running horses in the streets, was called for trial Tuesday and Fred didn't appear. That, of course, settled the case and the costs, $2.50, were assessed to Fred. We were wrong in stating that the Doctor was arrested but he says Holloway didn't drive around him.

ANOTHER OLD SETTLER GONE.—Rachel, wife of Richard McCumber, died at their home in this place, Wednesday morning, July 7, after a short sickness, aged 70 years. Mr. and Mrs. McCumber were among the early settlers in this county, having settled on what is now the poor farm, in Berrien township, in 1835. They lived there until 1871, when they sold their farm to the county and moved to Buchanan, where they have since lived.

ANOTHER NEW FAMILY.—Mr. O. S. Tourje was married to Miss Alice Weaver at the Oak Street Advent church last Sunday evening, July 4. They went directly to their home on corner of Oak and Third streets, where they commenced being old folks without further ado. The house was already prepared for their reception and house-keeping, and a bountiful supper prepared for the occasion.

THE census taken says the only places where he had any real difficulty was in families where no papers were taken and read. Where he found such they invariably thought he was going to tax the poor to death to make the rich richer, and would lie about their products and possessions in spite of all explanations he might make. The task of guessing the politics of these people is not difficult—all alike.

COMPLAINT comes to this office of the cruelty practiced on his son, a boy of about eight years, by way of unmerciful and useless punishment, by a "man" living in this place. This is not the place to complain of such things. If any one think he does too much of that kind of work go to the justice and enter your complaint, have him arrested and punished. It is the business of whoever sees such actions to complain of them, and they should not be neglected.

A correspondence from Buchanan in the Mirror, in making a Democratic appeal for the campaign work, makes the following remark that pretty thoroughly gives the writer away as a smart (?) man or a knave. He says: "The salaries of all the officers have been increased for campaign purposes." The correspondence is signed "R. V. C." and if we mistake not he is the chap who was elected Highway Commissioner two years since on the Greenback ticket, and was counted one of the true blues in that faith. Was nominated by them again last spring, but failed of election, and knows that the above statement is as false as anything can be.

THE Mirror takes the particular pains to lend its valued (?) assistance in the Republican nominations in proposing the name of N. Hamilton, of this place, for the nomination for Sheriff. Mr. Hamilton authorizes us to say: First, he is not a candidate for that or any other office. Second, he would not accept that office if nominated and elected. Third, when he wants the assistance of the Mirror to get him a nomination in a Republican Convention he will give its editor a personal call, and until then would be greatly obliged to such editor if he will attend strictly and exclusively to his own affairs.

THERE seems to be some sort of scheme on foot to the end that the village buy the park ground and fit it up for a public park, with drives and walks, shades, grass plots, fish-ponds, fountains, &c., but we fail to see the profit of such an investment at this stage of the life of our village. We are told that it could probably be bought for $4,000, and perhaps less. It seems to the Record that $4,000 spent in making good roads leading in every direction from town, a distance of three or four miles, would be a far better investment. Besides, if we have a correct understanding of our village charter, the village of Buchanan could not make such a purchase if it wanted to ever so badly.

THE Democrats of this place attempted to ratify the Democratic nomination on last Thursday evening by a speech by C. B. Potter, of St. Joseph. The effort was not quite a success, there being a very few present, and those who were present did not appear very much interested in what was said. We do not wish to be understood by this that Mr. Potter is not a good speaker, for he is. The only trouble was he was trying to talk on what was evident to him was the wrong side of the question, and no man can be expected to exhibit a great amount of enthusiasm in such cases, and especially when the circumstances compel him to support the very thing he has been working against for fifteen years or more. The man was rather to be pitied than otherwise.

INSTALLATION.—The following officers of Buchanan Lodge, No. 75, I. O. O. F., were installed on Tuesday evening: LeRoy H. Dodd, N. G.
R. H. Rogers, V. G.
John C. Dick, Sec.
H. N. Mowrey, Treas.
G. B. McNeil, W.
B. D. Harper, C.
J. W. R. Lister, Chaplain.
W. W. Smith, R. S. N. G.
H. E. Bradley, L. S. N. G.
Peter Weese, R. S. V. G.
Wm. Powers, L. S. V. G.
Ira Emmons, L. S. S.
Emory Atwood, R. S. S.
C. O. Hamilton, I. G.
C. H. Smith, O. G.

