ED. BIRD tried to fire a revolver Sunday. It went off, and then there was a hole in his skin, but no serious damage, other than a fright, done. They are fine playthings, usually.

BUCHANAN contains one man who smokes so much that he has worn a hole three inches long through his thick corduroy pants where he scratches with his matches.

THERE is a demand on the part of the attorneys in the Bunbury bondsmen case for a trial of that case. It looks as if they had not had enough out of it. Too good a case to allow to be settled.

For the benefit of the health of those who spend the greater part of their time down town, there are a few privies and cess-pools in various parts of the business parts of town that should be removed. The attention of the village health officer is called specially to the fact.

THERE will be a neekie social at Mount Tabor Grange Hall next Saturday evening. Proceeds to go to the treasury of the Grange. It is a jolly people who live in that neighborhood, and they always have a good time at such gatherings.

FOURTH of JULY will visit Diamond Lake too. The Faragut Boat club of Chicago will have a regatta there on that day, and Mr. Fred Moon, the proprietor, has engaged the Little Mack Celebrated Minstrel and Specialty Company, from the Academy of Music in Chicago, to give two or three entertainments on the island.

THE scholars of the Presbyterian Sunday School will give a picnic on Friday next, down toward Berrien on narrow gauge. You are requested to bring your dinners. Meet on Front street crossing at 12:30 P. M., instead of 10 A. M. A special train will bring us back at 7 P. M.

AT the last meeting of the Board of Supervisors there was more business performed than at any other single session in ten years. They cleared the county of all cases of litigation, settled up the Bunbury case, the Tate defalcation case, and paid off the debt of the county contracted in 1876, to raise funds to build the court house, and which amounted to about $3,300, besides the ordinary routine of county business.

IN view of the fact that there is to be a celebration of Independence Day in Buchanan, would it not be advisable for the Common Council, at its meeting to-morrow evening, to appoint a number of special police to serve on that day, and whose duty it shall be to keep a look-out for fire, and care for miscreants; give each a regular beat to look after, and make that his special and only charge? We have not been visited by any disastrous fires in a long time, and it is not now a time that we want to be. A little extra care taken in time may be far better than a fight by the fire company.

IN the Daily Gazette of Dallas, Texas, in an account of the commencement exercises of the Dallas Male and Female College, we find the following mention of a former Buchanan girl, who has strayed a long way from her old home:

"The reading contest resulted in honors to Miss Rena Willard. A finely-wrought gold medal was presented to her by Mr. Paul F. Erb, of Dallas. The three contestants for this medal strove with splendid pluck and talent, and the reporter congratulates himself that he was not called upon to decide the matter. This was the best amateur reading ever given in Dallas."

AT a meeting of the Executive Committee Monday evening, the following were elected officers of the day for the Fourth of July celebration in this place:

President—Hon. J. J. Van Riper.
Orator—Capt. E. P. Allen, of Ypsilanti.
Reader—Nathan Johnson.
Marshal—Maj. Samuel Wells.
Chaplain—Rev. J. McCord.
Vice Presidents—Buchanan, Geo. H. Richards; Niles township, Burton Jarvis; Niles City, D. B. Cook; Weasaw, Hon. Alonzo Sherwood; Bertrand, Samuel French; Gallien, Geo. A. Blakeslee; Oronoko, Judge A. B. Leeds; Berrien, Hon. Thos. Mars; Three Oaks, Hon. Wm. Chamberlain.

NEXT to newspaper men these traveling medicine men make the most money for the capital invested of anybody we know of. One struck this city last week. He had a banjo and could sing like a male cat on a ridge pole. He acted as he sold a worm medicine that could knock a worm cold at the drop of the hat. His sales Saturday were $57, and he undoubtedly could buy the whole mess back to-day for 57 cents. Such is life.—Dowagiac Times.

THE same chap struck this town and found more wormy men than one would have thought were in the whole county. "It keeps getting sучer and sучer all of the while."

A CASE of extreme hideousness occurred in Gallien last Friday. A young chap named Henry E. Smith made a wager of $1 that his team could out-pull a team belonging to Geo. DeVoe. The teams were hitched together by fastening the emvers together, and the pulling commenced. Smith's team took the start of the other and he whipped up to a brisk walk and pulled DeVoe's team over on their backs, and then drew them along the gutter, injuring them quite badly. Smith was arrested and fined $4 and costs for cruelty to animals. Altogether too cheap. There was nothing said about his being drunk.

PEPPERED.—John Aldrich appears to be getting used to being used as a target. A few years ago he was fooling with a revolver and the bullet went into his leg just above his knee, and followed the leg down to near the ankle. At another time a charge of shot was sent through his hat when he was on his head, and at another he found them in his boot heel, and Sunday evening he received another bit of practice of this kind in form of a charge of twenty or twenty-five "BB" shot in both legs, above and below the knee, from a shot gun in the hands of James Madron, who had the gun laying across his lap and was handling the hammer in what proved to be a careless manner. Dr. Dodd dressed the wound, and Aldrich lives to be a target for some other fellow who doesn't know any more than this one has proven to.

BUCHANAN is getting patriotic. A grand old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration is contemplated there, which we hope may prove a success. Niles is not in the least jealous if you do have a good time and a grand hurrah.—Niles Democrat.

We didn't expect you would be. But come over and be sociable, and we'll try to make your visit pleasant. Turn out as Buchanan does when you have any meetings of importance, and we will be sure of a crowd. We are going to have a first-class speaker, good music, fine amusements, and may be able to set out something for you to eat while you are being merry. Can't promise anything rich in that line as we are not wealthy, having just begun to grow, but the best we have will be at command.

BILL'S CORNERS ITEMS.

June 22, 1881.

ED. RECORD.—Mail will leave here for the first, carried by the United States, next week Saturday.

The Odd Fellows' picnic held at New Troy June 16, by Weasaw Lodge No. 340, was one of the most pleasant gatherings ever witnessed in New Troy.

Eld. Worthington, of Dowagiac, was speaker of the day, and it would be wasting time to comment on the oration, but suffice it to say, it was a success long to be remembered.

One of the most pleasant gatherings of this vicinity took place last evening in the church, in the form of a strawberry festival, the proceeds to be used towards erecting the new church.

Strawberries, cake and lemonade, together with music and laughter, were dished out lively till a late hour, (Peter Smith enjoyed himself) when it was brought to a close by selling what remained at auction, resulting in a jolly good time. Thanks are due the ladies for preparing and decorating the church and for the interest taken by them during the evening. Proceeds of the evening nearly $20.

GALLIEN ITEMS.

The mill-dam of Glover & Son gave way last Monday. This is the second time it has done this. They will be ready to run again in a few days, for they will have it fixed so that it will stay next time.

It is very healthy in this vicinity. Our doctors look hungry.

Cornwell & Miller have just completed a well at their shop for the purpose of filling and washing boilers which they have repaired.

The muzzling of dogs in our village has created quite a sensation. One would think to hear some of our people talk, that they were half dog themselves.

The shooting at an unmuzzled dog by our marshal has brought out the following lines:

Hullet had a little pep,
He was afraid it would go mad,
And as it would not stay at home,
It made him feel quite sad.

It followed him down town one day,
When Jolly Peller Miller quack
Shot fifteen cartridges away,
And then killed him with a brick,
Go FEDE.
