THE BROTHER LINK.

I know give up thy friendship—this is hard and bitter thing. But mine's a nature as true to me as the earth's soil.

THE BROTHER LINK.

Had this link by death been broken, oh, I would have wept for my brother's sake. And wept such tears as consecrate the memory of the dead!

A CARELESS WORD.

"It's all that awkward creature's fault," said Chrissy Vervain, impatiently. Miss Vervain had been shopping all day, and was tired and nettled.

SLANDER.

"The poison drop is in the forest, and from its noxious breath is borne As the drop of poison in the blossom's cup, so is slander on beauty's lip."

THE TICKET CLERK.

The public has long conceded that the powers of the hotel clerk are superior to that of the President. A new rival has sprung up in the railroad ticket agent, as was demonstrated at an Iowa station a few weeks ago.

THE TICKET CLERK.

"I want a ticket to B—," said a well known lady of the town, just before the train started. "Twenty-four cents," replied the agent, working his sausage machine.

THE TICKET CLERK.

"Is this a legal tender?" asked the lady, quietly. "Oh, yes," he answered, with mock gravity. "They are the mainstay of the republic."

THE TICKET CLERK.

"I don't know, mother," sobbed Elsie. "It's like a bad dream. There was a grand young lady there—one of Mrs. Golden's best customers—and her dress didn't fit, and she found fault with me."

THE TICKET CLERK.

"I don't know, mother," sobbed Elsie. "It's like a bad dream. There was a grand young lady there—one of Mrs. Golden's best customers—and her dress didn't fit, and she found fault with me."

THE TICKET CLERK.

Manager Piper was this morning called out of the box office of the opera house by a man who wanted to speak privately with him. They stepped over the top of the gallery stairs and Mr. Piper said:

THE TICKET CLERK.

"Vell, sir, what is it all about?" "I want to be engaged as a hatter."

THE TICKET CLERK.

"What line of business do you do best?" "I have a very particular line. I do everything pretty well. But there's one thing I should mention—"

THE TICKET CLERK.

"I don't know, mother," sobbed Elsie. "It's like a bad dream. There was a grand young lady there—one of Mrs. Golden's best customers—and her dress didn't fit, and she found fault with me."

General Grant is being liberally banqueted in Mexico. Vanderbilt owns $67,000,000 in United States bonds.

THE TICKET CLERK.

Beaconsfield's fortune was a small affair. Work on the test well at Cheboygan has begun.

THE TICKET CLERK.

The government is feeding 1,000 destitute people in and around Yankton. A new-born baby at Alliquewick, Utah county has a mouth full of teeth.

It is said that Mrs. Whitlaw Reid has a cash wedding present from pa, of $1,000,000.

THE TICKET CLERK.

Fred. Douglass is to be appointed recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia.

THE TICKET CLERK.

A report comes from Washington that civil service order No. 1 is to be openly and frankly abolished.

THE TICKET CLERK.

John Erving of Lancaster, Pa., valued the ear he lost in a fight at $5,000, and asks a jury for that amount.

THE TICKET CLERK.

Somebody who may have been watching him reports that Vanderbilt has just raked in $5,000,000 of our bonds.

THE TICKET CLERK.

Bernhardt sails for France May 11, and America will impatiently await the coming of the next huge humbug.

THE TICKET CLERK.

A Stubenville, Ohio, pistol-ball fired at a maple tree 60 feet distant rebounded and hit the marksman in the leg.

THE TICKET CLERK.

The deer catches who Cheboygan are being taught a salutary lesson. Seven of them have been found guilty and fined within a few days.

THE TICKET CLERK.

A state telephone exchange company has been formally organized in Detroit to connect the principal towns of Michigan telephonically.

THE TICKET CLERK.

A telephone has been melted down in New York city by having the current from an electric light turned into it through the accidental contact of the wires.

THE TICKET CLERK.

George Brine, king of the English tramps, died the other day in an English almshouse. He boasted that he had been in every jail and workhouse in England.

THE TICKET CLERK.

There is no better test of purity and true goodness than reluctance to think evil of one's neighbor, and absolute incapacity to believe an evil report about good men.

THE TICKET CLERK.

The Belgium telephone company have made arrangements so that any evening may be awakened at any hour of the next morning by means of a powerful alarm.

THE TICKET CLERK.

The street car and bus company horses of Chicago are being affected with swollen and discharging limbs, sometimes resulting fatally.

THE TICKET CLERK.

Edmund Yates, who is not a nervous man, says that he never sits in an English theater without a certain misgiving that, in case of fire, he would not get out alive.