RUNAWAY.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Young and their little boy, of Dayton, met with a rather painful accident from a runaway Sunday. They were driving along the road near Monroe Redding's place on Torpe Corroo prairie when the horse became frightened and ran away. The horse ran south onto the Chicago road and east on that to the first corner, and turned north towards Oliver Dalrymple's place to just across the State line. All three were thrown out and pretty badly hurt. Mrs. Young's elbow joint was dislocated besides some pretty severe bruises. Mr. Young was thrown upon his head and badly bruised about the head, shoulder and side. Dr. Henderson has charge of the cases and they are getting along quite well under the circumstances, but withal it was a pretty rough experience.

THE traffic in the toy cartridge shooting pistols carried on in all parts of the country, this town not excepted, is one that should be shut down on by the strong arm of the law. The sale of such playthings to young children should be looked upon as a criminal procedure and stopped at once. A youngster in the west part of the town loaded one of these things with a ball cartridge last Friday evening and fired it off. The ball passing in a line not two feet of the head of a little girl who was standing near, and would most certainly have resulted in her death had it hit her.

REPUBLICAN CLUB.

The members of the Garfield and Arthur Club assembled at Kinyon's hall, Monday evening, July 5, for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization. The temporary officers were, Leroy H. Dodd, Chairman, and Albert A. Worthington, Secretary.

Meeting opened with music by the band. The Chairman made a few appropriate remarks, stating the object of the meeting, and then introduced the Hon. O. W. Coolidge, of Niles, who delivered an address on the political issues of the day. The Hon. E. M. Plimpton next addressed the Club. The committee on permanent organization then reported for officers of the Club as follows:

For President, Hon. J. J. Van Riper. For Vice Presidents, Nathan Johnson and Frank T. Plimpton. For Secretary, Herbert C. Smith. For Treasurer, William Pears.

The committee recommended that an executive committee of nine be appointed by the President of the Club on motion the report of the committee on permanent organization was adopted.

The Hon. J. J. Van Riper then took the chair and made an address. The remarks of the three gentlemen were characterized by the utmost candor and fairness, and were calculated to carry conviction to the heart of every sober thinking citizen who desires the perpetuity of this glorious Nation.

The Chair appointed as members of the executive committee, the following: Hon. E. M. Plimpton, John G. Holmes, N. Hamilton, I. Leroy H. Dodd, Geo. W. Noble, Walter I. Himes, Charles E. Butler, Jay G. DuBois, Albert A. Worthington.

On motion the club adjourned for two weeks, closing with three rousing cheers for Garfield and Arthur.

HERBERT C. SMITH, Sec.

THE special correspondent of the Chicago Times, who pretended to write a description of Buchanan for the Saturday's issue of that paper, lacked considerable of performing the task he represented to have set out to do, mentioning only those who paid for it, and not calling upon others to find out whether they cared to pay and be mentioned or not. He evidently fell into the hands of some one who gloried in making public boasts of victories attained over our neighbors at Niles, and made a portion of his article referring to that decidedly out of place. He failed to mention that we had a school house among the finest in the State, or that there are seven churches here, or that two of the best papers in the State are published here, or that there are three large grist mills, a first class machine shop, a foundry, two spring bed factories, a cabinet organ factory, a half dozen or more blacksmith shops, two lively stables, a marble works, a confectionery store, two carriage factories, three harness shops, three barber shops, two cooper shops, two lumber yards, two wagon shops, thirteen dress-making establishments, besides a dozen other establishments that go to make up a town were not mentioned. He mentioned but one of our three first class drug stores, but one of the four whole sale furniture manufacturing stores, and nothing of the number of doctors and lawyers we are afflicted with. In fact we might name a hundred other ways he failed to perform the work he proposed to do. It is no direct concern of ours but we like to see such fellows fulfill their pretensions, especially when they receive the pay for it this chap is said to have had, or let the job entirely alone.

