CLOSING CHURCHES.

At the doorway stood the Devil, feeling that his head was level. And he watched a midnight revel, where the lights were dim.

CLOSING CHURCHES.

"Everything is lovely," said he, "soon the parsons stand and steady. Will be glad to make ready for their annual summer spree."

CLOSING CHURCHES.

This to me a splendid treat is, when the annual sheep drive is on. Or a dreary morning finds the shepherds from the fold.

CLOSING CHURCHES.

It hung above the chimney-piece in the whitewashed parlor of the little Carolina country inn—the portrait of a young girl, in a simple dress and straw hat.

CLOSING CHURCHES.

Who was the original, I now began to wonder? It was clearly a portrait, and the painting still so fresh that it could have been taken but within a few years.

CLOSING CHURCHES.

"His name? Well, I done enmost forgot it. He come round to my cabin once and made a picture of my pigs and chickens."

CLOSING CHURCHES.

"Oh, you know whose portrait it is?" I inquired. "Well, I can't say I do. We found it here with the rest of the furniture."

CLOSING CHURCHES.

"The Tyrells of Marsden county." The words seemed to present so direct a clue, that with a sort of romantic enthusiasm, I took it up.

CLOSING CHURCHES.

I turned from the open window, and lay down on the old horse-hair sofa, facing the picture. I tried to read a newspaper, but the black eyes over the chimney-piece smiled down at me.

Host and Guest in England.

The universal deference paid to a man's right to himself in England makes social duties well as social pleasures.

Host and Guest in England.

I returned slowly to the farm house at which I had engaged a night's lodging. I dropped at the result of my search, I made one more attempt, by inquiring of my host, at supper, if he could tell me what had become of the Tyrell's former house-keeper, Mrs. Brown, and her daughter, Rosey.

Host and Guest in England.

I had now a double inducement; for the fair Rosey was an heiress, and also, as appeared from her retaining her name of Brown, yet unmarried.

Host and Guest in England.

After our early supper I repaired to the sofa, and sitting myself on the sofa, I was long at the window, watching the moon rise.

Host and Guest in England.

I glanced from her thin, sallow visage into the picture above, involuntarily contrasting the one with the other. The sudden idea occurred to me. Dorkey had heard Mr. Davis mention Rosey, and Miss Mandy, being Davis' kinswoman, might know something about her.

Host and Guest in England.

"Miss Mandy, did you ever know of a young lady of the name of Rosey Brown?" She looked up quickly, and pursed her lips into a demure smile.

Host and Guest in England.

"Don't go to sleep. Don't bring the baby with you. Don't sing if you don't know how. Don't sit down on your new silk hat. Don't stay home on collection Sunday."

Host and Guest in England.

"Don't give your religion in the pocket of your Sunday coat. Don't try to make children sit still as Egyptian mummies. Don't be an active talker in church matters unless you are an active worker."

Host and Guest in England.

"Don't do any inward swearing if a fly spits on your chin. Don't stare every girl in church out of countenance because some girls like it. Don't take a sneezing fit if you can help it. Don't try to make children sit still as Egyptian mummies. Don't be an active talker in church matters unless you are an active worker."

Origin of Three Expressive Words.

It is a curious thing, remarks the Fall Mail Gazette, that three of the most expressive words in the English language should be added to it, if not by Irishmen, at least by men belonging by residence or descent to the west of Ireland.

The lake that has the highest elevation of any in the world is Green Lake in Colorado. Its surface is 10,252 feet above the level of the sea.

There will not be room enough out doors for the gathering to be held at Beaver Dam, Pa., next Thursday—a reunion of the Smith family. A Kentucky farmer has astonished the natives by refusing to sell his corn to a distillery for the purpose of whiskey making.

It is reported that the late Geo. W. Higgs, the banker, left $2,000,000 to found a charitable institution. A Louisville mother advertises in a newspaper for prayers for the recovery of her sick child.

Origin of Three Expressive Words.

In Chicago a day has been fixed in 1882, after which all telegraph wires must go under ground. Work proceeds on the Panama Canal under great difficulties. Yellow fever has played dread havoc among the workmen.

Origin of Three Expressive Words.

The past month was the hottest August since 1872, and the rainfall was less than for any August during ten years. Secretary Windom has given his decision that there is no law for the redemption of mutilated United States coins, and that the holder must sell them as bullion and lose the clipping or drilling.

Origin of Three Expressive Words.

A purely love match is such a novelty in New York that the Times spent one-third of a column in discussing its phrases, and the Chicago Tribune copies the article. The United States does more telegraphing than any other two countries in the world.

Origin of Three Expressive Words.