Vessels Suspended in the Air.

A singular accident recently occurred at the Inverness or east coast, south lock of the Colindon canal, which resulted in the temporary closing of through canal navigation and in the wreck of two schooners.

The Future.

The way in which a man lives has a great deal to do with his views for the future. The man who is full of fear and the necessity of diminishing care, men get out of order by excessive industry.

The Umbrella Code.

To place your umbrella in a rack indicates that it is about to change owners. An umbrella carried over the woman, the man getting nothing but the drizzle of the day for his reward.

Obedient Orders.

Here is a telling bit of nonsense from the funny paper of Paris: At a fancy ball the mistress of the house summons a servant at the door by announcing the guests by their names as "Three musketeers," "A devil and a Hebe!" and so on.

COWSLIP greens are now fashionable diet.

Snow may still be found in this vicinity.

BARNTON'S show will be in St. Joseph July 5.

A few cases of scarlet fever still hold the fort in this place.

The village of St. Joseph reports herself out of debt. Happy people!

BENTON HARBOR and St. Joseph are now connected by Bell telephone.

BERRIEN county will receive $12,818.25 of the primary school fund for 1881.

PERCH fishing is now the principal sport with our St. Joseph friends.

The village of Buchanan was well filled with teams and people Saturday.

MRS. PHEBE E. POOLE is the new Postmistress at Bertrand, this county.

COLD nights, and pleasant but not very warm days have made up the past week.

A FIRE in Cassopolis Saturday night partly destroyed the foundry at that place.

MR. A. BOWEN, the popular hotel man of Dowagiac, was in this place on Saturday last.

SOON the festive house-fly will write his salutatory on the furniture as follows:

The school board have engaged Prof. Johnson to superintend the Buchanan schools for another year.

ALL who planted trees last Thursday, because it was Arbor day, hold up your hand. The nays have it.

A GOOD share of the oats crop is in and the work of preparing for the corn crop is now busying the farmer.

MRS. L. A. TANNER and her son, Silas George, spent a few days with friends in St. Joseph this week.

REV. H. WORTHINGTON and LADY were in this place for a visit among their old friends Saturday and Monday.

MR. GEORGE H. INGLEWRIGHT has bought the Churchill lot next west of the race, on Chicago street. Price $800.

The U. B. Church in this place are making considerable improvement in their building by way of new paper, paint, &c.

MR. H. C. STORM has bought the property of C. S. Black, on Oak street, opposite Roe & Kough's saw mill. Price $700.

MRS. HELEN EDDY has returned to Buchanan from the State of New York to spend the summer with her husband and daughter.

The Michigan Central Company intend building a fine new brick passenger house in Niles. A long needed improvement.

MR. ROBERT MEAD is getting his new house and barn, at the corner of Main and Fourth streets, well along towards completion.

"Doubling up" is the way families who move into Buchanan are being accommodated; two or more families occupying one house.

The work of cleaning up the gutters done in this place is a good one. Now a little attention paid to some of the alleys will be better.

An old man named Robert Brunden, of Berrien Spring, died Monday from the effect of a fall from a hay mow he received last week.

The large amount of agricultural implements in the streets looks like business, but they do not improve the appearance of the streets any.

N. O. FANSLER, of Grand Rapids, paid Buchanan a short visit on Saturday. Our people are always glad to see him among us.

EDWARD T. MOULTON, one of the pioneers of St. Joseph, died at that place Monday morning, of cancer of the stomach, aged 72 years.

HON. J. VAN RIVER started this morning for Washington, on business for the State, in the transfer of the Sault St. Marie canal.

MR. B. T. MORLEY is putting a new cellar under his house, and postmaster Alexander is serving his in the same way, but has his extend to the roof.

Mr. CROXON, who bought the Waite property on Detroit street, is making a decided improvement in the appearance and convenience of the house.

The Excelsior Manufacturing Company raised their smoke stack yesterday, and expect to be able to commence work about the middle of next week.

The Battle Creek Moon comes to us enlarged and with every appearance of being on the road to prosperity. M. E. Brown, the proprietor, is no slouch.

NILES CITY liquor dealers paid into County Treasurer Rough's hands, on Monday last, $3,200 tax for 1881-2. In Buchanan he gathered in $400 for the same purpose.

Mrs. HUBERT, who has been a severe sufferer for several weeks, was relieved by death on Tuesday morning, and was buried in Oak Ridge Cemetery on Wednesday.

WHEAT-FIELDS in this vicinity are considerably improving in appearance as spring advances, and there is a prospect that a fair average may yet be harvested.

The charter election of the village of St. Joseph was held on Monday, and resulted in the election of the entire Republican ticket, headed by Henry A. Truax for President.

The steamer May Graham came up to this place last Sunday and returned Monday morning. It is expected she will make regular trips to this place during the summer.

The narrow gauge locomotive made its first appearance for its coming work Saturday afternoon, and will now be kept in active employment in the management of the construction train.

When Mr. A. F. Ross gets his house on Front street completed those who have passed by there every day will hardly recognize the place, and there is some doubt about Frank knowing it himself.

ELD. GEO. SICKAFOOSE leaves Monday morning to attend the General Conference of the U. B. Church, which is to be held at Lisbon, Iowa. It is expected the session will last about four weeks.

BILLY ARLINGTON'S minstrels gave an entertainment in Rough's Opera House Thursday evening to a rather slim audience. Some of their local "gags" were probably not appreciated by the victims.

TRACKLAYING on the narrow gauge railroad commences again to-day after the winter's rest, and the grading being gotten out of the way so that no more stops will be necessary.

MR. A. BOWEN, the popular hotel man of Dowagiac, was in this place on Saturday last.

SOON the festive house-fly will write his salutatory on the furniture as follows:

The school board have engaged Prof. Johnson to superintend the Buchanan schools for another year.

MR. B. T. MORLEY is putting a new cellar under his house, and postmaster Alexander is serving his in the same way, but has his extend to the roof.

The township board have appointed Dr. F. H. Berrick as health officer for the ensuing year, granting those who employ a physician at the township expense the privilege of having the physician of their choice, subject always to the regulations of the board.

SHEEP-SHEARING festivals are fashionable in all parts of the State. The dogs had the grandest festival over the sheep in this part of the county. The trouble with them is the sheep are not worth quite so much after a good hungry dog has feasted on him for a while.

MR. SLEAR, of Niles, who has been managing a harness shop in the Binns building in this place, has found it impossible to conduct the two shops, on account of ill health, and has consequently moved his stock to Niles. Mr. A. C. Stevens has moved his stock to the building just vacated by Mr. Slear.

NILES people fire cannons, cast their flags to the breeze and shouted themselves hoarse when they received the news of the result of the election in the Indiana townships on the question of railroad aid. Don't blame them. If they can get the company to accept their bonds now for hard cash they are all right.

THE chairman of the committee on streets and sidewalks has given orders to have the walk at the front of F. M. Gray's lot on Front street removed, it being in a dangerous condition. He thinks the village does not want any more sidewalk suits. A new brick walk will probably replace the old one.

THE RECORD learns that the ten-year-old victim of Pinkerton, the rapist who was sent to Jackson penitentiary for ten years, at the last term of court in this county, has since died from the effect of the injuries she received at his hands.

AN exchange says some good people get terribly worried if a man breaks the commandments by working a little on Sunday, but they can look around six days of the week and never dream that they are violating a divine command. "Six days shalt thou labor" is just as imperative as "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

THE Bijou St. Cecilia concert company gave a first-class musical entertainment in Rough's Opera House Tuesday evening to a rather thin house. Their music was all of a high character, and the company composed of ladies and gentlemen, and we are sorry to see such entertainments so slightly patronized, as it has a tendency to drive all such away from the place.

WE learn that there are two or three prospective law suits lying in wait for the issue of the one just decided, in which the parties expect to claim damages for injuries received by falling on a sidewalk. There are not a half dozen towns in the State of this size that keep their sidewalks in better repair than does the village of Buchanan, and this is the consolation it bears us.

MONDAY was the day for all Michigan liquor dealers to make out their bonds for the year. In this place the amount of the bonds has been raised from $2,000 to $3,000. As will be seen from the proceedings in another column a special meeting was held in the Excelsior sanctuary Monday forenoon, for the purpose of acting on the bonds of those who expect to deal in liquors in this place. But two were presented and these approved.

AT nearly every entertainment in our public halls it is the custom for a lot of boys to occupy the back seats and instead of listening to the entertainment themselves they keep those around them from hearing anything by making all kinds of noises. We hope to be able to report that the Marshal has "snaked" a few of them out of the hall and put them in the village refrigerator. It appears nothing else will cool them down.

At the meeting last Sabbath the following persons were elected as officers of the Presbyterian Sunday School for the ensuing year: Superintendent, F. T. Plimpton; Assistant, Rev. J. D. McCord; Secretary and Treasurer, E. D. Alliger; Assistant, Miss Hattie Hahn; Librarian, J. P. Gyer; Assistant, Walter Hall; Choirister, J. H. Roe; Organist, Miss Katie Deering. The school has an average attendance of about 100, and has recently purchased a new library.

THE friends of the Mishawaka boys who were interested in the riot that place did all they could to induce Gov. Porter to either pardon them for committing the sentence; but after a careful examination of the evidence he decided that he could not interfere, and the boys went to Michigan City last Monday to commence their two years' service for the State. They will know better next time, undoubtedly.

THE last number of Harper's Weekly contained a good cartoon of the present nonsensical dead lock in the National Senate. It represents two bull dogs of about equal size, tied by the collar to the opposite ends of a rope, which is put loosely through a ring. A bone, labeled "Spoils," lies in front of them and just far enough away so that neither can get it without the other going back. The Republican dog is just a little ahead.

A CARD. To our many friends who so kindly assisted us in our great trials in the late sickness and death of our daughter, and to those dear friends of Katie, as well as our own, who contributed so largely in plain marks of love and respect, in exquisite floral offerings, and with willing hearts and hands, rendered every assistance in their power, in the last sad rites, to soothe our troubled hearts in the sorrows of our afflicted family, we tender our heartfelt thanks, and will ever cherish in our minds the unbounded sympathy so generally expressed and freely bestowed, as a mark of the high esteem our dear daughter was held in by all who knew her. To one and all who have been so kind in our trials and sad affliction, we ask to accept the sincere thanks of.

MR. AND MRS. GEO. H. RICHARDS AND FAMILY.

THE mills are all running with a full set of hands.

The M. C. R. Co. is putting in new cist tubing to connect the Renbarger spring with their tank.

The following officers were installed in the Good Templars' Lodge last Tuesday evening: W. C. T. Porter, Churhill; W. V. T. Miss Emma Norton; W. Sec. Andrew Shearer; W. Asst. Sec. Mrs. Vanderlin; W. F. S. Wm. Beach; W. Treas. T. N. Chilson; W. R. S. Miss Sarah Smith; W. L. S. Mrs. C. A. Clark; W. M. Peter Klauer; W. D. J. Miss Emma Hughes; W. L. G. Mrs. Harner; W. O. G. Siveus Washburn.

Almost a fire. Some one threw some ashes with live coals into the manure pile at Henry Bittler's barn. The dry straw soon took fire, and in less than no time the whole pile was in flames, but by prompt action it was extinguished. It would have been a little quicker but no surer, if those coals had been put into a keg of powder.

All danger is past, but it was feared at one time that Am. Robe had lost his mind by the way he laughed, chattered and talked to himself, and all for joy at the arrival of an eleven pound girl baby at his house.

Report comes to town that quite a fracas occurred near New Troy among some women about two pounds of flour.

The proprietors of the grist mill are enlarging their pond and putting in a new dam. This, however, does not stop business at the mill.

Our school has closed in good shape—with entire satisfaction. Miss Babcock desires through the Record to return her thanks to both patrons and scholars for their many acts of kindness to her while in their midst. Her sojourn here, and the many presents secured by her from her scholars will long be remembered and cherished.

A brand new whistle at the stove factory.

The hall occupied by the I. O. O. F. and the I. O. G. T. has been enlarged. They have now a large, commodious room.

Another baby on deck at Frank Delinger's, "and still there's more to follow."

Peter Critchett has moved on his farm near Gallen.

M. G. Owens has put up an upright to his house near the blacksmith shop. John Ingles is going to build a new house on his farm this season.

Runaway. One of G. A. Blakeslee's teams took fright at the mill whistle and just strung things for about one mile. One of the horses was somewhat injured.

It is hard to believe, but it is a fact. John Hutchinson has gone and got married. Who'd have thought it of him.

Most of the Odd Fellows of the 20th.

H. Huskins, our hotel man, has rented the hotel in Dayton and moved to that place. NIMROD.

One of the most terrible runaways happened at about 1 p. m. on Sunday last. Mr. John Andrews, of Buchanan township, with two of his little girls in the buggy with him, were coming from the German church; commencing to rain one of the girls opened her umbrella, which scared the horses, one being a colt, and they came tearing down through Main St. at a fearful rate, but Mr. Andrews being an extra good horseman, kept them in the road and over the iron bridge they went on a keen jump. In front of Mr. Gould's house, happily, the pole broke, which was the most fortunate thing that could happen, and they were all thrown out but were not hurt to any great extent.—Niles Mirror.