Learning to Write.

We believe there is no single system of technique for writing, and of each child belonging to the educated class would be taught much better and more easily to write, better than he can, to make and recognize writing letters, were let alone, and praised or chidden not for its method, but for the result. Let the boy hold his pen as he likes, let him write as he likes, and let him take the pace he likes—hurry, of course, being discouraged—but insist strenuously that his copy shall be legible, shall be clean, and shall approach the standard of the copy which he will write. Let his letter, not a rubbisy text on a single line, written as nobody but a writing-master ever did or ever will write till his copy's end. He will make a copy of his letter, and will make a copy of the imitation of his copy, and ultimately the copy a characteristic and strong language which may be bad or good, but will be neither aimless nor uninteresting, and illegible. This language will alter, come, greatly as he grows older, may alter at 11, because it is at that age that the range of the eyes is fixed and the thought is more definite, and will alter again at 16, because then the greater taking notes at lecture, which must, most hands, will have cramped and temporarily spoiled the writing, but this character will form itself again, and will be a more distinct cleanness of expression. The idea that it is to be clear will have stamped itself, and confidence will not have been destroyed by worry. The pupils ought to be able to write all the little rules about attitude and angle and slant and the like, and to be able to write rules ought to convince the teacher, from some personal peculiarity, is applicable. The lad will write, as is does anything else that he cares to do with his hand, and, if he is not deficient in efficiency and speed. Almost every letter he gets will give him some assistance, and the master's remembrance on his legibility will be attended to. Like other things, it grows in the curriculum.

London. November.

The law gives the owner exclusive control over his property. Any infringement of his rights without his permission, or justified by legal authority thereto, constitutes a trespass.

It is not need that the land should be inclosed by fences. The law speaks an imaginary inclosure, which answers every purpose of a simple enclosure of passing, constitutes trespass, though no harm should really result, crops, cattle, or aught else.

Even a person legally authorized to seize certain goods on a man's premises does not break open doors for that purpose. He may, he has a right to take nothing, and he becomes a common trespasser.

Neither is a person justified in so ranging spots as to discharge water on another man's land, even though he need it to grow his own grounds; nor to permit filth to run on a boundary line without due remission.

It is hardly necessary to say that the same laws governing trespass in other cases prevail here. No matter the neither grass nor grain are trampled down, whether gates are left closed, bars left up and no rails broken, the pursuit of such game on the lands of another without permission is trespass.

To even enter an unclosed piece of wood, where there are no crops to be injured, in pursuit of game, which may have taken refuge there, is a violation of law—quite as much as if a wheat-field ear had been trampled down.

the weavers of the fibers until they are or than sawdust, which float away from a receptacle, the water is drained off by means of a pump, leaving the pulp, which consists of a fine fuzz or inters of wood. It is white, and requires no bleaching, but is ready to be colored with various dyes. The pulp is then a strong fiber, and receive the proper constituents to make paste, after which it runs off into paper sheets. Various resins are put to be washed and removed, white chloride of lime, soda ash, alum, and such strong chemicals, taken out the color. Then they are cut into pieces and made into pulp. The process is purely mechanical. It can be made cheap—say at about 1 cent a pound.

The Barking Puppies.

Some time ago I kept in town a bitch dog, and she was very fond of her young pair of pups and a weakness deterring the passers-by know it; when latter became of age they exhibited

...and remarkable in the seeming
...curious story is told of the wreck of
...British coal-ship, which found-
...at sea, last June, off the
...of America. The sole survivor
...a Portuguese sailor named Lopez,
...was picked up, lashed to a raft, as
...drifted in the path of an inward-

...peez said to him:
...George, do you think you are going
...God?
...On receiving an affirmative reply,
...peez added, with all the intensity of
...faith, "When you get where God is,
...tell Him to give me water."
...The dying man promised that he
...he did so, and soon breathed his last.
...peez went away, a copious shower fell,
...and the sea was "up to the neck."
...until rescued, as stated above, on
...twenty-second day after the sinking