Col. J. E. Peyton, of the Yorktown Centennial Commission, has received a letter from the Marquis de Rochambeau, stating that he and Mme. Rochambeau will leave Havre for the United States on the 24 inst. to participate in the centennial celebration. Prince's Bay, one of the chief oyster grounds from which New York is supplied, is seriously threatened with a scarcity of the bivalves, owing to millions of mussels attaching themselves to their shells. A Kentucky man has been married in the same house and by the same minister to four sisters. He is looking around for another able-bodied family when he runs through the one now in hand. A London druggist, sentenced to pay a fine and undergo a month's imprisonment for selling spirits without a license, hired another man for $2 to go to prison in his stead, but was greatly disgusted because the court would not consent to this novel arrangement. "Denis, my boy," said a school master to his Hibernian pupil, "I fear I shall make nothing of you—you've no application." "An' sure enough, sir," said the quiet-witted lad, "it's myself that's always been tould there is no occasion for it? Don't I see every day in the newspapers that 'No Irish need apply' at all, at all?" Not Healthy.—A rather seedy-looking customer came into a restaurant on Austin avenue, and said to the proprietor, "What do you ask for nice cooked breakfast, well done with onions?" "Twenty-five cents," and the grumpy? "Oh, you don't charge any for the gravy?" "You don't! That's liberal. How much do you charge for bread?" "We throw in the bread." "Is it good bread?" "It is." "So you throw in the bread and gravy?" "Certainly." "Then bring me some bread and gravy." "It's not healthy to eat meat in summer.—Texas Siftings. Different Views of It.—"If we only had a fine house like that," sighed Mrs. Cheerybody as she clung lovingly to her husband's arm while they stepped along on their evening stroll, "how happy we would be." "I only know," sighed a weary female figure, seated at the door of the mansion, "the happiness that shines on that little woman's face I would consent to be a beggar.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser. Something Good in the Paper.—"Morning" said Fogg to the editor of the Matutinal Marauder. "Yes," said the editor inquiringly, his face lighting up with a glow of pleasure. "I suppose you refer to my leader on the situation?" Fogg shook his head. "Or perhaps, it was that neat paragraph about the Bungtown railroad?" "No," said Fogg, "it was a paragraph of breakfast. Neatest thing I ever saw in the Marauder, upon honor.—Boston Transcript.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1881.

The drouth is seriously injuring the cotton crop.

Since August 26 the receipts of gold from Europe amount to $3,259,000.

The Virginia tobacco crop is reported short on account of the drouth.

The Evening News reports a 32 pound baby in Washington.

Sojourner Truth has taken the job of saving the city of Chicago. She is pretty old to commence on so extensive a job.

Congressman Hendricks B. Wright, of Pennsylvania, died at his home in Wilkesbarre last Friday, aged 73 years. He was one of the leading lights in greenbackism in Congress.

It requires all of the military power of Russia to protect the Czar from being murdered by his own subjects, and then they hardly succeed in doing so. What a happy state of affairs!

On Monday last Governor Jerome issued a Proclamation for a day of public prayer throughout the State, for the restoration to health of President Garfield, setting aside the Sept. 10 A. M. to 12 M. of to-day, Sept. 8, for that purpose.

The Richmond State sends a Philadelphia allusion to the lack of educational facilities in the south. It says there are better facilities for the education of the poor in the south than in the north, "and if there isn't, it's none of your business." Getting mad!

Major Daniel, the bourbon candidate for governor of Virginia, is the same man who, in a speech at Greensboro Court House, N. C. last year, advised the girls to ostracize young Republicans, and have nothing to do with them in any way. The suggestion was lost for the young Republicans were so good looking that the girls followed them instead of the advice. 'Twas ever thus.

The National debt was reduced by $14,181,921 during the month of August. The total cash in the Treasury Sept. 1 was $240,498,788. There was also in the Treasury $5,400,920 in gold certificates, and $57,878,310 in silver certificates. The legal-tenders outstanding at date amount to $346,681,016. There were coined at the United States mints during the month $11,565,500, of which $2,300,000 were standard dollars.

The Evening News distributed in this place this morning gives fearful accounts of the devastating forest fires in the northeastern part of this State. It reports the towns of Tyle, Deckersville, Bad Axe, Verona Mills, Elk Creek, Richmondville and Cato burned, and Forestville on fire and going rapidly. The underbrush, sawdust and rubbish are dry as tinder, and the stiff north wind that has been blowing there has fanned the flames, giving them a fearful impetus. At least 100 persons are known to have been burned to death in Sanilac county alone, and many families are missing, of whom it is impossible to know their fate. The destruction is equal, if it does not exceed, that of the dry season of 1871. The loss of property will reach nearly a million dollars, and is mostly that of poor people and who have no insurance. A call for assistance is being responded to in more fortunate parts of the State in contribution of provisions and money.

The President was moved from the White House, Monday morning, to a cottage at Long Branch, by a train arranged for the purpose, making the distance 228 miles in 280 minutes. The train was made up with engine in the rear to push the train ahead of it, thus avoiding the dust, smoke and cinders. The President stood the ride quite well, appearing better at the last than at the first end of the journey, and has since been on the gain. Following is the Inter Ocean's report of the case given this morning:

With the disadvantage of having to endure one of the hottest days of the season at Long Branch, it is not surprising that the President has made but very slight progress. The high state of fever of Tuesday night abated before midnight, and the pulse yesterday morning had diminished to 106. At noon it rose to 114, and his temperature also increased 10 degrees. The thermometer in the sick room was 94 degrees at 3:30. As the evening dressing the wound appeared favorable, and the paroid gland was also doing well. The physicians express themselves well pleased with the progress of the President thus far, and look for more decided results with the advent of cooler weather. In accordance with the wishes of the patient, Drs. Reburn, Barnes, and Woodward have withdrawn from the case. At 1 o'clock this morning the President's fever had abated, the temperature being normal, and he was resting quietly.

HOW THEY SAW BUCHANAN AND THE REUNION.

The following notes of the reunion have come to our office since the last issue of the Record:

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion at Buchanan last week was a success in every sense of the word. Some 1,400 soldiers were enrolled, and not less than 20,000 people were present. The rations, orations and decorations were all of highest order. Soldiers who attended the Reunion of '81 will remember the hospitality of the good people of Buchanan long after the more incidently remembered have passed from memory.—Berrien Springs Era.

The Soldiers' Reunion was a grand success. Buchanan looked beautiful in her holiday attire, and the people did all in their power to make every one happy, and we believe they succeeded well. The speaking was excellent and was attentively listened to by thousands. 1,400 soldiers were enrolled. The number of people present would probably reach 5,000, and all enjoyed themselves exceedingly. Great credit is due to the people of Buchanan for the successful efforts made to have all satisfied.—Atlas Mirror.

Any abridged account of the third annual reunion of the soldiers' and sailors' Association of South-western Michigan must fall far short of doing

THREE OAKS ITEMS.

September 5, 1881.

We were blessed with a shower Sunday morning for which we are very thankful.

Peter Strehle and wife will return from the north this week. Reports are favorable as to the health of Peter. We are glad to hear this as he is one of our best citizens.

Rumor has it that one of our popular young men is to be married soon. School commenced to-day with full attendance. Following are the teachers: J. S. Johnson, Principal; Miss May Haler, Intermediate; Miss Ellen Kenny, Primary; Miss Maggie Whitehead, North School. Quite a number of foreign scholars attending this fall which speaks well for our principal.

Miss Tina Churchill takes charge of the primary department at Galien for the ensuing year.

Miss Nettie Shufelbarger, of Madison, Minn., formerly of this place, is visiting her many friends here. She will depart Wednesday for Detroit, stopping here again about the first of October.

Wheat continues to come in at this place quite rapidly. Prices improving, $1.39 at this writing.

Miss Libbie Rhinehart, of Cass county, is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. Dr. Sovereign.

Miss Upton, of Big Rapids, has been giving instructions in painting to quite a number of our young people for the past two weeks. They speak very highly of her attempts as a teacher and artist.

Dr. J. T. Salter, who has been quite ill for two months past, is improving quite rapidly.

Master Howard Martin is much better, will be able for business soon.

Rumors of a Temperance Billiard Hall here soon.

E. K. Warren left this morning for Chicago.

We notice a new sign, Chamberlain & Hatfield, bargain gives.

Messrs Chamberlain & Hatfield have a new clerk of the female persuasion, Miss Stevens.

Our ex-editor, Mr. Wilcox, is talking of starting a writing school. Hope he may succeed.

Wm. Chamberlain is still in the east. Master J. Chamberlain, who has been visiting relatives here this summer, started for his home, Boston, on Tuesday.

Our Sun continues to shine with added lustre to its original brilliancy. Joshua Chatterton and lady start for a visit to New York this week.

There does not appear to be the usual amount of sickness this fall in this vicinity.

THE RAILROAD ITEMS.

The railroad company are putting in a new bridge at this depot for unloading grain. It will be a great improvement over the old one.

Doc. Woolley has bought the old passenger house of the M. C. R. R. Co., and parties from Buchanan are moving it for him onto his lot, in the north of the village.

Mr. Editor, it is a fact, and facts cannot be denied. It wasn't just one, as generally happens, nor two, as sometimes happens; but it was three, and all boys—triplets, that came to Jake Jackson's house last week. Who can beat that, or wants to? Mr. and Mrs. Jackson have had seven children born to them at three births.

School commenced last Monday, with Mr. A. Hall as principal, and Miss Tina Churchill as primary teacher.

John Beckwith, of Weesaw, is slowly recovering from the effects of his fall through the trap door in his barn. George Blakeslee has gone to Council Bluffs for his health.

Perry Grotche has got a new carriage, so has Peter Critch, likewise Alma Blakeslee.

Only three restaurants in this place now.

Mrs. Wm. Swank died at her residence, 3/4 miles south of Galien, on Sunday morning, Sept. 4. Funeral services were held at the house on Monday afternoon.

Konrad Luther has sold his farm to Geo. Roberts. Mr. Luther will go to Texas.

Robert Alcott is building a splendid new barn on Second street.
