

most or make us afraid, for the old guard still lives to protect, defend and sustain the Union of these States.

These brave officers to all we say, welcome three to this reunion of the soldiers and sailors of the Union Army and Union Navy, and to this our village and to these our hospitable homes.

RESPONSE BY COL. W. M. McILVAIN. CITIZENS OF BUCHANAN: In behalf of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Association of South-Western Michigan...

REUNION JOTTINGS. We had the promise of the manuscript of Col. O. T. Beard's oration, but as that is all we have seen of it, cannot give our readers the pleasure of its perusal this time.

For genuine hospitality Buchanan people "take the cake" and generously distribute it.—South Bend Tribune. A number of speakers and others who were expected to be present were kept away by unavoidable circumstances.

The "vets" all joined in giving words of praise for the commissary department. They had a good table well loaded with rations, well cooked and served in good style.

Major Soule, of Jackson, offered a resolution of thanks to Gov. Jerome for the use of the State tents. The liberality with which those who provided provisions for the commissary department is to be commended.

It takes a pile of provision to feed 2,000 people three days, but there was an abundance and to spare. The commissary thought to have his department complete and ordered a few cases of hard tack, intending to have it here for dinner Thursday, but unfortunately it did not reach town until Friday afternoon.

This is what the reporter of the South Bend Tribune saw at the reunion: "Buchanan has more pretty women and girls than any town of its size in the State."

One thing to be noticed was the comparative freedom from drunkenness in the immense crowd that was here Thursday. The peace and quiet was the subject of remark.

HOW THEY SAW BUCHANAN AND THE REUNION. We leave it to our neighbors to tell how well the Reunion was managed on the part of the citizens of Buchanan.

BUCHANAN, July 26.—The Third Annual Reunion of the Union Soldiers and Sailors of South-Western Michigan closed here to-day, according to programme. The first Reunion of the Association, in 1878, was held at Diamond Lake, and the second at 35 miles from Niles, but the third held here surpassed them all.

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion at Buchanan, Mich., on Thursday last, was a highly creditable affair, and an immense crowd of people were assembled from all parts of the State as well as from Indiana, and as far as we can learn everything passed off satisfactorily, and all were well pleased at the reception and entertainment given by the people of Buchanan.

The Soldiers' Reunion at Buchanan on Aug. 25 was the most imposing affair ever held in the State. There were 1,375 veterans and 100,000 people on the grounds. There was a grand parade in which a section of the famous Loomis battery was exhibited, and 80 wall tents were pitched in a beautiful meadow adjoining the village.

The boys were delighted with the commissary arrangements, than which nothing could be more perfect in detail and in the details of the menu. The people generally of Buchanan spared no efforts or expense to entertain and please, for which they deserve credit.

The Soldiers' Reunion at Buchanan is proving more of a success than any had anticipated. It is estimated that 12,000 people are in attendance, and 200,000 people are expected to see the people of Buchanan generally on the consideration shown their guests.—Benton Harbor Express.

The reunion of soldiers and sailors at Buchanan, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, was a success beyond the expectations of all. On the first day 900 veterans were enrolled, and on Thursday 1,375 veterans were enrolled. This is admitted to have been the largest reunion ever held in South-Western Michigan.

The annual reunion of the South-Western Michigan Soldiers' and Sailors' Association at Buchanan, Mich., has been an immense success. Dr. R. P. James of this place, who was connected with the advance department, reported 1,395 soldiers registered up to last evening, besides those to come to-day.

We passed a few hours Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning in the camp of the soldiers of south-western Michigan, at Buchanan. The village was beautifully decorated, many of the advance department, reported 1,395 soldiers registered up to last evening, besides those to come to-day.

Dr. Goodwin, of Cassopolis, had his pocket picked while returning from the reunion. He lost his pocketbook containing $3 in money, and $365 in notes and bank checks, which are useless to any one but the doctor.

THE PRESIDENT. Since the last issue of the RECORD the reports of the condition of the President have been quite varied. Friday he was reported to be failing and the physicians proposed to give the case up as hopeless, but Mrs. Garfield gave them to understand that they should do nothing of the kind so long as there was life remaining.

