MEMOIR BY DR. ROBERT J. DOTT.

It took not long to decide. I would go to work and earn money sufficient to buy my own plot.

THE MAKING OF MEMORIES.

These present days, which we are inclined to think so vaguely modern, will be the 'good old times' of some young people who will daily make men and women; it is our fashions of dress and speech which they will remember for their quaintness; and ours for the possibility but the also, but certainly of being made the representative, in years to come, in some of our minds, of the spirit and character of a time that is past.

THE MAN WITH A GLASS EYE.

A one-eyed man in St. Louis has a glass eye. This is the way he uses it. He says: "A man came into my office to give me a thrashing about a little difference we had in regard to the settlement of a small estate."

ARTIFICIAL DIAMONDS.

A great deal has been said lately of the discovery of a method of making diamonds. At first the discovery was denied, and lastly it was declared true, that something that behaved like a diamond had been made.

OUR prophesy is that Rough's Opera House will be crowded next Monday night. Something that has not occurred for some time. Perhaps we may be wrong.

Messrs Black & Willard are getting in a yard full of logs near their furniture factory on the park ground, and we learn it is their intention to build a saw-mill there in the near future.

MR. ROBERT BENWELL has secured a job for himself in the carworks as moulder, and for his son in the round house in Michigan City and has moved to that city for his future home.

THE history of Peter the Great, now being published in Scribner's Magazine, is one of the most valuable literary work we have ever seen published in a periodical.

THE young people of this place and Berrien Springs are becoming better acquainted than they have been heretofore and are having some jolly times together. Just right.

MISS MARIA SAMSON has decided to resign her position as teacher in our union school, and her place will be filled next term by Miss Emma Harwick, of Paw Paw. Poor health is Miss Samson's reason for resigning.

LAST Friday Mr. Enos Holmes sold to butcher Schmidt, of Niles, a steer that was a little over three years old and weighed 1,750 pounds. He received for it about $80. All of which adds to the proof that it pays best to raise good stock.

PROF. AVERY, of Oberlin, Ohio, in his lecture on electric light in this place, Monday evening, paid our State University a high tribute by saying that it had done more to advance the interests of the State and the world, than any other four State institutions.

ALBERT STANTON had his hand smashed Tuesday Morning. He was loading ties and in some way slipped and fell, the tie falling across his hand and over the corner of another tie. The thumb and one finger were broken. Dr. Pierce dressed the wound.

THE last session of the Supreme Lodge, I. O. O. F., made some radical changes in that order, the principal ones being reducing the number of degrees from five to three. A meeting of instruction in the new work was held at Niles yesterday, where fourteen Lodges were represented. Quite a number went from this place.

THE fellow who did the talking on Front street has at least one advantage over a great portion of my makers. No one begrudges him his job of handling those rattles snakes and vipers. Nothing like being used to such things, nover.

THE St. Joseph Valley railroad company's grounds, near the Michigan Central depot, are showing a grand improvement in appearance as the earth, removed to make room for the M. C. side-track, is being put into the hollows. That work will not only be a great improvement on that portion of town, but make very pleasant depot grounds.

POSTMASTERS there now have a new addition to their work. They are now obliged to put the office stamp on every letter and postal card received at the office, as well as on those sent out. This looks to the letter receiving public as a needless ornament, but there is undoubtedly a good and a sufficient reason for it.

MR. DAVID DUTTON made quite a show Monday by taking his pet calf through Front street in a sleigh, holding it in by one of the boys putting his arm around the calf's neck, and Dave holding to its tail. The calf was six and one-half months and weighs 700 pounds. It pays better to raise such stock than it would one that weighs half as much.

THE practice of those who move the iron for the narrow gauge road from the depot to the track layers, of allowing their loaded cars to run down the grade at such a rapid rate, is not of the most commendable. They cross two streets from behind high bluffs in such a way that they cannot see the street from either way until they reach it. There is great danger of catching a team at one of these crossings and doing considerable damage, and a little pains used in caution may not be out of the way.

A second copy of the Selingsgrove, Pa., Times, telling of the arrest of J. B. Gardner, a speculative insurance man, on the charge of embezzlement from his company. The article relates that he settled the matter, and started for Buchanan, Michigan. Who knows M. B. Gardner.

It keeps the Niles Democrat and Republican, and Berrien Springs Journal about busy explaining the yarns Cook tells in his Mirror, and then he gets in an occasional canard that they miss. It is not an enviable job they have taken for so small a force.

In another column of this paper may be found the prospectus of the Inter Ocean, for 1881. Several great improvements have been made in the Inter Ocean during the past year. Mention of which will be found in their advertisement. $245 pays for the Inter Ocean and Record one year, at this office.

LAND SALE.—Mr. Thomas McNally has bought of Mr. George Shetterly the south-east 1/4 of the north-east 1/4 of section 38, town 7 south, range 10 west, which the same is in Weaver, paying $1,100 for it. The papers changing hands Saturday afternoon. Shetterly taking the green and McNally the white ones.

THERE has been a change made in the running of trains on the Michigan Central, those going west running on the north track, and those going east on the south track, and since that change was made there has been some trouble about missing our mail, the grab hook failing to take it aboard the train. Last evening a good-sized mail belonging at some other place was left here.

TRACK-LAYING on the narrow gauge railroad is progressing, although not fast, there being a bit of grading on the Moccasin hill that is not quite finished, and cannot be passed by the track layers. This will be completed this week, when about five or six miles in one stretch will be ready for the iron and a larger force can be put at work.

AT least two of the papers in this county are publishing an advertisement of Dr. Van Ripper as being located at Buchanan, and we venture the assertion that the publisher of neither of these papers have heard from Dr. Van Ripper for over a year, and if asked could not tell where he is. The Doctor left this place several months ago.

MR. HENRY'S MINSTRELS will give one of their entertainments in Rough's Opera House next Monday evening, Dec. 27. Those who heard them when they were here last year can tell whether their performances are good or not, or if you want further proof, read the following press notices of their work in other towns:

MR. HENRY'S Minstrel troupe played to a crowded house last Wednesday evening, and a first-class entertainment. It was one of the best performances of the kind ever given in Salem. —Era, Salem, O., Sept. 15, 1880.

MR. HENRY'S entertainment at the Town Hall last night was one of the best ever held for a long time. The members of his troupe are artists of the first-class in their respective places. The performances solicited funds of applause, but were so absorbing that the immense audience was kept in good order throughout. —Daily Reporter Washington, Pa., Sept. 11, 1880.

MR. HENRY can always measure the size of his audiences by the packing capacity of the Town Hall. On Tuesday night the patient people were literally devoured into one solid mass of humanity. It was one of the best performances of the kind ever given in Salem. —Herald, Cambridge, Ohio, Sept. 16, 1880.

WE notice that a number of the state papers are having considerable to say against hunting rabbits with ferrets saying there is danger of exterminating the rabbits. That would be almost as much damage to the country as it would to exterminate the mice or rats. One good hungry rabbit can do more damage in a small orchard or nursery in one night than the carcasses of all there are in the county are worth for eating purposes, and they are not bashful about pricing their ability.

WE have received a copy of the Dwight III, Star, which contains the following bit of encouraging news from one of Buchanan's boys, Dr. Emory Roe:

"We are told that Dr. Roe, the gentleman who recently located in our midst is fast gaining a reputation for success, and has built up a large practice for the short time he has been with us."

His many friends here are pleased to learn that he is doing well.

JAMES VICK, of Rochester, N. Y., has shown considerable originality and taste in getting up his Floral Guide for 1881. Saying nothing of the almost unlimited list of rare and useful plants advertised. Those who have flower beds to fill or gardens to make in the spring, will find this little pamphlet of great help to them.

CHRISTMAS TREES will be served at the Oak Street Advent Church, at Rittenberger's school house, on Terre Coupee Prairie, at Mr. James Case's, at Mr. H. J. Hall's, at the M. E. Church, at Mr. W. W. Smith's, at the Bakersville school house, at Mr. Wm. Roug's, at Mr. Tabor Grange Hall, at Mr. Ellis Clark's, at California school house in Lake township, and at Troy Station school house.

MR. THOMPSON, of Niles, ex-Secretary of the Berrien County Agricultural Society, was in this place yesterday distributing the annual report of the State Board of Agricultural. This book will have considerable interest in this place, because of its containing the proceedings of the institute held here.

THE serenading company that was out Tuesday night has our thanks for a portion of their fine music. Charley Diggins with his mouth organ and guitar (we don't know whether he plays anything else at the same time or not) is almost a whole band by himself. Come about three hours earlier next time, boys, and we will set out the apples and tap a pan of doughnuts, or pass around the hat in the orchestra and raise funds to buy some popcorn balls.

THE practice of drilling or punching holes in silver or gold coins is becoming quite prevalent, and needs attention. The banks and all cash-receiving departments of the Government have commenced their portion of the work by refusing to receive such debased coins, excepting at a discount proportionate to the size of the hole. This gives us but one way for others to do so, and that is to refuse them the same as is done by the banks. If the Government should mint the coin with a less amount of metal than was right, the refusal to accept them would be universal, and why should we sooner receive them from some person of a speculative turn who steals away the part.

FOR the past week or more, Mr. A. J. Eychaner has been circulating a petition to the Legislature for signing, asking for a privilege to vote on the liquor question. The question to be prohibition or tax. This State tried prohibition twenty-six years from 1850, and then after that experience voted to have no more of it. The trouble with the prohibition law then was, it was not enforced, but we have no proof that another one would be enforced any better. That is all of the trouble with the present law, but it is in such a shape that more of it is enforced than there was of the other, and there is not one drunken man to be seen now where there were twenty under prohibition. There is but one way to enforce total prohibition and that is to hang every man whose breath is found stained with whisky, and unless that method is adopted, the nearest approach to it is the best and that we have. It puts them in jail.

THE annual election of officers of the Buchanan Grange was held in their hall, last Saturday, after which the members spread a feast such as is peculiar to that order, and all hands made themselves useful in the capacity of eaters. Following is a list of the officers elected:

Levi Sparks, Master.

W. O. Hamilton, Overseer.

Stephen Scott, Lecturer.

L. Q. Spaulding, Steward.

C. L. Haslet, Assistant Steward.

J. W. R. Lister, Chaplain.

E. F. Clark, Treasurer.

Otis Harding, Secretary.

Horace Howe, Gate Keeper.

Jennie Harding, Pomona.

Mary Gyer, Flora.

Mrs. C. L. Haslet, Stewardess.

The installation will be the second Saturday in January next at one o'clock, P. M.

MR. HENRY'S MINSTRELS will give one of their entertainments in Rough's Opera House next Monday evening, Dec. 27. Those who heard them when they were here last year can tell whether their performances are good or not, or if you want further proof, read the following press notices of their work in other towns:

MR. HENRY'S Minstrel troupe played to a crowded house last Wednesday evening, and a first-class entertainment. It was one of the best performances of the kind ever given in Salem. —Era, Salem, O., Sept. 15, 1880.

MR. HENRY'S entertainment at the Town Hall last night was one of the best ever held for a long time. The members of his troupe are artists of the first-class in their respective places. The performances solicited funds of applause, but were so absorbing that the immense audience was kept in good order throughout. —Daily Reporter Washington, Pa., Sept. 11, 1880.

MR. HENRY can always measure the size of his audiences by the packing capacity of the Town Hall. On Tuesday night the patient people were literally devoured into one solid mass of humanity. It was one of the best performances of the kind ever given in Salem. —Herald, Cambridge, Ohio, Sept. 16, 1880.

WE notice that a number of the state papers are having considerable to say against hunting rabbits with ferrets saying there is danger of exterminating the rabbits. That would be almost as much damage to the country as it would to exterminate the mice or rats. One good hungry rabbit can do more damage in a small orchard or nursery in one night than the carcasses of all there are in the county are worth for eating purposes, and they are not bashful about pricing their ability.

WE have received a copy of the Dwight III, Star, which contains the following bit of encouraging news from one of Buchanan's boys, Dr. Emory Roe:

"We are told that Dr. Roe, the gentleman who recently located in our midst is fast gaining a reputation for success, and has built up a large practice for the short time he has been with us."

His many friends here are pleased to learn that he is doing well.

JAMES VICK, of Rochester, N. Y., has shown considerable originality and taste in getting up his Floral Guide for 1881. Saying nothing of the almost unlimited list of rare and useful plants advertised. Those who have flower beds to fill or gardens to make in the spring, will find this little pamphlet of great help to them.

CHRISTMAS TREES will be served at the Oak Street Advent Church, at Rittenberger's school house, on Terre Coupee Prairie, at Mr. James Case's, at Mr. H. J. Hall's, at the M. E. Church, at Mr. W. W. Smith's, at the Bakersville school house, at Mr. Wm. Roug's, at Mr. Ellis Clark's, at California school house in Lake township, and at Troy Station school house.

MR. THOMPSON, of Niles, ex-Secretary of the Berrien County Agricultural Society, was in this place yesterday distributing the annual report of the State Board of Agricultural. This book will have considerable interest in this place, because of its containing the proceedings of the institute held here.

THE serenading company that was out Tuesday night has our thanks for a portion of their fine music. Charley Diggins with his mouth organ and guitar (we don't know whether he plays anything else at the same time or not) is almost a whole band by himself. Come about three hours earlier next time, boys, and we will set out the apples and tap a pan of doughnuts, or pass around the hat in the orchestra and raise funds to buy some popcorn balls.

THE practice of drilling or punching holes in silver or gold coins is becoming quite prevalent, and needs attention. The banks and all cash-receiving departments of the Government have commenced their portion of the work by refusing to receive such debased coins, excepting at a discount proportionate to the size of the hole. This gives us but one way for others to do so, and that is to refuse them the same as is done by the banks. If the Government should mint the coin with a less amount of metal than was right, the refusal to accept them would be universal, and why should we sooner receive them from some person of a speculative turn who steals away the part.