WE are informed that it is the intention of the St. Joseph Valley Railroad Company to commence work on the extension of their line, between Berrien Springs and St. Joseph, about the 10th of this month, if the St. Joseph people succeed in raising the necessary aid by that time, of which there is now a good prospect. If the work can be commenced then, the train can be running into St. Joseph this fall by sharp work.

A NUMBER of years have passed since this county has been visited with so severe a drouth as the present. The last rain fell here four weeks ago last Saturday—thirty-three days. The late potato crop is ruined past all redemption, corn will be short, grapes are ripening ahead of their time, apples are withering and falling from the trees, and the damage done in other ways is no inconsiderable matter.

THE undersigned wish to tender their thanks to those who tendered their assistance at the fire in their house, on Monday, for the care used in handling the goods and in extinguishing the flames.

FIRE broke out in the shed kitchen adjoining Mrs. Clarke's house on Main Street, Monday afternoon, but in about four minutes from the first alarm the fire company had a stream of water playing on the fire, and in about half an hour longer it was out. Damage about $10 or $15.

FIFTY houses that would cost $400 each to build might be rented for $7 per month in this place as fast as they could be built. Not a week passes but we hear from one to a dozen inquiries for houses to rent, and none to supply the demand. There is but little chance for a town to grow in number of inhabitants, unless there are houses provided for the people to live in, and such houses are the ones to look for, doing such work.

A CARD OF THANKS. I wish to return my sincere and heart-felt thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who solicited rations for the Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion, recently held in Buchanan, and to the many citizens of Berrien county for their liberal donations of subsistence, many of whom without solicitation, sent in large quantities of provisions; also to the many ladies of Buchanan and vicinity, who, through their unceasing efforts, made the cooking and serving a grand success. Space forbids naming the many in each department who deserve special mention, but all of whom will be remembered as kind, generous, noble and patriotic people. H. H. KINVOY, Commissary.

THE Potage Prairie Sunday School held a festival and picnic in Wm. R. Rough's grove on Wednesday, Aug. 31. The festivities passed off very pleasantly so that every one seemed delighted and satisfied. IN another part of this paper John Morris gives the latest news. His article occupies a quarter column.

A RIFLE of excitement was recently caused, in South Bend, by Harry Hans attempting to horsewhip a reporter. He struck the reporter one or two cuts across the face with a rawhide, but the first he knew small bits of lead were flying uncomfortably close to his body, and Hans beat a hasty retreat. Both were arrested, Hans paid about $15, fine and costs, and the reporter nothing. Mrs. Hans had the pleasure of mending one bullet hole in Harry's coat.

THE St. Joseph Valley Railroad gave an excursion to Berrien Springs and return Saturday afternoon, charging 25 cents for the round trip. About 200 went and all had a good time, there being nothing to mar excepting the actions of a few drunken roughts who ought not to be allowed to appear in any public gathering until they can learn to behave themselves with some degree of decency. The conductor of that road needs to study the laws of the State of Michigan regarding the powers of conductors to protect his passengers from insult, and then put some of it in practice on such occasions.

EDITOR RECORD—If you were a stranger in Buchanan and vicinity, and had been passing by the residence of Mr. John M. Platts Monday evening, August 22, you would have thought surely something uncommon was going on there. Your attention would have first been called, perhaps, to the illumination of the house and grounds; and while lingering to admire that, you would have heard the hum of human voices in pleasant conversation or joyous laughter. And then as you drove on you might have wished that you were not a stranger here, and that you were enjoying the occasion with the rest. But you are no stranger here, and you may know all about what was taking place at the residence of Mr. Platts on that evening; but some of your readers may wish to know about it. Well, Mr. and Mrs. Platts had been married just fifteen years, and they concluded to call in their friends and have a good time, which they accordingly did. About one hundred persons were present, and the unanimous verdict was that the occasion was a very enjoyable one. The following is a list of the presents received:
